Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated July 12, 2022, submitted on behalf of \underline{X} by \underline{X} 's authorized representative, requesting a ruling under § 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code).

FACTS

The information submitted states that \underline{X} was formed on $\underline{Date\ 1}$ under the laws of \underline{State} and elected to be an S corporation effective $\underline{Date\ 2}$. \underline{X} 's operating agreement, effective $\underline{Date\ 3}$, contained terms causing \underline{X} to have more than one class of stock under § 1361(b)(1)(D). The agreement included partnership provisions that failed to provide for identical distribution and liquidation rights and applied irrespective of whether X was a partnership. For instance, the agreement required \underline{X} to make liquidating distributions in proportion to each member's capital interest or capital account as computed under § 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv) of the Income Tax Regulations. Thus, \underline{X} 's S corporation election terminated on $\underline{Date 3}$, the effective date of \underline{X} 's operating agreement.

 \underline{X} represents that once it learned that its S corporation election had terminated on Date 3, it amended and restated its operating agreement, effective Date 4, to remove the terms causing \underline{X} to have more than one class of stock under § 1361(b)(1)(D).

 \underline{X} represents that the circumstances resulting in the termination of its S corporation election were inadvertent and not the result of retroactive tax planning or tax avoidance. In addition, \underline{X} represents that \underline{X} and its shareholders have filed consistently with \underline{X} being an S corporation effective $\underline{Date\ 3}$. In addition, \underline{X} and its shareholders agree to make any adjustments required as a condition of obtaining relief under § 1362(f) as may be required by the Secretary.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 1361(a)(1) provides that the term "S corporation" means, with respect to any taxable year, a small business corporation for which an election under § 1362(a) is in effect for the year.

Section 1361(b)(1) defines a "small business corporation" as a domestic corporation which is not an ineligible corporation and which does not (A) have more than 100 shareholders, (B) have as a shareholder a person (other than an estate, a trust described in § 1361(c)(2), or an organization described in § 1361(c)(6)) who is not an individual, (C) have a nonresident alien as a shareholder, and (D) have more than one class of stock.

Section 1.1361-1(I)(1) provides that a corporation is generally treated as having only one class of stock if all outstanding shares of stock of the corporation confer identical rights to distribution and liquidation proceeds.

Section 1.1361-1(I)(2)(i) provides, in part, that the determination of whether all outstanding shares of stock confer identical rights to distribution and liquidation proceeds is made based on the corporate charter, articles of incorporation, bylaws, applicable state law, and binding agreements relating to distribution and liquidation proceeds (collectively, governing provisions).

Section 1362(a)(1) provides that, except as provided in § 1362(g), a small business corporation may elect to be an S corporation.

Section 1362(d)(2)(A) provides that an election under § 1362(a) shall be terminated whenever (at any time on or after the first day of the first taxable year for which the corporation is an S corporation) such corporation ceases to be a small business corporation. Section 1362(d)(2)(B) further provides that the termination shall be effective on and after the date of cessation.

Section 1362(f) provides, in relevant part, that if (1) an election under § 1362(a) by any corporation (A) was not effective for the taxable year for which made (determined without regard to § 1362(b)(2)) by reason of a failure to meet the requirements of § 1361(b) or (B) was terminated under § 1362(d)(2), (2) the Secretary determines that the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination were inadvertent, (3) no later than a reasonable period of time after discovery of the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination, steps were taken so that the corporation for which the election was made or the termination occurred is a small business corporation, and (4) the corporation for which the election was made or the termination occurred, and each person who was a shareholder of the corporation at any time during the period specified pursuant to § 1362(f), agrees to make such adjustments (consistent with the treatment of the corporation as an S corporation) as may be required by the Secretary with respect to such period, then, notwithstanding the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination, the corporation will be treated as an S corporation during the period specified by the Secretary.

CONCLUSION

Based solely on facts submitted and representations made, we conclude that \underline{X} 's S corporation election terminated on $\underline{Date\ 3}$, as a result of \underline{X} having more than one class of stock. We conclude, however, that the circumstances resulting in the termination of \underline{X} 's S corporation election were inadvertent within the meaning of § 1362(f). Therefore, under § 1362(f), \underline{X} will be treated as continuing to be an S corporation from $\underline{Date\ 3}$ and thereafter, provided that its S corporation election was valid and not otherwise terminated under § 1362(d).

Except as specifically ruled upon above, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code. Specifically, we express or imply no opinion on whether \underline{X} is otherwise eligible to be an S corporation.

The ruling contained in this letter is based upon information and representations submitted by the taxpayer and accompanied by a penalty of perjury statement executed by an appropriate party. While this office has not verified any of the material submitted in support of the ruling request, it is subject to verification on examination.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

In accordance with a power of attorney on file with this office, we are sending a copy of this letter to \underline{X} 's authorized representative.

Sincerely,

/S/

Mary Beth Carchia Senior Technician Reviewer, Branch 3 Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Passthroughs & Special Industries)
