Classifications are by tax status, size of adjusted gross income, marital status, and type of tax computation.

Additional unpublished information from individual income tax returns, classified by size of adjusted gross income, is available on a reimbursable basis. A public-use computer tape file, i.e., the Individual Tax File, containing the records selected for the Statistics of Income sample is also available on a reimbursable basis. This file is suitable primarily for making national level estimates.

The Statistics of Income Division Statistical Information Services (SIS) staff provides data, statistical analysis, and information in response to requests from customers in the IRS, other Government agencies, congressional offices, businesses, academic institutions, and the public. In addition, the SIS staff provides data referral services, acts as liaison between requesters and IRS analysts on technical questions, and arranges for sales or transmittals of publications and published tables. The SIS staff can be reached by telephone on (202) 874-0410 or by FAX (202) 874-0922.

Section 1

Introduction and Changes in Law*

This report contains complete individual income tax data for Tax Year 1988. The statistics are estimates based on a stratified probability sample of individual income tax returns, selected before audit, and represent coverage of approximately 110 million Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ filed by the nation's taxpayers for Tax Year 1988.

Table A on the following page shows selected income and tax items for Tax Years 1975, 1980, 1985, 1987, and 1988 with the percentage change between Tax Years 1987 and 1988. When comparing income and tax items from different years, it is important to note any changes in tax law that may have affected the composition of the data.

From 1987 to 1988 the number of returns filed increased by almost 2.7 million, or 2.5 percent, and adjusted gross income (AGI) increased by more than $309 billion, or 11.1 percent. The components of AGI showing the largest increases were dividends, business or professional income, and partnership and S corporation net income. Total income tax (the sum of income tax after credits and the alternative minimum tax) rose 11.8 percent for 1988 under the new lower tax rates.

This report is divided into seven sections. Section 1 includes requirements for filing, changes in tax law for 1988 which may affect the statistics, and an explanation of the 1979 Income Using the 1979 Income Concept, Concept. average tax rates are compared from 1986 to 1988, showing the difference before and after tax reform. Section 2 gives a description of the sample of income tax returns upon which the statistics are based, and Section 3 contains the basic tables of detailed statistics on individual tax returns. In Section 4 the data on high income returns are presented. Section 5 provides an explanation of the terms used in the tables. The tax return forms and instructions appear in Section 6, and the last section contains an index.

Requirements for Filing

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, provided the legal basis for tax activity detailed in this volume. For Tax Year 1988, the principal criteria that determined the general filing requirements were gross income, filing status, marital status, age, and, if the taxpayer was a dependent, blindness was also a factor. Figure 1—General Filing Requirements income included all income received in the form of money, property, and services that were not expressly exempt from tax. Generally, a U.S. citizen or resident had to file a tax return if gross income for the year was at least as much as the amount shown for the appropriate filing status in Figure 1 above. Figure 2 must be used if a taxpayer can be claimed as a dependent by another person (such as a parent) on his or her return.

In addition to these filing requirements, an individual had to file a return for Tax Year 1988 if that individual:

- (1) was liable for any of the following taxes:
 - social security tax on unreported tip income;
 - uncollected social security tax or Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA) tax on reported tip income;

- alternative minimum tax;

- tax on an individual retirement arrangement (IRA) or qualified retirement plan; or
- tax from recapture of investment credit or low income housing credit.
- (2) received advanced earned income payments;
- (3) had net earnings of at least $400 from self-employment income; or
- (4) had wages of $100 or more from a church or qualified church-controlled organization that was exempt from employer social security taxes.

Data shown in these tables include individuals who were not required to file tax returns but filed in order to obtain refunds of tax withheld or to take advantage of the earned income credit.

Changes in Law

Tax Year 1988 was the second full year under the Tax Reform Act of 1986 and the year in which most of its provisions were fully implemented. All major changes in effect for Tax Year 1988 that are included in Statistics of Income data are listed below in alphabetical order. Section 5 contains more detailed explanations and definitions of terms used in this report.

Alternative Minimum Tax

For 1988, a married taxpayer filing a separate return who had alternative minimum taxable income of more than $155,000 was required to increase alternative minimum taxable income by 25 percent of the amount it exceeded $155,000, but the increase could not be more than $20,000. The personal exemption amount could no longer be deducted in figuring alternative minimum taxable income. [This change was retroactive to 1987.]

Capital Gains and Losses

For capital assets acquired after December 31, 1987, the holding period for a long-term gain or loss is more than one year, and for a short-term gain or loss, one year or less.

Beginning in 1988, long-term capital gains were taxed at the same rates as ordinary income.

Child Care Credit

Beginning in 1988, taxpayers could no longer include the expenses of sending their children or dependents to an overnight camp when figuring the child care credit.

If someone (such as your parent) can claim you as a dependent, use Figure 2 to see if you must file a return. If your gross income was $1,950 or more, you generally cannot be claimed as a dependent. But, you can be claimed as a dependent on your parents' return if you were under age 19 at the end of 1988 or a full-time student and your parents met the other requirements. Unearned income includes taxable interest and dividends. Earned income includes wages, tips, and taxable scholarships and fellowships.

2. Single dependents 65 or older or blind

• Your earned income was more than $3,750, or

• Your uncarned income was more than $1,250 ($2,000 if 65 or older and blind), or

• Your gross income was more than the total of your earned income (up to $3,000) or $500, whichever is larger, plus $750 ($1,500 if 65 or older and blind).

3. Married dependents under 65

You must file a return if-

• Your earned income was more than $2,500, or

- You had uncarned income and your gross income was more than $500, or
- Your gross income was at least $5 and your spouse files a separate return on Form 1040 and itemizes deductions.
- 4. Married dependents 65 or older or blind

You must file a return if-

• Your earned income was more than $3,100, or

• Your unearned income was more than $1,100 ($1,700 if 65 or older and blind), or

• Your gross income was more than the total of your earned income (up to $2,500), or $500, whichever is larger, plus $600 ($1,200 if 65 or older and blind), or

• Your gross income was at least $5 and your spouse files a separate return on Form 1040 and itemizes deductions.

Earned Income Credit

The earned income credit was increased to a maximum of $874 for 1988. Some credit was available for qualified individuals whose earned income and AGI were each less than $18,576. For 1987, the maximum credit was $851, and the credit phased out entirely if income exceeded $15,432.

Exemptions

The amount of each individual personal exemption increased to $1,950 for 1988 from $1,900 for 1987. Also, beginning in 1988, the amount that could be claimed as a deduction for exemptions was phased out if taxable income exceeded $89,560 if filing status was single, $149,250 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er), $123,790 if head of household, and $113,300 if married filing separately. Married taxpayers filing separately with income over $113,300 figured their tax as if they were allowed an exemption for their spouse whether or not they actually claimed the spousal exemption. See also Tax Rates.

Interest Paid Deduction

Personal interest. Only 40 percent of "personal" interest, such as interest on credit cards, car loans, or personal loans, was deductible for 1988, whereas 65 percent was deductible for 1987.

Mortgage interest. The rules for deducting home mortgage interest changed for 1988. Generally, taxpayers who got a mortgage before October 14, 1987, which was secured by the taxpayer's main or second home, could deduct all the interest. Taxpayers who got a mortgage after October 13, 1987, which was secured by their main or second home, could deduct all interest if the loan (plus any other mortgages on the home) was $1 million or less and the funds were used to buy, build, or improve that home. Also, taxpayers could deduct all of the interest on an additional $100,000 of loans secured by their main or second home.

Minimum Tax Credit

A minimum tax credit could be taken for 1988 by some taxpayers who paid alternative minimum taxes for 1987. The credit was that part of the 1987 alternative minimum tax that was based on adjustments or preference items that deferred tax rather than caused permanent avoidance of tax. If all of the minimum tax credit could not be used for 1988, the excess could be carried forward to future years.

Passive Losses

Under the Tax Reform Act of 1986, some of the "passive" losses (i.e., those generated by any trade, business, or rental activity in which the taxpayer did not materially participate), entered into before October 23, 1986 were allowed to offset "nonpassive income". For Tax Year 1988, 40 percent of such losses were allowed to offset nonpassive income, down from 65 percent allowed for 1987. These disallowed, or nondeductible, passive losses for 1988 could, in many cases, be carried forward to 1989.

Most of the passive loss activity was concentrated in partnerships and rental activities on Schedule E.

Pensions and Annuities

Beginning in 1988, the capital gains treatment of lump sum distributions received from pension plans was phased out except for those taxpayers born on or before January 1, 1936.

The amount of retirement distributions that could be made during the year without incurring the tax on excess distributions was increased to $117,529 for 1988 from $112,500 for 1987.

Self-Employment Tax

The maximum net earnings subject to self-employment tax increased to $45,000 for 1988 from $43,800 for 1987, and the net tax rate increased to 13.02 percent for 1988 from 12.30 percent for 1987.

Standard Deduction

For most taxpayers, the basic standard deduction was increased for 1988 over 1987. The standard deduction rose from $2,540 to $3,000 for single taxpayers, from $3,760 to $5,000 for those filing joint returns, from $1,880 to $2,500 for married filing separately, and from $2,540 to $4,400 for head of household. The standard deduction for taxpayers age 65 or older or blind remained the same as for 1987.

Tax Rates

For 1988, the tax rate schedules contained only two basic rates: 15 percent and 28 percent. But, taxable income over certain levels ($43,150 if single, $35,950 if married filing separately, $61,650 if head of household, and $71,900 if married filing jointly or a qualifying widow(er)) was subject to an additional 5 percent tax. The purpose of this was to phase out the benefit of the 15 percent tax rate and the benefit of the deduction for personal exemptions for taxpayers and dependents. The benefits of the 15 percent tax rate bracket were phased out first. They were completely phased out for an individual at varying levels of taxable income according to filing status: $89,560 for single taxpavers. $113,300 for married filing separately, $123,790 for heads of households, and $149,250 for married filing jointly and qualifying widow(er)s. After the benefits of personal exemptions were also phased out, the individual then paid a 28 percent tax on each additional dollar of taxable income.

The 1979 Income Concept A Retrospective Income Definition

In order to analyze changes in income and taxes over a period of years, an income concept with a consistent definition of income must be used. The income concept available from Federal income tax returns, adjusted gross income (AGI), was designed for tax administration and its definition changes to reflect tax law. New tax laws of the 1980's--the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981, the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982, the Tax Reform Act of 1984, and the Tax Reform Act of 1986--made significant changes to the components of adjusted gross income (AGI), making it more difficult to use AGI for accurate comparisons of income from year to year.

For this reason, it was decided to develop an income definition that would be applicable over several years and allow comparisons both before and after the major tax legislation of the 1980's. The "retrospective" income definition that was developed was called the "1979 Income Concept" and reflected the base period 1979 through 1986. It was calculated using only data available from individual income tax returns; and, by using the same income items in the calculation each year, its definition was consistent throughout the base years. In addition, this "retrospective" income definition could be used to compare income of future years to income for these prior years by continuing to include the same components that were common to all years [1]. (For a more complete explanation of other income concepts see Appendix A of Section 4, "High Income Returns: Taxable and Nontaxable," in this report.)

The calculation of the 1979 Income Concept is shown in Figure 3. Several items partially excluded from AGI for the base years were fully included in this new income measure, the largest of which was the capital gains exclusion. The full amount of all capital gains, as well as all

Total pensions, annuities, IRA distributions, and rollovers were added, including the nontaxable portion that was excluded from AGI. Social security benefits were omitted because they were not reported on the tax return until 1984. Also, any depreciation deduction in excess of straight-line depreciation that was subtracted in computing AGI was added back.

Deductions that could be subtracted in the calculation of the 1979 Income Concept were limited to employee business expenses, alimony paid, and moving expenses. These same items were also subtracted in computing AGI until 1987 when unreimbursed business expenses and moving expenses were changed from "adjustments" to "itemized deductions."

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 made extensive changes in the calculation of AGI beginning in 1987. These changes made it necessary to revise the calculation of the 1979 Income Concept in order to make tax years beginning with 1987 comparable to the base years, 1979 to 1986. The new law limited the deduction of passive losses and eliminated unreimbursed business expenses and moving expenses as "adjustments" in figuring AGI beginning with Tax Year 1987. Since passive losses had been fully deductible for both income measures prior to 1987, the disallowed passive losses for 1987 had to be deducted in the 1979 Income Concept calculation of 1987 income.

Unreimbursed business expenses and moving expenses were allowed only as an "itemized deduction" beginning in 1987, in contrast to prior years when these two expenses were subtracted in computing AGI. The amount reported for these two expenses by taxpayers who itemized deductions could be subtracted in the calculation of the 1979 Income Concept. But, taxpayers who did not itemize deductions could not claim either of these two expenses as they were allowed to do before 1987. For this reason, the deduction for these two expenses beginning in 1987 was not comparable to that for previous years.

Comparison of AGI with 1979 Income Concept

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 made extensive changes in the composition of AGI beginning in Tax Year 1987. The Act incorporated into AGI most of the income items included in the 1979 Income Concept. Some income, such as capital gains, that had been partially excluded from AGI under prior law was fully included. The new law also eliminated or restricted some deductions. For this reason, if AGI is used to measure income, any comparison of 1986 income and tax data with that for 1987 or 1988 is misleading. A more accurate comparison can be made using the 1979 Income Concept because it measures income in the same way for all three years.

Table B shows total income and selected tax items for 1988 using AGI and the 1979 Income Concept. Income, as calculated by the two measures, showed little difference for 1988 with most provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 (TRA) in effect. Before tax reform, when income measured by AGI and the 1979 Income Concept were compared at each income level, the differences were most pronounced at income levels of $200,000 or more. But, with the elimination of preferential treatment of various income items by TRA, such as the exclusion of capital gains, much of the difference disappeared. Under tax law prior to 1987, the capital gains exclusion accounted for the largest difference at the higher income levels between the two income measures.

Total income for all returns, using the 1979 Income Concept, increased over 10 percent from 1987 to 1988; but total income for the highest income group—$200,000 and above—increased over 50 percent. Total income taxes reported for the $200,000 and above income group increased almost 38 percent from 1987 to 1988.

The average tax rates (income tax as a percentage of total income) for each income class for 1986, 1987, and 1988, based on AGI and the 1979 Income Concept, are shown in Figure 4. Based on the 1979 Income Concept, average tax rates declined or remained the same from 1987 to 1988 in every income category with the exception of incomes under $10,000, which rose slightly. At incomes over $70,000 the decrease was larger, with incomes of $200,000 and above showing the largest decline in average tax rates. A factor in this larger decrease for the highest income groups was the lower marginal tax rate of 28 percent for 1988 compared to 38.5 percent for 1987.

When average tax rates for 1988 (based on the 1979 Income Concept) are compared to those for 1986 (before tax reform), the rates declined for incomes below $90,000. For incomes of $90,000 and above, average tax rates increased for most income groups, especially for incomes of $1,000,000 and over, which rose from 21.4 percent for 1986 to 24.5 percent for 1988.

Although this higher average tax rate for 1988 was calculated using a lower marginal tax rate—28 percent for 1988 compared to 50 percent for 1986—it was calculated on income which included all capital gains (long-term gains could be partially excluded from income for 1986.) Also, certain deductions from income that were allowed for 1986, were limited or eliminated for 1987 and 1988.

This section describes the sample selection and criteria, and the method of estimation contained in this report. It also describes some of the limitations of the data.

Sample Selection

The statistics in this report were estimated from a stratified probability sample of unaudited Individual Income Tax Returns, Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ filed by U.S. citizens and residents. The sample was designated at the Martinsburg Computing Center and was processed at the ten Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Centers during Calendar Year 1989. The total sample of 110,634 returns was selected from a population of 110,088,189 returns.

All returns processed during 1989 were subjected to sampling except tentative and amended returns. Tentative returns were not subjected to sampling because the revised returns may have been sampled later on, while amended returns were excluded because the original returns had already been subjected to sampling. A small percentage of returns were not identified as tentative or amended until after sampling. These returns along with those that contained no income information were excluded from the tables in this report. Sample returns representing 377,023 returns were excluded from the tables as a result.

The estimates in this report are intended to represent all returns filed for Tax Year 1988. While about 97 percent of the returns processed during Calendar Year 1989 were for Tax Year 1988, a few were for noncalendar years ending during 1988 and 1989, and some were returns for prior years. Returns for prior years were used in place of 1988 returns received and processed after December 31, 1989. This was done in the belief that the characteristics of returns due but not yet processed could best be represented by the returns for previous income years that were processed in 1989. Therefore, data for Tax Year 1988 may include amounts for discontinued items, such as the deduction for a working married couple, reported on prior year returns processed in 1989.

Sample Design and Selection Criteria

Data from Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ processed to the IRS Individual Master File System at the National Computing Center during Calendar Year 1989 were classified, by computer, into sample strata. These strata were based on the larger of total income or total loss amounts and the size of business plus farm receipts. In addition, the strata were based on the presence or absence of a Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income; a Form 1116, Computation of Foreign Tax Credit; a Schedule C, Profit or Loss from ^{*}Bonnye Walker designed the sample and prepared the text and tables in this section under the direction of Yahia Ahmed, Chief, Mathematical Statistics Team, Coordination and Publication Staff.

Business; a Schedule F, Farm Income and Expenses; and a Form 4835, Farm Rental Income and Expenses. Twenty variables were used to derive the total income and loss amounts.

Returns were then selected from the sample strata using two methodologies. One method used certain ending digits of the social security number (SSN), and the second method used ending digits of numbers generated from transformations of the SSN. The sampling rates for the various strata ranged from 0.03 percent to 100 percent.

Table C contains the number of returns in the population and sample-by-sample stratum for the United States. A comparison of the population counts in Table C with the total shown in the national tables of this report will disclose a small difference. This difference is the result of having excluded an estimated 377,023 returns (see below).

Method of Estimation

Weighting factors were obtained by dividing the population count of returns in a sample stratum by the number of sample returns for that stratum. These weighting factors were used to generate all of the estimated numbers of returns and amounts in this report.

Table Presentation

Whenever a weighted frequency is less than 3, the estimate and its corresponding amount are combined or deleted in order to avoid disclosure of information for specific taxpayers. These combinations and deletions are indicated by a double asterisk () and by a dagger (†), respectively. Estimates based on less than 10 sampled returns are considered to be unreliable. These estimates are noted by a single asterisk (*) to the left of the data unless all of the sampled returns are selected with certainty (at the 100 percent rate). In the tables, a dash (-) in place of a frequency or an amount indicates that either no returns in the population had the characteristic or the characteristic was so rare that it did not appear on any of the sampled returns.

Processing and Management of the Sample

While the sample was being selected, the selection process was monitored by applying prescribed sampling rates for each stratum to the population for that stratum. A follow-up was required to reconcile differences between the actual number of returns designated for each sample strata and the expected number.

In transcribing and tabulating the information from the returns in the sample, checks were imposed to improve the quality of the resulting estimates. Incorrect or missing entries on the sampled record were altered during statistical editing to make them consistent with other entries on the return and accompanying schedules. Data were also adjusted during processing in an attempt to achieve consistent statistical definitions. For example, a taxpayer may have reported director's fees on the "other income" line of the Form 1040 return. If this situation had been detected during statistical processing, the amount of director's fees would have been transferred to salaries and wages in the sample record.

The quality of the sample data was controlled at the IRS service centers by means of a continuous verification system that used computer tests to check for mathematical errors and inconsistent or missing data [1, 2].

Some returns designated for the sample are not available for SOI processing because other areas of IRS, such as Audit and Collection, need the return at the same time as SOI. These returns are referred to as unavailable returns. During Tax Year 1988, there were 166 unavailable returns which constituted about one tenth of one percent of the designated sample. After the completion of service center review, data were further validated, tested, and balanced at the Detroit Computing Center. Computer adjustments and imputations for selected fields were used to make each record internally consistent. Data were then tabulated.

A small subsample of returns was selected and independently reviewed, analyzed, and processed for a quality evaluation. Finally, prior to publication, all statistics and tables were reviewed for accuracy and reasonableness in light of provisions of the tax laws, taxpayer reporting variations and-limitations, economic conditions, comparability with other statistical series, and statistical techniques used in data processing.

Sample Redesign

A complete revision to the sample design used to produce the statistics from individual income tax returns is being phased in over a 5-year period beginning with Tax Year 1987 and ending with Tax Year 1991. In addition to new strata classes and methods of estimation, the revisions include the development of a longitudinal panel. For additional details on the redesign see [3], [4], [5], [6] and [7].

¹ For 1988, the tax rate schedules contained only two basic rates: 15 percent and 28 percent. However, taxable income over certain levels were subject to an additional 5 percent tax, making for a temporary 33 percent marginal rate. The purpose of this was to phase out the benefit of the 15 percent rate and the benefit of the deduction for personal exemptions for taxpayers and dependents. After these benefits were phased out, the marginal tax rate reverted to 28 percent. At that point, the average tax rate was also 28 percent. NOTE: Detail may not add to total because of rounding.

Section 4

High-Income Returns: Taxable and Nontaxable*

Introduction

Each year, a small number of individual income tax returns which report income of $200,000 or more do not show any income tax liability. Although such returns represent only a tiny fraction of all Federal income tax returns with high incomes (fewer than 1 in 800 returns), they generate a great deal of interest. Attention focuses on the features of the income tax system that seem to permit some high-income people to completely avoid Federal income tax at the same time that other taxpayers, most of whom have much lower incomes, have tax liabilities amounting to significant shares of their incomes. Information on the reasons for nontaxability of some high-income filers may provide a basis for discussing whether such features are necessary and appropriate in a broad-based income tax system.

The Tax Reform Act of 1976 required annual publication of data on individuals with high incomes, including the number of such individuals who did not pay any income tax and the importance of various tax provisions in making those individuals nontaxable [1]. The 1976 Act specified that the tax return data be tabulated using four different concepts of income [2]. The Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 eliminated the requirement for publishing data for the two lesser-used income concepts [3]. Data for the years 1974 through 1987 have been published previously [4].

This Section contains the available highincome tax return data for 1988, with emphasis on high-income returns which are nontaxable. At the end of the text but preceding the tables are two appendices which include summaries of the definitions and concepts which are crucial to an understanding of high-income tax returns in general and nontaxable, high-income returns in particular. Appendix A, "Income Concepts: A Primer," describes and explains the differences between the two concepts used to measure income. Appendix B, "Measurement of Taxes," discusses the proper measurement of income tax burdens, explains the different treatment of the foreign tax credit, outlines the methodology used to equate the importance of exclusions and deductions as compared with tax credits, and reviews certain limitations in the data underlying this Section.

This Section includes twelve tables with data representing 1988 income tax returns, mainly those with incomes of $200,000 or more under one or more different concepts of income. Most of the data are shown for taxable and nontaxable returns both separately and combined.

The tables show:

- The numbers of total and high-income returns (taxable, nontaxable, and combined) separately for the expanded income and the adjusted gross income concepts (Tables 1 and 2);
- The distributions of taxable income as a percentage of total income (Tables 3 and 4);
- The frequencies and amounts of various sources of income, exclusions, deductions, taxes, and tax credits, as well as the relationship between the two different income concepts used in this Section (Tables 5 and 6);
- The frequencies with which various deductions and tax credits are the most important and second most important items in reducing (or eliminating) income taxes (Tables 7 and 8);
- The frequencies with which various itemized deductions and tax credits occur as certain percentages of income (Tables 9 and 10); and
- The distributions of effective tax rates, i.e., income tax as a percentage of income, for all returns and for high-income returns (Tables 11 and 12).

In addition to the data on high-income returns, the tables distribute all 1988 returns by broad income classes and cross-classify numbers of returns in each income class by each of the two income concepts. For purposes of comparison, the tables with distributions of returns by their effective tax rates include distributions for returns other than high-income returns.

Tables 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, and 11 contain data with foreign tax credits treated as items which reduce U.S. income taxes; this is the treatment on tax returns. Tables 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, and 12 are similar to the first set of tables but treat foreign tax credits as part of the individual's income tax liability. In these tables, tax is referred to as "Modified Total Income Tax." This different treatment is explained in more detail under the heading "Foreign Tax Credits" in Appendix B.

Numbers of High-Income Tax Returns

For 1988, the number of tax returns with expanded income of at least $200,000 was 737,659 which represented 0.67 percent of all tax returns filed. The number of tax returns with AGI of at least $200,000 was 725,345, which represented 0.66 percent of all tax returns filed.

As the result of the inclusion in AGI since 1987 of 100 percent of long-term capital gains, the difference between the numbers of high-income returns under the two income concepts is substantially less than in years prior to 1987. That change, together with the limitations on deductions for various forms of tax-sheltered activities, makes the current definition of AGI a better measure of true economic income than it was prior to 1987.

Nontaxable High-Income Returns

For 1988, of the 737,659 income tax returns with expanded income of $200,000 or more, 397, or 0.054 percent, had no U.S. income tax liability; and 309, or 0.042 percent, showed no worldwide income tax liability. If not for the Alternative Minimum Tax, 866 income tax returns, or 0.117 percent, would have had no U.S. income tax liability and 778, or 0.105 percent, would have had no worldwide income tax liability [5]. Of the 725,345 tax returns filed in 1989 with AGI of $200,000 or more, 822 or 0.113 percent, reported no U.S. income tax; and 731, or 0.101 percent, had no worldwide tax liability. If not for the Alternative Minimum Tax, 1,657 income tax returns, or 0.228 percent, would have had no U.S. income tax liability and 1,566, or 0.216 percent, would have had no worldwide income tax liability.

Income Concepts: A Primer

This Appendix contains an explanation of the differences between the two concepts of income which are used in this Section and an outline of how these concepts differ from the ideal economic concept of income. The two major conceptual differences between the income measures are detailed, and the exact relationships between the concepts are defined.

Economic Income, the Ideal Measure

Economists generally agree that for analyzing the impact of taxes, the ideal measure of income over a particular period of time, say a year, is the value of what the individual or family consumed over that period plus the change, if any, in its net worth [A1]. For example, if during a year a family spent $25,000 and saved $2,000, economists would say the family had an income of $27,000. Similarly, if the family spent $25,000 but owned an asset such as an automobile that decreased in value by $1,000, economists would say that the family had an income of only $24,000. A brief examination of the differences between income as defined by economists, often called economic income, and the adjusted gross income (AGI) concept, used for Federal income tax administration, illustrates some of the problems of measuring income, especially for high-income individuals.

Adjusted Gross Income

The concept of adjusted gross income was developed for tax administration. It has never been meant to be an accurate measure of economic income. Indeed, it is well recognized that AGI is deficient as a measure of economic income. AGI excludes certain types of income, such as interest from tax-exempt State and local Government bonds, most social security benefits, imputed rent on owner-occupied housing, and the value of many employee fringe benefits. (Beginning with 1987, unlike immediately prior years, AGI does include 100 percent of net realized long-term capital gains.) Also, while not strictly excluded from AGI, income from other activities is deferred to a later year, or indefinitely, for income purposes. tax Depreciation deductions allowed for income tax purposes that exceed the decrease in the economic value of an asset often reduce AGI below economic income early in an asset's life. The resulting lower depreciation deductions in later years may raise AGI above economic income. The net effect, however, of accelerated depreciation is to postpone taxes, perhaps indefinitely [A2].

Adjusted gross income excludes most changes in net worth, such as all accrued, but unrealized, capital gains [A3].

Even though some types of income are excluded, AGI may overstate economic income because some expenses incurred in the production of income are not deductible in the computation of AGI. Most of these expenses, however, are deductible from AGI in calculating taxable income, but only if the taxpayer "itemizes" deductions and then in some cases only to the extent that the sum of all such items exceeds 2 percent of AGI. Expenses incurred in the production of income that are itemized deductions include certain expenses of employees (such as union dues, expenditures for items used on-the-job but not reimbursed by the employer, and employees' travel, meal and entertainment expenses), job-related moving expenses, and expenses attributable to a taxpayer's investments (as opposed to the active operation of a trade or business) including, but not limited to, interest expense incurred in connection with investments in securities.

Although net capital losses reduce economic income, only the first $3,000 of net realized capital losses may be deducted in computing AGI. Any additional realized losses must be carried forward to future years.

Redefining Income

Ideally, the impact of all taxes should be measured relative to economic income. However, no accurate, detailed data on such a broadlydefined income measure are available from income tax returns (or from any other source) for a cross-section of American taxpayers. As a practical matter, any broad income measure for a large group of taxpayers must be calculated from data already available from Federal individual income tax returns. Thus, a more comprehensive income measure must start from AGI and, to the extent that data are available, must make adjustments for omitted income items and expenses that ought to be deductible in calculating economic income [A4].

Omitted Income and Accelerated Deductions

Tax returns contain information about only a portion of the income included in economic income but excluded from AGI. The omitted income that could be identified on 1988 income tax returns consisted of: interest received on tax-exempt State and local Government bonds; current-year capital losses in excess of currently deductible amounts; payments to self-employed retirement (Keogh) and Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA) pension savings plans; some social security benefits; and income from sources considered to be tax preferences for purposes of the alternative minimum tax. Even if no alternative minimum tax is due, such preferences are generally supposed to be reported on Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax Computation, which is supposed to accompany the person's income tax return [A5].

Even after including preference income which was not in AGI but which was identifiable on 1988 tax returns, several major sources of income for high-income taxpayers were still omitted [A6]:

- All accrued but unrealized income, primarily unrealized capital gains;
- Certain agricultural expenses deducted when paid, even though related income items are not includable in income until a later year;
- Imputed rental income from owneroccupied housing and from consumer durables;
- Straight-line depreciation deductions on real estate to the extent that they exceed economic depreciation;
- Income "sheltered" from taxation primarily partnership income — through deferral of the recognition of income for tax purposes or the acceleration of deduction items (although these "sheltered" items are more limited in 1988 than previously); and
- The value of employee fringe benefits.

For real estate, the combination of a shorter life for tax purposes than the true economic life of the property and the use of accelerated depreciation methods may produce tax depreciation deductions exceeding economic depreciation, especially in the early years of ownership. Subsequently, income may be correspondingly higher, but in the meantime, the taxpayer has had the interest-free use of the deferred taxes.

Conceptual differences between income subject to ordinary tax and income benefiting from tax-preferred treatment may also lead to some understatement of income. Because of tax benefits, individuals may be willing to accept lower rates of return on investments yielding tax-preferred income. If one views that reduction in potential income as an "implicit tax" on that income (paid in lieu of ordinary tax), then the reporting of fully taxable and tax-preferred income is not consistent. Fully taxable income is being reported on a pre-tax basis, whereas a tax-preferred income is being shown on an after-tax basis. See "Implicit Tax" in Appendix B for further discussion of this concept.

