IRS SHUTDOWN CONTINGENCY PLAN

The IRS Shutdown Contingency Plan was recently reviewed to assure appropriate plans and procedures were in place should plan implementation be required during fiscal year 2011.

If the IRS were confronted by a shutdown, particularly during tax filing season, numerous other issues would need to be analyzed. The tax filing season consists of an enormously concentrated set of operational tasks coordinated between the IRS and the tax return preparer community which could threaten the integrity of the federal tax collection process. Among other considerations, during a shutdown, the IRS would need to analyze the capacity of software vendors to store pending tax return filings, the length of time required for the IRS to catch up on a substantial backlog of paper and electronic filings, and the overall volume of telephone inquiries from taxpayers trying to ascertain where their filing stands in the process. Additionally, not processing electronic tax returns for a significant period of time could have substantial negative effects on voluntary tax compliance. In a shutdown during the filing season, the IRS would assess the situation and likely bring back additional personnel as needed to protect government property, which includes the revenues of the United States collected by the IRS.

The IRS Shutdown Contingency Plan includes specifics for:

- Identifying employees subject to or exempt from emergency furlough (page 8, step 2).
- Communicating with employees, managers, supervisors, Treasury officials, Congressional staff, NTEU and the media (page 8, step 1). The IRS Communication Plan includes communications to notify employees (shutdown and recall), appeals rights, etc
- Summarizing the plan according to Office of Management and Budget (OMB) MB Circular A-11, Section 124 (page 3).
- Employee Recall (page 12).
- Post-implementation bargaining (page 12).

These procedures are detailed under Shutdown Preparation, specifically, Section E.

PURPOSE

This Plan is developed for implementation during a lapse in annual appropriations to comply with the requirements of the Antideficiency Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 1341 and 1342. The Act prohibits agencies from obligating funds exceeding, or in advance of, appropriations and from employing personnel during a lapse in appropriations except to protect life or property.

During a lapse in annual appropriations, the IRS may continue the following categories of activities, which fall under established exceptions to the Antideficiency Act:

A. Activities Otherwise Authorized by Law

During a shutdown, agencies may continue performing activities to the extent such activities are (1) funded with appropriations that do not expire at the end of the fiscal year, i.e., multi-year and indefinite appropriations, which do not require enactment of annual appropriations legislation; (2) authorized by statutes that expressly permit obligations in advance of appropriations; and (3) authorized by necessary implication from the specific terms of duties that have been imposed on, or of authorities that have been invested in, the agency. See 43 Op. Att'y Gen. 293, 296-301 (1981). Accordingly, certain agency functions funded through annual appropriations may continue despite a lapse in their appropriations because the lawful continuation of other activities necessarily implies that these functions must continue as well. See O.L.C. Opinion (Aug. 16, 1995). For instance, because the Government funds Social Security payments out of an indefinite appropriation, and therefore may continue making these payments during a shutdown, IRS employees who support this function may continue doing so during a shutdown, even though their salaries come out of annual appropriations. See generally 43 Op. Att'y Gen. at 298.

B. Activities Necessary to Protect Government Property

Relevant authority has established that tax revenues constitute Government property which the Service must safeguard during a lapse in appropriations. See Memorandum for Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies, Agency Operations in the Absence of Appropriations, Office of Management and Budget (Nov. 17, 1981); Memorandum for the Assistant Secretary (Administration), Operating During a Hiatus in Appropriations, General Counsel of the Treasury 4 (Sept. 2, 1982). Accordingly, during a lapse in appropriations, the Service may continue processing electronic tax returns to insure the protection of those returns that contain remittances.

The activities necessary for the Service to collect taxes extend to maintaining certain taxpayer services that enable taxpayers to meet their filing obligation. Specifically, an interruption during the filing season of the ongoing, regular activities of IRS service centers and call sites could significantly impede the Service's ability to collect taxes. If a shutdown occurs during the filing season, therefore, "tax collecting activity," which is an established excepted function to protect property, may encompass operating service centers and call sites to the extent necessary to enable taxpayers to meet their filing obligation.

