Returns Filed, Taxes Collected, and Refunds Issued

Tables 1 and 2 provide a broad overview of the main functions performed by the IRS: processing Federal tax returns and collecting revenue. During Fiscal Year (FY) 2008, the IRS collected more than $2.3 trillion in tax, net of refunds, 45.8 percent of which was attributable to the individual income tax.

Tables 3 through 6 provide additional detail on gross collections and returns filed by State, over time, and for different types of electronic returns. More than 101.5 million returns, including 58.0 percent of individual income tax returns, were filed electronically in FY 2008.

Tables 7 and 8 provide information on tax refunds by State and type of tax. During FY 2008, individual income tax return filers received tax refunds totaling nearly $270.4 billion and more than $95.7 billion in economic stimulus payments associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008.

n.a.—Not available.

[1] Includes adjustments and credits. Gross collections exclude excise taxes paid to the Customs Service and the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau. Because refunds of such taxes are recorded by the IRS, they are shown in this table.

[2] Includes overpayment refunds, refunds resulting from examination activity, refundable earned income tax credits, refundable child tax credits, and other refunds required by law. Also includes $4.4 billion in interest, of which $3.5 billion were paid to corporations, and $0.9 billion were paid to all others (related to individual, employment, estate, gift, and excise tax returns).

[4] Collections include Presidential Election Campaign Fund contributions of $49.8 million in Fiscal Year 2007 and $49.5 million in Fiscal Year 2008. Refunds include $95.7 billion of economic stimulus payments associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008.

[5] Collections of individual income tax are not reported by taxpayers separately from Old-Age, Survivors, Disability, and Hospital Insurance (OASDHI) taxes on salaries and wages (under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act or FICA), and on self-employment income (under the Self-Employment Insurance Contributions Act or SECA). The OASDHI tax collections and refunds shown in this table are based on estimates made by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to the provisions of Section 201(a) of the Social Security Act as amended and include all OASDHI taxes. Amounts shown for individual income tax withheld and other income tax were derived by subtracting the FICA and SECA tax estimates from total tax withheld and other taxes paid. Refund estimates and, thus, net collections estimates were not made for the components of income and OASDHI taxes.

[6] Includes $2.4 billion (including interest of $36.5 million) in estate and trust income tax refunds.

[7] Includes estate and trust income tax collections of $21.5 billion in Fiscal Year 2007 and $25.6 billion in Fiscal Year 2008.

NOTE: Detail may not add to totals because of rounding.

The one-time economic stimulus payments associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008 resulted in an increase in the number of individual income tax returns filed in Fiscal Year 2008. Some taxpayers, who did not otherwise have a filing requirement, filed a form from the 1040 series to claim an economic stimulus payment. Similarly, the one-time telephone excise tax refund (available on Tax Year 2006 returns) also contributed to the increased number of individual income tax returns filed, although its effect was smaller in Fiscal Year 2008 than in Fiscal Year 2007. Some taxpayers, who did not otherwise have a filing requirement, filed Form 1040EZ-T (telephone excise tax refund), while others filed Forms 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ to claim the telephone excise tax refund.

[1] Excludes information returns (e.g., Forms 1098, 1099, 5498, W-2 and W-2G, and Schedule K-1); tax-exempt bond returns (Forms 8038, 8038-G, 8038-GC, 8038-T, and 8328); and employee benefit plan returns (Forms 5500 and 5500-EZ) processed by the Department of Labor. See Table 14 for the total number of information returns filed.

[2] Includes the Form 1040 series as follows: 1040 (individual income tax return); 1040A (individual income tax return-short form); 1040EZ (individual income tax return for single and joint filers with no dependents); 1040EZ-T (telephone excise tax refund return); 1040NR and 1040NR-EZ (nonresident alien income tax return); 1040PR (self-employment income tax return for Puerto Rico residents); 1040-SS (self-employment income tax return for U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and Northern Mariana Islands residents); and 1040C (income tax return for departing aliens). The one-time economic stimulus payments associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008 resulted in an increase in the number of individual income tax returns filed in Fiscal Year 2008. Some taxpayers, who did not otherwise have a filing requirement, filed a form from the 1040 series to claim an economic stimulus payment. Similarly, the one-time telephone excise tax refund (available on Tax Year 2006 returns) also contributed to the increased number of individual income tax returns filed, although its effect was smaller in Fiscal Year 2008 than in Fiscal Year 2007. Some taxpayers, who did not otherwise have a filing requirement, filed Form 1040EZ-T (telephone excise tax refund), while others filed Forms 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ to claim the telephone excise tax refund.

Classification by State is based on the individual's address (or, in the case of businesses, the location of the principal office or place of business). However, some individuals may use the address of a tax attorney or accountant. Sole proprietors, partners in a partnership, or shareholders in an S corporation may use their business addresses. Such addresses could have been located in a State other than the State in which the individual resided. Similarly, taxes withheld reported by employers located near a State boundary might include substantial amounts withheld from salaries of employees who reside in a neighboring State. Also, while taxes of corporations may be paid from the principal office, the operations of these corporations may be located in one or more other State(s).

