

Instructions for Form 5713 (May 1977)

International Boycott Report

(References are to the Internal Revenue Code.)

Reporting Operations, Boycott Requests and Boycott Compliance.—Generally, persons having operations in or related to countries which require participation in or cooperation with an international boycott after November 3, 1976, may be required to report these operations on Form 5713. (See instruction F.)

In addition, requests to participate in or cooperate with, and actual participation in or cooperation with, international boycotts may have to be reported on Form 5713.

Tax Benefits Which May Be Lost Through Participation In or Cooperation With an International Boycott.—If there is an agreement to participate in or cooperate with an international boycott, taxpayers may lose a portion of the tax benefits of the foreign tax credit (section 908(a)), deferral of taxation of earnings of controlled foreign corporations (section 952(a)), or deferral of taxation of DISC income (section 995(b)(1)).

If there has been a loss of tax benefits under the above mentioned sections, each taxpayer must make appropriate entries on Schedules A (Form 5713), B (Form 5713), and C (Form 5713) and on Form 1116 (individuals), Form 1118 (corporations), Form 3646, or Form 1120-DISC for the applicable tax year affected.

General Instructions

A. Who Must File Form 5713.—You must file Form 5713 if you:

1. have operations; or
2. are a member of a controlled group, a member of which has operations; or
3. are a United States shareholder (within the meaning of section 951(b)) of a foreign corporation that has operations; or
4. are a partner in a partnership that has operations; or
5. are treated under section 671 as the owner of a trust that has operations in or related to a boycotting country (or with the government, a company, or a national of a boycotting country). However, if you are not a United States person (as defined below), you need not file Form 5713 unless you either claim the benefits of the foreign tax credit under section 901 or own stock of a DISC.

U.S. Person.—A U.S. person includes: a citizen or resident of the United States; a domestic partnership; a domestic corporation; and any estate or trust (other than a foreign estate or foreign trust). (See section 7701(a)(30).)

See instructions C and D for definitions of “boycotting country” and “operations.”

See instruction H regarding penalties for failure to file Form 5713.

B. When and Where to File Form 5713.—

File Form 5713 in duplicate when your tax return is due, including extensions. Send one copy to the Internal Revenue Service Center, 11601 Roosevelt Boulevard, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19155, and attach the other copy to your income tax return.

C. Boycotting Country.—A boycotting country is any country which is on the list maintained by the Secretary of the Treasury under section 999(a)(3). The list currently includes Bahrain, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Syria, United Arab Emirates, Yemen Arab Republic and Peoples Democratic Republic of Yemen.

Also, any other country in which you (or a member of the controlled group of which you are a member) have operations and which you know or have reason to know requires any person to participate in or cooperate with an international boycott other than a boycott referred to in section 999(b)(4)(A), (B), or (C) (see instruction E) is a boycotting country.

D. Definition of “Operations.”—The term “operations” encompasses all forms of business or commercial activities whether or not productive of income, including, but not limited, to selling; purchasing; leasing; licensing; banking, financing, and similar activities; extracting; processing; manufacturing; producing; constructing; transporting; activities ancillary to the foregoing (e.g., contract negotiating, advertising, site selecting, etc.); and performing services, whether or not ancillary to the foregoing.

You are considered to have operations “in a boycotting country” if you have an operation that is carried on in whole or in part in a boycotting country.

You are considered to have operations “with the government, a company, or a national of a boycotting country” if you have an operation that is carried on outside a boycotting country either for or with the government, a company, or a national of a boycotting country.

You are considered to have operations “related to a boycotting country” if you have an operation that is carried on outside a boycotting country for the government, a company, or a national of any country if you know or have reason to know that specific goods or services produced by the operation are intended for use in a boycotting country or for the government, a company, or a national of a boycotting country.

