Dear :

This letter responds to your authorized representative's letter dated December 23, 2025, and subsequent correspondence, requesting an extension of time under § 2642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code) and § 26.2642-7 of the Generation-Skipping Transfer (GST) Tax Regulations to make an election under § 2632(c)(5) to have the automatic allocation of generation-skipping transfer (GST) exemption rules under § 2632(c)(1) not apply with respect to certain transfers to trusts.

The facts and representations submitted are summarized as follows:

On Date 1 in Year 1, a date prior to January 1, 2001, Taxpayer established Trust 1, a trust intended to qualify as a qualified personal residence trust (QPRT) within the meaning of § 2702(a)(3)(A)(ii). Taxpayer transferred Residence to Trust 1 on Date 1. Under the terms of Trust 1, Taxpayer retained the exclusive use of Residence for a term of Y years. Under the terms of Trust 1, Residence was distributed to Trust 2 at the end of Taxpayer's term interest.

On Date 2 in Year 1, a date prior to January 1, 2001, Taxpayer created an irrevocable trust, Trust 2, for the benefit of Taxpayer's children and their issue. Taxpayer established Trust 2 to hold, protect, and conserve Residence at the end of Trust 1's term interest. Trust 2 has GST potential. Taxpayer reported the transfers to Trust 1 and Trust 2 on a timely-filed Form 709, United States Gift (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return for Year 1.

On Date 3 in Year 2, Taxpayer transferred $x to Trust 2. Taxpayer reported the transfer to Trust 2 on a timely-filed Form 709 for Year 2.

On Date 4 in Year 3, Taxpayer established and funded two grantor retained annuity trusts (GRATs), Trust 3 and Trust 4. Under the terms of Trust 3 and Trust 4, Taxpayer retained the right to receive annual payments from each trust for a specified period of years. At the end of each trust's term in Year 4, any remaining assets in Trust 3 and Trust 4 were distributed to Trust 2. Taxpayer reported these Year 3 transfers on a timely-filed Form 709 for Year 3.

On Date 5, in Year 4, Taxpayer established and funded two additional GRATs, Trust 5 and Trust 6. Under the terms of Trust 5 and Trust 6, Taxpayer retained the right to receive annual payments from each trust for a specified period of years. At the end of each trust's term in Year 5, any remaining assets in Trust 5 and Trust 6 were distributed to Trust 2. Taxpayer reported these Year 4 transfers on a timely-filed Form 709 for Year 4.

Taxpayer retained Firm to advise her with respect to her estate and tax planning and to file all income and gift tax returns for all of the years at issue. However, Firm did not advise Taxpayer of the ability to elect out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption pursuant to § 2632(c)(5)(A)(i) with respect to the transfers to Trust 1, Trust 2, Trust 3, Trust 4, Trust 5, and Trust 6. In particular, with respect to the transfer to Trust 1 made in Year 1, Firm did not advise Taxpayer of the rules for electing out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption on the Form 709 before the close of the estate tax inclusion period (ETIP) occurring in Year 2. Further, Firm failed to advise Taxpayer of the rules for electing out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption for the Year 2 transfer of $x to Trust 2. With respect to the transfers made to Trust 3 and Trust 4, Firm did not advise Taxpayer of the rules for electing out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption on the Form 709 before the close of the ETIP occurring in Year 4. With respect to the transfers made to Trust 5 and Trust 6, Firm did not advise Taxpayer of the rules for electing out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption on the Form 709 before the close of the ETIP occurring in Year 5.

As a result of Firm's failure to advise Taxpayer of the ability to elect out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption, Taxpayer failed to make an election on Taxpayer's Forms 709 for Years 2, 4, and 5 to opt out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption to the transfers Taxpayer made to Trust 1, Trust 2, Trust 3, Trust 4, Trust 5, and Trust 6. In Year 6, an employee of Firm performed a review of Taxpayer's estate plan and as part of that review, discovered the failure to opt out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption for these transfers.

Taxpayer requests an extension of time under § 2642(g) and § 26.2642-7 to elect out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption under § 2632(c)(5)(A)(i) with respect to Taxpayer's Year 1 transfer to Trust 1, Year 2 transfer to Trust 2, Year 3 transfers to Trusts 3 and 4, and Year 4 transfers to Trusts 5 and 6.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 2601 provides that a tax is imposed on every generation-skipping transfer (GST). Section 2611(a) provides that the term "generation-skipping transfer" means: (1) a taxable distribution; (2) a taxable termination; and (3) a direct skip.

Section 2602 provides that the amount of GST tax is the taxable amount multiplied by the applicable rate. Section 2641(a) defines the applicable rate as the product of the maximum federal estate tax rate and the inclusion ratio with respect to the transfer.

