Mission of the Service

Provide America’s taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all.
Introduction

The Internal Revenue Bulletin is the authoritative instrument of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for announcing official rulings and procedures of the Internal Revenue Service and for publishing Treasury Decisions, Executive Orders, Tax Conventions, legislation, court decisions, and other items of general interest. It is published weekly and may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents on a subscription basis. Bulletin contents of a permanent nature are consolidated semiannually into Cumulative Bulletins, which are sold on a single-copy basis.

It is the policy of the Service to publish in the Bulletin all substantive rulings necessary to promote a uniform application of the tax laws, including all rulings that supersede, revoke, modify, or amend any of those previously published in the Bulletin. All published rulings apply retroactively unless otherwise indicated. Procedures relating solely to matters of internal management are not published; however, statements of internal practices and procedures that affect the rights and duties of taxpayers are published.

Revenue rulings represent the conclusions of the Service on the application of the law to the pivotal facts stated in the revenue ruling. In those based on positions taken in rulings to taxpayers or technical advice to Service field offices, identifying details and information of a confidential nature are deleted to prevent unwarranted invasions of privacy and to comply with statutory requirements.

Rulings and procedures reported in the Bulletin do not have the force and effect of Treasury Department Regulations, but they may be used as precedents. Unpublished rulings will not be relied on, used, or cited as precedents by Service personnel in the disposition of other cases. In applying published rulings and procedures, the effect of subsequent legislation, regulations, court decisions, rulings, and procedures must be considered, and Service personnel and others concerned are cautioned against reaching the same conclusions in other cases unless the facts and circumstances are substantially the same.

The Bulletin is divided into four parts as follows:

This part includes rulings and decisions based on provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Part II.—Treaties and Tax Legislation.
This part is divided into two subparts as follows: Subpart A, Tax Conventions, and Subpart B, Legislation and Related Committee Reports.

Part III.—Administrative, Procedural, and Miscellaneous.
To the extent practicable, pertinent cross references to these subjects are contained in the other Parts and Subparts. Also included in this part are Bank Secrecy Act Administrative Rulings. Bank Secrecy Act Administrative Rulings are issued by the Department of the Treasury's Office of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement).

Part IV.—Items of General Interest.
With the exception of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and the disbarment and suspension list included in this part, none of these announcements are consolidated in the Cumulative Bulletins.

The first Bulletin for each month includes a cumulative index for the matters published during the preceding months. These monthly indexes are cumulated on a quarterly and semiannual basis, and are published in the first Bulletin of the succeeding quarterly and semiannual period, respectively.

The contents of this publication are not copyrighted and may be reprinted freely. A citation of the Internal Revenue Bulletin as the source would be appropriate.

Part I. Rulings and Decisions Under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986

Section 472.—Last-in, First-out Inventories

26 CFR 1.472-1: Last-in, first-out inventories.

LIFO; price indexes; department stores. The January 1999 Bureau of Labor Statistics price indexes are accepted for use by department stores employing the retail inventory and last-in, first-out inventory methods for valuing inventories for tax years ended on, or with reference to, January 31, 1999.

Rev. Rul. 99–15

The following Department Store Inventory Price Indexes for January 1999 were issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The indexes are accepted by the Internal Revenue Service, under §1.472–1(k) of the Income Tax Regulations and Rev. Proc. 86–46, 1986–2 C.B. 739, for appropriate application to inventories of department stores employing the retail inventory and last-in, first-out inventory methods for tax years ended on, or with reference to, January 31, 1999.

The Department Store Inventory Price Indexes are prepared on a national basis and include (a) 23 major groups of departments, (b) three special combinations of the major groups – soft goods, durable goods, and miscellaneous goods, and (c) a store total, which covers all departments, including some not listed separately, except for the following: candy, food, liquor, tobacco, and contract departments.

Section 1441.—Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens

26 CFR 1.1441–1: Requirement for the deduction and withholding of tax on payments to foreign persons.

T.D. 8804

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
Internal Revenue Services
26 CFR Parts 1, 31, 35a and 301

General Revision of Regulations Relating to Withholding of Tax on Certain U.S. Source Income Paid to Foreign Persons and Related Collection, Refunds, and Credits; Revision of Information Reporting and Backup Withholding Regulations; and Removal of Regulations Under Parts 1 and 35a and of Certain Regulations Under Income Tax Treaties

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule; delay of effective date, technical amendments, and partial withdrawal.

SUMMARY: This document contains changes delaying the effective date and making technical amendments to final regulations (T.D. 8734, 1997–2 C.B. 109), relating to the withholding of income tax on certain U.S. source income payments to foreign persons. The Department of the Treasury and the IRS believe it is in the best interest of tax administration to extend the effective date of the final withholding regulations to ensure that both taxpayers and the government can complete changes necessary to implement the new withholding regime. As extended by this document, the final withholding regulations will apply to payments made after December 31, 1999. This document also withdraws two amendments which have already been dealt with in T.D. 8772, (1998–31 I.R.B. 8), which was published in the Federal Register for June 30, 1998.

DATES: Effective Dates: The amendments in this final rule are effective January 1, 2000. As of December 31, 1998, the effective date of the final regulations published at 62 F.R. 53387, October 14, 1997, is delayed from January 1, 1999, until January 1, 2000; however, the effective date of the addition of §31.9999–0 and §35a.9999–0 and the removal of §35a.9999–0T remains October 14, 1997.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The final regulations that are the subject of this amendment provide guidance under sections 1441, 1442, and 1443 of the Internal Revenue Code (Code) on certain U.S. source income paid to foreign persons, the related tax deposit and reporting requirements under section 1461 of the Code, and the related changes under sections 163(f), 165(j), 871, 881, 1462, 1463, 3401, 3406, 6041, 6041A, 6042, 6045, 6049, 6050A, 6050N, 6109, 6114, 6402, 6413, and 6724 of the Code.

Need for Changes

On April 13, 1998, in Notice 98–16 (1998–15 I.R.B. 12), the IRS and Treasury announced their decision to extend the effective date of the final regulations, and to make correlative changes to the transition rules for obtaining new withholding certificates and statements containing the necessary information and representations required by the final regulations. As published in the Federal Register on October 14, 1997 (62 F.R. 53387 [T.D. 8734, 1997–2 C.B. 109]), the final regulations were generally applicable to payments made after December 31, 1998, and generally granted withholding agents until after December 31, 1999, to obtain the new withholding certificates and statements required under those regulations. This amendment serves to make the final regulations applicable to payments made after December 31, 1999, and to require mandatory use of the new withholding certificates and statements after December 31, 2000. In addition, this amendment serves to address typographical errors, and to withdraw the removal of §§1.6045–1T and 1.6045–2T since those sections were already removed on June 30, 1998, in T.D. 8772 (63 F.R. 35517).

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this Treasury decision is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It has also been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations. Finally, it has been determined that the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) does not apply to these regulations because the regulations do not impose a collection of information on small entities. Pursuant to 7805(f) of the Code, the notice of proposed rulemaking preceding these regulations (61 F.R. 17614) was submitted to the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, under the authority of 26 U.S.C. 7805, 26 CFR parts 1, 31, 35a, and 301 are amended by making the following correcting amendments:

PART I—INCOME TAXES

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 1 continues to read in part as follows: Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 * * *

Par. 2. In §1.871–14, paragraph (h) is revised to read as follows:

§1.871–14 Rules relating to repeal of tax on interest of nonresident alien individuals and foreign corporations received from certain portfolio debt investments.

* * * * *
(h) Effective date—(1) In general. This section shall apply to payments of interest made after December 31, 1999.

(2) Transition rule. For purposes of this section, the validity of a Form W-8 that was valid on January 1, 1998, under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and expired, or will expire, at any time during 1998, is extended until December 31, 1998. The validity of a Form W-8 that is valid on or after January 1, 1999, remains valid until its validity expires under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) or, if earlier, until December 31, 2000. The rule in this paragraph (h)(2), however, does not apply to extend the validity period of a Form W-8 that expires solely by reason of changes in the circumstances of the person whose name is on the certificate. Notwithstanding the first three sentences of this paragraph (h)(2), a withholding agent or payor may choose to not take advantage of the transition rule in this paragraph (h)(2) with respect to one or more withholding certificates valid under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, may choose to obtain withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998). Further, a new withholding certificate remains valid for the period specified in §1.1441-1(e)(4)(ii), regardless of when the certificate is obtained.

Par. 3. In §1.1441-1 as revised at 62 F.R. 53424, paragraph (f) is revised to read as follows:

§1.1441-1 Requirement for the deduction and withholding of tax on payments to foreign persons.

(f) Effective date—(1) In general. This section applies to payments made after December 31, 1999.

(2) Transition rules—(i) Special rules for existing documentation. For purposes of paragraphs (d)(3) and (e)(2)(i) of this section, the validity of a withholding certificate (namely, Form W-8, 8233, 1001, 4224, or 1078, or a statement described in §1.1441-5 in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see §1.1441-5 as contained in 26 CFR part 1, revised April 1, 1998)) that was valid on January 1, 1998 under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and expired, or will expire, at any time during 1998, is extended until December 31, 1998. The validity of a withholding certificate that is valid on or after January 1, 1999, remains valid until its validity expires under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) or, if earlier, until December 31, 2000. The rule in this paragraph (f)(2)(i), however, does not apply to extend the validity period of a withholding certificate that expires solely by reason of changes in the circumstances of the person whose name is on the certificate. Notwithstanding the first three sentences of this paragraph (f)(2)(i), a withholding agent may choose to not take advantage of the transition rule in this paragraph (f)(2)(i) with respect to one or more withholding certificates valid under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, to require withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, to require withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR part 1, revised April 1, 1998). Further, a new withholding certificate remains valid for the period specified in paragraph (e)(4)(ii) of this section, regardless of when the certificate is obtained.

(ii) Lack of documentation for past years. A taxpayer may elect to apply the provisions of paragraphs (b)(7)(ii)(B), (ii), and (iii) of this section, dealing with liability for failure to obtain documentation timely, to all of its open tax years, including tax years that are currently under examination by the IRS. The election is made by simply taking action under those provisions in the same manner as the taxpayer would take action for payments made after December 31, 1999.

Par. 4. In §1.1441-4 as amended at 62 F.R. 53450, paragraph (g) is revised to read as follows:

§1.1441-4 Exemptions from withholding for certain effectively connected income and other amounts.

(g) Effective date—(1) General rule. This section applies to payments made after December 31, 1999.

(2) Transition rules. The validity of a Form 4224 or 8233 that was valid on January 1, 1998, under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR part 1, revised April 1, 1998) and expired, or will expire, at any time during 1998, is extended until December 31, 1998. The validity of a Form 4224 or 8233 that is valid on or after January 1, 1999, remains valid until its validity expires under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR part 1, revised April 1, 1998) or, if earlier, until December 31, 2000. The rule in this paragraph (g)(2), however, does not apply to extend the validity period of a Form 4224 or 8233 that expires solely by reason of changes in the circumstances of the person whose name is on the certificate. Notwithstanding the first three sentences of this paragraph (g)(2), a withholding agent may choose to not take advantage of the transition rule in this paragraph (g)(2) with respect to one or more withholding certificates valid under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, to require withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, to require withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR part 1, revised April 1, 1998). Further, a new withholding certificate remains valid for the period specified in §1.1441-1(e)(4)(ii), regardless of when the certificate is obtained.