Because income sources not identifiable from tax return data are excluded, all income measures used in the data for this Section may understate economic income. As a consequence, some individuals with high economic incomes may have been omitted completely from the high-income group covered by this report. Moreover, the income of some individuals who are included may have been understated, and tax as a percentage of income (i.e., the effective tax rate) may have been overstated.

Expenses

In measuring economic income, it generally would be appropriate to deduct all expenses incurred in the production of income, including any income-producing those related to Since economic income would investments. include all investment income, including accrued capital gains and losses, it would be proper to deduct all investment expenses without limit. Investment expenses in excess of income would then represent net economic losses, roughly akin to "net operating losses" from a trade or business.

However, such a liberal deduction for investmentrelated expenses is not necessarily correct when all income items have not been included currently.

If all income has not been included currently, full deduction of investment expenses might represent a mismatching of receipts and expenses and might result in understating income. For example, if a taxpayer borrowed funds to purchase securities, net income would be understated if the taxpayer deducted all interest payments on the loan but did not include as income any accrued gains on the securities. A similar mismatching of income and expenses would occur if investment expenses that should properly be capitalized were deducted when paid. In these instances, a more accurate measure of income might be obtained by postponing the deduction of the expense until such time as the income were recognized for tax purposes.

Additional problems are created when a person with a loan has both income-producing assets, such as securities, and non-income-producing assets, such as a vacation home or yacht. It is not possible to determine what portion of the interest expense should be attributed to taxable income-producing assets and, therefore, ought to be deductible against the gross receipts from such taxable assets.

As a result of these problems, it has been necessary to set arbitrary limits on the amount of investment expenses which are deductible in calculating a broader measure of income.

Investment expenses that have not been deducted in determining AGI generally can appear on a Federal individual income tax return in two places. Investment interest is taken into account in the calculation of the itemized deduction for Other investment expenses, such as interest. are included management fees, in the miscellaneous category of itemized deductions [A7]. Beginning in 1987, most of the types of income-producing expenses included as miscellaneous itemized deductions are only deductible to the extent that their total exceeds 2 percent of AGI. To determine expenses that should be deductible in calculating an approximation of economic income, investment expenses have been defined as the entire interest deduction other than the interest paid on a home mortgage. Other investment expenses could not be determined since they could not be separated remainder "miscellaneous" from the of deductions. Hence, they have not been used in the adjustment for investment expenses.

To the extent that interest expenses do not exceed investment income, they have been allowed as a deduction in the computation of a broader measure of income. Investment interest expenses which do exceed investment income are not deductible in calculating the broader income measure. One consequence of this definition is that investment expenses can never turn positive investment income into investment losses. Generally, allowing investment expenses to offset all investment income is generous and tends to understate broadly-measured income. However, in some instances, limiting investment expenses to investment income may overstate income by disallowing genuine investment losses. This arbitrary procedure has been selected because, especially with the omission of accrued capital gains from measured income, allowing all investment expenses to be deducted would represent a mismatching of income and expenses.

Certain expenses incurred in the production of income can be identified as itemized deductions. Such expenses subtracted in the calculation of expanded income include unreimbursed employee business expenses and work-related moving expenses.

Expanded Income

The Congress has asked for high-income data to be tabulated on the basis of a measure closely approximating economic income but using only data available on tax returns. This measure is called "expanded income."

Expanded income is defined as adjusted gross income (AGI) plus tax preference and other income items excluded from AGI less investment expenses to the extent that they do not exceed investment income, and less other identifiable expenses incurred in the production of income. [A8]. Tax preferences considered for 1988 were tax-exempt State and local Government bond interest and, where the taxpayer filed a Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax Computation, all other excluded income preferences subject to the minimum tax [A9] [A10]. For individuals, the only Alternative Minimum Tax preference items of significance are the excess of accelerated depreciation over straight-line depreciation on real property and on personal property subject to a lease (for property placed in service before 1987), the excess of percentage depletion over the cost of the property, the deduction for intangible drilling costs in excess of the amounts deductible if these costs had been amortized, incentive stock options, and the appreciated portion of the value of property contributed to charitable organizations. Upward adjustments are made for nontaxable social security benefits. Downward adjustments are made for unreimbursed employee business expenses, nondeductible rental loss, and the moving expense deduction. Because expanded income is based on tax return data, it excludes items such as accrued but unrealized capital gains. straight-line depreciation on real estate in excess of economic depreciation, most employee fringe benefits, and other items mentioned above, under "Omitted Income and Accelerated Deductions."

Two Income Measures

Current law requires high-income tax return data to be selected and classified on the basis of two different definitions of income: expanded income and adjusted gross income. Expanded income is the measure which most closely approximates economic income [A11]. Expanded income and AGI are related in the following manner [A12]:

Expanded Income

- = Adjusted gross income
- + identifiable omitted income
- identifiable income production expenses

Adjusted Gross Income

- = Expanded income
- + identifiable income production expenses
- identifiable omitted income

For any given taxpayer, AGI can be smaller or larger than expanded income depending on whether the amount of identifiable income excluded from AGI is larger or smaller than the identifiable expenses of producing income which are not deductible in calculating AGI.

Notes to Appendix A

- [A1] This is the Haig-Simons definition of income.
- [A2] For Tax Year 1988, the Internal Revenue Code defined adjusted gross income as all gross income not specifically excluded, and reduced by statutory adjustments. Among the exclusions were trade or business deductions (but generally not employee business expenses), depreciation deductions allowable for tax purposes, limited deductions for losses from the sale or exchange of property, certain deductions attributable to rents and royalty income, and deductions for contributions to individual retirement arrangements (IRA's) and self-employed retirement (Keogh) plans. In addition, gross income does not include the value of the services received from the use of durable goods, such as imputed net rent from owner-occupied homes or from consumer durables. Finally, gross income and, hence, adjusted gross income, do not include interest on most types of State and local Government debt, most social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, and most types of welfare benefits.

- [A3] Gross income includes only income that has been "realized." Thus, for Federal income tax purposes, accrued increases or decreases in the value of assets are generally not included in income until any gain or loss is realized by a sale or exchange.
- [A4] There have been attempts to create microdata files that include approximations of economic income. Tax return data files have been "statistically merged", i.e., merged with information for persons having similar characteristics, with other files such as the Current Population Survey (CPS) of the Bureau of the Census. After the merge, certain additional data items that were not on either file have been "imputed" to each record of the merged file. Although such statistically merged files have proven useful for many purposes, they have only limited use-and must be used with great caution-for high-income individuals and families, each of which is likely to have more nearly unique financial and income characteristics that are not likely to be duplicated accurately through imputations or statistical merges.
- [A5] The tax preferences (obtained from Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax Computation) excluded from adjusted gross income, tabulated in Tables 5 and 6, include the following items: the excess of accelerated depreciation over straight-line depreciation on certain real property and property subject to a lease (for property placed in service before 1987); the excess of rapid amortization allowable on certain capital expenditures (such as pollution control facilities) over depreciation otherwise allowable; the appreciated portion of the value of property contributed to charitable organizations; the excess of percentage depletion over the "adjusted basis" of the property; unrealized gain on the exercise of stock options; and certain intangible drilling costs to the extent that they exceeded the otherwise allowable amortization deductions. Preferences from itemized deductions did not represent omitted income; hence, they were not counted as preference items in calculating a broader measure of income. The preference from tax-exempt interest from certain private activity bonds was not included since the interest for all tax-exempt State and local Government bonds was considered as omitted income.

- [A6] Omission of nontaxable social security benefits which are not shown on tax returns and certain other items is relatively unimportant for high-income taxpayers.
- [A7] Some income deferrals and accelerated expense deductions may also be involved in income or losses from rental property, from royalties, from partnerships, and from certain small business corporations, only the net amounts of which are included in adjusted gross income.
- [A8] For the sake of brevity, "investment interest to the extent that it does not exceed investment income" is called "investment interest." "Investment interest in excess of investment income" is called "excess investment interest."
- [A9] See footnote [A5].
- [A10] Beginning in 1987, taxpayers were required to report on their Federal income tax returns the amount of their tax-exempt interest income from State and local Government bonds. However, such interest income generally was not taxable.

- [A11] Because of the inclusion starting in 1988 of tax-exempt State and local Government bond interest in the calculation of "expanded income," this income concept may not be strictly comparable to "expanded income" calculated for years prior to 1987. The subtraction of unreimbursed employee business expense. nondeductible rental loss, and the moving expense deduction is to make the concept of expanded income comparable to years prior to 1987. Because of the inclusion of nontaxable social security benefits for 1988, the income concept for 1988 is not strictly comparable to expanded income calculated for 1987.
- [A12] The borderline between excess and nonexcess investment interest depends on the income items actually included under each income concept. Hence, the size of the investment interest adjustment differs depending on which income concept is used.

Appendix B

Measurement of Taxes

This Appendix discusses the proper measurement of income tax burdens. First, two different treatments of the foreign tax credit are explained: as a tax on income; or as an item of tax preference. Second, the concept of an implicit tax on tax preference income is discussed. Third, the Appendix includes an outline of the methodology used in the tabulations of 1988 tax return data to equate the importance of tax credits with exclusions and deductions from the income base subject to tax. Finally, certain limitations in the underlying tax return data are summarized.

Foreign Tax Credits: Worldwide Taxes on Worldwide Income

Just as income must be measured properly, so must income taxes.

U.S. income taxes are based on worldwide income. Thus, U.S. citizens and residents generally must include income on their U.S. income tax returns regardless of whether it has been generated in the United States or in a foreign country. However, when a taxpayer has foreign source income, the U.S. income tax computed on global income often may be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount of foreign income tax that has been paid on that foreign income. These offsets for foreign income taxes are called "foreign tax credits" [B1].

Statistics of Income (SOI) data collected as a by-product of tax administration include global income as reported on U.S. income tax returns. The SOI data, however, usually include as taxes only U.S. income taxes net of the foreign tax credits that represent offsets for foreign income tax payments. For taxpayers with income from foreign sources, this procedure understates worldwide tax liabilities and effective tax rates. Since worldwide income is reported on U.S. tax returns, a more accurate measure of the tax burden imposed on that income would be obtained if all income taxes-U.S. as well as foreign-were considered. Analysis indicates that a substantial portion of the so-called non-taxable, high-income tax returns report that large shares of their income are from non-U.S. sources and that substantial amounts of foreign income taxes have been paid on that income. Thus, it does not seem appropriate to classify such taxpayers as nontaxable or to classify foreign tax credits as special tax benefits [B2].

In order to present a more realistic picture of the number of nontaxable, high-income tax returns and the reasons they are nontaxable, several tables in this Section have been prepared by redefining income tax liability to consist of the total amount of U.S. income taxes (income taxes after credits plus the alternative minimum tax) plus the amount of foreign tax credits. Because information on foreign tax liabilities is not readily available in tabulations from U.S. income tax returns, foreign tax credits as shown on U.S. income tax returns are used as a proxy for foreign tax liabilities. Where foreign tax rates exceed U.S. rates, and in certain other instances, foreign tax credits actually will be less than foreign tax liabilities. In such cases, using foreign tax credits as a proxy for foreign taxes understates global income tax liability. In cases in which foreign tax credits are for taxes paid on income from earlier years, use of foreign tax credits may either overstate or understate global taxes on the current year's income.

The tables redefining tax liability to include the foreign tax credit attempt to present an approximation of the true worldwide income tax burden on worldwide income. For the vast majority of taxpayers-with high incomes or otherwise-this adjustment is irrelevant, for they have little or no foreign-source income. However, for the small proportion of taxpayers with substantial foreign income, this adjustment is important. The policy implications of a person with a very large amount of income not paying U.S. income tax certainly would be different if U.S. nontaxability were the result of the person's living and working abroad and paying substantial amounts of foreign taxes than if all income were from U.S. sources and the person paid no income tax either to the U.S. Government or to any other government.

In order to be consistent with other SOI tabulations, all tables showing nontaxability or the amount of taxability on the basis of worldwide tax liability have been duplicated by other tables with tax liability defined in the more traditional way used for tax administration purposes: U.S. income tax liability after subtracting the value of any foreign tax credits. Tables 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, and 11 contain data with foreign tax credits treated as items which reduce U.S. income tax liabilities. Tables 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, and 12 include foreign tax credits as part of the individual's income tax liability.

Implicit Tax

Income from certain tax-preferred sources is either not subject to any Federal individual income tax or benefits from reduced tax rates or the deferral of taxation, or both. To the extent that the income from such sources has been reduced because of the existence of tax preferences, the stated tax on such income understates the amount of tax effectively paid by the recipient of that income. In addition to any income tax actually paid, there is an "implicit tax" equal to the amount by which the income from that source has been reduced because of the tax preferences. Thus, the benefit to the recipient of tax-preferred income is less than the stated tax preference to the extent that the gross income from that source has been reduced in anticipation of the tax preference. As a result, an individual may be indifferent between a lower-yield, nontaxable income source and a higher-yield taxable source.

Tax-exempt income from State and local Government bonds provides the clearest example of an "implicit tax." Because of the tax exemption, the interest rate on tax-exempt bonds is generally lower than the interest rate on taxable bonds with equivalent risk and maturity. The yields between tax-exempt and taxable bonds generally differ by an amount such that the yield on the tax-exempt bonds will be about the same or slightly more than the after-tax yield on an equivalent taxable bond. In reality, the holders of tax-exempt bonds are paying an "implicit tax" which is equal to the spread between the interest rates on the tax-free bond and the equivalent taxable bond multiplied by the face value of the bonds.

The main difference between implicit tax and ordinary Federal income tax is the recipient of the tax revenue. The general fund of the Federal Government receives the ordinary Federal income tax revenue whereas the implicit tax revenue is usually divided between the payer and the recipient of the tax-preferred income. The government entity issuing a tax-exempt bond receives part of the implicit tax in the form of reduced rates on interest paid on those bonds. For other assets producing tax-preferred income, some of the implicit tax is received by the seller of the asset in the form of a higher price reflecting the capitalized value of some of the stream of tax benefits.

No attempts have been made in this Section to measure implicit taxes. Accordingly, taxes paid and tax rates have not been adjusted to reflect implicit taxes on tax preference income.

Adjusting Income for Implicit Tax

It should also be noted that compared with income from other sources, the gross income from tax-preferred sources is understated by the amount by which that income has been reduced by the portion of the above-mentioned "implicit tax" which benefits the recipient of the income. In theory, when measuring income, it would be appropriate to "gross up" the amount of tax-preferred income received by the portion of the implicit tax on that income which has actually benefitted the recipient of the income. Since no attempt has been made to measure implicit taxes for this Section, incomes have not been increased to reflect the value of implicit taxes.

Comparing Exclusions, Deductions, Tax Credits, and Special Tax Computations

In order to compare the importance of various exclusions, deductions, tax credits, and special tax computations (such as the alternative minimum tax on tax preferences), the different types of items must be put on the same basis. One way of doing so is to calculate the size of the deduction that would reduce (or increase) income tax by the same amount as a tax credit. This amount is called the "deduction equivalent" of the tax credit.

The deduction equivalent of a tax credit or a special tax computation is the difference between the taxable income that, using ordinary tax rate schedules, would yield the actual tax before the provision in question is considered and the actual tax after the provision. For example, the "deduction equivalent of all tax credits" is equal to the difference between "taxable income which would yield tax before credits" and "taxable income which would yield tax after credits."

Using this method of equating the value of deductions, exclusions, credits, and special tax computations, the order in which the various credits and special tax computations are calculated may affect the value of their deduction equivalents. Because the tax rate schedules are progressive with successive increments to income taxed at successively higher tax rates, the deduction equivalent of the credit converted last to a deduction equivalent will be larger (for the same amount of a credit) than the item converted first, unless all relevant taxable income amounts are within a single tax rate bracket.

The deduction equivalents of tax credits shown in the accompanying tables were computed by assuming that deductions and exclusions reduced taxes before tax credits. As a result, the deduction equivalent of tax credits is biased upwards.

Share of Income Subject to Tax

The total impact of various deductions, exclusions. tax credits. and special tax computations can be measured only if the aggregate value of all, or groups, of these items in reducing, or increasing, income taxes is put on a comparable basis. Two often-used measures of the value of deductions and exclusions are (1) the share of income that has been excluded from tax and (2) the share of income that remains subject to tax. The latter measure can also include the impact of tax credits and special tax computations if the deduction equivalent of these items is added to taxable income defined in the ordinary manner. Doing so yields what the tables accompanying this Section call "taxable income which would yield income tax before credits," "taxable income which would yield income tax after credits," and "taxable income which would yield total income tax." These measures could be computed directly from taxable income and from the deduction equivalents of the appropriate items. However, these measures have been computed by using the tax rate schedules to calculate the amounts of taxable income that would have been necessary (when subject to tax under the appropriate, ordinary tax rate schedule) to yield the given amounts of tax.

Unaudited Data

Tax return data used in the Statistics of Income program have been tabulated as they have been reported on tax returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Certain, obvious arithmetic errors have been corrected, and certain adjustments have been made to achieve consistent statistical definitions. Otherwise, the data have not been altered. In particular, the data do not reflect any changes that may have been made or that may be made in the future as a result of IRS audits. While this is true of data throughout the entire SOI program, it is of particular relevance for high-income tax returns. Because of the greater complexity of these returns, there is a higher probability of error and more scope for disagreement about the proper interpretation of tax laws.

The fact that the data have been drawn from unaudited returns is of even greater importance for those high-income returns that are nontaxable. Almost any audit changes would make such returns taxable. Even where the tax consequences were minor, such returns would be reclassified from nontaxable to taxable, thereby changing the counts of nontaxable returns.

Note to Appendix B

[B1] Certain amounts of income earned abroad are excluded from adjusted gross income by statute. Any foreign taxes paid on such income are not creditable against U.S. income taxes. The tables in this Section do not reflect either such excluded income or any foreign tax payments on it.

[B2] Beginning with 1987, the number of highincome returns whose non-taxability may be attributed to foreign tax credits has been reduced substantially. The reduction appears to be attributable to changes in the foreign tax credit provisions of the Alternative Minimum Tax.

Section 5

Explanation of Terms

The explanation of terms is designed to aid the user in interpreting the statistical content of this report and should not be construed as interpretations of the Internal Revenue Code or related regulations, procedures, or policies.

The definitions and explanations in this section relate to column or stub titles used in one or more tables in this report. They provide background or limitations to such titles and are necessary to interpret the statistical tables to which they relate. For each of these titles, the line number of the tax form on which it is reported appears after the title. Definitions marked with the symbol # have been revised for 1988 to reflect changes in the law.

The terms used in Section 4 differ substantially from those applicable to the remainder of the report and are defined separately in that section. Section 6, 1988 Forms and Instructions, provides further information about many of the items in this report.

Adjusted Gross Income Less Deficit # (line 31, Form 1040)

Income that had to be reported for the calculation of total income (line 23, Form 1040) and of adjusted gross income included the following:

- Compensation for services, including wages, salaries, fees, commissions, tips, fringe benefits, and similar items;

- Net income derived from a business, profession, or farm;
- Net gains from the sale of property;
- Interest, rents, and royalties;
- Dividends and capital gains distributions;
- Alimony and separate maintenance payments;
- Annuities, pensions, and individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distributions;
- Distributive share of partnership income;
- Income from an estate or trust;
- Bartering income;
- Amounts received that were claimed as a deduction or credit in a prior year;
- Gambling winnings;
- Prizes and awards;
- Some social security payments; and
- All unemployment compensation.

Some reported income is fully or partially excluded from "Total Income" (line 23, Form 1040). Following is a list of such items:

- Exclusion of the cost basis of pension, annuity, or IRA payments or distributions;
- Tax-exempt interest;
- Limited exclusion of social security benefits and railroad retirement benefits;
- Limited exclusion of qualified foreign earned income; and

One-time exclusion of part or all of the gain from sale of principal residence by individuals who are 55 years of age or older.

From Total Income (line 23 on Form 1040) the following statutory adjustments (lines 24 through 29 on Form 1040) are subtracted to arrive at Adjusted Gross Income (line 31); a Deficit occurs if the allowable exclusions and deductions exceed gross income:

- Reimbursed employee business expenses that were included in reported income;
- Contributions to self-employed retirement plans (Keogh or simplified employee pension (SEP)) and to individual retirement arrangements (IRAs) by eligible persons;
- Forfeited interest penalties incurred by persons who made premature withdrawals of funds from time savings accounts;
- Alimony payments;
- Self-employed health insurance deduction;
- Forestation or reforestation expenses;
- Foreign housing exclusion;
- Repayments of supplemental unemployment compensation; and
- Certain expenses of qualified performing artists.

Adjustments

See "Statutory Adjustments."

Advance Earned Income Credit Payments (included in the total on line 53, Form 1040)

Taxpayers who believed they would be eligible for the earned income credit at the end of the year could receive the credit from their employers as an additional payment in their paychecks during the year. Those payments were then shown on the tax return (line 53 total on Form 1040) where they became either an increase to the balance due or a reduction of the overpayment. (See also "All Other Taxes.")

Alimony

(lines 11, 29, Form 1040)

Payments received as alimony or separate maintenance were income to the person receiving them and a deduction (an adjustment to gross income) for the person paying them.

All Other Taxes

(lines 48, 50, 51, 52, Form 1040)

---For the statistics, this amount represents the sum of the self-employment tax, tax from the recapture of the investment credit and the low income housing credit, social security taxes on tip income, any penalty taxes on individual retirement arrangements (IRA's) or other qualified retirement plans, and other unspecified taxes which included uncollected tax on tips, excess "golden parachute" payments, and section 72 penalty taxes. This was in contrast to the "other taxes" portion of the Form 1040 itself, which was composed of the taxes listed above plus the alternative minimum tax and the advance earned income credit payments received. Alternative minimum tax is tabulated in this report as part of "total income tax" and is one of the criteria for determining the taxable or nontaxable classification of a return. Advance earned income credit payments are shown as a separate item in computing total tax liability, balance due, or refund. (See also "Taxable and Nontaxable Returns" and "Total Income Tax".)

All Other Taxpayments (lines 57-60, Form 1040)

"All other taxpayments" included the tax paid with requests for a filing extension, excess social security or railroad retirement taxes, credit for tax on gasoline and special fuels, and the credit for tax paid on undistributed capital gains by a regulated investment company.

Alternative Minimum Tax (line 49, Form 1040)

The alternative minimum tax was levied on benefits received in the form of deductions and exclusions which reduced an individual's regular effective tax rate. These benefits are known as "alternative minimum tax preferences and adjustments" because they result from the preferential treatment that the tax law gives to particular income and expense items.

Alternative minimum taxable income (line 8, Form 6251) was defined as taxable income with certain adjustments plus the amount of tax preference items. Alternative minimum taxable income was then reduced by an exemption amount determined by filing status and income. If the return was filed jointly by a married couple or a surviving spouse, the maximum amount was $40,000. The maximum amount for single or head of household taxpayers was $30,000, and for married couples filing separately, $20,000.

If there was an amount remaining after subtracting the exemption, it was multiplied by the alternative minimum tax rate of 21 percent and then reduced by the recalculated alternative minimum tax foreign tax credit. This amount was then reduced by the regular income tax before credits (line 38, Form 1040) minus the regular foreign tax credit, line 43, Form 1040) to arrive at the alternative minimum tax.

Business or Profession Net Income or Loss (line 12, Form 1040)

This source of income was reported by individuals who were sole proprietors of a nonfarm business, including self-employed members of a profession. If two or more sole proprietorships were operated by the same taxpayer(s), the single amount of net income or loss included in adjusted gross income represented the combined net income and loss from all sole proprietorships. The proprietor was required to exclude investment income from business profits and to include it, instead, with the various types of investment income for which separate provision was made on the individual income tax return.

Business costs and expenses were deductible from gross receipts or gross sales in arriving at net profit or loss. Compensation of the proprietor was taxable income and, therefore, not allowed as a business deduction in computing net income. The deduction of net operating losses from other years was not considered a business expense, but was offset, instead, against "other income" on the proprietor's income tax return.

Information on sole proprietorships, business receipts, and expenditures can be found in the annual summer issue of the Statistics of Income Bulletin.

Capital Assets

See "Sales of Capital Assets Net Gain or Loss."

Capital Gain Distributions Reported on Form 1040 (line 14, Form 1040)

These distributions included long-term capital gains either credited or distributed to individual taxpayers by regulated investment companies, mutual funds, and real estate investment trusts. Usually, taxpayers reported capital gains distributions on Schedule D (Capital Gains and Losses), but they could enter the distributions directly on line 14 of Form 1040 if they had no other gains or losses to report on Schedule D.

Capital Gains and Losses

Casualty and Theft Loss, Nonbusiness (line 18, Schedule A)

Nonbusiness casualty and theft losses were deductible from adjusted gross income to the extent that the nonreimbursable net loss for each such casualty or theft exceeded $100, and the combined amount for all net losses during the year exceeded 10 percent of adjusted gross income. Beginning with 1987 a deduction for a casualty or theft loss covered by insurance could not be claimed unless a timely insurance claim for reimbursement was made.

Child Care Credit (line 41, Form 1040)

This credit could be claimed by taxpayers who, while employed, incurred expenses for the care of dependent children under age 15 or disabled dependents. Qualifying expenses included those for services performed within the home by nondependent babysitters, maids, or cooks. Expenditures paid for the care of children under the age of 15 or any other qualified individuals for out-of-home non-institutional care qualified for the child care credit.

The maximum amount of employment-related expenses to which the credit could be applied was the lesser of earned income or $2,400 if one qualifying child or dependent was involved and the lesser of earned income or $4,800 if more than one dependent was involved. The credit was equal to 30 percent of expenses related to employment for taxpayers with adjusted gross income of $10,000 or less. The credit was reduced by one percentage point for each $2,000 increment of adjusted gross income in excess of $10,000 up to $28,000. The credit remained at 20 percent of expenses for individuals with adjusted gross income of $28,000 or more.

The amount of the credit which could be claimed was limited to income tax before credits, and any excess was not refundable.

Contributions Deduction (line 17, Schedule A)

Taxpayers could deduct contributions to organizations that were religious, charitable, educational, scientific, or literary in purpose. Contributions could be in cash, property, or out-of-pocket expenses that a taxpayer paid to do volunteer work for a qualified organization. Contributions were allowed only as an itemized deduction on Schedule A.

Credit for Federal Tax on Gasoline and Special Fuels (line 59, Form 1040)

This was a credit (claimed on Form 4136) allowed for Federal excise taxes paid on gasoline and special fuels, such as gasohol and diesel fuel, if they were used in a trade or business. The excise taxes could be applied as a credit to reduce unpaid total tax liability or they could be refunded. A one-time credit (or refund) was allowed to the original purchaser of a new, qualified diesel-powered highway vehicle after January 1, 1985.

Credit for the Elderly and Disabled (line 42, Form 1040)

A credit (claimed on Schedule R) for the elderly and permanently and totally disabled was available to taxpayers age 65 or older (within certain income limitations) and to those taxpayers under age 65, retired with a permanent and total disability who had received taxable income from a public or private employer because of that disability. An individual was considered permanently and totally disabled if he or she was medically determined to be "unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental impairment which could result in death or last 12 continuous months or more."

Generally, if a taxpayer's income was high enough to require the reporting of social security benefits as taxable income, the taxpayer could not take the credit. The maximum credit available was $1,125 and was limited to total income tax with any excess not refundable.

Credit from Regulated Investment Companies (line 60, Form 1040)

Taxpayers were required to include in gross income any amounts which were allocated to them as undistributed capital gains of regulated investment companies. If investment companies paid tax on the capital gain, taxpayers were entitled to claim a refundable credit for their proportionate share of the tax paid.

Credit to 1989 Estimated Tax (line 64, Form 1040)

This credit was the part of the overpayment of 1988 tax which taxpayers specifically requested to be credited to their estimated tax for 1989. (See also "Overpayment" and "Estimated Tax Payments.")

Dividends

(line 9, Form 1040)

Dividend income consisted of distributions of money, stock, or other property received by taxpayers from domestic and foreign corporations, either received directly or passed through estates, trusts, or partnerships. Dividends also included distributions from money market mutual funds.

Dividends did not include nontaxable distributions of stock or stock rights, returns of capital, capital gain, or liquidation distributions. Taxpayers were also instructed to exclude so-called dividends on deposits or withdrawable accounts in mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions, which were to be treated as interest income. Earned Income Credit # (line 56, Form 1040)

This was a credit available to low-income workers who had a child living with them for more than half the year and had earned income with both earned income and adjusted gross income less than $18,576. The credit was based on earned income, consisting of wages, salaries, and other employee compensation, plus net earnings from self-employment. Taxpayers could not take the credit if their filing status was single or married filing separately, or they claimed the foreign income exclusion.

The maximum credit for 1988 was $874, and the amount not used to offset income tax liability could be refunded. For this report, the earned income credit was divided into three parts: the amount used to offset income tax before credits (limited to the amount needed to reduce income tax after credits to zero); the amount used to offset all other taxes (limited to the amount needed to reduce total tax liability to zero); and the refundable portion. (See also "Advance Earned Income Credit Payments.")

Employee Business Expenses

(line 24, Form 1040 for reimbursed expenses) (line 20, Schedule A for unreimbursed expenses)

Beginning with 1987, only reimbursed business expenses that were included in income could be deducted by an employee as an "adjustment" to adjusted gross income. Unreimbursed employee business expenses were allowed only as a "miscellaneous itemized deduction" on Schedule A, limited, along with other miscellaneous itemized deductions, to the amount that exceeded 2 percent of adjusted gross income. Employee business expenses included the cost of transportation, meals, lodging, and entertainment while away from home in the performance of services as an employee. Only 80 percent of business-related meal and entertainment expenses were eligible for deduction.

If employees accounted for deductible expenses to their employers, they were not required to report the reimbursement in income unless the amount of reimbursement exceeded expenses.

Estate or Trust Net Income or Loss (line 37, Schedule E, Part III)

This was the beneficiary's share of fiduciary income (with the exception of the items described below which were reported separately) from any estate or trust. Income from estates or trusts included amounts required to be distributed, amounts credited to beneficiaries' accounts from current-year fiduciary income (whether or not actually received), and any other amounts which were properly paid, credited, or required to be distributed for that year.

