Dear :

This letter responds to a letter received June 15, 1999, and subsequent correspondence submitted by X's authorized representative on behalf of X, requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted states that X was incorporated on D1. A, the president of X, represents that X was intended to be an S corporation effective for X's Year 1 taxable year. This intent is indicated by X's Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number. A further represents that X's shareholders misunderstood the filing requirements for the timely filing of a Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, effective for X's Year 1 taxable year. A Form 2553 was timely filed for X effective for X's Year 2 taxable year. Therefore, no Form 2553 was timely filed for X effective for X's Year 1 taxable year. X filed a Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation, for Year 1, and X's shareholders filed Forms 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, consistent with the treatment of X as an S corporation.

Section 1362(b)(5) of the Code provides that if -- (A) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) for making such election for such taxable year or no such election is made for any taxable year, and (B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make such election, the Secretary may treat such an election as timely made for such taxable year.

Based solely on the facts and the representations submitted, we conclude that X has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation for X's Year 1 taxable year. Accordingly, provided that X makes an election to be an S corporation by filing a completed Form 2553 with the appropriate service center effective for its Year 1 taxable year, within 60 days following the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made for X's Year 1 taxable year. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553.

Except as specifically set forth above, no opinion is expressed concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code, including whether X was or is a small business corporation under § 1361(b) of the Code.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being forwarded to X's authorized representative.

Sincerely yours,

J. THOMAS HINES
