Important Changes

Child tax credit increased. For 2003, the maximum child tax credit is increased to $1,000 for each qualifying child. But you must reduce your credit by any advance payment you received in 2003.

Advance payment of child tax credit. Advance payments of the increase in the child tax credit were made to some individuals in 2003. If you received an advance payment, you will need to reduce the credit you can claim on your return by the advance payment you already received. For details, see Advance Child Tax Credit Payment on page 3.

Important Reminder

Photographs of missing children. The Internal Revenue Service is a proud partner with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Photographs of missing children selected by the Center may appear in this publication on pages that would otherwise be blank. You can help bring these children home by looking at the photographs and calling 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678) if you recognize a child.

Introduction

The purpose of this publication is:

- 1) To figure the child tax credit you claim on Form 1040, line 49, or Form 1040A, line 33, and
- 2) To figure the amount of taxable earned income you enter on line 4 of Form 8812, Additional Child Tax Credit.

This publication is intended primarily for individuals sent here by the instructions to Forms 1040, 1040A, and 8812. Even if you were not sent here by the instructions to one of the forms, you can still choose to use this publication to figure your credit. However, most individuals can use the simpler worksheet in their tax form instructions.

This publication includes a detailed example of a taxpayer who figures the child tax credit and the additional child tax credit.

If you were sent here from your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions. Go to page 4 of this publication and complete the Child Tax Credit Worksheet.

If you were sent here from your Form 8812 instructions. Go to page 8 of this publication and complete the 1040 Filers – Taxable Earned Income Worksheet.

If you have not read your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions. Read on the next page the explanation of who must use this publication. If you find that you are not required to use this publication to figure your child tax credit, you can use the simpler worksheet in the Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions to figure your credit.

Who must use this publication? If you answer “Yes” to any of the following questions, you must use this publication to figure your child tax credit.

Child Tax Credit

This credit is for people who have a qualifying child as defined on this page. It is in addition to the credit for child and dependent care expenses (on Form 1040, line 45, or Form 1040A, line 29) and the earned income credit (on Form 1040, line 63, or Form 1040A, line 41).

The maximum amount you can claim for the credit is $1,000 for each qualifying child.

Qualifying Child

A qualifying child for purposes of the child tax credit is a child who:

- Is claimed as your dependent on line 6c of Form 1040 or Form 1040A, and
- Was under age 17 at the end of 2003, and
- Is your (a) son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, or a descendant of any of them (for example, your grandchild); (b) brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, or a descendant of any of them (for example, your niece or nephew), whom you cared for as you would your own child; or (c) foster child (any child placed with you by an authorized placement agency whom you cared for as you would your own child), and
- Is a U.S. citizen or resident alien.

Note: The above requirements are not the same as the requirements to be a qualifying child for the earned income credit.

An adopted child is always treated as your own child. An adopted child includes a child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption even if the adoption is not final. An authorized placement agency includes any person or court authorized by state law to place children for legal adoption.

Limits on the Credit

You must reduce your child tax credit if either (1) or (2) applies.

- 1) The amount on line 43 (Form 1040) or line 28 (Form 1040A) is less than the credit. If this amount is zero, you cannot take this credit because there is no tax to reduce. But you may be able to take the additional child tax credit. See Additional Child Tax Credit, later.
- 2) Your modified adjusted gross income (AGI) is above the amount shown below for your filing status.
 - Married filing jointly – $110,000.
 - Single, head of household, or qualifying widow(er) – $75,000.
 - Married filing separately – $55,000.

Modified AGI. For purposes of the child tax credit, your modified AGI is your AGI plus the following amounts that may apply to you.

- Any amount excluded from income because of the exclusion of income from Puerto Rico.
- Any amount on line 43 or line 48 of Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income.

- Any amount on line 18 of Form 2555–EZ, Foreign Earned Income Exclusion.
- Any amount on line 15 of Form 4563, Exclusion of Income for Bona Fide Residents of American Samoa.

If you do not have any of the above, modified AGI is the AGI amount on line 35 (Form 1040) or line 21 (Form 1040A).

