STATISTICS OF INCOME, CALENDAR YEAR 1925

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, D. C., June 8, 1927.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith statistics compiled from the income tax returns of individuals, corporations, and partnerships for 1925, from the capital stock tax returns filed for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1926, and from the estate tax returns filed from January 1, to December 31, 1926, inclusive. The year for which the income tax returns are filed is in practically all cases the calendar year ending December 31, 1925. However, a relatively small number of corporation returns and a negligible number of individual returns are filed for fiscal years ending within the period July 1, 1925, to June 30, 1926. These returns are tabulated with the calendar year returns.

The statistics contained in this report, except those compiled from capital stock tax returns, are based on the taxpayers' returns as received, unaudited except for a preliminary examination to insure proper execution of the return. Every income tax return filed by persons having net incomes in excess of $5,000 and every return filed by corporations regardless of the size of their net incomes, pass through the Statistical Section. In addition, a fair average sample of the returns filed by persons having net income of less than $5,000 approximating 250,000 returns are sent in to the Bureau by the 64 collectors' offices and are analyzed for information bearing on this income class, the data fairly representing the distribution of income of all the returns filed having net income of less than $5,000.

Throughout this report the term "net income" is used to mean the excess of gross income, as defined in the revenue act effective for the year for which the returns were filed, over the deductions claimed by the taxpayer under the provisions of the respective acts. Similarly, the term "deficit" is used to mean the excess of such deductions over gross income. Credits, such as personal exemption, credit for dependents, taxable interest on Liberty bonds, dividends, prior year loss, and loss from the sale of capital assets held for more than two years, are not included in deductions in arriving at the net income of individuals, neither is the special credit of $2,000 for domestic corporations, having net income of $25,000 or less, included in deductions in arriving at the net income of corporations.

The income tax returns for 1925 were filed under the provisions of the revenue act of 1926.

INDIVIDUAL AND CORPORATION INCOME TAX RETURNS

The number of returns of individuals filed was 4,171,051, the aggregate net income $21,894,576,403, and the net tax $734,555,183. As compared with the returns filed for the calendar year 1924, the returns for 1925 show a decrease of 3,198,737, or 43.40 per cent, also a decrease in total net income amounting to $3,761,577,051 or 14.66 per cent, but an increase of $30,289,793 or 4.30 per cent in the total tax. The average net income is $5,249.16, the average amount of tax $176.11, and the average tax rate 3.35 per cent. For the preceding year the average net income was $3,481.26, the average amount of tax was $95.56, and the average tax rate 2.74 per cent.

In comparing the number of individual income tax returns and the income reported therein for 1925 with 1924, it should be noted that the provisions concerning individuals required to file returns are so revised in the revenue act of 1926 that any individual whose net income for the taxable year is less than his personal exemption as revised in that act is not required to file a return unless his aggregate gross income for the taxable year amounts to $5,000 or more. The provisions are summarized on page 21.

The number of corporations filing income tax returns was 430,072, of which 252,334 reported net income amounting to $9,583,683,697 and income tax of $1,170,331,206. For the calendar year 1924 the number of corporation returns was 417,421, of which 236,389 reported net income totaling $7,586,652,292 and tax aggregating $881,549,546.

INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURNS

The distribution of the returns of individuals by States and Territories and by income classes is shown in basic Tables 1 and 2. The proportion of the population filing returns was 3.60 per cent. For the preceding year the proportion filing returns was 6.56 per cent.

SIMPLE AND CUMULATIVE DISTRIBUTION BY INCOME CLASSES (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The distribution of the returns by income classes is exhibited in the following table, which shows the number of returns filed, the amount of net income reported, and the tax yield, also cumulative totals and relative percentages. In basic Table 3 a similar distribution of the number of returns, net income, and tax is shown by more detailed income classes.

CLASSIFICATION BY SEX AND FAMILY RELATIONSHIP (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The following table shows the number of individual returns and the net income distributed according to sex and family relationship. In basic Tables 4 and 5 similar distributions of the number of returns, net income, and tax are shown by income classes and by States.

