Instructions for Form 5471
(Revised November 1987)

Information Return With Respect to a Foreign Corporation

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for this information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need it to ensure that taxpayers are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax. You are required to give us this information.

Purpose of Form.—Certain U.S. persons involved in international operations file Form 5471 to report their activities.

Pending Legislation May Affect Form 5471

At the time Form 5471 was sent to print, legislation was pending that would result in changes to Form 5471. Among the changes being considered are a change in computing the foreign tax credit for income of a controlled foreign corporation and changes to the related-person insurance income rules.

Items You Should Note.—The Tax Reform Act of 1986 made several changes to the way subpart F income is computed including: new rules for the de minimis inclusion of subpart F income; a new definition of controlled foreign corporation; and limitations on subpart F income.

Also changes have been made to the definitions of: foreign personal holding company; foreign personal holding company income; and insurance income, including adding a new type of income-related person insurance income.

In addition, the special treatment of possessions corporations (those qualifying for the section 936 credit) has been repealed. These corporations are now subject to the provisions of subpart F. Also, rules for new code section 263A, capitalization and inclusion in inventory costs of certain expenses, have been added.

Two new entities were added by the Tax Reform Act of 1986. These entities are passive foreign investment companies and qualified electing funds.

A passive foreign investment company is a foreign corporation that is described in section 1296. To qualify, the corporation must meet either an income test or an asset test. Shareholders of a foreign investment company only include amounts in income when the investment company makes a distribution. The shareholders may pay interest and additional taxes if the distribution is an excess distribution (see section 1291(b)).

A qualified electing fund is a passive foreign investment company that makes an election to have its shareholders include amounts in income on a yearly basis, whether or not income is distributed.

A U.S. person who holds an interest in a passive foreign investment company must complete Schedule O to show the amount of his or her interest in a passive foreign investment company on January 1, 1987. Any U.S. person who acquires an interest in a passive foreign investment company after January 1, 1987, must report the acquisition of an interest in a passive foreign investment company on Schedule O. Any U.S. person who disposes of an interest in a passive foreign investment company must also report the disposition of that interest on Schedule O.

Lastly, one important change was made by the Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1986—收入 from countries that support international terrorism will be considered to be remitted to the U.S. shareholders of the foreign corporation at the end of the controlled foreign corporation’s tax year.

All of these changes appear under the relevant part of these instructions.

Foreign Sales Corporations.—Shareholders, officers, and directors of a Foreign Sales Corporation (FSC), as defined in section 922, do not have to file Form 5471 and Schedule O to report the organization of a FSC. However, any subsequent reorganization, transfer, or acquisition of stock in the FSC must be reported.

Foreign sales corporations are generally not subject to the subpart F rules contained in sections 951-964. However, the non-exempt portion of a FSC’s foreign trade income computed without regard to the administrative pricing rules (section 923(a)(2)) income is subject to subpart F rules. When a FSC is a controlled foreign corporation and has section 923(a)(2) non-exempt income, U.S. shareholders must file Form 5471 and any appropriate schedule(s).

Computer Generated Form 5471 and Schedules.—You may submit computer generated printouts of Form 5471 and its schedules. Generally, all computer generated forms must receive prior approval from the IRS. The IRS will, however, issue a Revenue Procedure to provide guidance for filers of computer generated forms. For exceptions to this requirement, see Specific Instructions. Please submit all requests for approval to: Internal Revenue Service, Attention: Substitute Forms Program, TRR.R, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20224.

Who Must File Form 5471

Generally, the following U.S. persons who have an interest in a foreign corporation must file Form 5471. However, it may not be necessary to complete all of the schedules. Please read each of the categories of filers to determine which schedules apply. Do not duplicate information if you are described in more than one filing category. However, you must complete all schedules that apply to you.

You must complete a separate Form 5471 and the applicable schedules for each foreign corporation.

All filers should complete the identifying data and items 1 and 2 on page 1 of Form 5471.

Under certain circumstances, one person may file Form 5471 and the applicable schedules for other persons who have the same filing requirements. Please refer to the specific instructions for Schedule L.

Categories of Filers

A. U.S. citizens or residents who are officers, directors, or 10% or more shareholders in a foreign personal holding company.—Complete Schedules A through F and N. Also, see the instructions for Schedule L, if the same information is required of more than one person.

B. U.S. citizens or residents who are officers or directors of a foreign corporation in which a U.S. person acquires a 5% or more ownership, or acquires an additional 5% or more ownership in that foreign corporation (from the last time information was reported).—Complete only Form 5471 and Part I of Schedule O. Also, see the instructions for Schedule L if the same information is required of more than one person.

C. A U.S. person who is a shareholder in a foreign corporation and who—

1. acquires a cumulative 5% or more ownership in the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation,

2. acquires an additional 5% or more ownership in the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation,

3. owns 5% or more in the value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation when the corporation is reorganized,

4. disposes of sufficient stock in the foreign corporation to reduce the U.S. person’s interest in the value of the outstanding stock in the foreign corporation to less than 5%; or

5. becomes a U.S. person while owning 5% or more in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation.—Complete Schedules C through F, K, and O.

D. A U.S. person who had control of a foreign corporation for an uninterrupted period of at least 30 days during the annual accounting period of the foreign corporation.—Complete Schedules A through G, I, and M.

Also, see the instructions for Schedule L if the same information is required of more than one person.

E. A U.S. person who was a 10% or more shareholder in a corporation that was a controlled foreign corporation for an uninterrupted period of 30 days during its annual accounting period, and who owned stock in the controlled foreign corporation on the corporation’s last day of its annual accounting period.—Complete Schedules C, D, E, J, and K. See the worksheets in the instructions for the computation of subpart F income. See section 957(c) for exceptions for individuals who are residents of certain U.S. possessions.
F. A U.S. person (as defined in section 957(c)) who owns (within the meaning of section 958) any stock in a related person insurance company must complete Schedules C, D, E, J, and K.

A related person insurance company is an insurance company the income of which is attributable to the insuring or reinsuring of its shareholders and persons related to its shareholders.

Definitions
U.S. Person.—A U.S. person is any of the following:

1. a U.S. citizen or resident,
2. a domestic partnership,
3. a domestic corporation, or
4. any estate or trust (other than a foreign estate or trust within the meaning of section 7701(a)(31)).

Control.—A U.S. person "controls" a foreign corporation if that person owns stock with more than 50% of the voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, or if that person owns more than 50% of the total value of all shares of stock in the foreign corporation.