[1] Excludes returns that do not have the option of filing electronically; information returns (e.g., Forms 1098, 1099, 5498, W-2 and W-2G, and Schedule K-1); tax-exempt bond returns (Forms 8038, 8038-G, 8038-GC, 8038-T, and 8328); and employee benefit plan returns (Forms 5500 and 5500-EZ) processed by the Department of Labor. Also excludes excise tax returns, Forms 720 and 2290, which together totaled 13,355.

[2] Includes the Form 1040 series as follows: 1040 (individual income tax return); 1040A (individual income tax return-short form); 1040EZ (individual income tax return for single and joint filers with no dependents); 1040EZ-T (telephone excise tax refund return); and 1040NR (nonresident alien income tax return).

The one-time economic stimulus payments associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008 resulted in an increase in the number of individual income tax returns filed in Fiscal Year 2008. Some taxpayers, who did not otherwise have a filing requirement, filed a form from the 1040 series to claim an economic stimulus payment. Similarly, the one-time telephone excise tax refund (available on Tax Year 2006 returns) also contributed to the increased number of individual income tax returns filed, although its effect was smaller in Fiscal Year 2008 than in Fiscal Year 2007. Some taxpayers, who did not otherwise have a filing requirement, filed Form 1040EZ-T (telephone excise tax refund), while others filed Forms 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ to claim the telephone excise tax refund.

[3] Online e-filing is an option that allows taxpayers to prepare and file tax returns using a personal computer. Online returns can be filed through one of two processes: users either complete a tax return on a Web site without downloading any software, or users purchase and load software onto their personal computers, prepare their returns, and transmit them to the IRS through an online filing company.

[4] Includes cases in which a taxpayer transmits the return via an authorized e-file provider, who, in most cases, is also the preparer of the return.

[5] Includes Form 1120 (corporation income tax return) and 1120-POL (income tax return for certain political associations).

[6] Includes the Form 940 series as follows: 940 (employer's Federal unemployment tax return); 941 (employer's tax return for income and Social Security taxes withheld for other than household and agricultural employees); 941PR/SS (employer's tax return for Puerto Rico residents, or for U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and Northern Mariana Islands residents); and 944 (employer's tax return).

[7] Includes the Form 990 series as follows: 990 (tax-exempt organization except private foundation return-long form); 990-EZ (tax-exempt organization except private foundation return-short form); 990-PF (private foundation return); and 8872 (political organization report of contributions and expenditures).

[8] Includes Forms 2688 (additional filing extension for individuals); 4868 (automatic filing extension for individuals); 7004 (automatic filing extension for corporations); and 8868 (automatic filing extension for tax-exempt organizations).

NOTES: For Fiscal Year 2008, additional e-filed return counts have been added for forms that were not included in prior editions of the IRS Data Book. These forms include: 941PR/SS (employer's tax return for Puerto Rico residents, or for U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and Northern Mariana Islands residents); 1040NR (nonresident alien income tax return); 2688 (additional filing extension for individuals); 4868 (automatic filing extension for individuals); 7004 (automatic filing extension for corporations); 8868 (automatic filing extension for tax-exempt organizations); and 8872 (political organization report of contributions and expenditures).

Classification by State is based on the individual's address (or, in the case of businesses, the location of the principal office or place of business). However, some individuals may use the address of a tax attorney or accountant. Sole proprietors, partners in a partnership, or shareholders in an S corporation may use their business addresses. Such addresses could have been located in a State other than the State in which the individual resided. Similarly, taxes withheld reported by employers located near a State boundary might include substantial amounts withheld from salaries of employees who reside in a neighboring State. Also, while taxes of corporations may be paid from the principal office, the operations of these corporations may be located in one or more other State(s).

Footnotes

[1] Excludes collections of excise taxes paid to the Customs Service and the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau.

[2] Includes tax-exempt organization business income taxes from "unrelated business income" (Form 990-T) and farmers' cooperatives (Form 990-C).

[3] Collections of individual income tax are not reported by taxpayers separately from Old-Age, Survivors, Disability, and Hospital Insurance (OASDHI) taxes on salaries and wages (under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act or FICA) and taxes on self-employment income (under the Self-Employment Insurance Contributions Act or SECA).

[4] Includes estate and trust income tax collections of $25.6 billion.

[5] Excludes adjustments and credits. See footnote 7.

[6] Includes tax and excess withholding payments not classified by State as of the end of the fiscal year because they had not been applied to taxpayer accounts.

[7] Includes Highway and Airport and Airways Trust funds adjustments totaling $332,078 (thousands), of which $253,279 (thousands) were for corporation income tax, and $78,799 (thousands) were for individual income tax not withheld and SECA tax; $2,461,400 (thousands) for excess Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) credits; and $51,803 (thousands) for advance earned income tax credits.

[8] Less than $500.

NOTES: Collection and refund data by State may not be comparable for a given fiscal year, because payments made in prior years may be refunded in the current fiscal year. Adjustments to prior-year refunds made in Fiscal Year 2008 may result in negative amounts when such adjustments exceed current-year collections. See Table 8 for refund data.

Classification by State is based on the individual's address (or, in the case of businesses, the location of the principal office or place of business). However, some individuals may use the address of a tax attorney or accountant. Sole proprietors, partners in a partnership, or shareholders in an S corporation may use their business addresses. Such addresses could have been located in a State other than the State in which the individual resided. Similarly, taxes withheld reported by employers located near a State boundary might include substantial amounts withheld from salaries of employees who reside in a neighboring State. Also, while taxes of corporations may be paid from the principal office, the operations of these corporations may be located in one or more other State(s).