Taxpayers excluded from estate or trust income their share of dividends and gains or losses-from sales of capital assets and other property. Such income (which made up the largest portion of income from estates or trusts) was included on the tax return on the separate lines provided for these income types and was not separately identified for the statistics. A loss from an estate or trust was allocated to the beneficiary only upon settlement or termination of an estate or trust and was limited by the "passive loss" rules.

For the tables, if a return showed net income from one estate or trust, and a net loss from another, that return was tabulated in both the "total income" and "total loss" columns. The columns labeled "net income" and "net loss" represent the sum of all income and losses reported from all estates or trusts, i.e., the net amount computed on a return-by-return basis.

Estimated Tax Payments

This figure represented the total of the tax payments made for 1988 using Form 1040ES and any overpayment from the taxpayer's 1987 return that was applied to 1988 estimated tax. Individuals were required to make estimated tax payments if their estimated tax for the year exceeded $500, or exceeded their withholding by $500.

Excess Social Security Taxes Withheld (line 58, Form 1040)

If taxpayers received more than $45,000 ($33,600 for railroad employees) from two or more employers in 1988, too much social security (FICA) or Railroad Retirement Act (RRTA) tax may have been withheld from their wages. The excess social security tax withheld could be taken as a credit toward payment of the taxpayer's income tax. In the case of a joint return, the credit was computed separately for each taxpayer.

Exemptions # (lines 6, 36, Form 1040)

In the computation of taxable income, a $1,950 deduction was allowed for each exemption claimed. In general, an exemption was allowed for each of the taxpayers and dependents shown on a return. Dependents filing a separate return who could be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer were not allowed to claim their own exemption.

In general, an individual qualified as a dependent if that person:

- had gross income less than $1,950 (this did not apply if the person was the taxpayer's child and was either under 19 years old or a full-time student);
- received more than half of his or her support from the taxpayer;
- was either related to the taxpayer (such as a son, daughter, or parent) or a member of the same household for the whole year;

- did not file a joint return with his or her spouse; and
- met certain citizenship requirements.

Farm Net Income or Loss (line 19, Form 1040)

This source of income was reported by individuals who were sole proprietors of a farm. When there were two or more farms operated by the same taxpayer, the single amount of profit or loss included in adjusted gross income represented the combined profit and loss from all farming activities. Farm business costs and expenses were deductible from farm gross business receipts in arriving at farm net profit or loss.

Gains from certain sales of livestock and crops that qualified for capital gains treatment were excluded from farm net profit or loss and included in capital gains. Farm rental income was included in rent net income or loss. (See also "Farm Rental Income or Loss.")

Farm Rental Income or Loss

(line 28, Schedule E)

Taxpayers were required to report farm rental income and expenses separately from other farm profit or loss if they:

- received income that was based on crops or livestock produced by the tenant, and
- did not manage or operate the farm to any great extent.

Filing Status

See "Marital Filing Status."

Foreign Earned Income Exclusion (line 22, Form 1040)

Qualified taxpayers could exclude from gross income a certain amount of their foreign earned income and employer-provided foreign housing expenses if their home for tax purposes was in a foreign country.

Qualified individuals were limited to the lesser of a $70,000 exclusion or their total foreign earned income. Also, they could elect to exclude a portion of employer-provided foreign housing expenses. If the taxpayer elected to take both the foreign earned income and foreign housing exclusions, the total amount of both exclusions was limited to the taxpayer's total foreign earned income.

In this report, the foreign earned income exclusion includes the foreign housing exclusion.

Foreign Tax Credit

(line 43, Form 1040)

Individuals who paid income or excess profit taxes to a foreign country or U.S. possession could claim this credit either against Federal income tax liability or as an itemized deduction. Qualifying foreign taxes paid in excess of the allowable amount for Tax Year 1988 could be carried back 2 years and then forward 5 years.

Forfeited Interest Penalty Adjustment (line 28, Form 1040)

Taxpayers who had paid penalties for the premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts or deposits could deduct those penalties as an adjustment to gross income.

General Business Credit (line 44, Form 1040)

The general business credit consisted of the investment credit, jobs credit, alcohol fuel credit, low-income housing credit, and the research credit. Taxpayers claiming more than one of the business credits were required to summarize them on Form 3800, General Business Credit. The general business credit was limited to 100 percent of the first $25,000 of tax liability and 75 percent of the excess over $25,000 ($12,500 for a married couple filing separately). If the current year general business credit exceeded the tax liability limitation, the excess amount could be carried back to the 3 preceding tax years, then forward 15 years.

Home Mortgage Interest Deduction

See "Interest Paid Deduction."

Income Subject to Tax

See "Modified Taxable Income."

Income Tax After Credits

(line 47 less line 56 (earned income credit), Form 1040)

To arrive at income tax after credits, taxpayers deducted total credits (line 46, Form 1040) from income tax before credits (line 40, Form 1040). For the statistics, tax was then further reduced by the portion of the earned income credit which did not result in a negative amount. This portion of the earned income credit was included in the total credits as "earned income credit used to offset income tax before credits." Any tax remaining was tabulated as "income tax after credits."

Income Tax Before Credits

(line 40, Form 1040)

This amount consisted of the tax liability computed on "taxable income" using the tax tables, tax rate schedules, or Form 8615 (line 38) plus any additional taxes (line 39). (See also "Tax Generated.")

Income Tax Withheld

(line 54, Form 1040)

Income tax withheld included amounts deducted from salaries, wages, tips, as reported on Form W-2, and from pensions, annuities, and certain gambling winnings as reported on Forms W-2P and W-2G. Amounts withheld from total distributions of profit-sharing, retirement plans, and individual retirement arrangements had withholding reported on Form 1099-R.

In some cases, a backup withholding rate of 20 percent was required for interest, dividend, and royalty payments, which, generally, were not subject to withholding.

Individual Retirement Arrangement Deductible Payments (line 25a and b, Form 1040)

An individual retirement arrangement (IRA) was a savings program that allowed a taxpayer to set aside money for retirement. Beginning in 1987, the deduction for IRA contributions was reduced or eliminated for taxpayers who were covered by an employer retirement plan and whose adjusted gross income exceeded certain levels. Nondeductible contributions were still allowed.

Contributions to such a plan were limited to the lesser of:

- (1) an individual's compensation for the year; or
- (2) $2,000 ($2,250 if a nonworking spousal IRA was included).

Such contributions could be deducted from the employee's gross income in arriving at adjusted gross income. Unless they were disabled, taxpayers could not start withdrawing funds from the account until they reached age 59-1/2. After age 70 1/2 taxpayers were required to begin withdrawals. Penalty taxes were assessed if the taxpayer failed to comply with these limitations.

Individuals could also set up an IRA to include a nonworking spouse who met certain qualifying conditions. The total IRA deduction, including both the taxpayer and nonworking spouse, could not exceed $2,250. A spousal IRA deduction is tabulated in the statistics as "secondary IRA payments."

To be deductible, payments to an IRA for a particular taxable year must be made not later than the due date of the individual's return for that year.

Individual Retirement Arrangement Taxable Distributions (line 16b, Form 1040)

Any money or property received from a taxpayer's IRA account was considered a distribution and, generally, had to be included in the taxpayer's gross income in the year received. An exception to this rule was tax-free "rollover" distributions from one retirement account to another.

Interest Paid Deduction # (line 13, Schedule A)

Interest expenses, except for business or investment, were divided into two categories: personal interest and deductible home mortgage interest. Personal interest included items such as credit card interest, revolving charge account interest, and interest on bank loans. Only 40 percent of personal interest was deductible for 1988, whereas 65 percent was deductible for 1987.

The rules for deducting home mortgage interest changed for 1988. The new rules were: (1) if a taxpayer took out a mortgage before October 14, 1987, secured by the taxpayer's main or second home, all the interest was deductible, (2) if the taxpayer's mortgage was after October 13, 1987, and the funds were used to buy, build, or improve that home, all interest could be deducted if the total of all mortgages on the property was $1 million or less, and (3) taxpayers could deduct all of the interest on an additional $100,000 of mortgages on their main or second home other than to buy, build, or improve that home.

Generally, the investment interest deduction (interest paid on money borrowed that is allocable to property held for investment) was fully deductible up to the amount of net investment income. Interest relating to business, royalty, and rental income was deducted directly from these items and was not reflected in the interest paid statistics.

Interest Received

See "Taxable Interest/Received."

Interest, Tax-Exempt

See "Tax-Exempt Interest."

Itemized Deductions

See "Total Itemized Deductions" and specific types.

Marginal Tax Rates

Different portions of taxable income are taxed at different rates. The tax rate applied to the last dollar of income is called the "marginal tax rate" for that return. (See also "Tax Generated.")

Marital Filing Status

(lines 1-5, Form 1040)

The five marital filing status classifications were:

- (1) joint returns of husbands and wives;
- (2) separate returns of husbands and wives;
- (3) returns of heads of households;
- (4) returns of surviving spouses; and
- (5) returns of single persons (not heads of households or surviving spouses).

Marital status was usually determined as of the last day of the taxable year. If one spouse died during the tax year, the other was considered married for the entire year. If a taxpayer was divorced during the tax year and did not remarry, the taxpayer was considered to be unmarried for the entire year.

Medical and Dental Expense Deduction (lines 1-4, Schedule A)

Qualified medical expenses included payments made for the diagnosis, treatment, or prevention of disease. In general, medical and dental expenses could be claimed as an itemized deduction to the extent that they exceeded 7.5 percent of adjusted gross income. Amounts paid for medicine and drugs were deductible only if they were not available except by prescription or were for insulin. Taxpayers could also deduct a maximum of $50 per day for certain lodging expenses incurred for medical care.

Minimum Tax Credit # (line 45, Form 1040)

A minimum tax credit could be taken for 1988 by certain taxpayers who paid alternative minimum taxes for 1987. The credit was that part of the 1987 alternative minimum tax based on adjustments or preference items that deferred tax rather than caused permanent avoidance of tax. If all of the minimum tax credit could not be used for 1988, the excess could then be carried forward to later years.

Miscellaneous Itemized Deductions (lines 20-25, Schedule A)

Miscellaneous itemized deductions were divided into two tiers. The first tier included those expense items that were fully deductible while expenses in the second tier were limited to the amount that exceeded 2 percent of adjusted gross income. Deductible Miscellaneous Deductions— Fully deductible expenses included such items as gambling losses (limited to gains), impairment-related work expenses for handicapped people, and amortizable bond premiums.

Limited Miscellaneous Deductions—

Unreimbursed employee business expenses and those expenses of producing income were limited to the amount that exceeded 2 percent of adjusted gross income.

Modified Taxable Income

"Modified taxable income" is the term used to describe "income subject to tax," the actual base on which tax is computed for the statistics in Tables 3.4 and 3.5. For taxpayers filing current year returns, modified taxable income is identical to "taxable income" except for those upper income taxpayers paying both average and marginal tax rates of 28 percent. For these taxpayers the deduction for personal exemptions was phased out and their "income subject to tax" became taxable income plus some or all of the exemption amount.

For prior year returns included in the 1988 statistics, a modified taxable income was computed. This was calculated by using the tax rate schedule to impute a hypothetical taxable income amount necessary to yield the given amount of tax reported.

Moving Expense Deduction

(line 19, Schedule A)

An employee who had to move to a new residence as a result of changing jobs could claim certain expenses for moving and house hunting as an itemized deduction. For employees to qualify for this deduction, the new job location had to be at least 35 miles farther from the former residence than the old job was. Deductible expenses included those incurred from moving household and personal goods as well as travel, meals, and lodging of the taxpayer and household members en route to the new residence.

Nontaxable Returns

See "Taxable and Nontaxable Returns."

Other Adjustments

See "Statutory Adjustments."

Other Income

(line 22, Form 1040)

Included here were such items as prizes, awards, sweepstakes winnings, gambling winnings, recoveries of bad debts, insurance received as reimbursement for medical expenses taken as a deduction in a previous year, and any other income subject to tax for which there was no specific line provided on the return form. Any "net operating loss" in an earlier year that was carried forward and deducted for 1988 was entered as a negative amount on this line.

Other Tax Credits (included in line 46, Form 1040)

"Other tax credits" is a residual category in the statistics and does not relate to a line item on a tax form. It included the "credit for fuel from a nonconventional source" and any other miscellaneous credits that did not belong in any other category and were used to offset income tax before credits.

Overpayment (line 62, Form 1040)

An overpayment of tax occurred when the "taxpayments" exceeded "total tax liability," including the amount of any "refundable portion of the earned income credit." Overpayments could be refunded or credited toward the estimated tax for the following year. (See also "Credit to 1989 Estimated Tax" and "Refund.")

Overpayment of Windfall Profit Tax (included in line 61)

A "windfall profit" excise tax was imposed on producers of crude oil, but the tax was withheld and reported by the first purchaser of such oil. If too much tax was withheld in the course of the year, the producer could claim a refund on his or her income tax return.

The excess payment was entered in the margin of the tax payments section of the Form 1040.

Partnership and S Corporation Net Income or Loss (lines 31, 32, Schedule E)

Since partnerships and S corporations (formerly Subchapter S corporations) are not taxable entities, their net profit or loss was taxed, in general, directly to the members of the partnership or shareholders in the S corporation. The profit or loss shown in the statistics was the taxpayer's share of the ordinary gain or loss of the enterprise and certain payments made to the taxpayer for the use of capital or as a salary. Net long-term capital gain retained its character in the hands of the partners or stockholders and was included in the statistics for net gain or loss from sales of capital assets.

If a return showed net income from one partnership or S corporation and a net loss from another, the two were added together and the return was tabulated by the net amount of income or loss in the appropriate column. Beginning in 1987, net income and net loss were reported separately for passive and non-passive partnership and S corporation activities. Passive losses were limited under the new rules to the amount that could be offset by passive income.

Payment with Request for Extension of Filing Time (line 57, Form 1040)

This payment was made when the taxpayer filed Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return or Form 2688, Application for Additional Extension of Time to File. The extension gained the taxpayer an additional period of time to file a tax return, but it did not extend the time for payment of expected tax. Full payment of any tax due had to be made with the application for extension.

Payments to a Keogh Plan

(line 27, Form 1040)

Self-employed individuals were allowed to contribute to a Keogh retirement plan or a "simplified employment pension" (SEP) plan for themselves and to deduct all or a part of such contributions in computing adjusted gross income. The amount which could be deducted was based on net earnings from self-employment.

Penalty Tax on Individual Retirement . Arrangements (line 52, Form 1040)

If taxpayers withdrew any funds from an Individual Retirement Arrangement or qualified retirement plan before they were either age 59-1/2 or disabled, they were subject to a penalty tax equal to 10 percent of the premature distribution. Any taxpayer who failed to withdraw the minimum required distribution after reaching age 70-1/2 had to pay a 50-percent excise tax on the excess accumulation. Contributions to the retirement arrangement in excess of the legal limitation for the year (the lesser of $2,000 or the taxpayer's compensation for the year) were subject to an excise tax equal to 6 percent of the excess contribution.

Pensions and Annuities (lines 17a, 17b, Form 1040)

Generally, pensions are periodic income received after retirement for past services with an employer, while annuities are income payable at stated intervals after payment of a specific premium. A taxpayer could acquire a pension or annuity either by purchase from a commercial organization (usually life insurance, endowment, or annuity contracts) or under a plan or contract connected with the taxpayer's employment. Those pensions or annuities obtained in connection with employment could be purchased entirely by the taxpayer or could be financed in part (a contributory plan) or in whole (a non-contributory plan) by contributions of the employer.

Since a non-contributory pension was paid for entirely by an employer, the amount received by the employee was fully taxable. This fully taxable pension was reported on lines 17a and b. For the taxpayer who participated in a contributory retirement plan while employed, the amount received was only partially taxable. In general, the amount excludable from gross income, the nontaxable portion, represented the taxpayer's contributions under the plan, while the taxable portion represented the employer's contribution and earnings on the entire investment. The nontaxable portion had to be amortized over the expected lifetime of the taxpayer.

The entire amount of pensions and annuities received for the year was reported on line 17a of the Form 1040. The taxable portion was computed on a separate worksheet and entered on line 17b, "Taxable amount."

Predetermined Estimated Tax Penalty (included in line 65, Form 1040)

If a return showed taxes of $500 or more owed on line 65 (tax due at time of filing) and this amount was more that 10 percent of the total tax, taxpayers could owe a penalty. Also, taxpayers could owe a penalty if they underpaid their 1988 estimated tax liability for any payment period. Form 2210 was used to determine the amount of a penalty, if any.

Refund

(line 63, Form 1040)

A refund of tax included all overpayments of income taxes not applied by the taxpayer as a credit to the next year's estimated tax. (See also "Overpayment.")

Regular Tax Computation

Typically, the taxpayer, in determining the amount of "tax generated," first computed taxable income. Depending on marital status and size of taxable income, the taxpayer then used the tax tables or applied the rates from one of four tax rate schedules to determine tax. Returns of taxpayers who had taxes computed by the Internal Revenue Service were classified under the regular tax computation method.

Rent Net Income or Loss #

Rent net income or loss was a part of adjusted gross income and was determined by deducting from gross rent, the amounts for depreciation, repairs, improvements, interest, taxes, commissions, advertising, utilities, insurance, janitorial services, and any other allowable expenses related to the rented property. Beginning with 1987, new "passive loss" rules limited the losses that could be claimed for rental activities, and for 1988 losses were further limited. In the statistics, total rental net loss includes passive losses that were not deductible in figuring AGI. (Passive losses are discussed under Changes in Law.)

Royalty Net Income or Loss (line 23, columns A,B,C, Schedule E)

Net royalties consisted of gross royalties less deductions for depletion, depreciation, office rent, legal fees, clerical help, interest, taxes, and similar items. Gross royalties included revenues from oil, gas, and other mineral rights; revenue from patents; and revenue from literary, musical, or artistic works. Certain royalties received under a lease agreement on timber, coal, and domestic iron ore were eligible for capital gains or ordinary loss treatment under Code section 1231, and, as a result of the separate computation required by that section, are reflected in the statistics for "sales of capital assets" and "sales of property other than capital assets."

S Corporations

See "Partnership and S Corporation Net Income or Loss."

Salaries and Wages (line 7, Form 1040)

Salaries and wages as reported on the tax return were amounts of compensation primarily for personal services. The following items were included:

- salaries,
- wages,
- commissions,
- bonuses,
- tips,
- fees,
- excess reimbursement over employee business expenses,
- moving expense allowances,

- the difference between the fair market value of certain property and the discount price for which it was purchased by a taxpayer from his employer,
- severance pay,
- sick pay,
- the employee's portion of social security tax,
- exercising a stock appreciation right,
- vacation allowances,
- most disability payments,
- strike and lockout benefits, and
- the value of non-monetary payments for services (e.g., merchandise, accommodations, certain meals or lodging, certain stock purchase plans, or property).

Identifiable amounts for any of these categories which may have been reported by taxpayers as "other income" were treated as salaries and wages for the statistics.

Sales of Capital Assets Net Gain or Loss # (line 13, Form 1040)

In general, capital assets for tax purposes included all property held for personal use or investment. Examples of such assets were personal residences, furniture, automobiles, and stocks and bonds. Most assets used for business activities were specifically excluded from treatment as capital assets. (See also "Sales of Property Other Than Capital Assets, Net Gain or Loss.")

The following concepts were used in the computation of net capital gain or loss for this report:

Net capital gain—If the combination of net short-term gain or loss and net long-term gain or loss resulted in a positive amount, the taxpayer had a net capital gain. The full amount of this gain, whether short-term or long-term was included in adjusted gross income. For property acquired after 1987, the holding period was one year or less for a short-term gain or loss and more than one year for a long-term gain or loss.

Net capital gain also included capital gain distributions which were not reported on Schedule D (Capital Gains and Losses and Reconciliation of Forms 1099-B). These capital gain distributions were entered directly on line 14 of Form 1040 if the taxpayer did not have any other gains or losses to report on Schedule D. These distributions were, by definition, long-term capital gains. (See also "Capital Gain Distributions Reported on Form 1040.")

Net capital loss--If the combination of net short-term gain or loss and net long-term gain or loss resulted in a negative amount, the taxpayer showed a net capital loss. The amount of net capital loss to be included in adjusted gross income was limited to the smaller of the actual net capital loss or $3,000 ($1,500 for married persons filing separately). Any excess capital losses over the $3,000 limit could be carried over to subsequent tax years ("capital loss carryover" in the statistics).

Sales of Property Other Than Capital Assets, Net Gain or Loss (line 15, Form 1040)

Property other than capital assets generally included property of a business nature, in contrast to personal and investment property which were capital assets. Some types of property specifically included in this group were:

- (1) certain depreciable, depletable, and real business property;
- (2) accounts and notes receivable in the ordinary course of business generated from the sale of goods and services ordinarily held for sale by the business or includable in the inventory of the business;

- (3) certain copyrights; literary, musical, or artistic compositions; or similar properties; and
- (4) amounts resulting from certain "involuntary conversions," including net losses from casualty and theft.

Taxpayers reported all gains and losses not receiving capital gains treatment on Form 4797, Gains and Losses From Sales or Exchanges of Assets Used in a Trade or Business and Involuntary Conversions.

Self-Employed Health Insurance (line 26, Form 1040)

Self-employed individuals could deduct as an adjustment to income up to 25 percent of the amount paid for medical insurance for themselves and their families. The balance of the cost was included with other medical care expenses as an itemized deduction subject to the 7.5 percent deduction threshold based on AGI. However, self-employed persons were not allowed this deduction if they or their spouses were employees and eligible to participate in an employersubsidized health plan.

Self-Employment Tax # (line 48, Form 1040)

This tax, levied under the social security system, was reported by most individuals who had self-employment earnings of at least $400 derived from a sole proprietorship or from any share of partnership profits. Some types of income (such as dividends, interest, and capital gains and losses) and certain deductions (such as net operating losses, and casualty and theft losses) were not allowed in computing self-employment earnings.

The maximum net earnings subject to self-employment tax for 1988 increased to $45,000 from $43,800 for 1987. The net self-employment tax rate for 1988 increased to 13.02 percent from 12.30 percent for 1987.

Size of Adjusted Gross Income (line 31, Form 1040)

The amount of adjusted gross income reported by the taxpayer on the return was the basis for classifying data by size of adjusted gross income. Returns without positive adjusted gross income, such as deficit returns or returns on which income and loss were equal, were classified as having "no adjusted gross income" and appear as a separate class in most basic tables. The absence of a class labeled "no adjusted gross income" indicates that any deficit or breakeven returns in a table were included in the lowest income size class.

Social Security Benefits

(lines 21a, 21b, Form 1040)

Social security benefits include any monthly benefit under title II of the Social Security Act or the part of a "tier 1 railroad retirement benefit" that was equivalent to a social security benefit. Social security benefits are not taxable unless the taxpayer's other income exceeds certain levels. The maximum amount taxed was one half of the net social security benefits received. Social security benefits received were reported on Form 1040, line 21a with only the taxable portion reported on line 21b. Taxpayers who had no taxable benefits were not required to show the total benefit on their income tax returns.

Social Security Taxes on Tip Income (line 51, Form 1040)

This amount consisted of social security tax on unreported tip income and uncollected employee social security tax on tips.

Individual Returns/1988

Cash tips amounting to $20 or more that the taxpayer received in a month while working for any one employer were subject to withholding of income tax and social security tax (this included the equivalent railroad retirement tax). If the employer was unable to withhold the social security tax, the amount of uncollected social security tax on tips was indicated on the employee's Form W-2, and the taxpayer was required to report the uncollected tax and pay it with the Form 1040. If the employee was required to compute the social security tax on unreported tips on Form 4137 and attach it to Form 1040.

Standard Deduction

For 1988, the basic standard deduction was increased for taxpayers under 65, which made it equal to the basic deduction for those who were age 65 or over or blind. Taxpayers who were age 65 or over or blind could claim an additional standard deduction amount of $600 or $750. Both the basic and additional standard deduction were determined by filing status, as shown below.

Single

- Basic deduction of $3,000;

- Each taxpayer 65 or over or blind was allowed an additional $750 deduction each for age and blindness.

Married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er) - Basic deduction of $5,000;

- Each taxpayer 65 or over or blind was allowed an additional $600 deduction each for age and blindness.

Married, filing separately

- Basic deduction of $2,500;

- Each taxpayer 65 or over or blind was allowed an additional $600 deduction each for age and blindness.

Head of household

- Basic deduction of $4,400;

- Each taxpayer 65 or over or blind was allowed an additional $750 deduction each for age and blindness.

In the statistics, the basic standard deduction was tabulated for all taxpayers who claimed it, including those who were 65 or over or blind. The "additional standard deduction" total included only the additional amount that was taken by those taxpayers who were 65 or over or blind.

State Income Tax Refunds (line 10, Form 1040)

These amounts were the refunds of State income tax that were claimed as itemized deductions in a prior year.

Statutory Adjustments # (lines 24-30, Form 1040)

These were certain adjustments to gross income allowed as deductions in arriving at adjusted gross income. For 1988, statutory adjustments included reimbursed employee business expenses, payments to a self-employed Keogh retirement plan or a "simplified employee pension" (SEP), forfeited interest penalty, payments to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), alimony paid, the self-employed health insurance deduction, and the foreign housing Each of the above is described deduction. separately in this section. In addition, statutory adjustments included the forestation/reforestation amortization deduction and the repayment of supplemental unemployment benefits under the Trade Act of 1974. These amounts were included in the "Other Adjustments" category in the statistics.

Tax Due at Time of Filing (line 65, Form 1040)

Tax From Recomputing Prior-Year Investment Credit (line 50, Form 1040)

The investment tax credit provisions of the law included a recapture rule which required taxpayers to pay back all or a portion of any investment credit previously taken on property disposed of before the end of the useful life claimed in computing the credit. The law specified that if property qualifying for the credit was disposed of before the end of its intended useful life, the tax for the year of disposal was increased by the difference between the credit originally claimed and the credit that would have been allowed based on the shorter actual life. Tax credits could not be applied against this additional tax.

Tax Generated

(line 38, Form 1040)

This amount was the tax computed on modified taxable income. (See also "Modified Taxable Income.") For 1988, there were two basic tax rates, 15 and 28 percent. However, taxable income over certain levels (from $43,150 to $89,560 if single, $35,950 to $113,300 if married filing separately, $61,650 to $123,790 if head of household, and $71,900 to $149,250 if married filing jointly or a qualifying widow(er)) was subject to an additional 5 percent tax. This meant that a 33 percent marginal tax rate was applied to this part of taxable income with the purpose of phasing out the benefit of the 15 percent tax rate. For income levels higher than those shown above for each filing status, the personal exemption deduction for taxpayers and dependents was phased out and the marginal tax rate then dropped to 28 percent. The tax generated at each of these tax rates is shown in Tables 3.4 and 3.5. Also, if children under age 14 had investment income that exceeded $1,000, it was taxed at the parents' rate on Form 8615 and tabulated separately in Tables 3.4 and 3.5.

On most returns, except those with additional taxes from special computations, "tax generated" equaled "income tax before credits."

Tax Rates

See "Tax Generated."

Taxable and Nontaxable Returns

The taxable and nontaxable classification of a return for this report was determined by the presence of "total income tax" (the sum of income tax after credits and the alternative minimum tax). Some returns classified as "nontaxable" may have had a liability for other taxes, such as self-employment or Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA) taxes, social security taxes on tip income, tax from recomputing prior-year investment credit, penalty taxes on individual retirement arrangements, Section 72 penalty taxes, advance earned income credit payments, golden parachute payments, or uncollected employee social security tax on tips. These taxes, however, were disregarded for purposes of this classification since three of the above taxes were considered social security (rather than income) taxes, and the remaining ones, except for advance earned income payments, were either based on prior year's income or were penalty taxes.

For this report, the earned income credit was treated as an amount which, first, was used to offset income tax before credits. Since the earned income credit was refundable, it was subtracted from income tax (for the statistics) after reduction by all other statutory credits. As a result, some returns became nontaxable strictly because of the earned income credit if there was no alternative minimum tax and the earned income credit equaled or exceeded income tax before credits reduced by any other credits.

It should be noted that classification as taxable or nontaxable was based on each return as it was originally filed and does not reflect any changes resulting from audit or other enforcement activities.

Taxable Income

(line 37, Form 1040)

Taxable income was derived by subtracting from adjusted gross income any exemption amount and either total itemized deductions or the standard deduction. On most current year returns "taxable income" was identical to "modified taxable income" with the exception of those returns for taxpayers with taxable income over certain levels whose personal exemption amount was phased out. For prior year returns received during the current year filing period, taxable income was imputed from the amount of tax reported. (See "Modified Taxable Income.")

Taxable Interest Received (line 8a, Form 1040)

This amount was the taxable portion of interest received from bonds, debentures, notes, mortgages, certain insurance policy proceeds, personal loans, bank deposits, savings accounts, tax refunds, and U.S. savings bonds. Also included as interest were "dividends" on deposits or withdrawable accounts in mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions. Most interest on State or local government obligations remained tax-exempt, but the total tax-exempt interest had to be reported on line 8b of Form 1040. It was not included in the taxpayer's income. (See also "Tax-Exempt Interest.")

Taxes Paid Deduction

(line 8, Schedule A)

Taxes allowed as a deduction from adjusted gross income included personal property taxes, State and local income taxes, taxes paid to foreign countries or U.S. possessions (unless a foreign tax credit was claimed), and real estate taxes except those levied for improvements that tended to increase the value of the property. Mandatory employee contributions to a state disability fund and employee contributions to a state unemployment fund were also included. Federal taxes and State and local sales taxes were not deductible.

Taxes paid on business property were deducted separately on the schedules for business, rent, royalty, and farm income and are excluded from the "taxes paid" statistics in this report.

Tax-Exempt Interest # (line 8b, Form 1040)

Beginning with 1987, the amount of any tax-exempt interest received or accrued during the tax year had to be shown on the tax return. Tax-exempt interest includes interest on certain State and municipal bonds, as well as any tax-exempt interest dividends from a mutual fund or other regulated investment company. This is an information reporting requirement and does not convert tax-exempt interest to taxable interest.

Taxpayments

(lines 54, 55, 57-60, Form 1040)

These payments were generally made before the return was filed and were applied against tax liability to determine any amount payable or refundable at the time of filing. They consisted of the following:

- (1) income tax withheld, including backup withholding;
- (2) excess social security taxes or railroad retirement tax withheld;
- (3) credit for tax on certain gasoline, fuel, and oil;
- (4) estimated tax payments;
- (5) payment with request for extension of filing time;
- (6) credit from regulated investment companies; and
- (7) overpayment of windfall profit tax.