In determining "control," the rules for constructive ownership contained in section 318 apply with the following exceptions:

(a) if a non-U.S. person who is a partner or who is a beneficiary of an estate or trust is the owner of the stock, the U.S. partnership or estate or trust will not be considered to own such stock;
(b) if a non-U.S. person is a shareholder in a U.S. corporation, the corporation will not be considered to own the stock of the shareholder;
(c) if 10% or more in the value of the stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for any person, section 318(a)(2)(C) will apply.

U.S. Shareholder.—A U.S. shareholder of a foreign corporation is any U.S. person who owns (directly, indirectly, or constructively) 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the foreign corporation entitled to vote. For rules for determining stock ownership, see section 958.

Controlled Foreign Corporation.—A controlled foreign corporation is any foreign corporation if more than 50%: 1) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the corporation entitled to vote, or 2) of the total value of the stock of the corporation is owned, or considered as owned by applying the ownership rules of section 958(b), by U.S. shareholders on any day of the corporation’s tax year.

Subpart F Income.—Subpart F income is defined in section 952. Generally, subpart F income includes:

1. insurance income and related person insurance income;
2. foreign base company income;
3. international boycott income;
4. the amount of any illegal bribes, kickbacks, or other payments made to an employee, official, or agent of a government;
5. amounts withdrawn from investments in less developed country corporations;
6. amounts withdrawn from investments in foreign based shipping operations;
7. the increase in earnings of the corporation invested in U.S. property for the year; and
8. income derived from a country described in section 952(a)(5).

Repeal of Special Treatment of Possessions Corporations.—Possessions corporations that have made an election under section 936 will no longer be exempt from the subpart F rules. This change is effective for tax years beginning after 1986.

When and Where To File.—File Form 5471 and appropriate schedules in duplicate when your tax return is due or when your income tax return is filed. Attach one copy to your income tax return, and send a copy to the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255. Except for information contained on Schedule O, report information for the tax year of the foreign corporation that ends with or within your tax year.

When filing Schedule O, report acquisitions, dispositions, and reorganizations that occurred during your tax year.

Special Filing Requirements for Persons Not Required To File an Income Tax Return.—If you are not required to file an income tax return but are required to file Form 5471 and Schedule O, you must file Form 5471 and Schedule O with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255. Filer must file Form 5471 and Schedule O by April 15 of the year following the calendar year in which you became liable to file Form 5471 and Schedule O. Report acquisitions, dispositions, and reorganizations that occurred during the calendar year.

Penalties.—Failure to file Form 5471 and the applicable schedules may result in the application of civil penalties unless reasonable cause can be shown. Criminal penalties may also apply.

Failure To Submit Information Required Under Section 6035 (Form 5471 and Schedule N).—Any person required to submit this type of information who fails to do so or fails to report the information requested may be subject to a penalty of $1,000 (section 6679). Additionally, criminal penalties are provided under sections 7203, 7206, and 7207 for failing to submit information or for filing false or fraudulent information.

Any person required to file Form 5471 and Schedule N who agrees to have another person file the form and schedule for him or her may be subject to the penalty if the other person does not file a correct and proper form and schedule.

Failure To Submit Information Required Under Section 6038 (Form 5471 and Schedule M).—Section 6038 states that any person who fails to submit the required information under that Code section will lose a portion of the foreign taxes available for credit under sections 901, 902, and 960. The reduction is 10% of the taxes available for credit for failure to submit the information when required; and an additional 5% reduction is made for each additional 3 months that the required information is not submitted after notification by the Secretary. See section 6038(c)(2) for limits on the amount of this penalty.

Also, a penalty of $1,000 is imposed for failing to supply the information for each controlled foreign corporation under section 6038 when required. Additionally, if the required information is not submitted within 90 days after the Secretary has mailed notice to the U.S. person, an additional $1,000 penalty (per corporation) is charged for every 30 days that the information is not submitted. See section 6038(c)(3) and regulations section 1.6038-2(k)(2)(vi) for rules coordinating these penalties.

Any person required to file Form 5471 and Schedule M who agrees to have another person file the form and the schedule for him or her may be subject to the penalties described in section 6779(a).

Failure To Submit Information Required Under Section 6046 (Form 5471 and Schedule O).—Any U.S. person who is required to file Form 5471 and Schedule O may be subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each failure to timely file information with respect to each reportable transaction or for failure to submit the required information with respect to each transaction. (Section 6779(a).

Any person required to file Form 5471 and Schedule O who agrees to have another person file the form and schedule for him or her may be subject to the penalty if the other person does not file a correct and proper form and schedule.

General Instructions

Page One.—Enter your name, address, ZIP code, and identifying number. For individuals, their identifying number is their social security number; for all others, their identifying number is their employer identification number.

Name of Filer or Foreign Corporation.—If either the name of the person filing this return or the corporation whose activities are being reported has changed since the last time information was reported, attach a statement explaining the change and showing the prior name.

f. Enter the principal country in which the foreign corporation conducts its trade or business. This country may be different than the country of incorporation.

g. Enter the business code number for the principal business activity. The codes are listed on page 12.

h. Enter the principal business activity of the foreign corporation. See page 12 for a description of various business activities.

Line 2—If the foreign corporation had a branch or agent in the U.S., enter the name and identifying number of the branch or agent in the space provided on line 2. If the foreign corporation filed a U.S. income tax return, please complete the rest of the information on line 2.

Specific Instructions

Schedule B, column (b).—For purposes of Schedule B, column (b), enter the highest percentage of the value of the foreign corporation if the other person other than a U.S. shareholder during the annual accounting period of the foreign corporation.

Completion of Schedules C, D, E, F, or I—If you are required to complete Schedules C, D, E, F, or I for the annual accounting period of the foreign corporation, you may submit the information on any of those schedules in the form of statements that are in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, rather than completing the line entries on the schedules.

Schedule F—Complete the balance sheets showing all appropriate amounts at the beginning and the end of the foreign corporation’s annual accounting period. Schedule G—If the foreign corporation had outstanding loans or indebtedness to or from shareholders or other related parties at either the beginning or end of the foreign corporation’s annual accounting period, please complete Schedule G.

Schedule H.—Schedule H must be completed for each U.S. person that holds a controlling interest in each controlled foreign corporation in which it owns (as determined under section 958) 50% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote. However, Schedule H will only be required for those tax years of the foreign corporation for which—

(1) An amount is includible in the gross income of such person with respect to such foreign corporation under section 951(a) and the benefits of section 960 are claimed;

(2) An amount is excluded from the foreign corporation’s subpart F income (within the meaning of section 952) by section 952(b); or

(3) The benefits of section 902 are claimed with respect to taxes paid by the foreign corporation.

