Instructions for Form 2441

Child and Dependent Care Expenses

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is: Recordkeeping, 40 min.; Learning about the law or the form, 24 min.; Preparing the form, 59 min.; and Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS, 28 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the IRS and the Office of Management and Budget at the addresses listed on page 4 of the Instructions for Form 1040.

Purpose of Form

If you paid someone to care for your child or other qualifying person so you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) could work or look for work in 1993, you may be able to take the credit for child and dependent care expenses. But you must have had earned income to do so. If you can take the credit, fill in Parts I and II of Form 2441 and attach it to your return. Part II is used to figure the amount of your credit.

If you received any dependent care benefits for 1993, you MUST fill in Parts I and III of Form 2441 and attach it to your return. Part III is used to figure the amount, if any, of the benefits you may exclude from your income on Form 1040, line 7. You must complete Part III before you can figure the credit, if any, in Part II.

Important Terms

Dependent Care Benefits

These include amounts your employer paid directly to either you or your care provider for the care of your qualifying person(s) while you worked. These benefits also include the fair market value of care in a day-care facility provided or sponsored by your employer. Your salary may have been reduced to pay for these benefits. If you received dependent care benefits, they should be shown in box 10 of your 1993 W-2 form(s).

Earned Income

Generally, this is your wages, salaries, tips, and other employee compensation. This is usually the amount shown on Form 1040, line 7. But earned income does not include a scholarship or fellowship grant if you did not get a W-2 form for it. For purposes of Part III of Form 2441, earned income does not include any dependent care benefits shown on line 11 of Form 2441.

If you were a statutory employee and are filing Schedule C or C-EZ to report income and expenses as a statutory employee, earned income also includes the amount from line 1 of that Schedule C or C-EZ.

If you were self-employed, earned income also includes the amount shown on Schedule SE, line 3, minus any deduction you claim on Form 1040, line 25. If you use either optional method to figure self-employment tax, subtract any deduction you claim on Form 1040, line 25, from the total of the amounts on Schedule SE, Section B, lines 3 and 4b, to figure earned income.

Note: You must reduce your earned income by any loss from self-employment.

If you are filing a joint return, disregard community property laws. If your spouse died in 1993 and had no earned income, get Pub. 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses. If your spouse was a student or disabled in 1993, see the line 6 instructions.

Qualified Expenses

These include amounts paid for household services and care of the qualifying person while you worked or looked for work. Child support payments are not qualified expenses.

Household Services. These are services needed to care for the qualifying person as well as to run the home. They include, for example, the services of a cook, maid, babysitter, housekeeper, or cleaning person if the services were partly for the care of the qualifying person. Do not include services of a chauffeur or gardener.

You may also include your share of the employment taxes paid on wages for qualifying child and dependent care services.

Care of the Qualifying Person. Care includes the cost of services for the qualifying person's well-being and protection. It does not include the cost of clothing or entertainment.

You may include the cost of care provided outside your home for your dependent under age 13 or any other qualifying person who regularly spends at least 8 hours a day in your home. If the care was provided by a dependent care center, the center must meet all applicable state and local regulations. A dependent care center is a place that provides care for more than six persons (other than persons who live there) and receives a fee, payment, or grant for providing services for any of those persons, even if the center is not run for profit.

Do not include amounts paid for food or schooling. But if these items are included as part of the total care and they are incident to and cannot be separated from the total cost, you may include the total cost. Also, do not include the cost of schooling for a child in the first grade or above or the expenses for sending your child to an overnight camp.

Medical Expenses. Some disabled spouse and dependent care expenses may qualify as medical expenses if you itemize deductions on Schedule A. Get Pub. 503 and Pub. 502, Medical and Dental Expenses, for details.

Qualifying Person(s)

A qualifying person is:

- Any child under age 13 whom you can claim as a dependent (but see Exception for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents below). If the child turned 13 during the year, the child is a qualifying person for the part of the year he or she was under age 13.
- Your disabled spouse who is not able to care for himself or herself.
- Any disabled person not able to care for himself or herself whom you can claim as a dependent (or could claim as a dependent except that the person had gross income of $2,350 or more). But if this person is your child, see Exception for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents below.

To find out who is a dependent, see the instructions for Form 1040, line 6c.

Caution: To be a qualifying person, the person must have shared the same home with you in 1993.

Exception for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. If you were divorced, legally separated, or lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1993, you may be able to take the credit or the exclusion even if your child is not your dependent. If your child is not your dependent, he or she is a qualifying person only if all five of the following apply:

1. You had custody of the child for a longer time in 1993 than the other parent. Get Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for the definition of custody.

