Introduction—Begin Here

What is the EIC?
The earned income credit (EIC) is a tax credit for certain people who work and have earned income under $32,121. A tax credit usually means more money in your pocket. It reduces the amount of tax you owe. The EIC may also give you a refund.

Can I Claim the EIC?
To claim the EIC, you must meet certain rules. These rules are summarized in Table 1.

Do I Need This Publication?
Although everyone can use this publication to figure their EIC, most people can choose to follow the steps in their tax form instructions instead. Some of the worksheets in the tax form instructions are shorter and easier than the ones found in this publication. The worksheets in this publication cover more situations.

Certain people must use this publication, instead of their form instructions, to see if they meet the rules to take the EIC and to figure the amount of the credit. You are one of those people if you were sent here from Step 2 or Step 3 of the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A.
What If I Was Sent Here From the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A?

If you were sent here from the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, you have met at least the first four rules to claim the credit. You now have to go to either Rule 5 or Rule 6. Use Table 2, below, to see which rule to begin with.

1 You do not need to read the rest of this table.
2 If the only distribution you received was from a Coverdell ESA, write “ESA” and the amount of the distribution that is nontaxable directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A). If you were not sent to this publication for any other reason, you do not need to read the rest of this publication. You can return to Step 3, question 5, on page 41 (Form 1040) or Step 3, question 2, on page 39 (Form 1040A).

How Do I Figure the Amount Of EIC?

If you can claim the EIC, you can either have the IRS figure the amount of your credit, or you can figure it yourself. To figure it yourself, you can complete EIC Worksheet A or B in chapter 4. Or, unless you must use this publication, you can complete a worksheet in the instructions for the form you file.

How Can I Quickly Locate Specific Information?

You can use the index to look up specific information. In most cases, index entries will point you to headings, tables, worksheets, or to text in bold face.
How Can I Get EIC In My Paycheck In the Year 2002?

You may prefer to get some of next year’s EIC throughout the year, rather than wait and get EIC after you file your tax return. Chapter 6 explains advance payment of EIC and tells how, if you have a qualifying child, you may be able to get some of the EIC in your paycheck.

Important Change for 2001
Kidnapped child. You may be able to claim the EIC for persons with a qualifying child even though your child has been kidnapped. See Kidnapped child in chapter 2.

Important Changes for 2002
New definition of earned income. For tax years after 2001, earned income will no longer include employee compensation that is nontaxable. This will change Rule 6 and Rule 14.

Elimination of modified adjusted gross income (AGI). For tax years after 2001, you will no longer need to figure modified AGI. Your EIC will be figured using your AGI, not modified AGI. This will change Rule 15.

New rules for persons with same qualifying child. For tax years after 2001, new rules will be used to determine which person can claim the EIC on the basis of a qualifying child when two or more persons have the same qualifying child. This will change Rule 8. For details, see Publication 553, Highlights of 2001 Tax Changes.

New definition of eligible foster child. For tax years after 2001, the definition of an eligible foster child in Rule 7 will change. The child will have to live with you only for more than half of the year, instead of the whole year.

Reduction of EIC by alternative minimum tax eliminated. For tax years after 2001, your EIC will no longer be reduced by the amount of alternative minimum tax shown on your return.

Important Reminders
Earned income credit has no effect on certain welfare benefits. Any refund you receive because of the EIC and any advance EIC payments you receive will not be considered income when determining whether you are eligible for the following benefit programs, or how much you can receive from these programs. However, if the amounts you receive are not spent within a certain period of time, they may count as an asset (or resource) and affect your eligibility.

• Temporary assistance for needy families (TANF).
• Medicaid and supplemental security income (SSI).
• Food stamps.
• Low-income housing.

Disallowed EIC. If you claim the EIC and it is later disallowed, you may have to complete an additional form if you want to claim the credit in a later year. See chapter 5 for more information.

Reporting advance payments of EIC received in 2001. If you received advance payments of EIC in 2001, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A to report the payments. Your Form W–2, box 9, (as shown in Figure 1, on the next page) will show the

Chapter 1. Rules for Everyone

This chapter discusses Rules 1 through 6. You must meet all six rules to qualify for the earned income credit. If you do not meet all six rules, you cannot get the credit and you do not need to read the rest of the publication.

Rule 1. Social Security Number (SSN)

Validity of SSN. To claim the EIC, you (and your spouse, if filing a joint return) must have a valid SSN issued by the Social Security Administration (SSA). Any qualifying child listed on Schedule EIC must also have a valid SSN. (See Rule 7 if you have a qualifying child.)

If your social security card (or your spouse’s if filing a joint return) says “Not valid for employment,” and your SSN was issued so that you (or your spouse) could get a federally funded benefit, you cannot get the EIC. An example of a federally funded benefit is Medicaid. If you have a card with the legend “Not valid for employment,” and your immigration status has changed so that you are now a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, ask the SSA for a new social security card without the legend.

U.S. Citizen. If you were a U.S. citizen when you received your SSN, you have a valid SSN.

SSN Missing or Incorrect. If an SSN for you or your spouse is missing from your tax return or is incorrect, you may not get the EIC.

Other Taxpayer Identification Number. You cannot get the EIC if, instead of an SSN, you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) have an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). ITINs are issued by the Internal Revenue Service to noncitizens who cannot get an SSN.

No SSN. If you do not have a valid SSN, put “No” directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040), line 39a (Form 1040A), or print “No” on line 9b (Form 1040EZ). You cannot claim the EIC.

Getting an SSN. If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) do not have an SSN, you can apply for one by filing Form SS–5 with the Social Security Administration.

Filing Deadline Approaching and Still No SSN. If the filing deadline is approaching and you still do not have an SSN, you have two choices.

1) Request an automatic 4-month extension of time to file your return. You can get this extension by filing Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. You can file a paper Form 4868 or you can file it electronically. Getting an extension does not give you extra time to pay any tax owed. You should pay any amount you expect to owe to avoid interest or penalty charges. For more information, see the instructions for Form 4868.

2) File the return on time without claiming the EIC. After receiving the SSN, file an amended return, Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, claiming the EIC. Attach a filled-in Schedule EIC, Earned Income Credit, if you have a qualifying child.
Rule 2. Your Filing Status Cannot Be “Married Filing Separately”

If you are married, you usually must file a joint return to claim the EIC. Your filing status cannot be “Married filing separately.”

Spouse did not live with you. If you are married and your spouse did not live in your home at any time during the last 6 months of the year, you may be able to file as head of household, instead of married filing separately. In that case, you may be able to claim the EIC. For detailed information about filing as head of household, see Publication 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information.

Rule 3. You Must Be a U.S. Citizen or Resident Alien All Year

You cannot claim the earned income credit if you are a nonresident alien for any part of the year, unless:

1) You are married to a U.S. citizen or a resident alien, and
2) You choose to be treated as a resident for all of 2001 by filing a joint return. If you need more information on making this choice, get Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

Note. If you make the choice in (2) above, you and your spouse are taxed on your worldwide income. You cannot claim any tax treaty benefits as a resident of a foreign country during a tax year in which the choice is in effect.

Rule 4. You Cannot File Form 2555 or Form 2555–EZ

You cannot claim the earned income credit if you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, or Form 2555–EZ, Foreign Earned Income Exclusion. You file these forms to exclude income earned in foreign countries from your gross income, or to deduct or exclude a foreign housing amount. U.S. possessions are not foreign countries. See Publication 54, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens and Resident Aliens Abroad, for more detailed information.

Rule 5. Your Investment Income Must Be $2,450 or Less

You cannot claim the earned income credit unless your investment income is $2,450 or less. If your investment income is more than $2,450, you cannot claim the credit.

Form 1040EZ. If you file Form 1040EZ, your investment income is the total of the amount on line 2 and the amount of any tax-exempt interest you wrote to the right of the words “Form 1040EZ” on line 2.

Form 1040A. If you file Form 1040A, your investment income is the total of the amounts on lines 8a (taxable interest), 8b (tax-exempt interest), 9 (ordinary dividends), and 10 (capital gain distributions) on that form.
Form 1040. If you file Form 1040, use Worksheet 1, below, to figure your investment income.

This is your Investment Income.

Instructions for line 4. To figure the amount to enter on line 4, start with the amount on line 6 of Form 8814. Multiply that amount by a percentage that is equal to any Alaska Permanent Fund dividends divided by the total amount of interest and dividend income on lines 1a and 2 of Form 8814. Subtract the result from the amount on line 6 of Form 8814.

