DISCUSSION

I.R.C. § 6501(a) provides generally that the amount of any tax shall be assessed within three years after the relevant tax return was filed. Under I.R.C. § 6501(c)(4), the Service and a taxpayer may consent in writing to an extension of the time for making an assessment if the consent is executed before the expiration of the previously existing period, i.e., either the original statutory period set forth in I.R.C. § 6501(a) or an extended period established in a prior written extension agreement between the parties. A Form 872, Consent to Extend the Time to Assess Tax, is used to so extend the limitations period.

1. What entity is the proper entity to execute a Form 872 for [redacted] for the taxable years ending [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted]?

[redacted] files its own Form 1120F, U.S. Income Tax Return of a Foreign Corporation. The existence of [redacted] has not been altered by any of the transactions described by the taxpayer. Therefore, the appropriate entity to execute a Form 872, Consent to Extend the Statute of Limitations on Assessment, for [redacted] is [redacted].

Neither I.R.C. § 6501(c)(4) nor the regulations thereunder specify who may sign consents. The Service therefore applies the rules applicable to the execution of the original returns to the execution of Forms 872. Rev. Rul. 83-41, 1983-1 C.B. 399, clarified and amplified, Rev. Rul. 84-165, 1984-2 C.B. 305.

I.R.C. § 6061 provides that any return, statement or other document made under any internal revenue law must be signed in accordance with the applicable forms or regulations. I.R.C. § 6062 provides that a corporation's income tax return must be signed by the president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer or other officer duly authorized to act on behalf of the corporation. Accordingly, any such corporate officer may sign a Form 872, whether or not that individual signed the related corporate income tax return. Rev. Rul. 84-165, 1984-2 C.B. 305.

Based upon the above, a Form 872 extending the assessment limitations period for the taxable years ending [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] of [redacted] should be executed by an authorized officer of [redacted].

2. What specific language should be used on the Form 872 for [redacted] for the taxable years ending [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted]?

We suggest that the following language be used in a Form 872 to extend the taxable years ending [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] of [redacted]:

[redacted] (EIN [redacted])

3. What entity is the proper entity to execute a Form 872 for [REDACTED] for the taxable years ending [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]?

Pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-77(a), the common parent of a group of affiliated corporations filing a consolidated income tax return for a particular consolidated return year is the sole agent for each member of the group and, as such, is authorized to act in its own name in all matters relating to each group member's income tax liability for its tax year included in that consolidated income tax return. Pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-77(c), unless there is an agreement to the contrary, a Form 872 entered into by a group's common parent for a particular consolidated return year will apply to extend the period of limitations on assessment of income tax for the tax year of each group member included in that consolidated return.

Further, under Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-77(a), a consolidated group's common parent for a particular consolidated return year remains the sole agent for the other members of the group for such year so long as the common parent continues its corporate existence, whether or not consolidated returns are filed in subsequent years and whether or not one or more subsidiaries have become or have ceased to be members of the group. See Treas. Reg. § 1502-77(a)1; Southern Pacific v. Commissioner, 84 T.C. 395, 401 (1985).

With respect to the relevant transactions as described by the taxpayer, we note that [REDACTED] continues to exist as the common parent of the affiliated companies with which it files a consolidated return. Based on the foregoing, [REDACTED] remains the appropriate entity to execute a Form 872, Consent to Extend the Statute of Limitations on Assessment with respect to itself and the affiliated companies with which it files a consolidated return.

Neither I.R.C. § 6501(c)(4) nor the regulations thereunder specify who may sign consents. The Service therefore applies the rules applicable to the execution of the original returns to the execution of Forms 872. Rev. Rul. 83-41, 1983-1 C.B. 399, clarified and amplified, Rev. Rul. 84-165, 1984-2 C.B. 305.

I.R.C. § 6061 provides that any return, statement or other document made under any internal revenue law must be signed in accordance with the applicable forms or regulations. I.R.C. § 6062 provides that a corporation's income tax return must be signed by the president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer or other officer duly authorized to act on behalf of the corporation. Accordingly, any such corporate officer may sign a Form 872, whether or not that individual signed the related corporate income tax return. Rev. Rul. 84-165, 1984-2 C.B. 305.

Based upon the above, a Form 872 extending the assessment limitations period for the taxable years ending [redacted] and [redacted] of [redacted] should be executed by an authorized officer of [redacted].

4. What specific language should be used on the Form 872 for [redacted] for the taxable years ending [redacted] and [redacted]?

We suggest that the following language be used in a Form 872 to extend the taxable years ending [redacted] and [redacted] of [redacted]:

[redacted] (EIN [redacted]) *

On the bottom on the front page of the Form 872, include the following:

* This is with respect to the [redacted] for the taxable years ending [redacted] and [redacted].

PROCEDURAL CONSIDERATIONS

Please note that Section 3461 of the I.R.S. Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998, codified in I.R.C. § 6501(c)(4)(B), requires the Service, each time that it requests a taxpayer to extend the limitations period, to advise the taxpayer of the right (i) to refuse to extend the statute of limitations on assessment, or, in the alternative, (ii) to limit an extension to particular issues or for specific periods of time. To satisfy this requirement, you may provide Publication 1035, "Extending the Tax Assessment Period," to the taxpayers when you solicit the consents. Alternatively, you may advise the taxpayers in some other written form of the I.R.C. § 6501(c)(4)(B) requirement. In any event, you should document your actions in this regard in the case files.

In addition to the recommendations made herein, we further recommend that you pay strict attention to the rules set forth in the IRM. Specifically, the IRM requires use of Letter 907(DO) to solicit a Form 872, Letter 928(DO) as a follow-up letter to Letter 907(DO) (when appropriate), and Letter 929(DO) to transmit a copy of the executed consent to the taxpayer. See IRM Handbook No. 121.2.22.3 and No. 121.2.22.4.2. Dated copies of these letters should be retained in the case file(s) as directed. When the signed Forms 872 are received from the taxpayers, the responsible manager - that is, one who reports to the Director of an LMSB Industry Group - should promptly sign and date them in accordance with Treasury Regulation § 301.6501(c)-1(d) and IRM, Handbook No. 121.2.22.5.10. The manager must also update the respective statutes of limitations in the continuous case management statute control files and properly annotate Form 895 or equivalent. See IRM, Handbook No. 121.2.22.5.11(1)(g). In the event a Form 872 becomes separated from the file or lost, these other documents would become invaluable to establish the agreement.
