Dear :

This ruling responds to Taxpayer’s request for a letter ruling dated Date 1. Specifically, Taxpayer requests an extension of time under sections 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 of the Income Tax Regulations, to (1) make a timely election under section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a)(2)(i) to be certified as a qualified opportunity fund (QOF), as defined in section 1400Z-2(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, and (2) for Taxpayer to be treated as a QOF, effective for its Year 1 taxable year, effective as of Date 2, as provided by section 1400Z-2(d) and section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a) of the Income Tax Regulations.

FACTS

Taxpayer is a limited liability company organized under the laws of State on Date 2. Taxpayer is classified as a partnership for U.S. Federal income tax purposes and has provisions in its operating agreement that state that its purpose is to be a QOF and to invest in qualified opportunity zone property as defined in section 1400Z-2(d)(1). Taxpayer's annual accounting period is the calendar year and uses the cash method of accounting. Year 1 is the first year of Taxpayer's operation and filing obligation.

Owner is the manager of Taxpayer. Manager is the sole member and manager of Owner. Accountant has prepared returns for Manager and his related entities for several years. Manager engaged Accountant to prepare Taxpayer's returns for Year 1 and relied upon Accountant to file the necessary forms to maintain Taxpayer's status as a QOF. Trust, established by Manager, made a capital contribution of $A to Taxpayer in Year 1.

On Date 3, Accountant timely filed an extension to file Taxpayer's Form 1065, U.S. Return of Partnership Income, for Year 1. Accountant was aware that the Taxpayer intended to elect to be a QOF, but Accountant was unaware of the need to file Form 8996, Qualified Opportunity Fund, with the return, because the tax software Accountant used to prepare the return did not indicate that the form was required. Therefore, Taxpayer timely filed its Form 1065, but Form 8996 was not included.

On or about Date 4, an examination of Trust began. The examination report proposed to disallow Trust's deferral of capital gain related to its contribution of capital to Taxpayer because Taxpayer had not filed Form 8996. The Trust subsequently filed an administrative protest to appeal the findings of the examination, which is now pending with the IRS Independent Office of Appeals. Taxpayer also filed Form 8082, Notice of Inconsistent Treatment or Administrative Adjustment Request (AAR), and Form 1065-X, Amended Return or Administrative Adjustment Request (AAR), for Year 1 with a Form 8996 attached on or around Date 1.

Taxpayer represents that granting of the relief under section 301.9100-3 will not result in a lower tax liability for the years affected by the election.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 1400Z-2(e)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations for rules for the certification of QOFs. Section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a)(2) of the Income Tax Regulations provides the rules for an entity to self-certify as a QOF. Section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a)(2)(i) provides that the entity electing to be certified as a QOF must do so annually on a timely filed return in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in the Internal Revenue Service forms or instructions, or in publications or guidance published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.

To self-certify as a QOF, a taxpayer must file Form 8996, with its tax return for the year to which the certification applies. The Form 8996 must be filed by the due date of the tax return (including extensions). The information provided indicates that Taxpayer filed its Form 1065 for Year 1, but did not attach its Form 8996. Taxpayer's Form 8996 was not filed by the due date of its federal income tax return (including extensions) because Accountant was unfamiliar with the need to file Form 8996 and therefore failed to include Form 8996 in the filed return.

Because section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a)(2)(i) sets forth the manner and timing for an entity to self-certify as a QOF, these elections are regulatory elections, as defined in section 301.9100-1(b).

Sections 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 provide the standards that the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make a regulatory election. Section 301.9100-3(a) provides that requests for extensions of time for regulatory elections (other than automatic extensions covered in section 301.9100-2) will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence (including affidavits) to establish that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith and the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Section 301.9100-3(b)(1) provides that a taxpayer is deemed to have acted reasonably and in good faith if the taxpayer—

(i) requests relief before the failure to make the regulatory election is discovered by the Service;

(ii) failed to make the election because of intervening events beyond the taxpayer's control;

(iii) failed to make the election because, after exercising reasonable diligence, the taxpayer was unaware of the necessity for the election;

(iv) reasonably relied on the written advice of the Service; or

(v) reasonably relied on a qualified tax professional, and the professional failed to make, or advise the taxpayer to make, the election.

In addition, section 301.9100-3(b)(3) provides that a taxpayer is deemed not to have acted reasonably and in good faith if the taxpayer—

(i) seeks to alter a return position for which an accuracy-related penalty has been or could be imposed under section 6662 at the time the taxpayer requests relief, and the new position requires or permits a regulatory election for which relief is requested;

- (ii) was fully informed in all material respects of the required election and related tax consequences but chose not to make the election; or
- (iii) uses hindsight in requesting relief. If specific facts have changed since the original deadline that make the election advantageous to a taxpayer, the Service will not ordinarily grant relief.

Section 301.9100-3(c)(1) provides that the Commissioner will grant a reasonable extension of time to make the regulatory election only when the interests of the Government will not be prejudiced by the granting of relief.

Section 301.9100-3(c)(1)(i) provides that the interests of the government are prejudiced if granting relief would result in a taxpayer having a lower tax liability in the aggregate for all taxable years affected by the election than the taxpayer would have had if the election had been timely made (taking into account the time value of money).

Section 301.9100-3(c)(1)(ii) provides that the interests of the government are ordinarily prejudiced if the taxable year in which the regulatory election should have been made or any taxable year that would have been affected by the election had it been timely made are closed by the period of limitations on assessment under section 6501(a) before the taxpayer's receipt of a ruling granting relief under this section.

CONCLUSION

Based on the facts and information submitted and the representations made, we conclude that Taxpayer has acted reasonably and in good faith, and that the granting of relief would not prejudice the interests of the government. Consequently, the Form 8996 attached to Taxpayer's Form 1065-X for Year 1, filed on or around Date 1, is considered timely filed, and Taxpayer has thereby made the election under section 1400Z-2 and section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a)(2)(i) to self-certify as a QOF for Year 1. Taxpayer should submit a copy of this letter ruling to the Service Center where Taxpayer files its returns along with a cover letter requesting that the Service associate this ruling with the Year 1 return.