Example. Your 10-year-old child has taxable interest income of $500 and an Alaska Permanent Fund dividend of $2,000. You choose to report this income on your return. You enter $500 on line 1a of Form 8814, $2,000 on line 2, and $2,500 on line 4. You enter $3,000 on line 6 of Form 8814 and line 21 of Form 1040. You figure the amount to enter on line 4 of this worksheet as follows:

$1,000 – ($1,000 × ($2,000 + $2,500)) = $200

Instructions for lines 11 and 12. In figuring the amount to enter on lines 11 and 12, do not take into account any royalty income (or loss) included on line 26 of Schedule E or any amount included in your taxable earned income. To find out if the income on line 26 or line 39 of Schedule E is from a passive activity, see the Schedule E instructions. If any of the rental real estate income (or loss) included on Schedule E, line 26, is not from a passive activity, print “NPA” and the amount of that income (or loss) on the dotted line next to line 26.
Rule 6 You Must Have Earned Income

This credit is called the “earned income credit” because, to qualify, you must work and have earned income. If you are married and file a joint return, you meet this rule if at least one spouse works and has earned income. Earned income includes all the income you get from working — even if it is not taxable. You will figure your earned income in chapter 4 by adding your taxable and nontaxable earned income. Worksheet 2 on page 21 will help you figure these amounts.

Taxable Earned Income

Taxable earned income includes:
1) Wages, salaries, and tips,
2) Net earnings from self-employment, and
3) Gross income received as a statutory employee.

Wages, salaries, and tips. Wages, salaries, and tips you receive for working are reported to you on Form W-2, box 1. You should report these on line 1 (Form 1040EZ) or line 7 (Forms 1040A and 1040).

Net earnings from self-employment. You may have net earnings from self-employment if:
• You own your business, or
• You are a minister or member of a religious order.

Statutory employee. You are a statutory employee if you receive a Form W-2 on which the “Statutory employee” box (box 13) is checked. You report your income and expenses as a statutory employee on Schedule C or C-EZ (Form 1040).

Nontaxable Earned Income

This includes anything of value (money, goods, or services) that is not taxable that you received from your employer for your work. Common types of nontaxable earned income are listed in the following paragraphs.

Salary deferrals and reductions.
• Salary deferrals. These are contributions from your pay to certain retirement plans (such as a 401(k) plan or the Federal Thrift Savings Plan). These amounts are shown in box 12 of your Form W-2. The “Retirement plan” box (box 13) of your Form W-2 should be checked in most cases.
• Salary reductions, such as under a cafeteria plan, unless they are included in box 1 of your Form W-2. A cafeteria plan is a benefit plan offered by your employer that allows you to choose among two or more benefits consisting of cash and benefits that are not taxed. If you choose a benefit that is not taxed (such as accident and health insurance), the amount of the salary reduction is nontaxable earned income when figuring the EIC.
• Mandatory contributions to a state or local retirement plan.

Meals and lodging.
• Military employee basic housing and subsistence allowances, the value of in-kind housing and subsistence, and combat zone compensation. These amounts are shown in box 12 of your Form W-2 with code “Q.” See Publication 3, Armed Forces’ Tax Guide, for detailed information.
Chapter 1. Rules for Everyone

- Meals and lodging provided for the convenience of your employer.
- Housing allowance or rental value of a parsonage for the clergy.

Excludable employer-provided benefits.
- Dependent care benefits (line 18 of Form 2441 or Schedule 2 (Form 1040A)).
- Adoption benefits (Form 8839, line 26).
- Educational assistance benefits (these may be shown in box 14 of your Form W–2).

Native Americans
If you are a Native American and received amounts for services performed as an employee that are exempt from federal income tax under the Internal Revenue Code or because of a treaty, agreement, Act of Congress, or other federal law, these amounts are nontaxable earned income when figuring the EIC. (However, any tax-exempt income you received for performing services as a self-employed individual is not earned income when figuring the EIC.)

Approved Form 4361 or Form 4029
This section is for persons who have an approved:
- Form 4361, Application for Exemption from Self-Employment Tax for Use by Ministers, Members of Religious Orders and Christian Science Practitioners, or
- Form 4029, Application for Exemption from Social Security and Medicare Taxes and Waiver of Benefits.

Each approved form exempts certain income from social security taxes. Each form is discussed in this section in terms of what is or is not earned income for purposes of the EIC.

Form 4361. Even if you have an approved Form 4361, amounts you received for performing ministerial duties as an employee count as earned income. This includes wages, salaries, tips, and “other employee compensation.” “Other employee compensation” includes nontaxable compensation such as housing allowances or the rental value of a parsonage that you receive for services as an employee. Amounts you received for performing ministerial duties, but not as an employee, do not count as earned income. Examples include fees for performing marriages and honoraria for delivering speeches.

Form 4029. Even if you have an approved Form 4029, all wages, salaries, tips, and other employee compensation count as earned income. However, amounts you received as a self-employed individual do not count as earned income. Also, in figuring earned income, do not subtract losses on Schedule C, C–EZ, or F from wages on line 7 of Form 1040.

Disability Benefits
If you retired on disability, benefits you receive under your employer’s disability retirement plan are considered earned income until you reach minimum retirement age. Minimum retirement age generally is the earliest age at which you could have received a pension or annuity if you were not disabled. You must report your taxable disability payments on line 7 of either Form 1040 or Form 1040A until you reach minimum retirement age.

Beginning on the day after you reach minimum retirement age, payments you receive are taxable as a pension and are not considered earned income. Report taxable pension payments on Form 1040, lines 16a and 16b, or Form 1040A, lines 12a and 12b.
Disability insurance payments. Payments you received from a disability insurance policy that you paid the premiums for are not earned income. It does not matter whether you have reached minimum retirement age. If this policy is through your employer, the amount may be shown in box 12 of your Form W-2 with code “J.”

Income That Is Not Earned Income

Examples of items that are NOT earned income include interest and dividends, pensions and annuities, social security and railroad retirement benefits (including disability benefits), alimony and child support, welfare benefits, workers’ compensation benefits, unemployment compensation (insurance), nontaxable foster care payments, and veterans’ benefits, including VA rehabilitation payments. Do NOT include any of these items in your nontaxable or taxable earned income.

Earnings while an inmate. Amounts received for work performed while an inmate in a penal institution are not earned income when figuring the earned income credit. This includes amounts received through a work release program or while in a halfway house.

Workfare payments. Nontaxable workfare payments are not earned income for the EIC. These are cash payments certain people receive from a state or local agency that administers public assistance programs funded under the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program in return for certain work activities such as (1) work experience activities (including remodeling or repairing public housing) if sufficient private sector employment is not available, or (2) community service program activities.

Community property. If you are married, but qualify to file as head of household under special rules for married taxpayers living apart (see Rule 2), and live in a state that has community property laws, your earned income for the EIC does not include any amount earned by your spouse that is treated as belonging to you under those laws. That amount is not earned income for the EIC, even though you must include it in your gross income on your income tax return. Your earned income includes the entire amount you earned, even if part of it is treated as belonging to your spouse under your state’s community property laws.
Chapter 2. Rules If You Have a Qualifying Child

If you have met all the rules in chapter 1, use this chapter to see if you have a qualifying child. This chapter discusses Rules 7 through 9. You must meet all three of those rules, in addition to the rules in chapters 1 and 4, to qualify for the earned income credit with a qualifying child.

Note. You must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A to claim the EIC with a qualifying child. (You cannot file Form 1040EZ.) You must also complete Schedule EIC and attach it to your return. If you meet all the rules in chapter 1 and this chapter, read chapter 4 to find out what to do next.

No qualifying child. If you do not meet Rule 7, you do not have a qualifying child. Read chapter 3 to find out if you can get the earned income credit without a qualifying child.

Rule 7. Your Child Must Meet the Relationship, Age, and Residency Tests

Your child is a qualifying child if your child meets three tests. The three tests are:

1) Relationship,
2) Age, and
3) Residency.

The three tests are illustrated in Figure 2 on page 12. The paragraphs that follow contain more information about each test.

Relationship Test

Your child must be either your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or eligible foster child. The following definitions clarify the relationship test.

Adopted child. Your adopted child includes a child placed with you for adoption by an authorized placement agency, even if the adoption is not final. An authorized placement agency includes any person authorized by state law to place children for legal adoption.

Grandchild. For the EIC, this means any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child. For example, a grandchild includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

Child not a dependent. Your child does not have to be your dependent to be a qualifying child, unless he or she is married.

Married child. If your child was married at the end of the year, he or she does not meet the relationship test unless either of these two situations applies to you:

1) You can claim the child’s exemption, or
2) The reason you cannot claim the child’s exemption is that you gave that right to your child’s other parent:
   a) When you completed Form 8332 or a similar written statement, or
   b) In a pre-1985 agreement (such as a separation agreement or divorce decree).
A qualifying child is a child who is your...

Son
Daughter
Adopted child

AND

was at the end of 2001...

