Dear [REDACTED]:

We are responding to correspondence, submitted on your behalf [REDACTED], requesting relief in order to establish 2001 as the effective taxable year for your S corporation election. Automatic late S corporation relief is unavailable in your situation because the return due date for 2001 has passed (Rev. Proc. 98-55) and the Internal Revenue Service had notified you about a problem with your election within six months of receiving your first 1120S (Rev. Proc. 97-48). Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides information about rectifying your situation.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set forth in Revenue Procedure 2003-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, taxpayers must submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000; however, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their tax return for the most recent 12-month taxable year, qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you qualify for the reduced fee, you must include a statement claiming that your gross income for the last 12-month taxable year was less than one million dollars.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please follow the sample format provided in Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2003-1. Your request should include all required procedural statements, a check for the user fee, and any documents that substantiate your intent to be an S corporation from inception. Please refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

Attn: CC:PA:T
P.O. Box 7604
Ben Franklin Station

Direct to: CC:PSI:1

In addition, the IRS has developed two new CD-ROMs to help educate small business owners on their tax responsibilities: (1) Introduction to Federal Taxes for Small Business/Self-Employed; and (2) A Virtual Small Business Workshop. These two CD-ROMs are free and can be ordered by calling 1-800-829-3676. The IRS also provides a special website, www.irs.gov/smallbiz which is dedicated to providing information to small business taxpayers.

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,
