We are responding to correspondence, submitted on your behalf by [redacted] CPA, requesting relief in order to establish 1997 as the effective year for your S corporation election. The information submitted explains that the Internal Revenue Service has failed to receive your election in a timely manner, and you are unable to provide proof of mailing Form 2553. Automatic relief under Revenue Procedure 97-48 is unavailable because your first tax return was filed late (no extension on file). Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides useful information relating to your request.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections and inadvertent invalid S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2000-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2000-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $5,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their last-filed tax return qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you are eligible for the reduced fee, you must include the statement described in § (B)(1)(b) of Appendix A with your request. Please review Appendix B for a sample format for requesting a private letter ruling.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please include the proper user fee (if applying under the reduced fee provisions, send a statement certifying gross income), and refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

Attn: CC:P&A
P.O. Box 7604
Ben Franklin Station
Washington, DC 20044

Direct to: CC:PSI:1
Room 5002

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Dianna K. Miosi