Each of the above is described under a separate heading in this section.

Although the earned income credit was included with taxpayments on the tax return itself, for the statistics it is treated partly as a credit against income tax liability and partly as a refundable amount. (See also "Earned Income Credit.")

Total Income Tax

(the sum of line 47, less earned income credit, and line 49, Form 1040)

Total income tax was the sum of "income tax after credits" (from which the earned income credit was subtracted) and the alternative minimum tax. It did not include any of the other taxes which made up "total tax liability." Total income tax was the basis for classifying returns as "taxable" or "nontaxable." Total Itemized Deductions (line 34, Form 1040)

Itemized deductions from adjusted gross income could be claimed for medical and dental expenses, taxes paid, interest paid, contributions, casualty and theft losses, moving expenses, and miscellaneous deductions. The total amount of itemized deductions was tabulated only from returns showing positive adjusted gross income.

Total Tax Credits

(lines 46, 56, Form 1040)

For this report, total tax credits consisted of the following:

- (1) child care credit;
- (2) credit for the elderly and disabled;
- (3) foreign tax credit;
- (4) general business credit;
- (5) minimum tax credit;
- (6) other tax credits;
- (7) mortgage interest credit and any credits on prior year returns; and
- (8) earned income credit used to offset income tax before credits.

These amounts were deducted from income tax before credits to arrive at income tax after credits. For the statistics, the portion of the earned income credit which did not result in a negative amount was tabulated as "earned income credit used to offset income tax before credits." Any amount remaining of the earned income credit could be refunded or applied to other taxes. All other credits were limited to the amount needed to offset "income tax before credits" and were not refundable.

Total Tax Liability

(line 53 modified by the earned income credit, Form 1040)

Total tax liability was the sum of income tax after credits, alternative minimum tax, self-employment or railroad retirement taxes, social security tax on tips, tax from recomputing prior-year investment credits, taxes from individual retirement arrangements, Section 72 penalty taxes, and tax on golden parachute payments. These taxes were then reduced by the "earned income credit used to offset all other taxes" (defined under "Earned Income Credit"). For the statistics, unlike the Form 1040, total tax liability did not include any advance earned income credit payments.

Type of Tax Computation # (line 38, Form 1040)

Tabulations in Table 3.1 include two methods of computing the tax on income subject to tax. These methods were:

(1) regular tax, as computed from the tax tables or tax rate schedules accompanying the Forms 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ (see also "Regular Tax Computation"); and

(2) Form 8615, used to compute the tax on investment income of children under 14.

Unemployment Compensation (line 20, Form 1040)

Beginning in 1987, all unemployment compensation had to be included in income.

114

From the Commissioner

Dear Taxpayer,

Thanks for your special effort in making last year's tax filing season a success. Most people filed promptly and got their refunds on time.

I pledge my personal effort and that of the IRS to search for new and better ways to reduce the burden placed on you, our valued customers. I also pledge that we at IRS will continue to improve the quality of the service we are providing to you.

Working together with you, I believe we jointly can find ways to make taxes less taxing for all of us.

Laurence A. Distor

Lawrence B. Gibbs Commissioner of Internal Revenue

What's New for 1988?

for 1988? Reduced Tax Rates. Most of the rates tax rate schedules use the reduced rates—with a phase-out of the lowest rate for higher income individuals. Increased Deduction for Exemptions. The deduction for each exemption for you, your spouse, and have been reduced. The tax table and dependents—has increased to $1,950. Should You Itemize Deductions or Take the Standard Deduction?

For most people, the standard deduction has increased. Because of this increase, it may be to your benefit to take the standard deduction for 1988 even though you itemized deductions in past years. Read the instructions for line 34 on page 16.

Interest Expense. Even if your deduction for home mortgage interest was limited in 1987, you will probably be able to deduct all of the interest on your mortgage for 1988. See Schedule A instructions for more details.

Increased Earned Income Credit. You may be able to take this credit if you earned less than $18,576 and a child lived with you. (The limit was $15,432 last year, P Read the instructions for lime 56 on page 19. Supplemental Medicar

Additional Information. If you want more information about these and other tax law changes, get Pub. 553, Highlights of 1988 Tax Changes. You may also find the publications listed at the end of this booklet helpful in completing your return.

New Publication. You have the right to be treated fairly, professionally, promptly, and courteously by IRS employees. Our goal is to make sure that your rights are protected, so that you will have the highest confidence in the integrity, efficiency, and fairness of our tax system. To ensure that you always receive such treatment, you should know about the many rights you have at each step of the tax process. New Pub. 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, tells you about many of these rights.

New Filing Locations. You may have to send your return to a different address this year. Use the envelope that came with your booklet or see Where To File on page 5. For in 1989 Supplemental Medicare Premium. If you will be eligible for Medicare, Part A benefits (hospital insurance) by June 20, 1080, way may have to pay boar with occupital insurance by June Bonefits (hospital insurance) by June 30, 1989, you may have to pay a supplemental medicare premium. You will pay it with your tax return next year. The premium will help pay the cost of the new medicare coverage for catastrophic expenses and prescription drugs.

The premium will apply if your income tax for 1989 will be $150 or more. The premium is $22.50 on each $150 of income tax. The premium cannot exceed $800 for each person covered by Medicare, Part A ($1,600 for certain married persons filling a separate return). So that you won't have to pay too much with your return next year, you may wish to increase your income tax withholding or estimated tax payments in 1989. See Pub. 934, Supplemental Medicare Premium, for details.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

The Privacy Act of 1974 and Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 say that when we ask you for information, we must first tell say you to minimuton, we must first tell you several things: our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory under the law.

This applies to tax returns and any papers filed with them. It also applies to any questions we need to ask you so we can complete, correct, or process your return; figure your tax; and collect tax, interest, or penalties.

Our legal right to ask for information is Internal Revenue Code sections 6001. 6011, and 6012(a) and their regulations. They say that you must file a return or statement with us for any tax you are liable for. Your response is mandatory under these sections. This is so we know who you are, and can process your return and papers.

You must fill in all parts of the tax form that apply to you. Code section 6109 and its regulations say that you must show your social security number on what you file. You do not have to check the boxes for the Presidential Election Campaign Fund.

We ask for tax return information to carry out the tax laws of the United States We need it to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

We may give the information to the Department of Justice and to other Federal agencies, as provided by law, We may also give it to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths or possessions to carry out their tax laws. And we may give it to foreign governments because of tax treaties they have with the United States.

If you do not file a return, do not provide the information we ask for, or provide fraudulent information, the law says that you may be charged penalties and, in certain cases, you may be subject to criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments shown on the tax return. This could make the tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged. Please keep this notice with your records. It may help you if we ask you for other information. If you have questions about the rules for filing and giving information, please call or visit any Internal Revenue Service office.

The Time It Takes To Prepare Your Return

We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate and can be easily understood. Often this is difficult to do because some of the tax laws enacted by Congress are very complex. For some taxpayers with income mostly from wages, filling out the forms is easy. For others who have businesses, pensions, stocks, rental income or other investments, it is more difficult.

The time needed to complete and file the following forms will vary, depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average times are:

Form	Recordkeeping	Learning about the law or the form	Preparing the form	Copying, assembling, and sending the form to IRS
1040	3 hrs., 7 min.	2 hrs., 28 min.	3 hrs., 7 min.	35 min.

We Welcome Comments on Forms:

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making these forms more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, DC 20224, Attention: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, TR:FP; or the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project, Washington, DC 20503.

DO NOT send your return to either of these offices. See Where To File on page 5.

How To Use This Instruction Booklet

The instructions are divided into five main sections

• Section 1 (see page 4) explains who must file, how to choose the correct form to use, Section 4 (see page 22) has general information • Section 5 (see page 23) has instructions for most of the lines on many of the schedules that may be attached to • Section 2 (see page 6) has steps to help Section 3 (see page 6) has instructions Form 1040.

Which Form To File You MAY Be Able To Use

Form 1040EZ If: · You were single and do not claim any dependents

 You were not 65 or older OR blind You had only wages, salaries, tips, taxable scholarships and fellowships, and not more than $400 of taxable interest income Your taxable income is less than

 You do not itemize deductions or claim any adjustments to income or tax credits. You MAY Be Able To Use Form 1040A

 You had income only from wages. salaries, tips, taxable scholarships and fellowships, unemployment compensation, interest. or dividends. Your taxable income is less than $50,000.

 You do not itemize deductions. You can also use Form 1040A to claim the deduction for certain contributions to an Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA), nondeductible contributions to an IRA, and the credit for child and dependent care expenses

Since Forms 1040A and 1040EZ are easier to complete than Form 1040, you should use one of them unless using Form 1040 lets you pay less tax. However, even if you meet the above tests, you must file Form 1040 if any of the following situations applies to you.

You MUST Use Form 1040 If:

 Your taxable income is $50,000 or more. You itemize deductions. (Read the instructions for line 34 that begin on page 16 to see if it would benefit you to itemize.) · You received, as a nominee, interest or dividends that actually belong to another person.

· You received or paid accrued interest on securities transferred between interest payment dates

 You received any nontaxable dividends or capital gain distributions. You are required to fill in Part III of Schedule B for foreign accounts and foreign trusts (see page 27 of the instructions). You had any of the kinds of income shown on Form 1040, lines 10 through 19. 21b, and 22, such as taxable social security or railroad retirement benefits. You take any of the adjustments to income shown on Form 1040, lines 24, 26 through 29, or any write-in amount included on line 30. You claim any of the credits on Form 1040, lines 42 through 45, or any write-in amount included on line 46. You owe any of the taxes on Form 1040, lines 39, 48 through 52, or any write-in amount included on line 53 (other than advance EIC payments). Page 6

• You claim any of the payments on Form 1040, lines 55, 59, 60, or any write-in amount included on lines 60 or 61 You file any of these forms;

Form 1040-ES. Estimated Tax for Individuals, for 1988 (or if you want to apply any part of your 1988 overpayment to estimated tax for 1989). Form 2210. Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals. Section 2 Steps for Preparing Your Return

Follow the six useful steps below to help you prepare your return. If you follow these steps and read the line-by-line instructions, we feel that you can fill in your return quickly and accurately.

Step 1 ---- Get all of your records together.

Income Records. These include any Forms W-2, W-2G, W-2P, and 1099 that you may have. If you don't get a Form W-2 by January 31, 1989, or if the one you get isn't correct, please contact your employer as soon as possible. Only your employer can give you a Form W-2 or correct it. If you cannot get a Form W-2 by February 15, call the toll-free telephone number listed in the instructions for your area. You will be asked for your employer's name, address, and if known, identification number Itemized Deductions and Tax Credits. Pages 18 through 26 of these instructions tell you what credits and itemized deductions you can take. Some of the records you may need are:

 Medical and dental payment records Real estate and personal property tax receipts. Interest payment records for items such as a home mortgage, car, or appliances. Records of payments for child and dependent care so you could work

Step 2— Get any forms. schedules, or publications you need.

In general, we mail forms and schedules to you based on what you filed last year. Before you fill in your return, look it over to see if you need more forms or schedules.

If you think you will need any other forms, get them before you start to fill in your return. Most IRS offices and many al banks, post offices, and libraries may have some of them. Or, you can use the order blank on the next to the last page of this instruction booklet. We will send you the forms, schedules, instructions, and publications you ask for.

Step 3- Fill in your return. Section 3 begins the line-by-line instructions

Step 4— Check your return to make sure it is correct. See Avoid Common Mistakes on page 22. Step 5—Sign and date your return. Form 1040 is not considered a return unless you sign it. Your spouse must also sign if it is a joint return

Step 6— Attach all required forms and schedules.

Attach the first copy or Copy B of Forms W-2, W-2G, and W-2P to the front of Form 1040.

Attach all schedules and forms in order of the "Attachment Sequence No." shown in the upper right corner of the schedule or form. For example, the "Attachment Sequence No." for Schedule A (Form 1040) is 07. Attach forms without an attachment sequence number at the end of your return.

If you need more space on forms or schedules, attach separate sheets and use the same format as the printed forms, but show your totals on the printed forms. Please use sheets that are the same size as the forms and schedules. Be sure to put your name and social security number on ese separate sheets and attach them at the end of your return

If you owe tax, be sure to attach your payment to the front of Form 1040.

Section 3 Line-by-Line

Instructions

Name, Address, and Social Security Number

If you received a mailing label from us, please use it. But don't attach your label to your return until you complete the return. Make sure the label is correct. If it isn't. mark through the label and make corrections on the label. Also add any missing information (such as apartment number).

Caution: If the label is for a joint return and the social security numbers are not listed in the same order as the first names, show the numbers in the correct order.

If you do not have a label, print or type your name, address (including apartmen number), and social security number. If filing a joint return, be sure you enter your names and social security numbers in the same order as shown on your 1987 return.

P.O. Box. If your post office does not deliver mail to your street address and you have a P.O. box, enter your P.O. box number on the line for your present home address instead of your street address. Social Security Number, If you are married, give social security numbers for both you and your spouse whether you file joint or separate returns.

If your spouse is a nonnelident slien, has no income, does not have a aobial security number, and you file a separate return, enter "NRA" in the block for your spouse's social security number. If you and your spouse file a joint return, your spouse must get a social security number.

If you don't have a social security number, you can get one by filing Form SS-5 with a local Social Security Administration office. If you don't have a number by the time you are ready to file your return, apply for one and enter "Applied for" in the block for your social security number Name Change. If you have changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., make sure you immediately notify the Social Security Administration (SSA) so the name on your tax return is the same as the name SSA has on its records. This may prevent delays in issuing your refund.

Joint Return: If you are married, filing a joint return, show the social security numbers in the same order that you show your first names. If you and your shouse have different last names, please separate the names with an "and." For example: "John Brown and Mary Smith

Presidential Election Campaign Fund

Congress set up this fund to help pay for Presidential election costs.

You may have $1 go to the fund by checking the Yes box. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse may also have $1 go to the fund

If you check Yes, it will not change the tax or refund shown on your return

Filing Status Lines 1 through 5 Single

You can file as single if on December 31 you were unmarried or separated from your spouse either by divorce or a separate maintenance decree and you do not qualify for another filing status. State law governs whether you are married, divorced, or legally separated

If you were married on December 31 consider yourself married for the whole year. If you meet the tests explained on this page for Married Persons Who Live Apart. you may file as head of household.

If your spouse died in 1988, consider vourself married to that spouse for the whole year unless you remarried before the end of 1988

Married

Joint or Separate Returns? Generally, married couples will pay less tax if they file a joint return because the tax rate for married persons filing jointly is lower than the tax rate for married persons filing separately. However, as a result of some o the changes in the tax law, you may want to figure your tax both ways to see which filing status is to your tax benefit. Joint Returns. If you file a joint return, you must report all income exemptions. deductions, and credits for you and your spouse. Both of you must sign the return. even if only one of you had income.

You and your spouse can file a joint return even if you did not live together for the whole year. Both of you are responsible for any fax due on a joint return, so if one of you does not pay, the other may have to.

Note: If you file a joint return, you may not, after the due date of the return, choose to file separate returns for that year.

If your spouse died in 1988, you can file a joint return for 1988. You can also file a oint return if your shouse died in 1989 before filing a 1988 return. For details on how to file the joint return, see Death of Taxpayer on page 22.

Tax Tip: If you decide not to file a joint return and plan to file a separate return, see if you can lower your tax by meeting the ests described below under Married Persons Who Live Apart

Special Rule for Aliens. --- If at the end of 1988 you were a nonresident alien or dual-status alien married to a U.S. citizen or resident alien, you may be able to file a joint return with your spouse. If you do file a joint return, you and your spouse must agree to be taxed on your combined worldw income. For more details, get Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens Separate Returns. You can file separate returns if both you and your shouse had income, or if only one of you had income.

If you file a separate return, you each report only your own income, exemptions, deductions, and credits, and you are responsible only for the tax due on your own return. However, if you live in a community property state, special rules apply. For details, get Pub. 555.

If you file a separate return, you generally cannot take the credit for child and dependent care expenses and you cannot take the earned income credit. If you lived with your spouse at any time in 1988. you cannot take the credit for the elderly of the disabled. Also, you may have to include in income up to one-half of any social security benefits or equivalent railroad retirement benefits you received in 1988. If your spouse itemizes deductions, you cannot take the standard deduction.

If you file a separate return, enter your spouse's full name in the space provided on line 3 and your spouse's social security number in the block provided for that number

If your spouse does not file, check the box on line 6b if you can claim an exemption for your spouse. Please see For Your Spouse on page 8.

Married Persons Who Live Apart Some married persons who have a child and who do not live with their spouse may file as head of household and use tax rates that are lower than the rates for single or for married filing a separate return. This also means that you can take the standard deduction even if your spouse itemizes deductions. You may also be able to claim the earned income credit

You should check the box on line 4 Head of household, if you meet ALL 4 of the following tests:

1. You file a separate return from your spouse 2. You paid more than half the cost to keep up your home in 1988.

3. Your spouse did not live with you at any time during the last 6 months of 1988. 4. For over 6 months of 1988, your home was the main home of your child or stepchild whom-

a. you can claim as a dependent, OR

b. the child's other parent claims as a dependent under the rules explained on page 9 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. (Enter this child's name in the space provided on line 4.)

Head of Household

Tax Tip: The tax rates for a person who can meet the tests for head of household are lower than the rates for single or for married filing a separate return.

You may use this filing status ONLY IF on December 31, 1988, you were unmarried (including certain married persons who live apart, as discussed above) or legally separated and meet test 1 or 2 below

1. You paid more than half the cost of keeping up a home for the entire year, which was the main home of your father or mother whom you can claim as a dependent, OR ·

2. You paid more than half the cost of keeping up the home in which you lived and in which one of the following also lived for more than 6 months of the year (except for temporary absences, such as for vacation or school)

a. Your unmarried child, grandchild, great grandchild, etc., adopted child, or stepchild. This child does not have to be your dependent. However, your foster child must be your dependent.

h. Your married child, grandchild, great grandchild, etc., adopted child, or stepchild. This child must be your dependent. But if your married child's other parent claims him or her as a dependent under the rules on page 9 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, this child does not have to be your dependent.

c. Any other relative listed below whom you can claim as a dependent

Parent	Father-in-law
Grandparent	Brother-in-law

Note: See instructions for line 6c for the finition of dependent.

Special rules

 If you receive payments under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program and use them to pay part of the cost of keeping up this home, you may not count these amounts as furnished by you.

. You cannot file as head of household if you claim a relative described in 1 or 2 above as a dependent under a Multiple Support Declaration. (See page 9 for details on dependents supported by two or more taxoavers.)

Qualifying Widow or Widower With a Dependent Child

If your spouse died in 1986 or 1987 and you did not remarry in 1988, you may be able to use joint return tax rates for 1988.

You can figure your tax at joint return rates if you meet ALL 3 of the following tests: 1. You could have filed a joint return with your spouse for the year your spouse died. even if you didn't actually do so. 2. Your dependent child, stepchild, adopted for temporary absences, such as for the home for this child for the whole year. Check the box on line 5. Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, and show the year your spouse died in the space

If your spouse died before 1986 and you did not remarry by the end of 1988, you may check the box on line 4 if you meet the tests under Head of Household. Otherwise, you did not live with you for reasons other than divorce or separation on the line labeled "No. of other dependents listed on 6c." This includes your dependents who were not U.S. citizens and who resided in Canada or Mexico during 1988.

Birth or Death of Dependent. You can take an exemption for a dependent who was born or who died during 1988 if he or she met the tests for a dependent while alive. This means that a baby who lived only a few minutes can be claimed as a dependent. For more details, get Pub. 501,

Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information

Dependent. A dependent is any person who meets ALL 5 of these tests:

- 1 income: 2. support:
- 3. married dependent:
- citizenship or residence; and 1988 or

5. relationship These tests are explained below.

Test 1-Income In general, the person must have received less than $1,950 of gross income. Gross income does not include nontaxable income, such as welfare benefits or nontaxable social security benefits

Income received by a permanently and totally disabled person for services performed at a sheltered workshop school is generally not included in gross income for purposes of the income test. Get Pub. 501 or details.

Special Rules for Your Dependent Child. Even if your child had income of $1,950 or more, you can claim your child as a dependent if tests 2, 3, and 4 below are met and your child was under 19 at the end of 1988, or · your child was enrolled as a full-time udent at a school during any 5 months of your child took a full-time_on-farm training course during any 5 months of 1988. (The course had to be given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.)

The school must have a regular teaching staff, a regular course of study, and a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance

A school includes · elementary, junior, and senior high schools: colleges and universities; and technical, trade, and mechanical schools

However, school does not include on-thejob training courses or correspondence schools.

Test 2—Support In general, you must have given over half of the dependent's support in 1988. If you file a joint return, the support can be from you r your spouse. Even if you did not give over half of the dependent's support, you will be treated as having given over half of the support if you meet the tests explained on page 9 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents or Dependent Supported by Two or More Taxpayers

In figuring total support, you must include money the dependent used for his or her own support, even if this money was not taxable (for example, gifts, savings, welfare benefits). If your child was a student, do not include amounts he or she received as scholarships.

Support includes items such as food, a place to live, clothes, medical and dental care, recreation, and education. In figuring support, use the actual cost of these However, the cost of a place to live is figured at its fair rental value.

Do not include in support items such as income and social security taxes, premiums for life insurance, or funeral expenses.

provided. Do not claim an exemption for your spouse must file as single.

Canital items-You must include canital items such as a car or furniture in figuring support, but only if they were actually giver to, or bought by, the dependent for his or her use or benefit. Do not include the cost of a capital item for the household or for use by persons other than the dependent.

If you cared for a foster child, see Pub. 501 for special rules that apply. Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. The parent who has custody of a child for most of the year (the custodial parent) can generally take the exemption for that child if the child's parents together paid more than half of the child's support This general rule also applies to parents who did not live together at any time during the last 6 months of the year. But the parent who does not have custody, or who has the child for the shorter time (the noncustodia parent), may take the exemption if either a or b below applies a. The custodial parent signs Form 8332, Release of Claim to Exemption for Child of Divorced or Separated Parents, or similar statement, agreeing not to claim an exemption for the child in 1988, and the noncustodial parent attaches the form, or similar statement, to his or her 1988 tay return. See Children Who Didn't Live With You on page 8, for more information.

b. A decree of divorce or separate maintenance (or a written agreement) that was in effect before 1985 states that the noncustodial parent can take the exemption and he or she gave at least $600 for the child's support in 1988. The noncustodial parent must check the box on line 6d for pre-1985 agreements. This rule does not apply if the decree or agreement was modified after 1984 to specify that the noncustodial parent cannot claim the exemption.

Note: In figuring support, a parent who has remarried may count the support provided by the new shouse Dependent Supported by Two or More Taxpavers, Sometimes two or more taxpayers together pay more than half of another person's support, but no one alone pays over half of the support. One of the taxpayers may claim the person as a dependent only if the tests for income married dependent, citizenship or residence, and relationship are met

In addition, the taxpayer who claims the dependent must: a, have paid more than 10% of the dependent's support, and

b. attach to his or her tax return a signed Form 2120, Multiple Support Declaration, from every other person who paid more than 10% of the support. This form states that the person who signs it will not claim an exemption in 1988 for the person he or she helped to support.

Test 3-Married Dependent

The dependent did not file a joint return. However, if neither the dependent nor the dependent's spouse is required to file, but they file a joint return to get a refund of all tax withheld, you may claim him or her if the other & tests are met

Test 4-Citizenship or Residence The dependent must have been a citizen or resident of the United States, a resident of Canada or Mexico, or an alien child adopted. by and living the entire year with a U.S. citizen in a foreign country. Test 5-Relationship

a. Was related to you (or your spouse if you are filing a joint return) in one of the following ways:

Brother-in-law Child Great grand-Stepchild Mother child etc Sister-in-law Son-in-law Half-brother Father Half-sister Daughter-in-law or, if related by Stepbrother Great Grand-Stepsister blood: parent, etc. Stenmother Uncle Brother Stepfather Sister Mother in-law Neohew Niece Grandchild Father-in-law Note: Any relationships that have been established by marriage are not treated as ended by death or divorce.

b. Was any other person who lived in your home as a member of your household for the whole year. A person is not a member of your household if at any time during your tax year the relationship between you and that person violates local stepdaughter, or adopted son or daughter. · A child who lived in your home as a , member of your family if placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption

 A foster child (any child who lived in you) home as a member of your family for the whole year for whom you did not receive qualified foster care payments).

Examples of Income You Must Report

The following kinds of income should be reported on Form 1040, or related forms and schedules, in addition to the types of income listed on Form 1040, lines 7 through 21b. You may need some of the Life insurance proceeds from a policy you cashed in if the proceeds are more than the premium you paid.

Your share of profits from S corporations, partnerships, estates and trusts (Schedule E). Endowments.

Lump-sum distributions (Form 4972). (See page 12.) Gains from the sale or exchange (including barter) of real estate, securities, coins, gold, silver, gems, or other property (Schedule D or Form 4797). Gains from the sale of your main home (Schedule D and Form 2119). Accumulation distributions from trusts (Form 4970). Prizes and awards (contests, raffles, lottery, and gambling winnings). Earned income from sources outside the United States (Form 2555). Director's fees. Fees received as an executor or administrator of an estate. Embezzled or other illegal income

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

You may round off cents to the nearest whole dollar on your return and schedules To do so, drop amounts under 50 cents and increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. For example $1.39 becomes $1 and $2.50 becomes $3. If you do round off, do so for all amounts However, if you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, include cents when adding the amounts and only round off the total Example. You received two W-2 forms, one showing wages of $5,000.55 and one showing wages of $18,500,73. On Form 1040, line 7, you would enter $23,501 ($5,000,55 + $18,500,73 = $23,501,28) instead of $23,502 ($5,001 + $18,501).

 Tips received that you did not report to your employer. (Show any social security tax due on these tips on line 51—see the instructions on page 19.)

Note: Any tip allocation amount shown on Form W-2 may be added to your gross income unless you are able to prove a lesser amount with adequate records. Disability pensions if you have not reached the minimum retirement age set by your employer.

Note: Except for those disability pensions mentioned above, pensions shown on Form W-2P (other than payments from an IRA) are reported on lines 17a and 17b of Form 1040. Payments from an IRA are reported on lines 16a and 16b.

 Payments by insurance companies, etc. not included on Form W-2. If you receive sick pay or a disability payment from anyone other than your employer, and it is not included in the wages shown on Form W-2, include it on line 7. Attach a statement showing the name and address of the payer and amount of sick pay or disability income (Get Form W-4S for information on withholding of Federal income tax from your sick pay.) Fair market value of meals and living quarters if given by your employer as a matter of your choice and not for your employer's convenience. Don't report the value of meals given you at work if they were provided for your employer's convenience. Also do not report the value of living quarters you had to accept on your employer's business premises as a condition of employment

 Strike and lockout benefits naid by a union from union dues. Include cash and the fair market value of goods received. Don't report benefits that were gifts.

 Any amount your employer paid for your moving expenses (including the value of services furnished in kind) that is not included in Box 10 on Form W-2.

Note: You must report on line 7 all wages. salaries, etc., paid for your personal se even if the income was signed over to a trust (including an IRA), another person, a corporation, or a tax-exempt organization

For more details on reporting income received in the form of goods, property neals, stock options, etc., get Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income Fringe Benefits. If you used an employer-provided highway motor vehicle for both personal and business use and your employer included 100% of the fair rental value of the vehicle in the wages, tips, and other compensation box (Box 10) of your W-2 form, you must use Form 2106, Employee Business Expenses, to claim a deduction for the business use of the vehicle. (The total fair rental value of the vehicle should be shown in Box 16a of your W-2 form or on a separate statement.) You must report on Form 1040, line 7, the total amount shown in Box 10 of your W-2 form.

For more details, get Pub. 525. Excess Salary Deferrals. If you choose to have your employer contribute part of your pay to certain retirement plans (such as a 401(k) or the Federal Thrift Savings Fund) instead of having it oaid to you, the Form W-2 you get from that employer should have the "Deferred compensation" box in Box 5 checked. The amount deferred should be shown in Box 16. The total amount that may be deferred for 1988 under all plans is generally limited to $7,313. Any amount deferred in excess of $7.313 must be reported on Form 1040, line 7. Amounts deferred under a tax-sheltered annuity plan may have a higher limit. Get Pub. 571, Tax Sheltered Annuity Programs for Employees of Public Schools and Certain Tax-Exempt Organizations, for details Scholarships and Fellowships. If you received amounts as a scholarship or fellowship, part of the amounts you received may be taxable.

If you were a degree candidate and the scholarship or fellowship was granted after August 16, 1986, the amounts you used for expenses other than tuition and courserelated expenses are taxable. For example amounts you spent on room, board, and travel are taxable.

Include the taxable amount on line 7 Then write "SCH" and the amount not reported on a W-2 form in the space to the eft of line 7. If the scholarship or fellowship was granted on or before August 16, 1986, or if you were not a degree candidate, get Pub. 520, Scholarships and Fellowships, to see how much is taxable and how to report it Line 8a

Taxable Interest Income Enter ALL of your taxable interest income. If the total interest is more than $400, first fill in Schedule B (see page 26 of the instructions). Report any interest you received or that was credited to your account so you could withdraw it. (It does not have to be entered in your passbook.) Interest that was credited in 1988 oh degosits that you could not withdraw because of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the financial institution may not have to be included in your 1988 income, For details, get Pub. 550. Investment Income and Expenses.

Generally, the payer will send you a Form 1099-INT or, if applicable, a Form 1099-OID for this interest.

If you received, as a nominee, interest that actually belongs to someone else, see Schedule B instructions on page 27. Caution: Be sure to give each payer of interest income your correct social security number. Otherwise, the payer may have to withhold 20% of the interest. You may also be subject to penalties.

 Bonds and debentures. Also arbitrage bonds issued by state and local governments after October 9, 1969. Report interest on other state and local bonds and securities on line 8b.) Also report as interest any gain on the disposition of certain market discount conds issued to you after July 18, 1984, to the extent of the accrued market discount. • U.S. Treasury bills, notes, and bonds.

· U.S. Savings Bonds. The interest is the yearly increase in the value of the bond. Interest on Series E or EE bonds can be reported using method a or b below:

a. Report the total interest when you cash the bonds, or when they reach final maturity and no longer earn interest; OR b. Each year report on your return the yearly increase of the bonds' value.