2. One or both of the parents provided over half of the child's support in 1993.

3. One or both of the parents had custody of the child for more than half of 1993.

4. The child was under age 13 or was disabled and could not care for himself or herself.

5. The other parent claims the child as a dependent because—

- As the custodial parent, you signed Form 8332 or a similar statement agreeing not to claim the child's exemption for 1993, or
- Your divorce decree or written agreement went into effect before 1985 and it states that the other parent can claim the child as a dependent, and the other parent gave at least $600 for the child's support in 1993. But this rule does not apply if your decree or agreement was changed after 1984 to say that the other parent cannot claim the child as a dependent.

If you can take the credit or the exclusion because of this exception, enter your child's name on the dotted line next to line 3. The other parent cannot treat this child as a qualifying person even though the other parent claims this child as a dependent.

A Change To Note

If you have a child who was born in 1993 and the amount on Form 1040, line 32, is less than $23,050, you may be able to take the extra credit for a child born in 1993 on Schedule EIC, Earned Income Credit. To find out if you can take the extra credit, see Schedule EIC and its instructions. But if you take the extra credit, you cannot take the credit for child care expenses or the exclusion of dependent care benefits on Form 2441 for the same child.

If you qualify for both the child care credit and the extra credit for a child born in 1993, you should figure the amount of tax you overpaid (or the amount of tax you owe) both ways to see which way is better for you. You should also do this if you received dependent care benefits and qualify for the extra credit on Schedule EIC. But see the Exception on this page.

To see which way is better, first get Schedule EIC and fill in lines 1(a)–1(g) and all the lines on page 2 that apply to you. Be sure to figure the extra credit for a child born in 1993. Then, follow the steps below.

Step 1. Figure the child care credit or exclusion on Form 2441. Include the qualified expenses for your child born in 1993. Fill in Form 1040 through line 55. On line 56, enter the total of the amounts from lines 11 and 16 of Schedule EIC. Fill in the rest of Form 1040 through line 61 (or line 64).

Step 2. Again, figure the child care credit or exclusion on Form 2441. But this time, don't include the qualified expenses for your child born in 1993. Fill in Form 1040 through line 55. On line 56, enter the amount from line 20 of Schedule EIC. Fill in the rest of Form 1040 through line 61 (or line 64).

Step 3. Compare the amount on line 61 (or line 64) of Form 1040 figured using Step 1 to the amount figured using Step 2. File your return using the one that benefits you more. If you choose to use Step 1 and the amount on line 4 of Form 2441 includes expenses for more than one person, write in the amount of qualified expenses for your child born in 1993 on the dotted line to the left of your line 4 entry. If you are completing Part III, write this amount on the dotted line to the left of your line 14 entry.

Exception. If you didn't receive any dependent care benefits and the amount on line 40 of your Form 1040 is zero, you should take the extra credit for a child born in 1993. Don't file Form 2441.

Additional Information

For more details, see Pub. 503.

Who May Take the Credit or Exclude Dependent Care Benefits?

You may take the credit or the exclusion if all six of the following apply:

1. Your filing status is Single, Head of household, Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, or Married filing jointly. But see Special Rule for Married Persons Filing Separate Returns below.

2. The care was provided so you (and your spouse if you were married) could work or look for work. However, if you did not find a job and have no earned income for the year, you cannot take the credit or the exclusion. But if your spouse was a student or disabled, see the line 6 instructions.

3. You (and your spouse if you were married) paid over half the cost of keeping up your home. The cost includes rent, mortgage interest, real estate taxes, utilities, home repairs, and food eaten at home.

4. You and the qualifying person(s) lived in the same home.

5. The person who provided the care was not your spouse or a person whom you can claim as a dependent. If your child provided the care, he or she must have been age 19 or older by the end of 1993.

6. You report the required information about the care provider on line 1.

Special Rule for Married Persons Filing Separate Returns. If your filing status is married filing separately and all of the following apply, you are considered unmarried for purposes of figuring the credit and the exclusion on Form 2441.

- You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1993, and
- The qualifying person lived in your home more than half of 1993, and
- You provided over half the cost of keeping up your home.

If you meet all the requirements to be treated as unmarried and meet items 2 through 6 listed earlier, you may take the credit or the exclusion. If you do not meet all the requirements to be treated as unmarried, you cannot take the credit. However, you may take the exclusion if you meet items 2 through 6.

Other Forms You May Have To File

If you paid someone who worked in your home cash wages of $50 or more in any calendar quarter in 1993, you usually must file Form 942, Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees.

Also, if you paid someone who worked in your home cash wages of $1,000 or more in any calendar quarter in 1992 or 1993, you must file a 1993 Form 940 or Form 940-EZ, Employer's Annual Federal Unemployment (FUTA) Tax Return, by January 31, 1994.

Get Pub. 926, Employment Taxes for Household Employers, for more details.