Under age 19
OR
Under age 24 and a student
OR
Permanently and totally disabled at any time during the year, regardless of age who...

Lived with you in the United States for more than half of 2001 (or, if a foster child, for all of 2001).

Eligible foster child. For the EIC, a person is your eligible foster child if all the following are true.

1) You cared for that child as you would your own child.
2) The child lived with you for the whole year, except for temporary absences (explained on page 14). (A child who was born or died during the year is considered to have lived with you for the whole year if your home was the child’s home for the entire time he or she was alive during the year.)
3) The child is your brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister; a descendant (including a child or adopted child) of your brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister; or a child placed with you by an authorized placement agency.

Example. You and your sister live together. You are 30. Your sister is 15. When your parents died 2 years ago, you took over the care of your sister, but you did not adopt her. She is considered your eligible foster child because she lived with you all year and because you cared for her as you would your own child.
Chapter 2. Rules If You Have a Qualifying Child

Age Test
Your child must be:

1) Under age 19 at the end of 2001,
2) A full-time student under age 24 at the end of 2001, or
3) Permanently and totally disabled at any time during 2001, regardless of age.

The following example and definitions clarify the age test.

Example. Your son turned 19 on December 10. Unless he was disabled or a full-time student, he is not a qualifying child because, at the end of the year, he was not under age 19.

Full-time student. A full-time student is a student who is enrolled for the number of hours or courses the school considers to be full-time attendance.

Student defined. To qualify as a student, your child must be, during some part of each of any 5 calendar months during the calendar year:

1) A full-time student at a school that has a regular teaching staff, course of study, and regular student body, or
2) A student taking a full-time, on-farm training course given by a school described in (1), or a state, county, or local government.

The 5 calendar months need not be consecutive.

School defined. A school can be an elementary school, junior or senior high school, college, university, or technical, trade, or mechanical school. However, on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, and night schools do not count as schools for the EIC. (But see Night school, later.)

Vocational high school students. Students who work in co-op jobs in private industry as a part of a school’s regular course of classroom and practical training are considered full-time students.

Night school. Your child is not a full-time student if he or she attends school only at night. However, full-time attendance at a school may include some attendance at night as part of a full-time course of study.

Permanently and totally disabled. Your child is permanently and totally disabled if both of the following apply.

1) He or she cannot engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental condition.
2) A doctor determines the condition has lasted or can be expected to last continuously for at least a year or can lead to death.

Residency Test
Your child must have lived with you in the United States for more than half of 2001 (all of 2001 if an eligible foster child). The following definitions clarify the residency test.

Home. Your home can be any location where you regularly live within one of the 50 states or the District of Columbia.

Homeless shelter. You do not need a traditional home. For example, if your child lived with you for more than half the year in one or more homeless shelters, your child meets the residency test.
Military personnel stationed outside the United States. U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty are considered to live in the United States during that duty period for purposes of the EIC.

Extended active duty. Extended active duty means you are called or ordered to duty for an indefinite period or for a period of more than 90 days. Once you begin serving your extended active duty, you are still considered to have been on extended active duty even if you do not serve more than 90 days.

Birth or death of child. A child who was born or died in 2001 is treated as meeting the residency test if your home was the child’s home the entire time he or she was alive in 2001.

Temporary absences. Count time that you or your child is away from home on a temporary absence due to a special circumstance as time lived at home. Examples of a special circumstance include:

- Illness,
- School attendance,
- Detention in a juvenile facility,
- Business,
- Vacation, and
- Military service.

Kidnapped child. A kidnapped child is treated as living with you for more than half of the year if the child lived with you for more than half the part of the year before the date of the kidnapping. The child must be presumed by law enforcement authorities to have been kidnapped by someone who is not a member of your family or the child’s family. This treatment applies for all years that the child remains kidnapped. However, the last year this treatment can apply is the earlier of:

1) The year the child is determined to be dead, or
2) The year the child would have reached age 18.

If your qualifying child has been kidnapped and meets these requirements, enter “KC,” instead of a number, on line 6 of Schedule EIC.

Social security number. Your qualifying child must have a valid social security number (SSN), unless the child was born and died in 2001. You cannot claim the EIC on the basis of a qualifying child if:

1) Your qualifying child’s SSN is missing from your tax return or is incorrect,
2) Your qualifying child’s social security card says “Not valid for employment” and was issued for use in getting a federally funded benefit, or
3) Instead of an SSN, your qualifying child has:
   a) An individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), which is issued to a noncitizen who cannot get an SSN, or
   b) An adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), which is issued to adopting parents who cannot get an SSN for the child being adopted until the adoption is final.

If you have two qualifying children and only one has a valid SSN, you can claim the EIC only on the basis of that child. For more information about SSNs, see Rule 1.
Chapter 2. Rules If You Have a Qualifying Child

Rule 8
Qualifying Child of More Than One Person

Sometimes a child meets the rules to be a qualifying child of more than one person. However, only one person can claim the EIC using that child. The paragraphs that follow will help you decide who can claim the EIC when more than one person has the same qualifying child.

Which person can claim the EIC. If you and someone else have the same qualifying child, the person with the higher modified adjusted gross income (AGI) is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC using that child. The person with the lower modified AGI cannot use that child to claim the EIC. This is true even if the person with the higher modified AGI does not claim the EIC or meet all of the rules to claim the EIC. If the other person is your spouse and you file a joint return, this rule does not apply. If three or more persons have the same qualifying child, the person with the highest modified AGI is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC using that child.

Note. For most people modified AGI is the same as AGI (line 34, Form 1040; line 20, Form 1040A; or line 4, Form 1040EZ). Modified AGI is explained in detail in chapter 4. If your qualifying child meets the tests to be a qualifying child of any other person for 2001 and you have the higher modified AGI, you meet this rule. If you do not have the higher modified AGI, STOP. You cannot claim the EIC either with or without a qualifying child. Put "No" beside line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A).

Examples. The following examples may help you in determining whether you can claim the EIC when you and someone else have the same qualifying child.

Example 1. You and your son lived with your mother all year. You are 25 years old. Your only income was $9,300 from a part-time job. Your mother’s only income was $15,000 from her job. Your son is a qualifying child of both you and your mother because he meets the relationship, age, and residency tests for both you and your mother. However, because you both have the same qualifying child, only one of you can claim the EIC. Because your mother’s modified AGI ($15,000) is more than your modified AGI ($9,300), only your mother may be able to claim the EIC. You cannot claim the EIC for persons either with or without a qualifying child.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, but your mother had investment income of $3,000. Your mother cannot claim the EIC because her investment income is more than $2,450. (See Rule 5.) Even though your mother cannot claim the EIC, you cannot claim it either because your mother’s modified AGI is more than yours.

Example 3. You and your sister shared a household for the entire year. You have three young children who lived in the household. Your sister does not have any children. However, she cares for your children as if they were her own. You earned $15,000 and she earned $20,000. Neither of you had any other income.

The children meet the age and residency tests for both you and your sister. They meet the relationship test for you because they are your children. They also meet the relationship test for your sister because they lived with her the whole year, she cared for them as if they were her own, and they are her sister’s children. Therefore, they qualify as her eligible foster children. Your children are qualifying children of both you and your sister. However, because your sister’s modified AGI is higher than yours, she is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC.
You and your sister cannot split the three qualifying children between you. You cannot claim the EIC even though your sister enters the names of only two of the children on her Schedule EIC. (Schedule EIC has spaces for the names of only two qualifying children because the EIC is the same amount for two or more qualifying children.)

Example 4. The facts are the same as in Example 3, except that your oldest child is 20 years old and a full-time college student. Your sister does not care for this child as if the child were her own. Only the two younger children are qualifying children of both you and your sister. Your sister is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC using these two children because her modified AGI is higher than yours. Your oldest child is a qualifying child for you, but not for your sister. Only you may be able to claim the EIC using this child.

Example 5. You, your spouse, and your 10-year-old son lived together until July 15, 2001, when your spouse moved out of the household. In November 2001, you and your spouse were divorced. Your modified AGI was $18,000. Your former spouse’s modified AGI was $13,000. Your son is a qualifying child of both you and your former spouse because your son lived with each of you for more than half the year and because he met the relationship and age tests for both of you. However, because your former spouse’s modified AGI ($18,000) was more than your modified AGI ($13,000), your former spouse is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC for 2001. You cannot claim the EIC for persons either with or without a qualifying child.

Example 6. You and your sister lived together all year. You have a 22-year-old son who lives with you, but is currently away from home attending college full time. Your sister has a 4-year-old daughter who lives with you and your sister. You care for your niece as you would your own child. Your earned income and modified AGI were $12,000. Your sister’s earned income and modified AGI were $10,000.