Claiming the Credit

To claim the child tax credit, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A. You cannot claim the child tax credit on Form 1040EZ. You must provide the name and identification number (usually a social security number) on your tax return for each qualifying child.

Advance Child Tax Credit Payment

You must reduce your 2003 child tax credit by any advance child tax credit payment you received in 2003. Enter the amount of any advance payment you received (before offset) on line 2 of your Child Tax Credit Worksheet. The amount of your advance payment (before offset) is shown on Notice 1319. This notice was mailed to you in 2003 if you received an advance payment. If you do not have this notice, you can check the amount of your advance payment (before offset) on the IRS website at www.irs.gov or call us at 1–800–829–1040.

If you received an advance payment but do not have a qualifying child for 2003, you do not have to pay back the amount you received. Do not enter the amount of your advance payment on your return.

If you filed a joint return for 2002, but for 2003 you are not filing a joint return (or a joint return with the same spouse), you are considered to have received one-half of the advance payment.

Example 1. You filed a joint return for 2002 and received an advance child tax credit payment (before offset) of $800. You are divorced and filing using head of household status for 2003. You are considered to have received an advance payment (before offset) of $400. When figuring your child tax credit for 2003, enter $400 on line 2 of your Child Tax Credit Worksheet.

Example 2. You filed a joint return for 2002 with your wife, Jane. You and Jane received an advance child tax credit payment (before offset) of $400. In 2003, you and Jane got divorced. After the divorce became final, you married Mary, with whom you are filing a joint return for 2003. Mary filed using head of household status for 2002 and received an advance child tax credit payment (before offset) of $400. When figuring your child tax credit for 2003, you and Mary enter $600 (Mary's $400 advance payment plus your $200 advance payment) on line 2 of your Child Tax Credit Worksheet. You include $600 on line 2 of the worksheet even if you are claiming only Mary's child.

Offset. If you owe past-due federal income tax, child support, spousal support, or certain federal nontax debts, such as student loans, all or part of any refund or advance child tax credit payment may be used (offset) to pay the past-due amount. Offsets for federal taxes are made by the IRS. All other offsets are made by the Treasury Department's Financial Management Services (FMS). You will receive a notice from FMS showing the amount of the offset and the agency receiving it.

On line 2 of your Child Tax Credit Worksheet, enter the amount of your advance child tax credit payment before offset.

Taxable Earned Income

You will need to figure your taxable earned income using one of the worksheets in this publication if you are completing the Line 13 Worksheet (page 6) or Form 8812. Form 1040 filers, use the worksheet on page 8 to figure your taxable earned income. Form 1040A filers, use the worksheet on page 9.

Additional Child Tax Credit

This credit is for certain individuals who get less than the full amount of the child tax credit. The additional child tax credit may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax.

How to claim the additional child tax credit. To claim the additional child tax credit, follow the steps below.

- 1) Make sure you figured the amount, if any, of your child tax credit.
 - 2) If you answered "Yes" on line 6 or line 7 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet in the Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions (or on line 15 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet in this publication), use Form 8812 to see if you can take the additional child tax credit.
 - 3) If you have an additional child tax credit on line 13 of Form 8812, carry it to line 65 (Form 1040) or line 42 (Form 1040A).

Detailed Example

Steve and Gretchen Leaf have four children who are all qualifying children for the child tax credit. Steve and Gretchen's adjusted gross income (AGI) (Form 1040, line 35) is $112,000. This amount represents Steve's salary and is considered taxable earned income. They will file a joint return. Assume that their tax (Form 1040, line 43) is $2,000.

Steve and Gretchen received an advance payment of the child tax credit in 2003. The amount was $1,600. They also received Notice 1319 indicating $1,600 as the amount of the payment.

Steve and Gretchen have the 2003 Form 1040 tax package and instructions. They want to see if they qualify for the child tax credit, so they follow the steps for line 49 in the instructions.

Step 1. In Step 1 of those instructions Steve and Gretchen determine all four children qualify for the child tax credit.

Step 2. The Leafs check the box in column (4) of line 6c on Form 1040 for each child.