Detail may not add to totals because of rounding.

N/A—Not applicable.

[1] Includes overpayment refunds, refunds resulting from examination activity, refundable earned income tax credits, refundable child tax credits, and other refunds required by law. Counts of refund adjustments and credits are not available separately and are excluded from the total number of refunds. The total number of refunds increased significantly in Fiscal Year 2008, primarily as a result of the one-time economic stimulus payments associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008.

[2] Includes refunds of tax on unrelated business income of tax-exempt organizations (Form 990-T) and farmers' cooperatives (Form 990-C).

[3] Includes 258,118 refunds of estate and trust income taxes (Form 1041).

[4] The one-time economic stimulus payments were special refunds to qualified taxpayers. These payments were associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008.

[5] Includes refunds of and credits for: self-employment income under the Self-Employment Insurance Contributions Act (SECA); railroad retirement taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA); unemployment taxes under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA); and Old-Age, Survivors, Disability, and Hospital Insurance (OASDHI) taxes on salaries and wages under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) except excess credits.

[6] Includes refunds of tax and excess withholding payments not classified by State as of the end of the fiscal year because they had not been applied to taxpayer accounts.

[7] Reflects refundable portions of credits only. Shown separately for informational purposes; counts are included in the State figures and U.S. totals.

NOTES: Classification by State is based on the individual's address (or, in the case of businesses, the location of the principal office or place of business). However, some individuals may use the address of a tax attorney or accountant. Sole proprietors, partners in a partnership, or shareholders in an S corporation may use their business addresses. Such addresses could have been located in a State other than the State in which the individual resided. Similarly, taxes withheld reported by employers located near a State boundary might include substantial amounts withheld from salaries of employees who reside in a neighboring State. Also, while taxes of corporations may be paid from the principal office, the operations of these corporations may be located in one or more other State(s).

Table 8. Amount of Internal Revenue Refunds Issued, Including Interest, by State, Fiscal Year 2008—ContinuedFootnotes

d—Not shown to avoid disclosure of information about specific taxpayers. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

N/A—Not applicable.

[1] Includes overpayment refunds, refunds resulting from examination activity, refundable earned income tax credits, refundable child tax credits, and other refunds required by law. Also includes $4.4 billion in interest, of which $3.5 billion were paid to corporations, and $0.9 billion were paid to all others (related to individual, employment, estate, gift, and excise tax returns). [3] Includes refunds of tax on unrelated business income of tax-exempt organizations (Form 990-T) and farmers' cooperatives (Form 990-C).

[4] The one-time economic stimulus payments were special refunds to qualified taxpayers. These payments were associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008.

[5] Includes refunds of and credits for: self-employment income under the Self-Employment Insurance Contributions Act (SECA); railroad retirement taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA); unemployment taxes under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA); and Old-Age, Survivors, Disability, and Hospital Insurance (OASDHI) taxes on salaries and wages under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) except excess credits.

[6] Excludes refund adjustments and credits. See footnote 9.

[7] Economic stimulus payments were provided directly to the treasuries of U.S. Territories and Puerto Rico in lump sum payments. The territories and Puerto Rico distributed these payments to their qualified taxpayers. See footnote 1.

[8] Includes refunds of tax and excess withholding payments not classified by State as of the end of the fiscal year because they had not been applied to taxpayer accounts.

[9] Includes Highway and Airport and Airways Trust funds adjustments totaling $356,239 (thousands), of which -$770,627 (thousands) were for corporation income tax, $21,387 (thousands) were for individual income tax, and $1,105,479 (thousands) were for excise taxes. Also includes employment tax credits of $2,461,400 (thousands) under the excess Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), and excise taxes of $344,650 (thousands) collected by the U.S. Customs Service and Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau.

[10] Reflects refundable portions of the credits only. Shown separately for informational purposes, refund amounts are included in the State figures and U.S. totals.

NOTES: Collection and refund data by State may not be comparable for a given fiscal year, because payments made in prior years may be refunded in the current fiscal year. Adjustments to prior-year returns made in Fiscal Year 2008 may result in negative amounts when such adjustments exceed current-year refunds. See Table 5 for collections data.

Classification by State is based on the individual's address (or, in the case of businesses, the location of the principal office or place of business). However, some individuals may use the address of a tax attorney or accountant. Sole proprietors, partners in a partnership, or shareholders in an S corporation may use their business addresses. Such addresses could have been located in a State other than the State in which the individual resided. Similarly, taxes withheld reported by employers located near a State boundary might include substantial amounts withheld from salaries of employees who reside in a neighboring State. Also, while taxes of corporations may be paid from the principal office, the operations of these corporations may be located in one or more other State(s).

Detail may not add to totals because of rounding.

EXAMINATIONS

Tables 9a through 12 provide information about examinations of most types of tax returns. Table 9a provides an overview of examinations of income tax returns, estate and gift tax returns, employment tax returns, excise tax returns, and certain other business tax returns. Table 9b shows examinations of individual income tax returns by size of adjusted gross income. Table 10 provides additional information about those examinations in which the taxpayer did not agree with the IRS examiner's determination. Table 11 provides information on examinations that prevented the erroneous payment of refunds. Table 12 shows the number of examinations that resulted in additional refunds paid to the taxpayer and the amount of refunds recommended.

