We are responding to correspondence, submitted via fax, requesting relief in order to establish January 1, 1998, as the effective date for your S corporation election. The information submitted explains that the corporation was under the impression it had been granted S corporation status at inception. However, it appears that Form 2553 which had been filed late was rejected, and no tax return has been received for the 1998 taxable year. Based on these facts, you are ineligible for automatic late S corporation relief. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides useful information relating to your situation.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections and inadvertent invalid S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2000-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2000-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $5,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their last-filed tax return qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you are eligible to pay the reduced fee, a statement certifying your gross income must accompany your request; otherwise, you will be billed for the higher fee. Please review Appendix B for a sample format for requesting a private letter ruling.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please provide documents supporting your intention to be an S corporation from inception, include the proper user fee, and refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

Attn: CC:P&A
P.O. Box 7604
Ben Franklin Station
Washington, DC 20044

Direct to: CC:PSI:B1
Room 5002

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,

/s/Dianna K. Miosi
