[REDACTED]:

We are responding to your correspondence requesting that the Internal Revenue Service treat [REDACTED] as an S corporation effective as of the 2000 taxable year. However, you are ineligible for automatic late S corporation relief under Revenue Procedure 97-48 because IRS records reflect that your 2000 Form 1120S return was received late on June 24, 2001 and had no extension on file. (Your corporate tax return was due March 15.) Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides useful information about rectifying your S corporation status.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2002-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, a proper user fee must be submitted along with your request. The fee for a ruling is $6,000; however, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million for the last 12-month taxable period qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If your business qualifies for the reduced fee, your request must include a statement certifying gross income; otherwise, you will be billed the higher fee. Please format your ruling request as shown in Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2002-1.

If you decide to submit a ruling request, please provide documents supporting your intention to be an S corporation, and include the proper user fee. Please refer your package to our office by adding the following to the address:

If you have internet access, you may wish to visit www.irs.gov/smallbiz for specialized tax information, products, and forms relating to small businesses.

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
