Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G

(Including Instructions for Forms 1099-A, 1099-B,
1099-DIV, 1099-G, 1099-INT, 1099-MISC, 1099-OID, 1099-PATR, 1099-R, 1099-S, and 5754)

(Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.)

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for the information on these forms to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file the following forms will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average times are:

1099-A . . . . .	10 minutes
1099-B . . . . .	15 minutes
1099-DIV . . . . .	14 minutes
1099-G . . . . .	12 minutes
1099-INT . . . . .	12 minutes
1099-MISC . . . . .	14 minutes
1099-OID . . . . .	10 minutes
1099-PATR . . . . .	11 minutes
1099-R . . . . .	20 minutes
1099-S . . . . .	8 minutes
1098 . . . . .	7 minutes
5498 . . . . .	7 minutes
1096 . . . . .	10 minutes
W-2G . . . . .	19 minutes

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making these forms more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, DC 20224, Attention: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, T:FP; and the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1545-0112), Washington, DC 20503. DO NOT send these tax forms to either of these offices. Instead, see Where To File on page 5.

Items You Should Note

Use Form 1096 To Send Forms to the IRS

Copies A of all paper Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G must be transmitted to the IRS with Form 1096, Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns. Instructions for completing Form 1096 are contained on Form 1096.

Form 1098—Reimbursement of Overpaid Interest

New box 3, Refund of overpaid interest, was added to the 1993 Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, for you to report any reimbursement (refund or credit) of interest overpaid by the payer of record in a prior year. See Reimbursement of Overpaid Interest on page 9. That information is based on Proposed Regulations section 1.6050H-2, 1992-44 I.R.B. 34, and Notice 92-60, 1992-52 I.R.B. 18.

Form 1099-B—Agricultural Commodities; Precious Metals

For information on reporting agricultural commodities on Form 1099-B, Proceeds From Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions, see items 10 and 11 under "No return is required by brokers for:" on page 12.

Sales of precious metals in a quantity less than that required to satisfy a Commodity Futures Trading Commission-approved regulated futures contract are not subject to reporting on Form 1099-B. See item 12 under "No return is required by brokers for:" on page 12.

Form 1099-MISC—Coin-Operated Amusements

For information on whether the owner of coin-operated amusements or the owner of the space where the amusements are placed must report lease payments on Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, see Coin-operated amusements on page 16.

Form 1099-R—New Codes for Direct Rollovers, Excess Annual Additions Under Section 415, and Charitable Gift Annuities; New Boxes for State and Local Distributions; and Other Changes

To implement the requirement of Temporary Regulations section 31.3405(c)-1T Q/A-12 to report direct rollovers, the 1993 Form 1099-R, Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc., contains two new distribution codes for use in box 7. They are:

G—Direct rollover to IRA.

H—Direct rollover to qualified plan or tax-sheltered annuity.

Also see Direct Rollovers and Transfers on page 20.

Direct rollovers also must be reported on Form 5498, Individual Retirement Arrangement Information.

In addition, the form contains new Code E, Excess annual additions under section 415, to allow payers to comply with the requirements of Rev. Proc. 92-93, 1992-47 I.R.B. 13. New Code F, Charitable gift annuity, was also added to designate the distribution of a charitable gift annuity. See Excess Annual Additions... on page 20 and Charitable Gift Annuities on page 19.

A new mandatory 20% withholding is required for an eligible rollover distribution that is not a direct rollover. See Box 4 on page 21 for details.

Within a reasonable period of time before making an eligible rollover distribution, a plan administrator must provide the recipient with a written explanation of options and rules under section 402(f). See Explanation to Recipients Before Eligible Rollover Distributions (Section 402(f) Notice) on page 20.

Boxes 12 and 15 were added to the form for payers to indicate the amount of the distribution for state or local tax purposes. The use of these boxes is optional.

Other changes have been made to the Form 1099-R instructions including instructions for the reporting of:

1. Nonqualified plan distributions to beneficiaries.
2. Charitable gift annuities (new distribution Code F).
3. Section 1035 exchanges.
4. Excess annual additions under section 415 (new distribution Code E).

Information on the IRS program for contacting missing plan participants was also added.

See the Form 1099-R instructions that begin on page 19.

Form 1099-S—New Box for Purchaser's Real Estate Tax

The Energy Policy Act of 1992 amended section 6045(e)(4) to require filers of Form 1099-S, Proceeds From Real Estate Transactions, to report any real estate tax treated as imposed on the purchaser for real estate transactions involving a residence. For this purpose, new box 5, Buyer's part of real estate tax, was added to the form. See Form 1099-S later.

Form W-2G—28% Withholding Rate; $5,000 Threshold

The Energy Policy Act of 1992 amended section 3402(q) to change the withholding rate on gambling winnings from 20% to 28% for payments made after 1992. For certain gambling winnings, including winnings from horse racing and sweepstakes, regular gambling withholding was not required unless the amount paid was more than $1,000. The Act raises that $1,000 threshold to $5,000. See Form W-2G later.

Backup Withholding Rate Increase

The Energy Policy Act of 1992 amended section 3406(a)(1) to change the backup withholding rate from 20% to 31% for payments made after 1992.

REMINDER—Substitute Statements to Recipients

The IRS is concerned that some payers who are not using the official IRS form (generally Copy B) to furnish substitute statements may be using substitute statements that do not comply with the rules in Pub. 1179, Specifications for Paper Document Reporting and Paper Substitutes for Forms 1096, 1098, 1099 Series, 5498, and W-2G. Pub. 1179, which is revised annually, is a revenue procedure that explains the requirements for format and content of substitute statements to recipients. If you are using a substitute form to furnish information to recipients, it must comply with the requirements in Pub. 1179.

Guide to Information Returns

See the chart on pages 29 and 30 for a brief summary of information return reporting rules.

Answers to Your Information Reporting Questions

The IRS operates a centralized call site to answer questions about reporting on information returns—Forms 1096, 1098, 1099, 1042-S, 5498, W-2, W-2G, and W-3. You can get answers to your questions whether you are a paper filer or a magnetic media filer. If you have questions related to reporting on any of these forms, you may call 304-263-8700 (not a toll-free number) Monday through Friday from 8:30 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. eastern time.

Current Tax Information

The Internal Revenue Bulletin (IRB), published weekly, contains newly issued regulations, as well as notices, announcements, legislation, court decisions, and other items of general interest. You may find this publication useful to keep you up to date with current developments. The IRB is sold by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402, and is available on a subscription basis. To order the IRB, you can write to the Superintendent of Documents or call 202-783-3238 (not a toll-free number).

Backup Withholding

Interest, dividends, rents, royalties, commissions, nonemployee compensation, and certain other payments (including broker and barter exchange transactions, and certain payments made by fishing boat operators) may be subject to backup withholding at a 31% rate. To be subject to backup withholding, a payment must be a reportable interest or dividend payment under section 6049(a), 6042(a), or 6044 (if the patronage dividend is paid in money or qualified check), or a reportable other payment under section 6041, 6041A(a), 6045, 6050A, or 6050N. If the payment is one of these reportable payments, backup withholding will apply if:

1. The payee fails to furnish his or her taxpayer identification number (TIN) to you, OR
2. The IRS notifies you to impose backup withholding because the payee furnished an incorrect TIN, OR
3. You are notified that the payee is subject to backup withholding (under section 3406(a)(1)(C)), OR
4. For interest and dividend accounts opened or instruments acquired after 1983, the payee fails to certify to you, under penalties of perjury, that he or she is not subject to backup withholding under 3 above, OR
5. For interest, dividend, broker, or barter exchange accounts opened or instruments acquired after 1983, or broker accounts considered inactive in 1983, the payee fails to certify, under penalties of perjury, that the TIN provided is correct.

Except as explained in 5 above, reportable other payments are subject to backup withholding only if 1 or 2 above applies.

Some payees are exempt from backup withholding. For a list of types of exempt payees and other information, please see Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification.

Real estate transactions reportable under section 6045(e) are not subject to backup withholding.

Generally, the period for which the 31% should be withheld is as follows:

1. Failure to furnish TIN in the manner required.—Withhold on payments made until the TIN is furnished in the manner required. Special backup withholding rules apply if the payee has applied for a TIN. The payee may certify to this on Form W-9 by noting “Applied For” in the TIN block and by signing the form. This form then becomes an “awaiting-TIN certificate,” and the payee has 60 days to obtain a TIN and furnish it to you. For information about whether backup withholding applies during the 60-day period, see Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-59A. If you do not receive a TIN from the payee within 60 days and you have not already begun backup withholding, begin backup withholding and continue until the TIN is provided.
2. Notice from the IRS that payee’s TIN is incorrect (“B” notice).—You may elect to withhold on any reportable payment made to the account(s) subject to backup withholding after receipt of the “B” notice, but you must withhold on any reportable payment made to the account more than 30 business days after you received the “B” notice. Stop withholding within 30 days after you receive a certified Form W-9 (or acceptable substitute).

Note: The IRS will furnish a notice to you, and you are required to promptly furnish a copy of such notice, or an acceptable substitute, to the payee. For further information, see Regulations section 31.3406(d)-5 and Rev. Proc. 92-32, 1992-1 C.B. 776.

If you receive two incorrect TIN notices within 3 years for the same account, follow the procedures in Regulations section 31.3406(d)-5(g) and Rev. Proc. 92-32.

3. Notice from the IRS that payee is subject to backup withholding due to notified payee underreporting.—Start withholding on payments made on the 31st day after the date you receive notification from the IRS, or you may elect to withhold any time before the 31st day. The IRS will notify you in writing when to stop withholding, or the payee may furnish you a written certification from the IRS stating when withholding is to stop. In most cases, the stop date will be January 1 of the year following the year of the notice.

Note: You must notify the payee when withholding under this procedure starts. For further information, see Temporary Regulations section 35a.3406-2.

4. Payee failure to certify that he or she is not subject to backup withholding.—Withhold on reportable interest and dividends until certification has been received.

For exceptions to these general timing rules, see section 3406(e).

Note: For information about backup withholding on gambling winnings, see the Specific Instructions for Form W-2G for the specific type of gambling winnings, later.

Reporting and Payment of Backup Withholding.—Backup withholding must be reported on Form 941, Employer’s Quarterly Federal Tax Return, or Form 941E, Quarterly Return of Withheld Federal Income Tax and Medicare Tax. For more information, see the instructions for Form 941 or 941E.

Additional Information.—For more information about backup withholding, see Temporary Regulations sections 35a.9999-1, 2, and 3, and 35a.3406-1 and 2.

Penalties

The following penalties generally apply to the person required to file information returns. The penalties apply to paper filers as well as magnetic media/electronic filers.

Failure To File Correct Information Returns by the Due Date (Section 6721)

If you fail to file a correct information return by the due date and you cannot show reasonable cause, you may be subject to a penalty. The penalty applies if you fail to file timely, you fail to include all information required to be shown on a return, or you include incorrect information on a return. The penalty also applies if you file on paper when you were required to file on magnetic media, you report an incorrect TIN or fail to report a TIN, or you fail to file paper forms that are machine readable.

The amount of the penalty is based on when you file the correct information return. The penalty is:

- $15 per information return if you correctly file within 30 days (by March 30 if the due date is February 28); maximum penalty $75,000 per year ($25,000 for small businesses, defined later).
- $30 per information return if you correctly file more than 30 days after the due date but by August 1; maximum penalty $150,000 per year ($50,000 for small businesses).
- $50 per information return if you file after August 1 or you do not file required information returns; maximum penalty $250,000 per year ($100,000 for small businesses).

Exceptions to the Penalty.—

1. The penalty will not apply to any failure that you can show was due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

2. An inconsequential error or omission is not considered a failure to include correct information. An inconsequential error or omission does not prevent or hinder the IRS from processing the return, from correlating the information required to be shown on the return with the information shown on the payee's tax return, or from otherwise putting the return to its intended use. Errors and omissions that are never inconsequential are those relating to (a) a TIN, (b) a payee's surname, and (c) any money amounts.

3. De Minimis Rule for Corrections.—Even though you cannot show reasonable cause, the penalty for failure to file correct information returns will not apply to a certain number of returns if:

- a. You filed those information returns,
- b. Either you failed to include all the information required to be shown on a return or you included incorrect information, and
- c. You filed corrections of these information returns by August 1.

If you meet all the conditions in a through c, the penalty for filing incorrect returns (but not for filing late) will not apply to the greater of 10 information returns or ½ of 1% of the total number of information returns you are required to file for the calendar year.

Lower Maximum Penalties for Small Businesses.—For purposes of the lower maximum penalties shown in parentheses above, you are a small business if your average annual gross receipts for the most recent 3 tax years (or for the period you were in existence, if shorter) ending before the calendar year in which the information returns were due are $5 million or less.

Intentional Disregard of Filing Requirements.—If any failure to file a correct information return is due to intentional disregard of the filing and correct information requirements, the penalty is at least $100 per information return with no maximum penalty.

Failure To Furnish Correct Payee Statements (Section 6722)

If you fail to provide correct payee statements and you cannot show reasonable cause, you may be subject to a penalty. The penalty applies if you fail to provide the statement by January 31 (see part H under General Instructions, later), you fail to include all information required to be shown on the statement, or you include incorrect information on the statement. "Payee statement" has the same meaning as "statement to recipient" as used in part H under General Instructions.

The penalty is $50 per statement, regardless of when the correct statement is furnished, with a maximum of $100,000 per year. There is no reduction in the penalty for furnishing a correct statement by August 1.

Exception.—An inconsequential error or omission is not considered a failure to include correct information. An inconsequential error or omission cannot reasonably be expected to prevent or hinder the payee from timely receiving correct information and reporting it on his or her income tax return or from otherwise putting the statement to its intended use. Errors and omissions that are never inconsequential are those relating to (a) a dollar amount, (b) a payee's address, (c) the appropriate form for the information provided (i.e., whether the form is an acceptable substitute for the official IRS form), and (d) whether the statement was furnished in person or by "statement mailing," when required.

Intentional Disregard of Payee Statement Requirements.—If any failure to provide a correct payee statement is due to intentional disregard of the requirements to furnish a correct payee statement, the penalty is at least $100 per payee statement with no maximum penalty.

Forms 1099-R and 5498

The penalties under sections 6721 and 6722 do not apply to Form 1099-R, which is filed under section 6047. The penalty for failure to timely file Form 1099-R is $25 per day with a maximum of $15,000 per year. See section 6652(e).

The penalties under sections 6721 and 6722 do not apply to Form 5498, which is filed under section 408(i). The penalty for failure to timely file Form 5498 is $50 per return with no maximum. See section 6693.

Caution: Congress has considered, and may consider again, legislation that would apply the penalties under sections 6721 and 6722 to Forms 1099-R and 5498.

Magnetic Media/Electronic Reporting

Magnetic media reporting may be required for filing all information returns discussed in this publication. Acceptable forms of magnetic media are magnetic tape, tape cartridge, 3½-, 5¼-, and 8-inch diskette.

Pub. 1220, Specifications for Filing Forms 1098, 1099, 5498, and W-2G Magnetically or Electronically, is the revenue procedure for magnetic media and electronic reporting, available at Internal Revenue Service district offices. Different types of payments, such as interest, dividends, and rents, may be reported on the same tape or other submission.

Note: Filing electronically will satisfy the magnetic media filing requirements. Any reference to magnetic media in these instructions includes electronic filing.

Due Dates.—The due dates for magnetic media reporting are the same as for paper document reporting.

Extension of Time To File.—For information about requesting an extension of time to file, see part B under General Instructions, later.

Caution: If you file on magnetic media, do not file the same returns on paper.

Who Must File on Magnetic Media.—If you are required to file 250 or more information returns, you must file on magnetic media. The 250-or-more requirement applies separately to each type of form. For example, if you must file 500 Forms 1098 and 100 Forms 1099-A, you are not required to file Forms 1099-A on magnetic media, but you must file Forms 1098 on magnetic media.

Note: Even if you are not required to file on magnetic media, the IRS encourages you to do so. Also, you may file electronically even if you are not required to file on magnetic media.

The magnetic media filing requirement does not apply if you apply for and receive an undue hardship waiver. See How To Request a Waiver From Filing on Magnetic Media, later.

Filing Requirement Applies Separately to Originals and Corrections.—The magnetic media filing requirements below apply separately to original returns and corrected returns. Originals and corrections are not aggregated to determine whether you are required to file on magnetic media. For example, if you file 400 Forms 1098 on magnetic media and you are making 75 corrections, your corrections can be filed on paper because the number of corrections for Form 1098 is less than the 250 filing requirement. However, if you were filing 250 or more Form 1098 corrections, they would have to be filed on magnetic media.

How To Get Approval To File on Magnetic Media.—File Form 4419, Application for Filing Information Returns Magnetically/Electronically, at least 30 days (45 days for some electronic filing) before the due date of the returns. Only one Form 4419 need be filed for all types of returns that will be filed on magnetic media. Once you have received approval, you need not reapply each year. The IRS will provide a written reply to the applicant and further instructions at the time of approval, usually within 30 days. A magnetic media reporting package, which includes all the necessary transmittals, labels, and instructions, will be mailed to all approved filers.

How To Request a Waiver From Filing on Magnetic Media.—To receive a waiver from the required filing of information returns on magnetic media, submit Form 8508, Request for Waiver From Filing Information Returns on Magnetic Media, requesting an undue hardship waiver from filing on magnetic media. You cannot apply for a waiver for more than 1 tax year at a time. If you need a waiver for more than 1 tax year, you must reapply at the appropriate time each year.

If a waiver for original returns is approved, any corrections for the same types of returns will be covered under the waiver. However, if you submit original returns on magnetic media but you want to submit your corrections on paper, a waiver must be approved for the corrections if the corrections exceed the 250 filing requirement.

Waiver requests generally must be filed at least 45 days before the due date of the returns. However, new brokers and new barter exchanges may request an undue hardship waiver by filing Form 8508 by the end of the second month following the month in which they became a broker or barter exchange.

If you are seeking, in a single application, approval for filing returns on magnetic media and, if approval is not granted, a waiver from the magnetic media filing requirement, submit both Forms 4419 and 8508.

If you receive an approved waiver, do not send a copy of it to the service center where you file your paper returns. Keep the waiver for your records only.

Penalty.—If you are required to file on magnetic media but fail to do so, and you do not have an approved waiver on record, you may be subject to a penalty of $50 per return for failure to file information returns on magnetic media unless you establish reasonable cause. However, you can file up to 250 returns on paper; those returns will not be subject to a penalty for failure to file on magnetic media.

The penalty applies separately to original returns and corrected returns. See Filing Requirement Applies Separately to Originals and Corrections, earlier.

Paper Document Reporting

---

If you are required to file 250 or more information returns, see Magnetic Media/Electronic Reporting, earlier.

Common Errors.—Please be sure to check your returns to prevent the following common errors:

1. Duplicate filing. Sending the same information to the IRS more than once.

2. Filer's name, address, and taxpayer identification number are not the same on Form 1096 and Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, or W-2G.

3. Decimal point to show dollars and cents omitted (1000.00).

4. Two or more types of returns submitted with one Form 1096 (e.g., Forms 1099-INT and 1099-MISC with one Form 1096). You must submit a separate Form 1096 with each type of document.

5. Entering "-0-" or "None" in money amount boxes when no entry is required. Leave the boxes blank unless the instructions specifically require that you enter a zero.

6. Failure to make an entry in box 1a, "Gross dividends and other distributions on stock," on Form 1099-DIV. An amount must be entered in box 1a if any amount is entered in box 1b, 1c, 1d, or 1e.

Required Format.—Because paper forms are read by machines (optical character recognition equipment), all Forms 1096, 1098, 1099, and 5498 must be prepared in accordance with the following instructions. If these instructions are not followed, you may be subject to a penalty of $50 per incorrectly filed document.

1. DO NOT CUT OR SEPARATE the forms that are printed three to a sheet, or Forms 1099-R, which are two to a sheet. Forms 1098, 1099, and 5498 are printed three to an 8- by 11-inch sheet. Form 1096 is printed one to an 8- by 11-inch sheet. These forms must be submitted to the IRS on the 8- by 11-inch sheet. If at least one form on the page is correctly completed, you must submit the entire page.

Send the forms to the IRS in a flat mailing (not folded). Note: Large envelopes may require extra postage.

2. NO PHOTOCOPIES of any forms are acceptable. Official forms are available from your IRS district office.

3. DO NOT STAPLE, tear, or tape any of these forms. It will interfere with the IRS's ability to scan the documents.

4. Pinfeed holes on the form are NOT acceptable. Pinfeed strips outside the 8- by 11-inch area must be removed before submission, without tearing or ripping the form. Substitute forms prepared in continuous or strip form must be burst and stripped to conform to the size specified for a single sheet (8 by 11 inches) before they are filed with the IRS.

5. DO NOT change the title of any box on any form. Do not use a form to report information that is not properly reportable on that form. If you are unsure of where to report the data, call 304-263-8700 or your local IRS office.

6. Report information only in the appropriate boxes provided on the forms. Make only one entry in each box unless otherwise indicated in these instructions.

7. DO NOT submit any copy other than Copy A to the IRS.

8. DO NOT use prior year forms unless you are reporting prior year information; do not use subsequent year forms for the current year. Because forms are "read" by machine, you MUST use the current year form to report current year information.

9. Use the official forms or substitute forms that meet the specifications in the 1993 Pub. 1179, Specifications for Paper Document Reporting and Paper Substitutes for Forms 1096, 1098, 1099 Series, 5498, and W-2G. If you submit substitute forms that do not meet the current specifications and that are not machine scannable, you may be subject to a penalty of $50 for each return for improper format.