Both children meet the age and residency tests for both you and your sister. Your son meets the age test because he is under 24 and a full-time student. He meets the residency test because he is only temporarily away from home while attending college. Your niece meets the relationship test for both you and your sister. She meets the test for you as your eligible foster child because she is your sister’s child, she lived with you all year, and you cared for her as your own child. Your son meets the relationship test for you but not for your sister because she does not care for him as her own child.

Your son is a qualifying child for you but not for your sister. Your niece is a qualifying child for both you and your sister. Because your modified AGI was higher than your sister’s, only you can claim the EIC using your niece. You cannot claim the EIC for persons either with or without a qualifying child.

If your sister’s modified AGI were higher than yours, she could claim the EIC using your niece, and you could claim the credit using your son. This is so even though you and your sister have the same address and share the same household.

Example 7. You, your 2-year-old son, and your son’s father lived together all year. You and your son’s father are not married. Your modified AGI was $18,000. Your son’s father’s modified AGI was $20,000.

Your son is a qualifying child of both you and his father because he meets the relationship, age, and residency tests for both you and his father. Because the father’s modified AGI was more than yours, only he may be able to claim the EIC. You cannot claim the EIC for persons either with or without a qualifying child.
Chapter 2. Rules If You Have a Qualifying Child

Rule 9. Qualifying Child of Another Person

Rule 9. You Cannot Be a Qualifying Child of Another Person

You are a qualifying child of another person (your parent, guardian, foster parent, etc.) if all of the following statements are true.

1) You are that person’s son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or eligible foster child.

2) At the end of the year you were under age 19, or under age 24 and a full-time student, or any age if you were permanently and totally disabled at any time during the year.

3) You lived with that person in the United States for more than half of the year (all year if you were an eligible foster child).

For more details about the tests to be a qualifying child, see Rule 7.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) are a qualifying child of another person, you cannot claim the EIC. This is true even if the person for whom you are a qualifying child does not claim the EIC or meet all of the rules to claim the EIC. Put "No" beside line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A).

Example. You and your daughter lived with your mother all year. You are 22 years old and attended a trade school full time. You had a part-time job and earned $5,700. You had no other income. Because you meet the relationship, age, and residency tests, you are a qualifying child of your mother. She can claim the EIC if she meets all the other requirements. Because you are your mother’s qualifying child, you cannot claim the EIC. This is so even if your mother cannot or does not claim the EIC.
Chapter 3. Rules If You Do Not Have a Qualifying Child

Rule 10 You Must Be at Least Age 25 but Under Age 65

You must be at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 2001. If you are married filing a joint return, either you or your spouse must be at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 2001. It does not matter which spouse meets the age test, as long as one of the spouses does.

If neither you nor your spouse meets the age test, you cannot claim the EIC. Put “No” directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A), or on line 9b (Form 1040EZ).

Examples:

Example 1. You are age 28 and unmarried. You meet the age test.

Example 2. You are married and filing a joint return. You are age 23 and your spouse is age 27. You meet the age test because your spouse is at least age 25 but under age 65.

Rule 11 You Cannot Be the Dependent of Another Person

If you are not filing a joint return, you meet this rule if:

- You checked box 6a on Form 1040 or 1040A, or
- You checked the “No” box on line 5 of Form 1040EZ.

If you are filing a joint return, you meet this rule if:

- You checked both box 6a and box 6b on Form 1040 or 1040A, or
- You and your spouse checked the “No” box on line 5 of Form 1040EZ.

If you are not sure whether someone else can claim you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) as a dependent, get Publication 501 and read the rules for claiming a dependent. If someone else can claim you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) as a dependent on his or her return, but does not, you still cannot claim the credit.

Examples:

Example 1. In 2001, you were age 25, single, and living at home with your parents. You worked and were not a student. You earned $7,500. Your parents cannot claim you as a dependent. When you file your return, you claim an exemption for yourself by checking the “No” box on line 5 of your Form 1040EZ. You meet this rule.
Chapter 3. Rules If You Do Not Have a Qualifying Child

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you earned $2,000. Your parents can claim you as a dependent but decide not to. You do not meet this rule. You cannot claim the credit because your parents could have claimed you as a dependent.

Rule 12. Qualifying Child of Another Person

You are a qualifying child of another person (your parent, guardian, foster parent, etc.) if all of the following statements are true.

1) You are that person’s son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or eligible foster child.
2) At the end of the year you were under age 19, or under age 24 and a full-time student, or any age if you were permanently and totally disabled at any time during the year.
3) You lived with that person in the United States for more than half of the year (all year if you were an eligible foster child).

For more details about the tests to be a qualifying child, see Rule 7.

Example. You lived with your mother all year. You are age 26 and permanently and totally disabled. Your only income was from a community center where you went twice a week to answer telephones. You earned $1,500 for the year. Because you meet the relationship, age, and residency tests, you are a qualifying child of your mother. She can claim the EIC if she meets all the other requirements. Because you are a qualifying child of your mother, you cannot claim the EIC. This is so even if your mother cannot or does not claim the EIC.

Rule 13. Main Home

Your home (and your spouse’s if filing a joint return) must have been in the United States for more than half the year.

If it was not, put “No” directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A), or on line 9b (Form 1040EZ).

Home. Your home can be any location where you regularly live within one of the 50 states or the District of Columbia.

Homeless shelter. You do not need a traditional home. If you lived in one or more homeless shelters in the United States for more than half the year, you meet this rule.

Military personnel stationed outside the United States. U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty (defined on page 14) are considered to live in the United States during that duty period for purposes of the EIC.
Chapter 4. Figuring and Claiming the EIC

You must meet two more rules to be eligible to claim the EIC.

You must figure two amounts to see if you meet the rules in this chapter. You also need to know these amounts to figure the amount of your EIC.

1) Total earned income.
2) Modified adjusted gross income (AGI).

You can use the worksheets on the next few pages to figure these amounts.

Rule 14. Earned Income Limits

Your Total Earned Income Must Be Less Than:

- $32,121 if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $28,281 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $10,710 if you do not have a qualifying child.

Earned income is explained in Rule 6 in chapter 1 and some examples are shown in Table 3, below. You figure your total earned income by adding together your taxable earned income and your nontaxable earned income. You can use Worksheet 2 shown on the next page.

However, if you are self-employed, a statutory employee, or a church employee who files Schedule SE (Form 1040), you will not know your total earned income until you fill out Part 4 of EIC Worksheet B on page 30.

Church employee. In this publication, this term means an employee (other than a minister or member of a religious order) of a church or qualified church-controlled organization that is exempt from employer social security and Medicare taxes.

Worksheet 2: Earned Income

Note. Do not include on this worksheet any net earnings from self-employment or any income you received as a statutory employee. Instead, enter those amounts on EIC Worksheet B (page 30).

Taxable Earned Income

1. Enter the amount from line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ).
2. If you received a taxable scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported to you on a Form W–2 but was included

(Form 1040EZ), enter that amount.
4. Clergy. If you are a member of the clergy who files Schedule SE and the amount on line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that was also reported on line 7 (Form 1040),
enter that amount.
5. Church employees. If you received wages as a church employee (as defined on page 20), enter any amount you included on both line 5a of Schedule SE and line 7 (Form 1040).

deferred compensation plan or a section 457 plan and it was included in the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A)
or line 1 (Form 1040EZ), enter the amount. (This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W–2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount of the pension or annuity.)
7. Inmates. If you received any amount for work done while an inmate in a penal institution and that amount is included in the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1
(Form 1040EZ), enter that amount.
8. Clergy. If you are a member of the clergy who files Schedule SE and the amount on line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that was also reported on line 7 (Form 1040),
enter that amount.
9. Church employees. If you received wages as a church employee (as defined on page 20), enter any amount you included on both line 5a of Schedule SE and line 7 (Form 1040).
10. If you received a pension or annuity from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a section 457 plan and it was included in the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A)
or line 1 (Form 1040EZ), enter the amount. (This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W–2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount of the pension or annuity.)
11. Inmates. If you received any amount for work done while an inmate in a penal institution and that amount is included in the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1
(Form 1040EZ), enter that amount.
12. Clergy. If you are a member of the clergy who files Schedule SE and the amount on line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that was also reported on line 7 (Form 1040),
enter that amount.
13. Add the amounts on lines 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of this worksheet.
14. Subtract line 7 of this worksheet from line 1. This is your taxable earned income.