However, you are not required to complete Schedule H if total assets at the end of the annual accounting period are less than $25,000.

If more than one corporation is required to furnish the information required by Schedule H with respect to the same foreign corporation for the same year, only one corporation shall be required to furnish the information if the other corporation indicates on its income tax return filed with respect to such corporation, the name, address, and employer identification number of the corporation filing the information.

Exchange Rates.—In converting items on the profit and loss statement to U.S. dollars, the exchange rate(s) used shall be computed under the rules contained in sections 985 to 989.

Blocked Income.—The earnings and profits of the foreign corporation, as reflected on Schedule H, shall not be reduced by reason of the fact that all or any part of such earnings and profits could not have been distributed by the foreign corporation, because of currency or other restrictions or limitations imposed under the laws of any foreign country.

Schedule I—Complete Schedule I to analyze the unappropriated retained earnings of the foreign corporation at the end of its annual accounting period.

However, you are not required to complete Schedule I if the total assets at the end of the annual accounting period are less than $25,000.

Schedule J.—Use Schedule J to report subpart F income of the controlled foreign corporation.

If the sum of the foreign base company income (determined without regard to applicable deductions) and gross insurance income is less than the lesser of 5% of gross income or $1,000,000, no portion of gross income shall be considered foreign base company income or insurance income.

If the sum of the foreign base company income (determined without regard to applicable deductions) and gross insurance income is greater than 70% of gross income, all of the gross income of the foreign corporation shall be treated as foreign base company income or insurance income.

Factoring income of a controlled foreign corporation is included in the income of its U.S. shareholders. If the sum of the foreign base company income (determined without regard to applicable deductions) and gross insurance income is less than the lesser of 5% of gross income or $1,000,000, factoring income is, however, included when determining whether the 5% $1,000,000, or 70% test is met.

The worksheets that follow in these instructions may be used by U.S. shareholders to compute income of the controlled foreign corporation whose annual accounting period ends with or within the U.S. shareholder’s income tax year. Do not file these worksheets when filing Form 5471.

New Definition of Insurance Income.—Insurance income for purposes of section 952(a)(1) is defined as any income that is attributable to an insurance or annuity contract connected with property in, liability arising out of an activity in, or in connection with the health or lives of residents of countries other than the country in which the foreign corporation was created or organized.

Also, other corporations will be considered to have insurance income if they receive an amount substantially equal to the premiums or other consideration received by the foreign corporation described above and if the other corporation would be subject to taxation under subchapter L (insurance company tax) if the income were income of a domestic insurance company.

Enter insurance income on line 1, Worksheet A.

Related Person Insurance Company Income.—A related person insurance company is any foreign insurance company that is 25% or more owned by U.S. persons and the income of which is from the insuring or reinsuring of its U.S. shareholders (defined in section 953(c)(1)(A)) (and persons related to its U.S. shareholders). Related person insurance income is treated as foreign base company income. An exception is made for foreign insurance companies if U.S. shareholders own at all times during the tax year less than 20% of the total combined voting power of all classes entitled to vote, and less than 20% of the total value of the corporation is owned by persons who are primarily insured under any policy of insurance or reinsurance issued by the corporation. Another exception applies if the amount of related person insurance income is small when compared to total insurance income. Income of a foreign corporation is not considered related person insurance income if the amount of related person insurance income is less than 20% when compared to total insurance income (without reduction for income from the country within which the corporation created or organized) of the company.
A related person insurance company may elect to treat related person insurance income as income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The company must waive all treaty benefits (with respect to related person insurance income) and meet the requirement set forth by the Secretary to ensure that the tax imposed by this section is paid. Once the election is made, it may not be revoked unless the Secretary consents, and no withholding tax under section 1441 shall be imposed.

Mutual Insurance Companies.—The related person insurance income rules shall also apply to mutual insurance companies under regulations prescribed by the Secretary. For these purposes, policyholders shall be treated as shareholders.

Enter related person insurance income on line 2, Worksheet A.

Computation of Investment in United States Property.—See section 956(b) for definitions of U.S. property and exceptions.

Election by an Individual To Be Taxed at Corporate Rates.—A U.S. shareholder who elects to be taxed at corporate rates on amounts included in income under section 951(a) must attach to his or her tax return a computation of tax under section 962.

Form 5713, International Boycott Report.—Any person, or a member of a controlled group (within the meaning of section 993(a)(3)), which includes that person, which has operations in, or related to, a country (or with the government, a company, or a national of a country) which requires participation in or cooperation with an international boycott as a condition of doing business within such country or with the government, company, or national of that country, may be required to file Form 5713. Any person subject to the reporting requirements of section 999(a) is required to file Form 5713 in duplicate. One copy of Form 5713 should be attached to the income tax return. File the other copy with Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255. For further details, see Form 5713.

International Boycott Income.—If a controlled foreign corporation or a member of a controlled group (within the meaning of section 993(a)(3)) that includes the foreign corporation agrees to participate in or cooperate with an international boycott, a portion of the income of the controlled foreign corporation is included in subpart F income. The amount included in subpart F income is determined by multiplying the income of the controlled foreign corporation (other than income included under section 951 and U.S. source effectively connected business income described in section 952(b)) by the international boycott factor. The international boycott factor is a fraction determined on Schedule A (Form 5713).

Special Rule.—If the shareholder of a controlled foreign corporation can clearly demonstrate that the income earned for the tax year is attributable to specific operations, then, instead of applying the international boycott factor, the addition to Subpart F income is the amount specifically attributable to the operations in which there was participation in or cooperation with an international boycott. See Schedule B (Form 5713).

Enter the amount of international boycott income on line 4 of worksheet A.

Worksheets for Computing Income From a Controlled Foreign Corporation

Use the questions that follow as a guide in completing the various worksheets below.