10. DO NOT use dollar signs ($) (they are preprinted on the forms), ampersands (&), asterisks (*), commas (,), or other special characters.

Suggested Format.—Below are suggestions that will allow the IRS to process the submitted forms in the most economical manner:

1. Type or machine print data entries using 10 pitch (pica) or 12 pitch (elite) black type. Use block print, not script characters. Entries should not be handwritten. Insert data in the middle of the blocks well separated from other printing and guidelines, and take other measures to guarantee a dark black, clear, sharp image.

2. You may use the account number box for an account number designation. This number must not appear anywhere else on the form, and this box may not be used for any other item. Showing the account number is optional. However, it may be to your benefit to include the recipient's account number on paper documents if your system of records uses the account number rather than the name, social security number, or employer identification number for identification purposes. If you furnish the account number, the IRS will include it in future notices to you about backup withholding. If you are using window envelopes to mail statements to recipients, and if you are using reduced rate mail, be sure the account number does not appear in the window because the Postal Service may not accept these for reduced rate mail.

3. Do not enter number signs (#); for example, enter Rt. 2, not Rt. #2.

General Instructions

---

A. Who Must File.—See the Specific Instructions for each form.

Nominee/Middleman Returns.—Generally, anyone receiving a Form 1099 for amounts that actually belong to another person should file a Form 1099 showing the actual owner as the recipient and the nominee as the payer. The nominee, not the original payer, is responsible for filing the subsequent Forms 1099.

Mergers.—If two corporations merge and the surviving corporation becomes the owner of all the assets and assumes all the liabilities of the absorbed corporation, the reporting requirements explained in this publication will be met if the surviving corporation files Forms 1098, 1099, 5498, and/or W-2G for reportable payments of both corporations. See Rev. Rul. 69-556, 1969-2 C.B. 242.

For information on filing Form 1099-INT for a successor/predecessor corporation, see Form 1099-INT, later.

Payments to Foreign Persons.—See the Instructions for Forms 1042 and 1042-S, relating to U.S. source income of foreign persons, and for reporting requirements relating to payments of income items to foreign persons.

B. When To File.—File Form 1096 and Forms 1098, 1099, or W-2G by February 28, 1994. Brokers may file Forms 1096 and 1099-B anytime after the reporting period they elect to adopt (month, quarter, or year), but not later than February 28, 1994. File Form 1096 and Forms 5498 by May 31, 1994. See part H later about providing Forms 1098, 1099, 5498, and W-2G or statements to recipients.

Reporting period.—Forms 1098, 1099, and W-2G are used to report amounts received, paid, or credited during the calendar year. Form 5498 is used to report amounts contributed for the calendar year.

Extension.—For paper or magnetic media filing, you may request an extension of time to file by sending Form 8809, Request for Extension of Time To File Information Returns, to the address shown on the form. You must request the extension by the due date of the returns for your request to be considered. If your request for an extension is approved, you will have an additional 30 days to file. You may request an additional extension. See Form 8809.

Note: If you are a magnetic media transmitter requesting extensions of time for more than 50 payers, you are encouraged to submit the extension requests on tape or diskette. For instructions on submitting extension requests on magnetic media, see Pub. 1220.

C. Where To File.—Send all information returns filed on paper to the following:

If you have no legal residence, principal place of business, or principal office or agency in any Internal Revenue district, file your return with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

Send all information returns filed magnetically/electronically to IRS-Martinsburg Computing Center, P.O. Box 1359, Martinsburg, WV 25401-1359.

D. Filing Returns With the IRS.—The IRS strongly encourages the quality review of data before filing to prevent erroneous notices being mailed to payees (or others for whom information is being reported).

If you must file any Form 1098, 1099, 5498, or W-2G with the IRS, and you are filing paper documents, you must send a Form 1096, Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns, with each type of form as the transmittal document. You must group the forms by form number and submit each group with a separate Form 1096. For example, if you file Forms 1098, 1099-A, and 1099-MISC, complete one Form 1096 to transmit Forms 1098, another Form 1096 to transmit Forms 1099-A, and a third Form 1096 to transmit Forms 1099-MISC. Specific instructions for completing Form 1096 are included on Form 1096. Also see Transmitters, paying agents, etc., later. For information about filing corrected returns, see Corrected and Void Returns, later.

If you are filing on magnetic media, Form 4804, Transmittal of Information Returns Reported Magnetically/ Electronically, must accompany your submissions.

For information on the preparation of transmittal documents for magnetic media and paper document reporting (Forms 4804 and 1096), see Rev. Proc. 84-24, 1984-1 C.B. 465, or other current revenue procedure.

If you use paper forms, report payments on the appropriate form, as explained in the Specific Instructions, later.

See Pub. 1179 on specifications for private printing of information documents. You may not request special consideration. Only forms that conform with the official form and the specifications in Pub. 1179 are acceptable.

Transmitters, paying agents, etc.—A transmitter, service bureau, paying agent, or disbursing agent (hereafter referred to as "agent") may sign Form 1096 or 4804 on behalf of any person required to file (hereafter referred to as "the payer") if the conditions in items 1 and 2 below are met:

1. The agent has the authority to sign the form under an agency agreement (oral, written, or implied) that is valid under state law, and

2. The agent signs the form and adds the caption "For: (Name of payer)."

Signing of the form by an authorized agent on behalf of the payer does not relieve the payer of the liability for penalties for not filing a correct, complete, and timely Form 1096 or 4804 and accompanying returns.

Forms 1098, 1099, 5498, W-2G, or other statements to recipients issued by a service bureau or agent should show the same payer's name as shown on the information returns filed with the IRS.

For information about the election to report and deposit backup withholding under the agent's TIN and how to prepare forms if the election is made, see Rev. Proc. 84-33, 1984-1 C.B. 502 (Pub. 1272).

E. Shipping and Mailing.—If you are sending many forms, you may send them in conveniently sized packages. On each package write your name and TIN, number the packages consecutively, and place Form 1096 in package number one. Postal regulations require forms and packages to be sent by First-Class Mail.

F. Recipient Names and Taxpayer Identification Numbers.—Taxpayer identification numbers (TINs) are used to associate and verify amounts reported to the IRS with corresponding amounts on tax returns. Therefore, it is important that you furnish correct names, social security numbers (SSNs) or employer identification numbers (EINs) for recipients on the forms or magnetic media sent to the IRS.

Use Form W-9 to request the recipient's TIN. (You may be subject to a penalty for an incorrect or missing TIN. See Penalties on page 2.) You are required to maintain the confidentiality of information obtained on Form W-9 relating to the taxpayer's identity (including SSNs), and you may use such information only to comply with the tax laws.

Note: *If the recipient does not provide a TIN, leave the box for providing the TIN to the IRS blank on the Form 1098, 1099, 5498, or W-2G. See Backup Withholding on page 2. Only one recipient TIN can be entered on the form.

The TIN for individual recipients of information returns is the social security number. But see the information about sole proprietors below. For other recipients, including corporations, partnerships, and estates, it is the EIN.

SSNs have nine digits separated by two hyphens (000-00-0000), and EINs have nine digits separated by only one hyphen (00-0000000).

Show the full name and address in the section provided on the return. If payments have been made to more than one recipient or the account is in more than one name, show as the ONLY name on the first name line the name of the recipient whose TIN is shown on the return. Show the names of any other individual recipients in the area below the first line, if desired. Form W-2G filers see Form 5754, later.

For sole proprietors, show the individual's name on the first name line; on the second name line, you may enter the business name. You may not enter only the business name. For the TIN, enter either the individual's SSN or the EIN of the business (sole proprietorship).

G. Filer's Name, Identification Number, and Address.—The TIN for filers of information returns, including sole proprietors and nominees/middlemen, is the Federal EIN. However, sole proprietors and nominees/middlemen who are not otherwise required to have an EIN should use their social security numbers. A sole proprietor is not required to have an EIN unless he or she must file excise or employment tax returns. See Pub. 583, Taxpayers Starting a Business.

The filer's name and TIN should be consistent with the name and number used on the filer's other tax returns. The name of the filer's paying agent or service bureau must not be used in place of the name of the filer.

To obtain an EIN, file Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, with the IRS. If you do not have your EIN by the time you must file information returns, enter "Applied For" in any space where the number must be entered.

Include the room, suite, or other unit number after the street address.

H. Statements to Recipients (Borrowers, Participants, Payers/Borrowers, Transferors, or Winners on Certain Forms).—Be sure that the statements you provide to recipients are clear and legible.

If you are not using the official IRS form to furnish statements to recipients, see Pub. 1179, Specifications for Paper Document Reporting and Paper Substitutes for Forms 1096, 1098, 1099 Series, 5498, and W-2G, for specific rules about providing "substitute" statements to recipients. A substitute is any statement other than Copy B (generally) of the official form. You may develop them yourself or buy them from a private printer. However, the substitutes must comply with the format and content requirements specified in Pub. 1179.

Different rules apply to furnishing statements to recipients depending on the type of payment you are reporting and the form you are filing. See the heading below for the type of payment you are reporting. The headings are (1) Interest, dividend, and royalty payments; (2) Real estate transactions; and (3) Other payments.

Interest, dividend, and royalty payments.—For payments of dividends or interest (including original issue discount) under section 6042, 6044, or 6049 (reported on Forms 1099-DIV, 1099-PATR, 1099-INT, or 1099-OID), you are required to furnish an official or substitute Form 1099 to a recipient either in person or in a statement mailing by First-Class Mail. Payers of royalties are also required to furnish the statement in person or in a statement mailing by First-Class Mail, but the statement need not be the official form. Statements may be sent by intraoffice mail if you use intraoffice mail to send account information and other correspondence to the recipient.

Statement mailing requirement for Forms 1099-DIV, 1099-INT, 1099-OID, and 1099-PATR only.—The statement mailing requirements apply only to Forms 1099-DIV (except for section 404(k) dividends), 1099-INT (except for interest reportable under section 6041), 1099-OID, and 1099-PATR. In addition to Forms W-2, W-8, W-9, or other 1098, 1099, and 5498 statements, the following enclosures are permitted in a statement mailing: (1) a check, (2) a letter explaining why no check is enclosed, (3) a statement of the person's account reflected on Form 1099, and (4) a letter limited to an explanation of the tax consequences of the information shown on a recipient statement.

A recipient statement may be perforated to a check with respect to the account reported on the recipient statement or to a statement of the recipient's specific account if payments on such account are reflected on the recipient's statement. The check or account statement to which the recipient statement is perforated must contain, in a bold and conspicuous type, the legend "Important Tax Return Document Attached."

No additional enclosures, such as advertising, promotional material, or a quarterly or annual report, are permitted. Even a sentence or two on the year-end statement describing new services offered by the payer is not permitted. However, logos are permitted on the envelope and on any enclosures.

For a statement mailing, the legend "Important Tax Return Document Enclosed" must appear in a bold and conspicuous manner on the outside of the envelope and on each letter, or check or account statement that is not perforated to the recipient statement. This legend is not required on any tax form, tax statement, or permitted letter of tax consequences included in a statement mailing. Further, you need not pluralize the word "document" in the legend simply because more than one recipient statement is enclosed.

Note: If you provide recipient statements in a "separate mailing" that contains only recipient statements, Forms W-8 and W-9, and a letter limited to the explanation of the tax consequences of the information shown on a recipient statement included in the envelope—you are not required to include the legend "Important Tax Return Document Enclosed" on the envelope.

Substitute forms.—You may furnish to the recipient Copy B of the official form, or you may use substitute Forms 1099-DIV, 1099-INT, 1099-OID, and 1099-PATR if they contain the same language as the official forms and you comply with the procedures in Pub. 1179, relating to substitute Forms 1099. Applicable box captions and numbers must be clearly identified, using the same wording and numbering as the official form. However, for Form 1099-INT, if your substitute does not contain box 3, "Interest on U.S. Savings Bonds and Treas. obligations," you may omit "not included in box 3" from the box 1 caption.

If you are using substitutes, the IRS encourages you to use boxes so that the substitute has the appearance of a form. The substitute form must contain the applicable instructions as on the front and back of Copy B of the official form. See Pub. 1179 for additional requirements. For information about substitute Form 1099-MISC for royalties, see Other payments, below.

Real estate transactions.—You must furnish a statement to the transferor containing the same information reported to the IRS on Form 1099-S. You may use Copy B of Form 1099-S or a substitute form that complies with Pub. 1179 and Regulations section 1.6045-4(m). You may use a Uniform Settlement Statement (under RESPA) as the written statement if it is conformed by including on the statement the legend shown on Form 1099-S and by designating which information is reported to the IRS on Form 1099-S. You may furnish the statement to the transferor in person or by mail, but you do not have to meet the statement mailing requirements explained above. Furnish the statement at or after closing but by January 31 of the following year.

Other payments.—Statements to recipients for Forms 1098, 1099-A, 1099-B, 1099-G, 1099-MISC, 1099-R, 5498, W-2G, 1099-DIV only for section 404(k) dividends reportable under section 6047, or 1099-INT only for interest reportable under section 6041 need not be, but can be, a copy of the paper form filed with the IRS. If you do not use a copy of the paper form, all information (including box numbers) required to be reported must be titled on the substitute in substantially the same manner as on the official form. However, if you are reporting a payment as an "etc." item in box 3 of Form 1099-MISC, "Prizes, awards, etc.," you may substitute appropriate explanatory language for the box title. For example, for payments of accrued wages to a beneficiary of a deceased employee required to be reported on Form 1099-MISC by Rev. Rul. 86-109, you might change the title of box 3 to "Beneficiary payments" or something similar.

Appropriate instructions to the recipient, similar to those on the official form, must be provided to aid in the proper reporting of the items on the recipient's income tax return. For payments reported on Form 1099-B, rather than furnish appropriate instructions with each Form 1099-B statement, you may furnish to the recipient one set of instructions for all statements required to be furnished to a recipient in a calendar year.

The statement mailing requirements explained earlier do not apply to statements to recipients for payments reported on Forms 1098, 1099-A, 1099-B, 1099-G, 1099-MISC, 1099-R, 5498, W-2G, 1099-DIV for section 404(k) dividends only, and 1099-INT for interest reportable under section 6041 only. You may combine the statements with other reports or financial or commercial notices, or expand them to include other information of interest to the recipient. Be sure that all copies of the forms are legible.

Certain "composite" statements are permitted. See Pub. 1179.

Time for furnishing forms or statements.—Generally, you must provide Forms 1098, 1099, and W-2G information by January 31 of the following year. However, you may issue them earlier in some situations, as provided by the regulations. For example, you may furnish Form 1099-INT to the recipient on redemption of U.S. Savings Bonds at the time of redemption. Brokers and barter exchanges may furnish Form 1099-B anytime but not later than January 31.

Trustees or issuers of IRAs or SEPs must provide participants with a statement of the value of the participant's account by January 31. IRA contribution information must be furnished to the participant by May 31.

For real estate transactions, you may furnish the statement to the transferor at closing or by mail on or before January 31.

Filers of Form 1099-G who report state or local income tax refunds, credits, or offsets must furnish the statements to recipients during January of the following year.

If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the due date is the next business day.

Extension.—You may request an extension of time to provide the statements to recipients by sending a letter to IRS-Martinsburg Computing Center, P.O. Box 1359, Martinsburg, WV 25401-1359 or to your district director. The letter must include (a) your name, (b) your TIN, (c) your address, (d) type of return, (e) reason for delay, and (f) the signature of the payer or authorized agent. Your request must be postmarked by the date on which the statements are due to be furnished to recipients. If your request for an extension is approved, you will be granted an extra 15 days to furnish the recipient statements.

I. Corrected and Void Returns.—If a return has been incorrectly prepared and submitted to the IRS, you must file a complete corrected return as soon as possible. To determine whether you are required to submit corrected returns on magnetic media, see Magnetic Media/Electronic Reporting, earlier. All boxes must be completed on the appropriate forms with the correct information, not just the boxes needing correction. Submit Form 1096 and Copies A of corrected forms to the appropriate service center as soon as possible. If you are making corrections on magnetic media, see Pub. 1220.

Note: If you fail to file correct information returns, you may be subject to a penalty. See Failure To File Correct Information Returns by the Due Date (Section 6721), on page 2.

Statements to the recipient (etc.) identified as corrected must be provided to them as soon as possible.

On all Forms 1098, 1099, and 5498, a box is provided for the account number. If the account number was provided on the original return, use this number on the corrected return to help identify the appropriate incorrect return filed when more than one return was filed for a particular individual. The account number may be a checking account number, savings account number, serial number, or any other number assigned to the payee by the filer that is unique and will distinguish the specific account. This number must appear on both the original and corrected returns to properly identify and process the correction.

DO NOT CUT or separate the forms that are two or three to a page. The entire page must be submitted.

A Form 1096 must be used to transmit all paper forms including corrections. Do not staple the paper forms to Form 1096. Use a separate Form 1096 for each type of return being corrected.

CORRECTED box.—Enter an "X" in the "CORRECTED" box on Copy A only when you are correcting a form you previously submitted to the IRS. Enter an "X" in the "CORRECTED" box on the copies you give to the recipient (generally, Copy B) only when you are correcting a form previously furnished to the recipient.

VOID box.—If a completed or partially completed Form 1098, 1099, or 5498 is incorrect and you want to void it, enter an "X" in the "VOID" box at the top of the form. For example, if you make an error while typing or printing a form, you should void it. The return will then be disregarded during processing by the IRS. Go to the next form on the page, or to another page, and enter the correct information; but do not mark the "CORRECTED" box.

Caution: An "X" in the "VOID" box will not correct a previously filed information return.

The following chart gives step-by-step instructions for filing corrected returns for three of the most frequently made errors. Correction of errors may require the submission of more than one return. Be sure to read each section thoroughly.

Note: Regulations section 301.6724-1 (relating to information return penalties)

does not require you to file corrected returns for missing or incorrect TINs if you meet the reasonable cause criteria. You are merely required to include the correct TIN on the next original return you are required to file. However, if you do not meet the reasonable cause criteria, you should file corrected returns by August 1 to be subject to a reduced penalty.

In addition, even if you meet the reasonable cause criteria, the IRS encourages you to file corrections for incorrect or missing TINs so that the IRS can update the payees' records.

Guidelines for Filing Corrected Returns on Paper Forms

Error (on Original Return)	How To File the Corrected Return on Paper Forms
1. No payee TIN (SSN or EIN) or incorrect payee TIN, or incorrect name and address. This will require two separate transactions to make the correction properly. Read and follow all instructions for both Transactions 1 and 2.	TRANSACTION 1: Identify incorrect return submitted. A. Form 1096: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Error (on Original Return)      How To File the Corrected Return on Paper Forms

B. Form 1098, 1099, 5498, or W-2G:

1. Prepare a new information return(s).
2. Do NOT enter an "X" in the "CORRECTED" box at the top of the form(s). Submit the new return(s) as though it was an original.
3. Include all the correct information on the form including the correct TIN and name and address.
4. File Form 1096 and Copies A of the returns with the appropriate service center. You MUST NOT use the same Form 1096 used in Transaction 1.
5. Do NOT include copies of the original return(s) that was filed incorrectly.

2. Incorrect money amount(s) or incorrect address. (Follow the instructions under Error 1, instead of these instructions, if you must correct an address AND a name or TIN.)

A. Form 1096: Follow the instructions under Error 1, Transaction 1-A.

B. Form 1098, 1099, 5498, or W-2G:

1. Prepare a new information return(s).
2. Enter an "X" in the "CORRECTED" box at the top of the form(s).
3. Enter the payer, recipient, and account number information exactly as it appeared on the original incorrect return; HOWEVER, enter all correct money amounts in the correct boxes as they should have appeared on the original return, and enter the recipient's correct address.
4. File Form 1096 and Copies A of the returns with the appropriate service center.
5. Do NOT include copies of the original return(s) that was filed incorrectly.

3. Original return was filed using the WRONG type of return. For example, a Form 1099-DIV was filed when a Form 1099-INT should have been filed. This will require two separate transactions to make the correction properly. Read and follow all instructions for both Transactions 1 and 2.

TRANSACTION 1: Identify incorrect return submitted.

A. Form 1096: Follow the instructions under Error 1, Transaction 1-A.

B. Form 1098, 1099, 5498, or W-2G: Follow the instructions under Error 1, Transaction 1-B, using the same type of form that was used initially.

Error (on Original Return)      How To File the Corrected Return on Paper Forms

TRANSACTION 2: Report correct information on the correct type of return.

A. Form 1096: Follow the instructions under Error 1, Transaction 2-A, except enter the words "Filed To Correct Document Type" in the bottom margin of Form 1096.

B. Form 1098, 1099, 5498, or W-2G: Follow the instructions under Error 1, Transaction 2-B, using the proper type of form.

J. Other Information Returns.—The income information you report on the following returns must not be repeated on the returns discussed in the Specific Instructions in this publication:

1. Form W-2 reporting wages and other employee compensation.
2. Forms 1042-S and 1000 reporting income.
3. Form 2439 reporting undistributed long-term capital gains of a regulated investment company.
4. Schedule K-1 of Form 1065 reporting distributive shares to members of a partnership.
5. Schedule K-1 of Form 1041 reporting distributions to beneficiaries of trusts or estates.
6. Schedule K-1 of Form 1120S reporting distributive shares to shareholders of S corporations.
7. Schedule K of Form 1120-IC-DISC reporting actual and constructive distributions to shareholders and deferred DISC income.
8. Schedule Q of Form 1066 reporting income from a REMIC to a residual interest holder.

K. Payments to Corporations and Partnerships.—Reporting generally is not required for payments to corporations except in the case of (1) medical payments (Form 1099-MISC), (2) withheld Federal income tax or foreign tax, (3) barter exchange transactions (Form 1099-B), (4) substitute payments in lieu of dividends and tax-exempt interest (Form 1099-MISC), (5) interest or original issue discount paid or accrued to a regular interest holder of a REMIC (Form 1099-INT or 1099-OID), and (6) acquisitions or abandonments of secured property (Form 1099-A). For example, reporting is not required for payments of architectural fees to corporations.

However, reporting generally is required for payments to partnerships. For example, payments of $600 or more made in the course of your trade or business to a law firm that is a partnership are reportable on Form 1099-MISC.

L. Earnings on an IRA or SEP.—Generally, any income with respect to an IRA or SEP, such as interest or dividends, should not be reported on Forms 1099 unless a distribution is made. Distributions should be reported on Form 1099-R.

Specific Instructions

If a distribution includes noncash property, show the fair market value of the property at the time of payment.

Although, generally, you are not required to report payments smaller than the minimum described for each form, you may prefer, for economy and your own convenience, to file Copies A for all payments. The IRS encourages this.

Use Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, to report mortgage interest (including reportable points, defined later) of $600 or more received by you during the year in the course of your trade or business from an individual, including a sole proprietor. File a separate Form 1098 for each mortgage. The term "interest," as used in these Form 1098 instructions, includes reportable points unless otherwise specified.

If an overpayment of interest on an adjustable rate mortgage (ARM) or other mortgage was made in a prior year and you refund (or credit) such overpayment, you must file Form 1098 to report the refund (or credit) of the overpayment. See Reimbursement of Overpaid Interest later.

Exceptions.—You need not file Form 1098 for interest received from a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, association, or company (other than a sole proprietor) even though an individual is a coborrower and all the trustees, beneficiaries, partners, members, or shareholders of the payer of record are individuals.

Mortgage Defined.—An obligation incurred after 1987 is a mortgage if real property that is located inside or outside the United States secures all or part of the obligation, even though the interest recipient classifies the obligation as other than a mortgage, for example, as a commercial loan.

An obligation incurred after 1984 but before 1988 is a mortgage only if secured primarily by real property.

An obligation in existence on December 31, 1984, is not a mortgage if, at the time the obligation was incurred, the interest recipient reasonably classified the obligation as other than a mortgage, real property loan, real estate loan, or other similar type of obligation. For example, if an obligation incurred in 1983 was secured by real property, but the interest recipient reasonably classified the obligation as a commercial loan because the proceeds were used to finance the borrower's business, the obligation is not considered a mortgage for purposes of this reporting requirement. However, if over half of the obligations in a class established by the interest recipient are primarily secured by real property, it is not reasonable to classify those obligations as other than mortgages for purposes of this reporting requirement.

Real property includes a manufactured home with a minimum living space of 400 square feet and a minimum width of more than 102 inches of a kind customarily used at a fixed location, including certain mobile homes. See section 25(e)(10).

Lines of credit and credit card obligations.—Interest (other than points) received on any mortgage that is in the form of a line of credit or credit card obligation is reportable regardless of how you classified the obligation. A borrower incurs a line of credit or credit card obligation when the borrower first has the right to borrow against the line of credit or credit card, whether or not the borrower actually borrows an amount at that time.

Price Level Adjusted Mortgage (PLAM).—For a PLAM issued after January 8, 1990, reportable interest on Form 1098 includes payments of accrued original issue discount (OID). The part of each payment treated as OID is determined under Temporary Regulations section 1.1275-6T.

Who Must File.—File this form if you are engaged in a trade or business and, in the course of such trade or business, you receive from an individual $600 or more of mortgage interest on any one mortgage during the calendar year. You are not required to file this form if the interest is not received in the course of your trade or business. For example, you hold the mortgage on your former personal residence. The buyer makes mortgage payments to you. You are not required to file Form 1098.

You must file a separate Form 1098 for each mortgage on which you received interest of $600 or more. If you received less than $600 of interest on a mortgage, no reporting is required on that mortgage.

If you receive $600 or more of mortgage interest in the course of your trade or business, you are subject to the requirement to file Form 1098, even if you are not in the business of lending money. For example, if you are a real estate developer and you provide financing to an individual to buy a home in your subdivision, and that home is security for the financing, you are subject to this reporting requirement. However, if you are a physician not engaged in any other business and you lend money to an individual to buy your home, you are not subject to this reporting requirement because you did not receive the interest in the course of your trade or business as a physician.

A governmental unit (or any subsidiary agency) receiving mortgage interest from an individual of $600 or more must file this form.

Cooperative housing corporation.—A cooperative housing corporation is an interest recipient and must file Form 1098 to report an amount received from its tenant-stockholders that represents the tenant-stockholders' proportionate share of interest described in section 216(a)(2). This rule applies only to tenant-stockholders who are individuals and from whom the cooperative has received at least $600 of interest during the year.

Collection agents.—Generally, if you receive reportable interest payments (other than points) on behalf of someone else and you are the first person to receive the interest, for example, if you are a servicing bank collecting payments for a lender, you must file this form and enter your name, address, and TIN in the recipient entity area. You must file this form even though you do not include the interest received in your income but you merely transfer it to another person. If you wish, you may enter the name of the person for whom you collected the interest in box 4. The person for whom you are receiving the interest need not file Form 1098.

However, there is an exception to this rule for any period that (1) the first person to receive or collect the interest does not have the information needed to report on Form 1098, and (2) the person for whom the interest is received or collected would receive the interest in its trade or business if the interest were paid directly to such person. If (1) and (2) apply, the person on whose behalf the interest is received or collected is required to report on Form 1098. If interest is received or collected on behalf of another person other than an individual, such person is presumed to receive the interest in a trade or business.

Foreign interest recipient.—If you are not a U.S. person, you must file Form 1098 if the interest is received in the United States. A U.S. person is a citizen or resident of the United States, a domestic partnership or corporation, or a nonforeign estate or trust. If the interest is received outside the United States, you must file Form 1098 if (1) you are a controlled foreign corporation, or (2) at least 50% of your gross income from all sources for the 3-year period ending with the close of the tax year preceding the receipt of interest (or for such part of the period as you were in existence) was effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

Reimbursement of Overpaid Interest.—You must report any reimbursement (refund or credit) of prior year overpayments of interest if the reimbursement relates to interest that was required to be reported on Form 1098 by any interest recipient. The reimbursement must be reported on Form 1098 for the year in which the reimbursement is made. No change should be made to the prior year Form 1098 because of this reimbursement. Report the total reimbursement even if it is for overpayments made in more than 1 year.

Only the person who makes the reimbursement is required to report it on Form 1098. For example, if you were required to report interest on Form 1098 in the year an overpayment was made, you are required to report any reimbursement on Form 1098 for the year in which the overpayment is refunded or credited. Similarly, if you bought a mortgage on which interest was overpaid in a prior year, you made a reimbursement of the overpaid interest, and the previous mortgage holder was required to report mortgage interest on Form 1098 in the prior year, you must file Form 1098 to report the reimbursement because you are the one making the reimbursement.

If you reimburse interest in the same year it is overpaid, do not report the overpayment on Form 1098 as interest received during the year or as a reimbursement of overpaid interest. For example, if the borrower paid $5,000 and you reimbursed $500 both in 1993, $4,500 should appear in box 1 as interest paid by the borrower. The $500 reimbursement must not appear in box 3.

Example.—In 1991, the payer/borrower paid mortgage interest to you of $5,000 on an adjustable rate mortgage (ARM). You reported $5,000 on Form 1098 for 1991 as mortgage interest received from the payer/borrower. In 1993, you determined that interest due on the ARM for 1991 was $4,500; the payer/borrower had overpaid $500. You refunded the $500 overpayment to the payer/borrower in 1993. You must report the $500 overpayment in box 3 on the 1993 Form 1098. No change to the 1991 Form 1098 is required. If you credited the $500 to 1993 payments due from the payer/borrower, $500 is shown in box 3 and the total interest received from the payer/borrower for 1993 (including the $500 credit) is shown in box 1.

Interest on reimbursement.—A financial institution that pays interest of $10 or more on the reimbursement must report that interest on Form 1099-INT, Interest Income. Do not include such interest on Form 1098.

Nonresident Alien Interest Payer.—You must file Form 1098 to report interest paid by a nonresident alien only if all or part of the security for the mortgage is real property located in the United States.

Payer of Record.—The payer of record is the individual carried on your books and records as the principal borrower. If your books and records do not indicate which borrower is the principal borrower, you must designate one.

If you permit a subsequent purchaser of the property to assume the loan without releasing the first purchaser from personal liability, the subsequent purchaser is the payer of record. Such subsequent purchaser's name, address, and TIN must appear on Form 1098.

Multiple Borrowers.—Even though there may be more than one borrower on the mortgage, you are required to prepare Form 1098 only for the payer of record, and only if such payer of record is an individual, showing the total interest received on the mortgage. Even if an individual is a coborrower, no Form 1098 is required unless the payer of record is also an individual.

Payments by Third Party.—Report all interest received on the mortgage as received from the borrower, except as explained under Seller Payments, below. For example, if the borrower's mother makes payments on the mortgage, the interest received from the mother is reportable on Form 1098 as received from the borrower.

However, do not report mortgage interest received from any governmental unit (or any subsidiary agency). For example, do not report any interest received as housing assistance payments from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) on mortgages insured under section 235 of the National Housing Act.

Seller Payments.—Do not report in box 1 of Form 1098 any interest paid by a seller on a purchaser's-borrower's mortgage, such as on a "buy-down" mortgage. For example, if a real estate developer deposits an amount in escrow and tells you to draw on that escrow account to pay interest on the borrower's mortgage, do not report in box 1 the interest received from that escrow account. As another example, do not report in box 1 any lump sum paid by a real estate developer to pay interest on a purchaser's-borrower's mortgage. However, if you wish, you may use box 4 to report to the payer of record any interest paid by the seller.

Rule of 78s Method of Accounting.—If you are permitted by Rev. Proc. 83-40, 1983-1 C.B. 774, or any other revenue procedure, to use the Rule of 78s method to calculate interest earned with respect to a transaction, you may report interest earned under the Rule of 78s method on that transaction as interest received from the borrower in a calendar year. In this case, you must notify borrowers that the Rule of 78s method was used to calculate interest received and that the borrowers may not deduct the amount reported unless the borrowers are also properly using the Rule of 78s method to determine interest deductions. The notification must also state that the Rule of 78s method may be used only in the case of a self-amortizing consumer loan that requires level payments, at regular intervals (at least annually), over a period not in excess of 5 years (with no balloon payment at the end of the loan term), and only when the loan agreement provides for use of the Rule of 78s method to determine interest earned (see Rev. Proc. 83-40 and Rev. Rul. 83-84, 1983-1 C.B. 97). The notice must be furnished to the payer of record on or with the statement of the interest received.

Points.—You must report certain points paid for the purchase of a principal residence on Form 1098. You may rely on a signed written statement of the borrower that states whether the proceeds of the loan are for the purchase of the borrower's principal residence. You may choose one of two options for reporting the points, discussed later.

Report the total points on Form 1098 for the year of closing regardless of the accounting method you use to report the points as income for Federal income tax purposes.

The following points are not reportable on Form 1098: (1) points paid for loans to improve a principal residence, (2) points paid for loans to purchase or improve a second home, vacation, investment, or trade or business property, (3) points paid for any refinancing, home equity, or line of credit loan, even if secured by the principal residence, (4) points paid in excess of the amount generally charged in the area, e.g., the payment of excess points to "buy down" the cost of money, and (5) points paid to acquire a principal residence to the extent the points are allocable to an amount of principal in excess of $1 million.

Lender of record.—The lender of record (lender) or a designee is required to report points on Form 1098. Either the lender or the designee must report the total points paid for the loan. The lender of record is the person named as the lender in the loan documents and whose right to receive payments is secured by the borrower's principal residence at the time the loan is made.

By a designation agreement, the lender may transfer responsibility for reporting points to someone involved in the original loan transaction (e.g., a mortgage broker), or to a subsequent purchaser of the loan.

The agreement must be in writing, identify the mortgage(s) for which the designee is to report, and be signed by the lender and the designee. If you use Option 1 to report points, discussed below, the designation agreement must contain the designator's representation that it did not lend the amount to be treated as paid directly by the borrower for this purpose as part of the overall transaction. The agreement need not be sent to the IRS but must be retained by the lender for 4 years.

Option 1—Safe Harbor.—As a matter of administrative practice, the IRS treats the following points as deductible by the borrower (subject to certain limits). Under Option 1, report on Form 1098 points that meet all the following conditions:

1. They are designated on the Uniform Settlement Statement (Form HUD-1) as "loan origination fees" (including amounts for VA and FHA loans), "loan discount," "discount points," or "points."

2. They are computed as a percentage of the stated principal loan amount.

3. They are charged under an established business practice of charging points for loans for the acquisition of personal residences in the area where the residence is located, and the amount does not exceed the amount generally charged in that area. Therefore, amounts designated as points but paid in lieu of items ordinarily separately stated on the settlement sheet, such as appraisal fees, inspection fees, title fees, attorney fees, property taxes, and mortgage insurance premiums, are not reportable as points.

4. They are paid for the acquisition of a principal residence, and the loan is secured by that residence.

5. They are paid directly by the taxpayer. That is, the taxpayer must provide an amount at least equal to the points. The amount may include a down payment, escrow deposit, earnest money applied at closing, and other funds actually paid over at closing. However, the amount cannot come from funds borrowed for this purpose as part of the overall transaction.

For more information on Option 1, see Rev. Procs. 92-11, 1992-1 C.B. 662, and 92-12, 1992-1 C.B. 663.

Option 2.—If you prefer, you may choose to report points that meet all the following conditions:

1. The points are interest, i.e., for the use or forbearance of money. Thus, do not report points that are paid for services.

2. The points conform to an established business practice of charging points in the area where the loan was issued, and the points charged do not exceed the number of points generally charged in that area.

3. The points are paid directly by the borrower. For purposes of reporting under Option 2, an amount charged to the borrower as points for the acquisition of a principal residence is treated as paid directly by the borrower.

4. The points are for the purchase of the borrower's principal residence, which secures the loan.

For more information on Option 2, see Notice 90-70, 1990-2 C.B. 351.

Prepaid Interest.—Report prepaid interest (other than points) only in the year in which it properly accrues. For example, interest received on December 20, 1993, that accrues by December 31 but is not due until February 1, 1994, is reportable on the 1993 Form 1098.

Exception.—Interest received during the current year that will properly accrue in full by January 15 of the following year may be considered received in the current year, at your option, and is reportable on Form 1098 for the current year. However, if any part of an interest payment accrues after January 15, then only the amount that properly accrues by December 31 of the current year is reportable on Form 1098 for the current year. For example, if you receive a payment of interest that accrues for the period December 20 through January 20, you cannot report any of the interest that accrues after December 31 for the current year. You must report the interest that accrues after December 31 on Form 1098 for the following year.

Statements to Payers of Record.—For information about the requirement to furnish a statement to the payer of record, see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

Recipient's/Lender's Name and Address Box.—Enter the name and address of the filer of Form 1098. Use this same name and address on Form 1096.

Payer's/Borrower's Name and Address Box.—Enter the name and address of the person who paid the interest (payer of record).

Note: Be careful to enter the recipient's and payer's information in the proper boxes.

Box 1.—Enter the interest (not including points) received on the mortgage from borrowers during the calendar year. Include interest on a mortgage, a home equity loan, or a line of credit or credit card loan secured by real property. Do not include government subsidy payments, seller payments, or prepaid interest that does not meet the exception explained earlier under Prepaid Interest. Interest includes prepayment penalties and late charges unless the late charges are for a specific service provided with respect to the mortgage.

Box 2.—Enter points paid directly on the purchase of a principal residence. For an explanation of reportable points, see Points, earlier.

Box 3.—Enter the total refund or credit of a prior year(s) overpayment of interest. See Reimbursement of Overpaid Interest earlier.

Box 4.—Enter any other item you wish to report to the payer, such as real estate taxes, insurance, or if you are a collection agent, the name of the person for whom you collected the interest. This box is optional and is provided only for your convenience. You do not have to report to the IRS any information provided in this box. You are not required to report the average balance of the mortgage.

Form 1099-A

File Form 1099-A, Acquisition or Abandonment of Secured Property, for each borrower if you lend money in connection with your trade or business and, in full or partial satisfaction of the debt, you acquire an interest in property that is security for the debt, or you have reason to know that the property has been abandoned. You need not be in the business of lending money to be subject to this reporting requirement.

Property.—Property means real property (such as a personal residence), intangible property, or tangible personal property held for investment or used in a trade or business. No reporting is required for a loan made to an individual and secured by an interest in tangible personal property that is neither held for investment nor used in a trade or business. However, you must file Form 1099-A if the personal property is held for both personal use and either for use in a trade or business or for investment.

No reporting is required if the property securing the loan is located outside the United States and the borrower has furnished the lender a statement, under penalties of perjury, that the borrower is an exempt foreign person (unless the lender knows that the statement is false).

Who Must File.—In addition to the general rule specified above, the following rules apply.

If there are multiple owners of undivided interests in a single loan, such as is the case in pools, fixed investment trusts, or other similar arrangements, the trustee, record owner, or person acting in a similar capacity must file Form 1099-A on behalf of all the owners of beneficial interests or participations. In this case, only one form for each borrower must be filed on behalf of all owners with respect to the loan. Similarly, in the case of bond issues, only the trustee or similar person is required to report.

A governmental unit, or any of its subsidiary agencies, that lends money secured by property must file Form 1099-A.

A subsequent holder of a loan is treated as the lender for purposes of the reporting requirement for events occurring after the loan is transferred to the new holder.

If more than one person lends money secured by property and one lender forecloses or otherwise acquires an interest in the property and the sale or other acquisition terminates, reduces, or otherwise impairs the other lenders' security interests in the property, the other lenders must file Form 1099-A for each of their loans. For example, if a first trust holder forecloses on a building, and the second trust holder knows or has reason to know of such foreclosure, the second trust holder must file Form 1099-A for the second trust even though no part of the second trust was satisfied by the proceeds of the foreclosure sale.

Abandonment.—An abandonment occurs when the objective facts and circumstances indicate that the borrower intended to and has permanently discarded the property from use. You have "reason to know" of an abandonment based on all the facts and circumstances concerning the status of the property. You will be deemed to know all the information that would have been discovered through a reasonable inquiry when, in the ordinary course of business, the lender becomes aware or should become aware of circumstances indicating that the property has been abandoned. If you expect to commence a foreclosure, execution, or similar sale within 3 months of the date you had reason to know that the property was abandoned, reporting is required as of the date you acquire an interest in the property or a third party purchases the property at such sale. If you expect to but do not commence such action within 3 months, the reporting requirement arises at the end of the 3-month period.

Statements to Borrowers.—For information about the requirement of furnishing a statement to the borrower, see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

Box 1.—Enter the date of your acquisition of the secured property or the date you first knew or had reason to know that the property was abandoned. An interest in the property generally is acquired on the earlier of the date title is transferred to the lender or the date possession and the burdens and benefits of ownership are transferred to the lender. If an objection period is provided by law, use the date the objection period expires. If you purchase the property at a sale held to satisfy the debt, such as at a foreclosure or execution sale, use the later of the date of sale or the date the borrower's right of redemption expires. Please use the following format to indicate the date: MMDDYY. For example, for January 9, 1993, enter 010993.

For an abandonment, enter the date you knew or had reason to know that the property was abandoned unless you expect to commence a foreclosure, execution, or similar action within 3 months, as explained earlier. If a third party purchases the property at a foreclosure, execution, or similar sale, the property is treated as abandoned, and you have reason to know of its abandonment on the date of sale.

Box 2.—Enter the balance of the debt outstanding at the time the interest in the property was acquired or on the date you first knew or had reason to know that the property was abandoned. Include only unpaid principal on the original debt. Do not include accrued interest or foreclosure costs.

Box 3.—For a foreclosure, execution, or similar sale, enter the gross foreclosure bid price accepted at the sale. If there was no such sale, leave box 3 blank.

Box 4.—For recourse loans only, if an abandonment or a voluntary conveyance to the lender in lieu of foreclosure occurs, enter the appraised value of the property. For a foreclosure, execution, or similar sale, you are not required to enter the appraised value.

Box 5.—Enter an "X" in the applicable box to indicate whether the borrower was personally liable for repayment of the debt at the time the debt was created or, if modified, at the time of the last modification.

Box 6.—Enter a general description of the property. For real property, generally you must enter the address of the property, or, if the address does not sufficiently identify the property, enter the section, lot, and block. For personal property, enter the applicable type, make, and model. For example, describe a car as "Car—1993 Buick Regal." Use a category such as "Office Equipment" to describe more than one piece of personal property, such as six desks and seven typewriters. Enter "CCC" for crops forfeited on Commodity Credit Corporation loans.

Any person, including a governmental unit and any subsidiary agency, doing business as a broker or barter exchange must file Form 1099-B, Proceeds From Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions, for each person (a) for whom the broker has sold (including short sales) stocks, bonds, commodities, regulated futures contracts, foreign currency contracts, forward contracts, debt instruments, etc., or (b) who exchanged property or services through the barter exchange.