In addition, as a practical matter, the IRS's automated tax processing system would not allow for an interruption during the filing season in processing electronically filed tax returns of any kind, whether involving remittances or refunds. Such an interruption, particularly during April, would disrupt tax collection in general, placing at risk the Service's ability to secure Government revenue during the current year as well as threatening voluntary compliance in current and future years. In a shutdown during the filing season, therefore, to insure the protection of Government revenue, the IRS would have to process all electronically filed returns.

Activities necessary to protect other types of Government property, including computer data and Federal lands and buildings, may continue during a shutdown as well.

C. Activities Necessary for Orderly Agency Shutdown

The final category of Service functions excepted during a lapse in appropriations consists of those related to shutting down the agency. The Attorney General has stated that activities authorized by "necessary implication" from other authorized duties include those associated with "minimal obligations to closing the agency." O.L.C. Opinion (Aug. 16, 1995). Accordingly, consistent practice over time "has provided for the orderly termination of those functions that may not continue during a period of lapsed appropriations.” Id. During a Government shutdown, the Service may therefore perform those functions necessary to closing down agency functions that may not continue.

IRS SERVICEWIDE SUMMARY OF SHUTDOWN IMPACT

The IRS Shutdown Contingency Plan for fiscal year 2011 reflects a total of 23,176 employees (20.85% of the total employee population as of 3/26/2011) are designated as “excepted” and would be retained in the case of a shutdown in order to protect life and property.

Allowing for the exemption of employees engaged in law enforcement and those funded by other than annual appropriations per the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-11, Section 124 (Agency Operations in the Absence of Appropriations), the number of excepted positions is reduced to 21,015 or 19.07%. Accordingly, the total number of employees categorized as “excepted” by IRS operational and functional division is above the five percent (5%) threshold established by the OMB.

1. Estimated time to complete shutdown of “non-excepted” activities	Up to ½ workday
2. Total number of employees expected to be employed prior to implementation of the shutdown plan (direct and reimbursable)	111,133 (as of 03/26/2011)
3. Number of “excepted” employees authorized to be retained under this plan: ¹
• Compensated by other than annual appropriations [A1 & A2]	13
• Mandated activities [A3]	16
• Employees engaged in the protection of life and property [B1]	21,002
• Engaged in Law Enforcement (Criminal Investigation) [B2]	2,136
• Employees performing shutdown activities [C]	9
• Total number of “excepted” employees	23,176
• Percent of total employees “excepted” [23,176/111,133]	20.85%
4. Number and percent of total employees “excepted” to Protect Life and Property who are not engaged in law enforcement or paid by other than annual appropriations [Total – (A1+A2+B1)] or [A3+B1+C]	21,015 19.07%

EFFECTING THE PLAN

This plan will become effective after official notification is received from the Department of the Treasury, which may include additional guidance from the Office of Personnel Management and the Office of Management and Budget, that a lapse in appropriations is possible or in effect.

¹ Refer to Appendix B for a summary of excepted employees by category

IRS FY 2011 Shutdown Contingency Plan

The notification process occurs as follows:

- 1) the Department of the Treasury will Contact the IRS;
- 2) the Deputy Commissioner for Operations Support contacts the IRS Human Capital Officer;
- 3) the IRS Human Capital Officer contacts the National Treasury Employees Union (NTEU) President, Chief Counsel and the Heads of Office;
- 4) The Human Capital Office (HCO) begins preparation for an orderly shutdown based on the conditions of the directive(s). The shutdown and reactivation of the IRS are described in the following three sections of the plan:
 - SHUTDOWN PREPARATION
 - SHUTDOWN IMPLEMENTATION
 - REACTIVATION OF FUNCTIONS