Section 2631(a) provides that, for purposes of determining the inclusion ratio, every individual shall be allowed a GST exemption amount which may be allocated by such individual (or his executor) to any property with respect to which such individual is the transferor. Section 2631(b) provides that any allocation under § 2631(a), once made, shall be irrevocable.

Section 2632(a)(1) provides that an individual's GST exemption may be allocated at any time on or before the date prescribed for filing the estate tax return for such individual's estate (determined with regard to extensions), regardless of whether such return is required to be filed. Section 2632(a)(2) provides that the manner in which allocations are to be made shall be prescribed by forms or regulations issued by the Secretary.

Section 2632(c)(1) provides that if any individual makes an indirect skip during such individual's lifetime, any unused portion of such individual's GST exemption shall be allocated to the property transferred to the extent necessary to make the inclusion ratio for such property zero. If the amount of the indirect skip exceeds such unused portion, the entire unused portion shall be allocated to the property transferred.

Section 2632(c)(3)(A) provides that the term “indirect skip” means any transfer of property (other than a direct skip) subject to the tax imposed by chapter 12 made to a GST trust.

Section 2632(c)(3)(B) provides, in relevant part, that the term “GST trust” means a trust that could have a GST with respect to the transferor unless an exception listed in § 2632(c)(3)(B)(i)-(vi) applies.

Section 2632(c)(4) provides that for purposes of § 2632(c), an indirect skip to which § 2642(f) applies shall be deemed to have been made only at the close of the ETIP. The fair market value of such transfer shall be the fair market value of the trust property at the close of the ETIP.

Section 2632(c)(5)(A)(i) provides, in relevant part, that an individual may elect to have the automatic allocation rules of § 2632(c)(1) not apply to — (I) an indirect skip, or (II) any or all transfers made by such individual to a particular trust.

Section 2632(c)(5)(B)(ii) provides, in relevant part, that the election under § 2632(c)(5)(A)(i)(II) may be made on a timely-filed gift tax return for the calendar year for which the election is to become effective.

Section 26.2632-1(b)(2)(i) provides that in the case of an indirect skip made after December 31, 2000, to which § 2642(f) (relating to transfers subject to the ETIP) does not apply, the transferor's unused GST exemption is automatically allocated to the property transferred (but not in excess of the fair market value of the property on the date of the transfer). This automatic allocation is effective whether or not a Form 709 is filed reporting the transfer and is effective as of the date of the transfer to which it relates. An automatic allocation is irrevocable after the due date of the Form 709 for the calendar year in which the transfer is made.

Section 26.2632-1(b)(2)(ii) provides that, except as otherwise provided, the transferor may prevent the automatic allocation of GST exemption with regard to an indirect skip by making an election as provided in § 26.2632-1(b)(2)(iii).

Section 26.2632-1(b)(2)(iii)(A) provides, in relevant part, that a transferor may prevent the automatic allocation of GST exemption (elect out) with respect to any transfer or transfers constituting an indirect skip made to a trust or to one or more separate shares that are treated as separate trusts under § 26.2654-1(a)(1). A transferor may elect out with respect to: (1) one or more prior-year transfers subject to § 2642(f) (regarding ETIPs) made by the transferor to a specified trust or trusts; (2) one or more (or all) current-year transfers made by the transferor to a specified trust or trusts; (3) one or more (or all) future transfers made by the transferor to a specified trust or trusts; and (4) all future transfers made by the transferor to all trusts (whether or not in existence at the time of the election out); or (5) any combination of (1) through (4).

Section 26.2632-1(b)(2)(iii)(B) provides that to elect out, the transferor must attach an election out statement to a Form 709 filed within the time period provided in § 26.2632-1(b)(2)(iii)(C). In general, the election out statement must identify the trust, and specifically must provide that the transferor is electing out of the automatic allocation of GST exemption with respect to the described transfer or transfers. Under § 26.2632-1(b)(2)(iii)(C), to elect out, the Form 709 with the attached election out statement must be filed on or before the due date for timely filing the Form 709 for the calendar year in which: (1) for a transfer subject to § 2642(f), the ETIP closes; or (2) for all other elections out, the first transfer to be covered by the election out was made.

Section 26.2632-1(c)(1)(i) provides that a direct skip or an indirect skip that is subject to an ETIP is deemed to have been made only at the close of the ETIP. The transferor may prevent the automatic allocation of GST exemption to a direct skip or an indirect skip by electing out of the automatic allocation rules at any time prior to the due date of the Form 709 for the calendar year in which the close of the ETIP occurs (whether or not any transfer was made in the calendar year for which the Form 709 was filed, and whether or not a Form 709 otherwise would be required to be filed for that year).

Section 2642(b)(1)(A) provides that, except as provided in § 2642(f), if the allocation of the GST exemption to any transfers of property is made on a gift tax return filed on or before the date prescribed by § 6075(b) for such transfer or is deemed to be made under § 2632(b)(1) or (c)(1), the value of such property for purposes of § 2642(a) shall be its value as finally determined for purposes of chapter 12 (within the meaning of § 2001(f)(2)), or, in the case of an allocation deemed to have been made at the close of an estate tax inclusion period, its value at the time of the close of the estate tax inclusion period.