Note: Report real estate transactions on Form 1099-S, discussed later.

Brokers

The term broker means a person who, in the ordinary course of a trade or business, stands ready to effect sales to be made by others. A corporation is a broker if it regularly stands ready to redeem its stock or retire its debt. However, if there are no facts that indicate otherwise, a corporation that purchases odd-lot shares from its stockholders is not a broker. If you manage a farm for someone else, you are not considered a broker.

For a sale of securities through a "cash on delivery" or similar account, only the broker that receives the gross proceeds from the sale against delivery of the securities sold is required to report the sale. However, if such broker's customer is a "second-party broker" that is an exempt recipient, only the second-party broker is required to report the sale.

If the proceeds of a sale are paid in convertible foreign currency, the amount to be reported must be converted into U.S. dollars. You may use the exchange rate on the sales date or the exchange rate on the last business day of the reporting period in which the sale occurs.

Brokers must report each transaction (other than regulated futures or foreign currency contracts) on a separate Form 1099-B. Transactions involving regulated futures or foreign currency contracts are to be reported on an aggregate basis.

To report substitute payments in lieu of dividends and tax-exempt interest, as required by section 6045(d), do not use Form 1099-B. See Box 8 under Form 1099-MISC, later.

Form 8308, Report of a Sale or Exchange of Certain Partnership Interests, does not have to be filed if Form 1099-B is required for the transfer of the partnership interest.

No return is required by brokers for:

1. Sales by exempt recipients, including corporations, charitable organizations, individual retirement plans, the United States, a state and political subdivisions.

2. Sales initiated by dealers in securities and financial institutions.

3. Sales by certain custodians and trustees.

4. Sales at issue price of interests in certain regulated investment companies.

5. Obligor payments on:

a. Nontransferable obligations, such as savings bonds or CDs.

b. Obligations for which gross proceeds are reported on other Forms 1099, such as stripped coupons issued prior to July 1, 1982.

c. Retirement of short-term obligations with original issue discount (reported on Form 1099-INT). However, Form 1099-B is required for the retirement of short-term state obligations having no original issue discount.

d. Callable demand obligations that have no premium or discount.

6. Sales of foreign currency unless under a forward or regulated futures contract that requires delivery of foreign currency.

7. Sales of fractional shares of stock if gross proceeds are less than $20.

8. Retirements of book-entry or registered form obligations if no interim transfers have occurred.

9. Exempt foreign persons.

10. Sales of Commodity Credit Corporation certificates.

11. Spot or forward sales of agricultural commodities. Agricultural commodities include grain, feed, livestock, meat, oil seed, timber, or fiber. A spot sale is a sale that results in almost immediate delivery of a commodity. A forward sale is a sale under a forward contract.

However, sales of agricultural commodities under a regulated futures contract, sales of derivative interests in agricultural commodities, and sales of receipts for agricultural commodities issued by a designated warehouse are reportable. A designated warehouse is a warehouse, depository, or other similar entity designated by a commodity exchange in which or out of which a particular type of agricultural commodity is deliverable to satisfy a regulated futures contract. Sales of warehouse receipts issued by any other warehouse are not reportable.

12. Excepted sales designated in a revenue ruling or revenue procedure. The sale of a precious metal (gold, silver, platinum, or palladium) in any form that may be used to satisfy a Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC)-approved regulated futures contract (RFC) is an excepted sale if the quantity, by weight or by number of items, is less than the minimum required to satisfy a CFTC-approved RFC. A sale of a precious metal in any form that cannot be used to satisfy a CFTC-approved RFC is an excepted sale.

For example, Form 1099-B is not required to be filed for the sale of a single gold coin in the form and quality deliverable in satisfaction of a CFTC-approved contract since all CFTC contracts for gold coins currently call for delivery of at least 25 coins.

Sales of precious metals for a single customer during a 24-hour period must be aggregated and treated as a single sale to determine if this exception applies. This exception does not apply if the broker knows or has reason to know that a customer, either alone or with a related person, is engaging in sales to avoid information reporting.

Barter Exchanges

The term barter exchange means any person with members or clients who contract either with each other or with such person to trade or barter property or services either directly or through such person. The term does not include arrangements that provide solely for the informal exchange of similar services on a noncommercial basis. Persons who are not a barter exchange but who trade services do not file Form 1099-B. However, they may be required to file Form 1099-MISC.

Barter exchanges must report each transaction involving noncorporate members or clients of a barter exchange on a separate Form 1099-B. Transactions involving corporate members or clients of a barter exchange may be reported on an aggregate basis.

In the recipient area of the forms, enter information about the member or client that provided the property or services in the exchange.

No return is required by barter exchanges for:

1. Exchanges through a barter exchange having less than 100 transactions during the calendar year.

2. Exempt foreign persons.

Broker and Barter Exchanges

Statements to Recipients.—For information about the requirement to furnish a statement to the proceeds recipient, see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

2nd TIN Not.—You may enter an "X" in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect taxpayer identification number (TIN). If you mark this box, you will comply with a safe harbor due diligence requirement of Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-89, and the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account. Also see Regulations section 301.6724-1(g).

Box 1a.—For broker transactions, enter the trade date of the sale or exchange. For barter exchanges, enter the date that cash, property, a credit, or scrip is actually or constructively received. Please use the following format to indicate the date: MMDDYY. For example, for January 9, 1993, enter 010993. For aggregate reporting, no entry is required.

Box 1b.—For transactional reporting by brokers, enter the CUSIP (Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures) number of the obligation.

Box 2.—Enter the gross proceeds from any disposition of securities (including short sales), commodities, or forward contracts. To determine gross proceeds, you may take into account commissions and option premiums if this treatment is consistent with your books. You may not take into account state and local transfer taxes. Check the applicable box to indicate which amount has been reported to the IRS. Do not include amounts shown in boxes 6 through 9. Any accrued interest on bonds sold between payment dates (or on a payment date) should not be included in this box. Instead, report this accrued interest on Form 1099-INT. A loss from a closing transaction on a forward contract must be shown as a negative amount by enclosing it in parentheses.

Box 3.—Enter the gross amounts received by a member or client of a barter exchange for goods or services. This includes cash received, property or services received, a credit on your books, or scrip issued. Do not report negative amounts.

Box 4.—Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TIN to you in the manner required are subject to withholding at a 31% rate on certain amounts required to be reported on this form.

Box 5.—For broker transactions, enter a brief description of the disposition item, e.g., 100 shares of XYZ Corp. stock. If necessary, abbreviate the description so that it fits within box 5. For regulated futures contracts and forward contracts, enter “RFC” or other appropriate description and any amount subject to backup withholding, under Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-23.

Note: The amount withheld in these situations is to be included in box 4.

For bartering transactions, show the services or property provided.

Box 6.—Enter the profit or (loss) realized by the customer on closed regulated futures or foreign currency contracts in 1993. For more information on reporting foreign currency contracts, see Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-26.

Box 7.—Enter the unrealized profit or (loss) on open regulated futures or foreign currency contracts at the end of 1992.

Box 8.—Enter the unrealized profit or (loss) on open regulated futures or foreign currency contracts as of December 31, 1993.

Box 9.—Enter the aggregate profit or (loss) for the year from regulated futures or foreign currency contracts. Use boxes 6, 7, and 8 to figure the aggregate profit or (loss).

Form 1099-DIV

File Form 1099-DIV, Dividends and Distributions, for each person (a) to whom you have paid gross dividends and other distributions on stock (box 1a) of $10 or more, (b) for whom you have withheld and paid any foreign tax on dividends and other distributions on stock if the recipient can claim credit for the tax on his or her income tax return, (c) for whom you have withheld any Federal income tax under the backup withholding rules, or (d) to whom you paid $600 or more as part of a liquidation.

Section 404(k) Dividend.—Report on Form 1099-DIV dividends distributed under section 404(k) on stock held by an employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) or a tax credit ESOP. However, if a section 404(k) distribution is made in the same year as a total distribution, the entire amount should be reported as an amount includible in income on Form 1099-R.

Exceptions.—You are not required to file Form 1099-DIV for payments made to certain payees including a corporation, a tax-exempt organization, an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), a U.S. agency, a state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. possession, or a registered securities or commodities dealer.

Dividends.—If you make a payment that may be a dividend, but you are unable to determine whether any part of the payment is a dividend by the time you must file Form 1099-DIV, the entire payment must be reported as a dividend. See regulations under section 6042 for a definition of dividends.

Note: Certain distributions commonly referred to as “dividends” are actually interest and are to be reported on Form 1099-INT. These include so-called “dividends” on deposit or on share accounts in cooperative banks, credit unions, domestic building and loan associations, domestic and Federal savings and loan associations, and mutual savings banks.

An exempt-interest dividend from a regulated investment company retains its tax-exempt status and is not reported on Form 1099-DIV or 1099-INT.

Substitute Payments in Lieu of Dividends.—For payments received by a broker on behalf of a customer in lieu of dividends as a result of the transfer of a customer’s securities for use in a short sale, see Box 8 under Form 1099-MISC, later.

RICs.—If a regulated investment company (RIC) declares a dividend in October, November, or December payable to shareholders of record on a specified date in such a month, the dividends are treated as paid by the RIC and received by the shareholders on December 31 of such year as long as the dividends are actually paid by the RIC during January of the following year. Such dividends should be reported on Form 1099-DIV for the year preceding the January they are actually paid. See section 852(b)(7).

Restricted Stock.—For information about reporting dividends on restricted stock, see Rev. Procs. 80-11, 1980-1 C.B. 616, and 83-38, 1983-1 C.B. 773, and Rev. Rul. 83-22, 1983-1 C.B. 17.

Statements to Recipients.—For an explanation of the requirement to furnish an official form to recipients in person or by statement mailing, see part H under General Instructions, earlier. Also see Pub. 1179.

2nd TIN Not.—You may enter an “X” in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect taxpayer identification number (TIN). If you mark this box, you will comply with a safe harbor due diligence requirement of Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-89, and the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account. Also see Regulations section 301.6724-1(g).

Box 1a.—Enter gross dividends, including those from money market funds, and other distributions on stock. Include reinvested dividends as gross dividends. Also, include amounts shown in boxes 1b, 1c, 1d, and 1e. Do not include in box 1a amounts reported in boxes 5 and 6.

Box 1b.—Enter ordinary dividends. Also include this amount in box 1a.

Box 1c.—Enter capital gain distributions. Also include this amount in box 1a.

Box 1d.—Enter nontaxable distributions, if determinable. Also include this amount in box 1a. (File Form 5452, Corporate Report of Nondividend Distributions, if you pay nontaxable distributions to shareholders.)

Box 1e.—Enter the stockholder’s pro rata share of certain amounts deductible by a nonpublicly offered regulated investment company in computing its taxable income. This amount is includible in the stockholder’s gross income under section 67(c) and must also be included in box 1a.

Box 2.—Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TIN to you in the manner required are subject to withholding at a 31% rate on certain dividend payments reported on this form.

Box 3.—Enter any foreign tax withheld and paid on dividends and other distributions on stock if the recipient can claim credit for the tax on his or her income tax return. Report this amount in U.S. dollars.

Box 4.—Enter the name of the foreign country or U.S. possession to which the withheld tax applies.

Note: Boxes 5 and 6 apply only to corporations in partial or complete liquidation.

Box 5.—Enter cash distributed as part of a liquidation. Do not include this amount in box 1a.

Box 6.—Enter noncash distributions made as part of a liquidation. Show the fair market value as of the date of distribution. Do not include this amount in box 1a.

---

S Corporations

---

Box 1a.—Report as dividends on Form 1099-DIV only distributions made during 1993 out of accumulated earnings and profits. See section 1368 for more information.

---

Form 1099-G

---

File Form 1099-G, Certain Government Payments, if you have made payments as a unit of a Federal, state, or local government.

Statements to Recipients.—Furnish a copy of Form 1099-G or a statement to each recipient, except as explained below under Box 2. Also see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

Box 1.—Enter payments of $10 or more in unemployment compensation including Railroad Retirement Board payments for unemployment.

Box 2.—Enter refunds, credits, or offsets of state or local income tax of $10 or more you made to recipients. If recipients deducted the tax paid to a state or local government on their Federal income tax returns, any refunds, credits, or offsets, may be taxable to them. If you can determine that the recipient did not claim itemized deductions on the recipient’s Federal income tax return for the tax year giving rise to the refund, credit, or offset, you are not required to furnish a copy of Form 1099-G or a statement to the recipient. However, you must file Form 1099-G with the IRS in all cases.

A tax on dividends, a tax on net gains from the sale or exchange of a capital asset, and a tax on the net taxable income of an unincorporated business are taxes on gain or profit rather than on gross receipts. Therefore, they are income taxes, and any refund, credit, or offset of $10 or more of these taxes is reportable on Form 1099-G. In the case of the dividends tax and the capital gains tax, if you determine that the recipient did not itemize deductions, as explained above, you are not required to furnish a statement to the recipient. However, in the case of the tax on unincorporated businesses, you must furnish a statement to the recipient in all cases, as this is a tax that applies exclusively to income from a trade or business. See the instructions for box 8 and Rev. Rul. 86-140, 1986-2 C.B. 195.

If you pay interest of $600 or more on the refund, you must file Form 1099-INT and furnish a statement to the recipient. For interest payments of less than $600, if you wish you may enter the amount with an appropriate designation such as "Interest Income" in the blank box on the statement to the recipient.

Box 3.—No entry is required in box 3 if the refund, credit, or offset is for the 1992 tax year. If it is for any other tax year, enter the year for which the refund, credit, or offset was made in this box. Also, if the refunds, credits, or offsets are for more than 1 tax year, report the amount for each year on a separate Form 1099-G. Use the format "YYYY" to make the entry in this box. For example, enter 1991, not '91.

Box 4.—Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TIN to you become subject to withholding at a 31% rate on payments required to be reported in box 6 or 7 on this form.

Box 5.—Enter any amount that was owed to the Federal Government and that has been declared uncollectible if the amount exceeds $600. Include in the amount you report the principal amount owed on the debt, administrative costs, and interest.

A Federal agency must report forgiveness of indebtedness when the agency determines that the debt is not collectible and no further efforts to collect the debt will be made or a formal compromise agreement has been entered into. The agency need not wait until the statute of limitations has expired to declare a debt uncollectible.

Report the difference between the outstanding balance of the debt and the amount accepted as payment in full if a debt is compromised because (1) the debtor cannot pay the debt within a reasonable time or refuses to pay the debt in full and the Government cannot enforce collection in full within a reasonable time, or (2) the cost of collecting the claim does not justify the enforced collection of the full amount. However, if a debt is compromised because there is real doubt of the Government's ability to prove its case in court for the full amount claimed, do not report the compromised amount.

Do not report any obligation discharged in a Title 11 bankruptcy case or amounts discharged for a debtor to the extent the debtor is insolvent. For example, if a debtor owes $1,000 and his or her liabilities exceed his or her assets by $250 before the debt is discharged, $750 must be reported when the debt is discharged. You must document that the debtor is insolvent through an assets and liabilities analysis certified by the debtor as correct under penalties of perjury.

Box 6.—Enter any amount of a taxable grant administered by a Federal, state, or local program to provide subsidized energy financing or grants for projects designed to conserve or produce energy, but only with respect to section 38 property or a dwelling unit located in the United States. Also report amounts of other taxable grants of $600 or more. A Federal grant is ordinarily taxable unless stated otherwise in the legislation authorizing the grant.

Box 7.—Enter U.S.D.A. agricultural subsidy payments made to recipients during the year. If you are a nominee that received subsidy payments for another person, file Form 1099-G to report the actual owner of the payments, and report the amount of the payments in box 7.

Box 8.—If the amount in box 2 is a refund, credit, or offset attributable to an income tax that applies exclusively to income from a trade or business and is not a tax of general application, enter an "X" in this box.

Form 1099-INT

---

File Form 1099-INT, Interest Income, for each person (1) to whom you paid amounts reportable in boxes 1 and 3 of at least $10 (except for the $600 limit for interest paid in the course of your trade or business described in the instructions below in Box 1), (2) for whom you withheld and paid any foreign tax on interest if the recipient can claim credit for the tax on his or her income tax return, or (3) from whom you withheld any Federal income tax under the backup withholding rules regardless of the amount of the payment.

Only report interest payments made in the course of your trade or business including Federal, state, and local government agencies and activities deemed nonprofit, or for which you were a nominee/middleman.

Exceptions.—You are not required to file Form 1099-INT for payments made to certain payees including a corporation, a tax-exempt organization, an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), a U.S. agency, a state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. possession, or a registered securities or commodities dealer.

Note: Do not report tax-exempt or tax-deferred interest, such as interest on municipal bonds or interest that is earned but not distributed from an IRA.

An exempt-interest dividend from a regulated investment company retains its tax-exempt status and is not reported on Form 1099-INT or 1099-DIV.

Successor/Predecessor Corporation.—A successor corporation and a predecessor corporation may agree that the successor corporation will file one Form 1099-INT for each payee combining the reportable interest paid by both corporations (under section 6049). If the two corporations do not agree, or if other requirements described below are not met, the predecessor must file Forms 1099-INT to report the interest payments it made during the year, and the successor must file Forms 1099-INT to report its own payments.

The combined reporting procedure is available only when all the following conditions are met:

1. The successor corporation acquires substantially all the assets and assumes substantially all the liabilities of the predecessor corporation.
2. During the year of acquisition, but before the acquisition, the predecessor made reportable interest payments to payees.
3. During the year of acquisition, but after the acquisition, the predecessor did not make any reportable interest payments.

Agreement.—The predecessor and successor must agree that the successor assumes the predecessor's entire obligation to file Forms 1099-INT for reportable interest payments made in the year of acquisition. If they so agree and if the successor satisfies the predecessor's obligation, the predecessor is relieved of the obligation to file Forms 1099-INT.

Combined Form 1099-INT.—The Form 1099-INT filed by the successor for each payee must include the reportable interest payments made by the predecessor in the acquisition year and the reportable interest payments made by the successor in that year. Any backup withholding also must be combined on the form. When providing Form 1099-INT, or an acceptable substitute form, to the interest recipient, the successor may include additional information explaining the aggregate reporting of the interest.

Statement required.—By the due date of the Forms 1099-INT, the successor must file a statement containing (1) an indication that Forms 1099-INT are being filed on a combined basis under Rev. Proc. 90-57, and (2) the name, address, and taxpayer identification numbers (TINs) of both the successor and predecessor corporations. This statement must be sent separately from the Forms 1099-INT to: IRS-Martinsburg Computing Center, P.O. Box 1359, Attn: Chief, Magnetic Media 2, Martinsburg, WV 25401-1359.

For more information, see Rev. Proc. 90-57, 1990-2 C.B. 641.

Statements to Recipients.—For an explanation of the requirement to furnish an official form to recipients in person or by statement mailing, see part H under General Instructions, earlier. Also see Pub. 1179. If you have furnished Forms 1099-INT to a recipient for amounts received during the year at the time of the transaction, such as you might have done for window transactions, do not include these same amounts in a Form 1099-INT furnished to the same recipient for other payments during the year.

2nd TIN Not.—You may enter an “X” in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect TIN. If you mark this box, you will comply with a safe harbor due diligence requirement of Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-89, and the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account. Also see Regulations section 301.6724-1(g).

Payer’s RTN (optional).—If you are a financial institution that wishes to participate in the program for direct deposit of refunds of electronic filers, you may enter your routing and transit number (RTN).

Box 1.—Enter interest not included in box 3. Include amounts, whether or not designated as interest, that are paid or credited to any person’s account by savings and loan associations, mutual savings banks not having capital stock represented by shares, building and loan associations, cooperative banks, homestead associations, credit unions, or similar organizations. Include interest on bank deposits, accumulated dividends paid by a life insurance company, indebtedness (including bonds, debentures, notes and certificates other than those of the U.S. Treasury) issued in registered form or of a type offered to the public, or from which you withheld Federal income tax or foreign tax. Also include interest paid in the course of your trade or business not meeting these criteria, such as interest on delayed death benefits paid by a life insurance company, or interest on a state or Federal income tax refund, if the interest totals $600 or more for any person. In addition, report interest accrued to a REMIC regular interest holder or paid to a CDO holder, as explained below.

Include in box 1 any accrued interest on bonds sold between interest dates (or on a payment date).

Also show original issue discount on short-term obligations of 1 year or less and interest on all bearer certificates of deposit.

Do not include in box 1 interest on tax-free covenant bonds, which is reportable on Form 1042-S, Foreign Person’s U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding, or dividends from money market funds, which are reportable on Form 1099-DIV. Also, do not include any description in box 1. If you wish to show a description, use the blank box above box 1.

Box 2.—Enter interest or principal forfeited because of an early withdrawal of time deposits, such as an early withdrawal from a CD, that is deductible from gross income by the recipient. Do not reduce the amount reported in box 1 by the amount of the forfeiture. For detailed instructions for determining the amount of forfeiture deductible by the depositor, see Rev. Ruls. 75-20, 1975-1 C.B. 29, and 75-21, 1975-1 C.B. 367.

Box 3.—Enter interest on U.S. Savings Bonds, Treasury bills, Treasury notes, and Treasury bonds. Do not include this amount in box 1.

If you make payment on a U.S. Savings Bond or other U.S. obligation on which interest is reportable, enter your name, address, and Federal identification number on Forms 1099-INT and 1096, not those of the U.S. Treasury Department or the Bureau of Public Debt.