1. Did the sum of the foreign corporation’s foreign base company income (determined without regard to applicable deductions) and gross insurance income exceed the lesser of 5% of gross income or $1,000,000? If “Yes,” complete worksheet B.
2. Did the controlled foreign corporation receive income for insurance or annuity contracts on the life, health, or property of persons outside the corporation’s country of creation or organization, or receive similar consideration (section 952(a)(1))? If “No,” omit line 1 of worksheet A.
3. Has any amount ever been excluded from the foreign base company income of the controlled foreign corporation because of an increase in qualified investments in less developed country corporations or because of an increase in qualified investments in foreign base company shipping operations? If “Yes,” complete worksheet D.
4. Has any amount ever been excluded from the subpart F income of the controlled foreign corporation because it qualified as an export trade corporation? If “Yes,” complete worksheet F.
5. Did the controlled foreign corporation hold any United States property at the close of its tax year (other than property excluded under section 956(b)(2))? If “Yes,” complete worksheet C.
6. Is the controlled foreign corporation a foreign investment company or a foreign personal holding company? If “Yes,” see section 951(c) or (d) and the related regulations.

Worksheet C—Pro Rata Share of Increase in Earnings Invested in U.S. Property

1. Amount of U.S. property (other than property excluded under section 956(b)(2)) held, directly or indirectly, by the controlled foreign corporation at the close of the tax year.

2. If limitation applies, enter current and accumulated earnings and profits at the close of the tax year (see regs. sec. 1.956-1(b)).

3. Amounts of earnings invested in U.S. property at the close of the tax year which would constitute a dividend if distributed on such date (line 1 or line 2, whichever is applicable).

4. Amount of U.S. property (other than property excluded under section 956(b)(2)) held, directly or indirectly, by the controlled foreign corporation at the close of the preceding tax year.

5. If limitation applies, enter current and accumulated earnings and profits at the close of the preceding tax year (see regs. sec. 1.956-1(b)).

6. Amount of earnings invested in U.S. property at the close of the preceding tax year which would constitute a dividend if distributed on such date (line 4 or line 5, whichever is applicable).

7. Amounts paid during the preceding tax year to which section 959(c)(1) applies.

8. Subtract line 7 from line 6.

9. Pro rata share of line 3 (see regs. sec. 1.956-1(d)).

10. Pro rata share of line 8 (see regs. sec. 1.956-1(d)).

11. Subtract line 10 from line 9.

12. (Number of days in tax year corporation was a controlled foreign corporation over number of days in tax year) times line 11.

14. Pro rata share of increase in earnings invested in United States property (subtract line 13 from line 12). Enter here and on line 2, Schedule J.

Worksheet D—Pro Rata Share of Previously Excluded Subpart F Income Withdrawn From Qualified Investments in Less Developed Country Corporations and From Qualified Investments in Foreign Base Company Shipping Operations

1. Decrease in qualified investments in less developed countries (see regs. sec. 1.955-1(b)(1)) and foreign base company shipping operations (see regs. sec. 1.955A).

2. Limitation (see regs. sec. 1.955-1(b)(2)):
   - a. Sum of earnings and profits for the tax year and earnings and profits accumulated for prior tax years beginning after December 31, 1962.
   - b. Sum of amounts invested in less developed countries or foreign base company shipping operations and excluded from foreign base company income for all prior tax years, less sum of such amounts withdrawn for such years (see regs. sec. 1.955-1(b)(2)(ii))

3. Enter line 2a or line 2b, whichever is less.

4. Previously excluded subpart F income withdrawn for the tax year (line 1 or line 3, whichever is less).

5. Pro rata share of line 4 (see regs. sec. 1.955-1(c)).

6. (Number of days in tax year corporation was a controlled foreign corporation over number of days in tax year) times line 5. Enter here and on line 3, Schedule J.

Worksheet E—Pro Rata Share of Reductions for Export Trade Income

1. Total export trade income (section 971(b)).

2. Amount of line 1 which constitutes foreign base company income included in line 22, worksheet B.

3. 150% of export promotion expenses allocable to export trade income which constitutes foreign base company income (see secs. sec. 1.970-1(b)(2)(ii)).

4. 10% of gross receipts and gross amounts received or accrued which are attributable to export trade income which constitutes foreign base company income (see regs. sec. 1.970-1(b)(2)(ii)).

5. Increase in investments in export trade assets (see regs. sec. 1.970-1(d)(2)).

6. Line 5 times line 2 divided by line 1.

7. Reduction for export trade income—enter the smallest of line 2, 3, 4, or 6.

8. Pro rata share of line 7 (see sec. 1.951-1(e)). Enter here and on line 11, worksheet A.
Worksheet F—Pro Rata Share of Previously Excluded Export Trade Income Withdrawn From Investment in Export Trade Assets

1. Decrease in investments in export trade assets (see regs. sec. 1.970-1(d)(3))
2. Pro rata share of line 1
3. Pro rata share of the sum of earnings and profits for the tax year and earnings and profits accumulated for prior tax years beginning after December 31, 1962 (see regs. sec. 1.970-1(c)(2)(ii))
4. Limitation under section 970(b) (see regs. sec. 1.970-1(c)(2)(ii)):
   a. Pro rata share of the sum of the amounts by which subpart F income for prior tax years was reduced under section 970(a)
   b. Pro rata share of the sum of the amounts which were not included in subpart F income for prior tax years by reason of regs. sec. 1.972-1
   c. Add lines 4a and 4b
   d. Pro rata share of the sum of the amounts which were previously included in your gross income for prior tax years under section 951(a)(1)(A)(ii) by reason of section 970(b)
5. Subtract line 4d from line 4c
6. Enter the smallest of line 2, 3, or 5
7. (Number of days in tax year corporation was a controlled foreign corporation over number of days in tax year) times line 6. Enter here and on line 4, Schedule J

Illegal Bribes, Kickbacks, or Other Payments.—Under section 952(a)(4), the sum of the amounts for all years for all kickbacks, or other payments (within the meaning of section 162(c)) paid by or on behalf of the corporation, directly or indirectly, to an officer, employee, or agent of a government is considered Subpart F income. These are payments that would be unlawful under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977. Enter the total amounts of these payments on line 5 of worksheet A.

Factoring Income.—Factoring income arises when a person collects a trade or service receivable. If the receivable is acquired (directly or indirectly) from a related person, the income is treated as interest on a loan from the obligor under section 864(d)(1). Factoring income of a controlled foreign corporation is included in the income of its U.S. shareholders in all cases. Additionally, a trade or service receivable acquired by a controlled foreign corporation is considered an investment in U.S. property for purposes of section 956 if the obligor is a U.S. person.

Enter factoring income on line 5, Schedule J.

Section 952(a)(5) Income.—For tax years beginning after 1986, income of a controlled foreign corporation from any country described in section 901(j) will be deemed to be income to the U.S. shareholders of the controlled foreign corporation. The Secretary of State has prepared a list of countries that meet the requirements of section 901(j). The current list is the countries of: Afghanistan, Albania, Angola, Cambodia, Cuba, Iran, Libya, North Korea, People’s Republic of Yemen, Syria, and Vietnam.

