Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated March 7, 2002, and subsequent correspondence, requesting a ruling under § 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Facts

Corporation was incorporated on Date 1. Corporation intended to be taxed as an S corporation but failed to file timely a Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation.

Applicable Law

Section 1362(a) generally provides that a small business corporation may elect to be an S corporation for federal tax purposes.

Section 1362(b) governs the timeliness of such an election as well as its effective date. Generally, if an election to be treated as an S corporation is made within the first two and one-half months of a corporation's taxable year, then the corporation will be treated as an S corporation beginning in the year in which the election was made. If the election is made after the first two and one-half months of a corporation's taxable year, then the corporation will not be treated as having made an effective election to be treated as an S corporation for federal tax purposes until the following taxable year.

Section 1362(b)(5) provides that if an election to be treated as an S corporation for federal tax purposes is either made untimely, or not made at all, and the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to make a timely election, then the Secretary may treat the corporation as having made a timely election.

Conclusion

Based on the facts submitted and representations made, we conclude that Corporation has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation. Accordingly, provided Corporation files a completed Form 2553 effective Date 1 with the appropriate Service Center within 60 days from the date of this letter, such election will be treated as timely made. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553 and is enclosed for that purpose.

Except as specifically set forth above, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Internal Revenue Code. Specifically, we express or imply no opinion concerning whether Corporation otherwise qualifies as an S corporation for federal tax purposes.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Sincerely yours,
Jeanne M. Sullivan
