Dear :

This is in response to your request received on May 6, 2016, as supplemented by correspondence received June 7, 2016, in which you request a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested.

Taxpayer A represents that on February 3, 2014, he received a distribution equal to Amount 1 from IRA B, an individual retirement annuity ("IRA") described in section 408(b) of the Code, which was maintained by Financial Institution E.

Taxpayer A asserts that his failure to accomplish a rollover within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3)(A) was due to financial institution error.

Taxpayer A wanted to consolidate his retirement accounts and move IRA assets from Financial Institution E to Financial Institution F. Taxpayer A informed Financial Institution F of these intentions, and on February 14, 2014, Taxpayer A opened an IRA account, IRA D, with Financial Institution F. At this time, Taxpayer A also opened a non-IRA account, Non-IRA Account C, with Financial Institution F. On February 3, 2014, Taxpayer A received a total distribution from IRA B equal to Amount 1. Taxpayer A remitted the check to Financial Institution F for deposit into IRA D; however, Financial Institution F mistakenly deposited Amount 1 into Non-IRA Account C.

In early 2015, Taxpayer A received a Form 1099-R from Financial Institution E and a Form 5498 from Financial Institution F showing that Amount 1 had been contributed to IRA D. In preparing Taxpayer A's Federal income tax return, however, Taxpayer A's accountant noticed that the fair market value of IRA D was substantially less than Amount 1. After discussions with Financial Institution F, Taxpayer A discovered that Amount 1 had been mistakenly deposited into Non-IRA Account C. The submission is accompanied by a letter from Financial Institution F acknowledging the mistake. Taxpayer A represents that Amount 1 has not been used for any other purpose.

Based on the above facts and representations, Taxpayer A requests a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount 1 from IRA B.

Section 408(a) of the Code defines an IRA to mean a trust created or organized in the United States, and requires that the trustee be a bank or an approved non-bank trustee.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if:

(i) the entire amount received (including money or any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3)).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408(d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408(a)(6).

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary of the Treasury may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and 408(d)(3)(D) where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement.

Rev. Proc. 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359, provides that the Service will issue a ruling waiving the 60-day rollover requirement in cases where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster or other events beyond the reasonable control of the taxpayer. In determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error; (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information and documentation submitted are consistent with Taxpayer A's assertion that the failure to accomplish a rollover within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3)(A) was due to financial institution error.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(l) of the Code, the Service waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount 1 and Taxpayer A has 60 days from the issuance of this letter ruling to complete the rollover of Amount 1 to an IRA.

Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3) of the Code, except the 60-day requirement, will be met with respect to the contribution of Amount 1, Amount 1 will be considered a rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408(d)(3).

This ruling does not authorize the rollover of amounts that are required to be distributed by section 408(a)(6) of the Code.

No opinion is expressed as to the tax treatment of the transaction described herein under the provisions of any other section of either the Code or regulations which may be applicable thereto.

This letter is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter ruling is being sent to your authorized representative.