Line Instructions

Line 1

Complete columns (a) through (d) for each person or organization that provided the care. You can use Form W-10, Dependent Care Provider's Identification and Certification, or any other source listed in its instructions to get the information from the care provider. If you do not give correct or complete information, your credit (and exclusion, if applicable) may be disallowed unless you can show you used due diligence in attempting to provide the required information.

Due Diligence. You can show due diligence by keeping in your records a Form W-10 properly completed by the care provider or one of the other sources of information listed in the instructions for Form W-10. If the provider does not comply with your request for one of these items, complete the entries you can on line 1 of Form 2441, such as the provider's name and address. Write "See Page 2" in the columns for which you do not have the information. On the bottom of page 2, explain that you requested the information from the care provider, but the provider did not comply with your request.

Columns (a) and (b). Enter the care provider's name and address. If you were covered by your employer's dependent care plan and your employer furnished the care (either at your workplace or by hiring a care provider), enter your employer's name in column (a), write "See W-2" in column (b), and leave columns (c) and (d) blank. But if your employer paid a third party (not hired by your employer) on your behalf to provide the care, you must give information on the third party in columns (a) through (d).

Column (c). If the care provider is an individual, enter his or her social security number (SSN). Otherwise, enter the provider's employer identification number (EIN). If the provider is a tax-exempt organization, write "Tax-Exempt" in column (c).

Column (d). Enter the total amount you actually paid in 1993 to the care provider. Also, include amounts your employer paid to a third party on your behalf. It does not matter when the expenses were incurred. Do not reduce this amount by any reimbursement you received.

Line 4

Do not include the following expenses on line 4:

- Qualified expenses you incurred in 1993 but did not pay until 1994. You may be able to use these expenses to increase your 1994 credit.
- Qualified expenses you incurred in 1992 but did not pay until 1993. Instead, see Prior Year's Expenses below.

Line 6

Spouse Who Was a Student or Disabled. Your spouse was a student if he or she was enrolled as a full-time student at a school during any 5 months of 1993. Your spouse was disabled if he or she was not capable of self-care. Figure your spouse's earned income on a monthly basis.

For each month or part of a month your spouse was a student or was disabled, he or she is considered to have worked and earned income. His or her earned income for each month is considered to be at least $200 ($400 if more than one qualifying person was cared for in 1993). If your spouse also worked during that month, use the higher of $200 (or $400) or his or her actual earned income for that month. If, in the same month, both you and your spouse were either students or disabled, this rule applies to only one of you for that month.

For any month that your spouse was not disabled or a student, use your spouse's actual earned income if he or she worked during the month.

Line 10

If you had qualified expenses for 1992 that you didn't pay until 1993, see Prior Year's Expenses below. Otherwise, see Credit Limit on this page.

Prior Year's Expenses. If you had qualified expenses for 1992 that you didn't pay until 1993, you may be able to increase the amount of credit you can take in 1993. For details, see Amount of Credit in Pub. 503. If you can take a credit for your 1992 expenses, write "PYE" and the amount of the credit on the dotted line next to line 10. Add the credit to the amount on line 10 and replace the amount on line 10 with that total. Also, attach a statement showing how you figured the credit. See Credit Limit next.

Credit Limit. The amount of your credit may be limited. Some people need to complete Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax—Individuals, because the amount from line 24 of that form is used to figure the limit. Use the worksheet on this page to see if you need to complete Form 6251 and to figure the amount of credit you may claim.

Line 12

If you had a flexible spending account, any amount included on line 11 that you did not receive because you did not incur the expense is considered forfeited. Enter the forfeited amount on line 12. Do not include amounts you expect to receive at a future date.

Example. Under your employer's dependent care plan, you elected to have your employer set aside $5,000 to cover your 1993 dependent care expenses. The $5,000 is shown in box 10 of your W-2 form. In 1993, you incurred and were reimbursed for $4,950 of qualified expenses. You would enter $5,000 on line 11 and $50, the amount forfeited, on line 12.

Line 14

Enter the total of all qualified expenses incurred in 1993 for the care of your qualifying person(s). It does not matter when the expenses were paid.

Example. You received $2,000 in cash under your employer's dependent care plan for 1993. The $2,000 is shown in box 10 of your W-2 form. Only $900 of qualified expenses were incurred in 1993 for the care of your 5-year-old dependent child. You would enter $2,000 on line 11 and $900 on line 14.

Line 17

If your filing status is married filing separately, see Special Rule for Married Persons Filing Separate Returns earlier. If you are considered unmarried under that rule, enter your earned income (from line 16) on line 17. On line 19, enter the smaller of the amount from line 18 or $5,000. If you are not considered unmarried under that rule, enter your spouse's earned income on line 17. If your spouse was a student or disabled in 1993, see the line 6 instructions. On line 19, enter the smaller of the amount from line 18 or $2,500.