A. SERVICE CONTACT

The shutdown preparation phase begins when the Department of the Treasury officially advises IRS that a lapse in appropriations is possible. Constant communication between the Department and the IRS is required. To facilitate this activity a “service contact” and an “alternate” have been designated to communicate events as they occur and to answer questions relevant to this process. For these reasons the following information is provided:

Service Contact: Deputy Commissioner for Operations Support

Alternate: Deputy Commissioner, Services and Enforcement

B. CURRENT LIST OF FUNCTIONS

Business unit managers must review their Functional Activity/Program Office/Positions beginning on page 13 of this document, and if a furlough occurs, notify their employees as to whether they are designated “Excepted” or “Non-Excepted” based on how their work activities are classified.

C. EXCEPTED ACTIVITIES

Category A: Authorized by Law and Funded

Excepted activities are those authorized by law and funded by multi-year, no-year, and revolving funds or advance appropriations and thus would not be affected by an annual appropriations lapse. The agency retains the discretion to determine whether employees funded by other than annual appropriations should continue to report to work when other functions funded by annual appropriations will be implementing shutdown plans. Revolving funds that operate almost entirely on offsetting collections from other Federal entities may also be forced to close, unless sufficient retained earnings are available to forestall shutdown. Certain activities could be implicitly authorized because of their connection with other operations which are mandated to continue by law or for which funds otherwise continue to be available. Plan distinctions under Category A:

→ Category A1 – funding other than annual appropriations is available to continue the function

→ Category A2 – funding is available through authorization to obligate in advance of appropriations

→ Category A3 – function is a mandated requirement

EXAMPLES (Category A3):

- Services performed by the IRS which are necessary to the Social Security Administration's carrying out certain functions, which would continue despite a lapse in appropriations
- Upcoming Tax Year forms design and printing
- Completion and testing of the upcoming Filing Year programs

Category B: Necessary for the Safety of Human Life or Protection of Property

The Budget Enforcement Act of 1990 amends Section 1342 of Title 31 to make clear that "regular, ongoing functions whose suspension would not pose an imminent threat to life and property" would not qualify as excepted activities. The risk to life or property must be real, not hypothetical, so that a delay in activities is not permissible. In particular, administrative, research, and other overhead activities supporting excepted activities should be carefully reviewed to make certain their continuance is essential to carrying out such activities.

EXAMPLES (Category B):

- Processing of electronic tax returns
- Depositing of tax remittances
- Continuing the IRS' computer operations to prevent loss of data
- Operating taxpayer service centers and call sites
- Protection of statute expiration, bankruptcy, liens and seizure cases
- Protecting Federal lands, buildings, and other property owned by the United States
- Maintaining minimum staff necessary to handle budget matters related to the lapse in appropriations
- Maintaining minimum staff necessary to perform accounting functions and to prevent the loss of accounting data
- Administering contracts
- Maintaining minimal building facilities personnel to maintain safe conditions for essential personnel

- Maintaining criminal law enforcement and undercover operations*

Category C: Necessary to transition the shutdown of operations

Agencies are authorized to obligate funds during periods of lapsed appropriations to bring about the orderly close down of non-excepted activities. Activities of employees during this period must be wholly devoted to closing down the function and upon completion these employees would be released.

Examples (Category C):

- Shutdown notification activities such as processing furlough/RIF notices
- Performing payroll functions for the period just prior to the appropriation lapse
- Completing inventories of property
- Securing and storing equipment, records, files, and work in progress

D. NON-EXCEPTED ACTIVITIES

Non-excepted activities are all activities or programs other than those designated as “excepted” above. Positions in these functions would be furloughed, where “excepted” positions would remain on duty. This could also include positions that may have to be recalled at a later date, if the furlough continues for more than a week.

