Dear :

This letter responds to a letter submitted June 15, 2012, requesting an extension of time, pursuant to § 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations, for Taxpayer to file a request for a revised schedule of ruling amounts for purposes of § 468A of the Internal Revenue Code and § 1.468A-3(f)(1)(iv).

Taxpayer has represented the facts as follows: Taxpayer is primarily engaged in the generation, transmission, and distribution of electric energy. Taxpayer owns an X percent interest in the Plant. Taxpayer has established a qualified fund with respect to the Plant as allowed by section 468A. The Taxpayer received a schedule of ruling amounts from the Internal Revenue Service dated Date A. The numbers in Taxpayer's request for that schedule of ruling amounts were calculated based on the then-current license expiration date. The license for Plant was originally set to expire on Date B. On Date C, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) granted Taxpayer License, extending the operating license for Plant to Date D. Taxpayer did not request a revised schedule of ruling amounts from the Service after the license extension was granted by the NRC.

Section 468A provides that a taxpayer may elect to deduct the amount of payments made to a qualified decommissioning fund. However, former § 468A(b) limits the amount paid into such fund for any taxable year to the lesser of the amount of nuclear decommissioning costs allocable to this fund which is included in the taxpayer's cost of service for ratemaking purposes for the tax year or the ruling amount applicable to this year.

Section 468A(d)(1) provides that no deduction shall be allowed for any payment to a qualified nuclear decommissioning fund unless the taxpayer receives a schedule of ruling amounts from the Secretary. Section 468A(d)(1) further requires a Taxpayer to request a revised schedule of ruling amounts upon renewal of a nuclear power plant operating license.

Section 1.468A-3(f)(1)(iv) requires that a taxpayer who receives a renewal of an operating license of a nuclear power plant to which a qualified nuclear decommissioning fund relates must request a revised schedule of ruling amounts on or before the deemed payment deadline for the taxable year that includes the date on which the license was extended. In this case, Taxpayer was required to request the revised schedule of ruling amounts by Date E.

Section 301.9100-1(c) provides that the Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Code, except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Section 301.9100-1(b) provides that the term "election" includes an application for relief in respect of tax.

Sections 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 provide the standards the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make an election. Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Section 301.9100-3 provides extensions of time for making elections that do not meet the requirements of § 301.9100-2. A request for relief under § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

CONCLUSIONS

Based solely on the facts and representations submitted, we conclude that the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 have been satisfied. Accordingly, Taxpayer's request for a revised schedule of ruling amounts based on the license extension granted on Date C will be considered timely filed for purposes of § 1.468A-3(f)(1)(iv) if such request is submitted within 120 days of the date of this letter.

Except as specifically set forth above, we express no opinion concerning the federal income tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provisions of the Code.

We are sending a copy of this letter to the Director.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Sincerely yours,

PETER C. FRIEDMAN