Par. 5. In §1.1441-5 as revised at 62 F.R. 53452, paragraph (g) is revised to read as follows:

March 22, 1999 6 1999-12 I.R.B.
§1.1441–5 Withholding on payments to partnerships, trusts, and estates.

* * * * *

(g) Effective date—(1) General rule. This section applies to payments made after December 31, 1999.

(2) Transition rules. For purposes of this section, the validity of a Form 1001 or 8233 that was valid on January 1, 1998, under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and expired, or will expire, at any time during 1998, is extended until December 31, 1998. The validity of a withholding certificate that is valid on or after January 1, 1999, remains valid until its validity expires under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) or, if earlier, until December 31, 2000. The rule in this paragraph (g)(2), however, does not apply to extend the validity period of a withholding certificate that expires solely by reason of changes in the circumstances of the person whose name is on the certificate. Notwithstanding the first three sentences of this paragraph (g)(2), a withholding agent may choose to not take advantage of the transition rule in this paragraph (g)(2) with respect to one or more withholding certificates valid under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, to require withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998). Further, a new withholding certificate remains valid for the period specified in $1.1441–1(e)(4)(ii), regardless of when the certificate is obtained.

Par. 7. In §1.1441–8 as redesignated and amended at 62 F.R. 53464, paragraph (f) is revised to read as follows:

§1.1441–7 Exemption from withholding for payments to foreign governments, international organizations, foreign central banks of issue, and the Bank for International Settlements.

* * * * *

(f) Effective date—(1) In general. This section applies to payments made after December 31, 1999.
(2) Transition rules. For purposes of this section, the validity of a Form W-8, 1001, or 4224 or a statement that was valid on January 1, 1998, under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and expired, or will expire, at any time during 1998, is extended until December 31, 1998. The validity of a Form W-8, 1001, or 4224 or a statement that is valid on or after January 1, 1999 remains valid until its validity expires under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) or, if earlier, until December 31, 2000. The rule in this paragraph (d)(2), however, does not apply to extend the validity period of a Form W-8, 1001, or 4224 or a statement that expires solely by reason of changes in the circumstances of the person whose name is on the certificate. Notwithstanding the first three sentences of this paragraph (d)(2), a withholding agent may choose to not take advantage of the transition rule in this paragraph (d)(2) with respect to one or more withholding certificates valid under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR part 1, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, to require withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR part 1, revised April 1, 1998). Further, a new withholding certificate remains valid for the period specified in §1.1441–1(e)(4)(ii), regardless of when the certificate is obtained.

§1.6041–3 [Amended]

Par. 10. Section 1.6041–3 as amended at 62 F.R. 53472 is further amended by removing the last sentence of the introductory text.

Par. 11. In §1.6042–3 as amended at 62 F.R. 53475, paragraph (b)(5) is revised to read as follows:

§1.6042–3 Dividends subject to reporting.

* * * * *

(b) * * * *

(5) Effective date—(i) General rule. The provisions of this paragraph (b) apply to payments made after December 31, 1999.

(ii) Transition rules. The validity of a withholding certificate (namely, Form W-8 or other form upon which the payor is permitted to rely to hold the payee as a foreign person) that was valid on January 1, 1998, under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and expired, or will expire, at any time during 1998, is extended until December 31, 1998. The validity of a withholding certificate that is valid on or after January 1, 1999, remains valid until its validity expires under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) or, if earlier, until December 31, 2000. The rule in this paragraph (g)(5)(ii), however,

(g) Effective date—(1) General rule.
The provisions of paragraphs (b)(6) through (15), (c), (d), and (e) of this section apply to payments made after December 31, 1999.

(2) Transition rules. The validity of a withholding certificate (namely, Form W-8 or other form upon which the payor is permitted to rely to hold the payee as a foreign person) that was valid on January 1, 1998, under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998) and, therefore, to require withholding certificates conforming to the requirements described in this section (new withholding certificates). For purposes of this section, a new withholding certificate is deemed to satisfy the documentation requirement under the regulations in effect prior to January 1, 2000 (see 26 CFR parts 1 and 35a, revised April 1, 1998). Further, a new withholding certificate remains valid for the period specified in §1.1441–1(e)(4)(ii), regardless of when the certificate is obtained.

Par. 14. In §1.6049–5 as amended at 62 F.R. 53483, paragraph (g) is revised to read as follows:

26 CFR Part 1

Retention of Income Tax Return Preparers’ Signatures

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Final and temporary regulations.

SUMMARY: This document contains final and temporary regulations that provide income tax return preparers with two alternative means of meeting the requirement that a preparer retain the manually signed (by the preparer) copy of the return or claim. The regulations are necessary to inform preparers of the two alternatives and provide preparers with the guidance needed to comply with the alternatives. The text of the temporary regulations also serves as the text of the proposed regulations set forth in the notice of proposed rulemaking on this subject in REG–106386–98, page 31.

DATES: Effective date. These regulations are effective December 31, 1998.

Applicability date: For dates of applicability, see §1.6695–1T(g) of these regulations.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Marc C. Porter (202) 622-4940 (not a toll-free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

This document contains amendments to the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR part 1) relating to the penalty for failure to sign an income tax return under section 6695(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 6695(b) provides that any person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to a return or claim for refund, who is required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary to sign the return or claim, and who fails to comply with those regulations, must pay a penalty of $50 for such failure, unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. The maximum penalty imposed with respect to documents filed during a calendar year will not exceed $25,000.

Section 7701(a)(36)(A) provides that, in general, the term “income tax return preparer” means any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any return of tax or claim for refund imposed by subtitle A. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the preparation of a substantial portion of a return or claim is treated as if it were the preparation of such return or claim.

Section 1.6695–1(b)(1) and (c) generally provides that an income tax return preparer, with respect to a return or claim for refund, must manually sign the return or claim (which may be a photocopy) in the appropriate space provided on the return or claim after it is completed and before it is presented to the taxpayer (or nontaxable entity) for signature.

Section 1.6695–1(b)(4)(i) provides that the manual signature requirement may be satisfied by a photocopy of a copy of the return or claim for refund if the copy is manually signed by the income tax return preparer after completion of its preparation. The taxpayer may file a photocopy of this manually signed return with the IRS, see Rev. Proc. 78–370, (1978–2 C.B. 335). The employer of the preparer or the partnership in which the preparer is a partner, or the preparer (if not employed or engaged by a preparer and not a partner of a partnership which is a preparer), must retain the manually signed copy of the return or claim.

Explanation of Provisions

The regulations provide that, if an income tax return preparer presents for a taxpayer’s signature a return or claim for refund that has a copy of the preparer’s manual signature, the preparer may either retain a photocopy of the manually signed copy of the return or claim for refund or use an electronic storage system meeting the requirements of section 4 of Rev. Proc. 97–22, (1997–1 C.B. 652) or procedures subsequently prescribed by the Commissioner, to store and produce a copy of the return of claim manually signed by the preparer.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this Treasury decision is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 533(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations, and because the regulations do not impose a collection of information on small entities, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) does not apply. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, these temporary regulations will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on their impact on small business.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Marc C. Porter, Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax & Accounting). However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in their development.

Adoption of Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, 26 CFR part 1 is amended as follows:

PART 1—INCOME TAXES

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 1 is amended by adding an entity in numeral order to read as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 ***

Section 1.6695–1T also issued under U.S.C. 6695(b) ***

Par. 2. Section 1.6695–1 is amended by revising paragraph (b)(4)(i) to read as follows:

§1.6695–1 Other assessable penalties with respect to the preparation of income tax returns for other persons.

* * * * *

(b) ***

(4) (i) [Reserved]. For further guidance on acceptable methods of meeting the manual signature requirement of paragraph (b)(1) and (2), see §1.6695–1T(b)(4)(i).

* * * * *

Par. 3. Section 1.6695–1T is added to read as follows:

§1.6695–1T Other assessable penalties with respect to the preparation of income tax returns for other persons (temporary).

(a) through (b)(3) [Reserved]. For further guidance, see §1.6695–1T(b)(4)(i).

(4) (i) The manual signature requirement of paragraph 1.6695–1(b)(1) and (2) of this section may be satisfied by a photocopy of a copy of the return or claim for refund which copy is manually signed by the preparer after completion of its preparation. After a copy of the return or claim for refund is signed by the preparer and before it is photocopied, no person other than the preparer may alter any entries on the copy other than to correct arithmetical errors discernible on the return or claim for refund. The employer of the preparer or the partnership in which the preparer is a partner, or the preparer (if not employed or engaged by a preparer and not a partner of a partnership which is a preparer), must retain the manually signed copy of the return or claim for refund. In the alternative, for a return or claim for refund presented to a taxpayer for signature after December 31, 1998 and for returns or claims for refund retained on or before that date, the person required to retain the manually signed copy of the return or claim for refund may choose to retain a photocopy of the manually signed copy of the return or claim for refund, or use an electronic storage system to store and produce a copy of the manually signed return or claim for refund. For purposes of paragraph (b)(4)(i) of this section, an electronic storage system must meet the electronic storage system requirements prescribed in section 4 of Rev. Proc. 97–22 (1997–1 C.B. 652) or procedures subsequently prescribed by the Commissioner. A record of any arithmetical errors corrected must be retained and made available upon request by the person required to retain the manually signed copy of the return or claim for refund.

(b)(4)(ii) through (f) [Reserved]. For further guidance, see §1.6695–1T(b)(4)(ii) through (f).

(g) Effective date. This section applies to income tax returns and claims for refund presented to a taxpayer for signature after December 31, 1998 and for returns or claims for refund retained on or before that date. This section expires on December 31, 2001.

Robert E. Wenzel, Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved December 17, 1998.

Donald C. Lubick, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Preparer Due Diligence Requirements for Determining Earned Income Credit Eligibility

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Temporary regulations.

SUMMARY: This document contains temporary regulations relating to the due diligence requirements for paid preparers of federal income tax returns or claims for refund involving the earned income credit. The temporary regulations reflect changes to the law made by the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997. The temporary regulations provide guidance to paid preparers who prepare federal income tax returns or claims for refund claiming the earned income credit. The text of the temporary regulations also serves as the text of the proposed regulations set forth in the notice of proposed rulemaking on this subject in REG–120168–97, page 21.

DATES: These regulations are effective December 21, 1998.

Paperwork Reduction Act

These regulations are being issued without prior notice and public procedure pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553). For this reason, the collection of information contained in these regulations has been reviewed and pending receipt and evaluation of public comments, approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1545–1570. Responses to this collection of information are mandatory.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid control number.

For further information concerning this collection of information, and where to submit comments on the collection of information and the accuracy of the estimated burden, and suggestions for reducing this burden, please refer to the preamble to the cross-referencing notice of proposed rulemaking published in REG–120168–97.

Books and records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.