If you change to method b, report the entire increase in all your bonds from the date they were issued. Each year after report only the yearly increase. Once you have used method b to report your interest you must continue to do so for all your U.S. Savings Bonds.

Note: If you receive for 1988 a Form 1099-INT for U.S. Savings Bond interest, which includes amounts you reported before 1988, see Pub. 550.

 Original Issue Discount (OID). This is the difference between the issue price of a debt instrument and the stated redemption price at maturity. If the instrument was issued at a discount after May 27, 1969 (or for certain noncorporate instruments after July 1, 1982), include in your interest income the discount for the part of the year you held it.

If you bought a corporate debt instrument at original issue and held it for all of 1988 or the part of 1988 that it was outstanding, include in interest income the total OID from Form 1099-OID. If you bought a corporate instrument after its original issue, or if you did not hold it for all Individual Returns/1988 of 1988, get Pub. 1212, List of Original Issue Discount Instruments, for information on how to figure your taxable OID. If you held a noncorporate debt instrument (such as a zero coupon U.S. Treasury-backed security) during 1988, see Pub. 1212 to figure your taxable OID.

If you had OID for 1988, but did not receive Form 1099-OID, or if the price you paid for the instrument is more than the issue price plus accumulated OID, see Pub. 1212. It provides total OID on the instruments listed and gives computational information

Also include in your interest income any other periodic interest shown on Form 1099-OID.

Tax-Exempt Interest Income

If you received any tax-exempt interest income (such as interest on certain state and municipal bonds), that interest must be reported on your return. Enter the total taxexempt interest you received in 1988 on line 8b. Also, report any exempt-interest dividends you received as a shareholder in a mutual fund or other regulated investment company. Do not include this interest in your total income on line 23.

Note: Interest earned on your IRA account is not tax-exempt interest for purposes of completing line 8b. Do not include this interest on line 8b. IRA interest is taxdeferred interest and is taxable when you receive IRA distributions

Line 9 Dividends

Dividends are distributions of money, stock, or other property that corporations pay to stockholders. They also include dividends you receive through a partnership, an S corporation, or an estate or trust. Payers Generally, the payer will send you a Form 1099-DIV for these dividends.

If you received, as a nominee, dividends that actually belong to someone else, see Schedule B instructions on page 27. Caution: Be sure to give each payer of dividends your correct social security number. Otherwise, the payer may have to withhold 20% of the dividend income. You may also be subject to penalties.

If the total dividends, including capital gain and nontaxable distributions, are more than $400, first fill in Schedule B (see page 27 of the instructions). If you received $400 or less in dividends, include only the ordinary dividends on line 9.

Dividends Include:

 Ordinary dividends. Assume that any dividend you receive is an ordinary dividend unless the payer tells you otherwise. Form 1099-DIV shows gross dividends in Box 1. To figure the amount of "ordinary To figure the amount of urunary dividends," subtract any capital gain distributions (Box 3) and any nontaxable distributions (Box 5) from gross dividends.

· Capital gain distributions. If you have Capital gain distributions. If you have other capital gains or losses, also enter your capital gain distributions on Schedule D. If you don't need Schedule D to report any other gains or losses, enter your capital gain distributions on Form 1040, line 14.

 Nontaxable distributions. Some distributions are nontaxable because they are a return of your cost. They will not be taxed until you recover your cost. You must reduce your cost (or other basis) by these distributions. After you get back all of your cost (or other basis), you must report these distributions as capital gains.

Note: Generally, payments from a money market fund are dividends.

Do Not Report as Dividends

 Mutual insurance company dividends that reduced the premiums you paid.

 Amounts paid on deposits or accounts from which you could withdraw your money such as mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, and credit unions. Remember to report these amounts as interest on line 8a.

Taxable Refunds of State and Local Income Taxes

If you received a refund (or credit or offset) of state or local income taxes in 1988 that you paid and deducted before 1988, you may have to report all or part of this amount as income if your itemized deduction for state and local income taxes in the year you paid the taxes resulted in a tax benefit. You may receive Form 1099-G, or similar statement, showing the refund.

Any part of a refund of state or local income taxes paid before 1988 that you were entitled to receive in 1988 but chose to apply to your 1988 estimated state income tax is considered to have been received in 1988.

Do not report the refund as income if it was for a tax you paid in a year for which you did not itemize deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040), or it was for a year in which you filed Form 1040A or Form 1040EZ.

If the refund was for a tax you paid in a year for which you itemized deductions on Schedule A, use the worksheet on this page to figure the amount, if any, you must report as income for 1988.

However, see Recoveries in Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income, instead of using the worksheet on this page if any of the following applies:

• The refund you received in 1988 is for a tax year other than 1987.

Pensions and Annuities Use lines 17a and 17b to report pension and annuity income you received. Also, use these lines to report distributions from profit-sharing plans, retirement plans and employee-savings plans. See below for information on rollover distributions and lump-sum distributions. In general, you should receive a Form W-2P or Form 1099-R showing the amount of your pension or annuity. Be sure to attach Form W-2P to Form 1040.

Do not use lines 17a and 17b to report social security or railroad retirement benefits shown on Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099. Instead, see the instructions for lines 21a and 21b Fully Taxable Pensions and Annuities Your pension or annuity payments are fully taxable if: · you did not contribute to the cost of your pension or annuity, or you got back tax-free your entire cost before 1988. Fully taxable pensions and annuities also include military retirement pay shown on Form W-2P and any taxable railroad retirement benefits from Box 12 of Form RRB-W-2P. If you received Form RRB-W-2P and an amount is shown in Box 13 of your form, get Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income, to see how to report your benefits

a. Annulty Starting Date Was After December 31, 1987.—If your annu starting date was after December 31, 1987. and your Form W-2P does not show a taxable part of your pension or annuity, you may use the General Rule explained in Pub. 575 or Pub. 721, Comprehensive Tax Guide to U. S. Civil Service Retirement Benefits, to figure the taxable part. If you choose to, you may submit a ruling request to IRS before the due date of your return (including extensions), and IRS will figure the taxable part for you. See Pub. 575 for details on how to do this.

In some cases, you may be able to use a simpler method to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity. Pubs. 575 and 72 explain who can use the simpler method and how to figure the taxable part of the pension or annuity using this method. The simpler method will usually result in about the same amount of pension or ann being taxed each year as under the General Rule or as figured by IRS.

If your Form W-2P shows a taxable amount and the payer tells you that this amount was determined using the simpler method, you may report on line 17b the taxable amount shown on the W-2P. But if you are a beneficiary and are entitled to a death benefit exclusion (see Beneficiaries—Death Benefit Exclusion below), get Pub. 575 or 721 to figure the taxable amount to report on line 17b. b. Annuity Starting Date Was After July 1 your annuity starting date was after July 1. 1986, and before January 1, 1988, and your Form W-2P does not show the taxable part of your pension or annuity, you may continue to use the General Rule explained in Pub. 575 or 721 if you used this method for 1987, Or. if you had IRS figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity, you can continue to use the figure IRS provided you.

But if you choose to, you may be able to change to the simpler method that applies to people whose annuity starting date began after December 31, 1987. To see if you car change to the simpler method for 1988, get Pub. 575 or 721. c. Annuity Starting Date Was Before July 2, 1986.—If your annuity starting date was before July 2, 1986, and your Form W-2P does not show the taxable part of your pension or annuity, you may use the orksheet on this page to figure the taxable part.

To use the worksheet, you must meet both of the following requirements:

 Both you and your employer contributed to the pension or annuity. The total amount you expected to receive within 36 months from the date of your first annuity payment equaled or exceeded your full cost. (Your cost includes amounts you contributed and amounts your employe contributed that you reported as income.) If you do not meet both of the above requirements, see Pub. 575 or 721 to figure the taxable part.

Pension and Annuity Worksheet (Keep for your records)

- 1a. Enter your cost..... b. Cost recovered in prior years... . Subtract line 1b from line 1a.... Amount received this year. Also enter this amount on Form 1040,
- line 17a 3. Enter amount from line 1c
- 3 from line 2. Enter the result (but not less than zero). Also enter this amount on Form 1040, line 17b

Note: If you had more than one pension or annuity that is not fully taxable, figure the taxable part of each separately. Enter the total of the taxable parts on Form 1040, line 17b.

Caution: Certain transactions, such as loans against your interest in a qualified plan, may be treated as taxable distributions and may also be subject to penalties. For details, see Pub. 575.

Beneficiarles-Death Benefit Exclusion

If you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee or deceased former employee, amounts paid to you by, or on behalf of, an employer because of the death of the employee may qualify for a death benefit exclusion of up to $5,000. If you are entitled to this exclusion, add it to the cost of the pension or annuity.

Special rules apply if you are the survivor under a joint and survivor's annuity. For details, get Pub. 575.

Rollover Distributions. A rollover is a taxfree transfer of cash or other assets from one retirement program to another. Use lines 17a and 17b to report a rollover from one qualified employer's plan to another, or to an IRA.

Rollover distributions aré generally eported to you on Form 1099-R or Form W-2P. Enter the total distribution (excluding our nondeductible contribution, if any) on line 17a. If the total on line 17a was rolled over, enter zero on line 17b. Otherwise, enter the part that was not rolled over as ordinary income on line 17b. Special rules apply to partial rollovers of property.

For details on rollovers, including stributions under qualified domestic relations orders, get Pub. 575.

Lump-Sum Distributions. If you received a lump-sum distribution from a profit-sharing Form 1099-R showing the amount of the ordinary income part and the capital gain part on line 17b; no entry is required on line 17a. But you may pay less tax on this distribution if you were age 50 or older on January 1, 1986, and you meet certain other conditions. For details, get Form 4972, Tax on Lump Sum Distributions. If you use Form 4972 to figure the tax on any part of your distribution, do not include that part of the distribution on line 17a or b of Form 1040. Caution: If you received a premature or excess distribution from a qualified retirement plan, you may owe additional tax. For details, get Form 5329.

Unemployment Compensation Unemployment compensation (insurance) is fully taxable. By January 31, 1989, you should receive a Form 1099-G showing the total unemployment compensation paid to you during 1988.

Use line 20 to report the unemployment compensation you received. If you received an overpayment of unemployment sation in 1988 and you repaid it in 1988, subtract the amount you repaid from the total amount you received and enter the result on line 20. Also write repayment" and the amount you repaid on the dotted line to the left of line 20. Note: Supplemental unemployment benefits received from a company-financed supplemental unemployment benefit fund are wages. Report them on line 7.

Lines 21a and 21b Social Security Benefits and

Equivalent Railroad Retirement Renefits

Social security benefits you receive may be taxable in some instances. Social security nefits include any monthly benefit under title II of the Social Security Act or the part of a tier 1 railroad retirement benefit treated as a social security benefit. Social security benefits do not include any Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments

By January 31, 1989, you should receive a Form SSA-1099 showing the total social security benefits paid to you in 1988, and the amount of any social security benefits you repaid in 1988. If you received railroad retirement benefits treated as social security, you should receive Form RRB-1099. For more details, get Pub. 915. Social Security Benefits and ivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits.

Use the worksheet below to see if any of your benefits are taxable, but please note the following before you begin it.

You will first need to complete Form 1040, lines 7 through 20, 22, and 30 if they apply to you to figure the taxable part, if any, of your benefits.

Caution: If you made IRA contributions for 1988 and you were covered by a retirement plan at work, you may need to make a special computation. See Pub. 590 for details

 If you repaid any benefits in 1988, and your total repayments (Box 4) were more than your total benefits for 1988 (Box 3) do not use the worksheet below. None of your benefits are taxable for 1988. But you may be able to take an itemized deduction for part of the excess repayments if they were for benefits you included in gross income in an earlier year. Get Pub. 915. • If you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, or Form 4563, Exclusion of income For Bona Fide Residents of American Samoa, or you exclude income from sources within Puerto Rico, use the worksheet in Pub. 915 instead

Line 22 Other income

Use line 22 to report any income you can't find a place for on your return or other schedules. List the type and amount of income. If necessary, show the required information on an attached statement. For more information see Miscellaneous Taxable Income in Pub. 525. Taxable and Nontaxable Income Caution: Do not report any income from self-employment on line 22. If you do have any income from self-employment, you must use Schedule C or Schedule F. Amounts your mployer paid you for business expenses that are more than you spent for the actual business expenses should be added to the wages shown on line 7 unless they were already included on your Form W-2.

Examples of income to be reported on line 22 are:

 Prizes, awards, and gambling winnings.
 Proceeds from lotteries, raffles, etc., are gambling winnings. You must report the full amount of your winnings on this line. You cannot offset losses against winnings and report the difference.

If you had any gambling losses, you may take them as an itemized deduction on Schedule A. However, you cannot deduct more losses than the winnings you report Amounts you received for medical expenses or other items such as real estate taxes that you deducted in an earlier year if they reduced your tax. See Pub. 525 for information on how to figure the amount to include in income Amounts you recovered on bad debts that you deducted in an earlier year Fees received for jury duty and precinct election board duty. Net Operating Loss. If you had a net operating loss in an earlier year to carry forward to 1988, enter it as a minus figure on line 22. Attach a statement showing how you figured the amount. Get Pub. 536. Net Operating Losses, for more details.

Reimbursed Employee Business Expenses

Use line 24 to deduct only those business expenses for which your employer (or a third party) paid or reimbursed you. Deduct your unreimbursed business expenses on Schedule A, line 20, You must complete and attach Form 2106, Employee Business Expense, to figure your deduction Exception. Do not complete Form 2106 if: You accounted to your employer for your expenses by means of an account book, diary, or similar statement; your expenses equaled your reimbursement; and the reimbursement was not included on your W-2 form. Do not deduct these expenses or report the reimbursement

For details, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 251) or get Pub. 463, Travel, Entertainment, and Gift Expenses, or pet Pub. 917. Business Use of a Car. Performing Artists, if you worked in the performing arts for more than one employer, you may be able to deduct your Page 13 reimbursed and unreimbursed expenses related to that work on line 24. For details get Pub. 529, Miscellaneous Deductions.

Lines 25a and 25b Individual Retirement

Arrangement (IRA) Deduction Use line 25a to deduct amounts contributed to your IRA. If you file a joint return, use line 25b for your spouse's IRA.

Caution: If you are covered by a retirement plan (qualified pension, profit-sharing, annuity, Keogh, SEP, etc.) at work of through self-employment, your IRA deduction may be reduced or eliminated. But you can still make contributions to an IRA even if you can't deduct them In any case, the income earned on your IRA is not taxed until it is paid to you

Were You Covered by an Employer Retizement Plan?

The "Pension Plan" box in Box 5 of your Form W-2 should be checked if you were covered by a plan for 1988. This box should be checked even if you are not vested in the plan. You are also covered by a plan if you are self-employed and have a Keogh retirement plan. If you were married filing a separate return and not covered by a plan but your spouse was, you are not considered to be covered. Get Pub. 590. Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), for details Caution: A pending tax law change would treat married persons filing separate returns as covered by a plan if their spouse was covered and they lived together at any time in 1988. Get Pub. 553 to find out whether this law was passed

Not Covered by a Retirement Plan, if you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) were not covered by a plan at work, use Worksheet 1 to figure your IRA Covered by a Retirement Plan. If you (or your soouse if filing a joint return) were covered by a plan at work, the chart on this page will tell you if you can deduct your IRA and if you can which worksheet to use

Nondeductible Contributions, You can make nondeductible contributions to your IRA. You can do this even if you are allowed to deduct your contributions. You nondeductible contribution is the difference between the total allowable contributions to your IRA and the amount you deduct Example: You file as single and paid $2,000 into your IRA. You were covered by a retirement plan and your modified AGI is over $35,000 (all wages). You can't deduct the $2,000. But you can treat it as a nondeductible contribution If you use Worksheet 1, you can treat all or part of line 3 (or line 8 if it applies) as a nondeductible contribution. If you use Worksheet 2, you can treat all or part of lines 9 and 10 (or lines 19 and 20 if they apply) as a nondeductible contribution Use Form 8606 to report all contributions you treat as nondeductible. Also use Form 8506 to figure the basis (nontaxable part) of your IRA and the taxable part of any IRA distribution. If you and your spouse each make nondeductible contributions, each of you must complete a separate Form 8606

Note: If you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, get Pub. 590 to figure your IRA. Before you do the worksheet that applies to you, please note:

 If you made contributions to your IRA in 1988 that you deducted in 1987, do not include them in the worksheet. If you make contributions to your IRA in 1989 (by April 17) for 1988, include them in the worksheet

· If the total of your IRA deduction plus any nondeductible contributions is less than ir total IRA contributions for 1988, see Pub 590 for special rules

 If you were married, you must file a joint return to deduct contributions to your nonworking spouse's IRA for 1988. A nonworking spouse is one who had no wages or other earned income in 1988. Also, a working spouse may choose to be treated as having no earned income for figuring the deduction. Your IRA deduction can't be more than the total of your wages and other earned income.

 Do not include rollover contributions in figuring your deduction. See the instructions for lines 16a and 16b on page 12 for more details on rollover contributions.

 Do not include trustee's fees that were billed separately and paid by you for your IRA. These fees can be deducted only as an itemized deduction on Schedule A. Alimony payments received under certain divorce or separation instruments are considered earned income for purposes of the IRA deduction. See Pub. 590.

 You will first need to complete Form 1040 through line 24 and lines 26 through 29, if they apply to you, to figure your IRA deduction and, if applicable, nondeductible contributions You should receive a statement by May 31, 1989, showing all contributions made to your IRA for 1988.

Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction

If you were self-employed and had a net profit for the year, you may be able to deduct part of the amount paid for health insurance on behalf of yourself, your spouse, and dependents. But you may not take the deduction if you were eligible to participate in any subsidized health plan maintained by your or your spouse's employer. Also, if you had employees, you may not take the deduction unless you provided nondiscriminatory health insurance coverage to your employees. For more details, get Pub. 535, Business Expenses.

If you qualify to take the deduction, use the worksheet below to figure the amount you can deduct. But if either of the lowing applies, use the worksheet in Pub. 535 instead of the one below 1. You file Form 2555 or Form 4563, or you exclude income from sources within Puerto Rico. You claim a net operating loss deduction.

deduct payments to your Keogh (HR 10) plan or SEP on line 27. Deduct payments for your employees on Schedule C or F Caution: You must be self-employed to claim the Keogh deduction. There are two types of Keogh plans: A defined contribution plan has a separate account for each person. Benefits are based on the amount paid to each account

 Payments to a defined-benefit plan are determined by the funds needed to give a specific benefit at retirement. If you deduct payments to this kind of plan, write "DB" to the left of line 27.

Get Pub. 560, Self-Employed Retirement Plans, for more information, including limits on the amount you can deduct.

Line 28

Penalty on Early Withdrawal of Savings The Form 1099-INT or, if applicable, Form 1099-OID given to you by your bank or savings and loan association will show the amount of any penalty you were charged because you withdrew funds from your time savings deposit before its maturity. Enter this amount on line 28. (Be sure to include the interest income on Form 1040, line 8a.)

Line 29

Alimony Paid You can deduct periodic payments of alimony or separate maintenance made under a court decree. You can also deduct payments made under a written separation agreement or a decree for support. Don't deduct lump-sum cash or property settlements, voluntary payments not made under a court order or a written separation agreement, or amounts specified as child support.

For details, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 253) or get Pub. 504, Tax Information for Divorced or Separated Individuals

You must enter the recipient's last name if different than yours, and his or her social security number in the space provided on line 29. If you don't, you may have to pay a $50 penalty and your deduction may be disallowed. If you paid alimony to more than one person, enter the social security number and last name, if applicable, of one of the recipients. Show the required information, including the amount paid, for the other recipient(s) on an attached statement. Enter your total payments on line 29. Divorce or Separation Instruments Executed After 1984. Generally, you may deduct any payment made in Cash to, or on behalf of, your spouse or former spouse under a divorce or separation instrume executed after 1984 if the instrument does not prevent the payment from qualifying as alimony, and you and your spouse or former spouse did not live together when the payment was made if you were separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, and you are not required to make any payment after the death of your spouse or former spouse, and the payment is not treated as child support. These rules also apply to certain instruments modified after 1984. Other rules apply if you paid more than $10,000 in any calendar year. For more details, see Pub. 504

Line 30

Total Adjustments Add lines 24 through 29 and enter the total on line 30. Also include in the total on line 30 any of the following adjustments. Forestation/Reforestation Amortization If you can claim a deduction for nortization of the costs of forestation or reforestation and you do not have to file Schedule C or Schedule F for this activity, include your deduction in the total on line "Reforestation" in the space to the left of the total.

Repayment of Sub-Pay Under the Trade Act of 1974. If you repaid supplemental unemployment benefits (sub-pay) that you previously reported in income because you became eligible for payments under the Trade Act of 1974, include the amount you repaid in 1988 in the total on line 30. Write Sub-pay TRA" in the space to the left of the total. Or, you may be able to claim a credit against your tax instead. Get Pub. 525. Taxable and Nontaxable Income, for more details.

Line 31

Adjusted Gross Income

If line 31 is less than zero, you may have a net operating loss that you can carry to another tax year. If you carry the loss back to earlier years, see Form 1045, Application for Tentative Refund. If you do not wish to carry back a net operating loss, you may elect to carry the loss over to future years. You must attach the election to your return. For more information, get Pub. 536. Net Operating Losses.

IRS Will Figure Your Tax and Some of Your Credits

If you want us to, we will figure your tax for you. If you gaid too much, we will send you a refund. If you did not pay enough, we will hill you for the balance. Line 51

Social Security Tax on Tip Income Not Reported to Employer

If you received tips of $20 or more in any month and you did not report the full amount to your employer, you must pay the social security or railroad retirement (RRTA) tax on the unreported tips. If you reported the full amount to your employer but your employer did not withhold the social security or RRTA tax, you must pay it unless the rules discussed under Uncollected Employee Social Security and RRTA Tax on Tips (time 53) apply.

To figure the amount of social security tax on the tips, complete Form 4137 and attach it to your Form 1040. Enter the tax on this line.

To determine the amount of RRTA tax on the tips, contact your nearest Railroad Retirement Board office. On line 51, enter the tax and on the dotted line next to it, write "RRTA."

Be sure all your tips are reported as income on Form 1040, line 7.

You may be charged a penalty equal to 50% of the social security tax due on tips you received and did not report to your employer.

Line 52

Tax on IRAs and Retirement Plans You may owe this tax if: (1) you received any early distributions from your (RA, qualified amployer plan, qualified annuity plan, or tax-sheltered annuity plan; (2) you received any excess distributions from a plan mentioned in (1); (3) you made excess contributions to your IRA; or (4) you had excess accumulations in your IRA account or annuity. Get Form 5329 and its instructions to see if you owe this tax. If you do, complete and attach Form 5329 and enter the total tax on line 52.

Line 53 Total Tax

Add lines 47 through 52. Put the total on line 53. Also include on line 53 any of the following that applies.

Section 72 Penalty Tax. If you are or were a 5% owner of a business and you received an excessive distribution from a Keogh plan or trust, you may have to pay a penalty tax of 10% of the distribution. Get Pub. 560 for more details.

Include the amount of the penalty in your total for line 53. On the dotted line next to this total, write "Section 72 penalty" and show the amount.

Advance Earned Income Credit (AEIC) Payments. If you received advance EIC payments (AEIC), the amount will be shown on your Form W-2. Include the amount of these payments in your total for line 53. On the dotted line next to this total, write "AEIC" and show the amount.

Note: The amount of earned income credit that you can actually take will be figured on the worksheet on page 20 and entered on line 56.

Uncollected Employee Social Security and RRTA Tax on Tips. If you did not have enough wages to cover the social security tax or railroad retirement (RRTA) tax due on tips you reported to your employer, the amount of tax due will be shown on your Form W-2. Include that amount in the total on line 53. On the dotted line next to this total, write "Uncollected Tax on Tips" and show the amount.

Golden Parachute Payments. Golden parachute payments are certain payments made by a corporation to key employees to compensate them if control of the corporation changes. If you received an excess parachute payment (EPP), you must pay a tax equal to 20% of this excess payment. Include the amount of this tax in your total for line 53. On the dotted line next to this total, write "EPP" and show the amount of the tax. If you received a Form W-2 that includes a parachute payment, the amount of tax withheld on any excess payment should be identified in Box 16 of Form W-2. Include the amount from Box 16 in the total for line 53. If you received a Form 1099-MISC that in your received a norm 1009-mice that includes a parachute payment, any excess payment will be separately identified on the form. Multiply the excess payment by 20% to figure the amount to include in the total for line 53.

Shareholders in Qualified Electing Funds. If you were a shareholder in a qualified electing fund, follow the instructions for Form 8621, Return by a Shareholder of a Passive Foreign Investment Company or Qualified Electing Fund, to figure the amount of tax to include in or subtract from the total on line 53.

On the dotted line to the left of line 53, write 'Sec. 1294' and the amount of tax to be added to or subtracted from the total for line 53. (Show an amount to be subtracted in brackets.) Show any interest due in the bottom margin of page 1, Form 1040, and label it 'Sec. 1294 interest." Do not include the interest on line 53. See the instructions for Form 8521 for more intormation.

Installment Sales for Dealers in Personal Property. If you deferred payment of tax in 1987 under sec. 811 (c)(7) of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, you must include the ratable portion of tax due for 1988 in the total for line 53. Write "Sec. 453C" and the amount on the dotted line to the left of line 53.

1040-ES) for 1988. Include any overpayment from your 1987 return that you applied to your 1988 estimated tax.

If you and your spouse paid joint estimated tax but are now filing separate income tax returns, either of you can claim all of the amount paid. Or you can each claim a part of it. Please be sure to show both social security numbers on the separate returns. If you or your spouse paid separate estimated tax, but you are now filing a joint income tax return, add the amounts you each paid.

Follow these instructions even if your spouse died

Divorced Taxpayers. If you were divorced during 1988 and you made joint estimated tax payments with your former spouse, please enter your former spouse's social security number in the block provided on the front of Form 1040.

If you were divorced and remarried in 1988, enter your present spouse's social security number in the block provided on the front of Form 1040. Also, under the bold heading "Payments" to the left of line 55, write your former spouse's social security number, followed by "DIV."

Name Change. If you changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., and you made estimated tax payments using your former name, attach a statement to the front of Form 1040 explaining all the payments you and your spouse made in 1988, the Service Center where you made the payments, and the name(s) and social security number(s) under which you made the payments.

Line 56

Earned Income Credit

The earned income credit helps many taxpayers who have a child and whose earned income (see "Earned income includes" on page 20) and adjusted gross income are less than $18,576. If you can take the credit, you can subtract it from the tax you owe orget a relund even if you had no tax withheld from your pay. The credit can be as much as $874.

Note: If you received advance earned income credit payments from your employer(s), see the instructions for line 53 on this page for information on how to report these payments.

Who Can Take the Credit?

You, may be able to take the credit if you meet ALL 5 of the following conditions: 1. You received wages, salaries, tips, or other earned income (see "Earned income includes" on page 20).

2. The amount on Form 1040, line 32, is less than $18,576.

3. You have a child (see "Definition of Child" on page 20) who lived with you in the same main home in the U.S. for more than 6 months during 1988 (for all of 1988 if your filing status is qualifying widow(er) with dependent child).

4. You do not file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income.

5. Your filing status is married filing joint return, qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, or head of household. In addition, special rules apply to each of these three filing statuses.

Income Tax Withholding for 1989. If you do owe tax for 1988, you may want to increase the amount of income tax withheld from your pay for 1989. To do this, file Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer Otherwise, you may have to make estimated tax payments for 1989. See Should You Make Estimated Tax Payments for 1989? on this page.

For more details, get Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Underpayment of Estimated Tax

If line 65 is $500 or more and more than 10% of the tax shown on your return, or you underpaid your 1988 estimated tax liability for any payment period, you may owe penalty. Form 2210 (Form 2210F for farmers and fishermen) is used to see if you owe a penalty and to figure the amount of alty. You may figure the penalty yourself by completing and attaching that form to Form 1040, or IRS will figure the penalty for you and send you a bill. But if you use the annualized income installment method to figure your required payments, you must complete and attach Form 2210 to Form 1040 even if you do not owe the penalty

Note: The penalty may be waived under certain conditions, Get Pub. 505. If you underpaid your 1988 income tax, you will not owe a penalty or have to complete Form 2210 (or Form 2210F) if: 1. you had no tax liability for 1987. 2. you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 1987, and

3. your 1987 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months.

If you attach Form 2210 or 2210F, be sure to check the box below line 65 and enter the amount of any penalty you owe in the space provided. If you owe tax, add the penalty amount to the tax due and show the total on line 65. Or, if you are due a refund, subtract the penalty amount from the overpayment you show on line 62

Should You Make Estimated Tax Payments for 1989?

In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 1989 Form 1040 will show a tax refund, or a tax balance due IRS of less than $500. If your total estimated tax (including any alternative minimum tax) is $500 or more, please get Form 1040-ES. It contains a worksheet that you can use to see if you have to make estimated tax payments. Note: You may need to make estimated tax payments for 1989 if you are eligible for Medicare Part A and will owe the supplemental Medicare premium. See Supplemental Medicare Premium under What To Look For in 1989 on page 2 for more information.

Sign Your Return

Form 1040 is not considered a return unless you sign it. Your spouse must also sign if it is a joint return. Be sure to date your return and show your occupation in the space provided. If you have someone prepare your return for you, you are still responsible for the correctness of the return. If you are filing a joint return with your deceased spouse, see Death of Taxpayer on page 22.

Dependent Child's Return. If your dependent child cannot sign his or her return because of age or other reasons, you may sign your child's name in the space provided followed by the words "By (your signature), parent (or guardian) for m child

Did You Have Someone Eise Prepare Your Return? If you fill in your own return, th Paid Preparer's space should remain blank Someone who prepares your return but does not charge you, should not sign. Generally, anyone who is paid to prepare your tax return must sign your return and fill in the other blanks in the Paid Preparer's Use Only area of your return. If you have questions about whether a preparer is required to sign your return, please contact an IRS office.

The preparer required to sign your return MUST

6. Did you write your social security number, daytime phone number, and "1988 Form 1040" on your check or money order? 7. Did you sign and date your tax form?