Nontaxable Earned Income

9. Enter the amount of any salary deferrals and reductions.
10. Enter the value of any meals and lodging that were nontaxable because they were provided for the convenience of your employer. (Do not include any amount included on line
2 of Schedule SE.)
11. Enter the total of any other nontaxable amounts you received from your employer for work you performed. (Do not include disability insurance payments for which you paid the premiums or any item listed under Income That Is Not Earned Income on page 10. If you are a member of the clergy, do not include any housing allowance or the rental value of a parsonage unless it does not have to be included on line 2 of Schedule SE.)
12. Add the amounts on lines 9, 10, and 11 of this worksheet.
13. This is your nontaxable earned income. Enter this amount on the correct line for your tax return. (This is line 61b (Form 1040), line 39b (Form 1040A), or line 9b (Form 1040EZ).)
14. Add the amounts on lines 2 and 12 of this worksheet. This is your total erased income. (If you fill out EIC Worksheet A, enter this amount on line
1 of that worksheet.)
The type and rule above prints on all proofs including departmental reproduction proofs. MUST be removed before printing.

Publication 596  Earned Income Credit (EIC)

Your total earned income must be less than:

- $32,121 if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $28,281 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $10,710 if you do not have a qualifying child.

If your total earned income is too great, you cannot claim the EIC. Put “No” directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A), or on line 9b (Form 1040EZ). You do not need to read the rest of this publication. You can go back and finish the rest of your tax return.

Rule 15. Modified AGI Limits

Modified Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)

Modified AGI for most people is the same as AGI. AGI is the amount on line 34 (Form 1040), line 20 (Form 1040A), or line 4 (Form 1040EZ).

To find your modified AGI, you must add certain amounts to your AGI if you:

- Claim a loss on Schedule C, C–EZ, D, E, or F,
- Claim a loss from the rental of personal property not used in a trade or business,
- Received any tax-exempt interest, or
- Received certain pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distributions that were partly nontaxable.

Community property. If you are married, but qualify to file as head of household under special rules for married taxpayers living apart (see Rule 2), and live in a state that has community property laws, your adjusted gross income (AGI) for the EIC includes that portion of both your and your spouse’s wages that you are required to include in gross income. This is different from the community property rules that apply under Rule 6.

Form 1040EZ. If you file Form 1040EZ, your modified AGI is the amount on line 4 of that form plus the amount of any tax-exempt interest you wrote in the space to the right of the words “Form 1040EZ” on line 2.

Form 1040A. If you file Form 1040A, your AGI is the amount on line 20 of that form. To find your modified AGI, add to your AGI any amount on line 9b of Form 1040A. Also, add the nontaxable part of any pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distribution, except any amount that is nontaxable because it was a trustee-to-trustee transfer or a rollover distribution. This is any part of the distribution that you did not report on lines 11b or 12b of Form 1040A (except any part that was nontaxable because you rolled it over into another account within 60 days or transferred it from one trustee to another). See Publication 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), for more information about IRAs, and Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income, for more information about pensions and annuities. (Do not enter any amount that was from a Coverdell ESA. See Special instructions for clergy, prison inmates, deferred compensation plans, and Coverdell ESAs, later.)
Chapter 4. Figuring and Claiming the EIC

Form 1040. If you file Form 1040, your AGI is the amount on line 34 of that form. To find your modified AGI, you must add certain amounts to your AGI, including all or part of certain losses (such as 75% of certain business losses) you are claiming on your return. Use Worksheet 3, next, to figure your modified AGI.

Worksheet 3: Modified AGI If You Are Filing Form 1040

Enter losses as positive amounts (except for lines 7, 8, and 9). For example, if your AGI (Form 1040, line 34) is $10,000 and you have a $1,000 capital loss from the sale of stock (Form 1040, line 13), you will enter $10,000 on line 1 of this worksheet and $1,000 on line 3. If you do not have to enter any other amounts, your modified AGI is $11,000 ($10,000 + $1,000).

1. Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 34.
2. Enter any amount from Form 1040, line 8b, plus any amount on Form 8814, line 1b.
3. Enter the amount of any loss claimed on Form 1040, line 13. (If the amount on Form 1040, line 13, is a gain, enter zero.)
4. Enter the nontaxable part of a pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distribution (any part of the distribution that you did not report on lines 15b or 16b of Form 1040), except any amount that is nontaxable because it was a trustee-to-trustee transfer or a rollover distribution. (Do not enter any amount that was from a Coverdell ESA. See Special instructions for clergy, prison inmates, deferred compensation plans, and Coverdell ESAs, later.)
5. Enter the amount of any loss claimed on Form 1040, line 12. (If the amount on Form 1040, line 12, is a gain, enter zero.) (See instructions below for line 5.)
6. Enter the amount of any loss claimed on Form 1040, line 18. (If the amount on Form 1040, line 18, is a gain, enter zero.)
7. Enter the amount of any rental real estate income (or loss) included on Schedule E, line 26. (See instructions below for lines 7, 8, and 9.)
8. Enter the amount from Schedule E, line 31. (See instructions below for lines 7, 8, and 9.)
9. Enter the amount from Schedule E, line 39. (See instructions below for lines 7, 8, and 9.)
10. Combine the amounts on lines 7, 8, and 9. If the result is a loss, enter it here. If the result is a gain, enter zero. (See instructions below for line 10.)
11. Add the amounts on lines 5, 6, and 10 of this worksheet. Enter the result.
12. Multiply the amount on line 11 of this worksheet by 75% (0.75). Enter the result.
13. Enter the amount of any loss claimed on Schedule E, line 36.
14. Enter any income from the rental of personal property shown on Form 1040, line 21, plus any royalty income from Schedule E, line 4.
15. Enter any expenses from the rental of personal property deducted on Form 1040, line 32, plus any expenses from Schedule E, line 21, related to royalty income.
16. Subtract the amount on line 15 of this worksheet from the amount on line 14. If the result is a loss, enter it here. If the result is a gain, enter zero.
17. Add the amounts on lines 1, 2, 3, 4, 12, 13, and 16 of this worksheet. Enter the total. This is your Modified AGI.
Your modified AGI must be less than:

- $32,121 if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $28,281 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $10,710 if you do not have a qualifying child.

If your modified AGI is too great, you cannot claim the EIC. You do not need to read the rest of this publication. You can go back and finish the rest of your tax return.
IRS Will Figure the EIC for You
The IRS will figure your EIC for you if you follow the instructions in Figure 3 below. If you want to figure the credit yourself, use EIC Worksheet A or B, whichever applies.

If you have a qualifying child, complete and attach Schedule EIC (discussed in detail on page 27).

Tip:
If you want the IRS to figure your income tax, see Publication 967, The IRS Will Figure Your Tax.

1. Print “EIC” directly to the right of the EIC line on your tax return. (This is line 61a (Form 1040), line 39a (Form 1040A), and on line 9b (Form 1040EZ).) Then, if you have any of the situations listed later under Special instructions for clergy, household employees, prison inmates, deferred compensation plans, and Coverdell ESAs, follow those instructions.

2. If you have any earned income that is not taxed, you should have entered that amount on Worksheet 2 on page 21. Also, enter the amount of that income on the correct line for your tax return. (This is line 61b (Form 1040), line 39b (Form 1040A), or line 9b (Form 1040EZ).)

3. Complete all other parts of your return that apply to you (including line 56 (Form 1040) or line 35 (Form 1040A) to report advance payments of the EIC).

4. Do not fill in lines that relate to your total payments, overpayment, refund, or amount you owe (lines 66, 67, 68, and 70 (Form 1040), lines 41, 42, 43, and 45 (Form 1040A), or lines 10, 12, and 13 (Form 1040EZ)).

Please do not ask the IRS to figure your EIC unless you are eligible for it. To be eligible, you must meet the rules in this chapter as well as the rules in chapter 1 and either chapter 2 or chapter 3, whichever applies to you. If your credit was reduced or disallowed for any year after 1996, the rules in chapter 5 may apply as well.

You cannot report advance payments of EIC on Form 1040EZ. If you received advance payments of EIC during 2001, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Note. If you do not have a qualifying child, STOP here and complete your Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040EZ and mail it to the IRS. If you do have a qualifying child, see Schedule EIC, later.
Special instructions for clergy, prison inmates, deferred compensation plans, and Coverdell ESAs. Use the following special instructions if one of the following situations applies to you.

Minister or member of a religious order. If you are filing Schedule SE and line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that is also included on line 7 (Form 1040), print “Clergy” directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040). Also show the amount included on both lines (for example, “Clergy $800”). If you received a housing allowance or were provided housing and you were required to include the allowance or the rental value of the parsonage on Schedule SE, line 2, do not include it as nontaxable earned income on line 61b (Form 1040).

Inmates. If you were an inmate in a penal institution and the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes an amount paid to you for work you performed while an inmate, print “PRI” and the amount paid on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words “W–2 form(s)” on line 1 (Form 1040EZ).

Deferred compensation plans. If you received a pension or annuity from a non-qualified deferred compensation plan or a section 457 plan, put “DFC” and the amount subtracted on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040). This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W–2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount of the pension or annuity.