EXAMPLES (non-excepted activities):

- Most Headquarters and administrative functions not related to the safety of life and protection of property
- Processing paper returns
- All audit functions and examination of returns
- Non-automated collections
- Legal counsel
- Information systems functions (except as necessary to prevent loss of data in process and revenue collections)
- All planning, research, and training and development activities

* Category B2 for purposes of this plan’s summary count

E. EMPLOYEE NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES

Treasury will receive notification from OMB if a lapse in appropriations occurs and shutdown plans are to be implemented. Treasury's Budget Director will notify the Bureau Budget Officers and the Shutdown POCs identified in the individual Bureau shutdown plans provided to Treasury's Office of Performance Budgeting.

IRS's Shutdown POC is the Deputy Commissioner for Operations Support (DCOS) or designee. In addition, our CFO and the IRS Human Capital Officer may receive notification of a pending lapse (or lapse) in appropriations. If advised, to implement our plan, the following steps will be implemented.

Step 1 - The DCOS will inform the IRS Human Capital Officer, who will notify the heads of each business unit to initiate business unit shutdown pre-planning and/or notification procedures.

If sufficient time is available, our Communication Plan will be implemented. This plan provides for a "soft" communication to all employees about the unknown state of appropriations approval and describes high level next steps. This communication would be followed by an advance communication with details about furlough and employee appeals rights. Communications would also follow concerning timekeeping procedures, budget/finance implications, etc. In addition, IRS has procedures to assure new hires who have yet to EOD will receive notice of the situation and instructions. A joint communiqué with NTEU will be released that provides employees with Questions & Answers. A decision letter would follow. Decision letters would be issued separately to SES and non-SES employees on-rolls and in pay and work status and those on AWOL and LWOP in work status. All communications advise employees to use the IRS Hotline and www.irs.gov for the agency's status on notification of a lapse in appropriations and implementation of the IRS Shutdown Plan is authorized. Communications would also inform employees when to return to work. In the event sufficient time isn't available to implement the above action plan, the IRS will call employees to give a verbal notice of a furlough using current call tree information.

Step 2 – The heads of each business unit will instruct their managers to notify and remind employees, including those on travel, in training, and on leave, whether they are designated as excepted or non-excepted. Excepted bargaining unit employees will be selected by reverse EOD where more than one employee in the same position, grade, post of duty, tour of duty and skill to perform the required except activity exists.

Step 3 – Managers will instruct all employees who are scheduled for travel or training status as to the requirements of a possible shutdown in advance of travel or training. All scheduled leave during the period of potential furlough will be canceled.

Step 4 – Managers will inform employees that no new contracts (annual appropriation funds) are to be entered into, no purchase orders are to be issued, etc.

Step 5 – Managers will remind employees who are retained during a shutdown due to a lapse in appropriations that they will be responsible for performing duties associated with shutdown activities and, more importantly, protecting human life and health, government property, and essential operations for other agencies. In addition, managers will continue to keep all employees informed of the current budget status as events change.

Step 6 - The IRS Human Capital Officer will notify the National Treasury Employees Union (NTEU) of the possibility of, or a lapse in appropriations. A copy of this Contingency Plan will be shared with NTEU.

Step 7 – Advance notice of potential furlough or furlough decision letters will be used to officially notify all employees of the shutdown. HCO in conjunction with General Legal Services (GLS) will prepare the letter content. Letters will be distributed via email. In the event of an imminent furlough, notification of shutdown will be orally communicated to employees by management. A written decision letter containing employee appeal rights will be issued after the fact.

F. SUBSTITUTION OF PERSONNEL IN THE CONTINGENCY PLAN

The heads of each business unit are authorized to make substitutions of excepted employees in this Contingency Plan, so long as the substituted personnel are performing authorized activities under the Plan. See IRS Contingency Plan, Excepted Activities.

SHUTDOWN IMPLEMENTATION

The shutdown phase begins when bureaus are notified that appropriations have lapsed and that a shutdown is to be initiated.