Background

This document contains amendments to the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR parts 1 and 602) under section 6695(g) relating to the penalty for failure of a preparer to be diligent in determining a taxpayer’s eligibility for the earned income credit (EIC). Section 6695(g) was added by section 1085(a)(2) of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997, Public Law 105-34 (11 Stat. 788, 955 (1997)) (the Act), effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1996.

Section 6695(g) imposes a $100 penalty for each failure by an income tax return preparer to meet the due diligence requirements set forth in this regulation. The IRS may impose the section 6695(g) penalty in addition to any other applicable penalty provided by law.

In Notice 97–65 (1997–51 I.R.B. 14 (December 22, 1997)), the IRS set forth the preparer due diligence requirements for 1997 returns and claims for refund involving the EIC. To avoid the imposition of the section 6695(g) penalty for 1997 returns and claims for refund, Notice 97-65 requires preparers to meet four requirements: (1) complete the Earned Income Credit Eligibility Checklist attached to Notice 97-65 (Eligibility Checklist), or otherwise record the information necessary to complete the Eligibility Checklist; (2) complete the Earned Income Credit Worksheet (Computation Worksheet), as contained in the 1997 Form 1040 instructions, or otherwise record the computation and information necessary to complete the Computation Worksheet; (3) have no knowledge that any information used by the preparer in determining eligibility for, and amount of, the EIC is incorrect; and (4) retain for three years the Eligibility Checklist and Computation Worksheet (or alternative records), and a record of how and when the information used to determine eligibility for, and amount of, the EIC was obtained by the preparer. This information may be retained either as a paper record or in magnetic media format consistent with Rev. Proc. 81–46 (1981–2 C.B. 621).

Notice 97–65 also requested comments on preparer due diligence requirements for tax years after 1997. Two comments were received. The commentators did not suggest alternative due diligence requirements. One commentator suggested, however, increased education for the public. The IRS and Treasury Department adhere to the principle that education is an integral part of good tax administration. Therefore, as part of its overall EIC strategy, the IRS has established various educational tools and outreach programs for taxpayers and preparers. These efforts are intended to provide the public with the tools necessary to receive the full amount of the EIC allowed by law.

The second commentator suggested that preparers should be able to meet the due diligence requirements by using software reviewed and approved by the IRS. The IRS does not approve commercial software. The IRS is currently exploring, however, new opportunities for partnership with outside stakeholders to reduce burden, enhance customer service, and increase compliance. As part of this effort, the IRS will continue to review this comment and evaluate options.

Explanation of Provisions

The temporary and proposed regulations impose due diligence standards on persons who are income tax return preparers with respect to determining eligibility for, or the amount of, the EIC. Consistent with existing regulations under section 6695, these temporary regulations apply a modified definition of income tax return preparer. Section 7701(a)(36) provides that, in general, the term income tax return preparer means any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any return or claim for refund of tax imposed by subtitle A. The preparation of a substantial portion of a return or claim for refund is treated as if it were the preparation of such return or claim for refund. Persons are considered preparers if they give legal advice concerning a return or claim for refund or if they prepare another return which affects the return or claim for refund (§301.7701–15(a)(2) and (b) and §301.7701–15(b)(3), respectively). The regulations retain this definition of income tax return preparer, except that preparers who merely give advice or prepare another return that affects the EIC return or claim for refund are not preparers for purposes of the section 6695(g) penalty. Rather, the due diligence standards are imposed only on paid preparers who prepare the return claiming the EIC.

The temporary regulations essentially adopt the four due diligence requirements in Notice 97-65. Thus, to avoid the penalty under section 6695(g), a preparer must: (1) complete the Eligibility Checklist (Form 8867, Paid Preparer’s Earned Income Credit Checklist, or such other form as may be prescribed by the IRS), or otherwise record in the preparer’s files the information necessary to complete the Eligibility Checklist; (2) complete the Computation Worksheet (Earned Income Credit Worksheet contained in the Form 1040 instructions), or otherwise record in the preparer’s files the computation and information necessary to complete the Computation Worksheet; (3) have no knowledge, and have no reason to know, that any information used by the preparer in determining eligibility for, and amount of, the EIC is incorrect; and (4) retain for three years the Eligibility Checklist and the Computation Worksheet (or alternative records), and a record of how and when the information used to determine eligibility for, and the amount of, the EIC was obtained by the preparer.

The temporary regulations also provide that the income tax return preparer may avoid the section 6695(g) penalty with respect to a particular income tax return or claim for refund if the preparer can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the IRS that, considering all the facts and circumstances, the preparer’s normal office procedures are reasonably designed and routinely followed to ensure compliance with the due diligence requirements of the regulations, and that the particular failure was isolated and inadvertent.

The temporary regulations will be effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1996. However, the Eligibility Checklist contained in Notice 97-65 has been expanded in Form 8867. Therefore, for taxable year 1997, the applicable Eligibility Checklist is the Eligibility Checklist contained in Notice 97-65. For taxable year 1998, a preparer may choose as the applicable Eligibility Checklist either the Eligibility Checklist published in Notice 97-65 modified however, by re-placings, $9,770, $25,760, $29,290, and $2,250 each time these figures appear on the 1997 Eligibility Checklist with $10,030, $26,473, $30,095, and $2,300, respectively, or Form 8867. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1998, the applicable Eligibility Checklist will be the Form 8867.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this Treasury decision is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations. Further, it is hereby certified, pursuant to sections 603(a) and 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, that the collection of information in these regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This certification is based upon the fact that the amount of time necessary to record and retain the required information will be nominal for those income tax return preparers that choose to use the Alternative Eligibility Record and Alternative Computation Record. Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, these temporary regulations will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on their impact.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Marc C. Porter, Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax & Accounting). However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in their development.

Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, 26 CFR parts 1 and 602 are amended as follows:

PART 1 — INCOME TAXES

Par. 1. The authority citation for part 1 is amended by adding an entry in numerical order to read as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 * * *

Section 1.6695–2T also issued under 26 U.S.C. 6695(g), * * *

Par. 2. Section 1.6695–2T is added to read as follows:

§1.6695–2T Preparer due diligence requirements for determining earned income credit eligibility (temporary).

(a) Penalty for failure to meet due diligence requirements. A person who is an income tax return preparer (preparer) of an income tax return or claim for refund under subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code (Code) with respect to determining the eligibility for, or the amount of, the earned income credit (EIC) under section 32 and who fails to satisfy the due diligence requirements of paragraph (b) of this section will be subject to a penalty of $100 for each such failure. However, no penalty will be imposed under section 6695(g) on a person who is an income tax return preparer solely by reason of —

(1) Section 301.7701–15(a)(2) and (b) of this chapter, on account of having given advice on specific issues of law; or

(2) Section 301.7701–15(b)(3) of this chapter, on account of having prepared the return solely because of having prepared another return that affects amounts reported on the return.

(b) Due diligence requirements. A preparer must satisfy the following due diligence requirements:

(1) Completion of eligibility checklist. (i) The preparer must either —

(A) Complete Form 8867, Paid Preparer’s Earned Income Credit Checklist, or such other form as may be prescribed by the IRS (Eligibility Checklist); or

(B) Otherwise record in the preparer’s paper or electronic files the information necessary to complete the Eligibility Checklist (Alternative Eligibility Record). The Alternative Eligibility Record may consist of one or more documents containing the required information.

(ii) The preparer’s completion of the Eligibility Checklist or Alternative Eligibility Record must be based on information provided by the taxpayer to the preparer or otherwise reasonably obtained by the preparer.

(2) Computation of credit. (i) The preparer must either —

(A) Complete the Earned Income Credit Worksheet in the Form 1040 in-

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
Notice of Public Hearing

Preparer Due Diligence Requirements for Determining Earned Income Credit Eligibility

REG-120168-97

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking by cross-reference to temporary regulations and notice of public hearing.

SUMMARY: In T.D. 8798, page 16, the IRS is issuing temporary regulations relating to the due diligence requirements in determining eligibility for the earned income credit for paid preparers of federal income tax returns or claims for refund. The text of those regulations also serves as the text of these proposed regulations. This document also provides notice of a public hearing on these proposed regulations.

DATES: Written comments must be received by, March 22, 1999. Outlines of topics to be discussed at the public hearing scheduled for Thursday, May 20, 1999, at 10 a.m. must be received by Thursday, April 29, 1999.

ADDRESSES: Send submissions to: CC:DOM:CORP:R (REG–120168–97), room 5226, Internal Revenue Service, POB 7604, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20044. Submissions may be hand delivered Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. to: CC:DOM:CORP:R (REG–120168–97), Courier’s Desk, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC. Alternatively, taxpayers may submit comments electronically via the Internet by selecting the “Tax Regs” option on the IRS Home Page, or by submitting comments directly to the IRS Internet site at http://www.irs.ustreas.gov/prod/taxRegs/comments.html. The public hearing will be held in room 2615 of the Internal Revenue Building, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Concerning submissions, LaNita Van Dyke, (202) 622-7190; concerning the regulations, Marc C. Porter, (202) 622-4940 (not toll-free numbers).

Paperwork Reduction Act

The collection of information contained in this notice of proposed rulemaking has been submitted to the Office of Management and Budget for review in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507(d)). Comments on the collection of information should be sent to the Office of Management and Budget, Attn: Desk Officer for the Department of Treasury, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Washington, DC 20503, with copies to the Internal Revenue Service, Attn: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, OP:FS:FP, Washington, DC 20224. Comments on the collection of information should be received by, February 19, 1998. Comments are specifically requested concerning:

Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Internal Revenue Service, including whether the information will have practical utility;

The accuracy of the estimated burden associated with the proposed collection of information (see below);

How the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected may be enhanced;

How the burden of complying with the proposed collection of information may be minimized, including through the application of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and

Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of service to provide information.

The collection of information in this proposed regulation is in §1.6695–2T. This information is required by the IRS to determine preparer due diligence compliance. This information will be used to avoid the imposition of the penalty imposed by section 6695(g) of the Internal Revenue Code. The collection of information is mandatory. The likely recordkeepers are individuals, business or other for profit institutions, and small businesses or organizations.

The collection of information in §1.6695–2T is generally satisfied by completing: 1) the required information on the Checklist published in Notice 97–65 or the Form 8867, Paid Preparer’s Earned Income Credit Checklist; and 2) the required Worksheet information on the Earned Income Credit Worksheet contained in the instructions to the Form 1040. The burden for the Checklist requirement is reflected in the burden estimate for Form 8867. The burden for the Worksheet requirement is reflected in the burden estimate for the Earned Income Credit Worksheet contained in the instructions to the Form 1040. Preparers may also choose to record the information necessary to complete the Checklist and Worksheet in their paper or electronic forms (alternative method).

The information collections in this regulation were originally included in Notice 97–65 and have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1545–1570.

The collection of information for preparers who choose to record the information required by the regulations in alternative paper or electronic forms is as follows:

Estimated total annual recordkeeping burden: 507,136 hours.

Estimated average annual burden hours per recordkeeper: 5 hours 4 minutes (40 minutes per return or claim for refund, 7.6 returns per preparer).