Box 4.—Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TIN to you in the manner required become subject to withholding at a 31% rate on payments required to be reported in box 1 (which may be reduced by the amount reported in box 2) and box 3 on this form.

Box 5.—Enter any foreign tax withheld and paid on interest if the recipient can claim credit for the tax on his or her income tax return. Report this amount in U.S. dollars.

Box 6.—Enter the name of the foreign country or U.S. possession to which the withheld tax applies.

REMICs and Issuers of Collateralized Debt Obligations

REMICs, issuers of collateralized debt obligations (CDOs), and any broker or middleman who holds as a nominee a REMIC regular interest or CDO must file Form 1099-INT to report interest of $10 or more, other than original issue discount (OID), accrued to a REMIC regular interest holder during the year or paid to the holder of a CDO. If you are also reporting OID, this interest and the OID can be reported on Form 1099-OID. It is not necessary to file both Forms 1099-INT and 1099-OID. See Form 1099-OID, later.

You are not required to file or issue Form 1099-INT for exempt recipients including the following holders of a REMIC regular interest or a CDO:

1. A corporation.
2. A broker.
3. A middleman/nominee.
4. A financial institution.
5. An IRA.
6. A tax-exempt organization.

For additional exempt recipients, see Regulations section 1.6049-7(c).

Box 1.—Report in box 1 the amount of interest, other than OID, accrued to each REMIC regular interest holder or paid to a CDO holder for the period during the year for which the return is made. If you are a single-class REMIC (as defined in Temporary Regulations section 1.67-3T(a)(2)(ii)), include in box 1 the regular interest holder’s share of investment expenses of the REMIC for the year.

Statements to Holders.—For each Form 1099-INT you are required to file, you must furnish a statement to the REMIC regular interest or CDO holder identified on the form. The statement must contain the information shown on Form 1099-INT, including the legend shown on Copy B of the official Form 1099-INT, and an indication that these items are being furnished to the IRS. The statement must also show the information specified in Regulations section 1.6049-7(f)(2)(i). In addition, the statement furnished by a REMIC must show, for each calendar quarter, the information specified in Regulations section 1.6049-7(f)(3). Also see Regulations section 1.6049-7(f)(3)(ii) for information that may be required to be reported to a real estate investment trust (REIT) that holds a regular interest.

A single-class REMIC (as defined in Temporary Regulations section 1.67-3T(a)(2)(ii)) must include in the statement the investment expenses paid or accrued during each calendar quarter by the REMIC for which the REMIC is allowed a deduction under section 212 and the proportionate share of those investment expenses allocated to the regular interest holder.

The statement must be furnished to holders by March 15. To meet the statement requirement, you may furnish a copy of Form 1099-INT and a separate statement containing the additional information to the REMIC regular interest or CDO holder.

For information about reporting income to REMIC residual interest holders, see the instructions on Schedule Q (Form 1066), Quarterly Notice to Residual Interest Holder of REMIC Taxable Income or Net Loss Allocation.

Form 8811 and Reporting by Brokers or Middlemen.—REMICs and issuers of CDOs must also file Form 8811, Information Return for Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduits (REMICs) and Issuers of Collateralized Debt Obligations, within 30 days after the startup day of the REMIC or issue date of a CDO. The IRS will use the information on Forms 8811 to publish Pub. 938, Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduits (REMICs) Reporting Information, for use by certain brokers, middlemen, corporations, and others specified in Regulations section 1.6049-7(e)(4).

For the requirements that a REMIC or CDO issuer or a broker or middleman who holds a REMIC regular interest or a CDO furnish certain information on request, see Regulations sections 1.6049-7(e) and 1.6049-7(f)(7).

Form 1099-MISC

File Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, for each person to whom you have paid (1) at least $10 in royalties or broker payments in lieu of dividends or in lieu of tax-exempt interest (see Box 8), (2) at least $600 in rents, services (including parts and materials), prizes and awards, and other income payments, and medical and health care payments, or (3) any fishing boat proceeds. In addition, use Form 1099-MISC to report that direct sales of at least $5,000 of consumer products were made to a buyer for resale. You must also file Form 1099-MISC for each person from whom you have withheld any Federal income tax under the backup withholding rules regardless of the amount of the payment. Report only payments made in the course of your trade or business, including those made by Federal, state, or local government agencies and activities deemed nonprofit.

Caution: Be sure to report payments in the proper box because the IRS uses this information to determine whether the recipient has properly reported the payment.

Trade or Business.—Payments are to be reported only by persons engaged in a trade or business when payments are made in the course of such trade or business. Thus, personal payments are not reportable. You are engaged in a trade or business if you operate for gain or profit. However, certain nonprofit organizations are considered to be engaged in a trade or business and are subject to the reporting requirement. They include trusts of qualified pension or profit-sharing plans of employers, certain organizations exempt from tax under section 501(c) or (d), and farmers' cooperatives that are exempt from tax under section 521. Payments by Federal, state, or local government agencies are also reportable.

Exceptions.—Some payments are not required to be reported on Form 1099-MISC, although they may be taxable to the recipient. Payments for which a Form 1099-MISC is not required include: (1) payments to a corporation, except those required to be reported in boxes 6 and 8, (2) payments for merchandise, (3) payments of rent to real estate agents, (4) wages and travel allowances paid to employees (report on Form W-2), and (5) PS 58 costs (report on a separate Form 1099-R). See below for additional payments not reportable on Form 1099-MISC.

Scholarships.—DO NOT use this form to report scholarship or fellowship grants. Scholarship or fellowship grants that are taxable to the recipient because they are paid for teaching, research, or other services as a condition for receiving the grant are considered wages and must be reported on Form W-2. Other taxable scholarship or fellowship payments (to a degree or nondegree candidate) are not required to be reported by you to the IRS on any form. See Notice 87-31, 1987-1 C.B. 475, for more information.

Fees Paid to Informants.—A payment to an informant as an award, fee, or reward for information about criminal activity is not required to be reported if the payment is made by a Federal, state, or local government agency, or by a nonprofit organization exempt from tax under section 501(c)(3) that makes the payment to further the charitable purpose of lessening the burdens of government. For more information, see Regulations section 1.6041-3(n).

Directors' Fees.—Directors' fees reportable on Form 1099-MISC must be reported in the year paid. Report them in box 7.

Wages Paid to Estate or Beneficiary.—Payments to an estate or beneficiary for wages or other compensation of a deceased employee must be reported in box 3 on Form 1099-MISC. Enter the name and TIN of the payment recipient on Form 1099-MISC. For example, if the recipient is an individual, enter the name and SSN of the individual. If the recipient is the estate, enter the name and EIN of the estate. In addition, they may be reportable on Form W-2 if paid in the year of death. See Rev. Rul. 86-109, 1986-2 C.B. 196, for the reporting requirements. However, report the payment in box 3 rather than in box 7 (as specified in the revenue ruling).

However, death benefits from qualified and nonqualified deferred compensation plans paid to the estate or beneficiary of a decedent are reportable on Form 1099-R. See the instructions for Form 1099-R later in this publication.

Statements to Recipients.—For information about the requirement of furnishing a statement to each recipient, see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

2nd TIN Not.—You may enter an "X" in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect taxpayer identification number (TIN). If you mark this box, you will comply with a safe harbor due diligence requirement of Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-89, and the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account. Also see Regulations section 301.6724-1(g).

Box 1.—Enter amounts paid to recipients for all types of rents, such as real estate rentals paid for office space (unless paid to a real estate agent), machine rentals (for example, hiring a bulldozer to level your parking lot), and pasture rentals (for example, farmers paying for the use of grazing land). If the machine rental is part of a contract that includes both the use of the machine and the operator, the rental should be prorated between the rent of the machine (reported in box 1) and the operator's charge (reported as nonemployee compensation in box 7). Public housing agencies must report in box 1 rental assistance payments made to owners of housing projects. See Rev. Rul. 88-53, 1988-1 C.B. 384.

Coin-operated amusements.—If an arrangement between an owner of coin-operated amusements and an owner of a business establishment where the amusements are placed is a lease of the amusements or the amusement space, the owner of the amusements or the owner of the space, whoever makes the payments, must report the lease payments in box 1 of Form 1099-MISC if the payments total at least $600. However, if the arrangement is a joint venture, the joint venture must file a Form 1065 and provide each partner with information necessary to report the partner's share of the taxable income. Coin-operated amusements include video games, pinball machines, jukeboxes, pool tables, slot machines, and other machines and gaming devices operated by coins or tokens inserted into the machines by individual users. For more information, see Rev. Rul. 92-49, 1992-1 C.B. 433.

Box 2.—Enter gross royalty payments of $10 or more before reduction for severance and other taxes that may have been withheld and paid. Include in this box gross royalties (before reduction for fees, commissions, or expenses) paid by a publisher directly to an author or literary agent or paid by a literary agent to an author. Do not include surface royalties. They should be reported in box 1. Do not report oil or gas payments for a working interest in box 2; report payments for working interests in box 7. Do not report timber royalties made under a "pay-as-cut" contract; report such timber royalties on Form 1099-S.

Box 3.—Enter prizes and awards that are not for services rendered. Include the fair market value of merchandise won on game shows. Prizes and awards for employees must be reported on Form W-2. (See the Instructions for Form W-2.) Prizes and awards for services rendered by nonemployees, such as an award for the top commission salesperson, are reported in box 7.

Prizes and awards received in recognition of past accomplishments in religious, charitable, scientific, artistic, educational, literary, or civic fields are not reportable if (1) the winners are chosen without action on their part, (2) the winners are not expected to perform future services, AND (3) the payer transfers the prize or award to a charitable organization or governmental unit pursuant to a designation made by the recipient. See Rev. Proc. 87-54, 1987-2 C.B. 669.

Also report in this box any payment required to be reported on Form 1099-MISC that should not be reported in one of the other boxes on the form. For example, report punitive damages paid in cases that do not involve physical injury or sickness and any other taxable damages. Also report payments to nonemployees specified in, and payments similar to those specified in, Rev. Rul. 65-18, 1965-1 C.B. 32, relating to payments to patients and members in Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) hospitals and domiciliaries under the VA therapeutic or rehabilitative program.

Box 4.—Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TIN to you become subject to withholding at a 31% rate on payments required to be reported in boxes 1, 2 (net of severance taxes), 3, 5 (to the extent paid in cash), 6, 7, 8, and 10 on this form.

Box 5.—Enter the share of all proceeds from the sale of a catch or the fair market value of a distribution in kind to each crew member of fishing boats with normally fewer than 10 crewmembers.

Box 6.—Enter payments made in the course of your trade or business to each physician or other supplier or provider of medical or health care services, including payments made by medical and health care insurers under health, accident, and sickness insurance programs. In the case of a corporation, list the corporation as the recipient rather than the individual providing the services. See Rev. Ruls.

69-595, 1969-2 C.B. 242, and 70-608, 1970-2 C.B. 286.

The exemption from issuing Form 1099-MISC to a corporation does not apply to payments for medical or health care services provided by corporations, including professional corporations.

Box 7.—Enter nonemployee compensation. Include fees, commissions, prizes and awards for services rendered, or other forms of compensation for services rendered for your trade or business by an individual who is not your employee. Include oil and gas payments for a working interest, whether or not services are performed. Also include expenses incurred for the use of an entertainment facility that you treat as compensation to a nonemployee. Do not report in box 7, nor elsewhere on Form 1099-MISC, PS 58 costs (reported on Form 1099-R) or an employee's wages, travel or auto allowance, or bonuses (reported on Form W-2).

Generally, amounts reportable in box 7 are subject to self-employment tax. If payments are not subject to this tax and they are not reportable elsewhere on Form 1099-MISC, report the payments in box 3.

If the following four conditions are met, a payment is generally reportable as nonemployee compensation: (1) you made the payment to someone who is not your employee; (2) you made the payment for services in the course of your trade or business (including government agencies and nonprofit organizations); (3) you made the payment to someone other than a corporation, e.g., an individual or a partnership; and (4) you made payments to the payee of at least $600 during the year.

Examples of payments to be reported in box 7 are:

1. Attorneys' and accountants' fees for professional services.
2. Fees paid by one professional to another, such as fee-splitting or referral fees.
3. Payments by attorneys to witnesses or experts in legal adjudication.
4. Payment for services, including payment for parts or materials used to render the services as long as supplying the parts or materials was incidental to providing the service. For example, report the total insurance company payments to an auto repair shop under a repair contract indicating an amount for labor and another amount for parts, since furnishing parts was incidental to repairing the auto.
5. Commissions paid to nonemployee salespersons, subject to repayment but not repaid during the calendar year.
6. A fee paid to a nonemployee and travel reimbursement for which the nonemployee did not account to the payer if the fee and reimbursement aggregate at least $600.
7. Payments to nonemployee entertainers for services.
8. Exchanges of services between individuals in the course of their trades or businesses. For example, an attorney represents a painter for nonpayment of business debts in exchange for the painting of the attorney's law offices. The amount reportable by each on Form 1099-MISC is the fair market value of his or her own services rendered. However, if the attorney represents the painter in a divorce proceeding, the attorney must report on Form 1099-MISC the value of his or her services, but the painter need not report. The payment by the painter is not made in the course of the painter's trade or business, even though the painting services are of the type normally performed in the course of the painter's trade or business.

9. Taxable fringe benefits for nonemployees. For information on valuation of fringe benefits, see Pub. 535, Business Expenses.

10. Gross oil and gas payments for a working interest.

11. Payments to current and former self-employed insurance salespersons and agents for (a) amounts paid after retirement, but calculated as a percentage of commissions received by the individual from the paying company prior to retirement; (b) renewal commissions; and (c) deferred commissions paid after retirement but for sales made before retirement.

Note: To qualify for relief under section 530 of the Revenue Act of 1978 as extended by section 269(c) of Pub. L. 97-248, relating to the employment tax status of independent contractors and employees, employers must file Form 1099-MISC. Additional requirements for relief are discussed in Rev. Proc. 85-18, 1985-1 C.B. 518. Also see Notice 87-19, 1987-1 C.B. 455, for special rules that may apply to certain skilled workers, such as engineers, designers, drafters, computer programmers, and systems analysts, and Rev. Rul. 87-41, 1987-1 C.B. 296.

Golden Parachute Payments.—A typical golden parachute payment is one made by a corporation to a certain officer, shareholder, or highly compensated individual when a change in the ownership or control of the corporation occurs or when a change in the ownership of a substantial part of the corporate assets occurs. See section 280G for more information.

In box 7 report any excess golden parachute payments paid to a nonemployee. Enter the letters "EPP" next to this amount. Also enter the total compensation, including any golden parachute payments. Your entry should be in the following format:

Box 8.—Enter aggregate payments of at least $10 received by a broker on behalf of a customer in lieu of dividends or tax-exempt interest as a result of the transfer of a customer's securities for use in a short sale. Form 1099-MISC must be filed with the IRS and furnished to the customer on whose behalf you received the payment. However, for substitute payments in lieu of dividends, do not file

Form 1099-MISC nor furnish it to your customer if your customer is an individual, unless you have reason to know on the record date of the dividend payment that such substitute dividend payment is in lieu of (1) an exempt-interest dividend, (2) a capital gain dividend, (3) a return of capital, or (4) a dividend subject to a foreign tax credit. Form 1099-MISC is required to be filed for and furnished to an individual on whose behalf you received a payment in lieu of tax-exempt interest. If you are not required to make a report on Form 1099-MISC for substitute dividends of at least $10, you must report the substitute dividends on Form 1099-DIV.

Substitute payment means a payment in lieu of (1) tax-exempt interest to the extent that interest (including OID) has accrued while the short sale was open, and (2) a dividend, if the ex-dividend date is after the transfer of stock for use in a short sale and before the closing of the short sale.

For more information about reporting substitute payments, see Regulations section 1.6045-2.

Box 9.—Sales by you of $5,000 or more of consumer products to a person on a buy-sell, deposit-commission, or other commission basis for resale (by the buyer or any other person) anywhere other than in a permanent retail establishment. Enter an "X" in the checkbox in box 9. No dollar amount is needed.

If you are reporting an amount in box 7, you may also check box 9 on the same Form 1099-MISC.

The report required to be given to the recipient for these direct sales need not be made on the official form. It may be in the form of a letter showing this information along with commissions, prizes, awards, etc.

Box 10.—Enter crop insurance proceeds paid to farmers by insurance companies, unless the farmer has informed the insurance company that expenses have been capitalized under section 278, 263A, or 447.

Boxes 11 and 12.—These boxes, and Copies 1 and 2, are provided for your convenience only and need not be completed for the IRS. If you withhold state income tax, you may enter it in box 11. In box 12, enter the abbreviated name of the state and the payer's state identification number, assigned by the state. Copy 1 may be used to provide information to the state, and Copy 2 may be used as the recipient's copy for use in filing the state income tax return.

Form 1099-OID

File Form 1099-OID, Original Issue Discount, if the original issue discount (OID) includible in gross income is at least $10 and you are any of the following: (1) an issuer with any bond outstanding or other evidence of indebtedness in registered or bearer form issued with OID; (2) an issuer of certificates of deposit (CDs) made, purchased, or renewed after 1970 if the term of the obligation or deposit is more than 1 year: (3) a financial institution having other deposit arrangements, such as time deposits or bonus-savings plans having a term in excess of 1 year provided the payment of interest is deferred until maturity; (4) a broker or other middleman holding an OID obligation, including CDs, as nominee for the actual owner; or (5) a real estate mortgage investment conduit (REMIC) or issuer of a collateralized debt obligation (CDO). Also, file Form 1099-OID in any case in which you are required to deduct and withhold taxes even if the amount of the OID is less than $10.

Original Issue Discount.—Original issue discount means the difference between the stated redemption price at maturity and the issue price of a debt instrument. In the case of a stripped bond or coupon, OID is the difference between the stated redemption price at maturity and the acquisition price. A discount of less than ¼ of 1% of the stated redemption price at maturity, multiplied by the number of full years from the date of issue to maturity, is considered to be zero.

Reporting OID.—You must prepare a Form 1099-OID for each person who is a holder of record of the obligations if the OID includible in the holder's gross income is at least $10. Semiannual record date reporting was eliminated in 1992.

For REMICs and CDOs, see the discussion about REMICs and CDOs, later.

Ordinarily, you will file only one Form 1099-OID for the depositor or holder of a particular obligation for the calendar year. If a person holds more than one discount obligation, issue separate Forms 1099-OID for each obligation. However, if a person holds more than one certificate of the same issue for the same period of time during the calendar year, and if Form 1099-OID amounts are proportional, you may treat all such certificates as one discount obligation and file a single Form 1099-OID.

For time deposits and face-amount certificates, use the actual date of deposit and compute OID on a straight-line, monthly prorated basis for obligations issued before July 2, 1982, and on a daily economic accrual basis for obligations issued after July 1, 1982.

If you are a broker or middleman who holds a bank CD as nominee, whether or not you sold the CD to the owner, you must determine the amount of OID includible in the income of the owner, if any, and report it on Form 1099-OID.

Pub. 1212, List of Original Issue Discount Instruments, contains information on certain outstanding publicly traded discount obligations.

Issuers of certain publicly offered debt instruments having OID must file Form 8281, Information Return for Publicly Offered Original Issue Discount Instruments, within 30 days after the date of issuance. The information provided on that form will enable the IRS to update Pub. 1212. See Form 8281 for details.

Exceptions.—You are not required to file Form 1099-OID for payments made to certain payees including a corporation, a tax-exempt organization, an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), a U.S. agency, a state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. possession, or a registered securities or commodities dealer.

Do not report interest on U.S. Savings Bonds on this form. Report it on Form 1099-INT. Also report OID on obligations with a term of 1 year or less on Form 1099-INT.

Statements to Recipients.—For an explanation of the requirement to furnish an official form to recipients in person or by statement mailing, see part H under General Instructions, earlier. Also see Pub. 1179.

2nd TIN Not.—You may enter an "X" in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect taxpayer identification number (TIN). If you mark this box, you will comply with a safe harbor due diligence requirement of Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-89, and the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account. Also see Regulations section 301.6724-1(g).

Box 1.—Report the OID on the obligation for the part of the year it was owned by the record holder. For REMICs and CDOs, see the discussion about REMICs and CDOs, later.

Box 2.—Enter any interest other than OID paid or credited on this obligation during the year. Some OID instruments pay regular interest, in addition to the OID, at certain intervals during the life of the instrument. However, if OID is the only interest on this obligation, leave this box blank. Interest reported here must not be reported on Form 1099-INT. For REMICs and CDOs, see the discussion about REMICs and CDOs, later.

Box 3.—Enter amounts of interest or principal forfeited because of an early withdrawal, such as an early withdrawal from a CD, that are deductible from gross income by the recipient. Do not reduce the amounts in boxes 1 and 2 by the amount of the forfeiture. For detailed instructions for determining the amount of forfeiture deductible by the holder, see Rev. Ruls. 75-20, 1975-1 C.B. 29, and 75-21, 1975-1 C.B. 367.

Box 4.—Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TIN to you in the manner required become subject to withholding at a 31% rate on amounts required to be reported in boxes 1 and 2 (which may be reduced by the amount reported in box 3) limited to the cash paid on these obligations.

Box 5.—Enter the CUSIP number, if any; if there is no CUSIP number, the abbreviation for the stock exchange, the abbreviation for the issuer used by the stock exchange, the coupon rate, and the year of maturity (e.g., NYSE XYZ 12½ 95). If the issuer of the obligation is other than the payer, show the name of the issuer.

