Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated November 5, 2021, and subsequent correspondence, submitted on behalf of \underline{X} by its authorized representatives, requesting a ruling under § 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code).

FACTS

The information submitted states that \underline{X} was formed on $\underline{Date\ 1}$, under the laws of \underline{State} and elected to be classified as an S corporation effective $\underline{Date\ 2}$. Effective $\underline{Date\ 3}$, \underline{X} 's owners executed $\underline{Agreement\ 1}$. This agreement did not provide for identical rights to distribution and liquidation proceeds. Specifically, Section 4.2 of $\underline{Agreement\ 1}$ provided that distributions were to be made "in accordance with the Percentage Interest" of each member, while Section 7.2(b) of $\underline{Agreement\ 1}$ provided that liquidation proceeds were "to be distributed to the Members pro rata based on the relative credit balances in each such Member's Capital Account." These provisions of $\underline{Agreement\ 1}$ caused \underline{X} to have more than one class of stock under § 1361(b)(1)(D), and therefore terminated \underline{X} 's S election effective $\underline{Date\ 3}$.

Effective Date 4, \underline{X} 's owners executed Agreement 2. This agreement also did not provide for identical rights to distribution and liquidation proceeds. Specifically, Section 4.2 of Agreement 2 provided that distributions were to be made "in accordance with the Percentage Interest" of each member, while Section 7.2(b) of Agreement 2 provided that liquidation proceeds were "to be distributed to the Members pro rata based on the relative credit balances in each such Member's Capital Account." \underline{X} therefore continued to have more than one class of stock under § 1361(b)(1)(D) after the execution of Agreement 2. If \underline{X} 's S election had not terminated upon the execution of Agreement 1 effective Date 3, it would have terminated effective Date 4 upon the execution of Agreement 2.

 \underline{X} represents that on $\underline{Date\ 5}$, soon after it learned that the above provisions terminated its S corporation election, it executed an amended agreement (Agreement 3). This agreement eliminated the provisions that caused \underline{X} to have more than one class of stock.

 \underline{X} requests rulings that the termination of its S corporation election on $\underline{Date\ 3}$ was inadvertent within the meaning of § 1362(f) and that it will be treated as continuing to be an S corporation on and after $\underline{Date\ 3}$, provided that its S corporation election did not otherwise terminate. \underline{X} represents that the circumstances surrounding the termination of \underline{X} 's S corporation election were inadvertent and unintended. \underline{X} further represents that for each taxable year beginning $\underline{Date\ 2}$, \underline{X} and its shareholders have filed consistently with \underline{X} being an S corporation. In addition, \underline{X} and its shareholders agree to make any adjustments that may be required by the Secretary as a condition of obtaining relief under § 1362(f).

Section 1361(a)(1) provides that the term "S corporation" means, with respect to any taxable year, a small business corporation for which an election under § 1362(a) is in effect for the year.

Section 1361(b)(1) defines a "small business corporation" as a domestic corporation which is not an ineligible corporation and which does not (A) have more than 100 shareholders, (B) have as a shareholder a person (other than an estate, a trust described in § 1361(c)(2), or an organization described in § 1361(c)(6)) who is not an individual, (C) have a nonresident alien as a shareholder, and (D) have more than one class of stock.

Section 1.1361-1(I)(1) of the Income Tax Regulations provides that a corporation is generally treated as having only one class of stock if all outstanding shares of stock of the corporation confer identical rights to distribution and liquidation proceeds.

Section 1.1361-1(I)(2)(i) provides, in part, that the determination of whether all outstanding shares of stock confer identical rights to distribution and liquidation proceeds is made based on the corporate charter, articles of incorporation, bylaws, applicable state law, and binding agreements relating to distribution and liquidation proceeds (collectively, governing provisions).

Section 1362(a)(1) provides that, except as provided in § 1362(g), a small business corporation may elect to be an S corporation.

Section 1362(d)(2)(A) provides that an election under § 1362(a) shall be terminated whenever (at any time on or after the first day of the first taxable year for which the corporation is an S corporation) such corporation ceases to be a small business corporation. Section 1362(d)(2)(B) further provides that the termination shall be effective on and after the date of cessation.

Section 1362(f) provides, in part, that if (1) an election under § 1362(a) by any corporation (A) was not effective for the taxable year for which made (determined without regard to § 1362(b)(2)) by reason of a failure to meet the requirements of § 1361(b) or (B) was terminated under § 1362(d)(2), (2) the Secretary determines that the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination were inadvertent, (3) no later than a reasonable period of time after discovery of the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination, steps were taken so that the corporation for which the election was made or the termination occurred is a small business corporation, and (4) the corporation for which the election was made or the termination occurred, and each person who was a shareholder of the corporation at any time during the period specified pursuant to § 1362(f), agrees to make such adjustments (consistent with the treatment of the corporation as an S corporation) as may be required by the Secretary with respect to such period, then, notwithstanding the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination, the corporation will be treated as an S corporation during the period specified by the Secretary.

CONCLUSION

Based solely on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that \underline{X} 's S corporation election was terminated on $\underline{Date\ 3}$ as a result of \underline{X} having more than one class of stock. We conclude, however, that the circumstances that caused this termination were inadvertent within the meaning of § 1362(f). Therefore, under § 1362(f), \underline{X} will be treated as continuing to be an S corporation on and after $\underline{Date\ 3}$, provided that its S corporation election is otherwise valid and has not otherwise terminated under § 1362(d).

Except as specifically ruled upon above, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code. Specifically, we express or imply no opinion on whether \underline{X} is otherwise eligible to be an S corporation.

The rulings contained in this letter are based upon information and representations submitted by the taxpayer and accompanied by a penalty of perjury statement executed by an appropriate party. While this office has not verified any of the material submitted in support of the ruling request, it is subject to verification on examination.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer that requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that this ruling may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file with this office, we are sending a copy of this letter to \underline{X} 's authorized representatives.

Sincerely,

Richard T. Probst Senior Technician Reviewer, Branch 3 Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Passthroughs & Special Industries)