Table 13 provides information about examinations of tax-exempt organizations, such as charitable organizations and foundations, employee retirement plans, and Government entities. These organizations generally do not owe Federal income tax. However, tax-exempt organizations may owe additional payroll taxes, unrelated business income tax, or excise taxes. In addition, changes to exempt organization returns may lead to adjustments on related taxable returns. Examinations of related returns are also included in Table 13 (and excluded from Tables 9a through 12).

N/A—Not applicable.

[1] Excludes excise tax returns filed with the Customs Service and the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, and returns of tax-exempt organizations, Government entities, and employee plans.

[2] In general, examination activity is associated with returns filed in the previous calendar year.

[3] Field examinations are generally performed by revenue agents, tax compliance officers, tax examiners, and revenue officer examiners, in person or through correspondence (in selected cases).

[4] Includes a total of 503,755 returns with an earned income tax credit (EITC) claim. These returns were selected for examination on the basis of an EITC claim or other selection criteria. Excludes 4 returns associated with the earned income tax credit qualifying child certification test, which are tracked in IRS's examination database.

[5] In general, total positive income is the sum of all positive amounts shown for the various sources of income reported on the individual income tax return and, thus, excludes losses. Examinations of individual income tax returns are shown in this table by total positive income of: under $200,000; at least $200,000 and under $1,000,000; and $1,000,000 or more.

[6] Includes Forms 1040 without a Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship), Schedule E (supplemental income and loss), Schedule F (profit or loss from farming), or Form 2106 (employee business expenses).

[7] Includes Forms 1040 with a Schedule E (supplemental income and loss) or Form 2106 (employee business expenses). Excludes returns with a Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship) or Schedule F (profit or loss from farming).

[8] "Total gross receipts" is the sum of gross receipts from farm and nonfarm businesses. It is calculated by adding the positive values of gross receipts and other income from Schedule C to the cost of purchased items and gross income (which can be positive or negative) from Schedule F. Schedule C is used to report profit or loss from nonfarm sole proprietorships. Schedule F is used to report profit or loss from farming. If a taxpayer reports both farm and nonfarm income, the return is classified by the larger source of income.

[9] Includes all Forms 1040, those with and without business income, reporting an earned income tax credit claim. These returns are classified by size of total gross receipts. Business returns have total gross receipts reported on Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship) or Schedule F (profit or loss from farming). Nonbusiness returns, those with no Schedules C or F, are reported in the "Under $25,000" classification.

[10] Includes returns selected for examination on the basis of an earned income tax credit (EITC) claim.

[11] Includes Forms 1040PR (self-employment tax form for Puerto Rico) and 1040-SS (self-employment tax form for U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Northern Mariana Islands).

[12] Includes Forms 1120 ("long form"); 1120-A ("short form"); 1120-F (foreign corporation, except foreign life insurance company); 1120-H (homeowner association); 1120-L (life insurance company); 1120M (mutual insurance company); 1120-PC (property and casualty insurance company); 1120-POL (certain political association); 1120-REIT (real estate investment trust); 1120-RIC (regulated investment company); and 1120-SF (settlement fund). Excludes certain other types of corporations, which are included in "other taxable returns" described in footnote 17.

[13] Form 1120-F is filed by a foreign corporation with U.S. income, other than a foreign life insurance company (Form 1120-L) or a foreign sales corporation (Form 1120-FSC).

[14] Includes returns with assets of less than $10 million examined by either the Small Business/Self-Employed Operating Division or the Large and Mid-Size Business Operating Division.

[15] Includes returns with assets of $10 million or more examined by either the Small Business/Self-Employed Operating Division or the Large and Mid-Size Business Operating Division.

[16] The percentage of returns examined may be greater than 100 percent of the returns filed in Calendar Year 2007 since examinations may be conducted on returns filed in prior calendar years.

[17] Includes Forms 1120S for an S corporation reporting a tax (see footnote 19); 1120-FSC (foreign sales corporation); 8288 (withholding tax return for disposition by foreign persons of U.S. property interests); 990-C (farmers' cooperative association); and 8804 (partnership withholding).

[18] Not tabulated.

[19] Includes most Forms 1120S, which are filed by qualifying S corporations electing to be taxed through shareholders. Under certain conditions, S corporations are subject to tax and are included in "other taxable returns" in this table. See footnote 17.

[20] Includes a total of $1,993,891 (thousands) in recommended additional tax (including an earned income tax credit) on returns selected for examination on the basis of an EITC claim or other selection criteria. Excludes $7 (thousands) in denied EITC related to the qualifying child certification test. These EITC cases are tracked in IRS's examination database.

[21] Less than $500.

[22] Less than $50.

NOTE: Detail may not add to totals because of rounding.

[1] Adjusted gross income is total income, as defined by the Tax Code, less statutory adjustments—primarily business, investment, and certain other deductions.

[2] In general, examination activity is associated with returns filed in the previous calendar year.

[3] Represents the number of returns examined in Fiscal Year 2008 for each adjusted gross income (AGI) class, as a percentage of the total number of returns filed in Calendar Year 2007 for that AGI class.