Coverdell ESAs. If you received a Coverdell ESA (Education Savings Account) distribution that was not fully taxable, write “ESA” and the amount of the distribution that was nontaxable directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A).

How To Figure the EIC Yourself

You may be able to use an EIC worksheet in your tax package instead of EIC Worksheet A or B at the end of this chapter.

- If you are filing Form 1040EZ, you can use the worksheet in your tax package.
- If you are filing Form 1040A, you can use the worksheet in your tax package if you answered “No” to the first two questions in Step 3 of the instructions for lines 39a and b.
- If you are filing Form 1040, you can use a worksheet in your tax package if you got to Step 3 of the instructions for lines 61a and 61b and answered “No” to the first six questions in that step.

If you have a qualifying child, complete and attach Schedule EIC (discussed in detail on page 28).

How To Use EIC Worksheets A and B

Use EIC Worksheet A (page 29) or EIC Worksheet B (page 30) to figure the amount of your EIC. This section explains how to use these worksheets and how to report the EIC on your return.

EIC Worksheet A. Use EIC Worksheet A if you are not self-employed, a church employee who files Schedule SE, or a statutory employee filing Schedule C or C–EZ. You will need the amounts you figured in the worksheets earlier in this chapter to complete EIC Worksheet A.

EIC Worksheet B. Use EIC Worksheet B if you are self-employed, a church employee who files Schedule SE, or a statutory employee filing Schedule C or C–EZ. You will need the amounts you figured in the worksheets earlier in this chapter to complete EIC.
Chapter 4. Figuring and Claiming the EIC

Worksheet B. If any of the following situations apply to you, read the paragraph and then complete EIC Worksheet B.

Net earnings from self-employment. If your net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more, be sure to correctly fill out Schedule SE (Form 1040) and pay the proper amount of self-employment tax. If you do not, you may not get all the EIC you are entitled to.

When to use the optional methods of figuring net earnings. Using the optional methods on Schedule SE to figure your net earnings from self-employment may qualify you for the EIC or give you a larger credit. If your net earnings (without using the optional methods) are less than $1,600, see Publication 533, Self-Employment Tax, and the instructions for Schedule SE, for details about the optional methods.

When both spouses have self-employment income. You must complete both Parts 1 and 2 of EIC Worksheet B if all of the following conditions apply to you.
1) You are married filing a joint return.
2) Both you and your spouse have income from self-employment.
3) You or your spouse files a Schedule SE and the other spouse does not file Schedule SE.

Statutory employees. Statutory employees report wages and expenses on Schedule C or C–EZ. They do not file Schedule SE. If you are a statutory employee, enter amounts from Schedule C or C–EZ in Part 3 when you complete EIC Worksheet B.

Special Instructions for Clergy, Prison Inmates, Deferred Compensation Plans, and Coverdell ESAs
Use the following special instructions if one of the following situations applies to you.

Minister or member of a religious order. If you are filing Schedule SE and line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that is also included on line 7 (Form 1040), print “Clergy” directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040). Also show the amount included on both lines (for example, “Clergy $800”). If you received a housing allowance or were provided housing and you were required to include the allowance or the rental value of the parsonage on Schedule SE, line 2, do not include it as nontaxable earned income on line 61b (Form 1040).

Inmates. If you were an inmate in a penal institution and the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes an amount paid to you for work you performed while an inmate, print “PRI” and the amount paid on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words “W–2 form(s)” on line 1 (Form 1040EZ).

Deferred compensation plans. If you received a pension or annuity from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a section 457 plan, put “DFC” and the amount subtracted on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040). This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W–2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount of the pension or annuity.

Coverdell ESAs. If you received a Coverdell ESA (Education Savings Account) distribution that was not fully taxable, write “ESA” and the amount of the distribution that was nontaxable directly to the right of line 61a (Form 1040) or line 39a (Form 1040A).

Schedule EIC
You must complete and attach Schedule EIC to your tax return if you have a qualifying child and are claiming the EIC. Schedule EIC provides IRS with information about your qualifying children, including their names, ages, SSNs, relationship to you, and the amount of time they lived with you during the year. An example of a filled-in Schedule EIC is shown on page 39.

If you are required to complete and attach Schedule EIC but do not, it will take longer to process your return and issue your refund.

Reminder—

☑ Be sure you entered the amount of any nontaxable earned income (Worksheet 2, line 12) on Form 1040, line 61b; Form 1040A, line 39b; or Form 1040EZ, line 9b.

☑ If you have a qualifying child, complete and attach Schedule EIC.

If your EIC was reduced or disallowed for any year after 1996, see chapter 5 to find out if you must file Form 8862 to take the credit for 2001.
Chapter 5. Disallowance of the EIC

If your earned income credit (EIC) for any year after 1996 was denied (disallowed) or reduced by the IRS, you may need to complete an additional form to claim the credit for 2001.

This chapter is for people whose earned income credit (EIC) for any year after 1996 was denied or reduced by the IRS. If this applies to you and you want to claim the credit for 2001, you may need to complete Form 8862, Information To Claim Earned Income Credit After Disallowance, and attach it to your 2001 return. This chapter explains when you need to attach Form 8862.

This chapter also explains the rules for certain people who cannot claim the EIC for a period of years because their EIC was denied or reduced.

Form 8862

If your EIC for any year after 1996 was denied or reduced for any reason other than a mathematical or clerical error, you must attach a completed Form 8862 to your next tax return if you wish to claim the EIC. The date on which your EIC was denied and the date on which you file your 2001 return affect whether you need to attach Form 8862 to your 2001 return or to a later return. The following examples demonstrate whether Form 8862 is required for 2001 or 2002.

Example 1. You claimed the EIC on your 2000 tax return, which you filed in March 2001. The IRS questioned the EIC, you were unable to support your claim, and, in September 2001, you received a statutory notice of deficiency telling you that an adjustment would be assessed unless you filed a petition in the Tax Court within 90 days. You did not act on this notice within 90 days. Therefore, your EIC was denied in December 2001. If you wish to claim the EIC on your 2001 return, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you received the statutory notice of deficiency in February 2002. Because the 90-day period referred to in the statutory notice is not over when you are ready to file your return for 2001, you should not attach Form 8862 to your 2001 return. However, if you wish to claim the EIC for the year 2002, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.

Exception for mathematical or clerical errors. If your EIC was denied or reduced as a result of a mathematical or clerical error, do not attach Form 8862 to your next tax return. For example, if your arithmetic is incorrect, the IRS can correct it. If you do not provide a correct social security number, the IRS can deny the EIC. These kinds of errors are called mathematical or clerical errors.

Omission of Form 8862. If you are required to attach Form 8862 to your 2001 tax return, and you claim the EIC without attaching a completed Form 8862, your claim will be automatically denied. This is considered a mathematical or clerical error. You will not be permitted to claim the EIC without a completed Form 8862.

Additional documentation may be required. You may have to provide the IRS with additional documentation before a refund relating to the EIC you claim is released to you even if you attach a properly completed Form 8862 to your return.
Chapter 5. Disallowance of the EIC

Are You Prohibited From Claiming the EIC for a Period of Years?

If your EIC for any year after 1996 was denied and it was determined that your error was due to reckless or intentional disregard of the EIC rules, then you cannot claim the EIC for the next 2 years. If your error was due to fraud, then you cannot claim the EIC for the next 10 years. The date on which your EIC was denied and the date on which you file your 2001 return affect the years for which you are prohibited from claiming the EIC. The following examples demonstrate which years you are prohibited from claiming the EIC.

Example 3. You claimed the EIC on your 2000 tax return, which you filed in March 2001. In October 2001, the IRS denied your claim and determined that your error was due to reckless or intentional disregard of the EIC rules. You cannot claim the EIC for tax year 2001 or 2002. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2003, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.

Example 4. The facts are the same as in Example 3, except that the IRS did not disallow your 2000 EIC until after you filed your 2001 return. You cannot claim the EIC for tax year 2002 or 2003. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2004, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.

Example 5. You claimed the EIC on your 2000 tax return, which you filed in February 2001. In December 2001, the IRS denied your claim and determined that your error was due to fraud. You cannot claim the EIC for tax years 2001 through 2010. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2011, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.
Chapter 6. Advance Payment of EIC in 2002

You can receive part of your 2002 EIC in your paycheck by completing a form and giving it to your employer.

Do you expect to be eligible for the EIC this year (2002) and to have a qualifying child? If so, you can choose to get payments of the EIC in your paycheck now instead of waiting to get your EIC all at once in 2003 when you file your tax return for the year 2002. These payments are called advance EIC payments. This chapter explains how you may be able to get them this year and how to report them on your tax return.

