This letter constitutes notice that with respect to the above-named defined benefit pension plan, your request for a waiver of the minimum funding standard for the plan year ended July 31, 2001, has been denied. Please also note that, because the minimum funding standard for the plan year ended July 30, 2001, was not satisfied, the conditional waiver for the plan year ended July 30, 2000, previously granted by letter dated February 27, 2001, is now retroactively null and void.

The information furnished indicates that the Company is a whose shares once traded on the NASDAQ National Market System. However, trading of the Company's shares has been suspended by NASDAQ and the Company has filed for bankruptcy under Chapter 11. It is also our understanding that the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) has instituted procedures to terminate the plan.

The information furnished failed to demonstrate that the hardship was temporary, and a denial of the request was proposed. You were informed, by telephone call of December 16, 2002, of our tentative denial and were offered a conference of right. You, by telephone call of December 18, 2002, declined our offer of a conference of right. Therefore, our tentative denial is now final.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer that requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited by others as precedent.

A copy of this letter is also being sent to the Manager, Employee Plans Classification in