Estimated number of recordkeepers: 100,000.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid control number assigned by the Office of Management and Budget.

Books and records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.
Background and Explanation of Provisions

Temporary regulations in T.D. 8798 amend the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR part 1) relating to section 6695. The temporary regulations set forth due diligence requirements that paid preparers of federal income tax returns or claims for refund involving the Earned Income Credit (EIC) must meet to avoid imposition of the penalty under section 6695(g) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1996. The text of those regulations also serves as the text of these proposed regulations. The preamble to the temporary regulations explains the amendments.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this notice of proposed rulemaking is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations. Further, it is hereby certified, pursuant to sections 603(a) and 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, that the collection of information in these regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This certification is based upon the fact that the amount of time necessary to record and retain the required information will be minimal for those income tax return preparers that choose to use the Alternative Eligibility Record and Alternative Computation Record. Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, this notice of proposed rulemaking will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on their impact.

Comments and Requests for a Public Hearing

Before these proposed regulations are adopted as final regulations, consideration will be given to any comments (a signed original and eight (8) copies) that are submitted timely to the IRS. The IRS and Treasury specifically request comments on the clarity of the proposed rule and how it may be made easier to understand. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying.

A public hearing has been scheduled for May 20, 1999, beginning at 10 a.m. in room 2615 of the Internal Revenue Building, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC. Due to building security procedures, visitors must enter at the 10th Street entrance, located between Constitution and Pennsylvania Avenues, NW. In addition, all visitors must present photo identification to enter the building. Because of access restrictions, visitors will not be admitted beyond the immediate entrance area more than 15 minutes before the hearing starts. For information about having your name placed on the building access list to attend the hearing, see the "FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT" section of this preamble.

The rules of 26 CFR 601.601(a)(3) apply to the hearing. Persons who wish to present oral comments at the hearing must submit written comments and an outline of the topics to be discussed and the time to be devoted to each topic (signed original and eight (8) copies) by (April 29, 1999). A period of 10 minutes will be allotted to each person for making comments. An agenda showing the scheduling of the speakers will be prepared after the deadline for receiving outlines has passed. Copies of the agenda will be available free of charge at the hearing.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Marc C. Porter, Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax & Accounting). However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in their development.

Proposed Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, 26 CFR part 1 is proposed to be amended as follows:

PART 1 — INCOME TAXES

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 1 is amended by adding an entry in numerical order to read as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 * * *

Section 1.6695–2 also issued under 26 U.S.C. 6695(g).

Par. 2. Section 1.6695–2 is added to read as follows:

§1.6695–2 Preparer due diligence requirements for determining earned income tax credit eligibility.

[The text of proposed §1.6695–2 is the same as the text of §1.6695–2T published in T.D. 8798.]

David S. Mader,
Acting Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(Filed by the Office of the Federal Register on December 18, 1998, 8:45 a.m., and published in the issue of the Federal Register for December 21, 1998, 63 F.R. 70357)

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Intercompany Obligations

REG-105964-98

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This document contains a proposed regulation that clarifies the treatment of the transfer or extinguishment of rights under an intercompany obligation. The existing regulation has caused uncertainty concerning the tax treatment of such transactions. The proposed regulation affects corporations that are members of consolidated groups, their subsidiaries, and their shareholders.

DATES: Comments and requests for a public hearing must be received by March 22, 1999.

ADDRESSES: Send submissions to: CC:DOM:CORP-R (REG–105964–98), room 5228, Internal Revenue Service, POB 7604, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20044. Submissions may be hand delivered Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. to: CC:DOM:CORP-R (REG–105964–98), Courier’s Desk, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC. Alternatively, taxpayers may submit comments electronically via the Internet by selecting the “Tax Regs” option on the IRS Home Page, or by submitting comments directly to the IRS Internet site at http://www.irs.ustreas.gov/prod/tax_regs/comments.html.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Concerning the proposed regulation, Theresa A. Abell, (202) 622-7790; concerning submissions of comments, LaNita Van Dyke, (202) 622-7180 (not toll-free numbers).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

This document contains proposed amendments to §1.1502–13(g) of the Income Tax Regulations. Section 1.1502–13(g) prescribes rules relating to the treatment of the transfer or extinguishment of rights an intercompany obligation. An intercompany obligation is generally defined as an obligation between members of a consolidated group, but only for the period during which both parties are members of the group. The current regulation provides that if a member of a consolidated group realizes an amount (other than zero) of income, gain, deduction, or loss upon the transfer or extinguishment of all or part of its remaining rights or obligations under an intercompany obligation, the obligation is treated as satisfied (and the transferor’s basis in the property received is adjusted to reflect the satisfaction amount) and, if the obligation remains outstanding, it is treated as reissued as a new obligation.

The current regulation, however, ambiguous regarding the form of the recast transaction, i.e., the deemed transaction that encompasses the satisfaction, reissuance, and actual transactions. Under one interpretation of the regulation, there is a potential that the form of the recast jeopardizes the tax-free treatment of common corporates restructuring transactions. While it is not clear the regulation produces such consequences, the IRS and Treasury believe that any such consequences would be inappropriate and unnecessary to achieve the objectives of the regulation. Accordingly, the IRS and Treasury propose to amend the regulation as described below.

Explanation of Provisions

The existing regulation does not apply to transactions in which the amount of income, gain, deduction, or loss realized is zero. This rule was intended to avoid application of the regulation to transactions in which preservation of gain or loss location, an objective of §1.1502–13(g), would not be at issue. However, the determination of whether the amount of income, gain, deduction, or loss realized is zero might depend on the fair market value of property received in an exchange. The difficulty and manipulability of that valuation is a reason for the enactment of certain provisions of the original issue discount (OID) rules, particularly section 1274. To the extent that taxpayers were able to avoid the deemed satisfaction and reissuance rule by inaccurately maintaining that the amount of income, gain, deduction, or loss realized is zero, taxpayers could avoid those OID rules and could inappropriately shift gain or loss among members. The IRS and Treasury have concluded that the better and more administrable approach is not to condition the application of the regulation on a realization of some amount of income, gain, deduction, or loss other than zero. Accordingly, the regulation as proposed will apply to all transactions in which any amount is realized due to the transfer or extinguishment of rights in an intercompany obligation.

The IRS and Treasury believe the exception from the operation of this provision for transactions that will not have significant effect on any person’s Federal income tax liability for any year is unclear in its application and scope. Further, the exception offers little, if any, relief from the requirements of the provision. Accordingly, the exception is eliminated from the regulation.

The proposed regulation clarifies the form and timing of the recast applied to transactions subject to the regulation. In particular, it clarifies that the deemed satisfaction proceeds (rather than the obligation) are treated as transferred by the initial creditor in the actual transaction and then advanced by the transferee to the debtor in the deemed reissuance of the obligation. The proposed regulation includes an example to illustrate clearly the mechanics of the proposed regulation. It also includes certain conforming adjustments.

The proposed regulation retains the rule that the deemed satisfaction and reissuance amounts are determined under the principles of the OID provisions if the debt is transferred for property. The IRS and Treasury recognize that an alternate rule providing for a fair market value determination of the deemed satisfaction and reissuance amounts might (in theory) more accurately preserve location of economic gain or loss. In such an alternate regime, however, the inherent difficulty of valuing intercompany obligations would prove burdensome to both taxpayers and the IRS and may provide significant potential for abuse when member obligations are transferred. Certain provisions of the OID rules are intended to address the difficulty and manipulability of this valuation. Other developments in the tax law have recognized that issue price, as determined under the OID rules, is the surrogate for fair market value in the case of a debt obligation. For example, §1.100–1(g) provides that issue price is used in determining the amount realized from the receipt of a debt instrument. For these reasons, and consistent with the objective of promoting single entity treatment of the group, the IRS and Treasury continue to believe that the use of the OID provisions is appropriate and desirable in determining the deemed satisfaction amount and the amount for which the obligation is deemed reissued. Accordingly, the regulation as proposed continues to use the OID provisions to determine both the amount repaid in the deemed satisfaction and the issue price of the reissued obligation in cases involving the exchange of an intercompany obligation for cash or property.

In addition, the proposed regulation clarifies that the term “conversion” includes only conversions pursuant to the terms of the instrument.

Proposed Effective Date

The regulation is proposed to be effective on the date that the final regulation is published in the Federal Register. For purposes of determining the tax treatment of transactions undertaking prior to such effective date, taxpayers may rely on the form and timing of the recast transaction, as clarified by these proposed regulations. No inference is intended, however, as to the correct interpretation of the existing regulation.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this notice of proposed rulemaking is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It is hereby certified that these regulations will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities. This certification is based on the fact that these regulations principally affect corporations filing consolidated Federal income tax returns. Available data indicates that many consolidated return filers are larger companies (not small businesses). Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, this notice of proposed rulemaking will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Comments and Requests for a Public hearing

Before this proposed regulation is adopted as a final regulation, consideration will be given to any written comments (preferably a signed original and eight copies) that are timely submitted to the IRS. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying. A public hearing may be scheduled if requested in writing by any person that timely submits written comments. If a public hearing is scheduled, notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing will be published in the Federal Register.

Drafting Information

The principal author of this regulation is Theresa A. Abell of the Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Corporate), IRS. However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in its development.

Proposed Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, 26 CFR part 1 is proposed to be amended as follows:

March 22, 1999

PART 1—INCOME TAXES

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 1 continues to read in part as follows: Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805  Section 1.1502–13 also issued under 26 U.S.C. 1502.

Par. 2. Section 1.1502–13 is amended by:

2. Revising paragraph (g)(4)(i)(B).

3. Amending paragraph (g)(5) by:

a. Removing the language “Example 2” in each place it appears in paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of Example 2 and adding “Example 3” in its place.

b. Removing the language “Example 3” in each place it appears in paragraph (c) and (d) of Example 3 and adding “Example 4” in its place.

c. Removing the language “Example 4” in each place it appears in paragraph (c) of Example 5 and adding “Example 6” in its place.

d. Redesignating Examples 2, 3, 4 and 5 as Examples 3, 4, 5 and 6 and adding a new Example 2.

The revisions and additions read as follows:

§1.1502–13 Intercompany transactions.

(g) ***

3. Deemed satisfaction and reissuance of intercompany obligations—(i) Application—(a) In general. If a member realizes an amount from the assignment or extinguishment of all or part of its remaining rights or obligations under an intercompany obligation, the intercompany obligation is treated for all Federal income tax purposes as satisfied for an amount equal to the issue price (determined under section 1273 or section 1274) of a new debt issued on the date of the transaction, with identical terms, for such property.

