Tax-Exempt Organization Burden Survey
Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Tax-Exempt Organization Burden survey?
This survey is about what it costs your tax-exempt organization to comply with federal tax rules and regulations as they relate to your organization’s Tax Year 2017 federal income tax return. For most organizations, these costs are a combination of time spent and out-of-pocket expenses. Please be assured that you will not be asked about the income or other financial details of your organization’s tax return.

Who should complete this survey?
The individual most responsible for maintaining the financial records for your organization or making the financial and tax-related decisions for your organization should complete this questionnaire. Please feel free to consult with others to complete the survey.

Should I send this survey to my external service provider or contractor?
No, please do not forward this survey to your external service provider, whether paid or volunteer, if you have one, because this survey concerns time and money spent by your organization, not theirs.

What does “Tax Year 2017 federal income tax return” mean?
Tax Year 2017 federal income tax return in this survey refers to Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-PF, or 990-T, as well as any related forms (e.g., Form 8868), schedules, and worksheets.

How was my organization selected for this survey?
Your organization was randomly selected from all of the organizations that filed Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-PF, or 990-T in Tax Year 2017.

If you provide services for more than one organization, please look at the address label of this mailing to see which organization was randomly selected to receive this survey.

How will my answers be used?
Please be assured that your responses will be used for research and aggregate reporting purposes only and will not be used for other non-statistical or non-research purposes such as direct enforcement activities.

Why should I participate?
While participation is voluntary, information about your organization’s tax preparation experience will help the IRS reduce taxpayer burden. We encourage you to take a few minutes of your time to participate. By doing so, you will make sure that organizations like yours are represented.

How long will this survey take?
Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 10 to 15 minutes, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.

Who can I contact with questions?
If you have questions about the content of this survey please call Dawn Nelson at Westat by phone at 1-855-810-5212 or send an email to IRS-TEB@westat.com. Time Spent on Income Tax-Related Activities

3. As mentioned in the FAQs, the purpose of this survey is to measure what it costs tax-exempt organizations to comply with federal income tax rules and regulations. For most organizations, these costs are a combination of time spent and out-of-pocket expenses (e.g., fees paid to external service providers, software costs).

The next question asks about the time spent on activities related to filing your organization’s Tax Year 2017 federal income tax return.

Think about all the time your organization spent on tax-related recordkeeping, tax planning, gathering tax-related materials, learning about tax law, using IRS or non-IRS resources, completing, reviewing, and submitting your Tax Year 2017 federal income tax return, and calculating and depositing estimated tax payments.

Please include time spent:
- On your Tax Year 2017 federal income tax return as well as any associated forms, schedules, and worksheets that you completed or filed
- Throughout Tax Year 2017 as well as the tax filing season
- Corresponding with your external service provider(s)

Please do NOT include time spent:
- By your external service provider(s) including pro bono services
- On state or local tax returns
- On employment tax returns and payroll activities
- On foreign tax returns
- On information returns, such as W-2s or Form 1098-C
- On retirement and pension-related activities

Please feel free to consult with others to complete these questions. If you do not know the exact amount, please provide your best estimate.