[4] In addition to examinations of returns filed, IRS examined more than 158,000 cases in which no return was filed. These nonfiler cases were referred for examination by the Collections Program and the Automated Substitute for Return Program (ASFR). In the ASFR Program, IRS uses information returns (such as Forms W-2 and 1099) to identify persons who failed to file a return and constructs tax returns for certain nonfilers based on that third-party information. These nonfiler cases are excluded from the examination data in this table.

[5] Includes returns with adjusted gross income (AGI) of less than zero. AGI may be less than zero when a taxpayer reports losses or statutory adjustments exceed total income.

- [1] Excludes excise tax returns filed with the Customs Service and the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, and returns of tax-exempt organizations, Government entities, and employee plans.
- [2] Field examinations are generally performed by revenue agents, tax compliance officers, tax examiners, and revenue officer examiners, in person or through correspondence (in selected cases).
- [3] In general, total positive income is the sum of all positive amounts shown for the various sources of income reported on the individual income tax return and, thus, excludes losses. Examinations of individual income tax returns are shown in this table by total positive income of: under $200,000; at least $200,000 and under $1,000,000; and $1,000,000 or more.
- [4] Includes Forms 1040 without a Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship), Schedule E (supplemental income and loss), Schedule F (profit or loss from farming), or Form 2106 (employee business expenses).
- [5] Includes Forms 1040 with a Schedule E (supplemental income and loss) or Form 2106 (employee business expenses). Excludes returns with a Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship) or Schedule F (profit or loss from farming).
- [6] "Total gross receipts" is the sum of gross receipts from farm and nonfarm businesses. It is calculated by adding the positive values of gross receipts and other income from Schedule C to the cost of purchased items and gross income (which can be positive or negative) from Schedule F. Schedule C is used to report profit or loss from nonfarm sole proprietorships. Schedule F is used to report profit or loss from farming. If a taxpayer reports both farm and nonfarm income, the return is classified by the large source of income.
- [7] Includes all Forms 1040, those with and without business income, reporting an earned income tax credit claim. These returns are classified by size of total gross receipts. Business returns have total gross receipts reported on Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship) or Schedule F (profit or loss from farming). Nonbusiness returns, those with no Schedules C or F, are reported in the "Under $25,000" classification.
- [8] Includes Forms 1040PR (self-employment tax form for Puerto Rico) and 1040-SS (self-employment tax form for U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Northern Mariana Islands).
- [9] Includes Forms 1120 ("long form"); 1120-A ("short form"); 1120-F (foreign corporation, except foreign life insurance company); 1120-H (homeowner association); 1120-L (life insurance company); 1120M (mutual insurance company); 1120-PC (property and casualty insurance company); 1120-POL (certain political association); 1120-REIT (real estate investment trust); 1120-RIC (regulated investment company); and 1120-SF (settlement fund). Excludes certain other types of corporations, which are included in "other taxable returns" described in footnote 13.
- [10] Form 1120-F is filed by a foreign corporation with U.S. income, other than a foreign life insurance company (Form 1120-L) or a foreign sales corporation (Form 1120-FSC).
- [11] Includes returns with assets of less than $10 million examined by either the Small Business/Self-Employed Operating Division or the Large and Mid-Size Business Operating Division.
- [12] Includes returns with assets of $10 million or more examined by either the Small Business/Self-Employed Operating Division or the Large and Mid-Size Business Operating Division.
- [13] Includes Forms 1120S for an S corporation reporting a tax; 1120-FSC (foreign sales corporation); 8288 (withholding tax return for disposition by foreign persons of U.S. property interests); 990-C (farmers' cooperative association); and 8804 (partnership withholding).

d—Not shown to avoid disclosure of information about specific taxpayers. However, the data are included in the appropriate totals.