Distribution of individual returns by sex and family relationship, calendar year 1925

INCOME EXEMPT FROM NORMAL TAX (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The net income specifically exempt from normal tax through personal exemptions, credits for dependents, dividends, interest on Government obligations not wholly exempt from tax, capital net gain from sale of assets held for more than two years, prior year loss, and net income subject to normal tax are shown in the following table:

Net income exempt from and amount subject to normal tax, individual returns, calendar year 1925

CAPITAL NET LOSS FROM SALE OF ASSETS HELD FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

Under the revenue acts of 1924 and 1926 losses sustained from the sale of capital assets held for more than two years are not deductible in arriving at net income, unless the tax produced by deducting such loss is greater than by taking a tax credit of 12½ per cent of the amount of such loss. The revenue acts of 1918 and 1921 contained no such limitation. In order, therefore, to make the "net income" and "general deductions" in the Statistics of Income for 1924 and 1925 comparable with prior years, it is necessary to deduct from net income the amount of capital net loss which was not deducted on the returns in arriving at net income, and to increase general deductions by a like amount. This adjustment has not been made in the "net income" and "general deduction" figures shown in this volume.

Total capital net loss from sale of assets held for more than two years.....	$61, 271, 504
Tax credit of 12½ per cent.....	7, 658, 938

PRIOR YEAR LOSS DEDUCTION FOR NET INCOME (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The prior year losses deducted from net income in the returns filed for the years 1922, 1923, 1924, and 1925 are given below:

Year	Amount
1922.....	$45, 220, 859
1923.....	34, 266, 149
1924.....	29, 869, 182
1925.....	32, 321, 310

CREDIT OF 25 PER CENT OF TAX ON EARNED NET INCOME (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The 25 per cent tax credit provision of the revenue act of 1926 applies to the tax on the first $5,000 of net income whether earned or otherwise, and, if specifically earned, to the tax on an amount not exceeding $20,000.

The tax reduction as a result of this credit was..... $24, 570, 183

The following table shows, by net-income classes, the distribution of the total income by sources; also general deductions. Similar data distributed by States and by smaller income classes are shown in Basic Tables 6 and 7. The percentage distribution of total income by these sources is shown in the second table following.

INCOME FROM BUSINESS (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The income reported by individuals as having been derived from business, other than from partnerships, is shown according to industrial divisions in the following table. These data represent only such amounts reported by individuals as were derived from business operations conducted as sole proprietors and do not necessarily indicate the principal occupation of or the total income reported by the persons making the return.

WHOLLY AND PARTIALLY TAX-EXEMPT OBLIGATIONS

The following tabulation shows the aggregate wholly and partially tax-exempt securities owned and interest received therefrom, by nature of obligation, reported by individuals having net income of $5,000 and over. The amount owned and interest received are shown by income class distribution of the returns of net income in Table 18.

RETURNS BY COUNTIES AND CITIES

The number of returns of individuals filed for the calendar year 1925 by counties, cities, townships, and post offices is shown in basic Table 17. This tabulation does not represent an exact count of returns for each civil division, but is a very close approximation of the number of returns filed. The following method is used: Index cards of the returns of net income filed in each collection district are prepared in the offices of the collectors of internal revenue. These cards are arranged by counties and cities and the number is calculated by measurement on the basis of a certain number of cards to the inch.

PARTNERSHIP RETURNS OF INCOME

Partnership returns, except for the war excess-profits tax of 1917, are not subject to direct assessment, the income being reported in the individual returns filed by the copartners according to their distributive share, whether distributed or not.

The number of returns of net income filed by partnerships from 1917 to 1925, inclusive, is as follows:

Year	Number	Year	Number
1917-----	31, 701	1922-----	287, 959
1918-----	100, 728	1923-----	304, 996
1919-----	175, 898	1924-----	321, 158
1920-----	240, 767	1925-----	309, 414
1921-----	259, 359

CORPORATION INCOME TAX RETURNS

The table immediately following shows the returns of corporations distributed by industrial groups and segregated according to "Corporations reporting net income" and "Corporations reporting no net income." In basic Table 8 similar data are shown, distributed by States and Territories.

In making comparisons of the "net income" or "deficit" of the "finance" group of corporations with the "net income" or "deficit" of other industrial groups, allowance should be made for the two special deductions from gross income permitted life insurance companies. These special deductions, which total approximately $350,000,000, represent (1) the excess of 4 per cent of the mean of reserve funds over the tax-exempt interest received by the company, and (2) 2 per cent of the reserve held for deferred dividends. (See pars. (2) and (4) of subdivision (a) of sec. 245 of the revenue act of 1926.)