Enter the total amount of section 952(a)(5) income on line 6, Worksheet A.

Section 263A, Uniform Capitalization Rules—Limitations on Deductions.—Many items that were deductible under prior law must now be capitalized or included in inventory under the new uniform capitalization rules of section 263A. The new rules require corporations to capitalize or include in inventory certain costs incurred in connection with the production of real and personal tangible property held in inventory or held for sale in the ordinary course of business. Tangible personal property produced by a taxpayer includes a film, sound recording, videotape, book, or similar property. The rules also apply to personal property (tangible and intangible) acquired for resale. Taxpayers subject to these rules are required to capitalize not only direct costs but an allocable portion of most indirect costs (including taxes) that relate to the assets produced or acquired for resale. Interest expense paid or incurred in the course of production must be capitalized and is governed by special rules. The uniform capitalization rules also apply to the production of property constructed or improved by a taxpayer for use in its trade or business or in an activity engaged in for profit.

Section 263A does not apply to personal property acquired for resale if the taxpayer’s annual average gross receipts are $10,000,000 or less. It does not apply to timber or property produced under a long-term contract. Special rules apply for farmers. The rules do not apply to property which is produced for use by the taxpayer if substantial construction has occurred before March 1, 1986.

The uniform capitalization rules are generally effective for costs and interest paid or incurred after 1986. With respect to inventory, the uniform capitalization rules apply to tax years beginning after 1986. Transitional rules are contained in section 803 of the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

In the case of inventory, some of the indirect costs which may not have been capitalized before the Tax Reform Act of 1986 must now be capitalized as administrative expenses; taxes; depreciation; insurance costs; compensation paid to officers attributable to services; rework labor; and contributions to pension, stock bonus, and certain profit-sharing, annuity, or deferred compensation plans.

Current deductions may still be claimed for research and experimental costs under section 174, intangible drilling cost for oil and gas and geothermal property, and mining and exploration and development costs. Regulations section 1.263A-1T specifies other indirect costs that may be currently deducted and those that must be capitalized with respect to production or resale activities. For more information, see regulations section 1.263A-1T.

Schedule K—Shareholders in a controlled foreign corporation who are reporting subpart F income must complete Schedule K from the later of 1962 or the date the foreign corporation first generated subpart F income.

U.S. shareholders who are completing Form 5471 and Schedule O must complete Schedule K for the foreign corporation for all of its annual accounting periods since 1962.

Schedule L—Under certain circumstances described below, one person may file Form 5471 and the applicable schedules for other persons who have the same filing requirements as the person filing Form 5471 (and schedules).

• If you are an officer, director, or 10% or more U.S. shareholder in a foreign personal holding company who is filing Form 5471 and Schedule N and there are other officers, directors, or 10% or more U.S. shareholders who are required to file Form 5471 and Schedule N, you may file Form 5471 and Schedule N for these persons by completing Schedule L.

If you have had Form 5471 and Schedule N filed on your behalf, you must attach a statement to your income tax return showing the name, address, taxpayer identifying number, type of return filed, and Service Center where the person filed Form 5471 and Schedule N for you. (Regulations section 1.6035-1(b)(3)).

• Any two or more officers or directors of a foreign corporation who must report information on Form 5471 and Schedule O with respect to one or more U.S. shareholders of that foreign corporation may jointly file Form 5471. One officer or... director must file Form 5471 and Schedule O in duplicate (as explained under "Who Must File") and complete Schedule L with respect to the other officers or directors.

Also, any two or more officers or directors required to file with respect to one or more shareholders of the same corporation may appoint, by one or more powers of attorney, one officer or director as attorney in fact for the purpose of preparing their separate returns or a joint return.

The power of attorney must be made in accordance with regulations section 1.6046-1(e)(3). It must be limited to a single tax year and to the preparation of Form 5471 and Part I of Schedule O. A copy of each power of attorney is not required to be filed with Form 5471 but must be available for inspection by the Internal Revenue Service.

- Two or more shareholders may jointly file Form 5471 and Schedule O for the same corporation. The shareholder who has an equal or greater value of stock must file Form 5471 and Schedule O and enter the name, address, and taxpayer identifying number of those other shareholder(s) in Schedule L. The shareholder for whom Form 5471 and Schedule O were filed must attach Schedule O and a statement to its income tax return showing the name, address, taxpayer identifying number, and Service Center where the person who filed Form 5471 and Schedule O on its behalf filed its income tax return.

Schedule M — Schedule M is an information return required by section 6038. Every U.S. person must file Schedule M for each foreign corporation that person controls for any 30-day period within the foreign corporation’s annual accounting period. Schedule M is filed to report the transactions of the foreign corporation’s annual accounting period ending with or within the U.S. person’s taxable year. A U.S. person who is otherwise required to file Schedule M will not have to file Schedule M if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The person does not own a direct interest in the foreign corporation, and
2. The person is required to file Schedule M only by rules of attribution, and
3. The person from whom the stock ownership is attributed files Form 5471 and Schedules L and M.

If you are excepted from filing Schedule M because all of the above conditions apply to you, you must submit a statement with your income tax return identifying the person who filed for you, that person’s taxpayer identifying number, and the Service Center where that person files his or her income tax return.

Schedule N — Schedule N is an information return required by section 6035. It is used to report the activities of a foreign personal holding company.

Foreign personal holding company. — For tax years beginning after 1986, the following rules apply to foreign personal holding companies.

The ownership rules for determining if a foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company have changed. The new rules are as follows. If at any time during the tax year more than 50% of the combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote or the total value of the stock of the corporation is owned (directly or indirectly) by or for a group of 5 or fewer U.S. citizens or residents, the foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company.

The following entities do not qualify as foreign personal holding companies.

1. A corporation exempt from income tax under subchapter F (sections 501-528); and
2. A corporation organized and doing business under the banking and credit laws of a foreign country if it is established to the effect that the corporation is not being used to avoid or evade taxes that would normally be imposed upon its shareholders. If the corporation meets this test, the Secretary will issue a certificate that the corporation is not a foreign personal holding company.

Shareholders of a foreign corporation that qualifies for exception (2) above must attach a copy of the Secretary’s certificate to their income tax return for each tax year that they are shareholders in the corporation.