- [1] Excludes excise tax returns filed with the Customs Service and the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, and returns of tax-exempt organizations, Government entities, and employee plans.
- [2] Field examinations are generally performed by revenue agents, tax compliance officers, tax examiners, and revenue officer examiners, in person or through correspondence (in selected cases).
- [3] In general, total positive income is the sum of all positive amounts shown for the various sources of income reported on the individual income tax return and, thus, excludes losses. Examinations of individual income tax returns are shown in this table by total positive income of: under $200,000; at least $200,000 and under $1,000,000; and $1,000,000 or more.
- [4] Includes Forms 1040 without a Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship), Schedule E (supplemental income and loss), Schedule F (profit or loss from farming), or Form 2106 (employee business expenses).
- [5] Includes Forms 1040 with a Schedule E (supplemental income and loss) or Form 2106 (employee business expenses). Excludes returns with a Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship) or Schedule F (profit or loss from farming).
- [6] "Total gross receipts" is the sum of gross receipts from farm and nonfarm businesses. It is calculated by adding the positive values of gross receipts and other income from Schedule C to the cost of purchased items and gross income (which can be positive or negative) from Schedule F. Schedule C is used to report profit or loss from nonfarm sole proprietorships. Schedule F is used to report profit or loss from farming. If a taxpayer reports both farm and nonfarm income, the return is classified by the larger source of income.
- [7] Includes all Forms 1040, those with and without business income, reporting an earned income tax credit claim. These returns are classified by size of total gross receipts. Business returns have total gross receipts reported on Schedule C (nonfarm sole proprietorship) or Schedule F (profit or loss from farming). Nonbusiness returns, those with no Schedules C or F, are reported in the "Under $25,000" classification.
- [8] Includes Forms 1040PR (self-employment tax form for Puerto Rico) and 1040-SS (self-employment tax form for U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Northern Mariana Islands).
- [9] Includes Forms 1120 ("long form"); 1120-A ("short form"); 1120-F (foreign corporation, except foreign life insurance company); 1120-H (homeowner association); 1120-L (life insurance company); 1120M (mutual insurance company); 1120-PC (property and casualty insurance company); 1120-POL (certain political association); 1120-REIT (real estate investment trust); 1120-RIC (regulated investment company); and 1120-SF (settlement fund). Excludes certain other types of corporations, which are included in "other taxable returns" described in footnote 13.
- [10] Form 1120-F is filed by a foreign corporation with U.S. income, other than a foreign life insurance company (Form 1120-L) or a foreign sales corporation (Form 1120-FSC).
- [11] Includes returns with assets of less than $10 million examined by either the Small Business/Self-Employed Operating Division or the Large and Mid-Size Business Operating Division.
- [12] Includes returns with assets of $10 million or more examined by either the Small Business/Self-Employed Operating Division or the Large and Mid-Size Business Operating Division.
- [13] Includes Forms 1120S for an S corporation reporting a tax; 1120-FSC (foreign sales corporation); 8288 (withholding tax return for disposition by foreign persons of U.S. property interests); 990-C (farmers' cooperative association); and 8804 (partnership withholding).

INFORMATION REPORTING AND VERIFICATION

The IRS uses tools other than examinations to identify and resolve taxpayer errors. In addition to receiving information about taxpayers' self-reported income and tax on returns that are filed, the IRS gathers independent information about income received and taxes withheld on information returns, such as Forms W-2 and 1099 from employers and other third parties. With its Automated Underreporter Program, the IRS matches these information returns to tax returns and contacts taxpayers to resolve discrepancies.

In the Automated Substitute for Return Program, the IRS uses information returns to identify persons who did not file a return, constructs tax returns for certain nonfilers based on that third-party information, and assesses tax, interest, and penalties based on the substitute returns. Table 14 provides information about these programs.

During the routine processing of tax returns, the IRS also checks for mathematical and clerical errors before refunds are paid. Table 15 shows the types of errors made on returns processed during Calendar Year 2008.

COLLECTIONS, PENALTIES, AND CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION

The mission of IRS's Collection function is to collect Federal taxes that are reported or assessed but not paid, and to secure tax returns that have not been filed. Table 16 provides information on these activities.

The failure to comply with Federal tax laws may result in civil penalties. Table 17 provides information on penalties assessed and abated during Fiscal Year 2008, by type of tax and type of penalty. Individuals who deliberately fail to comply with Federal tax laws may also be subject to a criminal investigation, which could result in prosecution, fines, and imprisonment.

Table 18 summarizes criminal investigation activity related to legal source tax crimes; illegal source financial crimes; and narcotics-related financial crimes. Legal source tax investigations involve activities, industries, and occupations that generate legitimate income. The Legal Source Tax Crimes Program also includes cases that may threaten the tax system, such as frivolous filers or nonfilers who challenge the legitimacy of the tax laws; unscrupulous tax return preparers; and fraudulent refund schemes.

Illegal source financial crimes relate to proceeds derived from illegal sources other than narcotics and involve tax and tax-related violations, as well as money laundering. The Narcotics Program investigates narcotics-related tax and money-laundering crimes. The IRS often cooperates with the Justice Department and other law enforcement agencies to accomplish its mission.

[1] Includes previously unpaid taxes on returns filed plus assessed and accrued penalties and interest. For Fiscal Year 2008, includes a total of $37,254,116 (dollars) collected by private debt collection agencies.

[2] Includes assessed penalties and interest but excludes any accrued penalties and interest. Assessed penalties and interest—usually determined simultaneously with the unpaid balance of tax—are computed on the unpaid balance of tax from the due date of the return to the date of assessment. Penalties and interest continue to accrue (accrued penalties and interest) after the date of assessment until the taxpayer's balance is paid in full.

[3] Net assessment of tax, penalty, and interest amounts (less prepaid credits, withholding, and estimated tax payments) on delinquent tax returns secured by Collection activity.

[4] A delinquency investigation is opened when a taxpayer does not respond to an IRS notice of a delinquent return.

[5] An offer in compromise (OIC) is a binding agreement between a taxpayer and the IRS that settles the taxpayer's tax liabilities for less than the full amount owed. An OIC will not be accepted if the IRS believes the liability can be paid in full as a lump sum or through a payment agreement.

[1] Penalties assessed and abatements of penalties included here were recorded in Fiscal Year 2008 regardless of the tax year to which the penalty may apply.

[2] An abatement is a reduction of assessed penalties. IRS may approve an abatement of a penalty for: IRS error; reasonable cause; administrative and collection costs not warranting collection of penalty; discharge of penalty in bankruptcy; and IRS's acceptance of partial payment of assessed penalty.

Also includes penalties related to negligence or disregard of rules and regulations (under Internal Revenue Code section 6653(a)) assessed on returns due before January 1, 1990.