In the income statement for the "Finance, banking, insurance, etc.," group shown in Table 9, and in the corresponding percentages shown in Table 10, these special deductions for life insurance companies are included in "Miscellaneous expense" under "Disbursements," although the deductions are not expense items.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The income statement of corporation receipts and disbursements, also net profit (or deficit), deductions, net income, tax, net profit after deducting tax, and cash and stock dividends distributed by major industrial groups, is shown in basic Table 9. Part 1 shows the data for all corporations, part 2 for corporations reporting net income, and part 3 for corporations reporting no net income. Basic Table 10 shows a similar distribution of all corporation returns expressed as percentages of total receipts.

CORPORATION RETURNS, DISTRIBUTED BY SIZE OF NET INCOME

COMBINED INDIVIDUAL AND CORPORATION INCOME AND TAX, BY STATES

The following table exhibits by States and Territories the combined individual and corporation incomes and income taxes for the calendar year 1925. The amounts do not represent, however, what may be called the geographical distribution of income. The figures are compiled from the returns filed in each State. An individual files his income-tax return in the collection district in which his legal residence or principal place of business is located, and a corporation files its income-tax return in the collection district in which its principal place of business or the principal office or agency is located. Consequently, income reported by an individual or corporation in one State may have been derived from sources in other States.

From the foregoing it will be clear that there is no way of ascertaining from the income-tax returns the amount of income earned in the respective States or the amount of tax paid on that basis.

Individual and corporation net income and tax, distributed by States and Territories, showing percentages for each State, calendar year 1925¹

SUMMARY OF INCOME AND TAX, BY YEARS

There is shown below, by income classes, the number of individual returns filed for each of the years 1916 to 1925, inclusive; also the increase or decrease for each year. These tables show that in every income class beginning with net income of $5,000 the largest number of returns for any year was filed for 1925.

¹ This total is exclusive of 7,635 returns of married women made separate from returns of husbands. In 1916 the net income on returns filed separately by husband and wife is combined and the total appears as one return. In all other years the returns of married women filed separately are included in their individual income classes independently of the husband's income.

NOTE.—The returns for 1913 are omitted, as they pertain only to the last 10 months of that year.

In the study of the foregoing table it should be observed that in all years, excepting 1916, the income figures are composed of net-gain items. Net losses, when shown on schedules within the returns, are transferred to general deductions, which also contain such other deductions as could not be allocated to any of the sources of income.

The sources of income items for 1916 represent gross income, the deductions not having been allocated to the several sources, but are given in aggregate under "General deductions."

The growth in the number of income-tax returns of individuals, by States, from 1916 to 1925 inclusive, showing net income and tax, as well as the average net income and average tax per return, is exhibited in the basic Table 16.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA — CORRECTED TABLE OF INDIVIDUAL RETURNS FILED FOR 1923, DISTRIBUTED BY INCOME CLASSES

Attention is called to the following corrected table of individual returns filed for 1923 for the District of Columbia. The table for the District of Columbia published in Statistics of Income for 1923 showed net income of $284,622,234 and net tax of $8,083,050. The adjusted figures are, net income $221,950,528 and tax $6,097,678.

CAPITAL STOCK TAX RETURNS

Data compiled from the capital stock tax returns for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1926, filed as of July 1, 1925, are presented in the attached tables. The balance sheets from which the data are tabulated are based on assets and liabilities as of a date not later than June 30, 1925, nor earlier than December 31, 1924.

The compilation represents the data reported by 424,391 corporations. This number is not exactly comparable with the number of corporation income tax returns filed, for the reason that consolidated returns are permitted for closely affiliated corporations for income-tax purposes, whereas separate and distinct capital stock tax returns are required for each corporation regardless of stock ownership or corporate affiliations. That more corporation income tax returns were filed than capital stock tax returns is accounted for by the fact that while most newly organized corporations are familiar with their requirements of filing Federal income tax returns, a large number with capital stock of $10,000 or less are not aware of their responsibility for filing Federal capital stock tax returns and do not file such returns until requested by the local collector. This conclusion is substantiated by the fact that practically all collectors' offices when checking their records of capital stock tax returns filed with the records for corporation income tax locate numerous delinquent corporations, and those returns are filed a year or more subsequent to the time such returns were due.