Example. In March of 2002, John and Tom worked together. Tom told John that he gets How advance payment of $40 added to his paycheck each month because of the earned income credit. John would like to get an extra amount every month too. John needs to find out if he can claim the EIC in 2002. He should answer the questions in Step 1 below and then, if he is eligible for advance EIC payments, go to Step 2.

Note. Chapters 1 through 5 of this publication are about the EIC you claim on your 2001 tax return. This chapter is about the EIC you expect to claim on your 2002 tax return.

Step 1 Find Out If You Are Eligible for Advance Payments of the EIC

Answer the following three questions to see if you are eligible for advance payments of EIC.

Note. When the question says “expect,” you do not have to know that you will be able to answer “Yes” when you file your tax return. You can only make a best guess that you will be able to answer “Yes.”

Question 1.

Do you expect to have a qualifying child? (See the definition of qualifying child beginning on page 11.)

- ☐ Yes. Go to Question 2.
- ☐ No. You cannot get advance payments of EIC.

Question 2.

Do you expect that your earned income and adjusted gross income will each be less than about $29,000?

- ☐ Yes. Go to Question 3.
- ☐ No. You cannot get advance payments of EIC.

Tip:
See the 2002 Form W–5 for the exact amount. Earned income and AGI are explained on pages 8 and 22.
Chapter 6. Advance Payment of EIC in 2002

Tip: If you are a farm worker paid on a daily basis, your employer is not required to pay you advance EIC. Also, you cannot get advance EIC unless your wages are subject to federal income tax, social security tax, or Medicare tax withholding.

Question 3.

Do you expect to be eligible for EIC in 2002 as explained in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4?

☐ Yes. Go to Step 2.

☐ No. You cannot get advance payments of EIC.

Not Sure. Read the rules in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4 and/or the instructions for Form W–5. Then answer “Yes” or “No.”

Note. The rules in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4 are expected to be basically the same for 2002, except that you will be allowed to have more earned income and possibly more investment income. In addition, you will figure your 2002 credit using AGI instead of modified AGI, and your 2002 AGI can be higher than your 2001 modified AGI can be. The correct amounts for 2002 are in the instructions for the 2002 Form W–5. Other changes due to recent legislation are explained in Important Changes for 2002, in the Introduction.

Step 2 Complete Form W–5 and Give It to Your Employer

If you answered “Yes” to all the questions in Step 1, and you wish to get part of your EIC now, you must give your employer a Form W–5 for 2002. After you have read the instructions and completed Form W–5, give the lower part of the form to your employer. Keep the top part for your records. A part of a blank Form W–5 is shown here.

You may get only part of your EIC during the year in advance payments. You will get the rest of the EIC you are entitled to when you file your tax return in 2003 and claim the EIC.
Frequently Asked Questions About Form W–5

1. How do I get Form W–5?  Ask your employer for the form. Or, see How To Get Tax Help on page 49.

2. What should I do if I have more than one employer?  Give a Form W–5 to only one employer.

3. Can I give my employer a Form W–5 if my spouse has given her employer a Form W–5?  Yes.

4. How often do I have to file Form W–5?  The 2002 Form W–5 you give to your employer is valid until December 31, 2002. If you expect to be eligible for EIC in 2003 and you want to receive advance payments, you must give your employer a new Form W–5 in 2003. Do this each year you expect to be eligible for the EIC.

5. What should I do if my situation changes after I give Form W–5 to my employer?  Give your employer a new Form W–5 if any situation shown in the following table applies to you for 2002.

Step 3  How To Report Advance Payments of EIC

If you received advance payments of EIC in 2001, see Important Reminders on page 3 for information on reporting these payments.

If you receive advance payments of EIC in 2002, you must file a 2002 tax return (even if you would not otherwise have to file) to report the payments and claim any additional EIC. Box 9 of your Form W–2 will show the amount you received. See the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A for the line number on which you report advance payments of EIC.

If you receive advance payments of EIC in 2002, and you later find out that you are not eligible for some or all of them, you still must report them on your tax return.

You cannot use Form 1040EZ to report your advance payments. You must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A.
Chapter 7. Detailed Examples

Example 1. Cynthia and Jerry Grey

Cynthia and Jerry Grey have two children, Kirk, age 8, and Susanne, age 6. The children lived with Cynthia and Jerry for all of 2001. Cynthia earned wages of $15,000 and Jerry had wages of $10,000. The Greys received $50 in interest on their savings account. They had no other income in 2001.

Cynthia and Jerry have the 2001 Form 1040A and instructions. They want to see if they qualify for the EIC, so they follow the steps in the instructions for lines 39a and 39b.

Step 1. The amount Cynthia and Jerry entered on Form 1040A, line 20, was $25,050. They both have valid social security numbers (SSNs). They will file a joint return. Neither Cynthia nor Jerry is a nonresident alien. Therefore, the answers they give to the questions in Step 1 allow them to proceed to Step 2.

Step 2. The only investment income the Greys have is their $50 interest income. That amount is not more than $2,450, so they go to Step 3.

Step 3. In Step 3 of the instructions for lines 39a and 39b, the Greys find out that they do not have to use Publication 596. However, they decide to get and use the publication because they heard that it has information they want about advance EIC. When they read Publication 596, they find that they have already met Rules 1 - 5 and can start with Rule 6.

Rule 6. The Greys meet this rule because they have earned income (Cynthia’s and Jerry’s wages). They go to Rule 7 in chapter 2 because they believe they have qualifying children.

Rule 7. Cynthia and Jerry meet this rule because both Kirk and Susanne meet the relationship, residency, and age tests. In addition, both children have valid SSNs.

Rule 8. The Greys meet this rule because Kirk and Susanne are not qualifying children of anyone else.

Rule 9. Cynthia and Jerry meet this rule because they themselves are not qualifying children of anyone else. They meet all the rules so far so they go to chapter 4.

Rule 14. Cynthia and Jerry complete Worksheet 2 (not shown) and figure their total earned income to be $25,000, the amount of their combined wages. They meet this rule.

Rule 15. Cynthia and Jerry’s AGI is $25,050 ($25,000 + $50), the amount on line 20 of their Form 1040A. They have no tax-exempt income or partly nontaxable pensions or annuities, so their modified AGI is also $25,050. They meet Rule 15.

Completing EIC Worksheet A. Cynthia and Jerry want to figure their EIC themselves, so they complete EIC Worksheet A (shown here). They complete EIC Worksheet A, rather than EIC Worksheet B, because they are not self-employed, church employees, or filing Schedule C or C–EZ as statutory employees.

4) They look up $25,050 in the EIC Table and enter the amount of $1,484 on line 5.
5) They enter $1,484 on line 6. This is the smaller of the line 2 amount ($1,494) and the line 5 amount ($1,484).
6) The Greys do not owe alternative minimum tax (line 7) so they enter their EIC of $1,484 on line 8. They also enter that amount on line 39a of their Form 1040A. They will now complete Schedule EIC (shown here) and attach it to their return. They will keep EIC Worksheet A for their records.

Before you begin:
- If you take the EIC even though you are not eligible, you may not be allowed to take the credit for up to 10 years. See back of schedule for details.
- It will take us longer to process your return and issue your refund if you do not fill in all lines that apply for each qualifying child.
- Be sure the child’s name on line 1 and social security number (SSN) on line 2 agree with the child’s social security card. Otherwise, at the time we process your return, we may reduce or disallow your EIC. If the name or SSN on the child’s social security card is not correct, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213.

Qualifying Child Information

- Child 1: Kirk Grey, Son, 12 years old.
- Child 2: Susanne Grey, Daughter, 15 years old.

Notes:
- You may also be able to take the additional child tax credit if your child (a) was under age 17 at the end of 2001, (b) was claimed as your dependent on line 6c of Form 1040A or Form 1040, and (c) is a U.S. citizen or resident alien. Example 2. David and Judy Brown

David and Judy Brown have three children—Karl, age 4, and twins, Karin and Susan, age 2. David worked and earned $17,200. He asked his employer to contribute $1,200 of his pay to a 401(k) plan, so he will pay tax on only $16,000 ($17,200 – $1,200). He received $1,150 in unemployment compensation. David also began a consulting business. After expenses, he had a loss of $1,000. Judy made crafts and sold them at a flea market. She had a profit of $706. In addition, David and Judy received $50 in interest from a savings account.

Judy completes Schedule C–EZ and reports the $706 profit. She also completes Schedule SE and figures self-employment tax of $100. She puts this figure on line 53 (Form 1040) and deducts $50, one-half of her self-employment tax, on line 27 (Form 1040). David completes Schedule C and reports his $1,000 loss. David and Judy combine their Schedules C and C–EZ to report a loss of $294 ($706 – $1,000) on line 12 of their Form 1040. David will not complete Schedule SE because he does not have any net earnings from self-employment.