REMICs and Issuers of Collateralized Debt Obligations

REMICs, issuers of collateralized debt obligations (CDOs), and any broker or middleman who holds as a nominee a REMIC regular interest or CDO must file Form 1099-OID to report OID of $10 or more accrued to a REMIC regular interest holder or a holder of a CDO. Also use Form 1099-OID to report other interest accrued to a REMIC regular interest holder during the year or paid to a holder of a CDO. Use Form 1099-INT to report interest if no OID is includible in the regular interest holder's or CDO holder's income for the year.

You are not required to file or issue Form 1099-OID for exempt recipients including the following holders of a REMIC regular interest or a CDO:

1. A corporation.
2. A broker.
3. A middleman/nominee.
4. A financial institution.
5. An IRA.
6. A tax-exempt organization.

For additional exempt recipients, see Regulations section 1.6049-7(c).

Box 1.—Report in box 1 the aggregate amount of OID includible in the gross income of each REMIC regular interest or CDO holder for the period during the year for which the return is made.

Box 2.—Report in box 2 any amount of interest, other than OID, accrued to each REMIC regular interest holder or paid to each CDO holder. If you are a single-class REMIC (as defined in Temporary Regulations section 1.67-3T(a)(2)(ii)), include in box 2 the regular interest holder's share of investment expenses of the REMIC for the year.

Statements to Holders.—For each Form 1099-OID you are required to file, you must furnish a statement to the REMIC regular interest or CDO holder identified on the form. The statement must contain the information shown on Form 1099-OID, including the legend shown on Copy B of the official Form 1099-OID, and an indication that these items are being furnished to the IRS. The statement must also show the information specified in Regulations section 1.6049-7(f)(2)(ii). In addition, the statement furnished by a REMIC must show, for each calendar quarter, the information specified in Regulations section 1.6049-7(f)(3). Also see Regulations section 1.6049-7(f)(3)(ii) for information that may be required to be reported to a real estate investment trust (REIT) that holds a regular interest.

A single-class REMIC (as defined in Temporary Regulations section 1.67-3T(a)(2)(ii)) must include in the statement the investment expenses paid or accrued during each calendar quarter by the REMIC for which the REMIC is allowed a deduction under section 212 and the proportionate share of those investment expenses allocated to the regular interest holder.

The statement must be furnished to holders by March 15. To meet the statement requirement, you may furnish a copy of Form 1099-OID and a separate statement containing the additional information to the REMIC regular interest or CDO holder.

For information about reporting income to REMIC residual interest holders, see the instructions on Schedule Q (Form 1066), Quarterly Notice to Residual Interest Holder of REMIC Taxable Income or Net Loss Allocation.

Form 8811 and Reporting by Brokers or Middlemen.—REMICs and issuers of CDOs must also file Form 8811, Information Return for Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduits (REMICs) and Issuers of Collateralized Debt Obligations, within 30 days after the startup day of the REMIC or issue date of a CDO. The IRS will use the information on Forms 8811 to publish Pub. 938, Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduits (REMICs) Reporting Information, for use by certain brokers, middlemen, corporations, and others specified in Regulations section 1.6049-7(e)(4).

For the requirements that a REMIC or CDO issuer or a broker or middleman who holds a REMIC regular interest or a CDO furnish certain information on request, see Regulations sections 1.6049-7(e) and 1.6049-7(f)(7).

Form 1099-PATR

File Form 1099-PATR, Taxable Distributions Received From Cooperatives, for each person to whom the cooperative has paid at least $10 in patronage dividends and other distributions described in section 6044(b) or from whom you withheld any Federal income tax under the backup withholding rules regardless of the amount of the payment. A cooperative determined to be primarily engaged in the retail sale of goods or services that are generally for personal, living, or family use of the members may ask for and receive exemption from filing Form 1099-PATR. See Form 3491, Consumer Cooperative Exemption Application, for information about how to apply for this exemption.

Report dividends paid on cooperatives' capital stock on Form 1099-DIV.

Statements to Recipients.—For an explanation of the requirement to furnish an official form to recipients in person or by statement mailing, see part H under General Instructions, earlier. Also see Pub. 1179.

2nd TIN Not.—You may enter an "X" in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect taxpayer identification number (TIN). If you mark this box, you will comply with a safe harbor due diligence requirement of Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-89, and the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account. Also see Regulations section 301.6724-1(g).

Box 1.—Enter the total patronage dividends paid in cash (qualified or "consent" checks), qualified written notices of allocation (face amount), and other property (except nonqualified written notices of allocation).

Box 2.—Enter the total nonpatronage distributions paid in cash (qualified or "consent" checks), qualified written notices of allocation (face amount), and other property (not including nonqualified written notices of allocation). This box applies only to farmers' cooperatives exempt from tax under section 521.

Box 3.—Enter the total per-unit retain allocations paid in cash, qualified per-unit retain certificates (face amount), and other property.

Box 4.—Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TIN to you in the manner required become subject to withholding at a 31% rate on payments required to be reported in boxes 1, 2, 3, and 5 to the extent such payments are in cash or qualified check. See Temporary Regulations section 35a.9999-3, Q/A-10 for more information on backup withholding by cooperatives.

Box 5.—Enter all redemptions of nonqualified written notices of allocation issued as patronage dividends, nonqualified written notices of allocation issued as nonpatronage allocations (applicable only to farmers' cooperatives qualifying under section 521), and nonqualified per-unit retain certificates, issued with respect to marketing.

Pass-Through Credits.—Report in the appropriate boxes the patron's share of unused credits that the cooperative is passing through to this patron:

Box 6.—Investment credit.

Box 7.—Energy investment credit.

Box 8.—Jobs credit.

Form 1099-R

File Form 1099-R, Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc., for each person to whom you have made any designated distribution from profit-sharing or retirement plans, IRAs, annuities, pensions, etc., whether or not you withheld Federal income tax.

If part of the distribution is taxable and part is nontaxable, file a Form 1099-R reporting the entire distribution. However, if the total amount of the gross distribution paid to someone for the year is less than $1, a Form 1099-R need not be filed for that person.

Also report death benefit payments made by employers that are not made as part of a pension, profit-sharing, or retirement plan. (See the instructions for box 1, later.) For loans treated as distributions, see section 72(p). Do not report payments subject to withholding of social security and Medicare taxes on this form. Report such payments on Form W-2.

Reportable disability payments made from a retirement plan should be reported on Form 1099-R.

Do not report amounts totally exempt from tax such as workmen's compensation and Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) payments.

Military Retirement Pay.—Payments to military retirees are reportable on Form 1099-R. Military retirement pay awarded as a property settlement to a former spouse is reportable on Form 1099-R under the name and taxpayer identification number of the recipient, not those of the military retiree.

Payments of survivor benefit annuities are also reportable on Form 1099-R.

Nonqualified Plans.—Report distributions to plan participants from nonqualified plans, including section 457 plans, on Form W-2, not on Form 1099-R. However, report distributions to beneficiaries of deceased employees on Form 1099-R.

Charitable Gift Annuities.—If cash or capital gain property is donated in exchange for a charitable gift annuity, distributions from the annuity are reportable on Form 1099-R. Report in box 1 the total amount distributed during the year. Report in box 2a the taxable amount. If any amount is taxable as a capital gain, report it in box 3. Report in box 5 any nontaxable amount. Enter Code F in box 7. See Regulations section 1.1011-2(c) Example 8.

Insurance Contracts.—Report on Form 1099-R payments of matured or redeemed annuity, endowment, and life insurance contracts. However, you need not file Form 1099-R to report the surrender of a life insurance contract if it is reasonable to believe that none of the payment is includible in the income of the recipient. If you are reporting the surrender of a life insurance contract on Form 1099-R, enter Code 7 in box 7.

Also report premiums paid by a trustee or custodian for current life or other insurance protection (PS 58 costs). PS 58 costs are not subject to the 10% early distribution tax under section 72(t).

Section 1035 exchange.—A tax-free section 1035 exchange is the exchange of (1) a life insurance contract for another life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, (2) an endowment contract for an annuity contract or for another endowment contract that provides for regular payments to begin no later than they would have begun under the old contract, and (3) an annuity contract for another annuity contract.

These tax-free exchanges of contracts are generally reportable on Form 1099-R. However, if (1) the exchange occurs within the same company, (2) the exchange is solely a contract for contract exchange, as defined above, that does not result in a designated distribution, and (3) the company maintains adequate records of the policyholder's basis in the contracts, reporting on Form 1099-R is not required. For example, a life insurance contract issued by Company X exchanged solely for another life insurance contract previously issued by Company X is not reportable on Form 1099-R as long as the company maintains the required records. (See Rev. Proc. 92-26, 1992-1 C.B. 744.)

For those section 1035 exchanges that are reportable on Form 1099-R, enter the total value of the contract in box 1, 0 (zero) in box 2a, the total premiums paid in box 5, and Code 6 in box 7.

IRA and SEP Distributions.—Distributions from an individual retirement arrangement (IRA) or simplified employee pension (SEP) must be reported in boxes 1 and 2a regardless of the amount. You may mark the “Taxable amount not determined” box in box 2b. But see the instructions for box 2a for how to report the withdrawal of contributions under section 408(d)(4). Also see Direct Rollovers and Transfers, below.

IRA Revocation.—If an IRA is revoked during its first 7 days (under Regulations section 1.408-6(d)(4)(ii)), the distribution from the IRA must be reported. In addition, Form 5498 must be filed to report any regular or rollover contribution to an IRA that is revoked. Transfers from one IRA to another are not reportable on Form 5498.

If a regular contribution is made to an IRA that later is revoked, and distribution is made to the taxpayer, enter the gross distribution in box 1 of Form 1099-R. If no earnings are distributed, enter 0 (zero) in box 2a and Code 8 in box 7. If earnings are distributed, enter the amount of earnings in box 2a. Such earnings could be subject to the early distribution tax under section 72(t). If they are subject to that tax, enter Code 1 in box 7; if the earnings are not subject to that tax, enter Code 8.

Note: If you know that the taxpayer deducted the contribution, report the total amount distributed in box 2a.

If a rollover contribution is made to an IRA that later is revoked, and distribution is made to the taxpayer, enter in boxes 1 and 2a of Form 1099-R the gross distribution and the appropriate code in box 7. Follow this same procedure for a transfer from one IRA to another IRA that later is revoked. The distribution could be subject to the early distribution tax under section 72(t).

If an employer SEP contribution is made and the SEP is revoked by the employee, report the distribution as fully taxable.

For more information, see Rev. Proc. 91-70, 1991-2 C.B. 899.

DECs.—If you are reporting a total distribution from a plan that includes a distribution of deductible voluntary employee contributions (DECs), file two Forms 1099-R—one to report the distribution of DECs, the other to report the distribution from the other part of the plan. Report the distribution of DECs in boxes 1 and 2a on the separate Form 1099-R.

Direct Rollovers and Transfers.—You must report a direct rollover of an eligible rollover distribution. A direct rollover is the direct payment of the distribution to an eligible retirement plan, including an IRA. An eligible rollover distribution is the taxable part of any distribution from a qualified plan (or tax-sheltered annuity but not an IRA) except (1) one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (at least annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the employee or for the joint lives (or life expectancies) of the employee and the employee’s beneficiary or for a specified period of 10 years or more, and (2) any part of a distribution that is a minimum distribution required by section 401(a)(9). Other exceptions may apply. See Codes G and H under Box 7 later. For information on withholding on eligible rollover distributions that are not direct rollovers, see Box 4 later. For more information on direct rollovers, see Temporary Regulations sections 1.401(a)(31)-1T, 1.402(c)-2T, 1.402(f)-2T, 1.403(b)-2T, and 31.3405(c)-1T.

Report a direct rollover in box 1 and 0 (zero) in box 2a.

Do not report a direct trustee-to-trustee transfer from an IRA that involves no payment or distribution of funds to the participant.

You may have to report exchanges of insurance contracts, including a tax-free exchange under section 1035, under which any designated distribution may be made. See Section 1035 exchange, earlier.

Explanation to Recipients Before Eligible Rollover Distributions (Section 402(f) Notice).—Within a reasonable period of time before making an eligible rollover distribution, the plan administrator must provide a written explanation to the recipient. The plan administrator must explain the rollover rules, the special tax treatment for lump-sum distributions, the direct rollover option, and the mandatory 20% withholding rules. Notice 92-48, 1992-45 I.R.B. 25, contains a model notice the plan administrator can use to satisfy this requirement.

Beneficiaries.—Prepare Form 1099-R using the name and taxpayer identification number (TIN) of the beneficiary, not those of the decedent. If there are multiple beneficiaries, report on each Form 1099-R only the amount paid to the beneficiary whose name appears on the Form 1099-R, and enter the percentage in box 9.

Corrective Distributions.—For reporting the distribution of excess deferrals, excess contributions, and excess aggregate contributions, see Code 8 under Box 7, later.

Excess Annual Additions Under Section 415.—You must report on Form 1099-R distributions made under Regulations section 1.415-6(b)(6)(iv) of elective deferrals or a return of employee contributions (and gains attributable to such employee contributions) to reduce excess annual additions arising from the allocation of forfeitures, a reasonable error in estimating a participant’s compensation, or a reasonable error in determining the amount of elective deferrals that may be made for an individual under the limits of section 415.

Such distributions are not eligible rollover distributions although they are subject to income tax withholding under section 3405. They are not subject to social security, Medicare, or Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA) taxes. In addition, such distributions are not subject to the early distributions tax under section 72(t) nor the excess distributions tax under section 4980A.

You may report the distribution of elective deferrals and employee contributions (and gains attributable to such employee contributions) on the same Form 1099-R. However, if other distributions are made during the year, they must be reported on a separate Form 1099-R. Because the distribution of elective deferrals is fully taxable (no part of the distribution is a return of the investment in the contract), report the total amount of the distribution in boxes 1 and 2a. Leave box 5 blank, and enter Code E in box 7. For a return of employee contributions plus gains, enter the gross distribution in box 1, the gains attributable to the employee contributions being returned in box 2a, and the employee contributions being returned in box 5. Enter Code E in box 7.

For more information, see Rev. Proc. 92-93, 1992-47 I.R.B. 13.

Failing the ADP or ACP Test After a Total Distribution.—If a total distribution was made during 1993 and a Form 1099-R was filed with the IRS, then in 1994 you discover that the plan failed the ADP (actual deferral percentage) test (under section 401(k)(3)) for 1993 and you compute excess contributions or the ACP (actual contribution percentage) test (under section 401(m)(2)) and you compute excess aggregate contributions, you must recharacterize part of the total distribution as excess contributions or excess aggregate contributions. First, file a CORRECTED Form 1099-R for 1993 for the correct amount of the total distribution (not including the amount recharacterized as excess contributions or excess aggregate contributions). Second, file a NEW Form 1099-R for 1993 for the excess contributions or excess aggregate contributions.

To avoid a late filing penalty if the new Form 1099-R is filed after the due date, enter in the bottom margin of Form 1096 the words “Filed To Correct Excess Contributions.”

You should also issue copies of the Forms 1099-R to the plan participant with an explanation of why these new forms are being issued.

Missing Participants.—Under Policy Statement P-1-187, the IRS has a letter forwarding program that could help plan administrators contact missing retirement plan participants (or possibly their beneficiaries). To inform individuals of their rights to benefits under a retirement plan, the IRS will forward letters from plan administrators to the missing individuals if the administrators provide the names and social security numbers of the missing individuals. However, the IRS cannot disclose individuals' addresses or give confirmation of letter delivery. All undelivered letters will be destroyed.

For further information, contact the Disclosure Officer at your local IRS district office.

Filer.—The payer or plan administrator must file Form 1099-R using the same name and employer identification number used to deposit any tax withheld and to file a quarterly withholding tax return (Form 941 or 941E).

Statements to Recipients.—For information about the requirement to furnish a statement to each recipient, see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

Box 1.—Enter the total amount of the distribution before income tax or other deductions were withheld. Include direct rollovers, premiums paid by a trustee or custodian for current life or other insurance protection (PS 58 costs), and the gross amount of IRA or SEP distributions in this box. However, in the case of a distribution by a trust representing CDs redeemed early, report the net amount distributed. Also, see Box 6.

Include in this box the value of U.S. Savings Bonds distributed from the plan. Enter the appropriate taxable amount in box 2a. Please furnish a statement to the plan participant showing the value of each bond at the time of distribution. This will provide him or her with the information necessary to figure the interest income on each bond when it is redeemed.

In addition to reporting death benefit payments made from a plan, report here any death benefit payments made by employers that are not made as part of a pension, profit-sharing, or retirement plan. Also enter this amount in box 2a. Enter Code 4 in box 7. For example, the board of directors of XYZ Corporation votes to pay the widow of one of its employees a lump-sum "death benefit." This amount must be reported in boxes 1 and 2a, and Code 4 must be shown in box 7.

For a section 1035 exchange, see Section 1035 exchange under Insurance Contracts earlier.

Box 2a.—Generally, you must enter the amount includible as income. However, if you are unable to reasonably obtain the data needed to compute the taxable amount, leave this box blank. Do not include excludable or tax-deferred amounts reportable in boxes 5, 6, and 8.

Include PS 58 costs that were reported in box 1. However, do not report PS 58 costs and a distribution on the same Form 1099-R. Use a separate Form 1099-R for each. Enter Code 9 in box 7 for PS 58 costs. See Regulations section 1.72-16(b) and Rev. Ruls. 55-747, 1955-2 C.B. 228, and 66-110, 1966-1 C.B. 12, for information on the cost of premiums paid by an employees' trust under a qualified plan for current life insurance protection taxable to plan participants or their beneficiaries.

If you made periodic distributions from a qualified employee plan under section 401(a), from an employee annuity under section 403(a), or from an annuity contract under section 403(b), and the annuity starting date is after July 1, 1986, you may elect to use a simplified safe harbor method to compute the taxable amount. See Notice 88-118, 1988-2 C.B. 450.

Generally, you are not required to compute the taxable amount of an IRA or SEP nor designate whether any part of a distribution is a return of basis attributable to nondeductible contributions. Therefore, report the total amount distributed from an IRA or SEP in box 2a. This will be the same amount reported in box 1. You may mark the "Taxable amount not determined" box in box 2b. However, in the case of a distribution by a trust representing CDs redeemed early, report the net amount distributed. Do not include any amount paid for IRA insurance protection in this box. For a distribution of contributions plus earnings from an IRA under section 408(d)(4) (previously excess contributions), report the gross distribution in box 1 and only the earnings in box 2a, and enter Code 8 or P, whichever is applicable, in box 7. For a distribution of contributions without earnings after the due date of the individual's return, under section 408(d)(5), enter 0 (zero). Include DEC distributions in this box.

Losses.—If a distribution is a loss, do not enter a negative amount in this box. For example, if stock is distributed but the value is less than the employee's after-tax contributions, enter the value of the stock in box 1, leave box 2a blank, and enter the employee's contributions in box 5.

Box 2b—Taxable amount not determined.—Enter an "X" in this box only if you are unable to reasonably obtain the data needed to compute the taxable amount. If you mark this box, leave box 2a blank unless you are reporting an IRA distribution. Please make every effort to compute the taxable amount. See Notice 88-118 for the simplified safe harbor method of computing certain taxable amounts.

Box 2b—Total distribution.—Enter an "X" in this box only if the payment shown in box 1 is a total distribution. A total distribution is one or more distributions within 1 tax year in which the entire balance of the account is distributed. Any distribution that does not meet this definition is not a total distribution.

Box 3.—For lump-sum distributions only, enter the amount in box 2a eligible for the capital gain election under section 1122(h)(3) of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 for participants born before 1936 (or their beneficiaries). Enter the full amount eligible for the capital gain election.

To compute the months of an employee's active participation before 1974, count as 12 months any part of a calendar year in which an employee actively participated under the plan; for active participation after 1973, count as 1 month any part of a month in which the employee actively participated under the plan. See the example at the top of this page.

Active participation begins with the first month in which an employee became a participant under the plan and ends with the earliest of:

1. The month in which the employee received a lump-sum distribution under the plan;
2. In the case of an employee, other than a self-employed person or owner-employee, the month in which the employee separates from service;
3. The month in which the employee dies; or
4. For a self-employed person or owner-employee, the first month in which the employee becomes disabled (within the meaning of section 72(m)(7)).

For a charitable gift annuity, see Charitable Gift Annuities earlier.

Box 4.—Enter any Federal income tax withheld. This withholding is subject to the same deposit rules as wages, and the withholding tax return is Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return (or Form 941E).

Withhold on periodic payments as though the payments were wages, based on the recipient's Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments. The recipient may request additional withholding on Form W-4P or claim exemption from withholding. See Circular E, Employer's Tax Guide, for wage withholding tables.

Withhold 10% of a nonperiodic distribution that is not an eligible rollover distribution. The recipient may request additional withholding on Form W-4P or claim exemption from withholding.

Withhold 20% of an eligible rollover distribution from a qualified plan that is not a direct rollover. A recipient cannot claim exemption from withholding for such a distribution; however, no withholding is required for a direct rollover. Although the same rules generally apply to an eligible rollover distribution from a tax-sheltered annuity, a special effective date may apply.

The 20% withholding does not apply to distributions from IRAs.

See Cir. E for more information.

If a payee fails to furnish his or her correct TIN to you in the manner required, or if the IRS notifies you before any distribution that the TIN furnished is incorrect, a payee cannot claim exemption from withholding. Backup withholding does not apply.

For purposes of withholding, assume that the entire amount of an IRA distribution is taxable (except for the distribution of contributions under sections 408(d)(4), in which only the earnings are taxable, and 408(d)(5)).