Section 4

General Information

This section contains general information about items such as amending your tax return and how long to keep tax records. Penalties and Interest Interest. We will charge you interest on taxes not paid by their due date, even if an extension of time to file is granted. We will also charge you interest on penalties imposed for failure to file, gross valuation overstatements, and substantial understatements of tax. Interest is charged on the penalty from the due date of the return (including extensions). Late Filing of Return. You can avoid penalties for late filing by sending in your return by the due date. If you file late, the penalty is 5% of the amount due for each month or part of a month your return is late, unless you have a reasonable explanation. If you do, attach it to your return. The penalty cannot be more than 25% of the tax due. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty will be $100 or the amount of any tax you owe, whichever is smaller

Late Payment of Tax. If you pay your taxes late, the penalty is usually 1/2 of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid. The penalty cannot be more than 25% of the unpaid amount, it applies to any unnaid tay on the return. It also applies to any additional tax shown on a bill not paid within 10 days of the date of the bill. This penalty is in addition to interest charges on late payments.

Note: If you include interest or either of these penalties with your payment, identify and enter these amounts in the bottom margin of Form 1040, page 2, Do not include the interest or penalty amounts in Amount You Owe on line 65

Penalty for Frivolous Return. In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $500 for filing a frivolous return.

A frivolous return is one that does not contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax, because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes any altering or striking out of the preprinted language above the space where you sign. Other Penalties. There are also other penalties that can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. Get Pub. 17, Your Federal Income Tax, for details on some of these oenalties

Gift To Reduce America's Debt

You may make a gift to reduce America's debt. If you wish to do so, enclose a separate check with your income tax return. Make it payable to "Bureau of the Public Debt." You may be able to deduct this gift on your 1989 tax return if you itemize you deductions. Please do not add it to any tax you may owe. If you owe tax, include a separate check for that amount payable to Internal Revenue Service '

Address Change

IRS Service Center where you filed your last return. If you move after you file your return and you are expecting a refund, also notify the post office serving your old address. This will help to forward your check to your new address

Mailing Your Return

If you received an envelope with your forms booklet, please use it. If you didn't receive an envelope, or you moved during the year, see Where To File on page 5. Envelopes with insufficient postage will be returned by the post office

Corresponding With IRS

Be sure to include your social security number in any correspondence with IRS.

How Long Should Records Be Kept?

Keep records of income, deductions, and credits shown on your return, as well as any worksheets used to figure them, until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. Also keep copies of your filed tax returns as part of your records. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your own home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. For more details, get Pub. 552.

Requesting a Copy of Your Tax Return. If you need a copy of your tax return, use Form 4506, Request for Copy of Tax Form The charge for a copy of a return is $4.25. If you need tax account information, contact your local IRS office. If you want a printed copy of your account, it will be mailed to you free of charge

Substitute Tax Forms

You may not use your own version of a tax form unless it meets the requirements contained in Pub. 1167 for acceptable privately designed and printed substitute tax forms. You can get Pub. 1167 by writing to: Forms Distribution Center P.O. Box 25866

Richmond, VA 23289.

Amended Return

If you file your income tax return and later become aware of any changes you must make to income, deductions, or credits, file Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual ncome Tax Return, to change the Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ you already filed.

Note: If your Federal return is changed for any reason, it may affect your state income tax liability. This would include changes made as a result of an examination of your return by the IRS. Contact your state tax agency for more information.

Death of Taxpayer

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 1988, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for the person who died. A personal representative can be an executor administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased person's property.

The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space at the top of the return. Also write "DECEASED" across the top of the tax return

If the taxnaver did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

If your spouse died in 1988 and you did not remarry in 1988, you can file a joint return. You can also file a joint return if your spouse died in 1989 before filing a 1988 return. A joint return should show your spouse's 1988 income before death and your income for all of 1988. Also write "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the persona representative, he or she must also sign.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Person. No other form is needed to claim a refund for a deceased taxpayer if you are:

 a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased; OR a court-appointed representative.

Note: If you are a court-appointed representative you MUST attach to Form 1040 a copy of the certificate that shows vour appointment

All other filers requesting the refund of a deceased taxpayer must file Form 1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer.

Instructions for Schedules to Form 1040

Schedule A Itemized Deductions

Purpose

Some taxpayers should itemize their deductions because they will save money. See Standard Deduction OR Itemized Deductions on page 16.

If you itemize, you can deduct part of your medical and dental expenses and unreimbursed employee business expenses and amounts you paid for certain taxes, interest contributions and certain miscellaneous expenses. You may also deduct certain moving expenses and casualty and theft losses.

Lines 1a through 4

Medical and Dental Expenses Before you can figure your total deduction for medical and dental expenses, you must complete Form 1040 through line 32. You may deduct only that part of your medical and dental expenses that is more than 7.5% of the amount on Form 1040, line 32

Line 1a. Write in the amount you paid for doctors, dentists, nurses, and hospitals. prescription medicine and drugs, or for insulin, after you reduce these expenses by any payments received from insurance or other sources. Also include the total amount you paid for insurance premiums for medical and dental care.

Line 1b. Write in the amounts spent for transportation and lodging, and other expenses such as hearing aids, dentures. and eyeglasses, after you reduce these expenses by any payments received from insurance or other sources. List the medical expense and the amount of the expense Enter one total in the total amount column on line 1b.

Note: If your insurance company paid your doctor or dentist directly for part of your medical expenses, and you paid only the amount that remained, include in you medical expenses ONLY the amount that you paid.

If in 1988 you received a reimbursement of prior year medical or dental expenses, do not reduce your 1988 expenses by this amount. You must include the reimbursement in income on Form 1040. line 22, if the medical expenses deducted in the earlier year reduced your tax. Pub. 502 tells you how to figure the amount to include in income Caution: If you were self-employed, do not include the amount of any health insurance you deducted on Form 1040, line 26.

When you figure your deduction, you may include medical and dental bills you naid for Yourself

- Your spouse
- All dependents you claim on your return.

 Your child whom you do not claim as a dependent because of the rules explained on page 9 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents.

 Any person that you could have claimed as a dependent on your return if that person had not received $1,950 or more of gross income or had not filed a joint return. Example. You provided more than half of your mother's support but may not claim her as a dependent because she received $1,950 of wages during 1988. If part of your support was the payment of her medical bills, you may include that part in your medical expenses. Examples of Medical and Dental Payments You MAY Deduct To the extent you were not reimbursed, you may deduct what you paid for chiropractors, osteopaths, podiatrists, psychiatrists, psychologists, physical therapists, acupuncturists, and psychoanalysts (medical care only) Medical examinations X-ray and laboratory services, insulin treatment, and whirloool baths your doctor ordered. Nursing help. If you pay someone to do both nursing and housework, you may deduct only the cost of the nursing help Hospital care (including meals and lodging), clinic costs, and lab fees. Medical treatment at a center for drug addicts or alcoholics.

 Medical aids such as hearing aid batteries, contact lenses, braces, crutches, wheelchairs, guide dogs and the cost of maintaining them.

· Lodging expenses (but not meals) paid while away from home to receive medical care in a hospital or a medical care facility that is related to a hospital. Do not include more than $50 a night for each eligible person.

 Ambulance service and other travel costs to get medical care. If you used your own car, you may claim what you spent for gas and oil to go to and from the place yo received the care: or you may claim 9 cents a mile. Add parking and tolls to the amount you claim under either method

Examples of Medical and Dental Payments You MAY NOT Deduct The basic cost of medicare insurance

(Medicare A) Note: If you are 65 or older and not entitled to social security benefits, you may deduct premiums you voluntarily paid for Medicare A coverage.

 Life insurance or income protection policies.

 The 1.45% medicare (hospital insurance benefits) tax withheld from your pay as part of the social security tax or the medicare tax paid as part of social security selfemployment tax.

 Nursing care for a healthy baby. (You may qualify for the child and dependent care credit; get Form 2441.) Illegal operations or drugs.

Nonprescription medicines or drugs.

 Travel your doctor told you to take for rest or change.

Funeral, burial, or cremation costs.

Pub. 502 has a discussion of expenses that may and may not be deducted. It also explains when you may deduct capital expenditures and special care for handicapped persons.

Lines 5 through 8 Taxes You Paid

Taxes You MAY Deduct Line 5—State and local income taxes. Include on this line state and local income taxes that were withheld from your salary and any estimated payments made in 1988. including payments for a prior year. Also include any part of a prior year refund of state or local income taxes that you chose to have credited to your 1988 estimated state or local taxes. Do not reduce your deduction by either of the following:

· any state and local income tax refund (or credit) you expect to receive for 1988, or any refund of (or credit for) prior year state and local income taxes you actually received in 1988 (see the instructions for Form 1040, line 10). Line 6-Real estate taxes. Include taxes that you paid on property you own that was not used for business. Pub. 530 explains the deductions homeowners may take. If your mortgage payments include you real estate taxes, do not take a deduction for those taxes until the year the mortgage company actually pays them to the taxing authority.

Line 7-Other taxes. If you had any deductible tax not listed on Schedule A lines 5 or 6 (such as personal property or foreign income tax), list the tax and the amount of tax. Enter one total in the total amount column on line 7

Personal property tax must be based on value alone. For example, if part of the fee you paid for the registration of your car was based on the car's value and part was based on its weight, you may deduct only the part based on value.

If you paid tax to a foreign country or U.S. possession, you may want to take it as a credit instead of a deduction. Please get Pub. 514

Taxes You MAY NOT Deduct

· Federal income and excise taxes. Social security and railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes. Customs duties.

• Federal estate and gift taxes. (However, see Expenses NOT Subject to the 2% Limit on page 26.) Certain state and local taxes, including:

general sales tax, tax on gasoline, car inspection fees, assessments for sidewalks or other improvements to your property, tax you paid for someone else, and license fees (marriage, driver's, dog, etc.).

Lines 9a through 13 Interest You Paid

Include interest you paid on nonbusiness items only. Whether your interest expense is treated as investment interest, personal interest, or business interest depends on how and when you used the loan proceeds. Get Pub. 545, Interest Expense, for details In general, if you paid interest in 1988 that includes amounts that apply to any period after 1988, you may deduct only the amount that applies for 1988. Note: If at the end of 1988 you have a loan whose term is in excess of 5 years and the loan agreement in any way refers to the "Rule of 78's." see Pub. 545.

Interest You MAY Deduct Lines 9a and 9b—Home Mortgage Interest. The rules for deducting home mortgage interest have changed for 1988 In most cases, you will be able to deduct all of your home mortgage interest, even if your deduction was limited last year. The new rules apply to any loans secured by your main home, including first and second mortgages, home equity loans and refinanced mortgages. Whether your home mortgage interest is deductible under the new rules depends on the date you took out the mortgage, the amount of the mortgage and your use of its proceeds.

If ALL of your mortgages fit into one or more of categories a., b., and c. below, you can deduct all of the interest on those mortgages and report it on Schedule A, line 9a or 9b, whichever applies. If one or more of your mortgages does not fit into any of the categories below, get Pub. 936, Limits on Home Mortgage Interest Deduction, to figure the amount of interest you can deduct.

a. Mortgages you took out on your main home ON or BEFORE October 13, 1987. These mortgages also include line-of mortgages you had on October 13, 1987. and mortgages you had on October 13. 1987, that you refinanced after that date. But see Special Rules if you refinanced or borrowed additional amounts on a line-ofcredit mortgage after October 13, 1987.

b. Mortgages you took out on your main home AFTER October 13, 1987, to buy, build, or improve your home, but only i these mortgages plus any mortgages in a. above totaled $1 million or less throughout 1988. The limit is $500,000 or less if married filing separately.

c. Mortgages you took out AFTER c. Mortgages you took out Ar LEn October 13, 1987, on your main home, OTHER THAN to buy, build, or improve your home, but only if these mortgages totaled $100,000 or less throughout 1988. The limit is $50,000 or less if married filing separately.

An example of a mortgage used for purposes other than to buy, build, or improve your home is a home equity loan you used to pay off credit card bills, to buy a car, or to pay tuition costs.

Special Rules

Refinanced Mortgages.—If you had a mortgage on your home on October 13, 1987, and refinanced it after that date for no more than the balance of the existing mortgage, all of the new mortgage is treated as a mortgage described in a, above. But if Page 24 you refinanced it for more than the balance of the existing mortgage, only the part of the new mortgage equal to the amount you owed on the mortgage at the time you refinanced is treated as a mortgage described in a. The part of the new mortgage that is more than the balance of the existing mortgage is a mortgage described in b. or c. (or b. and c. if a mixed-use mortgage-see below)

Line-of-Credit Mortgages. --- If you had a line-of-credit mortgage on your home on October 13, 1987, and you borrowed additional amounts on this line of credit after that date, the additional amounts borrowed are treated as a mortgage taken out after October 13, 1987, and are subject to the rules under b. or c. (or b. and c. if a mixed-use mortgage-see below).

Mixed-Use Mortgages. --- If you took out a new mortgage after October 13, 1987, (including refinancing for more than what you owed or borrowing additional amounts on a line-of-credit mortgage you had on October 13, 1987), for purposes described in both b. and c. above, you have a mixed-use mortgage. The mortgage proceeds used to buy, build, or improve the home fit into category b. and the rest of the proceeds fit into category c.

Example. You took out a mortgage on your home for $200,000 in 1980. You file as single for 1988. In March 1988, when the home had a fair market value of $400,000, and you owed $195,000 on the mortgage, you took out a home equity loan for $120,000. In 1988, you used $90,000 of the home equity loan proceeds for home improvements, and $30,000 for other purposes. You can deduct all of the interest on both mortgages. The first mortgage qualifies because it was taken out on or before October 13, 1987. The home equity loan qualifies under the dollar limits in h. and c. The part of the mortgage subject to the dollar limit in b. ($90,000) plus the first mortgage of $195,000 totaled less than $1 million. The part of the mortgage subject to the dollar limit in c. ($30,000) was less than $100.000.

Note: Additional limits apply if the total amount of all mortgages exceeds the fair market value of the home

More Than One Home. ----If you had a main home and a second home, the dollar limits explained in b. and c. above apply to the total mortgages on both homes Line 9a. Enter on line 9a deductible mortgage interest you paid directly, or indirectly, to financial institutions. If you and at least one other person (other than your spouse if you file a joint return) were liable for and paid interest on the mortgage, and the other person received the Form 1098. attach a statement to your return showing the name and address of that person. Next to line 9a, write "See attached

If you paid $600 or more of mortgage interest, the recipient will generally send you a Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, or similar statement, by Janua 31, 1989, showing the total interest received during 1988. Points you paid will not be shown.

Note: If the recipient was not a financial institution and you did not receive a Form 1098 from the recipient, report your deductible mortgage interest on line 9h

If you paid more interest to financial institutions than is shown on Form 1098. get Pub. 545 to see if you can deduct the additional interest. If you can, attach a statement explaining the difference and write "See attached" next to line 9a. Note: If you qualify for the Mortgage Interest Credit (see instructions for Form 1040, line 46), subtract the amount shown on line 3 of Form 8396 from the total deductible interest you paid on your over the life of your mortgage. Exception. Points may be deducted in the year paid if the loan was used to buy or improve your main home, the loan was secured by that home, the points were paid with funds other paid did not exceed the points usually charged in that area. This generally does you have no other deductible expenses connected with the production of the interest or dividends.

 your investment interest expense is not more than your investment income, you have no carryovers of investment interest expense from 1987, and you have no passive activity losses.

For more details, including the treatment of amortizable bond premiums, get Pub. 550, Investment Income and Ëxpenses Lines 12a and 12b-Personal Interest. For 1988, only 40% of personal interest (such as interest paid on car loans and credit cards) is deductible. Include on line 12a interest you gaid on:

 Bank and other general purpose credit cards. Deduct the finance charge paid as interest if no part of it was for service charges, membership fees, loan fees, credit investigation fees, etc.

 Revolving charge accounts. Deduct finance charges if they were based on your monthly unpaid balances.

 Your personal note for money you rrowed from a bank, a credit union, or another person.

· Loans on life insurance if you paid the interest in cash and report on the cash home mortgage and enter the result on line 9a

Line 10-Points, Generally, points (including loan origination fees) charged only for the use of money are deductible than those obtained from the lender, it is customary to charge points in the area where the loan was made, and the points not apply to points paid to refinance you mortgage. For more details, get Pub. 545. Line 11—Investment Interest.

Investment interest is interest paid on money you borrowed that is allocable to property held for investment. It does not include any interest allocable to a passive activity

Complete and attach Form 4952, Investment Interest Expense Deduction to figure your deduction. Exception. You do not have to file Form 4952 if ALL of the following apply: · your only investment income was from interest or dividends,

 Installment loans on personal property, such as cars (including a business car used in your capacity as an employee) and appliances.

 Taxes you paid late. Show only the interest; do not include any amount that is considered a penalty. If the tax is deductible, show it under Taxes You Paid (ines 5 through 8 of this schedule). Note: Special rules apply to interest expense imputed on below-market loans. Get Pub. 545.

Interest You MAY NOT Deduct

Do not include interest paid on your debts by others, such as mortgage interest subsidy payments made by a government agency. Also do not include the interest you paid for —

 Certain loans against your interest in a 401(k) plan or a tax-sheltered annuity plan that were made, renewed, renegotiated, modified, or extended after 1986. (Get Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income, for details.)

 Tax-exempt income. This includes interest on money you borrowed to buy or carry wholly tax-exempt securities. This also includes interest paid to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, to the extent apy interest income received from the investment is tax exempt.

• A loan on life insurance if the interest is added to the loan and you report on the cash basis.

 A debt to buy a single-premium life insurance or endowment contract.
 Any kind of business transaction. (Use Schedule C, E, or F of Form 1040 to deduct business interest expenses.)

- description of the property. For each gift of property, you should also keep reliable written records that include:

a. How you figured the property's value at the time you gave it. (If the value was determined by an appraisal, you should also keep a signed copy of the appraisal.)

b. The cost or other basis of the property if you must reduce it by any ordinary income or capital gain that would have resulted if the property had been sold at its fair market

 c. How you figured your deduction if you chose to reduce your deduction for gifts of capital gain property.
 d. Any conditions attached to the gift.

Note: If your total deduction for gifts of property is over $500, or if you gave less than your entire interest in the property, or you made a "qualified conservation contribution" under section 170(h), your records should contain additional information. Get Pub. 526 for details. Line 14. Enter the total contributions you made in cash or by check (including out-of-pocket expenses). If you gave $3,000 or more to any one organization, show to whom and how much you gave in the space provided. Line 15. Enter your contributions of property. If you gave used items, such as clothing or furniture, deduct their fair market value at the time you gave them Fair market value is what a willing buyer would pay a willing seller when neither has to buy or sell and both are aware of the conditions of the sale. If the amount of your deduction is more than $500, you must complete and attach Form 8283, Noncash Charitable Contributions. If your total deduction is over $5,000, you may also have to get appraisals of the values of the donated property. For this purpose, the "amount of your deduction" means your deduction BEFORE applying any income limitations that could result in a carryover of contributions. See Form 8283 and its nstructions for details

Casualty and Theft Losses Use line 18 to report casualty or theft losses of property that is not trade or business, income-producing, or rent or royalty property. Complete and attach Form 4684, Casualties and Thefts, to figure your loss. Enter on line 18 of Schedule A the amount of loss from Form 4684.

Losses You MAY Deduct

You may be able to deduct all or part of each loss caused by theft, vandalism, fire, storm, and car, boat, and other accidents or similar causes. You may also be able to deduct money you had in a financial institution but lost because of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the institution. You may deduct norbusiness casualty or theft losses only to the extent that a. the amount of EACH separate casualty or theft loss is more than $100, and b. the total amount of ALL losses during the year is more than 10% of your adjusted gross income on Form 1040, line 32. Special rules apply if you had both gains and losses from nonbusiness casualties or thefts. Get Form 4684 for details.

Line 19 Moving Expenses

Employees and self-employed persons (including partners) can deduct certain moving expenses.

You can take this deduction if you moved in connection with your lob or business and your change in job location has added at least 35 miles to the distance from your old home to your workplace. If you had no former workplace, your new workplace must be at least 35 miles from your old home. If you meet these requirements, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 304) or Pub. 521, Moving Expenses Complete and attach Form 3903 to figure the amount of moving expenses to enter on line 19. If you began work at a new workplace outside the United States or its possessions, get Form 3903F, Foreign Moving Expenses

Lines 20 through 25 Miscellaneous Deductions

Most miscellaneous deductions cannot be deducted in full. You must subtract 2% of your adjusted gross income from the total. You figure the 2% limit on line 23.

Generally, the 2% limit applies to job expenses you paid for which you were not reimbursed (line 20). The limit also applies to certain expenses you paid to produce or collect taxable income (line 21). See the instructions for lines 20 and 21 for examples of expenses to claim on these lines.

The 2% limit does not apply to certain other miscellaneous expenses that you may deduct. These expenses can be deducted in full on line 25. The line 25 instructions describe these expenses. Included are deductible grambing losses (to the extent of winnings) and certain job expenses of handicapped employees. See Pub. 529, Miscellaneous Deductions, for more information

Expenses Subject to the 2% Limit (Lines 20 and 21)

Capital Gain Elections on Lump-Sum Distributions From Qualified Retirement Plans

The amount of a tump-sum distribution that qualifies for capital gain treatment should be shown on Form 1099-R, Box 3. If you do not include the capital gain portion on Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions, you can make a special capital gain election on Schedule D. To make the election on Schedule D. To make the election on Schedule D. To make the election on Schedule D. To any the election on Schedule D. You should enter the remaining amount of the distribution (Form 1099-R, Box 2, minus the amount used on Schedule D. You qualify to use Form 4972, you may report the balance on that form instead of Form 1040, line 17b.

Capital Asset

Most property you own and use for personal purposes, pleasure, or investment is a capital asset. For example, your house, furniture, car, stocks, and bonds are capital assets.

A capital asset is any property held by a taxpayer except the following: a. Stock in trade or other property included in inventory or held for sale to customers. b. Accounts or notes receivable you received for services in the ordinary course of your trade or business or from the sale.

of your rade of business, or from the sale of any property described in a, or for services you performed as an employee. c. Depreciable property used in your trade or business even if it was fully depreciated, d. Real property (real estate) used in your trade or business.

e. A copyright, a literary, musical, or artistic composition, a letter or memorandum, or similar property: (1) created by your persona efforts; or (2) prepared or produced for you (in the case of a letter, memorandum, or similar property): or (3) that you received from a tapapey: mentioned in (1) or (2), in a way (such as by gift) that entitled you to the basis of the previous owner.

f. U.S. Government publications, including the Congressional Record, that you received from the government, other than by purchase at the normal sales price, or that you got from another taxpayer who had received it in a similar way, if your basis is determined by reference to the previous owner.

Short-Term or Long-Term

Separate your capital gains and losses according to how long you held or owned the property. The holding period for longterm capital gains and losses is more than one year (more than 6 months if acquired before January 1, 1958). The holding period for short-term capital gains and losses is one year or less (6 months or less is acquired before January 1, 1958).

To figure the holding period, begin counting on the day after you received the property and include the day you disposed of it. Use the trade dates for date acquired and date solf for stocks and bonds on an exchange or over-the-counter market.

Generally, a nonbusiness bad debt must be treated as a short-term capital loss.

Capital Losses

The capital loss that can be deducted after offsetting capital gams is limited to $3,000 ($1,500 if married filing a separate return). Caution: Under pending legislation, the capital loss deduction would be limited to the smallest of: the total net capital loss; $3,000 ($1,500 if married filing separate return); or the taxable income for the taxable year. Get Pub. 553 to find out whether this law was passed.

Losses That Are Not Deductible Do not deduct a loss from the direct or indirect sale or exchange of property between any of the following: • Members of a family.

A corporation and an individual or a fiduciary owning more than 50 percent of the corporation's stock (not counting liquidations).

A grantor and a fiduciary of a trust.
A fiduciary and a beneficiary of the same trust. • A fiduciary and a fiduciary or beneficiary of another trust created by the same grantor.

 An individual and a tax-exempt organization controlled by the individual or the individual's family.

 A partnership and a corporation if the same taxpayers own directly or indirectly more than 50 percent of the capital interest, or profits interest, in the partnership and corporation.

Sales Price

Enter in this column either the gross sales price or the net sales price from the sale. If you sold stocks or bonds and you received a Form 1099-B or similar statement from your broker that shows gross sales price, enter that amount in column (d). However, if the broker advised you that gross proceeds (gross sales price) less commissions and option premiums were reported to IRS, enter that net amount in column (d). If the net amount is entered in this column, do not include the commissions and option premiums in column (e).

Caution: Be sure to add all sales price entries in column (d) on lines 2a and 9a and enter the totals on lines 2b and 9b.

Column (e)

Cost or Other Basis

In general, the cost or other basis is the cost of the property plus purchase commissions, improvements, and minus depreciation, amortization, and depletion. If you inherited the property or got it as a gift in a tax-free exchange, involuntary conversion, or "wash sale" of stock, you may not be able to use the actual cash cost as the basis. If you do not use cash cost, attach an explanation of your basis.

When selling stock, adjust your basis by subtracting all the nontaxable distributions you received before the sale. Also adjust your basis for any stock splits. Get Pub. 550 to see how to figure your basis of stock that split during the time you owned it. The basis of orgonerty acquired by wift generally is the basis of the property in the hands of the donor. The basis of property acquired from a decedent is generally the fair market value at the date of death.

The cost or other basis of an OID debt instrument is increased by the amount of OID that has been included in gross income for that instrument.

If a charitable contribution deduction is allowed because of a sale of property to a charitable organization, the adjusted basis for determining gain from the sale is an amount which has the same ratio to the adjusted basis as the amount realized has to the fair market value.

Increase your cost or other basis by any expense of sale, such as broker's fees. commissions, state and local transfer taxes, and option premiums before making an entry in column (e), unless you reported net sales price in column (d).

Instructions for

Schedule E

Supplemental Income

Purpose

Use Schedule E to report income or loss from rents, royalties, partnerships, S corporations, estates, trusts, and REMICS. Note: If you attach your own schedule(s) to report income or loss from any of these sources, use the same format as the Schedule E. Enter separately on Schedule E the total income and the total loss for each part.

Filers of Forms 1041 and 1041S. Enter your employer identification number in the block for "Your social security number."

General Information

At-Risk Rules (Parts I and II) If (1) you have a loss from any activity that you, your partnership, or S corporation engaged in as a trade or business or for the production of income, including the holding of real property (other than mineral property) placed in service after December 31, 1986, and (2) you have amounts for which you are not at risk in the activity, use Form 6198, Computation of Deductible Loss From an Activity Described in Section 465(c), to determine the allowable loss to report on Schedule E.

Amounts for which you are not at risk are amounts such as the following: 1. morrecourse loans used to finance the activity, acquire porperty used in the activity, or acquire your mitterest in the activity, unless they are secured by property not used in the activity or by certain real property used in an activity of holding real property; 2. amounts protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement; 3. Joans from someone who has an interest in the activity, other than as a creditor, or who is related, under section 465(b)(3)(C), to a person (other than yourself) having such an interest; or amounts contributed to the activity, or to your interest in the activity that is covered by:

 nonrecourse loans or protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement; or loans from a person described in 3 above. Get Pub. 925, Passive Activity and At-Risk Rules, for more information.

The at-risk rules may apply to a member of a partnership or joint venture, a shareholder in an S corporation, or a lessor of certain property. Generally, the amount you have at risk limits the loss you can deduct for any tax year.

Partners and S corporation shareholders should get a separate statement of income, expenses, deductions, and credits for each activity engaged in by the partnership and S corporation. See Form 6198 and the related instructions for more information. If in addition to the amount that you

If, in addition to the amount that you report on Schedule E, you sell or otherwise dispose of (1) an asset used in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply, or (2) any part of your interest in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply, and you have amounts in the activity for which you are not at risk, see the instructions for Form 6198.

If you have amounts that are not at risk, get Form 6198 to determine the amount of deductible loss. If the loss is from Part I, Schedule E, enter the deductible amount trom Form 6198 in the appropriate column(s) on line 23 of Schedule E. If the deductible amount from Form 6198 in column (i) of Schedule E, and the activity is a nonpassive activity, enter the deductible amount from Form 6198 in column (i) of Schedule E, II your loss is from a passive activity, your loss may be further the amount of your deductible loss. See Passive Activity Losses below.

Any loss from an activity not allowed for the tax year because of the at-risk rules is treated as a deduction allocable to the activity in the next tax year.

Passive Activity Losses (Parts I---III) The "passive activity loss" rules may limit the amount of losses you can deduct. They apply to losses in Parts I, II, and III of Schedule E.

You generally can deduct losses from passive activities only to the extent of income from passive activities. Exceptions apply to some activities, such as rental real estate activities (see Part I instructions).

Losses from passive activities may first be subject to the at-risk rules. Losses deductible under the at-risk rules are then subject to the passive activity rules.

A passive activity is any business activity in which you DO NOT materially participate. See the instructions for Form 8582, Passive Activity Loss Limitations, for a definition of material participation.

Generally, the rental of real or personal property is a passive activity even if you materially participated. But there are exceptions. See the instructions to Form 5826 for more details on these exceptions, as well as special rules that apply if the rental property is a nondepreciable rental property, a rental property incidental to a development activity, or a property rented to a nonpassive activity.

The rental of your home that you also used for personal purposes is not a passive activity. See Renting Out a Dwelling Unit That is Also Used for Personal Purposes on this page.

on this page. A working interest in an oil or gas well that you hold directly or through an entity that does not limit your liability is not a passive activity even if you do not materially participate.

Generally, royalty income not derived in the ordinary course of a trade or business reported on Schedule E is not considered income from a passive activity.

In most cases you must use Form 8582 to summarize your income and losses from passive activities and to figure the amount of loss that you are allowed to deduct for each passive activity. However, in some cases you do not have to use Form 8582 to figure your deductible rental loss. See Part I. line 24 instructions, for details.

For more information on passive activities, see the instructions for Parts I, II, and III of Schedule E, the instructions for Form 8582, and Pub. 925.

Part I

Rental and Royalty Income or Loss

Use this part to report rental and royalty income. Include room and other space rentals. If you provided significant services to the renter, or if you sold real estate as a business, do not report the income on Schedule E. Instead, report it on Schedule C (Form 1040). For more information, see Tale-Tax

For more information, see lele-lax Information in the index (topic no. 213). Or, get Pub. 527, Residential Rental Property.

Report royalties from oil, gas, or mineral properties, copyrights, and patents. However, if you hold an operating oil gas, or mineral interest, or are in business as a self-employed writer, inventor, artist, etc., report gross income and expenses on Schedule C (Form 1040).