David and Judy follow the steps in their Form 1040 instructions to claim the EIC. The only investment income they have is the $50 interest from their savings account. They find out in Step 3 of the Form 1040 instructions that, because they are claiming a loss on line 12 of Form 1040, they must use Publication 596 to see if they can take the EIC. When they receive Publication 596, they read Table 2, Where to begin if you were sent here from the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, on page 2 and find that they can start with Rule 6 on page 8. In Rule 7, they determine that all three children are qualifying children.

In chapter 4, the Browns figure their nontaxable earned income to be $1,200 (David’s contribution to a 401(k) plan) and their taxable earned income to be $16,000. On line 1 of Worksheet 3 (shown here), they enter their AGI of $17,206 ($16,000 + $50 + $706 – $1,000 + $1,500 – $50). They complete the worksheet and figure their modified AGI to be $17,427.

Example: David and Judy Brown have three children, a business profit, a business loss, and nontaxable earned income.
Chapter 7. Detailed Examples

Completing EIC Worksheet B. Because the Browns have self-employment income and want to figure their credit themselves, they complete EIC Worksheet B (shown later).

Part 1. David and Judy begin EIC Worksheet B with Part 1 because Judy is self-employed and will file Schedule SE. They enter $706 and $50 from Judy’s Schedule SE on lines 1a and 1d respectively. They figure line 1e to be $656 ($706 – $50).

Part 2. Because David is not filing Schedule SE, the Browns enter David’s $1,000 loss on lines 2b and 2c. They put this amount in parentheses because it is a loss. They skip Part 3 because neither David nor Judy is a statutory employee.

Part 4. The Browns combine lines 1e, 2c, and 3 and enter the result on line 4a. They enter their nontaxable earned income of $1,200 on line 4b and their taxable earned income of $16,000 on line 4c. They figure their total earned income on line 4d to be $16,856. Because that amount is less than $32,121, they qualify for the credit, so they enter their total earned income on line 6.

Part 5. David and Judy look up the amount on line 6 ($16,856) in the EIC Table for Two children. They enter the amount of $3,211 on line 7. They enter their modified AGI amount ($17,427 from Worksheet 3) on line 8 and see that it is different from the amount on line 6. They look up $17,427 in the EIC Table and enter the amount of $3,095 on line 10. They enter $3,095 on line 11. This is the smaller of the line 7 amount ($3,211) and the line 10 amount ($3,095).

Part 6. The Browns do not owe AMT (line 12) so they enter their EIC of $3,095 on line 13. They also enter that amount on line 61a of their Form 1040. They enter “$1,200” on line 61b to show their nontaxable earned income. They will now complete Schedule EIC (not shown), including information for two of their three children, and attach it to their return. They will keep EIC Worksheet B for their records.

Example 3. Sharon Rose

Sharon Rose is age 63 and retired. She received $7,000 in social security benefits during the year and $4,850 from a part-time job. She received pension payments of $6,000. Only $5,000 of those payments are taxable. Sharon had no other income. She lived alone in the United States for the entire year and cannot be claimed as a dependent on anyone else’s return. She does not have any investment income and does not have a qualifying child.

Sharon reads the steps for eligibility in her Form 1040A instructions. In Step 3 she discovers that, because part of her pension is not taxable, she must use Publication 596 to find out if she can get the EIC.

To find her modified AGI, Sharon starts with her AGI of $9,850 ($4,850 + $5,000), the amount on line 20 of her Form 1040A. To that amount, she adds $1,000, the nontaxable part of her pension. The result is her modified AGI, $10,850, which is not less than $10,710 (the limit on modified AGI for people who do not have a qualifying child). She cannot take the EIC. She completes the rest of her Form 1040A and files it with the IRS.

Example:
Sharon Rose does not have a qualifying child, and her modified AGI is too high for her to claim the EIC.
Example:
Steve and Linda Green have two children, Amy, age 8, and Carol, age 10, who lived with them all year.

Steve owns and operates a dairy farm that had a loss of $2,000 in 2001. Steve reports this loss on Schedule F and on Form 1040, line 18. Steve qualifies and chooses to use the optional method to figure net earnings, so he uses Section B of Schedule SE. He enters $1,600 on lines 15 and 4b of Section B of Schedule SE. Steve figures self-employment tax of $244. He deducts one-half of it ($122) on line 27 (Form 1040). Linda had wages of $15,000, which she reports on Form 1040, line 7. She also received advance EIC payments of $1,140, which she reports on Form 1040, line 56. Steve and Linda had a $1,000 loss from the sale of stock and a $5,000 gain from the sale of raised dairy cows they had held for 3 years. They report the $5,000 gain on Form 4797, Sales of Business Property. They do not have any other sales to report on Form 4797, so they enter $5,000 on line 7 of Form 4797 and on line 11, column (f), of Schedule D. (They have no prior year section 1231 losses.) They report their net capital gain of $4,000 from Schedule D on Form 1040, line 13.

The Greens read Publication 596 to see if they can claim the EIC. They use Worksheet 1 (shown here) to figure their investment income, which is zero. They use Worksheet 3 (not shown) to figure their modified AGI. They start with their AGI of $16,878 ($15,000 + $4,000 – $2,000 – $122). When they add 75% of their farm loss to their AGI, they find their modified AGI is $18,378 ($16,878 + $1,500). They find that they are eligible to get the EIC. They use EIC Worksheet B (shown here) to figure their EIC of $2,895. They also complete Schedule EIC (not shown) and attach it to their Form 1040.

Example 4. Steve and Linda Green

Steve and Linda Green have two children, Amy, age 8, and Carol, age 10, who lived with them all year.

Keep for Your Records

Use this worksheet if you were self-employed, or are filing Schedule SE because you had church employee income, or are filing Schedule C or C-EZ as a statutory employee.

If you are married filing a joint return, include your spouse's amounts, if any, with yours to figure the amounts to enter in Parts 5 through 9.

Keep for Your Records

6. Enter your total earned income from Part 4, line 4d, of this worksheet.

7. Look up the amount on line 6 above in the EIC Table in the Appendix to find the credit. Enter the credit here.

8. Enter your modified adjusted gross income. (If you filled out Worksheet 3 on page 23, this is the amount on line 17 of that worksheet.)

9. Are the amounts on lines 8 and 6 the same?
   - Yes. Skip line 10; enter the amount from line 7 on line 11.
   - No. Go to line 10.

10. Is the amount on line 8 less than:
    - $5,950 if you do not have a qualifying child, or
    - $13,100 if you have one or more qualifying children?
       - Yes. Leave line 10 blank; enter the amount from line 7 on line 11.
       - No. Look up the amount on line 8 in the EIC Table in the Appendix to find the credit. Enter the credit here. Look at the amounts on lines 10 and 7. Then, enter the smaller amount on line 11.

11. Your Earned Income Credit

   - This is the amount from Part 5 above.
   - Subtract line 12 from line 11. This is your earned income credit.

TIP: You can tear this worksheet from the booklet before you begin Part 5.
2001 Earned Income Credit (EIC) Table

This is not a tax table.

1. To find your credit, read down the "At least — But less than" column and find the line that includes the amount you were told to look up to for your EIC Worksheet.

2. Then, read across to the column that includes the number of qualifying children you have. Enter the credit from that column on your EIC Worksheet.

Example: If you have one qualifying child and the amount you are looking up from your EIC Worksheet is $4,750, you would enter $1,658.

• TeleTax topics. Call 1–800–829–4477 to listen to pre-recorded messages covering various tax topics.

Evaluating the quality of our telephone services. To ensure that IRS representatives give accurate, courteous, and professional answers, we evaluate the quality of our telephone services in several ways.

• A second IRS representative sometimes monitors live telephone calls. That person only evaluates the IRS assistor and does not keep a record of any taxpayer’s name or tax identification number.

• We sometimes record telephone calls to evaluate IRS assistants objectively. We hold these recordings no longer than one week and use them only to measure the quality of assistance.

• We value our customers’ opinions. Throughout this year, we will be surveying our customers for their opinions on our service.

Walk-in. You can walk in to many post offices, libraries, and IRS offices to pick up certain forms, instructions, and publications. Some IRS offices, libraries, grocery stores, copy centers, city and county governments, credit unions, and office supply stores have an extensive collection of products available to print from a CD-ROM or photocopy from reproducible proofs. Also, some IRS offices and libraries have the Internal Revenue Code, regulations, Internal Revenue Bulletins, and Cumulative Bulletins available for research purposes.

Mail. You can send your order for forms, instructions, and publications to the Distribution Center nearest to you and receive a response within 10 workdays after your request is received. Find the address that applies to your part of the country.