Even though you may be using Code 1 in box 7 to designate an early distribution subject to the 10% tax specified in sections 72(q), (t), or (v), you are not required to withhold that tax.

Box 5.—Enter the employee's contributions to a profit-sharing or retirement plan, or insurance premiums. The entry in box 5 can include the tax-free part of any of the following: (a) contributions actually made by the employee over the years under the retirement or profit-sharing plan that were required to be included in the income of the employee when contributed ("after-tax contributions"), (b) contributions made by the employer but considered to have been contributed by the employee under section 72(f), (c) the accumulated cost of premiums paid for life insurance protection, taxable to the employee in previous years and in the current year under Regulations section 1.72-16 (PS 58 costs) (only if the life insurance contract itself is distributed), and (d) premiums paid on commercial annuities. Do not include contributions to IRAs, SEPs, DECAs, 401(k) plans, or any contribution to a retirement plan that was not an "after-tax contribution."

Generally, for qualified plans, tax-sheltered annuities, and nonqualified commercial annuities, enter in box 5 the employee contributions recovered tax free during the year based on the method you choose to determine the taxable amount to be entered in box 2a. If periodic payments began before 1993, you are not required to, but you are encouraged to, report in box 5.

In the year periodic payments begin, you must also report the total employee contributions available to be recovered tax free in the blank box below the "Account number" box. Label that box

"Total employee contributions." If any previous distributions were made, any amount recovered tax free in prior years must not appear in this box. The total employee contributions must be reported only in the first year of periodic payments. If periodic payments began before 1993, you need not, but you may, report the total employee contributions. In addition, you need not report the total employee contributions if the distribution is not eligible for the simplified safe harbor method of Notice 88-118.

If a total distribution is made, the total employee contributions available to be recovered tax free must be shown only in box 5. If any previous distributions were made, any amount recovered tax free in prior years must not appear in box 5.

If you are unable to reasonably obtain the data necessary to compute the taxable amount, leave box 5 blank.

For more information, see Rev. Proc. 92-86, 1992-42 I.R.B. 37.

For charitable gift annuities, see Charitable Gift Annuities earlier.

Box 6.—Use this box if a distribution includes securities of the employer corporation (or a subsidiary or parent corporation) and you can compute the net unrealized appreciation (NUA) in the employer's securities. Enter all the NUA in employer securities if this is a lump-sum distribution. If this is not a lump-sum distribution, enter only the NUA in employer securities attributable to employee contributions. See Regulations section 1.402(a)-1(b) for the determination of the NUA. Also see Notice 89-25 (Q/A-1), 1989-1 C.B. 662. Include the NUA in box 1 but not in box 2a.

Box 7.—Enter the appropriate code(s) from the list below that shows the type of distribution being made. Also, enter an "X" in the IRA/SEP checkbox if the distribution is from an IRA or SEP.

Read the codes carefully and enter the appropriate codes accurately because the IRS uses the codes to help determine whether the recipient has properly reported the distribution. If the codes you enter are incorrect, the IRS may improperly propose changes to the recipient's taxes.

Use the codes below for distributions from IRAs, SEPs, Keoghs, qualified plans, commercial annuities, insurance contracts, etc.

A numeric code must be entered, except when Code P, D, E, F, G, or H is used. When applicable, you may enter a numeric and an alpha code. For example, when using a Code P for an IRA distribution under section 408(d)(4), you may also enter Code 1, if it applies. Or for a normal distribution from a qualified plan that qualifies for 5- or 10-year averaging, enter Codes 7 and A. For a direct rollover to an IRA for the spouse of a deceased participant, enter Codes 4 and G.

Only two numeric combinations are permitted: Codes 8 and 1, or 8 and 2. If two other numeric codes are applicable, it may be necessary to file more than one Form 1099-R. For example, if part of a distribution is premature (Code 1) and part is not, one Form 1099-R must be filed for the part to which Code 1 applies and another Form 1099-R for the part that is a normal distribution, Code 7. In addition, for the distribution of excess deferrals, excess contributions, or excess aggregate contributions, parts of the distribution may be taxable in two or three different years. Thus, separate Forms 1099-R must be filed using Code 8, P, or D to indicate the year the amount is taxable.

If part of an eligible rollover distribution is paid in a direct rollover and part is not, you must file a separate Form 1099-R for each part showing the appropriate code on each form.

Codes.—

1—Early (premature) distribution, no known exception. Use Code 1 only if the employee/taxpayer has not reached age 59½, and only if none of the exceptions under section 72(q), (t), or (v) are known to apply. For example, if a hardship distribution is made for medical expenses, you probably will not know if the medical expense exception under section 72(t) applies. Therefore, use Code 1.

2—Early (premature) distribution, exception applies (as defined in section 72(q), (t), or (v)). Use Code 2 only if the employee/taxpayer has not reached age 59½ to indicate that an exception under 72(q), (t), or (v) applies. However, instead of Code 2, use Code 3 or 4, whichever applies, for an early distribution due to disability or death.

3—Disability.

4—Death. Use Code 4 regardless of the age of the employee/taxpayer to indicate payment to a decedent's beneficiary, including an estate or trust. Also use it for death benefit payments made by an employer but not made as part of a pension, profit-sharing, or retirement plan.

5—Prohibited transaction.

6—Section 1035 exchange. Use Code 6 to indicate the tax-free exchange of insurance contracts under section 1035.

7—Normal distribution. Use Code 7 for a normal distribution from any plan, including an IRA or SEP, if the employee/taxpayer is at least 59½. Also use Code 7 for the taxable surrender of a life insurance contract and for reporting income from a failed life insurance contract under section 7702(g) and (h). (See Rev. Rul. 91-17, 1991-1 C.B. 190.) Generally, use Code 7 if no other code applies.

8—Excess contributions plus earnings/excess deferrals (and/or earnings) taxable in 1993. Use Code 8 for an IRA distribution under section 408(d)(4), unless Code P applies. Also use this code for corrective distributions of excess deferrals, excess contributions, and excess aggregate contributions, unless Code P or D applies. For information about reporting corrective distributions, see Notice 89-32, 1989-1 C.B. 671; Notice 88-33, 1988-1 C.B. 513; and Notice 87-77, 1987-2 C.B. 385. (Notice 88-33 was modified by Rev. Proc. 91-44, 1991-2 C.B. 733, to provide that the income allocable to an excess contribution to a SARSEP (salary reduction simplified employee pension) is includible in gross income in the year withdrawn from the IRA.) Also see IRA Revocation, earlier.

9—PS 58 costs. Use Code 9 to report premiums paid by a trustee or custodian for current life or other insurance protection (PS 58 costs). See Box 2a for more information.

P—Excess contributions plus earnings/excess deferrals taxable in 1992. See the explanation for Code 8. The IRS suggests that anyone using Code P for the refund of an IRA contribution under section 408(d)(4) advise payees, at the time the distribution is made, that the earnings are taxable in the year in which the contribution was made.

A—Qualifies for 5- or 10-year averaging. Use Code A to indicate that the distribution qualifies for the averaging method of computing the tax on lump-sum distributions under section 402(d).

B—Qualifies for death benefit exclusion. Use Code B to indicate that the distribution qualifies for the death benefit exclusion under section 101(b).

C—Qualifies for both A and B.

D—Excess contributions plus earnings/excess deferrals taxable in 1991. See the explanation for Code 8.

E—Excess annual additions under section 415.

F—Charitable gift annuity.

G—Direct rollover to IRA.

H—Direct rollover to qualified plan or tax-sheltered annuity.

Box 8.—Enter the current actuarial value of an annuity contract that is a part of a lump-sum distribution. Do not include this item in boxes 1 and 2a.

To determine the value of an annuity contract, show the value as an amount equal to the current actuarial value of the annuity contract, reduced by an amount equal to the excess of the employee's contributions over the cash and other property (not including the annuity contract) distributed.

If an annuity contract is part of a multiple recipient lump-sum distribution, enter in box 8, along with the current actuarial value, the percentage of the total annuity contract each Form 1099-R represents.

Box 9.—If this is a total distribution and it is made to more than one person, enter the percentage received by the person whose name appears on Form 1099-R. You need not complete this box for IRA or SEP distributions.

Boxes 10–15.—These boxes and Copies 1 and 2 are provided for your convenience only and need not be completed for the IRS. If state or local income tax has been withheld on this distribution, you may enter it in boxes 10 and 13, as appropriate. In box 11, enter the abbreviated name of the state and the payer's state identification number. The state number is the payer's identification number assigned by the individual state. In box 14, enter the name of the locality. In boxes 12 and 15 you may enter the amount of the state or local distribution. Copy 1 may be used to provide information to the state or local tax department, and Copy 2 may be used as the recipient's copy for use in filing a state or local income tax return.

Form 1099-S

File Form 1099-S, Proceeds From Real Estate Transactions, to report the sale or exchange of real estate.

Note: You are not required to indicate on Form 1099-S that the transferor's (seller's) financing was Federally subsidized. Also, you are not required to enter (1) both total gross proceeds and the allocated gross proceeds for a multiple transferor transaction (enter either one or the other); (2) an indication that the transferor may receive property or services for an obligation having a stated principal amount; or (3) an indication that, in connection with a contingent payment transaction, the transferor may receive gross proceeds that cannot be determined with certainty under the regulations and is not included in gross proceeds.

Reportable Real Estate.—Generally, reporting is required if the transaction consists in whole or in part of the sale or exchange for money, indebtedness, property, or services, of any present or future ownership interest in any of the following:

1. Improved or unimproved land, including air space.
2. Inherently permanent structures, including any residential, commercial, or industrial building.
3. A condominium unit and its appurtenant fixtures and common elements, including land.
4. Stock in a cooperative housing corporation (as defined in section 216).

Sale or exchange.—A sale or exchange includes any transaction properly treated as a sale or exchange for Federal income tax purposes, even if the transaction is not currently taxable. For example, a sale of a principal residence is a reportable sale even though the transferor may be entitled to defer recognition of the gain on the sale because of the purchase of a new residence under section 1034 or because the transferor is entitled to exclude the gain under section 121 because of being age 55. Likewise, a transfer to a corporation that qualifies for nonrecognition of gain under section 351 is a reportable exchange.

Ownership interest.—An ownership interest includes fee simple interests, life estates, reversions, remainders, and perpetual easements. It also includes any previously created rights to possession or use for all or part of any particular year, e.g., a leasehold, easement, or timeshare, if such rights have a remaining term of at least 30 years, including any period for which the holder may renew such rights, determined on the date of closing. For example, a preexisting leasehold on a building with an original term of 99 years and a remaining term of 35 years on the closing date is an ownership interest; however, if the remaining term is 10 years, it is not an ownership interest. An ownership interest does not include any option to acquire real estate.

Involuntary conversion.—A sale of real estate under threat or imminence of seizure, requisition, or condemnation is generally a reportable transaction.

Exceptions.—The following is a list of transactions that are not reportable. However, you may choose to report them; but if you do, the return filed and the statement furnished to the transferor must comply with the reporting rules.

1. Any transaction in which the transferor is a corporation (or is considered to be a corporation under Regulations section 1.6045-4(d)(2)), a governmental unit, including a foreign government or an international organization, or an exempt volume transferor. Under this rule, if there are exempt and nonexempt transferors, you must file Form 1099-S only for the nonexempt transferors.

Exempt volume transferor.—An exempt volume transferor is someone who sold or exchanged during the year, who expects to sell or exchange during the year, or who did sell or exchange in either of the 2 previous years, at least 25 separate items of reportable real estate to at least 25 separate transferees. In addition, each item of reportable real estate must have been held, at the date of closing, or will be held, primarily for sale or resale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business. You are not required to report an exempt volume transferor's transactions if you receive the penalties of perjury certification required by Regulations section 1.6045-4(d)(3).

2. Any transaction that is not a sale or exchange, including a bequest, a gift (including a transaction treated as a gift under section 1041), and a financing or refinancing that is not related to the acquisition of real estate.

3. A transfer in full or partial satisfaction of a debt secured by the property. This includes a foreclosure, a transfer in lieu of foreclosure, or an abandonment.

4. A de minimis transfer for less than $600. A transaction is de minimis if it can be determined with certainty that the total money, services, and property received or to be received is less than $600, as measured on the closing date. For example, if a contract for sale provides for total consideration of "$1.00 plus other valuable consideration," the transfer is not a de minimis transfer unless you can determine that the "other valuable consideration" is less than $599, as measured on the closing date. The $600 rule applies to the transaction as a whole, not separately to each transferor.

The following are also not reportable if the transaction is not related to the sale or exchange of reportable real estate:

5. An interest in crops or surface or subsurface natural resources, i.e., timber, water, ores, and other natural deposits, whether or not such crops or natural resources are severed from the land.

6. A burial plot or vault.

7. A manufactured structure used as a dwelling that is manufactured and assembled at a location different from that where it is used, but only if such structure is not affixed, on the closing date, to a foundation. This exception applies to an unaffixed mobile home.

Timber Royalties.—Report on Form 1099-S payments of timber royalties made under a “pay-as-cut” contract, reportable under section 6050N. For more information, see Announcement 90-129, 1990-48 I.R.B. 10.

Gross Proceeds.—See Box 2, later.

Who Must File.—Generally, the person responsible for closing, as explained in 1 below, is required to file Form 1099-S. If no one is responsible for closing, the person required to file Form 1099-S is explained in 2 below. However, you may designate the person required to file Form 1099-S in a written agreement, as explained under 3 below.

Note: For each transaction, please be sure that only one person is responsible for filing and that only one Form 1099-S is filed for each transferor.

1. If you are the person responsible for closing the transaction, you must file Form 1099-S. If a Uniform Settlement Statement, prescribed under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (RESPA), is used, the person responsible for closing is the person listed as the settlement agent on that statement. A Uniform Settlement Statement includes any amendments, variations, or substitutions that may be prescribed under RESPA if any such form requires disclosure of the transferor and transferee, the application of the proceeds, and the name of the settlement agent or other person responsible for preparing the settlement statement.

If a Uniform Settlement Statement is not used, or no settlement agent is listed, the person responsible for closing is the person who prepares the closing statement, including a settlement statement or other written document that identifies the transferor, transferee, and real estate transferred, and that describes how the proceeds are to be disbursed.

If no closing statement is used, or if two or more statements are used, the person responsible for closing is, in the following order: (a) the transferee’s attorney if the attorney is present at the delivery of either the transferee’s note or a significant part of the cash proceeds to the transferor or if the attorney prepares or reviews the preparation of the documents transferring legal or equitable ownership; (b) the transferor’s attorney if the attorney is present at the delivery of either the transferee’s note or a significant part of the cash proceeds to the transferor or if the attorney prepares or reviews the preparation of the documents transferring legal or equitable ownership; or (c) the disbursing title or escrow company that is most significant in disbursing gross proceeds. If there is more than one attorney described in (a) or (b), the one whose involvement is most significant is the person responsible for filing.

2. If no one is responsible for closing the transaction as explained in 1 above, the person responsible for filing is, in the following order: (a) the mortgage lender, (b) the transferor’s broker, (c) the transferee’s broker, or (d) the transferee.

For purposes of 2 above, apply the following definitions:

a. Mortgage lender means a person who lends new funds in connection with the transaction, but only if the loan is at least partially secured by the real estate. If there is more than one lender, the one who lends the most new funds is the mortgage lender. If several lenders advance equal amounts of new funds, and no other person advances a greater amount of new funds, the mortgage lender is the one who has the security interest that is most senior in priority. Amounts advanced by the transferor are not treated as new funds.

b. Transferor’s broker means the broker who contracts with the transferor and who is compensated for the transaction.

c. Transferee’s broker means the broker who significantly participates in the preparation of the offer to acquire the property or who presents such offer to the transferor. If there is more than one such person, the transferee’s broker is the one who most significantly participates in the preparation of the acquisition offer. If there is no such person, the one who most significantly participates in the presentation of the offer is the transferee’s broker.

d. Transferee means the person who acquires the greatest interest in the property. If no one acquires the greatest interest, the transferee is the person listed first on the ownership transfer documents.

3. Designation agreement.—You can enter into a designation agreement at or before closing to designate who must file Form 1099-S for the transaction. The agreement will identify the person responsible for filing if such designated person signs the agreement. It is not necessary that all parties to the transaction (or that more than one party) enter into the agreement.

You may be designated in the agreement as the person who must file if you are the person responsible for closing (as explained in 1 above), the transferee’s or transferor’s attorney (as explained in 1 above), a title or escrow company that is most significant in terms of the gross proceeds disbursed, or the mortgage lender (as explained in 2a above).

The designation agreement may be in any form and may be included on the closing statement. It must identify by name and address the person designated as the person responsible for filing; it must include the names and addresses of each person entering into the agreement; it must be signed and dated by all persons entering into the agreement; it must include the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee; and it must include the address and any other information necessary to identify the property. Each person who signs the agreement must retain it for 4 years.

Employees, Agents, and Partners.—If an employee, agent, or partner, acting within the scope of such person’s employment, agency, or partnership, participates in a real estate transaction, only the employer, principal, or partnership (not the employee, agent, or partner) may be the reporting person. However, the participation of a person listed on the Uniform Settlement Statement as the settlement agent acting as an agent of another is not attributed to the principal.

Foreign Transferors.—Sales or exchanges involving foreign transferors are reportable on Form 1099-S. For information on the transferee’s responsibility to withhold income tax when a U.S. real property interest is acquired from a foreign person, see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Corporations, and Form 8288, U.S. Withholding Tax Return for Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests.

Multiple Transferors.—For multiple transferors of the same real estate, you must file a separate Form 1099-S for each transferor. At or before closing, you must request from the transferors an allocation of the gross proceeds among the transferors. The request and the response are not required to be in writing. You must make a reasonable effort to contact all transferors of whom you have knowledge. However, you may rely on the unchallenged response of any transferor, and you need not make additional contacts with other transferors after at least one complete allocation is received (100% of gross proceeds) (whether or not received in a single response). If you receive the allocation, report gross proceeds on each Form 1099-S accordingly.

You are not required to, but you may, report gross proceeds in accordance with an allocation received after the closing date but before the due date of Form 1099-S (without extensions). However, you cannot report gross proceeds in accordance with an allocation received on or after the due date of Form 1099-S (without extensions).

If no gross proceeds are allocated to a transferor because no allocation or an incomplete allocation is received, you must report the total unallocated gross proceeds on the Form 1099-S made for that transferor. If you do not receive any allocation or you receive conflicting allocations, report on each transferor’s Form 1099-S the total unallocated gross proceeds.

Husband and wife.—If the transferors were husband and wife, at the time of closing, who held the property as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, tenants in common, or as community property, treat them as a single transferor. Only one Form 1099-S showing either of them as the transferor is required. You need not request an allocation of gross proceeds if husband and wife are the only transferors. But if you receive an uncontested allocation of gross proceeds from them, file Form 1099-S for each spouse according to the allocation. If there are other transferors, you must make a reasonable effort to contact either the husband or wife to request an allocation.

Partnerships.—If the property is transferred by a partnership, file only one Form 1099-S for the partnership, not separate Forms 1099-S for each partner.

Multiple Assets Sold.—If real estate is sold or exchanged and other assets are sold or exchanged in the same transaction, report the total gross proceeds from the entire transaction on Form 1099-S.

Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TINs).—You must request the transferor's TIN no later than the time of closing. The TIN request need not be made in a separate mailing. Rather, it may be made in person or in a mailing that includes other items. The transferor is required to furnish his or her TIN and to certify that the TIN is correct.

You may request a TIN on Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification. Alternatively, you may provide a written statement to the transferor similar to the following: "You are required by law to provide [insert name of person responsible for filing] with your correct taxpayer identification number. If you do not provide [insert name of person responsible for filing] with your correct taxpayer identification number, you may be subject to civil or criminal penalties imposed by law." The solicitation must contain space for the name, address, and TIN of the transferor, and a place to certify under penalties of perjury that the TIN furnished is the correct TIN of the transferor. The certification must read similar to: "Under penalties of perjury, I certify that the number shown on this statement is my correct taxpayer identification number." If you use a Uniform Settlement Statement (under RESPA), you may provide a copy of such statement, appropriately modified to solicit the TIN, to the transferor. Keep the Form W-9 or substitute form in your records for 4 years.

Separate Charge Prohibited.—The law prohibits any person required to file Form 1099-S from separately charging any customer a fee for complying with the requirements to file Form 1099-S.

Statements to Transferors.—For information about the requirement to furnish a statement to the transferor, see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

Filer's Name and Address Box.—Enter the name and address of the person who is filing Form 1099-S. This information must be the same as the filer information reported on Form 1096.

Transferor's Name and Address Box.—Enter the name and address of the seller or other transferor of the real estate. If a husband and wife are joint sellers, it is only necessary to enter one name and the TIN for that person on the form.

Box 1.—Enter the closing date. If a Uniform Settlement Statement (under RESPA) is used, the closing date is the date shown as the settlement date on such statement. If a Uniform Settlement Statement is not used, the closing date is the earlier of the date title transfers or the date the economic burdens and benefits of ownership shift to the transferee. Please use the following format to indicate the date: MMDDYY. For example, for January 9, 1993, enter 010993.

Box 2.—Enter the gross proceeds from the sale or exchange of real estate. Gross proceeds means any cash received or to be received for the real property by or on behalf of the transferor, including the stated principal amount of a note payable to or for the benefit of the transferor. If the transferee assumes a liability of the transferor or takes the property subject to a liability, such liability is treated as cash and is includible as part of gross proceeds. For a contingent payment transaction, include the maximum determinable proceeds. Also see Multiple Assets Sold, earlier.