If you use Part I to report rental and royalty income, enter your rental and royalty expenses for each property in the appropriate columns on lines 6 through 22.

If you own a part interest in rental property, you may report your part on Schedule E.

If you have a loss from an activity, see At-Risk Rules and Passive Activity Losses discussed earlier and the line 24 instructions.

If you have more than three rental or royally properties, complete and attach as many Schedules E as are needed to list the properties. Complete lines 1, 2, and 3 for each property. However, fill in the "Totals" column for lines 4, 5, 12, 20, 21, and 25 through 29 on only one Schedule E. The figures in the total column on that Schedule E should be the combined totals of all the schedules.

If you also need to use page 2 of Schedule E, use the same Schedule E that you used to enter the combined totals in Part I.

Rentals

If you were not in the real estate sales business and you received rent from property you own or control, report it on line 4. If you received services or property, instead of money, as rent, report its fair market value.

You can deduct an amount for the depreciation of rental property. You can also deduct all normal expenses, such as taxes, interest, repairs, insurance, maintenance, and agent's commissions.

Do not deduct the value of your own labor. Do not deduct capital investments or improvements.

Renting Out Part of Your Home

If you rent out only part of your home or other property, deduct the part of your expenses that apply to the rented part.

Renting Out a Dwelling Unit That is Also Used for Personal Purposes

If you rented out a dwelling unit and you also used it as a home during the year, you may not be able to deduct all the expenses for the rental part. A dwelling unit (unit) means a house, apartment, condominium, mobile home, boat, or like property.

First, figure out if you used the unit as a home under this rule.

Answer two questions: During 1988, did you or your family—

1. use the unit for personal use more than 14 days?

2. use the unit for personal use more than 10% of the total days it was rented to others at a fair rental price? If you answered "No" to either question.

all of your expenses for the rental part can be deducted subject to the at-risk and passive activity loss limitations.

If you answered "YES" to BOTH questions, it means you used the unit as a home for this rule. You may NOT be able to deduct all your rental expenses. You can deduct on Schedule E your mortgage interest, real estate taxes, and casualty losses for the rental part. You can also deduct your other expenses for the rental part that are not related to your use of the unit as a home, such as advertising expenses and realtors' fees. If any income is left after you deduct these expenses, you can then deduct other expenses. But you cannot deduct more than the income that is left. Amounts you can't deduct can be carried to 1989. See Pub. 527 for more details. Also, get Pub. 545, Interest Expense, to see how much interest you can toutet

Rental Income From Farm Production or Cron Shares

Report farm rental income and expenses on Form 4835 if you meet these two tests: 1. You received rental income that was based on crops or livestock produced by the tenant

2. You did not manage or operate the farm to any great extent Note: A loss from this kind of activity may be subject to the passive activity loss rules. See Pub. 925 for more information.

If you use Form 4835, enter on line 28 of Schedule E the net farm rental profit or loss from Form 4835. Also enter the gross farm rents from Form 4835, line 8, in Part VI of Schedule E, line 43. Note: For purposes of estimated tax payments, income received from your share of crops and rental based on farm production is considered income from farming

Expenses To Rehabilitate Low-Income Housing

You may amortize part of the costs you paid or incurred to rehabilitate qualified lowincome housing if the rehabilitation began before January 1, 1987. If it began after 1986, you may be able to take a tax credit. Get Form 8586, Low-Income Housing Credit, and Pub. 572 for more details. Also. see Pub. 925 for information on the passive activity loss rules as they apply to lowincome housing.

Deduction for Removal of Barriers to the Handicapped and Elderly

You can deduct up to $35,000 of the costs you paid or incurred in 1988 to remove architectural or transportation barriers to the handicapped and the elderly. Get Pub. 535, Business Expenses, and Pub. 907, Tax Information for Handicapped and Disabled Individuals, for more details,

Show the kind of property you rented out, for example "brick duplex." Give the street address, city or town, and state. You do not have to give the ZIP code

Line 3

A rental real estate activity is generally a passive activity and, therefore, usually subject to the limitation on losses from passive activities. However, a special rule applies if you actively participated in rental real estate activities and had losses from these activities. In general, you may be able to deduct up to $25,000 of losses from all rental real estate activities in which you actively participated. However, off amounts apply if you are married filing separately

The active participation requirement can be met without regular continuous, and substantial involvement in operations, as long as you participated in making management decisions or arranging for others to provide services (such as repairs), in a significant and bona fide sense. Management decisions that are relevant in this context include approving new tenants deciding on rental terms, approving capital or repair expenditures, and other similar decisions.

For more information, see the instructions for Form 8582 and Pub. 925.

Lines 12 and 13

In general, to determine your interest expense allocable to the rental activities you will have to keep records to show how the proceeds of each debt were used Specific tracing rules apply for allocating debt proceeds and repayment of the debt See Pub. 545 for more information.

If you have a mortgage on your rental property, enter on line 12 the interest you paid for 1988 to banks or other financial institutions. Be sure to fill in the "Totals" column

If you paid $600 or more of interest on this mortgage, you should receive by January 31, 1989, a Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, or similar statement, showing the total interest received from your during 1988. If you and at least one other person (other than your spouse if you file a oint return) were liable for, and paid interest on, the mortgage, and the other person received the Form 1098, attach a statement to your return showing the name and address of the person who received the Form 1098. In the left margin, next to line 12, write "See attached."

If you paid more mortgage interest than is shown on your Form 1098, or similar statement, get Pub. 545 to see if you can deduct the additional interest. If you can, attach a statement to your return explaining the difference and write "See attached" in the left margin next to line 12

You may take a deduction for depreciation each year for property used for rental purposes. The deduction does not apply to land and personal use property.

If you placed any property in service after 1980, complete and attach Form 4562, Depreciation and Amortization. Enter on line 21 the amount from Form 4562, Part I. If you are depreciating only property placed in service before 1981, you do not need Form 4562. Figure depreciation on a worksheet from your own books and records and enter the total depreciation on line 21. You do not need to attach the worksheet to your return. For a sample worksheet, see Pub. 534, Depreciation.

For more information on depreciation see the instructions for Form 4562 and Pub. 534

Line 24

Enter on line 24 the amount of your deductible rental loss. If the loss is from a rental property that is not treated as a passive activity, enter the loss from line 23 on line 24

If the loss is from a passive activity, you tenerally need to complete Form 8582 to figure the amount of loss, if any, after applying the passive activity loss limits. But, you do not have to complete Form 8582 to igure the amount of loss you can deduct on line 24 if 1. rental real estate activities are your only passive activities, and 2. you do not have any prior year unallowed losses from any passive activities, and 3. all of the following apply if you have an overall net loss from these activities: · You actively participated in all of the rental real estate activities (see line 3 for details on active participation),

 Your total losses from these activities are $25,000 or less ($12,500 or less if married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse all year)

. If you are married filing separately, you lived apart from your spouse all year. You have no current or prior year unallowed credits from passive activities. and Your modified adjusted gross income defined below, is $100,000 or less ($50,000 or less if married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse all vear) If you meet all the conditions listed above, your rental real estate losses are not limited by the passive activity rules Enter the amount of the loss from line 23 on line 24.

If you do not meet all of the conditions listed above, you MUST complete and attach Form 8582.

Modified adjusted gross income is your adjusted gross income on Form 1040, line 31, without taking into account any passive activity loss, any taxable social security or railroad retirement benefits, and any deductible contributions to an IRA or othe qualified retirement plan under section 219. Note: If you have net income from a nondepreciable rental property, a rental property incidental to a development activity, or a property rented to a nonpassive activity, the net income is not treated as passive activity income. See Form 8582 instructions for details on how to report net income from these types of activities.

Rovalties

Report on line 5 royalties from oil, gas, or mineral properties (not including operating oil, gas, or mineral interests); copyrights: and patents. If you received $10 or more of royalties, you should receive, by January 31 1989, a Form 1099-MISC, or similar statement, showing the royalties. If you are in business as a self-employed writer. inventor, artist, etc., report income and expenses on Schedule C (Form 1040). Under certain circumstances, you can treat amounts received as "royalties" for transfer of a patent or amounts received on the disposal of coal and iron ore as the sale of a capital asset. For more details, get Pub. 544, Sales and Other Dispositions of Assets

If state or local taxes were withheld from oil or gas payments you received, enter on line 5 the gross amount of royalty. Include the taxes withheld by the producer on line 16, but DO NOT include on line 16 the amount of windfall profit taxes actually withheld in 1988. Instead, enter that amount in Part V, line 40.

Enter your depletion deduction on line 21. Get Pub. 535, Business Expenses.

If you need more space in Parts II and III to list your income or losses, attach a continuation sheet using the same format as shown in Parts II and III. However, be sure to complete the "Totals" columns for lines 30a and 30b, or lines 34a and 34b, as appropriate. If you also completed Part I on nore than one Schedule E, use the same Schedule E that you used to enter the combined totals in Part I.

Tax Shelter Registration Number. If you are claiming or reporting any deduction. loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or reporting income from an interest purchased or otherwise acquired in a tax shelter, you must attach Form 8271, Investor Reporting of Tax Shelter Registration Number, to your return to report the tax shelter registration number as well as other information about the tax shelter. There is a penalty if you fail to report this number on your tax return. Tax Preference Items. If you are a partner, a shareholder in an S corporation or a beneficiary of an estate or trust, you must take into account your share of tax preference items and adjustments from these entities on Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax-Individuals. For more information, get Form 6251.

Amount(s) From 1987 Schedule(s) K-1. You may have received a 1987 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065, 1120S, or 1041) for a short year, and not have reported all of the short-year income on your 1987 return. In this case you must report 25% of the amounts shown on the short-year 1987 Schedule K-1 on the appropriate lines of your 1988 Form 1040 and related schedules. Write "PYA" (prior-year amount) next to the entries. If you received a 1988 Schedule K-1 from the entity, see its instructions for information on how to report the short-year amounts on your 1988 return.

Partnerships and S Corporations If you are a member of a partnership or joint venture or a shareholder of an S corporation, use Part II to report your share of the partnership or S corporation income (whether you received it or not) or loss. You should receive a Schedule K-1 from the partnership or the S corporation. Do not attach that schedule to your return. Keep it for your records. You should also receive a copy of the partner's or shareholder's Instructions for Schedule K-1. If you did not receive a copy of these instructions with your Schedule K-1, you can get a copy at most IRS offices. Your copy of Schedule K-1 and its instructions will tell you where on your return to report your share of the items

In certain situations, you must report as income on line 39 the amount of any credit or refund of overpaid windfall profit tax you received in 1988 for tax year 1987, based on overwithholding or the net income limitation.

In general, the amount of credit or refund you received is income to the extent you deducted windfall profit tax withheld in 1987 on Schedule E, and received a tax benefit for the deduction on your 1987 tax return. For more information, see the instructions for Form 6249, Computation of Overpaid Windfall Profit Tax.

passive activities only to the extent of income from passive activities A passive activity generally is any activity involving the conduct of a trade or business if you do not materially participate in the activity. You materially participate in a trade or business activity for the tax year if you satisfy any of the following tests:

1. You participated in the activity for more than 500 hours during the tax year. 2 Your participation in the activity for the tax year was substantially all of the participation in the activity of all individuals (including individuals who do not own any interest in the activity) for the tax year. 3. You participated in the activity for more than 100 hours during the tax year, and you participated at least as much as any other person for the tax year. This includes individuals who do not own any interest in the activity

4. The activity is a significant participation activity for the tay year, and you participated in all significant participation activities during the year for more than 500 hours. An activity is a "significant participation activity" if it involves the conduct of a trade or business, you participated in the activity for more than 100 hours during the tax year, and you do not materially participate in the activity under tests 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, or 7. 5. You materially participated in the activity for any five (whether or not consecutive) of the prior ten tax years.

6. The activity is a personal service activity in which you materially participated for any three (whether or not consecutive) prior tax years. A personal service activity is an activity that involves performing personal services in the fields of health, law engineering architecture accounting. actuarial science, performing arts, or consulting, or any other trade or business in which capital is not a material incomeroducing factor

7. Based on all the facts and circumstances you participated in the activity on a regular. ontinuous, and substantial basis during the tax year. You do not materially participate in an activity under this test, however, ifa. You participated in the activity for 100 hours or less during the tax year, or b. Any person besides yourself received compensation for performing management services in connection with the activity, or Any individual besides yourself spent more hours during the tax year than you spent performing management services in connection with the activity (regardless of whether the individual was compensated for the management services).

If you meet any of the above tests, check the "Yes" box.

Exception for oil and gas: The passive loss rules do not apply to oil and gas wells in which you have a working interest and in which your liability is not limited. In this case, check "Yes" to Question I, even if you did not materially participate

Check the "No" box if you did not materially participate. If you checked "No" and you claim a loss for this business, you must figure any allowable loss on Form 8582, Passive Activity Loss Limitations, and enter it on Schedule C, line 31. If you have prior-year unallowed passive activity losses. see the instructions for Form 8582.

Tax Shelter. If you claim or report any deduction, loss, credit, other tax benefit, or income on Schedule C from an interest purchased or otherwise acquired in a tax shelter required to be registered, you must check the box on line J, and file Form 8271.

Part I

Income (Lines 1a through 5) Line 1a

Enter gross receipts or sales from your business. Be sure to include on this line amounts you received in your trade or business as shown on Form(s) 1099-MISC.

Installment Sales. Generally, for sales after December 31, 1987, the installment nethod may no longer be used to report income from the sale of: (1) personal property regularly sold under the installment method; or (2) real property held for resale to customers. But the installment method may be used to report income from sales of certain residential lots and timeshares if you elect to pay interest on the tax due on that income after the year of sale. See Internal Revenue Code section 453(I)(2) for details. If you make this election, include the interest on Form 1040, line 39. Also write "453(I)(3)" and the amount of the interest on the dotted line to the left of line 39

Also, starting in 1988, any gain not yet recognized from an installment sale after February 28, 1986, of property listed in (1) or (2) above must generally be included in income over a period not to exceed 4 years. See Revenue Procedure 84-74, 1984-2 C.B. 736, to figure the amount to include each year.

If you use the installment method, attach a schedule to your return. Show separately for 1988 and the 3 preceding years: gross sales, cost of goods sold, gross profit, percentage of gross profit to gross sales, amounts collected, and gross profit on amounts collected.

Line 1b

Enter on line 1b such items as returned sales, rebates, and allowances from the sales price

Line 4

In certain situations, you must report as income on line 4 any credit or refund of overnaid windfall profit tax received in 1988 for tax year 1987, based on overwithholding or the net income limitation. In general, the credit or refund you received is income to the extent you deducted windfall profit tax withheld in 1987 on Schedule C. and received a tax benefit for the deduction on your 1987 tax return. Get the instructions for Form 6249. Computation of Overpaid Windfall Profit Tax, for details.

Note: The windfall profit tax does not apply to crude oil removed after August 22, 1988.

Also report on line 4 amounts from finance reserve income, scrap sales, bad debts you recovered, interest (such as on notes and accounts receivable), credit for Federal tax on gasoline or other fuels claimed on your 1987 Form 1040, and other kinds of miscellaneous business income.

If you have listed property that you placed in service after June 18, 1984, and the business use percentage decreased to 50% or less in 1988, report on this line any recapture of excess depreciation, including the section 179 expense deduction. Use Form 4797 to figure the recapture.

Part II

Deductions (Lines 6 through 29) Capitalizing Costs of Property

If you produced real or tangible personal property or acquired property for resale, certain expenses attributable to the property must be included in inventory costs or canitalized. In addition to direct costs, producers of inventory property must also include part of certain indirect costs in Individual Returns/1988 their inventory. Purchasers of personal property acquired for resale must include part of certain indirect costs in inventor only if the average annual gross receipts for the 3 prior tax years exceed $10 million. Also, part of the indirect costs that benefit real or tangible personal property constructed for use in a trade or business. or noninventory property produced for sale to customers, must also be capitalized Reduce the amounts on lines 6-29 by amounts capitalized. For more details, see Pub 538

Exception for Creative Property. If you are an artist, author, photographer, or have a similar occupation in which you produce creative property, you may be able to elect to amortize and deduct certain expenses over a 3-year period. You may make this election only if your personal efforts are primarily responsible for the creation of the property. For more details, including a list of qualifying property, see Pub. 538. Caution: Pending legislation would exempt most creative property from the capitalization rules. Get Pub. 553 to find out whether this legislation was passed.

Line 7

Caution: Cash method taxpavers cannot take a bad debt deduction unless the amount was previously included in income Include debts and partial debts arising from sales or services that were included in income and are definitely known to be worthless

If you later collect a debt that you deducted as a bad debt, include it as income in the year collected. Note: If you used the reserve method prior to 1987 to figure your bad debts, any balance you had in the reserve account at the end of 1986 must be included in your income ratably over a 4-year period. For details, get Pub. 548, Deduction for

Bad Debts. Line 9

You can deduct the actual cost of running your car or truck, or take the standard mileage rate. You must use actual costs if you use more than one vehicle in your business. If you deduct actual costs, show depreciation on line 12. Note: If you claim any car expenses (actual costs or the standard mileage rate), you must complete Part III of Form 4562. Depreciation and Amortization.

The standard mileage rate is 24 cents a mile up to 15,000 miles for 1988, and 11 cents for each mile after that. Add to this amount your parking fees and tolls For cars and trucks that have been fully depreciated, the rate is 11 cents a mile. If you use the standard rate, the vehicle is considered to have a useful life of 60,000 miles of business use at the maximum standard mileage rate. For details, get Pub. 917, Business Use of a Car. Note: If you use certain highway trucks, truck-trailers, tractor-trailers, or buses in your trade or business, you may have to nav a Federal highway use tax. Get Form 2290, Heavy Vehicle Use Tax Return, to see if you owe this tax.

Line 11

Enter your deduction for depletion on this line. If you have timber depletion, attach Form T. Get Pub. 535 for details.

Line 12

You can deduct an amount each year for assets you buy to use in your business. The deduction for depreciation does not apply to stock in trade, inventories, land, and personal assets. You may also choose under section 179 to expense part of the cost of certain depreciable property you bought in 1988 for use in your business. Figure your depreciation deduction, including the section 179 expense deduction, on Form 4562

The depreciation deduction for cars, including any section 179 deduction, is limited. For example, if you used your car 100% for business, and placed the car in service in 1988, your deduction is limited to $2,560. The allowable amounts are further limited if your business use is less than 100%. If you claim depreciation for any cars or other listed property, you must complete Part III of Form 4562. See the instructions for Form 4562 and Pub. 534 for details.

If you have listed property (such as a car or light truck) that you placed in service after June 18, 1984, and the business use percentage of the property decreased to 50% or less during 1988, you may have to recapture excess depreciation, including any section 179 expense deduction. Get Form 4797 and its instructions for details.

If you took an investment credit on property that you dispose of before the end of its class life or life years, the business use percentage decreases, or the property use otherwise changes so that it no longe qualifies, you may have to refigure the credit. Get Form 4255, Recapture of Investment Credit, for details

Deduct contributions that are not an incidental part of a pension or profit-sharing plan included on line 21. Also include contributions to insurance, health, and welfare programs.

Note: You may be able to deduct part of the amount paid for health insurance for you and your family even if you don't itemize your deductions. See the instructions for Form 1040, line 26

Lines 17a and 17b

Interest Allocation Rules. The tax treatment of interest expense differs depending on its type. For example, personal interest, home mortgage interest. and investment interest are all treated differently. "Interest allocation" rules require you to allocate (classify) your interest expense so it is deducted on the right place of your return (or capitalized) and gets the proper tax treatment. These rules could affect how much interest you deduct on Schedule C.

Generally, you allocate interest expense by tracing how the proceeds of the loan are used. See Pub. 535 and Pub. 545 for details.

If you paid interest on a debt secured by your main home, and any of the proceeds from that debt were used in connection with your trade or business, see Pub. 545 to igure the amount that is deductible on hedule C.

If you paid interest that applies to future years, deduct for 1988 only the part that applies to 1988.

If you have a mortgage on real property used in your business (other than your main home), enter on line 17a the interest you paid for 1988 to banks or other financial nstitutions. If you paid $600 or more of interest on this mortgage, you should receive a Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, or similar statement. It shows the total interest received from you during 1988. You should receive this statement by January 31, 1989. If you and at least one other person (other than your spouse if you file a joint return) were liable for and paid interest on the mortgage and the other person received the Form 1098, attach a statement to your return showing the name and address of the person who received the Form 1098. In the left margin, next to line 17a, write "See attached." If you paid more mortgage interest to financial institutions than is shown on I 1098, or similar statement, get Pub. 545 to see if you can deduct the additional interest. If you can attach a statement to your return explaining the difference and write "See attached" in the left margin next to line 17a.

Do not deduct interest you paid or accrued on debts allocable to investment property. This interest is generally deducted on Schedule A. For details, get Pub. 550. Investment Income and Expenses

Line 21

Enter your deduction for contributions to a pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, or plans for the benefit of your employees. If the plan includes you as a self-employed person, enter contributions made as an employer on your behalf on Form 1040, line 27, not on Schedule C.

Generally, you must file one of the following forms if you maintain a pension profit-sharing, or other funded-deferred compensation plan. The filing requirement is not affected by whether or not the plan qualified under the Internal Revenue Code. or whether or not you claim a deduction for the current tax year.

Form 5500.—Complete this form for each plan with 100 or more participants. Form 5500-C, 5500-R, or 5500EZ.---

Line 23

Deduct the cost of repairs including labor, supplies, and other items that do not add to the value or increase the life of the property. Do not deduct the value of your own labor. Do not deduct amounts spent to restore or replace property. They are chargeable to capital accounts or to the depreciation reserve, depending on how depreciation is charged on your books

Line 25

You can deduct the following taxes: Real estate and personal property taxes on business assets Social security taxes paid to match required withholding from your employees' wages. Also, Federal unemployment tax paid.

- Federal income taxes.
- Estate and gift taxes.

 Taxes'assessed to pay for improvements. such as paving and sewers

- · Taxes on your home or personal property i
- State and local sales taxes (treat instead as part of the cost of the property).

Other taxes not related to your business.

Lines:26a through 26d You may deduct only 80% of your business-related meal and entertainment expenses, including meals incurred while traveling away from home on business. This rule also applies to meal and entertainment expenses for which you reimburse you employees, but only if you do not treat the reimbursement as wages subject to withholding.

Business meal expenses are deductible only if they are: (1) directly related to or associated with the active conduct of your trade or business; (2) not lavish or extravagant; and (3) incurred while you or your employee is present at the meal

There are exceptions to these rules as well as other rules that apply to sky-box rentals, tickets to entertainment events and luxury water travel. Get Pub. 463. You cannot deduct any expense paid or incurred for a facility (such as a yacht or hunting lodge) used for any activity usually considered entertainment, amusement, or recreation Note: You may be able to deduct the expense if the amount is treated as compensation and reported on Form W-2 for an employee or Form 1099-MISC for an independent contractor. See Pub. 463. Foreign Conventions. Generally, you cannot deduct expenses for attending a foreign convention unless it is directly related to your trade or business and it is as reasonable for the meeting to be held outside the North American area or Jamaica as within it. These rules apply to both employers and employees. See Pub. 463. Line 26b. Enter your total meal and entertainment expense. Line 26c. Figure how much of the amount

Lines 32a and 32b At-Risk Rules

Deductions for losses by persons who are engaged in a trade or business or an activity for the production of income, including the holding of real property (other than mineral property), are limited to the amount they have at risk in the business.

If (1) you have a loss from any activity that you engaged in as a trade or business or for the production of income, including the holding of real property (other than mineral property) placed in service after December 31, 1986, and (2) you have amounts for which you are not at risk in the activity, use Form 6198, Computation of Deductible Loss From an Activity Described in Section 465(c), to determine the allowable loss

Check box 32b if you have amounts for which you are not at risk for this business. such as the following:

1. nonrecourse loans used to finance your business, to acquire property used in your business or to acquire your interest in the business, unless they are secured by property not used in your business or by certain real property used in an activity of holding real property; or

2. amounts protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement: or

3. loans from someone who has an interest in your business, other than as a creditor, or who is related, under section 465(b)(3)(C), to a person (other than yourself) having such an interest: or

4. amounts contributed to your business, or to your interest in the business that is covered by:

 nonrecourse loans or protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement. or similar arrangement; or

 loans from a person described in 3 above. If you do not have any of these kinds of amounts for which you are not at risk in this business, check box 32a and enter your loss on line 31 unless you answered "No" to Question I. In this case, you must complete Form 8582 to figure your allowable loss to enter on line 31.

If you checked box 32b, get Form 6198 to determine the amount of your deductible loss and enter that amount on line 31. But if you answered "No" to Question I, your loss may be further limited. See Form 8582. If your at-risk amount is zero or less enter o on line 31. Be sure to attach Form 6198 to your return. If you checked box 32b and you fail to attach Form 6198. processing of your tax return may be delayed.

If, in addition to the amount that you report on Schedule C, you dispose of an asset used in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply and you have amounts in the activity for which you are not at risk, see the instructions for Form 6198.

Any loss from this business not allowed for 1988 because of the at-risk rules is treated as a deduction allocable to the business in 1989. For more details, see Form 6198 and Pub. 925.

Instructions for Schedule SE

Social Security

Self-Employment Tax

Purpose

If you are subject to self-employment tax, use Schedule SE to figure any tax due on net earnings from self-employment. You may also have to pay this tax on wages you were paid as n employee of an electing church or qualified church-controlled organization. The Social Security Administration uses the information from Schedule SE to figure your benefits under the social security program. This tax applies no matter how old you are. It applies even if you are already getting social security benefits.

Get Pub. 533, Self-Employment Tax, for details.

Note: The Schedule SE has two sections: Section A, Short Schedule SE and Section B, Long Schedule SE.

Who Must File Schedule SE

You must file Schedule SE if a and b below apply to you:

a. You were self-employed, and your net earnings from your business were $400 or more. (Or you had wages of $100 or more as an employee of an electing church or organization controlled by a church.) AND b. You did not have wages (including tips), other than medicare qualified government other than medicare qualified governmer wages, of $45,000 or more that were subject to social security tax or railroad retirement tax.

Who Can File Schedule SE

Even if you are not required to file Schedule SE, it may be to your benefit to file it and use the "optional method" in Section B. Note: Using the optional method may give you the benefits described below, but it will also increase your self-employment tax.

How can the optional method help you?

 Social security coverage. — The optional method may give you credit toward your social security coverage even though you have a loss or low income from selfemployment.

2. Earned income credit.—Depending on your circumstances, using the optional method may qualify you to claim the earned income credit or give you a larger credit. This could happen if your SE earnings by not using the optional method are less than $1,600. Figure the earned income credit with and without using the optional method to see if the optional method will benefit you.

 Child and dependent care credit.— The optional method may also help you if your SE earnings are less than $1,600 and you want to increase your net SE earnings to qualify to claim the child and dependent care credit.

Who Is Subject to Self-Employment Tax?

Self-Employed Persons. You are subject to SE tax if you had net earnings from being self-employed. If you are in business for yourself, or are a farmer, for example, you are self-employed. Your shares of certain partnership income and guaranteed payments are subject to SE tax. Read the Partnership instructions on page 38. Employees of Churches and Church Organizations. If you were an employee of a church or qualified church-controlled organization that has in effect a certificate electing exemption from employer social security taxes, you may be subject to SE tax on your wages. This applies if the wages were $100 or more from any one church or church-controlled organization. See line B at the top of the long SE. If you also have medicare qualified government wages, you must use the worksheet for ine 6b. The worksheet is on page 39 of the instructions. U.S. Citizens Employed by Foreign Governments or International Organizations. You are subject to SE tax if you are a U.S. citizen employed:

 in the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or the Virgin Islands;

by a foreign government; and in certain cases, by a wholly-owned instrumentality of a foreign government or by an international organization under the International Organizations Immunites Act. Report income from this employment on Schedule SE (Section A or B), line 2. If you are employed by a foreign government or an international organization in a country other than those listed, you are not subject to this tax.

U.S. Clitzens or Resident Allens Living Outside the United States. If you are a self-employed U.S. clitzen or resident allen living outside the United States, in most cases you are subject to the selfemployment tax. You may reduce your foreign earnings from self-employment by the deduction for certain foreign housing costs. But you may not reduce your foreign earnings from self-employment by your foreign earned income exclusion.

Coverage for Overseas Missionaries. You may figure net earnings from selfemployment as if you were in the United States if:

 You are a U.S. citizen; and
 You were a minister (but not a Christian Science practitioner) or a member of a religious order serving outside the United States; and

• You are not exempt from SE tax because you filed Form 4361. Application for Exemption from Self-Employment Tax for Use by Ministers, Members of Religious Orders and Christian Science Practitioners. Get Pub. 517 for more details.

Who Is Not Subject to Self-Employment Tax?

Members of the Clergy and Certain Religious Orders and Sects. In most cases you are subject to SE tax on your net earnings you get as a minister, a member of a religious order who has not taken a vow of poverty, or a Christian Science practitioner. But you will not be subject to the tax on those net earnings if you filed Form 4361 and IRS approved you as exempt from the tax. In this case, if you have no other income subject to SE tax, write "Exempt— Form 4361" on Form 1040, line 48. However, if you have other earnings of $400 or more subject to SE tax, see line A at the top of the long SE. Note: if you have ever filed Form 2031 to elect social security coverage on your earnings as a minister, you cannot change that election now.

If you have conscientious objections to social security insurance because of your belief in the teachings of a recognized religious sect of which you are a member, you are not subject to the tax if you got IRS approval by filing Form 4029, Application for Exemption From Tax on Self. Employment Income and Waiver of Benefits. In this case, do not file Schedule SE. Instead, write "Exempt—Form 4029" on Form 1040, line 48. Note: Do not file Form 4029 for wages you get from a church or church-controlled organization that has chosen to treat its employees as selfemployed.

General Information

Fiscal Year Filers.—If your tax year is a fiscal year, you must use the tax rate and earnings base that apply at the time the liscal year begins. The tax or earnings base for a fiscal year that overlaps the date of a rate or earnings base change is not prorated More Than One Business.—If you farmed and had at least one other business or you had two ar more businesses, your net earnings from self-employment are the combined net earnings from all your businesses. If you had a loss in one business, it reduces the income from another, Figure the combined SE tax on one Schedule SE.