The returns are segregated into two distinct groups: First, those which contain statements of assets and liabilities; and second, those which do not show these data. Furthermore, those which show assets and liabilities are segregated by taxable and nontaxable returns. Under these captions the returns are further distributed by States and Territories and by industrial groups.

The data tabulated from returns showing assets and liabilities are, under various classifications, the number of returns; current assets comprising cash, accounts receivable, notes receivable, and inventory; fixed property investments, comprising real estate, buildings, and equipment; current liabilities, showing accounts payable, notes payable, also long term liabilities distributed by bonded debt and mortgages; and surplus and deficit. Under capitalization are shown preferred and common stock, fair value, and tax. The data shown are from the returns after adjustment and audit by the Bureau.

The information tabulated from the returns which do not contain statements of assets and liabilities is limited to the number of returns, preferred and common stock, surplus and deficit, fair value, and tax.

The fair value of the capital stock is the estimated value of the entire outstanding stock of the corporation considered as a going concern, giving due consideration to the present worth of the assets, tangible and intangible, the earning capacity, dividends disbursed, the market value of shares, and other factors that affect values generally.

A summary of the data that are shown in greater detail in the accompanying tables is given below. In the items of cash and notes receivable under current assets, and accounts payable under current liabilities, attention is called to the following conditions. Cash includes cash in vault and on deposit and amounts due from other banks as reported in the statements filed by banking concerns. Notes receivable do not include loans and discounts reported in the returns filed by banking concerns, and accounts payable do not include deposits reported in statements of banking concerns.

ESTATE TAX RETURNS

The adjoined tables are compiled from estate tax returns filed during the calendar year ended December 31, 1926, and represent returns actually filed with the Bureau in the twelve months as distinguished from the number of taxable estates originating within the period (the returns not being due until one year after the date of death).

In these tables the size of the net estate is divided into blocks corresponding to the successive taxable blocks as fixed by the revenue act. The tax is not imposed upon the property but upon its transfer to others. The transfer is the subject of the tax, not any particular legacy, devise, or distributive share, and the relationship of the beneficiary to the decedent has no bearing upon the tax liability or the extent thereof. The estate tax is not an inheritance tax, although popularly referred to as such, the distinction being that the estate tax is imposed on an estate in its entirety. The gross estate as reflected in these tables represents the estate of the decedent within the usual meaning of that term together with certain items of property specifically included by statute, as in the case of transfers made in contemplation of death or intended to take effect at or after death. The net estate is the gross estate less the sum of authorized deductions, and in the case of resident decedents a specific exemption of $50,000 with the exception of such returns as were filed for individuals who died on or after February 26, 1926, the date the revenue act of 1926 went into effect, which were allowed a specific exemption of $100,000 and were given a tax credit not to exceed 80 per cent of estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes actually made to any of the several States, Territories, or District of Columbia, instead of 25 per cent.

The tables are based on the data disclosed by the returns as filed but not as determined upon investigation and audit, excepting that under the provisions of the revenue act of 1926, the estate tax rates imposed by the revenue act of 1924 are changed downward and all returns of decedents who died after June 2, 1924, and prior to February 26, 1926, are adjusted to correspond to the reduced rates. The tax shown does not correspond with the actual receipts of taxes during the period for the reason that payments may be made at a later date than the filing of the return and for the further reason that field investigation and office audit may disclose deficiency taxes or excess payments which are not reflected in these tables.

Table 1 is based upon returns of resident decedents distributed by size of net taxable estate, showing form of property and nature of deductions, net taxable estate, total tax, tax credit and net tax. This table gives a detailed analysis showing, by amounts and percentages, the distribution of the gross estate into the several forms of property owned by the decedents at the time of death, and also the distribution of the deductions according to the several classifications entered in the returns under the provisions of the law.

Table 2 shows returns of estates of resident decedents distributed by size of net estate, giving the number of returns, gross and net estate, deductions, total and net tax, tax credit, and the average rate and average amount of tax in the several classes.

Table 3 shows the returns of nonresident decedents distributed by the size of the net estate, the situs of which is in the United States, giving the number of returns, gross and net estate in the United States, tax, average tax, and average tax rate.

Table 4 distributes the returns of resident decedents by States and Territories. It shows the total number of returns and aggregate gross estate, as well as the distribution by estates subject to tax and those not subject to tax of the number of returns, gross and net estate, deductions, total and net tax, and tax credit.