If you are reporting a like-kind exchange of property for which no gross proceeds are reportable, enter 0 (zero) in box 2 and mark the checkbox in box 4.

Gross proceeds do not include the value of property or services received or to be received by, or on behalf of, the transferor or separately stated cash received for personal property, such as draperies, carpeting, or a washer and dryer.

Do not reduce gross proceeds by any expenses paid by the transferor, such as sales commissions, deed preparation, advertising, and legal expenses. If a Uniform Settlement Statement (under RESPA) is used for a transfer of real estate for cash and notes only, gross proceeds generally will be the contract sales price shown on that statement. If other property or services were exchanged, see Box 4, below.

Contingent payment transaction.—A contingent payment transaction is one in which the receipt, by or on behalf of the transferor, is subject to a contingency. The maximum determinable proceeds means the greatest amount of gross proceeds possible if all the contingencies are satisfied. If the maximum amount of gross proceeds cannot be determined with certainty, the maximum determinable proceeds are the greatest amount that can be determined with certainty.

Box 3.—Enter the address of the property, including the city, state, and ZIP code, and if the address does not sufficiently identify the property, also enter a legal description, such as section, lot, and block. For timber royalties, enter "Timber."

Box 4.—If the transferor received or will receive property (other than cash and consideration treated as cash in computing gross proceeds) or services as part of the consideration for the property, enter an "X" in the checkbox in box 4. If the transferor may receive property (other than cash) or services to satisfy a debt having a stated principal amount, you must also mark the checkbox.

Box 5.—For a real estate transaction involving a residence, enter any real property tax allocable to the purchaser. You may use the appropriate information included on the HUD-1, Uniform Settlement Statement, or comparable form, provided at closing.

Form 5498

File Form 5498, Individual Retirement Arrangement Information, with the IRS on or before May 31, 1994, for each person for whom you maintained an individual retirement arrangement (IRA) or simplified employee pension (SEP) during 1993. For a SEP, complete only box 4 for the value of the account; do not report employer SEP contributions, including those made under section 408(k)(6), relating to a salary reduction SEP (SARSEP), on Form 5498. For an IRA, complete all applicable boxes. If no IRA contributions were made for 1993, complete only box 4.

For contributions made between January 1 and April 15, 1994, trustees and issuers should obtain the participant's designation of the year for which the contributions are made.

Direct Rollovers and Transfers.—You must report the receipt of a direct rollover from a qualified plan or tax-sheltered annuity. Report a direct rollover in box 2. For information on direct rollovers of eligible rollover distributions, see Form 1099-R earlier.

However, do not report a direct trustee-to-trustee transfer from one IRA to another. For reporting purposes, contributions and rollovers do not include these transfers.

Statements to Participants.—Trustees or issuers of IRAs or SEPs must provide participants with a statement of the December 31, 1993, value of the participant's account by January 31, 1994, in any written format. Trustees or issuers of IRAs must provide participants with contribution information by May 31. You are not required to provide information to the IRS or to participants as to whether a contribution is deductible or nondeductible. In addition, the participant is not required to tell you whether a contribution is deductible or nondeductible.

If the trustee or issuer furnished a statement of the fair market value of the IRA to the participant by January 31, 1994, and no contributions were made to the IRA by the participant for 1993, the trustee or issuer need not furnish another statement (or Form 5498) to the participant to report zero contributions. However, Form 5498 must be filed with the IRS by May 31, 1994, to report the December 31, 1993, fair market value of the IRA. This rule also applies to beneficiary accounts under the inherited IRA rules below.

Total Distribution, No Contributions.—Generally, if a total distribution was made from an IRA during the year and no contributions were made for that year, you need not file Form 5498 nor furnish the annual statement to reflect that the fair market value on December 31 was zero.

Distributions.—Report distributions from IRAs and SEPs on Form 1099-R. For a distribution of contributions plus earnings, report the distribution on Form 1099-R using the applicable code.

Inherited IRAs.—In the year an IRA owner dies, you, as an IRA trustee or issuer, generally must file a Form 5498 and furnish an annual statement for the decedent and a Form 5498 and an annual statement for each nonspouse beneficiary. An IRA holder must be able to identify the source of each IRA he or she holds for purposes of figuring the taxation of a distribution from an IRA. Thus, the decedent's name must be shown on the beneficiary's Form 5498 and annual statement. For example, you may enter "Brian Young as beneficiary of Joan Smith" or something similar that signifies that the IRA was once owned by Joan Smith. You may abbreviate the word "beneficiary" as, for example, "benef."

For a spouse beneficiary, unless the spouse makes the IRA his or her own by making contributions to the account, including a rollover contribution, or by not taking distributions required by section 401(a)(9)(B), treat the spouse as a nonspouse beneficiary for reporting purposes. If the spouse makes the IRA his or her own, report on Form 5498 and the annual statement without the beneficiary designation.

Fair market value.—On the decedent's Form 5498 and annual statement, you must enter the fair market value of the IRA on the date of death in box 4. Or you may choose the alternate reporting method and report the fair market value as of the end of the year in which the decedent died. This alternate value will usually be zero because you will be reporting the end-of-year valuation on the beneficiary's Form 5498 and annual statement, and the same figure should not be shown on both the beneficiary's and decedent's forms. If you choose to report using the alternate method, you must inform the executor or administrator of the decedent's estate of his or her right to request a date-of-death valuation. If you use the language for box 4 on the back of Copy B of the official 1993 Form 5498, or you use the official Copy B, you will have met this notice requirement.

On the beneficiary's Form 5498 and annual statement, the fair market value of that beneficiary's share of the IRA as of the end of the year must be shown in box 4. Every year thereafter that the IRA exists, you must file Form 5498 and furnish an annual statement for each beneficiary who has not received a total distribution of his or her share of the IRA showing the fair market value at the end of the year and identifying the IRA as described above.

However, if a beneficiary takes a total distribution of his or her share of the IRA in the year of death, you need not file a Form 5498 nor furnish an annual statement for that beneficiary.

If you have no knowledge of the death of an IRA owner until after you are required to file Form 5498 (May 31), you are not required to file a corrected Form 5498 nor furnish a corrected annual statement. However, you must still provide the date-of-death valuation in a timely manner to the executor or administrator upon request.

For more information about the reporting requirements for inherited IRAs, see Rev. Proc. 89-52, 1989-2 C.B. 632.

Desert Storm Contributions.—An individual who meets the requirements of section 7508 has an additional period after the normal contribution due date of April 15 to make IRA contributions for a prior year. The period is the time the individual was in the Desert Shield/Storm combat zone plus at least 180 days. The individual must designate the IRA contribution for a prior year to be claimed as a deduction on the income tax return.

If a qualifying Desert Shield/Storm individual makes a contribution to an IRA after the normal contribution due date, and that contribution is designated for a prior year, you must report this contribution in one of two ways. You may report the contribution either on Form 5498 for the year for which the contribution was made, or on Form 5498 for a later year, for example, the year in which the contribution is made.

If you choose to report the contribution on the Form 5498 for the year for which the contribution was made, no special reporting is required. Merely include the contribution in box 1 of an original Form 5498 or of a corrected Form 5498 if an original was previously filed.

If you choose to report the contribution on the Form 5498 in a later year, you must enter "DS," the year for which the contribution was made, and the amount of the contribution in any of the empty boxes on the form. This contribution must not be included in box 1. For example, if a Desert Storm participant makes a permissible $2,000 IRA contribution on January 15, 1993, for tax year 1991, you must enter "DS 1991 2000" in any empty boxes on the 1992 or 1993 form. The $2,000 will not appear in box 1.

If you file Forms 5498 on magnetic or electronic media, you may request an automatic waiver from filing Desert Storm Forms 5498 on such media. Submit Form 8508 for this purpose. Once you have received the waiver, you may report in one of two ways. First, you may report all Form 5498 information for the Desert Storm participant on paper. Alternatively, you may report contributions made by the normal contribution due date on magnetic or electronic media and report contributions made after the normal contribution due date on paper. Under the second method, if a Desert Storm participant made two IRA contributions on June 15, 1993—one for 1992 and one for 1993—report the 1993 contribution on magnetic or electronic media as you normally would, and report the 1992 contribution on paper. IRA contributions made by Desert Storm participants for 1992 between April 16 and December 31, 1993, may also be reported on a corrected 1992 Form 5498 on magnetic or electronic media.

See Notice 91-17, 1991-1 C.B. 319.

Box 1.—Enter regular contributions to an IRA made in 1993 and through April 15, 1994, designated for 1993. Also include employee contributions to an IRA under a SEP plan but only those that would be subject to the deduction limit under section 219. Report gross contributions, including the amount allocable to the cost of life insurance (see Box 3) and including any excess contributions, even if the excess contributions were withdrawn.

Box 2.—Enter rollover contributions made to an IRA received by you during 1993.

Box 3.—For endowment contracts only, enter the amount included in box 1 allocable to the cost of life insurance.

Box 4.—Enter the fair market value of the IRA or SEP account on December 31. For inherited IRAs, see Inherited IRAs, earlier.

Form W-2G

The requirements for filing Form W-2G, Certain Gambling Winnings, depend on the type of gambling and are listed separately following these general instructions.

The types of gambling are grouped as follows:

- 1—Horse Racing, Dog Racing, Jai Alai, and Other Wagering Transactions Not Discussed Later
- 2—State-Conducted Lotteries
- 3—Keno, Bingo, and Slot Machines
- 4—Sweepstakes, Wagering Pools, and Certain Lotteries

Regular Gambling Withholding.—A payer of certain gambling winnings (other than winnings from keno, bingo, and slot machines) is required to withhold 28% from such winnings and report this amount on Form W-2G. This is referred to as regular gambling withholding. It applies to gambling winnings of more than $5,000 from (1) a sweepstakes, wagering pool, or nonstate-conducted lottery, (2) a state-conducted lottery, and (3) other wagering transactions if the winnings are at least 300 times the amount wagered. Regular gambling withholding applies to the amount of gross proceeds (the amount of winnings less the amount wagered) and not merely to the amounts in excess of $5,000.

Backup Withholding.—If a recipient fails to furnish a payer of reportable gambling winnings with a correct taxpayer identification number (TIN), the payer is required to withhold 31% of the proceeds and to report this amount on Form W-2G unless the winnings are already subject to regular gambling withholding as explained above. This is referred to as backup withholding. Backup withholding applies to the amount of the winnings reduced, at the option of the payer, by the amount wagered and not merely to the amounts of such reportable payments in excess of $600, $1,200, or $1,500 (the thresholds for information reporting). See the instructions for each type of gambling for detailed rules for backup withholding.

A payer may use Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, to request the TIN of the recipient.

Foreign Persons.—Payments of certain gambling winnings to a nonresident alien individual or a foreign corporation are not subject to reporting or withholding on Form W-2G or Form 5754, Statement by Person(s) Receiving Gambling Winnings, since such payments are subject to withholding under sections 1441(a) and 1442(a) and are reportable on Forms 1042 and 1042-S.

State Tax Information.—If state income tax withholding is required on gambling winnings in your state, you may want to complete boxes 13 and 14 on Form W-2G. Copy 1 of the form may be used to provide information to the state, and Copy 2 may be used as the winner's copy for use in filing a state income tax return. The state identification number is assigned by the individual state.

Form 5754.—If the person receiving the winnings is not the actual winner, or is a member of a group of winners, see Form 5754, later.

Statements to Winners.—For information about the requirement to furnish a statement to the winner, see part H under General Instructions, earlier.

1—Horse Racing, Dog Racing, Jai Alai, and Other Wagering Transactions Not Discussed Later

File Form W-2G for every person to whom you pay $600 or more in gambling winnings if such winnings are at least 300 times the amount of the single wager. You must withhold Federal income tax, at the rate of 28%, from the amount of winnings less the amount wagered if such winnings less the wager exceed $5,000 and if the winnings are at least 300 times the amount of the single wager. If the recipient of reportable gambling winnings does not provide a TIN, you must impose backup withholding at the rate of 31% on any such winnings that are not subject to regular gambling withholding under the preceding sentence. That is, if the winnings are at least $600 but not more than $5,000, backup withholding applies to the amount of the winnings reduced, at the option of the payer, by the amount wagered.

In the case of multiple wagers sold on one ticket, such as the $12 box bet on a Big Triple or Trifecta, the wager will be considered to be six $2 bets and not one $12 bet for purposes of computing the amount to be reported or withheld. Winnings on a $12 box bet must be reported if they are $600 or more, and Federal income tax must be withheld if the proceeds amount to more than $5,000 or, in the event the proceeds do not exceed $5,000, if the recipient fails to provide a TIN.

Identical wagers (for example, two $2 bets on a particular horse to win the same race) are aggregated for purposes of the reporting and withholding requirements. Also, identical wagers that are not part of the payment for which the Form W-2G is being prepared are aggregated for purposes of withholding to determine if the total amount of proceeds from identical wagers is more than $5,000. If the person presenting the ticket for payment is the sole owner of the ticket, Form W-2G should be completed showing the name, address, and identification number of the winner. If Federal income tax is to be withheld, the winner then signs the Form W-2G, under penalties of perjury, stating that he or she is the sole owner and that the information listed on the form is correct. In this case, Form 5754 is not used.

Box 1.—Enter payments of $600 or more if the payment is at least 300 times the amount of a single wager.

Box 2.—Enter the amount of Federal income tax withheld, whether regular withholding or backup withholding.

Box 3.—Enter the type of wager if other than a regular race bet, for example, Daily Double or Big Triple.

Box 4.—Enter the date of the winning event. This is not the date the money was paid if paid after the date of the race (or game).

Box 5.—Not applicable.

Box 6.—Enter the race (or game) applicable to the winning ticket.

Box 7.—Enter the amount of additional winnings from identical wagers.

Box 8 or 10.—Enter the cashier and/or window number making the winning payment.

Boxes 11 and 12.—Enter the identification numbers of the person receiving the winnings.

Box 13.—(optional) Enter the abbreviated name of the state and your state identification number.

Box 14.—(optional) Enter the amount of state income tax withheld.

2—State-Conducted Lotteries

File Form W-2G for every person to whom you pay winnings of $600 or more from a state-conducted lottery if such winnings are at least 300 times the amount of the single wager. You must withhold Federal income tax, at the rate of 28%, from the amount of winnings less the price of the winning ticket if such winnings less the price of the winning ticket exceed $5,000. If the recipient of the reportable lottery winnings does not provide a TIN, you must impose backup withholding at the rate of 31% on any such winnings that are not subject to regular gambling withholding under the terms of the preceding sentence. That is, if the amount of the lottery winnings is at least $600 but not more than $5,000, backup withholding applies to the amount of the winnings reduced, at the option of the payer, by the amount wagered.

Installment payments of $5,000 or less are subject to regular 28% gambling withholding if the aggregate proceeds from such wager will exceed $5,000.

If payments are to be made for the life of a person (or for the lives of more than one person), and it is actuarially determined that the aggregate proceeds from such wager are expected to exceed $5,000, such payments are subject to regular 28% gambling withholding.

The price of the wager must be deducted from the total winnings to determine whether reporting or withholding is required. The deduction for the cost of the wager should be made at the time of the first payment.

Noncash payments, such as automobiles, are to be taken into account at their fair market values for purposes of reporting and withholding. If the fair market value exceeds $5,000, after deducting the price of the wager, it is subject to regular gambling withholding. In such a case, the tax that must be withheld is computed as follows: (1) if payment of the withholding tax is made by the winner to the payer of winnings, 28% of the noncash payment less the amount of the wager is subject to withholding; (2) if the payer of winnings also pays the withholding tax, 38.88% of the noncash payment (less the wager) is subject to withholding. If the method under (2) is used, the sum of the noncash payment and withholding tax is entered in box 1. See Regulations section 31.3402(q)-1(d)Ex.(5) for more information.

A payment of winnings is considered made when it is paid, either actually or constructively, to the winner. Winnings are constructively paid when they are credited to, or set apart for, that person without any substantial limitation or restriction on the time, manner, or condition of payment.

When a person other than a state lottery employee or agent makes the payments, as in the case of an insurance company handling the winnings as an annuity, that other person must deduct and withhold as originally required of the state lottery payer.

Box 1.—Enter payments of $600 or more.

Box 2.—Enter the amount of Federal income tax withheld, whether backup withholding or regular gambling withholding.

Box 3.—Enter the name of the lottery (Instant, Big 50, Baker's Dozen, etc.) and the price of the ticket (50¢, $1, etc.).

Box 4.—Enter the date of the drawing of the winning number. This might not be the date the winnings are paid.

Box 5.—Enter the ticket number or other identifying number.

Boxes 6 through 8 and 10 through 12.—Not applicable to lottery winnings.

Box 13.—(optional) Enter the abbreviated name of the state and your state identification number.

Box 14.—(optional) Enter the amount of state income tax withheld.

3—Keno, Bingo, and Slot Machines

File Form W-2G for every person to whom you pay $1,200 or more in gambling winnings from bingo or slot machines, or $1,500 or more from keno after the price of the wager for the winning keno game is deducted. If the winnings are of a noncash nature, the fair market value of the item won is to be considered the amount of the winnings. Total all winnings from each bingo or keno game. Winnings and losses from other wagering transactions are not to be taken into account in arriving at the $1,200 or $1,500 figure. If the recipient of reportable gambling winnings from bingo, keno, or slot machines does not provide a TIN, you must impose backup withholding at the rate of 31% on any such winnings. Backup withholding applies to the amount of the winnings reduced, at the option of the payer, by the amount wagered. Regular gambling withholding does not apply to winnings from bingo, keno, or slot machines.

Box 1.—Enter payments of $1,200 or more from bingo or slot machines or payments of $1,500 or more from keno.

Box 2.—Enter the amount of any backup withholding.

Box 3.—Enter the type of wager, such as bingo, keno, and slot machines, and the amount of the wager.

Box 4.—Enter the date of the winning transaction.

Box 5.—Enter the ticket number, card number (and color, if applicable), machine serial number, or any other information that will help identify the winning transaction.

Boxes 6 and 7.—Not applicable.

Box 8.—Enter the initials of the person paying the winnings.

Box 10.—Enter the location of the person paying the winnings, if applicable.

Boxes 11 and 12.—Enter the identification numbers of the person receiving the winnings.

Box 13.—(optional) Enter the abbreviated name of the state and your state identification number.

Box 14.—(optional) Enter the amount of state income tax withheld.

4—Sweepstakes, Wagering Pools, and Certain Lotteries

File Form W-2G for each person to whom you pay $600 or more in gambling winnings from any wager placed in a sweepstakes, wagering pool, or lottery (other than a state-conducted lottery). You must withhold Federal income tax, at the rate of 28%, from the amount of winnings less the amount wagered if such winnings less the wager exceed $5,000. If the recipient of such reportable gambling winnings does not provide a TIN, you must impose backup withholding at the rate of 31% on any such winnings that are not subject to regular gambling withholding under the terms of the preceding sentence. That is, if the winnings are at least $600 but not more than $5,000, backup withholding applies to the amount of the winnings reduced, at the option of the payer, by the amount wagered. These requirements apply to church raffles, charity drawings, etc.

Box 1.—Enter all payments of $600 or more.

Box 2.—Enter the amount of Federal income tax withheld, whether regular gambling withholding or backup withholding.

Box 3.—Enter the type of wager, such as a raffle or a 50-50 drawing.

Box 4.—Enter the date of the winning transaction.

Boxes 5 through 8 and 10.—Not applicable.

Boxes 11 and 12.—Enter the identification numbers of the person receiving the winnings.

Box 13.—(optional) Enter the abbreviated name of the state and your state identification number.

Box 14.—(optional) Enter the amount of state income tax withheld.

---

Form 5754, Statement by Person(s) Receiving Gambling Winnings, is used only in preparing Form W-2G when the person receiving the winnings is not the actual winner or is a member of a group of two or more winners on the same winning ticket.

The person receiving the winnings must furnish all the information required by Form 5754. However, a recipient of winnings from state-conducted lotteries need not provide identification other than his or her taxpayer identification number. Part I lists the identification of the person to whom the winnings are paid, and Part II lists the actual winners, their respective shares of the winnings, and any additional winnings from identical wagers.

In Part II, the person receiving the winnings must provide the name, address, identification number, respective share of the winnings, and additional winnings from identical wagers for each of the winners. In addition, if Federal income tax is to be withheld, the form must be signed, under penalties of perjury, and dated by the person receiving the winnings. The form must be returned to the payer for preparation of Form W-2G for each of the persons listed as winners. Forms W-2G may be issued immediately or by January 31 following the year of the payment. Do not send Form 5754 to the IRS. Keep it for your records.

Withholding and Forms W-2G for Multiple Winners.—If more than one person shares in the winnings from a single wager, the total amount of the winnings (less the amount wagered) will determine the amount of the proceeds for purposes of reporting and withholding. Do not allocate winnings to each winner before determining whether the withholding or reporting thresholds were reached.

For example, E purchases a sweepstakes ticket for $1 on behalf of himself and S, who contributes an equal amount of the ticket price and who will share equally in any winnings. The ticket wins $5,002. Since the winnings ($5,002 - $1 = $5,001) are more than $5,000, you must withhold 28% of $5,001. You must prepare Form W-2G for E and for S, using the information furnished to you on Form 5754.

Guide to Information Returns (If any date shown falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the due date is the next business day.)
