Part III Purpose

12 Describe the purpose of the organization

The 13th Congressional District Democratic Party Club recruits and supports Democrats who are active in changing politics in local government, state government and Washington D.C. by ensuring that government is open, transparent, accountable and responsive to the needs of the people at all levels of government. We shall champion for laws to limit the influence of special interests and ensure the government is communicating with the people by addressing the issues that are vital to their livelihood.