[4] Represents penalties associated with failure to provide information on Form 1065 (partnership return); or 8752 (required payment or refund for an S corporation or partnership under Internal Revenue Code section 7519); or failure to file Form 1065-B (large partnership return) electronically.

[5] Represents penalties related to failure to supply taxpayer identification number, failure to report tip income, and other return penalties.

[6] Represents penalties associated with the Forms 1120 series (corporation income tax return series); 990-C (farmers' cooperative return); and 990-T (tax-exempt organization unrelated business income tax return).

[1] Legal source tax crimes involve legal industries, legal occupations, and, more specifically, legally earned income associated with the violation of Title 26 (tax violations) and Title 18 (tax-related violations) of the U.S. Code. The Legal Source Tax Crimes Program also includes those cases that threaten the tax system, such as Questionable Refund Program (QRP) cases, unscrupulous return preparers, and frivolous filers/nonfilers who challenge the legality of the filing requirements. Excise tax and employment tax cases are also important elements of the Legal Source Tax Crimes Program.

[2] Illegal source financial crimes involve proceeds derived from illegal sources other than narcotics. These encompass all tax and tax-related violations, as well as money-laundering and currency violations under the following statutes: Title 26 (tax violations); Title 18 (tax-related and money-laundering violations); and Title 31 (currency violations) of the U.S. Code. The utilization of forfeiture statutes to deprive individuals and organizations of illegally obtained assets is also linked to the investigation of criminal charges within this program.

[3] Under the Narcotics Related Financial Crimes Program, IRS Criminal Investigation seeks to identify, investigate, and assist in the prosecution of the most significant narcotics-related tax and money-laundering offenders. IRS derives this authority from the statutes for which it has jurisdiction: Title 26 (tax violations); Title 18 (tax-related and money-laundering violations); and Title 31 (currency violations) of the U.S. Code. IRS Criminal Investigation devotes resources to high-level multiagency narcotics investigations warranting Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) designation in accordance with OCDETF Program reimbursable funding.

[4] Both "indictments" and "informations" are accusations of criminal charges. An "indictment" is an accusation made by a Federal prosecutor and issued by a Federal grand jury. An "information" is an accusation brought by a Federal prosecutor without the requirement of a grand jury.

[5] The term "incarcerated" may include prison time, home confinement, electronic monitoring, or a combination thereof.

NOTE: Investigations may cross fiscal years. Therefore, the disposition of investigations shown in this table may be related to investigations initiated in prior years.

Taxpayer Assistance

The IRS assists taxpayers in meeting their Federal tax return filing and payment obligations in a variety of ways, such as through its telephone helpline, via the Internet, at IRS walk-in sites, and through volunteer income tax return preparers. Table 19 provides information about some of the programs and services designed to help individual income tax return filers.

Table 20 provides information about the Taxpayer Advocate Service. The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the IRS that assists taxpayers who are experiencing economic hardships, who are seeking help to resolve tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, or who believe that an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should.

Table 21 provides information on the workload of IRS's Appeals Office. The Appeals mission is to resolve tax controversies, without litigation, on a basis that is fair and impartial to both the taxpayer and the Government. The Appeals Office considers cases that involve examination, collection, and penalty issues. Taxpayers who disagree with the IRS findings in their cases may request an Appeals hearing. The local Appeals Office is separate and independent of the IRS office that proposed the tax adjustment, collection action, or penalty.

[1] Includes calls answered by Customer Account Services and automated calls (including TeleTax and Government Entities), but excludes calls answered by Automated Collection Services. The one-time economic stimulus payments, associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008, resulted in a significant increase in the number of calls answered.

[2] Reflects taxpayer contacts at a total of 401 sites, including both IRS Taxpayer Assistance Centers and alternative IRS sites (libraries and post offices). Excludes Volunteer Income Tax Assistance and Tax Counseling for the Elderly sites.

[3] Represents the number of organizations that distribute forms and publications. Each organization may have multiple branches.

[4] Economic Stimulus Payments were special payments associated with the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008.

[5] The Transcript Delivery System enables authorized tax practitioners to order tax account, tax return transcript, and other tax information for their business and individual clients. These documents are returned to the practitioner's computer through a secure online connection within minutes.

[6] Eligible tax practitioners may electronically request authorization to receive a client's tax account information or to represent the client before the IRS. This e-service expedites processing and issues a real-time acknowledgment of accepted submissions.

[7] An increasing number of taxpayers receive assistance by using personal computers to visit IRS.gov. This online assistance is reported as visits, page views, and downloads. A Web site visit is a session that begins when a user views his or her first Web page and ends when the user leaves the IRS.gov Web site. Users may access multiple Web pages during a single visit to the IRS Web site; these are counted as page views. A download is the process of copying a file, such as Form 1040, from the IRS.gov Web site to the user's personal computer.

[8] Reflects major disaster areas declared by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, for which the IRS granted administrative tax relief. Some States and counties/cities were affected more than once.

[1] Taxpayers may submit an application for assistance to the Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS). These applications for taxpayer assistance may be received in one fiscal year and closed in another. In Fiscal Year 2008, 274,051 applications for assistance were received, and 260,439 were closed.

[2] Under the Automated Substitute for Return Program, IRS uses information returns from third parties to identify tax return delinquencies, constructs tax returns for certain nonfilers on the basis of that information, and assesses tax, interest, and penalties based on the results.

