Dear [REDACTED]:

This letter responds to your inquiry dated January 27, 2005, relating to a late election under Subchapter S for the 2001 taxable year. Automatic relief is unavailable under Revenue Procedure 97-48 because the entity's first tax return was filed late. Similarly, you are ineligible for relief pursuant to Revenue Procedure 2003-43 because the window period has closed.

Generally, to request relief for a late S corporation or entity classification election you must request a private letter ruling (PLR) from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a PLR are set forth in Revenue Procedure 2005-1 (copy enclosed). The standard user fee for a PLR request is $7,000; however, if the entity's gross income was less than $1 million on the 2004 tax return, it may pay the reduced user fee in the amount of $625. In order for the lower fee to be accepted, you must include a statement verifying the entity's gross income for the last 12-month taxable period. Otherwise, you will be billed for the higher fee.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a PLR, please follow the sample format shown in Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2005-1. Your request must include required procedural statements, a user fee check, and documents to substantiate your intent to be an S corporation. Please refer your ruling request to the following address:

Incidentally, the IRS has developed two compact discs (CDs) to help educate small business owners on their tax responsibilities: (1) Publication 3693, Introduction to Federal Taxes for Small Business/Self-Employed; and (2) Publication 3700, Small Business Workshop. These items are free and can be ordered by calling 1-800-829-3676. An online classroom is available at www.irs.gov/businesses/small.

This letter has called your attention to certain general principles of the law. It is intended for informational purposes only and does not constitute a ruling. Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful. If you have any additional questions, please contact our office at (202) 622-3050.

Sincerely,

/s/ Dianna K. Miosi