Step 3. In Step 3 the Leafs find out they must use Publication 972 to figure their child tax credit because their AGI is more than $110,000. When they read Publication 972, they find out they must complete the Child Tax Credit Worksheet which begins on page 4.

Completing the Child Tax Credit Worksheet. Steve and Gretchen fill out the worksheet (shown here) to find out how much child tax credit they can claim.

- 1) Steve and Gretchen enter the number of qualifying children (4), multiply 4 by $1,000, and enter the result ($4,000) in the box for line 1.
- 2) They enter $1,600, the amount of the advance child tax credit payment, in the box for line 2.
- 3) They check the "No" box for line 3, subtract the amount on line 2 ($1,600) from the amount on line 1 ($4,000), and enter the result ($2,400) in the box for line 3.
- 4) They enter their AGI ($112,000) in the box for line 4.
- 5) They enter -0- in the box for line 5 since they did not exclude any income from Puerto Rico or any income on Form 2555, Form 2555-EZ, or Form 4563.
- 6) They add $112,000 and $0 and enter the result ($112,000) in the box for line 6.
- 7) They enter $110,000 in the box for line 7 since they will file a joint return.
- 8) They check the "Yes" box in line 8 since the amount on line 6 ($112,000) is more than the amount on line 7 ($110,000). They subtract line 7 ($110,000) from line 6 ($112,000) and enter the result ($2,000) in the box for line 8.
- 9) They multiply the amount on line 8 ($2,000) by 5% (.05) and enter the result ($100) in the box for line 9.

- 10) They check the "Yes" box in line 10 since the amount on line 3 ($2,400) is more than the amount on line 9 ($100). They subtract line 9 ($100) from line 3 ($2,400) and enter the result ($2,300) in the box for line 10.
- 11) They enter the amount from line 43 of their Form 1040 ($2,000) in the box for line 11.
- 12) Steve and Gretchen did not have any of the credits on lines 44, 45, 46, 47, or 48 of Form 1040, so they enter -0- in the box for line 12.
- 13) They check the "No" box on line 13 because they are not claiming any of the credits shown on line 13. They enter -0- in the box for line 13.
- 14) They subtract the amount on line 13 ($0) from the amount on line 11 ($2,000) and enter the result ($2,000) in the box for line 14.
- 15) They check the "Yes" box in line 15 since the amount on line 10 ($2,300) is more than the amount on line 14 ($2,000). They enter the amount from line 14 ($2,000) in the box for line 15. Their child tax credit is $2,000. They enter $2,000 on line 49 of their Form 1040.

Steve and Gretchen read the TIP in the worksheet and find that they may be able to take the additional child tax credit because they checked the "Yes" box in line 15.

Steve and Gretchen complete their Form 1040 through line 64 and use Form 8812 to see if they can claim the additional child tax credit.

Completing Form 8812.

- 1) They enter the amount from line 10 of their Child Tax Credit Worksheet ($2,300) on line 1.
- 2) On line 2, they enter the amount of their child tax credit ($2,000) from line 49 of their Form 1040.
- 3) Steve and Gretchen subtract the amount on line 2 ($2,000) from the amount on line 1 ($2,300) and enter the result ($300) on line 3.
- 4) Before completing line 4, they read the instructions on the back of the form and answer "No" to each of the four questions. They enter the amount from line 7 of their Form 1040 ($112,000) on line 4.
- 5) Since the amount on line 4 ($112,000) is more than $10,500, they check the "Yes" box and subtract $10,500 from the amount on line 4 ($112,000) and enter the result ($101,500) on line 5.
- 6) They multiply the amount on line 5 ($101,500) by 10% (.10) and enter the result ($10,150) on line 6. Next, they are asked if they have three or more qualifying children. Steve and Gretchen check the "Yes" box. Since line 6 ($10,150) is more than line 3 ($300), they skip Part II and enter the amount from line 3 ($300) on line 13. This $300 is their additional child tax credit. They also enter this amount on line 65 of their Form 1040.

Steve and Gretchen will get a child tax credit of $2,000 and an additional child tax credit of $300 for the year.