(ii) Satisfaction—(A) General rule. If a creditor member sells an intercompany debt for cash, the debt is treated as satisfied for an amount equal to the sale for an amount equal to the amount of the cash. If the debt is transferred for property, the debt is treated as satisfied immediately before the transaction for an amount equal to the issue price (determined under section 1273 or section 1274) of a new debt issued on the date of the transaction, with identical terms, for such property. If this paragraph (g)(3) applies because the debtor or creditor becomes a nonmember, the debt is treated as satisfied for cash in an amount equal to its fair market value immediately before the debtor or creditor becomes a nonmember. If the debt is transferred for cash or property, the proceeds of the deemed satisfaction are treated as transferred by the creditor to the transferee of the debt in exchange for the cash or property. Similar principles apply to other transactions and to transactions involving intercompany obligations other than debt. For example, if a corporation assumes the debtor’s liability in exchange for property of the debtor, the debt is treated as satisfied for an amount equal to the issue price (determined under section 1273 or section 1274) of a new debt issued on the date of the transaction, with identical terms, for such property. If, in a transaction to which this paragraph (g)(3) applies, the obligation is extinguished, including in a transaction in which the creditor and debtor become the same entity, the obligation is treated as satisfied for an amount equal to the issue price (determined under section 1273 or section 1274) of a new debt issued on the date of the transaction, with identical terms, to a third party, for property that is not publicly traded.

(B) ***

(iii) Reissuance. If an intercompany debt is transferred for cash or property, it is treated as a new debt (with a new holding period but otherwise identical terms) issued to the transferee in exchange for the proceeds of the deemed satisfaction as determined under paragraph (g)(3)(ii) of this section. If this paragraph (g)(3) applies because the debtor or creditor becomes a nonmember, the debt is treated as a new debt (with a new holding period but otherwise identical terms) issued to the creditor for the deemed satisfaction proceeds. Similar principles apply to other transactions and to transactions involving intercompany obligations other than debt.

\[\text{Example 2. Nonrecognition transactions. (a) Facts. On January 1 of Year 1, B borrows $100 from S in return for B's note for $100. S is then treated as reissuing the note to P for $100. P's basis in the note is $100.}\]

(4) ***

(i) ***

(B) Exception. This paragraph (g)(4) does not apply to an obligation if the obligation becomes an intercompany obligation by reason of an event described in §1.108–2(e) (exceptions to the application of section 108(e)(4)).

(5) Examples.

\[\text{Example 2. Nonrecognition transactions. (a) Facts. On January 1 of Year 1, B borrows $100 from S in return for B's note for $100. S is then treated as reissuing the note to P for $100. P's basis in the note is $100.}\]

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking and notice of public hearing.

SUMMARY: This document contains proposed regulations relating to changes made by the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 and the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 regarding the valuation of prior gifts in determining estate and gift tax liability, and the period of limitations for assessing and collecting gift tax. The proposed regulations affect individual donors and the estates of those donors. This document also provides notice of a public hearing on these proposed regulations.

DATES: Written and electronic comments must be received by March 22, 1999. Outlines of topics to be discussed at the public hearing scheduled for Wednesday, April 28, 1999, must be received by Wednesday, April 7, 1999.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Introduction

This document proposes to amend the Estate and Gift Tax Regulations (26 CFR parts 20 and 25) under sections 2001 and 2504 relating to the value of prior gifts for purposes of computing the estate and gift tax. This document also proposes to amend the Procedure and Administration Regulations relating to the period for assessment and collection of gift tax under section 6501.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The collection of information contained in this notice of proposed rulemaking has been submitted to the Office of Management and Budget for review in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507(d)). Comments on the collection of information should be sent to the Office of Management and Budget, Attn: Desk Officer for the Department of the Treasury, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Washington, DC 20503, with copies to the Internal Revenue Service, Attn: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, OP:FS:FP, Washington, DC 20224. Comments on the collection of information should be received by February 22, 1999. Comments are specifically requested concerning:

Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Internal Revenue Service, including whether the information will have practical utility;
The accuracy of the estimated burden associated with the proposed collection of information (see below);
How the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected may be enhanced;
How the burden of complying with the proposed collection of information may be minimized, including through the application of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and
Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of service to provide information.

The collection of information in this proposed regulation is proposed §301.6501(c)-(f) of the Procedure and Administration Regulations. This information is required by statute in order to commence the period of limitations on assessment. This information will be used to identify gift tax issues relating to the reported transfers. The collection of information is mandatory. The likely respondents are individuals.

The reporting burden contained in §301.6501–(f) is reflected in the burden of Form 709, U.S. Gift (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid control number assigned by the Office of Management and Budget.

Books or records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.

Background

Under the unified estate and gift tax system, a single rate schedule is applied to an individual’s cumulative gifts and bequests. Gift tax is computed by determining a tax on the total of the gifts made by the donor during the calendar year plus the gifts made in prior years (prior taxable gifts). The tax computed is then reduced by the tax that would have been payable on the prior taxable gifts. The result (after taking into account the applicable credit amount under section 2505) is the gift tax on the current gifts. Similarly, the estate tax is computed by determining a tax on the value of the decedent’s taxable estate plus the value of lifetime gifts (adjusted taxable gifts) made by the decedent. The tax computed is then reduced by the gift tax that would have been payable on the adjusted taxable gifts. The result (after allowing for various credits) is the estate tax on the taxable estate.

The Statute of Limitations for Assessment of Gift Tax Under Section 6501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code

Prior to the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (the 1997 Act) and the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 (the 1998 Act), the period for assessment of gift tax for a calendar period generally expired three years from the date a gift tax return for that period was deemed to be filed. The statute of limitation protection extended to all gifts made in a calendar period for which a return was filed, including gifts not reported on the gift tax return for the period. An exception to this general rule applied for gifts subject to the special valuation rules of sections 2701 and 2702. For gifts subject to these rules, section 6501(c)(9) extends the period of assessment indefinitely unless the gifts were disclosed on the gift tax return in a manner adequate to apprise the IRS of the nature of the transfer.

Under the 1997 and 1998 Acts, this adequate disclosure requirement was extended to all gifts, whether or not subject to section 2701 or 2702. Consequently, the period of assessment will not close for any gift made in a calendar year ending after August 5, 1997, or with respect to any increase in gift tax required under section 2701(d), that is not adequately disclosed on a gift tax return.

The proposed regulations provide a list of information that, if applicable to a transaction, must be reported on a gift tax return, or a statement attached thereto, in order for the transaction to be considered adequately disclosed to cause the period for assessment to commence. The required information must completely and accurately describe the transaction and include: the nature of the transferred property; the parties involved; the value of the transferred property; and how the value was determined, including any discounts or adjustments used in valuing the transferred property.

Specific rules are provided in the case of transfers of entities that are not actively traded that own interests in other non-actively traded entities. Comments are requested on how these rules should be applied when the required information is not available to the donor.

In addition, the return must disclose the facts affecting the gift tax treatment of the transaction in a manner that reasonably may be expected to apprise the IRS of the nature of any potential controversy regarding the gift tax treatment of the transfer. In lieu of this statement, the taxpayer may provide a statement of any legal issue presented by the facts. Finally, the taxpayer must also provide a statement of any portion taken by the taxpayer that is contrary to any temporary or final Treasury regulation or any revenue ruling. These standards are based on those currently employed under §6662 in determining whether an item is adequately disclosed under that section, such that accuracy-related penalties will not be imposed.

The proposed regulations contain examples that illustrate adequate disclosure under these standards.

Under the proposed regulations, adequate disclosure of a transfer that is reported as a completed gift on the gift tax return will commence the running of the statute of limitations under section 6501(c)(9) even if the transfer is ultimately determined to be an incomplete gift. Thus, if the donor reports a transfer on the gift tax return as a completed gift for gift tax purposes, the period for assessing a gift tax with respect to the transfer will commence. If the IRS does not examine the transaction reported on the gift tax return prior to the expiration of the running of the statute of limitations, the transaction will be treated as a completed gift as reported on the gift tax return. If the IRS, upon examination, disagrees with the donor’s characterization of the transaction, and the issue remains unresolved through the administrative process, the donor will be sent a final notice of determination and the donor will be able to seek a declaratory judgment on the matter pursuant to section 7477.

On the other hand, if a donor initially reports a transfer as an incomplete gift, even if adequately disclosed, the statute of limitations does not commence to run.
until the donor reports the transfer as a completed gift. The IRS would have three years from the date of filing of the subsequent gift tax return disclosing the completed gift to make any assessment with respect to the gift.

As discussed below, the 1997 and 1998 Act amendments to sections 2001 and 2504 curtail the IRS’ ability to redetermine the value of a gift in computing the estate or gift tax, after the statute of limitations expires. However, the adequate disclosure requirement contained in section 6501(c)(9) is intended to afford the IRS the reasonable opportunity to identify in a timely manner and with a minimum expenditure of resources returns that present issues that merit further examination. Accordingly, the information required is intended to enable the IRS to identify issues, if any, without imposing an undue burden on taxpayers.

The proposed regulations conform the regulations to the new statutory rules for gifts made in calendar years ending after August 6, 1997. If such gift tax return is filed after the regulations are published as final regulations. In the interim period, the statutory provisions apply.

Valuation of Prior Gifts for Gift Tax Purposes

Prior to the 1997 and 1998 Acts, section 2504(c) provided that if a gift tax had been paid or assessed with respect to the calendar period in which the gift occurred and the statute of limitations on assessment for the prior gift had expired, then the value of any gift made in such calendar period could not be adjusted for purposes of determining the total amount of prior taxable gifts that the individual had made. This prohibition on adjustments applied even if a particular gift was not disclosed on the gift tax return. This rule continues to apply for gifts made prior to August 6, 1997.

Under section 2504(c) as amended by the 1997 and 1998 Acts, if a gift was adequately disclosed such that the time has expired for assessing gift tax for a preceding calendar period under section 6501, then the value of such gift made in the prior calendar period cannot be adjusted (regardless of whether or not a gift tax has been assessed or paid for a prior calendar period). Rather, the value of the gift is the value as finally determined for gift tax purposes, as defined in section 2001(f). A similar rule applies with respect to any increase in taxable gifts required under section 2701(d) (pertaining to the transfer of applicable retained interests under section 2701).

Section 2504(c) applies only to adjustments involving issues of valuation. Thus, even after the 1997 and 1998 amendments to section 2504(c), adjustments to prior taxable gifts may be made if the adjustment is not related to the valuation of the gift; e.g., the erroneous inclusion or exclusion of property for gift tax purposes. See Rev. Rul. 76–451 (1976–2 C.B. 304). This result is consistent with the legislative history to the 1997 Act which emphasizes that the statutory change imposes a prohibition on revaluing certain gifts. The House Committee report states that a gift for which the limitations period has passed cannot be revalued for purposes of determining the applicable estate tax bracket and available unified credit. H.R. Rep. No. 148, 105th Cong., 1st Sess. 359 (1997).

The proposed regulations conform the regulations to the new statutory rules for gift tax returns filed after the regulations are published as final regulations. In the interim period, the statutory provisions apply.

Valuation of Prior Gifts for Estate Tax Purposes

Prior to the enactment of the 1997 and 1998 Acts, there was no estate tax provision corresponding to section 2504(c). Therefore, even where the period of assessment expired for a calendar period, and gift tax was paid or assessed for that period, the value of any gifts made in that period could be adjusted for purposes of determining the estate tax liability. The statutory change and these proposed regulations preserve that treatment for gifts made prior to August 6, 1997.

