

Publication 6961-A

Calendar Year Projections of Information and Withholding Documents for the United States and IRS Campuses

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Publication 6961 provides U.S.-level calendar year projections of information and withholding documents. This annual report also includes breakouts by filing methods. Publication 6961-A summarizes some of the significant highlights from Publication 6961.

Top 5 Projections of the Number of Nonpaper Information and Withholding Documents To Be Filed, Calendar Years 2022–2030

[Numbers are in thousands]

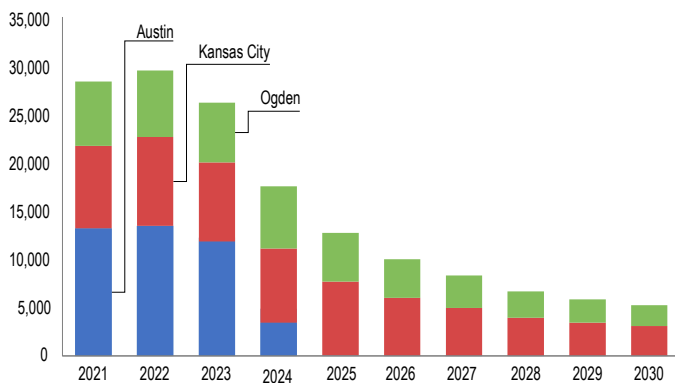

NOTE: Numbers of documents for CY 2021 are actual filings. All numbers are based on Table 4 from the full report.

SOURCE: IRS, Statistics of Income Division, Publication 6961, March 2023.

Campus-Level Projections of Information and Withholding Documents To Be Filed on Paper, Calendar Years 2022–2030

[Numbers are in thousands]

NOTE: Numbers of documents for CY 2021 are actual filings. All numbers are based on Tables 5A-5C from the full report.

SOURCE: IRS, Statistics of Income Division, Publication 6961, March 2023.

Significant Highlights From This Update of Publication 6961

- Of the 41 nonpaper information and withholding documents processed for Calendar Year 2021, the top 5 accounted for 87.5 percent of the total nonpaper documents processed.
- The grand total number of information and withholding documents processed in Calendar Year 2021 was 4.9 billion. After CY 2021, the grand total is projected to grow at an average annual rate of 3.3 percent, reaching 6.5 billion documents by CY 2030.
- The grand total number of paper information and withholding documents processed in Calendar Year 2021 was 28.6 million; it is projected to increase to 29.8 million in CY 2022 and decrease to 5.4 million documents by CY 2030.
- The grand total number of information and withholding documents processed electronically was 4.8 billion in Calendar Year 2021. It is projected to grow at an average annual rate of 3.4 percent, reaching 6.5 billion documents by CY 2030.
- The grand total number of paper filings for the Austin campus in Calendar Year 2021 was 13.3 million documents. The corresponding number for the Kansas City campus was 8.6 million documents. The Ogden campus processed 6.7 million paper documents in CY 2021.

