What to do if you get a letter from the IRS about your health care coverage

Some taxpayers will receive letters from the IRS related to health care coverage. Be sure to read your letter carefully and respond timely.

For tax year 2018, the IRS will not consider a return complete and accurate if you do not report full-year coverage, claim a coverage exemption, or report a shared responsibility payment on the tax return. Most taxpayers have qualifying health coverage or a coverage exemption for all 12 months in the year and will check the box on the front of their tax return. Taxpayers remain obligated to follow the law and pay what is owed when they file.

If you need health coverage, visit HealthCare.gov to learn about health insurance options that are available for you and your family, how to purchase health insurance, and how you might qualify to get financial assistance with the cost of insurance.
