Taxpayer = [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

We are responding to a letter on behalf of the Taxpayer, dated September 26, 2003, requesting a late S election effective January 19, 2000. Although we are unable to respond to the request as submitted, this letter provides useful information relating to the request.

According to the information provided, the Taxpayer claims that it filed an S election in 2000. The Service Center, however, does not have a record of such a filing. Because the Taxpayer filed the 2000 return outside the extension period, it is ineligible for relief under Rev. Proc. 97-48. To obtain relief, the Taxpayer may request a private letter ruling.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections and inadvertent invalid S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2004-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2004-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their last-filed tax return qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you are eligible to use the reduced fee provision you must include the statement described in ' (B)(1)(b) of Appendix A with your request. Please review Appendix B for a sample format for requesting a private letter ruling.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please include the proper user fee (if applying under the reduced fee provisions, send a statement certifying gross income), and refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:
