

Sample article for organizations to use to reach customers (287 word count)

Post the following article on your websites and/or use in other communication vehicles to help your customers find answers about incorrect Forms 1095-A and the Premium Tax Credit.

Find answers to your questions about incorrect Forms 1095-A and the Premium Tax Credit

The IRS has provided answers to tax filing questions for individuals who have received incorrect Forms 1095-A, Health Insurance Marketplace Statements.

If you were enrolled in qualifying Marketplace coverage, filed your return using information from your Form 1095-A, Health Insurance Marketplace Statement, and you later learn that the information on that form was incorrect, you do not need to file an amended return. This is true even if additional taxes would be owed based on the new information. Under the relief provided, the IRS will not pursue the collection of any additional taxes from you based on updated information in the corrected form. This relief applies to tax filers who enrolled through the federally-facilitated Marketplace or a state-based Marketplace.

The following questions are answered on the IRS Affordable Care Act Tax Provisions Questions and Answers page with the title, Incorrect Forms 1095-A and the Premium Tax Credit.

- What relief was announced on March 20, 2015?
- What additional relief is being announced?
- How will I know if my Form 1095-A, Health Insurance Marketplace Statement, is wrong or delayed?

In addition, the Web page provides specific answers for individuals who have filed their 2014 income tax return and for those who have not yet filed.

NOTE TO EDITOR: On Twitter? Send this tweet to your followers:

Did you get an Incorrect Health Insurance Marketplace Statement? New #IRS FAQs can help. <http://go.usa.gov/3jhUH> #HealthCare #ACA