[3] Under the Automated Underreporter Program, IRS uses information returns from third parties to identify unreported income.

[4] The Taxpayer Advocate Service issues Taxpayer Assistance Orders (TAOs) on behalf of taxpayers. A TAO directs an IRS organizational unit to take a specific action or to review, expedite consideration of, or reconsider a taxpayer's case. However, in the majority of cases, the Taxpayer Advocate Service can resolve taxpayers' issues without issuing TAOs.

[5] Taxpayer Assistance Orders (TAOs) may be issued in one fiscal year and closed in another. In Fiscal Year 2008, 68 TAOs were issued, and 58 TAOs were closed (50 were closed with relief provided to the taxpayer, and 8 were rescinded).

[6] Less than 0.5 percent.

[7] A single issue (applicable to an individual, corporation, or other entity) that requires a change or modification to an account.

[8] Requires a change or modification to an established procedure, process, or operation (e.g., computer program) that potentially impacts more than one taxpayer.

[9] In this table, "Congressional inquiries" (related to constituents' tax accounts) is an information item and is not included in the table totals.

NOTES: The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within IRS that assists taxpayers who are experiencing hardships, who are seeking help to resolve tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, or who believe that an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should. Detail may not add to totals because of rounding.

[1] A defined contribution plan is a pension or retirement plan that provides for an individual account for each participant and for benefits based solely on amounts contributed to the participant's account and any earnings on these contributions. When the employee takes a distribution of his/her account balance, the amount paid will be based on the value of the participant's account.

[2] A defined benefit plan is a pension plan that does not maintain account balances to reflect the accrued benefits of the plan participants. The accrued benefit is determined by a definitely determinable formula stated in the plan.

[3] The total of defined contribution plans is the sum of columns 4-9, which include associated section 401(k) arrangements and participants. See footnote 4.

[4] Section 401(k) arrangements and participants are reported and counted under the types of plans to which they are attached (e.g., profit-sharing or stock bonus plans) and, thus, are also included in columns 4-9.

[5] Reflects pension plans that satisfy the qualification requirements of Federal pension law.

[6] Totals may be overstated to the extent that employees participate in more than one plan.

Chief Counsel

Attorneys in the Chief Counsel's Office serve as lawyers for the IRS. They provide guidance to IRS and to taxpayers on the correct legal interpretation of the Federal tax laws, represent the IRS in litigation, and provide all other legal support the IRS needs to carry out its mission.

Tables 26 and 27 provide information about the Chief Counsel workload in Fiscal Year 2008.

[1] For detailed information on tax litigation cases, by type of case, see Table 27.

[2] The Passthroughs and Special Industries Division (PSI) handles cases that involve passthrough organizations, such as S corporations and partnerships. These passthrough organizations do not pay tax on their incomes, but pass income or losses to shareholders or partners, who include the income or losses on their income tax returns. The PSI Division also handles cases on natural resources taxation (oil, mining, gas, coal, etc.); business credits (low-income housing, energy credits, wind energy, and alternative fuels, etc.); excise taxes (transportation, telephones, tires, fuels, etc.); and estate and gift taxes.

[3] Includes the immediate offices of the Chief Counsel and the Associate Chief Counsel (Finance and Management).

[1] Tax Court cases involve a taxpayer contesting the Internal Revenue Service's determination that the taxpayer owes additional tax. The Tax Court provides a forum for a taxpayer to request a redetermination of the deficiency prior to paying the tax allegedly owed.

[2] Reflects the amount a taxpayer owes as ordered by the Tax Court, excluding offsetting overpayments and interest.

[3] Refund cases involve taxpayers seeking refunds of claimed overpayments after taxes have been fully paid. Amounts include taxes and interest.

[4] "Tax protected" comprises any action taken by the Internal Revenue Service to prevent the release of funds from the U.S. Treasury in response to taxpayer efforts to recoup all or part of previously assessed and paid tax.

[5] Nondocketed cases are cases in which a court petition has not been filed.

[r]—Revised.

[1] Gross collections exclude alcohol and tobacco excise taxes starting with 1988, and exclude taxes on firearms starting with the second quarter of Fiscal Year 1991. Responsibility for these excise taxes was transferred from the IRS to the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau and to the Customs Service, respectively. See Table 6 for gross collections data by type of tax.

[2] Operating costs exclude costs reimbursed by other Federal agencies and private entities for services performed for these external parties. Beginning with Fiscal Year 2005, includes costs for Systems Modernization and the Health Insurance Tax Credit Administration. See Table 28 for these costs.

[3] U.S. population and tax per capita are based on resident population plus armed forces overseas as of October 1 of each year. This information is provided by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census.

[4] Represents the average number of full-time equivalent (FTE) positions actually used to conduct IRS operations. Excludes positions funded by reimbursements from other Federal agencies and private companies. In contrast, IRS labor force counts in Table 31 (Internal Revenue Service Labor Force, Compared to National Totals for Civilian and Federal Labor Forces, by Race, National Origin, and Gender) represent the number of persons, including part-time and seasonal workers, employed at any time during the fiscal year.

[5] Beginning in Fiscal Year 2000, the IRS discontinued the distinction between National Office and Field Offices as a result of reorganization.
