Dear [REDACTED]:

We are responding to correspondence, submitted on your behalf by [REDACTED], requesting relief for certain late elections. Based on the information included in your request, it appears that you wish for your organization to be classified as a corporation; however, Form 8832 was not filed in a timely manner. Similarly, your Form 2553 electing to be considered an S corporation, was filed late. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides useful information explaining how to correct your situation.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2003-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2003-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their tax return for the most recent 12-month taxable year, qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you qualify for the reduced fee, you must include a statement certifying your gross income for the last 12-month taxable year. Otherwise, the higher fee will apply.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please review Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2003-1, and be certain to include all required procedural statements. Also include the proper user fee and any documents that substantiate your intent to be classified as an S corporation from inception. Both the late S corporation and entity classification elections will be considered in the same ruling request. Please refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

In addition, the IRS has developed two new CD-ROMs to help educate small business owners on their tax responsibilities: (1) Introduction to Federal Taxes for Small Business/Self-Employed; and (2) A Virtual Small Business Workshop. These two CD-ROMs are free and can be ordered by calling 1-800-829-3676. The IRS also provides a special website, www.irs.gov/smallbiz which is dedicated to providing information to small business taxpayers.

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Dianna K. Miosi
