Learn about new health care information Forms 1095-A, B and C

Starting this year, you may receive one or more forms providing information about the health care coverage that you had, or were offered, during 2015. These forms provide information about your health care coverage that you may need when you file your individual income tax return.

You should not attach any of these forms to your tax return but should keep them with your tax records:

Form 1095-B, Health Coverage is a new form. Health insurance providers send this form to individuals they cover, with information about who was covered and when.

Form 1095-C, Employer-Provided Health Insurance Offer and Coverage is the second new form. Certain employers send this form to certain employees, with information about what coverage the employer offered. Employers that offer health coverage referred to as “self-insured coverage” send this form to individuals they cover, with information about who was covered and when.

The deadline for insurers, other coverage providers, and certain employers to provide Forms 1095-B and 1095-C is March 31, 2016. Some taxpayers may not receive a Form 1095-B or Form 1095-C by the time they are ready to file their 2015 tax return. While the information on these forms may assist in preparing a return, they are not required; it is not necessary to wait for Forms 1095-B or 1095-C in order to file.

Form 1095-A, Health Insurance Marketplace Statement, was first issued last year. The Health Insurance Marketplace sends this form to individuals who enrolled in coverage through the Marketplace. The form includes information about the coverage, who was covered, and when.

The deadline for the Marketplace to provide individuals with Form 1095-A was February 1, 2016. If you are expecting to receive a Form 1095-A, you should wait to file your 2015 income tax return until you receive that form. If you or anyone on your tax return purchased coverage through the Marketplace and you have not received your Form 1095-A, you should contact the Marketplace from which you received coverage.

You are likely to get more than one form if you had coverage from more than one coverage provider, if you worked for more than one employer that offered coverage or if you enrolled for coverage in the Marketplace for a portion of the year and received coverage from another source for part of the year. You are also likely to get more than one form if you changed coverage or employers during the year or if different members of your family received coverage from different coverage providers.