Section 2001(f) was added by the 1997 Act and amended by the 1998 Act. Under section 2001(f) as amended, if the time has expired for assessing gift tax for a preceding calendar period under section 6501, then the value of the gift, for purposes of computing the estate tax liability, is the value of the gift as finally determined for gift tax purposes. A similar rule applies for any increase in taxable gifts required under section 2701(d). Under the statute, the value of a gift is finally determined if: the value is shown on a gift tax return and the IRS does not contest the value before the period for assessing gift tax expires; or, before the period for assessing gift tax expires, the value is specified by the IRS and the taxpayer does not contest the specified value; or, the value is determined by a court or pursuant to a settlement agreement between the taxpayer and the IRS.

As discussed above, the provision only limits the IRS’ ability to make adjustments related to the value of a gift. Thus, the IRS is not precluded from making adjustments that are not related to value, such as the erroneous inclusion or exclusion of property for gift tax purposes.

The proposed regulations conform the current regulations to the statutory change for gift tax returns filed after the regulations are published as final regulations. In the interim period, the statutory provisions apply.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this notice of proposed rulemaking is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations, and because these regulations do not impose a collection of information on small entities, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) does not apply. Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, this notice of proposed rulemaking will be submitted to the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Comment and Public Hearing

Before these proposed regulations are adopted as final regulations, consideration will be given to electronic and written comments (a signed original and eight (8) copies) that are timely submitted to the IRS. The IRS and Treasury specifically request comments on the clarity of the proposed regulations and how it may be made easier to understand. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying.
A public hearing has been scheduled for Wednesday, April 28, 1999, at 10 a.m. in Room 2615 of the Internal Revenue Building, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC. Due to building security procedures, visitors must enter at the 10th Street entrance, located between Constitution and Pennsylvania Avenues, NW. In addition, all visitors must present photo identification to enter the building. Because of access restrictions, visitors will not be admitted beyond the immediate entrance area more than 15 minutes before the hearing starts. For information about having your name placed on the building access list to attend the hearing, see the “FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT” section of this preamble.

The rules of 26 CFR 601.601(a)(3) apply to the hearing. Persons who wish to present oral comments at the hearing must submit written comments and an outline of the topics to be discussed and the time to be devoted to each topic (a signed original and eight (8) copies) by Wednesday, April 7, 1999.

A period of 10 minutes will be allocated to each person for making comments.

An agenda showing the scheduling of the speakers will be prepared after the deadline for receiving outlines has passed. Copies of the agenda will be available free of charge at the hearing.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is William L. Blodgett, Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Passthroughs and Special Industries), IRS. However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in their development.

Proposed Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, 26 CFR part 20 is proposed to be amended as follows:

PART 20—ESTATE TAX; ESTATES OF DECEDENTS DYING AFTER AUGUST 16, 1954

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 20 continues to read in part as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 ***

Par. 2. Section 20.2001–1 is revised to read as follows:

§20.2001–1 Valuation of adjusted taxable gifts and section 2701(d) taxable events.

(a) Adjusted taxable gifts made prior to August 6, 1997. For purposes of determining the value of adjusted taxable gifts as defined in section 2001(b), if the gift was made prior to August 6, 1997, the value of the gift may be adjusted at any time, even if the time within which a gift tax may be assessed has expired under section 6501. This paragraph (a) also applies to adjustments involving issues other than valuation.

(b) Adjusted taxable gifts and section 2701(d) taxable events occurring after August 5, 1997. For purposes of determining the value of adjusted taxable gifts as defined in section 2001(b), if, under section 6501, the time has expired within which a gift tax may be assessed under chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code (or under corresponding provisions of prior laws) with respect to a gift made after August 5, 1997, and during a preceding calendar period (as defined in §25.2502–1(c)(2) of this chapter), or with respect to an increase in taxable gifts required under section 2701(d) and §25.2701–4 of this chapter, then the value of the gift will be the value as finally determined for gift tax purposes under chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code. This paragraph (b) does not apply to adjustments involving issues other than valuation. See §25.2504–1(d) of this chapter.

(c) Finally determined. For purposes of paragraph (a) of this section, the value of a gift is finally determined for gift tax purposes if—

(1) The value is shown on a gift tax return, or on a statement attached to the return, and the Internal Revenue Service does not contest the value before the time has expired under section 6501 within which gift taxes may be assessed;

(2) The value is specified by the Internal Revenue Service before the time has expired under section 6501 within which gift taxes may be assessed on the gift and such specified value is not timely contested by the taxpayer;

(3) The value is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(4) The value is determined pursuant to a settlement agreement entered into between the taxpayer and the Internal Revenue Service.

(d) Definitions. For purposes of paragraph (b) of this section, the value is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction when the court enters a final decision, judgment, decree or other order passing on the valuation that is not subject to appeal. See, for example, section 7481 regarding the finality of a decision by the U.S. Tax Court. Also, for purposes of paragraph (b) of this section, a settlement agreement means any agreement entered into by the Internal Revenue Service and the taxpayer that is binding on both. The term includes a closing agreement under section 7121, a compromise under section 7122, and an agreement entered into in settlement of litigation involving a valuation issue.

(e) Expiration of period of assessment. For purposes of determining if the time has expired within which a tax may be assessed under chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code, see §301.6501(c)–1(e) and (f) of this chapter.

(f) Examples. The following examples illustrate the rules of this section:

Example 1. (i) Facts. A owns Blackacre and B, A’s child, owns Whiteacre. In 1999, A and B exchange ownership of these properties. On A’s federal gift tax return, Form 709, for the 1999 calendar year, the transfer of Blackacre to B is adequately disclosed under §301.6501(c)–1(f)(2) of this chapter. A reports the transfer as nontaxable, representing that the fair market values of Whiteacre and Blackacre, at the time of the transfer, were equal. A dies after the period of assessment for the transfer has expired.

(ii) Application of the rule limiting adjustments to valuation issues. The fair market values of Blackacre and Whiteacre at the time of the transfer are valuation issues. Because A filed the return adequately disclosing the transfer, the period of assessment with respect to A’s transfer has expired, notwithstanding the fact that no gift tax return was required to be filed. Therefore, the Internal Revenue Service is precluded from revaluing Blackacre and Whiteacre in determining the amount of A’s adjusted taxable gifts in computing A’s estate tax liability.

Example 2. (i) Facts. In 1999, A transfers stock in a closely-held corporation to an irrevocable trust. Under the terms of the trust, the trustee has the discretion to accumulate trust net income or distribute it among A’s children. At A’s death, the trust is to terminate and the trust corpus is to be paid to A’s surviving issue. On A’s federal gift tax return, Form 709, filed for the 1999 calendar year, the transfer is adequately disclosed under §301.6501(c)–1(f)(2) of this chapter. A claims an annual exclusion under section 2503(b) for the transfer. A dies after the period of assessment for the transfer has expired.

(ii) Application of the rule limiting adjustments to valuation issues. Because the period of assessment has closed on the transfer due to adequate disclosure, the Internal Revenue Service is precluded from revaluing the transferred stock for purposes of assessing gift tax. Therefore, the value of the transfer as reported on A's 1999 Federal gift tax return may not be redetermined for purposes of determining A's adjusted taxable gifts. However, the applicability of the annual exclusion to the transfer is a question of law and not of valuation. Accordingly, although the Internal Revenue Service may not assess or collect additional gift tax on the 1999 transfer (because the period of assessment has closed), the Internal Revenue Service is not precluded from challenging the annual exclusion claimed by A for purposes of determining A's adjusted taxable gifts in computing the estate tax liability.

(g) Effective dates. Paragraph (a) of this section applies to transfers of property by gift made prior to August 6, 1997, if the estate tax return for the donor/decedent's estate is filed after this document is published as a final regulation in the Federal Register. Paragraphs (b) through (f) of this section apply to transfers of property by gift made after August 5, 1997, if the gift tax return for the calendar period in which the gift is made is filed after this document is published as a final regulation in the Federal Register.

PART 25—GIFT TAX; GIFTS MADE AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1954

Par. 3. The authority citation for part 25 continues to read in part as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 * * *

Par. 4. Section 25.2504–2 is revised to read as follows:

§25.2504–2 Valuation of certain gifts for preceding calendar periods.

(a) Gifts made before August 6, 1997. If the time has expired within which a tax may be assessed under chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code (or under corresponding provisions of prior laws) on the transfer of property by gift made during a preceding calendar period, as defined in §25.2502–1(c)(2), the gift was made prior to August 6, 1997, and a tax has been assessed or paid for such prior calendar period, the value of the gift, for purposes of arriving at the correct amount of the taxable gifts for the preceding calendar periods (as defined under §25.2504–1(a)), is the value used in computing the tax for the last preceding calendar period for which a tax was assessed or paid under chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provisions of prior laws. However, this rule does not apply where no tax was paid or assessed for the prior calendar period. Furthermore, this rule does not apply to adjustments involving issues other than valuation. See §25.2504–(d).

(b) Gifts made or section 2701(d) taxable events occurring after August 5, 1997. If the time has expired under section 6501 within which a gift tax may be assessed under chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code (or under corresponding provisions of prior laws) on the transfer of property by gift made during a preceding calendar period, as defined in §25.2502–1(c)(2), or with respect to an increase in taxable gifts required under section 2701(d) and §25.2701–4, and the gift was made, or the section 2701(d) taxable event occurred, after August 5, 1997, the value of the gift or the amount of the increase in taxable gifts, for purposes of determining the correct amount of taxable gifts for the preceding calendar periods (as defined in §25.2504–1(a)), is the value that is finally determined for gift tax purposes (within the meaning of §20.2001–1(c) of this chapter). This rule does not apply to adjustments involving issues other than valuation. See §25.2504–1(d).

For an illustration of this rule, see the examples under §20.2001–1(f) of this chapter. For purposes of determining if the time has expired within which a gift tax may be assessed, see §301.6501(c)–1(e) and (f) of this chapter.

(c) Example. The following example illustrates the rules of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

Example. (i) Facts. In 1996, A transfers closely-held stock to B, A's child. A timely filed a federal gift tax return reporting the 1996 transfer to B. No gift tax was assessed or paid as a result of application of A's available unified credit. In 1999, A transfers additional closely-held stock to B. A's federal gift tax return reporting the 1999 transfer is timely filed and the transfer is adequately disclosed under §301.6501(c)–1(f)(2) of this chapter. In 2003, A transfers additional property to B and timely files a federal gift tax return reporting the gift.

(ii) Application of the rule limiting adjustments to valuation of prior gifts. Under section 2504(c), in determining A's 2003 gift tax liability, the value of A's 1999 gift can be adjusted for purposes of computing the value of prior taxable gifts, since that gift was made prior to August 6, 1997, and therefore, the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section apply.

However, A's 1999 transfer was adequately disclosed on a timely filed gift tax return and, thus, under §25.2504–1(b), the value of the 1999 gift by A may not be adjusted for purposes of computing the value of prior taxable gifts in determining A's 2003 gift tax liability.