Section 2642(f)(1) provides that for purposes of determining the inclusion ratio, if an individual makes an inter vivos transfer of property, and the value of such property would be includible in the gross estate of such individual under chapter 11 if such individual died immediately after making such transfer (other than by reason of § 2035), any allocation of GST exemption to such property shall not be made before the close of the ETIP (and the value of such property shall be determined under § 2642(f)(2)).

Section 2642(f)(3) provides that for purposes of § 2642(f), the term “estate tax inclusion period” means any period after the transfer described in § 2642(f)(1) during which the value of the property involved in such transfer would be includible in the gross estate of the transferor under chapter 11 if the transferor died.

Section 2642(g)(1)(A) provides, generally, that the Secretary shall by regulation prescribe such circumstances and procedures under which extensions of time will be granted to make an allocation of GST exemption described in § 2642(b)(1) or (2), and an election under § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5).

Section 2642(g)(1)(B) provides that in determining whether to grant relief under § 2642(g)(1), the Secretary shall take into account all relevant circumstances, including evidence of intent contained in the trust instrument or instrument of transfer and such other factors as the Secretary deems relevant. For purposes of determining whether to grant relief, the time for making the allocation (or election) shall be treated as if not expressly prescribed by statute.

Section 26.2642-7 sets forth the procedures for requesting an extension of time to make an allocation of GST exemption described in § 2642(b)(1) or (2), and an election under § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5), and the standards used to determine whether relief may be granted.

Section 26.2642-7(d)(1) provides that requests for relief will be granted when and to the extent that the transferor or the executor of the transferor's estate provides evidence establishing to the satisfaction of the IRS that the transferor or the executor of the transferor's estate acted reasonably and in good faith, and that the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Section 26.2642-7(d)(2) provides a nonexclusive list of factors that will be considered in determining whether the transferor or the executor of the transferor's estate acted reasonably and in good faith for purposes of § 26.2642-7, including: (i) the intent of the transferor to timely allocate GST exemption to a transfer or to timely make an election under § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5); (ii) intervening events beyond the control of the transferor that caused the failure to allocate GST exemption to a transfer or to make an election under § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5); (iii) lack of awareness, despite the exercise of reasonable diligence, by the transferor or the executor of the transferor’s estate, taking into account the experience of the transferor or the executor of the transferor’s estate and the complexity of the GST tax issue, as the cause of the failure to allocate GST exemption to a transfer or to make an election under § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5); (iv) consistency by the transferor with regard to the allocation of the transferor’s GST exemption to one or more trusts or skip persons; and (v) reasonable reliance by the transferor or the executor of the transferor’s estate on the advice of a qualified tax professional.

Section 26.2642-7(d)(3) provides a nonexclusive list of factors that will be considered to determine whether the interests of the government would be prejudiced for purposes of § 26.2642-7, including: (i) an attempt to benefit from hindsight; (ii) the timing of the request for relief, including any delay by the transferor or the executor of the transferor’s estate in the filing of the request for relief that was intended to deprive the Internal Revenue Service of a sufficient period of time in which to challenge any element of the transfer that is the subject of the request for relief; (iii) the occurrence and effect of an intervening taxable termination or taxable distribution between the time for making a timely allocation of GST exemption or a timely election described in § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5) and the time at which the request for relief was filed; and (iv) certain circumstances involving the expiration of a period of limitations on the assessment or collection of transfer taxes.

Based upon the facts submitted (including affidavits from Taxpayer and Taxpayer's advisors, contemporaneous documentation, and other additional lifetime transfers) and the representations made, we conclude that the requirements of § 26.2642-7 have been satisfied. Accordingly, Taxpayer is granted an extension of time of 120 days from the date of this letter to elect out of the automatic allocation rules under § 2632(c)(5)(A)(i).

The elections should be made in the following manner: The election for Taxpayer's Year 1 transfer to Trust 1 should be made on an amended Form 709 for Year 2 (the close of the ETIP). The election for Taxpayer's Year 2 transfer to Trust 2 should be made on an amended Form 709 for Year 2. The election for Taxpayer's Year 3 transfers to Trust 3 and Trust 4 should be made on an amended Form 709 for Year 4 (the close of the ETIP). The election for Taxpayer's Year 4 transfers to Trust 5 and Trust 6 should be made on an amended Form 709 for Year 5 (the close of the ETIP).

The amended Forms 709 should be filed with the Internal Revenue Service Center at the following address: Internal Revenue Service Center, Attn: E&G, Stop 824G, 7940 Kentucky Drive, Florence, KY 41042-2915. You should attach a copy of this letter to the amended Forms 709.