Foreign Personal Holding Company Income. — For tax years of foreign corporations that begin after 1986, foreign personal holding company income is defined as being income from dividends, interest (except export financing interest), royalties, annuities, and rents. Gain on the sale of property that produced the income listed above is also considered personal holding company income in certain cases. However, if the property is described in section 222, that is, it is sold in the ordinary course of the corporation’s trade or business, the gain on sale or disposition is not personal holding company income. Generally, rents and royalties will not be considered personal holding company income if they are received from a non-related person in the active conduct of a trade or business. In addition, the gain from all personal holding company income. Gain on foreign currency transactions (section 988) is also considered foreign personal holding company income.

Other Types of Personal Holding Company Income. — Gain from commodities transactions is considered personal holding company income. However, any gain arising from a bona fide hedging transaction reasonably necessary to the conduct of the trade or business by a dealer, a broker, or a person who is a member of a futures commission merchant is not considered personal holding company income. To qualify for the exception, the corporation must be in the active conduct of producing, processing, or selling commodities.

Income Not Considered Foreign Personal Holding Company Income. — Dividends and interest received from a person related to the foreign personal holding company is not considered foreign personal holding company income if the related person is created or organized in the same foreign country as the foreign personal holding company and the related person has a substantial amount of its assets in that foreign country. In addition, income from rents and royalties received from a related person for use of, or privilege of using, property in the country under whose laws the foreign personal holding company was created or organized is not considered foreign personal holding company income.

None of the above exceptions apply to items that reduce subpart F income.

Gross income test. — At least 60% of the foreign personal holding company’s gross income (as defined in section 552(a)) is foreign personal holding company income (section 553).

Once a foreign personal holding company meets the gross income test, the minimum percentage is lowered to 50% for any subsequent tax year. The foreign holding corporation will, however, continue to be considered a foreign personal holding company until either (1) the stock requirement test is not met, or (2) the end of 3 consecutive tax years in which less than 50% of the gross income is foreign personal holding company income.

Who Must File. — Every U.S. citizen or resident who is an officer, director, or 10% or more (either directly or indirectly) shareholder in a foreign personal holding company must file Schedule N. The information is submitted for the foreign personal holding company’s annual accounting period that ends with or within the officer’s, director’s, or shareholder’s income tax year.

Whether an individual is considered an officer, director, or 10% or more shareholder is determined on the date that Form 5471 is required to be filed. If an individual qualifies as an officer, the determination is made on the last day of the foreign corporation’s tax year in which there was such a person who was a U.S. citizen or resident.

An individual is considered to own the stock owned by members of his or her family as described in section 554(a)(2).

Corporation that ceases to be a foreign personal holding company. — File a return for a corporation that ceased being a foreign personal holding company after the tax year ended, if it was a foreign personal holding company during the tax year.

Change in rights. — If, during the tax year, an amendment to the corporate charter or any other cause changed the rights of various classes of shareholders or the conversion privileges of outstanding securities, attach a statement to the return describing the changes in detail.

Corporation organized or reorganized during the tax year. — If you are filing for a tax year in which the corporation was organized or reorganized, submit the following information:

A list of the classes and kinds of assets transferred to the corporation for corporate stock or securities in connection with the organization or reorganization.

A detailed list of any stock or securities included in the assets transferred to the corporation for its stock or securities.

A list of the names and addresses of the persons who, immediately before the transfer, owned assets transferred to the corporation for its stock or securities.
First-time filer.—If this is the first time you are submitting information required under section 6035, attach the following information:

(a) A statement of stock ownership showing that during the corporation’s tax year more than 50% in value of its outstanding stock was owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than five individual citizens or residents of the U.S.

(b) A detailed statement of the conversion privileges of any outstanding securities that are convertible to the corporation’s stock.

(c) A detailed statement of the respective rights of the various classes of shareholders if more than one class of stock is outstanding.

This information does not, however, need to be submitted if it was previously furnished by another person.

Specific Instructions for Part I
(Schedule N)

Section A.—List in Section A the outstanding securities of the foreign personal holding company that are convertible into the stock of the foreign personal holding company. List the interest rate and the face value of the securities at the beginning and end of the corporation’s annual accounting period.

Also list in Section A any options granted by the corporation during its tax year.

Section B.—Identify each person who is the holder of convertible securities in the foreign personal holding company. Also, enter the class of securities held, the number and face value at the beginning and end of the corporation’s tax year, and an explanation of any change in the holdings for each person holding the convertible securities.

Enter the name and address of each person granted an option for the stock of the foreign personal holding company.

Specific Instructions for Part II
(Schedule N)

Part II is used to report the income and deductions of the foreign personal holding company’s tax year.

Section A.—Computation of Undistributed Foreign Personal Holding Company Income.

Line 2.—Enter on line 2 any adjustments to the earnings and profits of the foreign personal holding company that are used to arrive at the taxable income of the foreign personal holding company. Examples of items that would increase the taxable income of the foreign personal holding company might be (1) expenses that are not deductible for income tax purposes but have been used in arriving at earnings and profits, and (2) excesses of capital losses over capital gains. Examples of amounts that would reduce the earnings and profits of the foreign personal holding company to arrive at its taxable income might be expenses deducted in prior years to determine earnings and profits of the foreign personal holding company that are properly chargeable in the current year in determining taxable income.

Line 5.—Excess of expenses and depreciation over income from property not allowable under section 556(b)(5).—Section 556(b)(5) provides a specific limitation in computing undistributed personal holding company income with respect to the allowance of deductions for trade or business expenses and depreciation that are allocable to the operation and maintenance of the property owned or operated by a foreign personal holding company. These deductions will not be allowed in excess of the aggregate amount of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner:

(a) that the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtained, or, if none was received, that none was obtainable;

(b) that the property was held in the course of a business carried on for profit; and

(c) either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

If excess deductions are claimed, attach a statement for each property showing the following:

(a) a description of the property;

(b) the cost or other basis to the corporation and the nature and value of the consideration paid for the property;

(c) the name and address of the person from whom the property was acquired and the date the property was acquired;

(d) the name and address of the person to whom the property was leased or rented, or the person permitted to use the property, and the number of shares of stock, if any, held by the person and the members of his or her family;

(e) the nature (cash, securities, services, etc.) and the gross amount of rent or other compensation received or accrued for the use of, or the right to use, the property during the tax year and for each of the 5 preceding years and the amount of expense incurred with respect to, and the depreciation sustained on, the property for such years;

(f) evidence that the rent or other compensation was the highest obtainable or, if none was received or accrued, a statement of the reason that none was received or accrued;

(g) a copy of the contract, lease, or rental agreement;

(h) the purpose for which the property was used;

(i) the business carried on by the corporation with respect to which the property was held and the gross income, expenses, and taxable income derived from the conduct of such business for the tax year and for each of the 5 preceding years;

(j) the reasons for acquiring the property, for expecting that it would be profitable, and for holding the property in the business of the corporation; and

(k) any other information in support of the deductions.