(d) Effective dates. Paragraph (a) of this section applies to transfers of property by gift made prior to August 6, 1997. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section apply to transfers of property by gift made after August 5, 1997, if the gift tax return for the calendar period in which the transfer is reported is filed after this document is published as a final regulation in the Federal Register.
if it is reported in a manner adequate to apprise the Internal Revenue Service of the nature of the gift and the basis for the value so reported. Transfers reported on the gift tax return as transfers of property by gift will be considered adequately disclosed under this paragraph (f) only if the return provides a complete and accurate description of the transaction including—

(ii) The identity of, and relationship between, the transferor and the transferee;

(iii) A detailed description of the method used to determine the fair market value of property transferred, including any relevant financial data and a description of any discounts, such as discounts for blockage, minority or fractional interests, and lack of marketability, claimed in valuing the property. In the case of the transfer of an interest in an entity (e.g., a corporation or partnership) that is not actively traded, a description of any discount claimed in valuing the entity or any assets owned by such entity, including a statement regarding the fair market value of 100 percent of the entity (determined without regard to any discounts in valuing the entity or any assets owned by the entity), the pro rata portion of the entity subject to the transfer, and the fair market value of the transferred interest as reported on the return. If the entity that is the subject of the transfer owns an interest in another non-actively traded entity (either directly or through ownership of an entity), the information required in this paragraph (f)(2)(iii) must be provided for each entity and the assets owned by each entity;

(iv) If the property is transferred in trust, the trust’s tax identification number and a brief description of the terms of the trust;

(v) Any restrictions on the transferred property that were considered in determining the fair market value of the property; and

(vi) A statement of the relevant facts affecting the gift tax treatment of the transfer that reasonably may be expected to apprise the Internal Revenue Service of the nature of any potential controversy concerning the gift tax treatment of the transfer, or in lieu of this statement, a concise description of the legal issue presented by the facts. In addition, a statement describing any position taken that is contrary to any temporary or final Treasury regulations or revenue rulings.

(3) Adequate disclosure of non-gift completed transfers or transactions. Completed transfers, all or a portion of which are reported as not constituting a transfer by gift (for example, a transaction in the ordinary course of business), will be considered adequately disclosed under this paragraph (f) only if the following information is provided on or attached to the return—

(i) The information required for adequate disclosure under paragraph (f)(2) of this section; and

(ii) An explanation as to why the transfer is not a transfer by gift under chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) Adequate disclosure of incomplete transfers. Adequate disclosure of a transfer that is reported as a completed gift on the gift tax return will commence the running of the statute of limitations for assessment of gift tax on the transfer, even if the transfer is ultimately determined to be an incomplete gift for purposes of §25.2511–2 of this chapter. For example, if an incomplete gift is reported as a completed gift on the gift tax return and is adequately disclosed, the period for assessment of the gift tax will begin running when the return is filed, as determined under section 6501(b). On the other hand, if the transfer is reported as an incomplete gift and adequately disclosed, the period for assessing a gift tax with respect to the transfer will not commence to run even if the transfer is ultimately determined to be a completed gift. In that situation, the gift tax with respect to the transfer may be assessed at any time, up until three years after the donor files a return reporting the transfer as a completed gift.

(5) Examples. The following examples illustrate the rules of this paragraph (f):

Example 1. (i) Facts. In 1999, A transfers 100 shares of common stock of XYZ Corporation to A’s child. The common stock of XYZ Corporation is not actively traded on a major stock exchange. For gift tax purposes, the fair market value of one share of XYZ common stock on the date of the transfer, determined in accordance with §25.2512-2(b) of this chapter (based on the mean between the highest and lowest quoted selling prices), is $150.00. On A’s federal gift tax return, Form 709, for the 1999 calendar year, A reports the gift as 100 shares of common stock of XYZ Corporation with a value for gift tax purposes of $15,000. A specifies the date of the transfer, recites that the stock is publicly traded, and identifies the stock exchange on which the stock is traded.

(ii) Application of the adequate disclosure standard. A has adequately disclosed the transfer. Therefore, the period of assessment for the transfer under section 6501 will run from the time the return is filed (as determined under section 6501(b)).

Example 2. (i) Facts. On December 30, 1999, A transferred closely-held stock to B, A’s child. A determined that the value of the transferred stock, on December 30, 1999, was $9,000. A made no other transfers to B, or any other donee, during 1999. On A’s federal gift tax return, Form 709, filed for the 1999 calendar year, A provides the information required under paragraph (f)(2) of this section (including the method used to determine the fair market value of the stock and a description of discounts claimed) such that the transfer is adequately disclosed. A claims an annual exclusion under section 2503(b) for the transfer.

(ii) Application of the adequate disclosure standard. Because the transfer was adequately disclosed under paragraph (f)(2) of this section, the period of assessment for the transfer will expire as prescribed by section 6501(b), notwithstanding that if A’s valuation of the closely-held stock was correct, A was not required to file a gift tax return reporting the transfer under section 6019. After the period of assessment has expired on the transfer, the Internal Revenue Service is precluded from revaluing the transferred stock for purposes of assessing gift tax or for purposes of determining the estate tax liability. Therefore, the value of the transfer as reported on A’s 1999 federal gift tax return may not be redetermined for purposes of determining A’s prior taxable gifts (for gift tax purposes) or A’s adjusted taxable gifts (for estate tax purposes).

Example 3. (i) Facts. A owns 100 percent of the common stock of X, a closely-held corporation. X does not hold an interest in any other entity that is not actively traded. In 1999, A transfers 20 percent of the X stock to B and C, A’s children, in a transfer that is not subject to the special valuation rules of section 2701. The transfer is made outright with no restrictions on ownership rights, including voting rights and the right to transfer the stock. The reported value of the transferred stock incorporates the use of minority discounts and lack of marketability discounts. No other discounts were used in arriving at the fair market value of the transferred stock or any assets owned by X. A reports the transfer on a federal gift tax return, Form 709, for the 1999 calendar year. On the return, A provides a statement reporting the fair market value of 100 percent of X (before taking into account any discounts), the pro rata portion of X subject to the transfer, and the reported value of the transfer. A also attaches a statement regarding the determination of value that includes a discussion of the discounts claimed and how the discounts were determined.

(ii) Application of the adequate disclosure standard. A has provided sufficient information such that the transfer will be considered adequately disclosed and the period of assessment for the transfer under section 6501 will run from the time the return is filed (as determined under section 6501(b)).

Example 4. (i) Facts. A owns a 70 percent limited partnership interest in PS. PS owns 40 percent
Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
Retention of Income Tax Return Preparers’ Signatures
REG-106386-98
AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.
ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking by cross-reference to temporary regulations.
SUMMARY: In T.D. 8803, page 15, the IRS is issuing temporary regulations relating to the retention of income tax return preparers’ signatures. The text of those temporary regulations also serves as the text of these proposed regulations.

DATES: Written comments and requests for a public hearing must be received by March 31, 1999. The IRS and Treasury Department request comments on the clarity of the proposed rules and how they can be made easier to understand.

ADDRESSES: Send submissions to: CC:DOM:CORP:R (REG–106386–98), room 5226, Internal Revenue Service, POB 7604, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20044. Submissions may be hand delivered Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. to CC:DOM:CORP:R (REG–106386–98), Courier’s Desk, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC. Alternatively, taxpayers may submit comments electronically via the Internet by selecting the “Tax Regs” option on the IRS Home Page, or by submitting comments directly to the IRS Internet site at http://www.irs.ustreas.gov/prod/taxRegs/comments.html.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Concerning the regulations, Marc C. Porter, (202) 622-4940; concerning submissions, LaNita Van Dyke, (202) 622-7190 (not toll-free numbers).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
Background
Temporary regulations in T.D. 8803 (REG–106386–98), part 1 of the Internal Revenue Code. These regulations require an income tax return preparer to keep a manually signed (by the preparer) copy of a return or claim for refund if the preparer presented to the taxpayer for signature a return or claim with a copy of the preparer’s manual signature.

The text of those temporary regulations also serves as the text of these proposed regulations. The preamble to the temporary regulations explains the temporary regulations.

Special Analyses
It has been determined that this notice of proposed rulemaking is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It has also been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations, and because the regulations do not impose a collection of information on small entities, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) does not apply. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, this notice of proposed rulemaking will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Proposed Effective Date
The proposed regulations are proposed to be effective for returns or claims for refund presented to a taxpayer for signature after December 31, 1998, and for returns or claims retained on or before that date.

Comments and Requests for a Public Hearing
Before these proposed regulations are adopted as final regulations, consideration will be given to any written comments (a signed original and 8 copies) that are submitted timely to the IRS. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying. A public hearing may be scheduled if requested in writing by any person that timely submits written comments. If a public hearing is scheduled, notice of the date, time, and place for the hearing will be published in the Federal Register.

Drafting Information
The principal author of these regulations is Marc C. Porter, Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax & Accounting). However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in its development.

If an organization listed above submits information that warrants the renewal of its classification as a public charity or as a private operating foundation, the Internal Revenue Service will issue a ruling or determination letter with the revised classification as to foundation status. Grantors and contributors may thereafter rely upon such ruling or determination letter as provided in section 1.509(a)–7 of the Income Tax Regulations. It is not the practice of the Service to announce such revised classification of foundation status in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
Withdrawal of Proposed Regulations
REG–116099–98
AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.
ACTION: Withdrawal of proposed regulations.
SUMMARY: This document withdraws proposed regulations amending the income tax regulations. This action is taken to remove from the IRS’ inventory of regulations projects those proposed regulations that are in an inactive status and would remain in an inactive status for the foreseeable future.

DATES: These proposed regulations are withdrawn December 22, 1998.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

This document withdraws certain proposed regulations previously published in the Federal Register by the IRS. These proposed regulations are being withdrawn because they are part of regulations projects that will not be pursued in the foreseeable future, and there are no current plans to adopt the proposed regulations as final regulations.

Drafting Information

The principal author of this withdrawal notice is George H. Bradley, Office of the Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax & Accounting) within the Office of the Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service. Other personnel from the Internal Revenue Service and the Treasury Department participated in developing the withdrawal notice.

Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries

Announcement 99–25

Examinations

The Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries has under consideration the restructuring of the examinations it offers under 20 CFR 901.13(d)(1). The need for restructuring is based on the expansion of the body of law affecting the private pension system and the corresponding increase in the complexity of the work for which enrolled actuaries are responsible. The syllabus of the current law examination, one of two examinations an individual must pass in order to meet the knowledge requirement for enrollment, does not provide sufficient opportunity to test a candidate’s knowledge of the relevant pension law. In addition, the pension mathematics segment of the basic actuarial examination does not cover sufficient material to test a candidate’s ability to apply sound actuarial techniques to the increasingly complex regulatory environment in which defined benefit pension plans operate.

As a result of discussions held at a public meeting on June 30, 1998, and in other public forums, the Joint Board and the examination co-sponsors, the Society of Actuaries and the American Society of Pension Actuaries, propose to restructure the examination program.

The major topics for the restructured basic actuarial examination would be (1) compound interest, and (2) life contingencies. These topics are now covered in the first segment of the basic actuarial examination (EA-1A). The restructured examination covering these topics would be 2½ hours long, the same length as the current EA-1A examination.

The restructured pension law examination would be offered in two segments. The first would cover basic pension math-
The current enrollment cycle technically started (with the use of the new prefix) on April 1, 1996 and will end on March 31, 1999.

