Dear XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX:

This letter is in response to your request dated March 31, 2014, in which you requested a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested:

Taxpayer A represents that she is over 70 ½ and that she receives her Required Minimum Distributions (RMD) from IRA B. Taxpayer A further represents that she received a distribution from IRA B in 2013 that was in excess of her RMD for 2013. Taxpayer A asserts that her failure to accomplish a rollover back to IRA B of the excess distribution within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3) was due to an error committed by Financial Institution C.

Taxpayer A represents that she maintains IRA B with Financial Institution C. Taxpayer A also maintains Account D, an individual account, with Financial Institution C. On June 5, 2013, Amount 1, a partial distribution of Taxpayer's RMD for 2013 was transferred from IRA B to Account D. On July 31, 2013, Amount 2, another partial distribution which completed Taxpayer A's full RMD for 2013 was transferred to Account D.

Due to an error by Financial Institution C, on December 3, 2013, another distribution from IRA B, totaling Amount 3, was transferred to Account D. This amount was in excess of Taxpayer A's RMD for 2013. Taxpayer A was unaware of the transfer of Amount 3 until she received her Form 1099-R for 2013. By that time, the 60-day waiver rollover period with respect to the distribution of Amount 3 had expired. In a letter dated March 21, 2014, Financial Institution C acknowledged that it had erroneously distributed Amount 3. Taxpayer A represents that she has not made use of Amount 3 in any manner.

Based on the facts and representations, you request a ruling that the Internal Revenue Service (Service) waive the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Code with respect to the distribution of Amount 3 from IRA B.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72 of the Code.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code defines, and provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) of the Code does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if:

(i) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3) of the Code).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408(d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408(a)(6).

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code.

Rev. Proc. 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359 (January 27, 2003) provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I), the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error, (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information presented and documentation submitted by Taxpayer A is consistent with her assertion that her failure to accomplish a timely rollover of Amount 3 was due to a service error of Financial Institution C, which resulted in an excess distribution from IRA B.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount 3 from IRA B. Taxpayer A is granted a period of 60 days from the issuance of this ruling letter to contribute Amount 3 back into IRA B or another rollover IRA account. Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3) of the Code, except the 60-day requirement, are met with respect to the contribution, such contribution will be considered a rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408(d)(3) of the Code.

This ruling does not authorize the rollover of any amounts that are required to be distributed by section 408(a)(6) of the Code.

No opinion is expressed as to the tax treatment of the transaction described herein under the provisions of any other section of either the Code or regulations which may be applicable thereto.

This letter is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.
