Subject: RE: Question about TMP

Hi

If [REDACTED] is the TMP and [REDACTED] is the person legally authorized to sign on behalf of [REDACTED], he may sign the statute extension despite the fact of [REDACTED]. The TMP is the LLC. Only a general partner (or member manager) may be a TMP. That is a state law concept. The fact that [REDACTED] is disregarded under federal tax laws cannot change state agency law and convert the owner of a DE into a general partner with power under state law to bind other partners.

Please let me know if you have any questions or if I can be of any further assistance.

Thanks,