Applications for renewal of enrollment should have been filed by March 1st.

The Board has noted that there is a wide spread impression that credits necessary to meet the CPE requirements for re-enrollment that were not earned by December 31, 1998 could be earned in January and/or February 1999. This is contrary to the regulations. However, the Board recognizes that, in the past, certain circumstances called for relaxation of the rules and that what has happened in the past might have been taken as a precedent.

As result, the Board will not deny re-enrollment to those actuaries solely because they fulfilled their CPE requirements in part with credits obtained in January and/or February 1999. However, the Board will require that Enrolled Actuaries who have availed themselves of this relief should, in a signed letter to the Board, disclose the number of hours of credit thus obtained and how they were obtained (e.g. identify the course taken, when and where the course was taken, etc.). Those credits earned in 1999 will not count towards meeting the requirements for the next enrollment cycle.

Such administrative relief will not be available at the end of the current re-enrollment cycle (April 1, 1999 through March 31, 2002) for credits earned in January and/or February 2002, nor will it be available in subsequent re-enrollment cycles. Enrolled Actuaries who are unable to complete their CPE requirements by the end of the last full year of the cycle will be expected to provide the Board’s Executive Director with an explanation of the facts and circumstances which made it impossible for them to meet the requirements in a timely fashion.

Four-Digit Enrollment Number

This notice provides enrolled actuaries and other interested parties with a reminder of the Joint Board’s position, which was adopted some years ago, on a matter where some confusion has arisen in the past. The confusion arises regarding the prefix to the four-digit enrollment number an enrolled actuary should use when signing a schedule B after December 31, 1998, but before the earlier of (1) receipt of official notice of reenrollment, and (2) April 1, 1999.

Accordingly, enrolled actuaries are advised that:

1. An enrolled actuary is not permitted to use the (in this case 99-) prefix until such time as he/she has been officially notified in writing by the Joint Board of his/her entitlement to do so. See the Instructions for Schedule B.

2. An enrolled actuary who has not yet received official notification from the Joint Board should use the 96-prefix if he/she signs a Schedule B in the first three months of 1999. The IRS Service Center will not reject the 96-prefix for a signature date during this three month period. The 96-prefix will be rejected for a Schedule B where the signature date is April 1, 1999 or later.

Paulette Tino, Chairperson,

Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries.
Announcement of the Consent Voluntary Suspension of Attorneys, Certified Public Accountants, Enrolled Agents, and Enrolled Actuaries From Practice Before the Internal Revenue Service

Under 31 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 10, an enrolled agent, in order to avoid the institution or conclusion of a proceeding for his disbarment or suspension from practice before the Internal Revenue Service, may offer his resignation from such practice. The Director of Practice, in his discretion, may suspend an enrolled agent in accordance with the consent offered.

Attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries are prohibited in any Internal Revenue Service matter from directly or indirectly employing, accepting assistance from, being employed by or sharing fees with, any enrolled agent who has resigned from practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

To enable attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries to identify former enrolled agents who have resigned from practice before the Internal Revenue Service, the Director of Practice will announce in the Internal Revenue Bulletin the names and addresses of former enrolled agents who have resigned from such practice, and date of resignation. This announcement will appear in the weekly Bulletin at the earliest practicable date after such action and will continue to appear in the weekly Bulletins for five successive weeks or for as many weeks as is practicable for each enrolled agent, who has resigned, and will be consolidated and published in the Cumulative Bulletin.

The following individual has offered his resignation as an enrolled agent:

Announcement of the Expedited Suspension of Attorneys, Certified Public Accountants, Enrolled Agents, and Enrolled Actuaries From Practice Before the Internal Revenue Service

Under Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations, section 10.76, the Director of Practice is authorized to immediately suspend from practice before the Internal Revenue Service any practitioner who, within five years, from the date the expedited proceeding is instituted, (1) has had a license to practice as an attorney, certified public accountant, or actuary suspended or revoked for cause; or (2) has been convicted of any crime under title 26 of the United States Code or, of a felony under title 18 of the United States Code involving dishonesty or breach of trust.

Attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries are prohibited in any Internal Revenue Service matter from directly or indirectly employing, accepting assistance from, being employed by, or sharing fees with, any practitioner disbarred or suspended from practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

To enable attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries to identify practitioners under expedited suspension from practice before the Internal Revenue Service, the Director of Practice will announce in the Internal Revenue Bulletin the names and addresses of practitioners who have been suspended from such practice, their designation as attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary, and date or period of suspension. This announcement will appear in the weekly Bulletin at the earliest practicable date after such action and will continue to appear in the weekly Bulletins for five successive weeks or for as many weeks as is practicable for each attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary so suspended and will be consolidated and published in the Cumulative Bulletin.

The following individual have been placed under suspension from practice before the Internal Revenue Service by virtue of the expedited proceeding provisions of the applicable regulations:

Announcement of the Disbarment and Suspension of Attorneys, Certified Public Accountants, Enrolled Agents, and Enrolled Actuaries From Practice Before the Internal Revenue Service

Under 330, Title 31 of the United States Code, the Secretary of the Treasury, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, is authorized to suspend or disbar from practice before the Internal Revenue Service any person who has violated the rules and regulations governing the recognition of attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, or enrolled actuaries to practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

Attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries are prohibited in any Internal Revenue Service matter from directly or indirectly employing, accepting assistance from, being employed by, or sharing fees with, any practitioner disbarred or under suspension from practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

To enable attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries to identify such disbarred or suspended practitioners, the Director of Practice will announce in the Internal Revenue Bulletin the names and addresses of practitioners who have been suspended from such practice, their designation as attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary, and date of disbarment or period of suspension. This announcement will appear in the weekly Bulletin for five successive weeks or as long as it is practicable for each attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary so suspended or disbarred and will be consolidated and published in the Cumulative Bulletin.

After due notice and opportunity for hearing before an administrative law judge, the following individuals have been disbarred from further practice before the Internal Revenue Service:

Announcement of the Consent Voluntary Suspension of Attorneys, Certified Public Accountants, Enrolled Agents, and Enrolled Actuaries From Practice Before the Internal Revenue Service

Under 31 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 10, an attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary, in order to avoid the institution or conclusion of a proceeding for his disbarment or suspension from practice before the Internal Revenue Service, may offer his consent to suspension from such practice. The Director of Practice, in his discretion, may suspend an attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary in accordance with the consent offered.

Attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries are prohibited in any Internal Revenue Service matter from directly or indirectly employing, accepting assistance from, being employed by, or sharing fees with any practitioner disbarred or suspended from practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

To enable attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, and enrolled actuaries to identify practitioners under consent suspension from practice before the Internal Revenue Service, the Director of Practice will announce in the Internal Revenue Bulletin the names and addresses of practitioners who have been suspended from such practice, their designation as attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary, and date or period of suspension. This announcement will appear in the weekly Bulletin at the earliest practicable date after such action and will continue to appear in the weekly Bulletins for five successive weeks or for as many weeks as is practicable for each attorney, certified public accountant, enrolled agent, or enrolled actuary so suspended and will be consolidated and published in the Cumulative Bulletin.

The following individuals have been placed under consent suspension from practice before the Internal Revenue Service:

Definition of Terms

Revenue rulings and revenue procedures (hereinafter referred to as "rulings") that have an effect on previous rulings use the following defined terms to describe the effect:

Amplified describes a situation where no change is being made in a prior published position, but the prior position is being extended to apply to a variation of the fact situation set forth therein. Thus, if an earlier ruling held that a principle applied to A, and the new ruling holds that the same principle also applies to B, the earlier ruling is amplified. (Compare with modified, below).

Clarified is used in those instances where the language in a prior ruling is being made clear because the language has caused, or may cause, some confusion. It is not used where a position in a prior ruling is being changed.

Distinguished describes a situation where a ruling mentions a previously published ruling and points out an essential difference between them.

Modified is used where the substance of a previously published position is being changed. Thus, if a prior ruling held that a principle applied to A but not to B, and the new ruling holds that it applies to both A and B, the prior ruling is modified because it corrects a published position. (Compare with amplified and clarified, above).

Obsoleted describes a previously published ruling that is not considered determinative with respect to future transactions. This term is most commonly used in a ruling that lists previously published rulings that are obsoleted because of changes in law or regulations. A ruling may also be obsoleted because the substance has been included in regulations subsequently adopted.

Revoked describes situations where the position in the previously published ruling is not correct and the correct position is being stated in the new ruling.

Superseded describes a situation where the new ruling does nothing more than restate the substance and situation of a previously published ruling (or rulings). Thus, the term is used to republish under the 1986 Code and regulations the same position published under the 1959 Code and regulations. The term is also used when it is desired to republish in a single ruling a series of situations, names, etc., that were previously published over a period of time in separate rulings. If the new ruling does more than restate the substance of a prior ruling, a combination of terms is used. For example, modified and superseded describes a situation where the substance of a previously published ruling is being changed in part and is continued without change in part and it is desired to restate the valid portion of the previously published ruling in a new ruling that is self contained. In this case the previously published ruling is first modified and then, as modified, is superseded.

Supplemented is used in situations in which a list, such as a list of the names of countries, is published in a ruling and that list is expanded by adding further names in subsequent rulings. After the original ruling has been supplemented several times, a new ruling may be published that includes the list in the original ruling and the additions, and supersedes all prior rulings in the series.

Suspended is used in rare situations to show that the previous published rulings will not be applied pending some future action such as the issuance of new or amended regulations, the outcome of cases in litigation, or the outcome of a Service study.

Service begins with the next issue released of each item selected. An acknowledgment card is sent for each Standing Order item selected.
INTERNAL REVENUE BULLETIN

The Introduction on page 3 describes the purpose and content of this publication. The weekly Internal Revenue Bulletin is sold on a yearly subscription basis by the Superintendent of Documents. Current subscribers are notified by the Superintendent of Documents when their subscriptions must be renewed.

CUMULATIVE BULLETINS

The contents of this weekly Bulletin are consolidated semiannually into a permanent, indexed, Cumulative Bulletin. These are sold on a single copy basis and are not included as part of the subscription to the Internal Revenue Bulletin. Subscribers to the weekly Bulletin are notified when copies of the Cumulative Bulletin are available. Certain issues of Cumulative Bulletins are out of print and are not available. Persons desiring available Cumulative Bulletins, which are listed on the reverse, may purchase them from the Superintendent of Documents.

HOW TO ORDER

Check the publications and/or subscription(s) desired on the reverse, complete the order blank, enclose the proper remittance, detach entire page, and mail to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402. Please allow two to six weeks, plus mailing time, for delivery.

WE WELCOME COMMENTS ABOUT THE INTERNAL REVENUE BULLETIN

If you have comments concerning the format or production of the Internal Revenue Bulletin or suggestions for improving it, we would be pleased to hear from you. You can e-mail us your suggestions or comments through the IRS Internet Home Page (www.irs.ustreas.gov) or write to the IRS Bulletin Unit, OP:FS:FP:P:1, Room 5617, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20224.