Line 6.—Deductions for taxes and payments to employees’ pension trusts not allowable under section 556(b)(6).—Enter the total amount of any deductions taken in computing taxable income under the provisions of section 164(e), relating to taxes of a shareholder paid by the corporation, and section 404, relating to pension, trusts, etc.

Line 8.—Contributions deductible under section 556(b)(8) for the purpose of computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income, section 556(b)(2) and the related regulations apply to the limitations in section 170(b)(1)(A), (B), and (D).

The term “contribution base” when used in section 170(b)(1) means the corporation’s taxable income computed (1) with the adjustments, other than the 10% limitation, provided in section 170(b)(2), (2) without the deduction of the amount disallowed under section 556(b)(5), (relating to expenses and depreciation applicable to property of the taxpayer) and section 556(b)(6) (relating to taxes and contributions to pension and trusts), and (3) without the inclusion of the amounts includable as dividends under section 555(b) (relating to the inclusion in gross income of a foreign personal holding company of its distributive share of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of another company in which it is a shareholder).

The carryover of charitable contributions made in a prior year is not allowed as a deduction in computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income for any tax year.

Line 9.—Taxes.—Section 556(b)(1) provides a deduction for Federal income tax accrued (or, in some cases, paid) during the tax year, but not including the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531 or the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541.

Attach a schedule showing (a) the nature of income on which Federal income tax was paid or withheld at the source; (b) when and where the tax was paid or withheld; (c) the amount of tax paid or accrued; and (d) the tax year to which the tax relates.

Also, attach a schedule of income, war profits, and excess profits tax of foreign countries and possessions of the U.S. accrued during the tax year to the extent not allowable as a deduction because a foreign tax credit was claimed.

Line 10.—Net operating loss for the preceding tax year.—Section 556(b)(4) provides that in lieu of the net operating loss deduction provided in section 172 there will be allowed the amount of the net operating loss (as defined in section 172(c)) for the preceding tax year computed without the deductions provided in sections 241 through 250, except for section 248.

Section B.—Deduction for dividends paid.—Enter the deduction for dividends paid provided in section 561. The deduction for dividends paid is the sum of the dividends paid during the tax year and the consent dividends for the tax year (determined under section 565).
The rules in section 562 will apply in determining the deduction for dividends paid. Compute the deduction in Section B and attach (a) a copy of each dividend resolution, and (b) a concise statement of the pertinent facts relating to the payment of each dividend, clearly specifying (1) the medium of payment, and (2) if not paid in money, fair market value and adjusted basis (or face value, if paid in the corporation’s own obligations) on the date of distribution of the property, and (3) the manner in which the fair market value and adjusted basis were determined.

Schedule O—Schedule O is used to report the organization or reorganization of a foreign corporation and the acquisition of its stock under section 6046. U.S. persons who are officers, directors, or shareholders in a foreign corporation must complete Schedule O in certain cases described below.

Who Must Complete Schedule O

A. Officers and directors.—Every U.S. citizen or resident who is a director or officer of a foreign corporation must complete Schedule O to report each U.S. person who:

1. acquires stock in a foreign corporation (in one or more transactions) that gives that person a 5% or more ownership in the foreign corporation. Stock owned by the U.S. person on January 1, 1963, however, is not considered in determination of the 5% amount, or
2. acquires an additional 5% ownership in the foreign corporation after Schedule O has been filed.

Examples

1. Mr. Harris is a U.S. citizen who is a director of a foreign corporation. Mr. Johnson, also a U.S. citizen, acquired stock in that corporation in the following transactions:
   - On March 1, 1984, Johnson acquires 2% of the corporation’s stock;
   - On October 1, 1984, Johnson acquires an additional 2% of the corporation’s stock; and
   - On December 1, 1984, Johnson acquires an additional 2% of the corporation’s stock.

Harris is required to report Johnson’s December 1, 1984, transaction since Johnson at that point owned more than 5% of the foreign corporation.

2. The facts are the same as above. Also, Johnson acquires an additional 4% of the foreign corporation’s outstanding stock on March 1, 1985, and on April 1, 1985, Johnson acquires an additional 2% of the foreign corporation’s outstanding stock.

Harris does not have to complete Schedule O for the March 1, 1985, transaction since Johnson had already acquired an additional 5% or more since Harris last filed Form 5471 and Schedule O. Harris is, however, required to complete Schedule O for the April 1, 1985, transaction since Johnson had, at that time, acquired an additional 5% or more of the foreign corporation’s outstanding stock.

B. Shareholders.—Every U.S. person must file Schedule O when:

- the person acquires (whether in one or more transactions) outstanding stock of a foreign corporation which has, or which when added to any stock then owned by that person (excluding any stock owned on January 1, 1963, if on that date he or she owned 5% or more in value of stock) has a value equal to 5% or more in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation;
- the person, having already acquired 5% or more in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation or the interest referred to in (a) above:
  - acquires (whether in one or more transactions) an additional 5% or more in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation,
  - owns 5% or more in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation when the foreign corporation is reorganized, or
  - disposes of sufficient stock in the foreign corporation to reduce his or her interest to less than 5% in value of the corporation, or
- the person becomes a U.S. person while owning 5% or more in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation.
- Every U.S. person who has an interest in a passive foreign investment company on January 1, 1987, must file Form 5471 and Schedule O to report that interest.

Every U.S. person who acquires an interest in a passive foreign investment company after January 1, 1987, is required to file Form 5471 and Schedule O to report such acquisition.

Any U.S. person who is required to report the acquisition of an interest in a passive foreign investment company must also report the disposition of such interest in a passive foreign investment company.

Examples

1. On June 10, 1983, a domestic corporation, Z, acquires a 6% ownership in a foreign corporation. Z completes Form 5471 and Schedule O to report this transaction. On July 7, 1983, Z acquires an additional 4% of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation and on September 2, 1983, Z acquires an additional 2% of the foreign corporation’s outstanding stock. Z is not required to complete Schedule O for the July 7, 1983, transaction, but Z must complete Schedule O to report the September 2, 1983, transaction since that transaction gives Z an additional 5% or more ownership from the last time Z became liable for completing Schedule O (June 10, 1983).

