Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated May 31, 2023, submitted on behalf of Decedent's estate, requesting an extension of time under § 301.9100-1 and § 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations to make a qualified terminable interest property (QTIP) election under § 2056(b)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code).

The facts and representations submitted are as follows. On Date 1, Decedent established a revocable trust, Trust. Decedent died on Date 2, survived by Spouse. Trust became irrevocable upon Decedent's death.

Part II, Section 2 of Trust provides that upon the death of Decedent, the trustee shall divide Trust into two separate trusts, Marital Trust and Family Trust. Under Section 3, trustee shall annually or more often pay to Spouse or for her benefit all of the net income of Marital Trust. Trust further provides that principal may be paid to or for the benefit of Spouse as the trustee determines necessary for her health, maintenance and support in reasonable comfort. Part IV, Section 6 states Settlor's intention that the value of the property held by the trustee of any Marital Trust shall be available for the marital deduction allowable by the federal and state estate tax laws applicable to Decedent's estate.

Child is the executor of Decedent's estate. Accountant of Accounting Firm was engaged to prepare and timely file Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return and to make any necessary elections, including making a QTIP election, for Decedent's estate. On Date 3, the Form 706 was timely filed (under extension) on behalf of the estate. The Form 706 reported Decedent's Marital Trust assets as "all other property" on Schedule M and reported no "QTIP property." Thus, no QTIP election was made with respect to Marital Trust. After Form 706 was filed, the executor requested new counsel to review the filing to ensure it conformed with the intended estate planning. It was at this time that Decedent's Form 706 was reviewed and the failure to properly report Marital Trust on Schedule M and make the QTIP election was discovered.

You have requested an extension of time under §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 to make the QTIP election under § 2056(b)(7) to treat Marital Trust as QTIP property.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 2001(a) of the Code imposes a tax on the transfer of the taxable estate of every decedent who is a citizen or resident of the United States.

Section 2056(a) provides that, for purposes of the tax imposed by § 2001, the value of the taxable estate shall, except as limited by § 2056(b), be determined by deducting from the value of the gross estate an amount equal to the value of any interest in property which passes or has passed from the decedent to the surviving spouse, but only to the extent that such interest is included in determining the value of the gross estate.

Section 2056(b)(7)(A) provides that, in the case of qualified terminable interest property, for purposes of § 2056(a), such property shall be treated as passing to the surviving spouse, and for purposes of § 2056(b)(1)(A), no part of such property shall be treated as passing to any person other than the surviving spouse.

Section 2056(b)(7)(B)(i) defines the term "qualified terminable interest property" as property: (I) which passes from the decedent; (II) in which the surviving spouse has a qualifying income interest for life as defined in § 2056(b)(7)(B)(ii); and (III) to which an election under § 2056(b)(7) applies.

Section 2056(b)(7)(B)(v) provides that an election under § 2056(b)(7) with respect to any property shall be made by the executor on the return of tax imposed by § 2001. Such an election, once made, shall be irrevocable.

Section 20.2056(b)-7(b)(4)(i) of the Estate Tax Regulations provides that, in general, the election referred to in § 2056(b)(7)(B)(i)(III) and (v) is made on the return of tax imposed by § 2001. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “return of tax imposed by § 2001” means the last estate tax return filed by the executor on or before the due date of the return, including extensions or, if a timely return is not filed, the first estate tax return filed by the executor after the due date.

Section 301.9100-1(c) provides that the Commissioner has discretion to grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Internal Revenue Code except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Section 301.9100-3 provides the standards used to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make an election whose date is prescribed by a regulation (and not expressly provided by statute).

Requests for relief under § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides the evidence to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Section 301.9100-3(b)(1)(v) provides that a taxpayer is deemed to have acted reasonably and in good faith if the taxpayer reasonably relied on a qualified tax professional, including a tax professional employed by the taxpayer, and the tax professional failed to make, or advise the taxpayer to make, the election.

Based on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that the requirements of § 301.9100-3 have been satisfied. Therefore, Spouse, as the personal representative of Decedent’s estate, is granted an extension of time of 120 days from the date of this letter to make a QTIP election with respect to Marital Trust.

The election should be made on an amended Form 706 filed with the Internal Revenue Service Center at the following address: Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service Center, Stop 824G, 7940 Kentucky Drive, Florence, KY 41042-2915. A copy of this letter should be attached to the amended Form 706.