Joint Returns.—Show the name of the spouse with SE income on Schedule SE. If both spouses have SE income, each must file a separate Schedule SE. If one spouse qualifies to use the short SE, and the other has to use the long SE, both can use one Schedule SE. One spouse should complete the front and the other the back.

Include the total profits or losses from all businesses on Form 1040, as appropriate. Then enter the combined SE tax on Form 1040, line 48.

Community Income. — Inrmost cases, if any of the income from a business, (including tarming) is community income, all of the income from that business is SE earnings of the spouse who carried on the business. The identity of the spouse who carried on the business is determined by the facts in each case. If you and your spouse are partners in a partnership, see the instructions for Partnerships on page 38.

If you and your spouse have community income and file separate returns, attach Schedule SC to the return of the spouse with the SE income. Also attach Schedule(3) C and/or Schedule(3) F. Caution: Community income included on Schedule(3) C or F must be divided for income tax purposes on the basis of the community groeerty laws.

Specific Instructions

Read the top of page 1 of the form to see if you can use Section A, Short Schedule SE, or if you must use Section B, Long

Schedule SE. For either section, you need to know what to include as net earnings from self-employment. Read below to see what to include as net earnings and how to fill in lines 1 and 2 of either the short or long SE.

Name of Self-Employed Person. Enter the name and social security number of the self-employed person as it appears on that person's social security card.

Net Earnings From Self-Employment

What is included in net SE earnings? In most cases, net earnings include your net profit from a farm or nonfarm business. If you are a partner in a partnership, see the instructions below.

Do not report on lines 1 and 2 any income or expense not included in figuring net SE earnings. If you are a partner, reduce tines 1 and 2 for any deduction for recovery property (section 179), oil or gas depletion, or unreimbursed partnership expenses. You must attach a statement to explain why you are not including certain items of income or expense

If you deposited earnings into a capital construction fund set up under the Merchant Marine Act of 1936, get Pub. 595.

If you are a duly ordained minister who is an employee of a church and you are subject to SE tax, the unreimbursed business expenses that you incurred as church employee are allowed only as an itemized deduction. They are deducted from your SE earnings in figuring SE tax. However, special rules apply. Get Pub. 517.

Partnerships

If you are a general partner, include in your total net earnings your share of partnership income or loss from the trade or business. Also include any guaranteed payments your partnership paid you for your personal services. If you are a limited partner, only include guaranteed payments. Line 14a of Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) should show net earnings for either general or limited partners.

If your partnership is engaged solely in the operation of a group investment program, earnings from the operation are not self-employment earnings for either the general or limited partner.

If you are married and both you and your spouse are partners in a partnership, each of you is subject to SE tax on your own share of partnership income. Each of you must file a Schedule SE and report the partnership income or loss on Schedule E (Form 1040), Part II, for income tax purposes.

SE income belongs to the person who is the member of the partnership and cannot be treated as SE income by the nonmember spouse. This applies even in community property states. If a partner in an ongoing partnership dies, that member's share of partnership ordinary income or loss for the year must be included in the partner's net SE earnings.

Share Farming You are considered self-employed if you produced crops or livestock on someone else's land for a share of the crops or Page 38 livestock produced (or the proceeds from them). This is true even if you had another person ("agent") doing the actual work or management for you. Report your net earnings for income tax purposes on Schedule F and for SE tax purposes on Schedule SE. For more details, get Pub. 225, Farmer's Tax Guide.

Other Income Included in Net Earnings From Self-Employment

A Rental income from a farm, if as landlord, you participated materially in the production or management of the production or farm products on this land. This income is farm earnings. (To determine whether you participated materially in farm management or production, do not consider the activities of any agent who acted for you.) The material participation tests are explained in Pub. 225.

 Cash or a payment in kind from the Department of Agriculture for being in a land diversion program.
 Payments for the use of rooms or other rayments for the use of rooms or other space when you also provided substantial services. Examples are hotel rooms, boarding houses, and tourist camps, or homes.

 Payments for space in parking lots, trailer parks, warehouses, or storage garages.

 Income from the retail sale of newspapers and magazines if you are 18 or over and kept the profits.

 Income as a crew member of a fishing vessel with a crew of normally less than 10 people. Get Pub. 595.

 Fees as a state or local government employee if you were paid only on a fee basis and the job was not covered under a Federal-State social security coverage agreement.

 Interest received in the course of any trade or business, such as interest on notes or accounts receivable.

 The rental value of a home or an allowance for a home furnished you as a minister or a member of a religious order.

 The value of meals and lodging given to you for the convenience of your employer if you are a minister or member of a religious order. • Fees and other payments received by you as a director of a corporation for services as a director. Beginning in 1988, director's earnings are treated as received when the services are performed, regardless of when paid, for SE tax purposes.

Caution: At the time these instructions were printed, legislation was pending that would prevent this change from going into effect. Get Pub. 553, Highlights of 1988 Tax Changes, to find out whether this law was passed.

 Recapture amounts under sections 179 and 280F that you included in gross income because the business use of the property dropped to 50% or less. Do not include amounts you recaptured on the disposal of property. See Form 4797, Sales of Business Property.

 Fiduciaries' fees you received as a professional fiduciary. This may also apply to fees you got as a nonprofessional fiduciary if the fees relate to active participation in the operation of the estate's business, or the management of an estate that required extensive management activities over a long period of time.

Option and commodity dealers engaged in trading section 1256 contracts, see section 1402(i) to figure net SE earnings.

Income Not included in Net Earnings From Self-Employment - Salaries, fees, etc., subject to social security tax that you received for performing services performed as a public official (except as a fee basis government employee as explained under Other Income Included in Net Earnings From Self-Employment) or as an employee or employee representative under the railroad retirement system.

 Income you received as a retired partner under a written partnership plan that provides for lifetong periodic retirement payments if you had no other interest in the partnership and did not perform services for it during the year.

 Income from real estate rentals (including rentals paid in crop shares), if you did not get the income in the course of a trade or business as a real estate dealer. This includes cash and crop shares received from a tenant or sharefarmer. You should report this income on Schedule E, Part I.
 Dividends on shares of stock and interest on bonds, notes, etc., if you did not get the business as a dealer in stocks or securities.
 Gain or loss from:

a. the sale or exchange of a capital asset; b. the sale, exchange, involuntary conversion, or other disposition of property unless the property is stock-in-trade or other property that would be includible in inventory, or held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the business; or

 c. certain transactions in timber, coal, or domestic iron ore.

Net operating losses from other years.
Medicare Qualified Government Employment

Section B, Long Schedule SE, line 5a Medicare qualified government wages are wages you get as a Federal, state, or focal government employee that are subject ONLY to the 1.45% medicare tax. If you received such wages, do NOT include them as social security wages on Schedule SE, line 5a. Wages you enter on line 5a are wages subject to the old-age, survivors, and disability insurance tax as well as the 1.45% medicare tax.

Note: Also see the instructions for Form 1040, line 60, to see if you should file Form 4469, Computation of Excess Medicare Tax Credit.

Figure your SE tax using the rate below line 7 of Section B if you do not have to use the worksheet below. Do not reduce the rate by the medicare tax rate. But you must use the worksheet and skip line 7 of Section B if.

a. you had medicare qualified government wages as explained above; and

b. the total of the amounts on lines 3a, 3b, 5c, 6b, and 6c of Schedule SE is more than $45,000.

Worksheet----(Keep for your records)

1. Enter total of lines 3a, 3b, and 6c from Schedule SE. 2. Enter line 6a from Schedule SE 2.

- 3. Enter your medicare multified government wages here and on line 6b of Schedule SE
- 4. Subtract line 3 from line 2 (If ser
- or less, enter -0-.) 4. 5. Multiply the smaller of line 1 or line 2 by 1051
- Multiply the smaller of line 1 or line 4 by .0251. 6
- 7. Add lines 5 and 6. Enter on line 8 of Schedule SE and on Form 1040 line 48

Optional Methods

Optional Method for FARM Income Was your gross farm income for the year $2,400 or less? If it was, you can report two-thirds of your gross farm income instead of your actual net earnings from farming on line 3a of Part I and line 10 of Part II

If your gross farm income was more than $2,400, and your net farm profits were less than $1,600, you can report $1,600 on line 3a of Part I and line 10 of Part II.

If you can use this method, it can increase or decrease your net SE farm earnings, even if the farming business resulted in a loss. There is no limit on how many times you can use this method. If you se this method, you must apply it to all farm earnings from self-employment for the vear

You may change the method after you file your return. For example, you can change from the regular method to the optional or from the optional to the regular.

For a farm partnership, figure your share of gross income based on the partnership agreement. With guaranteed payments, your share of the partnership's gross income is your guaranteed payment plus your share of the gross income after it is reduced by all guaranteed payments of the partnership. If you are a limited partner, include only guaranteed payments.

Optional Method for NONFARM Income Were your net nonfarm profits less than $1,600 and also less than two-thirds of your gross nonfarm income? if they were, you may use this method if you are regularly self-employed or regularly a partner. You meet this requirement if you had actual net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more in at least 2 of the 3 years just before the year for which you use th method. The net earnings of $400 or more could be from either farm or nonfarm earnings or both. The net earnings include your distributive share of the income or loss from any of your partnerships.

You may report on line 3b of Part I and line 12 of Part II two-thirds of your gross nonfarm income, up to $1,600 as your net earnings, but you may not report less than your actual net earnings from nonfarm self-employmen

For a nonfarm partnership, see Optional Method for Farm Income for details on how to figure your share of gross income The limit for the optional method for nonfarm self-employment is five years. The five years do not have to be one after another

Using Both Ontional Methods

Did you have both nonfarm and farm income? If you did, you may use the nonfarm optional method if:

a. your actual net earnings from nonfarm self-employment were less than $1,600, and b. your net nonfarm profits were less than two-thirds of your gross nonfarm income. If you can use both methods, you may report less than your total actual net earnings from farm and nonfarm income but you cannot report less than your actual net earnings from nonfarm SE income alone

If you use both methods to figure net earnings, you cannot report more than $1,600 of net SE earnings.

Line 10

Enter the smaller of:

• two-thirds (%) of the total gross income from all Schedules F, line 12, and Schedules K-1 (Form 1065), line 14b; or $1,600.

Line 12 Enter the smallest of:

 $1,600; or two-thirds (3/3) of the total gross income from all Schedules C, line 5, plus your distributive share of gross income from all ionfarm partnerships. Schedules K-1 (Form 1065), line 14c; or the amount on line 5 if you also had farm income and elect the farm optional method.

Instructions for Schedule F

Farm Income and Expenses

Purpose

Use Schedule F to report farm income and xpenses. File it with Forms 1040, 1041, 1041S. or 1065.

Additional Information. Pub. 225. Farmer's Tax Guide, has samples of filled-in forms and schedules, and lists important dates that apply to farmers. It also contains information about some of the payments under the Disaster Assistance Act of 1988 Filers of Forms 1041, 1041S, and 1065. Do not complete the block labeled "Social security number (SSN)." Instead, complete the block labeled "Employer ID number (Not SSN)

If you had to make estimated tax payments in 1988 and you underpaid your estimated tax, you will not be charged a penalty if:

1. your gross farming or fishing income for 1987 or 1988 is at least two-thirds of your gross income, AND

2. you file your 1988 tax return and pay the tax due by March 1, 1989 For more details, see Pub. 225.

Do not report the following income on Schedule F

 Rent based on farm production or cron shares if you did not materially participate (for self-employment tax purposes) in the management or operation of the farm and the activity is a rental activity for purposes of the passive activity loss and credit limitations. Report this income on Form. 4835 and Schedule E (Form 1040). It is not subject to self-employment tax. See Pub. 225

 Rent from pasture land that is based on a flat charge. Report this income in Part I of Schedule E. But report on line 11 of Schedule F pasture income received from taking care of someone else's livestock. Sales, exchanges, or involuntary conversions (other than casualties or thefts) of certain farm property. Report this income on Form 4797.

 Sales of livestock held for draft, breeding, sport, or dairy purposes. Report this income on Form 4797.

Use Form 4684 to report a casualty or theft involving farm business property. including livestock held for draft, breeding sport, or dairy purposes

Filing Information Returns

You may have to file information returns for wages paid to employees, certain payments of fees and other nonemployee compensation, interest, rents, royalties. annuities, and pensions. You may also have to file an information return if you sold $5,000 or more of consumer products to a person on a buy-sell, deposit-commission or other basis for resale. For more information, get Pub. 916.

In addition, if you received cash of more than $10,000 in one or more related transactions in your farming business, you may have to file Form 8300.

Lines A and B

On line A, enter your principal crop or activity for the current year

On line B, enter one of the fifteen major agricultural activity codes listed in Part IV on page 2 of Schedule F. The code you select should represent the major farm activity from which you derive the largest amount of your income. Field crop pertains to the production of grains, such as wheat rice, feed corn, soybeans, barley, rye, and lentils; and nongrains such as cotton, tobacco, sugar, and Irish potatoes. Animal specialty includes the raising of pets or laboratory animals, such as dogs, cats, bees, and snakes.

Line C

Under the cash method, include all income in the year you actually get it. Generally, deduct expenses when you pay them. If you use the cash method, check the box labeled "cash." Complete Parts I and II of Schedule F

Under the accrual method, include income in the year you earn it. It does not matter when you get it. Deduct expenses when you incur them. If you use the accrual method, check the box labeled "accrual. Complete Parts II and III of Schedule F Other rules apply that determine the timing of deductions based on economic performance. Get Pub. 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, for details.

Line D

You need an employer ID number only if you had a Keogh plan, or were required to file an employment, excise, fiduciary, partnership. or alcohol, tobacco, or firearms tax return, Line F

You can elect to include Commodity Credit Corporation loan proceeds as income in the year you received them instead of reporting as income the proceeds from the sale of the commodities in the year sold or in the year of forfeiture. If you made this election and reported these loan proceeds as income in a prior year, check the "Yes" box on line E Otherwise, check "No." For information on how to make this election, see the instructions for lines 8a-8c

Line F

Passive Activity Losses Generally, you can deduct losses from passive activities only to the extent of income from passive activities.

A passive activity generally is any activity involving the conduct of a trade or business if you do not materially participate in the activity. See the instructions for Schedule C (Form 1040), line I, for the definition of material participation.

If you are a retired or disabled farmer, you are treated as materially participating in a farming business if you materially participated 5 of the 8 years preceding your retirement or disability. Also, a surviving spouse is treated as materially participating in a farming activity if the real property used in the activity meets the estate tax rules for special valuation of farm property passed from a qualifying decedent, and the surviving spouse actively manages the farm materially participate. If you checked "No" and you claim a loss, you must figure your allowable loss on Form 8582, Passive Activity Loss Limitations, and enter it on Schedule Filine 39.

For more details get Pub. 925, Passive Activity and At-Risk Rules.

Line G :

Caution: Consider the line G election carefully. It can affect future tax years as well as the current year. The election also affects the tax treatment of property disposed of that was covered by the election

Capitalization rules apply if you produce real or tangible personal property or acquire property for resale. This means that certain expenses must be included in inventory costs or capitalized. These expenses include Page 40

the direct costs of the property and the share of any indirect costs allocable to that property

These rules generally do NOT apply to any plant or animal produced in your farming business that has a preproductive period of 2 years or less. Also, these rules generally do not apply to expenses of eplanting certain crops if they were lost or damaged by reason of disease, drought, or other casualty.

Even if the preproductive period of the plant or animal you produce is more than 2 years, you may elect to currently deduc these expenses. But you may not make this election for the costs of planting or growing citrus or almond groves that are incurred before the close of the fourth tax year beginning with the tax year you plant them in their permanent grove.

Note: This election may not be made by tax shelters, farm syndicates, or partnerships required to use the accrual method of accounting under Internal Revenue Code section 447.

If you elect to currently deduct your preproductive period expenses, you will have to recapture these costs as ordinary income when you dispose of this property. and the alternative depreciation rules apply to property placed in service in any tax year your election is in effect. You must make his election in the first tax year after 1986 during which you engage in a farming business involving the production of property subject to the capitalization rules. You may not revoke this election without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service

For more information, see Pub. 225. Which box should I check? Check the "Yes" box on line G if you are electing to currently deduct your preproductive period expenses. Also check the "Yes" box if you made this election last year.

Check the "No" box if you are capitalizing your preproductive period expenses. Also check the "No" box if you chose to capitalize them last year.

Check the "Does Not Apply" box if you do not have preproductive period expenses or you are not eligible to make the election. Caution: If you are eligible to make this election but you do not check any of the boxes on line G nor enter an amount on line 37 of Schedule F, you will be treated as if you checked the "Yes" box.

Special Capitalization Rules for Certain Cattle. If you raise or purchase female beef or dairy cattle, you may be able to elect to capitalize a fixed amount for each cow instead of your actual costs. You may be able to make this election even if you previously elected to deduct your preproductive period expenses. For more details, see Pub. 225.

Part I

Farm Income—Cash Method

In Part I show income received for items listed on lines 1 through 11. Count both the cash actually or constructively received and the fair market value of goods or other property received for these items.

Income is constructively received when it is credited to your account or set aside for you to use.

If you ran the farm yourself and received rents based on farm production or crop shares, report these rents as income or > Sales of Livestock Because of Drought, If you sold livestock because of a drought, you can count the income from the sale in the year after the drought, instead of the year of the sale. You can do this IF:

 your main business is farming, AND you can show that you sold the livestock

- only because of the drought, AND
- your area qualified for Federal aid.

Information Acturns

If you received information returns (Forms 1099) showing amounts paid to you, first " determine if the amounts are to be included with farm income. Then, use the chart below to determine where to report the income on Schedule F. Include the Form 1099 amounts with any other income reported on that line.

Information return	Where to report
Form 1099-PATR	Line 5a
Form 1099-G	Line 7a
Form 1099-A	Line 8b
Form 1099-MISC (for	Line 9a

You may also receive Form 1099-MISC for other types of income. In this case, report it on whichever line best describes the income. For example, if you received a Form 1099-MISC for custom farming work, include this amount on line 10, "Custom hire (machine work) income."

Lines 1 and 2

On line 1 show amounts received from sales of livestock and other items hought for resale. On line 2, show the cost or other basis of the livestock and other items you actually sold.

Line 4

Show amounts received from sales of livestock, produce, grains, and other products you raised.

Lines 5a and 5b If you received distributions from a cooperative in 1988, you should receive Form 1099-PATR, Statement for Recipients (Patrons) of Taxable Distributions Received From Cooperatives. On line 5a show your total distributions from cooperatives. This includes patronage dividends, nonpatronage dividends, per-unit retain allocations, and redemption of nonqualified notices and per-unit retain allocations.

Show patronage dividends received in cash, and the dollar amount of qualified written notices of allocation. If you received property as patronage dividends, report the fair market value of the property as income. Include cash advances received from a marketing cooperative. If you get per-unit retains in cash, show the amount of cash. If you get qualified per-unit retain certificates, show the stated dollar amount of the certificate

If you meet any of the material participation tests described in the line I instructions for Schedule C, check the "Yes" hor I

Check the "No" box if you did not

You do not have to include as income patronage dividends from buying personal or family items, capital assets, or depreciable assets. Enter these amounts on line 5b. If you do not report patronage dividends from these items as income, you must subtract the amount of the dividend from the cost or other basis of these items.

Lines 7a and 7b

Enter on line 7a the TOTAL of the following amounts. These are government payments you received, usually reported to you on Form 1099-G.

- Price support payments. Diversion payments.
- · Cost-share payments (sight drafts).

· Payments in the form of materials (such as fertilizer or lime) or services (such as grading or building dams).

· Face value of commodity credit certificates (often called "generic" or "PIK" certificates)

On line 7b report only the taxable amount. For example, if you qualify to exclude payments received under certain cost-sharing conservation programs (see Pub. 225), do not include these payments

Lines 8a through 8c

Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) Loans. Generally, you do not report CCC loan proceeds as income. However, if you pledge part or all of your production to secure a CCC loan, you may elect to report the loan proceeds as income in the year you receive them, instead of the year you sell the cron. If you make this election (or made the election in a prior year), report loan proceeds you received in 1988 on line 8a and attach a statement to your return showing the details of the loan(s).

If you made the election in a prior year to report loan proceeds as income, be sure you checked the "Yes" box on line E. Otherwise check "No." See the instructions for line E. What if I forfeited a CCC loan? Include the full amount forfeited on line 8b, even if you reported the loan proceeds as income If you did not elect to report the loan proceeds as income, also include the forfeited amount on line 8c.

If you did elect to report the loan proceeds as income, you generally will not have an entry on line 8c. But if the amount forfeited is different from your basis in the commodity, you may have an entry on tine 8c

What if I repaid a CCC loan with CCC certificates? Include on line 8b the amount of any CCC loan you repaid with certificates, even if you reported the loan proceeds as income.

If you did not elect to report the CCC loan proceeds as income, include on line 8c the amount of the loan you repaid with the certificates minus your basis in those certificates. Your basis in certificates is the face value of the certificates you included as income, or the amount you paid for thom

If you did elect to report the loan proceeds as income, do not include the amount of the loan you repaid with the certificates on line 8c.

For more information on the tax consequences of electing to report CCC loan proceeds as income, forfeiting CCC loans, and repaying CCC loans with certificates, see Pub. 225.

Line 9a through 9d

In general, you must report crop insurance proceeds in the year you receive them. However, if 1988 was the year of damage, you may elect to include these proceeds (and certain disaster payments) in income next year. To make this election, check the box on line 9r and attach a statement to your return, See Pub. 225 for what you must include in your statement.

Enter on line 9a the TOTAL crop insurance proceeds you received in 1988. even if you elect to include them in income next year

Enter on line 9b the taxable amount of the proceeds you received in 1988. Do not include proceeds you elect to include in income next year

Enter on line 9d the amount, if any, of crop insurance proceeds you received in 1987 and elected to include in income in 1988

Line 10

Enter on this line the income you received for custom hire (machine work)

Line 11

Use this line to report income not shown on lines 1 through 10. For example, include the following income items on line 11: Illegal Federal irrigation subsidies, see Pub 225

Barter income

 Income from discharge of indebtedness. Generally, if a debt is canceled or forgiven, you must include the canceled amount in ncome. However, certain solvent farmers may exclude from income discharged qualified farm indebtedness. For information on whether you must include in income any discharge of indebtedness, see

Pub. 225 • State gasoline or fuel tax refund you got in 1988.

 The amount of credit for Federal tax on pasoline or other fuel claimed on your 1987 Form 1040.

The amount of credit for alcohol used as a fuel that was entered on Form 6478.

Report the sale of commodity futures contracts on this line if they were made to protect you from price changes. These are a form of business insurance and are considered hedges. Enter any profit on line

11. If you had a loss in a closed futures contract, show it as a minus amount. Caution: For property acquired and hedging positions established, you must clearly identify on your books and records that the transaction was a hedging transaction.

Purchase or sales contracts are not true hedges if they offset losses that already occurred. If you bought or sold commodity futures with the hope of making a profit due to favorable price changes, do not report the profit or loss on this line. Report it on Form 6781

Farm Deductions

Note: Certain costs must be capitalized if you produced real or tangible personal property, or acquired property held for resale. Special rules apply to the capitalization of interest and certain farm costs. See the instructions for line G for more details Do not reduce your deductions on lines 13— 35e by the preproductive period expenses you are required to capitalize. Instead, enter the total amount capitalized on line 37.

Do not deduct:

· Personal or living expenses (such as taxes, insurance, or repairs on your home) that do not produce farm income.

 Expenses of raising anything you or your family used.

- The value of animals you raised that died. Loss of inventory
- Personal losses.

If you were repaid for any part of an expense, you must subtract the amount you were renaid from the deduction.

Prepaid Farming Expenses. Generally, if you use the cash method of accounting. and your prepaid expenses are more than 50% of your other deductible farming expenses, your expenses for feed, seed, fertilizer, and other farm supplies, are deductible only in the year in which you actually use them. The cost of poultry bought for use in the business must be spread over the lesser of 12 months or the useful life of the poultry. The cost of poultry bought for resale is deductible in the year in which the poultry is sold or otherwise disposed of For an exception to this rule and additional information on prepaid expenses, see Pub. 225.

Farming syndicates cannot use the cash method of accounting. A farming syndicate may be a partnership, any other noncorporate group, or an S corporation If:

a. the interests in the business have ever been for sale in a way that would require registration with any Federal or state agency, or

b. more than 35% of the loss during any tax year is spread between limited partners or limited entrepreneurs. (A limited partner is one who can lose only the amount invested in the partnership; a limited entrepreneur is a person who does not take any active part in managing the business.)

improvements, cars and trucks, machinery, and other farm equipment of a permanent nature. Do not deduct depreciation on your home, furniture, or other personal items, land, livestock you bought or raised for resale, or other property in your inventory

You may also choose under section 179 to expense a portion of the cost of certain depreciable property you bought in 1988 for use in your business. Figure your depreciation deduction, including the section 179 expense deduction, on Form 4562, Depreciation and Amortization. Enter on line 17 of Schedule F the amount from Form 4562, Part I

The depreciation deduction for cars, including any section 179 deduction, is limited. For example, if you used your car 100% for business and placed the car in service in 1988, your deduction is limited to $2,560. The allowable amounts are further limited if your business use is less than 100%. In general, for cars or other "listed property," you may not take a section 179 deduction if the property is used 50% or less in your trade or business. If you claim depreciation for any listed property, you must complete Part III of Form 4562. See the instructions for Form 4562 and Pub. 534. Depreciation, for details,

If you have listed property (such as a car or light truck) that you placed in service after June 18, 1984, for which you claimed a depreciation deduction, and the business use percentage of the property decreased to 50% or less during 1988, you may have to recapture excess depreciation, including any section 179 expense deduction. Get Form 4797 and its instructions for details.

If you took an investment credit on property that you dispose of before the end of its class life or life years, or the business use percentage decreases, or the use of the property otherwise changes so that it no longer qualifies, you may have to refigure the credit. Get Form 4255, Recapture of Investment Credit, for details.

Interest Allocation Rules. The tax treatment of interest expense differs depending on its type. For example, personal interest, home mortgage interest and investment interest are all treated differently. "Interest allocation" rules require you to allocate (classify) your interest expense so it is deducted on the right place of your return and gets the right tax treatment. These rules could affect how much interest you deduct on Schedule F.

Generally, you allocate interest expense by tracing how the proceeds of the loan are used. See Pub. 535 and Pub. 545 for details.

If you paid interest on a debt secured by your main home, and any of the proceeds from that debt were used in your farming business, see Pub. 545 to figure the amount that is deductible on Schedule F

If you have a mortgage on your real property used in your farming business (other than your main home), enter on line 24a the interest you paid for 1988 to banks or other financial institutions. If you paid $600 or more of interest on this mortgage. you should receive Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement, or similar statement. It shows the total interest received from you during 1988. You should receive this statement by January 31, 1989. If you and at least one other person (other than your spouse if you file a joint return) were liable for and paid interest on the mortgage and the other person received the Form 1098. attach a statement to your return showing the name and address of the person who received the Form 1098. In the left margin, next to line 24a, write "see attached."

If you paid more mortgage interest to financial institutions than is shown on Form 1098, or similar statement, see Pub. 545 to see if you can deduct the additional interest. If you can, attach a statement to your return explaining the difference and write "see attached" in the left margin next to line 24a

On line 24b, enter the interest on other loans related to this farm. Do not deduct interest you prepaid in 1988 for years after 1988. Include only the part that applies to 1988

Lines 25a and 25b

Lines 40a and 40b At-Risk Rules

engaged in a trade or business or an activity for the production of income, including the holding of real property (other than mineral property), are limited to the amount they have at risk in the business.

If (1) you have a loss from any farming activity that you engaged in as a trade or business or for the production of income. including the holding of real property (other than mineral property) placed in service after December 31, 1986, and (2) you have amounts for which you are not at risk in the activity, use Form 6198, Computation of Deductible Loss From an Activity Described in Section 465(c), to determine the allowable loss.

Check box 40b if you have amounts for which you are not at risk for this farm, such as the following: 1. nonrecourse loans used to finance the activity, to acquire property used in the activity, or to acquire your interest in the activity, unless they are secured by property not used in the activity or by certain real property.

2. amounts protected against loss by a guarantee, stop-loss agreement, or similar arrangement: or

3. Joans from someone who has an interest in the activity, other than as a creditor, or who is related, under section 465(b)(3)(C), to a person (other than yourself) having such an interest: or

4. amounts contributed to the activity, or to your interest in the activity that is covered bv.

· loans from a person described in 3 above. If you do not have any of these kinds of amounts for which you are not at risk in this business, check box 40a and enter your loss on line 39 unless you answered "No" to Question F. In this case, you must complete Form 8582 to figure your allowable loss to enter on line 39.

If you checked box 40b, get Form 6198 to If you checked box 40b, get Form 6198 to determine the amount of your deductible loss and enter that amount on line 39. But if you answered "No" to Question F, your loss may be further limited. See Form 8582. If your at-risk amount is zero or less, enter zero on line 39. Be sure to attach Form 6198 to your return. If you checked box 40b and you fail to attach Form 6198, processing of your tax return may be delayed.

If, in addition to the amount that you report on Schedule F, you sell or otherwise dispose of an asset used in an activity to which the at-risk rules apply and you have amounts in the activity for which you are not at risk, see the instructions for Form 6198

Any loss from this activity not allowed for 1988 because of the at-risk rules is treated as a deduction allocable to the activity in 1989

For more details, get Pub. 925, Passive Activity and At-Risk Rules. Also see the instructions for Form 6198.

Who Must File Schedule SE

You must file Schedule SE if:

Section A Short Schodule SE

- Your net earnings from self-employment were $400 or more (or you had wages of $100 or more from an electing church or church organization); AND
- You did not have wages (subject to social security or railroad retirement tax) of $45,000 or more.

For more information about Schedule SE, see the Instructions.

Note: Most taxpayers can now use the new short Schedule SE on this page. But, you may have to use the longer Schedule SE that is on the back.

Who MUST Use the Long Schedule SE (Section B)

You must use Section B if ANY of the following applies:

- You choose the "optional method" to figure your self-employment tax. See Section B, Part II;
- You are a minister, member of a religious order, or Christian Science practitioner and received IRS approval (from Form 4361) not to be taxed on your earnings from these sources, but you owe self-employment tax on other earnings;
- You are an employee of a church or church organization that chose by law not to pay employer social security taxes;
- You have tip income that is subject to social security tax, but you did not report those tips to your employer; OR
- You are a government employee with wages subject ONLY to the 1.45% medicare part of the social security tax