E. Special Filing Situations and Waivers Regarding Filing Form 5713.—

1. Consolidated Return.—If you are a member of a controlled group of corporations (within the meaning of section 993(a)(3)) and the common parent of that controlled group files a consolidated income tax return on behalf of all members of the controlled group and a Form 5713 with respect to the reportable operations of all members of that group, this is sufficient to discharge your reporting obligation. If the consolidated return is not filed on your behalf, you must separately file Form 5713.

2. Partners.—Generally, if you are a partner in a partnership that has operations in a boycotting country, you are required to file Form 5713. However, if the partnership files Form 5713 with its Form 1065 and has no operations that constitute participation in or cooperation with an international boycott, then you need not file Form 5713 if you have no operations in or related to a boycotting country, or with the government, a company, or a national of a boycotting country other than the operations that are reported on the Form 5713 filed by the partnership.

3. U.S. Sanctioned Boycotts.—Section 999(b)(4)(A) permits you to meet the requirements imposed by a foreign country with respect to an international boycott if United States law or regulations, or an Executive Order, sanctions participation in or cooperation with that international boycott. If your operations fall within this exception, the reporting requirements with respect to operations under such international boycott agreements are waived.

4. Prohibition on Importation and Exportation.—Section 999(b)(4) permits you to agree to comply with certain laws without having been treated as having agreed to participate in or cooperate with an international boycott. While you may agree to comply with prohibitions on exportation or importation described in section 999(b)(4)(B) and section 999(b)(4)(C) without incurring tax sanctions, you are required to report the operations under such agreements on Form 5713.

5. Unsolicited Tender Invitations.—You need not report unsolicited invitations to tender, unless you make a response to the tender.

6. United States Subsidiary or Sister Corporation.—If you have a foreign parent or foreign sister corporation that is not required to file Form 5713, you need not report its operations if you either have no benefits of deferral, DISC or the foreign tax credit, or, under certain circumstances, are willing to forfeit those benefits.

F. Effective Dates for Reporting Purposes.—

Generally.—The reporting requirements of the international boycott provisions apply to agreements to participate in or cooperate with an international boycott, made after November 3, 1976, and to agreements made on or before November 3, 1976, that continue in effect thereafter.

The reporting requirements apply to operations after November 3, 1976, whether or not there has been an agreement to participate in or cooperate with an international boycott. Operations on or before November 3, 1976, are reportable if there has been participation in or cooperation with the boycott during the taxable year after November 3, 1976.

G. International Boycott Factor and Specifically Attributable Taxes and Income.—There are two alternative methods for computing the loss of tax benefits. You may either use the international boycott factor, or you may determine the taxes and income specifically attributable to boycott operations.

If you compute the loss of tax benefits by using the international boycott factor, complete Schedules A (Form 5713) and C (Form 5713). If you determine taxes and income specifically attributable to boycott operations, complete Schedules B (Form 5713) and C (Form 5713).

DISCs and partnerships need not complete Schedule C. However, they must complete Schedules A and B, unless all shareholders, or all partners compute the loss of their tax benefits using the boycott factor exclusively, or the specifically identifiable taxes and income method exclusively. In such case, the DISC and the partnership need complete only Schedule A or Schedule B as appropriate.

H. Penalties—Willful Failure to Report.—Any person (within the meaning of section 7701(a)(1) or section 6671(b)) required to report under section 999 who willfully fails to make such report shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be fined not more than $25,000, imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

Specific Instructions

- Notes:
1. Numbered to correspond with the line numbers on Form 5713.
 2. All schedules attached to Form 5713 should correspond as closely as possible to the format used for the same schedule on the form itself.

General Information

Taxable Year of Controlled Group.—The taxable year for a controlled group (as defined in section 993(a)(3)) is the same as the taxable year of the common parent (from line 4(b)(3)).

