We are responding to your correspondence requesting relief in order to establish January 2000, as the effective date for your S corporation election. It appears that you have stated reasonable cause for failing to file a timely election. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides useful information relating to your request.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections and inadvertent invalid S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2001-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2001-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their last-filed (12 month) tax return qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you qualify for the reduced fee you must include a statement certifying your eligibility. Please review Appendix B for a sample format for requesting a private letter ruling.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please include the proper user fee and refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:
