Dear _____ :

This responds to a letter dated July 30, 2013, submitted by Firm requesting that the Internal Revenue Service (“Service”) grant Taxpayer an extension of time under Treas. Reg. §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 to file Form 4876-A (“Election To Be Treated as an Interest Charge DISC”) for Taxpayer’s first taxable year.

The rulings contained in this letter are based upon information and representations submitted by Taxpayer and Firm, and accompanied by affidavits and penalty of perjury statements executed by appropriate parties. This office has not verified any of the material submitted in support of the request for rulings. It is subject to verification on examination.

FACTS

Taxpayer is a domestic corporation with a calendar taxable year. Taxpayer was formed on Date 1 to serve as an interest charge domestic international sales corporation (“IC-DISC”) and has established a commission arrangement with LLC. LLC owns 100% of Taxpayer.

Taxpayer was formed as a result of discussions between Individual, an officer of LLC, and Firm about establishing an IC-DISC to be used in connection with LLC’s export of beverage products. Firm agreed to prepare the election to treat Taxpayer as an IC-DISC. On Date 2, Firm contacted Individual to inform her that Form 4876-A had been prepared and mailed to the attention of Taxpayer’s president and that it was due before Date 3. It was understood that Individual would be the party responsible for timely filing the election. At the time, Individual was dealing with several significant personal matters, including . Individual inadvertently missed the deadline for filing Form 4876-A. A few days after Date 3, Individual discovered her mistake and sent the form to the Service.

On or about Date 4, Taxpayer received a notice from the Service disallowing Taxpayer’s IC-DISC election because Form 4876-A was not timely filed. Taxpayer sought advice from Firm, which advised Taxpayer to submit a request for relief under Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3 for an extension of time to file the IC-DISC election effective Date 1.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 992(b)(1)(A) provides that an election by a corporation to be treated as a DISC<sup>1</sup> shall be made by such corporation for a taxable year at any time during the 90-day period immediately preceding the beginning of the taxable year, except that the Secretary may give his consent to the making of an election at such other times as he may designate.

Section 992(b)(1)(B) provides that such election shall be made in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe and shall be valid only if all persons who are shareholders in such corporation on such first day of the first taxable year for which such election is effective consent to such election.

Temp. Treas. Reg. § 1.921-1T(b)(1) provides, in part, that a corporation electing IC-DISC status must file Form 4876-A and that a corporation electing to be treated as an IC-DISC for its first taxable year shall make its election within 90 days after the beginning of that year.

Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-1(c) provides, in part, that the Commissioner, in exercising the Commissioner’s discretion, may grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in Treas. Reg. §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election under all subtitles of the Code except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

<sup>1</sup> As used in this letter, the terms “IC-DISC” and “DISC” have the same meaning.

Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-1(b) provides that a regulatory election is an election whose due date is prescribed by a regulation published in the Federal Register, or a revenue ruling, revenue procedure, notice, or announcement published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin. For this purpose, an election includes an application for relief in respect of tax.

Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3(a) provides that requests for extensions of time for regulatory elections that do not meet the requirements of Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-2 (automatic extensions) must be made under the rules of Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3. Requests for relief subject to Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides the evidence (including affidavits described in Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3(e)) to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the Government.

Based on the facts and representations submitted with Taxpayer's ruling request, we conclude that Taxpayer satisfies Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3(a). Accordingly, Taxpayer is granted an extension of time of 60 days from the date of this ruling letter to file Form 4876-A. Such filing will be treated as a timely election to be treated as an IC-DISC for Taxpayer's first taxable year.

The granting of an extension in this ruling letter is not a determination that Taxpayer is otherwise eligible to make the election or to claim IC-DISC status or benefits. See Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-1(a). Taxpayer should attach a copy of this ruling letter to its Federal income tax return for the taxable years to which this letter applies.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent. Except as expressly provided herein, no opinion is expressed or implied concerning the tax consequences of any aspect of any transaction or item discussed or referenced in this letter.

In accordance with the Power of Attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to your authorized representative.

Sincerely,
