Dear :

Page 2

This is in response to your request dated _____ in which you request a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested:

Taxpayer C, age _____ represents that _____ received a distribution, as the beneficiary of IRA X totaling Amount E. Taxpayer C asserts that _____ failure to accomplish a rollover within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3) was due to a miscommunication between Taxpayer C and Broker H which led to Amount F being placed into Taxpayer C's brokerage account with Broker H instead of into a rollover IRA as Taxpayer C intended.

Taxpayer C was the spouse of Taxpayer A who passed away on Date 2. Taxpayer A established IRA X at Bank G. Taxpayer A also established Account D with Broker H on Date 1. Taxpayer C, as beneficiary to IRA X, received Amount E from IRA X on Date 3. Taxpayer C intended to deposit Amount F into a rollover IRA and met with a representative of Broker H to make the rollover. However, due to a miscommunication the new account was miscoded by Broker H and Amount F was deposited into a regular brokerage account. Taxpayer C did not realize the error until she received a Form 1099-R on Date 4. Amount F remains in Taxpayer C's brokerage account and has not been used for any other purpose.

Based on the facts and representations, you request that the Service waive the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to Amount F.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72 of the Code.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code defines, and provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) of the Code does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if-

- (i) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

- (ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3)).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408(d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408(a)(6).

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code.

Rev. Proc. 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359, provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I), the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error; (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information and documentation submitted by Taxpayer C are consistent with assertion that failure to accomplish a rollover within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3) of the Code was caused by a miscommunication between Taxpayer C and Broker H which led to Amount F being placed into Taxpayer C's brokerage account instead of into a rollover IRA as Taxpayer C intended.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount F. You are granted a period of 60 days from the issuance of this ruling letter to contribute Amount F into a rollover IRA. Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3) of the Code, except the 60 day-requirement, are met with respect to such contribution, Amount F will be considered a rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408(d)(3) of the Code.

This ruling does not authorize the rollover of amounts that are required to be distributed by section 401(a)(9) of the Code.

No opinion is expressed as to the tax treatment of the transaction described herein under the provisions of any other section of either the Code or regulations which may be applicable thereto.

This letter is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.