1. Individuals.—Enter the amount from line 15c, Form 1040 (1976).

2(c). Partnerships and Corporations.—Enter the principal business activity code number and description for the person filing this form. Page 4 of the instructions provides the code list of business activities for corporations and partnerships. Using this list, enter the code number for the specific industry group from which the largest percentage of "total receipts" was derived. On Forms 1120, 1120S, and 1120-F, total receipts means gross receipts (Forms 1120 and 1120S, page 1, line 1; and Form 1120-F, page 3, line 1) plus all other income (Forms 1120 and 1120S, page 1, lines 4 through 10; and Form 1120-F, page 3, lines 4 through 10). For DISCs, "total receipts" means all income (page 1, line 4). See page 8 of the Instructions for Form 1120-DISC for business activities which apply to a DISC. For partnerships, "total receipts" on Form 1065 means gross receipts (page 1, line 1a) plus all other income (page 1, lines 4 through 11).

2(d). DISC's.—Enter the major product code number and description from Schedule N (Form 1120-DISC), page 1. This is the code number for the major product or service (as measured by export gross receipts) sold or provided by the DISC.

4(b). Common Parent Election.—In the event no common parent exists within a controlled group of corporations, the members of the controlled group are to elect the tax year of one of the members to serve as the common tax year for the group. This election is made by designating the name, taxable year and employer identification number of the elected parent on line 4(b).

All members of a controlled group must consent, in writing, to the common tax year election. A copy of the consent must be attached to, and filed with, Form 5713. In the event no consensus is reached by the members of the controlled group, the common tax year of the group will be the tax year of the member of the controlled group whose tax year ends in the latest month of the calendar year. For example, if there are three members of a controlled group with tax years ending April 30, June 30, and December 31, then, in the event no consensus is reached as to the common tax year, the member's year which ends with December 31 will be the common tax year. The taxable year election is a binding election and can be changed only with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Note: No other election need be filed.

4(c)(1). Corporations.—Enter the amount of total assets from the applicable 1976 form:

- (a) Form 1120: Schedule L, line 14, col. (D);
- (b) Form 1120-DISC: Schedule L, line 3, col. (B);
- (c) Form 1120F: Schedule L, line 14, col. (D);
- (d) Form 1120S: Schedule L, line 14, col. (D);
- (e) Form 1120L: Annual Statement, page 14, line 26 (sum of columns 1 and 2);
- (f) Form 1120M: Annual Statement, page 11, line 22 (sum of columns 1 and 2).

4(c)(2). Corporations.—Enter the amount of taxable income before net operating loss and special deductions from the applicable 1976 form:

- (a) Form 1120: Page 1, line 28;
- (b) Form 1120F: Page 3, line 28;
- (c) Form 1120-DISC: Page 1, line 10 (Taxable income before net operating loss deduction and dividends-received deduction);
- (d) Form 1120S: Page 1, Line 28 (Taxable income);
- (e) Form 1120L: Schedule E: Lines 26 plus 21(d) plus 22 (Gain or loss from operations before dividends-received deduction and operations loss deduction);
- (f) Form 1120M: Page 1, line 4 plus Schedule B-1, line 25 (Taxable income before unused loss deduction and dividends-received deduction).

Questions 6 Through 12

Filers Who Are Not Members of a Controlled Group.—Your answers to questions 6-12 on Form 5713 must reflect your operations, boycott requests and boycott participation or cooperation for your taxable year. In addition, if you are:

- (a) a United States shareholder of a foreign corporation; or
- (b) a partner in a partnership; or
- (c) treated under section 671 as the owner of a trust, then your answers to questions 6-12 must also reflect the reportable operations, requests and participation or cooperation of the foreign corporation, partnership, or trust.

When you report on behalf of a foreign corporation as a United States shareholder, report the foreign corporation's operations, requests, and participation or cooperation for the foreign corporation's taxable year that ends with or within your taxable year.

When you report on behalf of a partnership as a partner, report the partnership's operations, requests, and participation or cooperation for the partnership's taxable year that ends with or within your taxable year.

When you report on behalf of a trust as its owner under section 671, report the trust's operations, requests, and participation or cooperation for your taxable year.

Example.—Assume that you have reportable operations for your 1977 calendar taxable year. Assume also that you are a partner in a partnership that has reportable operations for its July 1, 1976-June 30, 1977 taxable year. The Form 5713 filed by you for your 1977 calendar year will reflect your operations for the 1977 calendar year and the operations of the partnership for the period July 1, 1976-June 30, 1977.

Filers Who Are Members of a Controlled Group of Corporations.—If you are a member of a controlled group of corporations, the answers to questions 6-12 on the Form 5713 filed by you for your taxable year must reflect:

- (a) your operations, boycott requests and boycott participation or cooperation (and those of any trust of which you are treated as the owner under section 671) for your taxable year that ends with or within the taxable year of the common parent that ends with or within your taxable year (see instruction 4(b));
- (b) the operations, boycott requests and boycott participation or cooperation of each other member of the controlled group (and those of any trust of which a member of the controlled group is treated as the owner under section 671) for each member's taxable year that ends with or within the taxable year of the common parent that ends with or within your taxable year;
- (c) the operations, boycott requests and boycott participation or cooperation of each foreign corporation or partnership on whose behalf you are reporting as a United States shareholder or as a partner, for the taxable year of the foreign corporation or the partnership that ends with or within your taxable year that ends with or within the taxable year of the common parent that ends with or within your taxable year; and
- (d) the operations, boycott requests and boycott participation or cooperation of each foreign corporation or partnership on whose behalf a member (other than you) of the controlled group is reporting as a United States shareholder or as a partner, for the taxable year of the foreign corporation or the partnership that ends with or within such member's taxable year that ends with or within the taxable year of the common parent that ends with or within your taxable year.

The net effect of these reporting requirements is that the answers to questions 6-12 are identical for each member of the controlled group and need only be updated on a group basis once a year. The information is updated at the close of the taxable year of the common parent, and is reported by each member of the group for its taxable year that ends with or after the taxable year of the common parent. If the taxable years of all members, foreign corporations and partnerships coincide with the taxable year of the common parent, then all information is reported on a current basis.

If all taxable years do not coincide, then all or some of the information reported will reflect a time period that is out of phase with the reporter's taxable year.

Example.—Assume that Corporations A, B, C and D are all members of a controlled group. Corporations A, B and C report on the basis of a calendar year. Corporation D reports on the basis of a July 1–June 30 taxable year. Corporation C owns 15 percent of Foreign Corporation X. Corporation X reports on the basis of an April 1–March 31 year. Corporation A is the common parent. Corporations A, B, C, D and X have operations in boycotting countries. The Forms 5713 filed by Corporations A, B and C for their 1978 taxable years will reflect the operations of Corporations A, B, and C for the 1978 taxable year, the operations of Corporation D for the period July 1, 1977–June 30, 1978, and the operations of Corporation X for the period April 1, 1977–March 31, 1978. The answers to questions 6–12 on the Form 5713 filed by Corporation D for its taxable year ending June 30, 1979 will be identical to those on the Forms 5713 filed by Corporations A, B and C for their taxable years ending December 31, 1978. Thus, the Form 5713 filed by Corporation D for its taxable year ending June 30, 1979 will not reflect any of Corporation D's operations for its July 1, 1978–June 30, 1979 taxable year.

Part I.—Operations in or Related to a Boycotting Country

7. Boycott of Israel.—Question 7 concerns operations in or related to countries on the Secretary's list of countries associated in the boycott of Israel. 9. Boycotts of Countries Other Than Israel.—If the answer to question 9 is "Yes," use the same procedure outlined in the instructions for question 7 for any international boycott other than the boycott of Israel.

10. If you receive a substantial number of similar requests, you may attach a copy of one of these requests and attach a statement stating the number and nature of all other requests received.

11. If you enter into a substantial number of boycott agreements in which the boycott clauses are similar, you may attach a sample boycott clause and attach a statement stating the number and general nature of all other boycott clauses and agreements entered into.
