

Antonio “Tony” Zabaneh
Franchisee, H&R Block, Quincy, IL

Tony Zabaneh began his career with H&R Block as a bookkeeper and tax preparer in the company’s Lafayette, La office in 1981. He went on to become an assistant district manager and district manager in several company locations before becoming a small business owner and opening his first H&R Block franchise in Illinois in 1988.

For the last 21 years, Tony has been a multi-unit franchisee with his main office located in Quincy, IL and branch locations throughout Illinois, Missouri and Iowa. He has also been an outspoken advocate of small business owners and a leading voice for franchisees among H&R Block’s leadership organization.

Tony holds a Bachelors Degree in Business Management from the University of Louisiana (Magna Cum Laude). Tony resides in Quincy, IL with his wife, Chena and two children, Marco and Melaina.