Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Tax-Exempt Organization Burden survey?
This survey is about what it costs your organization to comply with tax rules and regulations as they relate to its federal exempt organization return. For most organizations, these costs are a combination of time spent and out-of-pocket expenses. Please be assured that you will not be asked about the income or other financial details of your organization’s tax return.

Who should complete this survey?
The individual most responsible for maintaining the financial records for your organization or making the financial and tax-related decisions for your organization should complete this questionnaire. Please feel free to consult with others to complete the survey.

Should I send this survey to my external service provider or contractor?
No, please do not forward this survey to your external service provider, whether paid or volunteer, if you have one, because this survey concerns time and money spent by your organization, not theirs.

What does “federal exempt organization return” mean?
Federal exempt organization return in this survey refers to Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-PF, or 990-T, as well as any related forms (e.g., Form 8868), schedules, and worksheets.

How was my organization selected for this survey?
Your organization was randomly selected from organizations that have recently filed Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-PF, or 990-T returns.

How long will this survey take?
Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 to 20 minutes, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.

Who can I contact with questions?
If you have questions about the content of this survey please call Dawn Nelson at Westat by phone at 855-810-5212 or send an email to IRS-TEB@westat.com. Time Spent on Activities Related to the Federal Exempt Organization Return

This survey concerns your federal exempt organization return for Tax Year <<YEAR>>.

5. As mentioned in the FAQs, the purpose of this survey is to measure what it costs tax-exempt organizations to comply with rules and regulations related to the federal exempt organization return. For most organizations, these costs are a combination of time spent and out-of-pocket expenses (e.g., fees paid to external service providers, software costs).

The next two questions ask about the time spent on activities related to filing your organization’s federal exempt organization return.

Think about all the time your organization spent on tax-related recordkeeping, tax planning, gathering tax-related materials, learning about tax law, using IRS or non-IRS resources, completing, reviewing, and submitting your federal exempt organization return, and calculating and depositing estimated tax payments.

Please include time spent:

- On your federal exempt organization return as well as any associated forms, schedules, and worksheets that you completed or filed
- Throughout the tax year as well as the tax filing season
- Corresponding with your external service provider(s)

Please do NOT include time spent:

- By your external service provider(s) including pro bono services
- On state or local tax returns
- On employment tax returns and payroll activities
- On foreign tax returns
- On information returns, such as W-2s or Form 1098-C
- On retirement and pension-related activities

Please feel free to consult with others to complete these questions. If you do not know the exact amount, please provide your best estimate.

Privacy and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice for Tax-Exempt Organization Burden Data Collection

The Privacy Act of 1974 states that when we ask you for information, we must first tell you our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if you do not provide it and whether or not you must respond under the law.

Our legal right to ask for this information is 5 U.S.C. 301.

The primary purpose for requesting the information is to analyze the role of taxpayer burden in tax administration. We will also use the information to fulfill the IRS' statutory obligations to the Office of Management and Budget and Congress for information required by the Paperwork Reduction Act, and to provide tax policy analysis support to the Office of Tax Analysis at the Department of the Treasury. We will also use the information provided to better understand taxpayer needs and burden reduction opportunities.

Tax information may be disclosed only as provided by 26 U.S.C. 6103. Providing the information is voluntary. Not providing all or part of the information requested may reduce our ability to address taxpayer concerns regarding paperwork reduction.

OMB No: 1545-2212. This report is authorized under the Paperwork Reduction Act. Data collected will be shared with IRS staff, but your responses will be used for research and aggregate reporting purposes only and will not be used for other non-statistical or non-research purposes such as direct enforcement activities. The information that you provide will be protected to the fullest extent allowable under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 to 20 minutes, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.
