What kinds of questions are on the survey?

We would like to know more about the time and money you spent completing your 2015 individual federal income tax return. The IRS uses your answers to provide Congress and the President with information about taxpayer burden.

We will ask:

How much time you spent on tasks such as...

- Recordkeeping
- Tax planning
- Gathering or purchasing materials
- Completing and submitting your return

How much you paid for...

- Paid preparer services
- A tax preparation website or software
- Fees for an early or immediate tax refund
- Tax books, classes, or seminars
- Postage, filing fees, or travel costs

Please be assured that you will not be asked about your income or other financial information.