2. On May 1, 1983, D, a domestic corporation, owns 15% of the outstanding stock of a foreign corporation. On August 7, 1983, the foreign corporation was reorganized. As a result, D then owned 7% of the foreign corporation’s outstanding stock. D must complete Schedule O to report this transaction.

The facts are the same as above in example (2). Additionally, on October 1, 1983, D donates 3% of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation to a charitable organization. D must complete Schedule O to report this transaction since the transaction reduces D’s interest in the foreign corporation to less than 5%.

C. Persons not required to file:

1. An officer or director is not required to file Schedule O to report an acquisition of stock by a shareholder if:
   - three or fewer U.S. persons own 95% or more in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation, and
   - a U.S. person files a return as a shareholder to report the acquisition.

An officer or director is not required to file Schedule O for a shareholder who is described below.

2. A shareholder is not required to file Schedule O if all of the following conditions are met:
   - the shareholder does not directly own an interest in the foreign corporation,
   - the shareholder is required to furnish the information solely by reason of attribution of stock ownership from a U.S. person, and
   - the person from whom the stock ownership is attributed furnishes all of the information required of the person to whom the stock ownership is attributed.

(3) For rules regarding shareholders who do not have to file Schedule O (formerly Form 9595) because shareholders who own more stock file for them, see regulations section 1.6046-1(e)(5). If you are a shareholder who is filing for other shareholders in this situation, enter those shareholders’ names in Schedule L.

Specific Instructions (Schedule O)

Part I

Column (a).—Enter the name of the shareholder whose transaction is being reported.

Column (b).—Enter the address of the shareholder being reported in column (a).

Column (c).—Enter the taxpayer identifying number for the shareholder being reported in column (a). For individuals, this is their social security number. For all others, it is their employer identification number.

Column (d).—Enter the date the shareholder being reported in column (a) first acquired a 5% or more ownership in the foreign corporation.

Column (e).—Enter the date the shareholder being reported in column (a) acquired an additional 5% or more ownership in the foreign corporation.

Part II

Part II may be completed by one or more shareholders who are participating in the same transaction that gives rise to the completion of Schedule O.

Section A.

Column (a).—Enter the name of each shareholder who is completing Schedule O.

Column (b).—Enter the following for the last U.S. income tax return filed by the shareholder listed in column (a).

Column (1).—Enter the type of return filed (for example, Forms 1040, 1065, 1120, etc.).

Column (2).—Enter the date the last return was filed.

Column (3).—Enter the Internal Revenue Service Center where the shareholder listed in column (a) filed its last income tax return.
Section C.—Section C is completed by shareholders who are completing Schedule O because they have acquired sufficient stock in a foreign corporation. If the shareholder acquired the stock in more than one transaction, use a separate line to report each transaction.

Column (a).—Enter the name of the U.S. shareholder.

Column (b).—Enter the class of stock acquired by the person listed in column (a).

Column (c).—Enter the date the stock was acquired by the person listed in column (a).

Column (d).—Enter the method of acquisition. (For example, “purchase,” “gift,” “bequest,” “trade,” etc.)

Column (e).—Enter the number of shares.

Column (f).—Acquired directly by the person listed in column (a).

Column (g).—Acquired indirectly by the shareholder listed in column (a), such as through the purchase of stock in one foreign corporation that has sufficient ownership in a second foreign corporation that would require the shareholder to file Schedule O.

Column (h).—Constructively owned by the shareholder listed in column (a).

For purposes of column (3), stock owned directly or indirectly by, or for, a foreign corporation or a foreign partnership is considered as being owned proportionately by its shareholders or partners. An individual is considered as owning the stock owned directly or indirectly by, or for, his or her brothers and sisters (whether by whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

Column (f).—Enter the amount paid by the shareholder listed in column (a) for the shares of stock listed in column (e). If no price was paid, enter the value given for the shares.

Column (g).—Enter the name and address of the person from whom the shareholder listed in column (a) purchased the shares of stock entered in column (e).

Section D.—Shareholders who dispose of their interest (or part) in a foreign corporation are to complete Section D.

Column (a).—The shareholder who is disposing of their interest (or part) in a foreign corporation should enter his or her name in column (a).

Column (b).—The shareholder enters the class of stock in column (b).

Column (c).—The shareholder enters the date the ownership was transferred to the transferee.

Column (d).—The shareholder enters the method of disposition in column (d). Among the methods of disposition are sale, bequest, gift, or transfer.

Column (e).—The shareholder enters the manner and number in which the shares of the foreign corporation were disposed of. For example, if the shareholder sells the shares directly to another person, the shareholder would enter the number of shares transferred in column (1).

Column (f).—The shareholder disposing of the stock enters the amount of consideration received for his stock.

Column (g).—The shareholder who is disposing of the shares of stock enters the name and complete address of the person receiving the stock.

Example for Section D

In 1984, Mr. Jackson, a U.S. citizen, purchased 10,000 shares of common stock of foreign corporation X. The purchase represented 10% ownership of the foreign corporation.

On July 1, 1986, Mr. Jackson made a gift of 5,000 shares of foreign corporation X to his son, John. Since Mr. Jackson has reduced his holding in the foreign corporation by 5%, he is required to complete Form 5471 and Schedule O. To show the required information about the disposition, Mr. Jackson completes Section D as follows.

Enters his name in column (a).

Enters "common" in column (b).

Enters July 1, 1986 in column (c).

Enters "gift" in column (d).

Enters 5,000 in subcolumn (1) of column (e).

Enters -0- in column (f) since the disposition was by gift.

Enters the name and address of his son, John, in column (g).

Section E.—U.S. shareholders must report when the foreign corporation is organized or reorganized. The shareholder is to enter the same information if the corporation is being organized or reorganized.
Codes for Principal Business Activity

These codes for the Principal Business Activity are designed to classify enterprises by the type of activity in which they are engaged to facilitate the administration of the Internal Revenue Code. Though similar in format and structure to the Standard Industrial Classification Codes (SIC), they should not be used as the SIC codes.

Using the list below, enter on page 1, under 1g, the code number for the specific industry group from which the largest percentage of "total receipts" is derived.

If, as its principal business activity, the corporation (1) purchases raw materials, (2) subcontractors out for labor to make a finished product from the raw materials, and (3) retains title to the goods, the corporation is considered to be a manufacturer and must enter one of the codes (2010-3998) under "Manufacturing."
