

Michael McKenney, Assistant Inspector General for Audit
Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration

Mike McKenney is the Assistant Inspector General for Audit (Returns Processing and Account Services) for the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) and is responsible for providing audit oversight of IRS operations related to the preparation and processing of tax returns and the issuing of refunds to taxpayers. This includes customer service activities, outreach efforts, tax law implementation, taxpayer assistance, accounts management, notices, submission processing, and upfront compliance such as the Frivolous Returns Program and the Questionable Refund Program.

Prior to his current position, Mike served as an Audit Director in TIGTA's Headquarters Operations and Exempt Organizations Programs from 2002 to 2006. In this position, Mike supervised audit coverage over a broad range of IRS areas including the IRS Oversight Board, Agency-Wide Shared Services, Chief Human Capital Office, Office of Appeals, Taxpayer Advocate Service, Office of Research and Analysis, and the Office of Professional Responsibility.

Mike also previously started and managed TIGTA's Denver field office for the Office of Audit. Mike began his Federal auditing career in 1992 with the IRS Inspection Service in Los Angeles. Mike graduated from California State University, Fullerton with a B.A. in Business (Accounting).