Dear :

This letter responds to your authorized representative's letter dated October 15, 2025, and subsequent correspondence, submitted on behalf of Decedent's estate, requesting an extension of time under § 301.9100-1 and § 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations to make a qualified terminable interest property (QTIP) election under § 2056(b)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code).

The facts and representations submitted are as follows. Decedent died on Date 1, survived by Spouse. Article V of Decedent's will bequeathed the residue of Decedent's estate to Marital Trust.

Article VII provides the terms of Marital Trust. Pursuant to Article VII, trustee shall distribute the net income to Spouse in installments no less often than annually, and trustee shall distribute amounts of principal as necessary to provide for Spouse's health, support, maintenance, or education. In addition, Spouse has the right to direct trustee to convert any unproductive property to productive property. During Spouse's lifetime, no income or principal shall be distributed to any person other than Spouse. Upon the death of Spouse, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to trusts established for Decedent's children pursuant to Article IX of Decedent's will.

Article XI provides that the executor shall make an election to treat property passing to Marital Trust as "qualified terminal interest property" as such term is defined in § 2056(b)(7).

Spouse, in her capacity as executor of Decedent's estate, engaged Accounting Firm and Attorney to prepare Decedent's Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, and to make any necessary elections, including a QTIP election. The Form 706 for Decedent's estate was timely filed on Date 2. On Schedule M of Form 706, the value of the property passing to Marital Trust was not listed as "QTIP property" but was mistakenly identified as "[a]ll other property." Thus, no QTIP election was made with respect to such property.

After the Form 706 was filed on Date 2, it was discovered that the property passing to Marital Trust was incorrectly reported on Schedule M of Form 706 and that a QTIP election should have been made for such property, in accordance with the provisions of Decedent's will. Decedent's estate filed a supplemental Form 706 on Date 3 to make the QTIP election for the property passing to Marital Trust.

You have requested an extension of time under § 301.9100-1 and § 301.9100-3 to make the QTIP election under § 2056(b)(7) to treat the Marital Trust property as QTIP property.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 2001(a) of the Code imposes a tax on the transfer of the taxable estate of every decedent who is a citizen or resident of the United States.

Section 2056(a) provides that, for purposes of the tax imposed by § 2001, the value of the taxable estate shall, except as limited by § 2056(b), be determined by deducting from the value of the gross estate an amount equal to the value of any interest in property which passes or has passed from the decedent to the surviving spouse, but only to the extent that such interest is included in determining the value of the gross estate.

Section 2056(b)(1) provides the general rule that no deduction shall be allowed under § 2056(a) for an interest passing to the surviving spouse if, on the lapse of time, on the occurrence of an event or contingency, or on the failure of an event or contingency to occur, the interest will terminate or fail.

Section 2056(b)(7)(A) provides that, in the case of QTIP, such property shall be treated as passing to the surviving spouse, and for purposes of § 2056(b)(1)(A), no part of such property shall be treated as passing to any person other than the surviving spouse.

Section 2056(b)(7)(B)(i) defines the term “QTIP” as property: (I) which passes from the decedent; (II) in which the surviving spouse has a qualifying income interest for life as defined in § 2056(b)(7)(B)(ii); and (III) to which an election under § 2056(b)(7) applies.

Section 2056(b)(7)(B)(ii) provides that the surviving spouse has a qualifying income interest for life if: (I) the surviving spouse is entitled to all the income from the property payable annually or at more frequent intervals, or has a usufruct interest for life in the property, and (II) no person has a power to appoint any part of the property to any person other than the surviving spouse.

Section 2056(b)(7)(B)(v) provides that an election under § 2056(b)(7) with respect to any property shall be made by the executor on the return of tax imposed by § 2001. Such an election, once made, shall be irrevocable.

Section 20.2056(b)-7(b)(4)(i) of the Estate Tax Regulations generally provides that the QTIP election is made on the last estate tax return filed by the executor on or before the due date of the return, including extensions, or, if a timely return is not filed, the first estate tax return filed by the executor after the due date.

Section 301.9100-1(c) provides that the Commissioner has discretion to grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Internal Revenue Code except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Section 301.9100-3 provides the standards used to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make an election whose date is prescribed by a regulation (and not expressly provided by statute).

Requests for relief under § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides the evidence to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Section 301.9100-3(b)(1)(v) provides that a taxpayer is deemed to have acted reasonably and in good faith if the taxpayer reasonably relied on a qualified tax professional, including a tax professional employed by the taxpayer, and the tax professional failed to make, or advise the taxpayer to make, the election.

Based on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that the requirements of § 301.9100-3 have been satisfied. Accordingly, Decedent's estate is granted an extension of time to Date 3, the date the supplemental Form 706 was filed, to make a QTIP election with respect to the Marital Trust property. A copy of this letter along with a copy of the filed supplemental Form 706 should be forwarded to:

Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service Center, Attn: E&G, Stop 824G,

In accordance with the Power of Attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to your authorized representative.
