Issue Number: 2021-03

Inside This Issue

OPR Issues Spanish-Language Version of Form 8821 & Instructions

In continuing to make information available in additional languages, a Spanish-language version of Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization, and the instructions to that form are now available on IRS.gov.

A Tax Information Authorization (TIA) is a critical form often used in assisting taxpayers with their IRS tax matters. A Form 8821 is a taxpayer's written authorization designating one or more third parties to receive and view the taxpayer's information. The designee(s) may inspect or receive confidential tax information for the tax matters, forms, and periods specified on Form 8821. This authorization includes the right to receive verbal and written account information (e.g., transcripts) and copies of IRS notices. The designee(s) of a TIA can be anyone the taxpayer chooses, including "family and friends."

The Form 8821 (SP) and its instructions joins other Spanish-language forms and publications that have been issued at the OPR's initiative:

- Form 2848 \(SP\), Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative
- Instructions for Form 2848 \(SP\)
- Publication 947 \(SP\), Practice Before the IRS and Power of Attorney
- Treasury Department Circular No. 230 \(SP\), Regulations Governing Practice before the Internal Revenue Service

Making these forms and publications available in Spanish helps the IRS improve taxpayer service and remove barriers to tax assistance for taxpayers. The IRS has identified a need to expand our multilingual services to achieve our mission of helping America's taxpayers understand and meet their tax responsibilities. The OPR will continue to focus on providing these tax forms and publications in more languages in future years.