A. SHUTDOWN PROCEDURES

1. When a lapse occurs, except as identified, all normal operations will cease, and all further efforts will be devoted solely to closing down operations, protecting human life and health, protecting government property, and performing essential operations for outside agencies whose operations must continue. Management will determine the number of employees required to do this excepted work and this work only.
2. Routine operations already in process at the time the lapse begins should be carried forward to completion or to a point where they can safely be interrupted to avoid losing the investment in the work which has already started. The invested work is a form of government property which should be protected from loss.
 - Processing electronic tax returns.
 - Continuing computer operations to prevent the loss of data in process.
3. Employees in a travel status will be notified by management whether to return home or to continue with their off-site business.
4. Managers should advise employees who are scheduled to be on annual, sick, court, or military leave that, if a lapse in appropriations occurs while they are on leave, their leave will be canceled and they will be placed in a furlough status. According to 5 CFR, 752.402 (c), a furlough means “the placing of an employee in a temporary status without duties and pay because of lack of work or funds or other non-disciplinary reasons.”
5. As stated in “1” above, when a lapse in appropriations occurs, essential operations for outside agencies whose operations must continue are allowable. For example:
 - Those services performed by the IRS which are necessary to the Social Security Administration’s carrying out certain functions which would continue despite a lapse in appropriations.
6. When a funding lapse becomes imminent, the IRS will implement furlough procedures. The procedures will take into consideration the various categories of employees (managerial, bargaining unit, temporary, etc.). Since various appropriation lapses present their own unique sets of circumstances, it is not possible to define detailed furlough procedures to be included in these guidelines. Detailed instructions will be developed and issued when the need arises.
7. Actions necessary to transfer real and personal property will require coordination within the IRS and other agencies supporting the IRS. In some instances, because of a significant connection with other agencies, activities may be continued according to law.

8. Offices categorized as “non-excepted” will indicate that there are no exceptions from the total dismissal in shutdown situations.

REACTIVATION OF FUNCTIONS

Reactivation of functions is effected when funds are appropriated for the IRS to continue its mission. Upon this event all furloughed employees are able to return to work. Employee recall will be effected by a combination of media notification, agency call tree notification and employees checking the IRS Emergency Information Hotline for office status updates.

The IRS Human Capital Officer in conjunction with Agencywide Shared Services (AWSS) will update the IRS Emergency Information Hotline. Telephone Teletype (TTY) access is available for the hearing impaired. If telephone services are not available, a central point of contact will be established for employees to obtain information.

In most cases, employees will be alerted of the agency's funding status through media sources (television, radio, and internet). Communications & Liaison (C&L) Media Relations will provide news media notification to help facilitate coverage of reopening. Managers are encouraged to inform their employees to monitor the media for information on returning to work. Unless otherwise directed, employees are to report to work no later than four (4) hours after announcement of funding resolution if it occurs on a workday, otherwise at their regular start time on the next business day following notification of agency funding.

The agency will contact NTEU to initiate any post-implementation bargaining required.

Appeals' shutdown/restart plan requires that a minimum number of technical staff remain active in order to ensure statutory deadlines are met. Taxpayer compliance cases, when appealed, must be adjudicated within a statutory timeline that is not under the control of the IRS. If cases are not monitored, statutes may lapse resulting in adverse impacts to the IRS and US government tax collection functions.

Additional staff remaining active for Appeals maintain essential leadership or budgetary/financial control functions. Total proportion of Appeals staff active during a government shutdown will be approximately 2%.

IPM must remain operational as it is the sole source of information for key compliance systems across the enterprise and is a crucial component of all modernization efforts (CADE2 and IRDM). The Director, DSI, is the DAA for IPM and needs to be available to work any issues arising from production problems. IPM must be maintained due to the security risks and enterprise wide impact of key IRS systems. This office also supports the Business Objects Environment (BOE) which enables Modernized E-File (MeF). MeF is the primary system which allows for processing of all electronically filed tax returns and must be protected. The BOE also supports other continuing applications that must remain operational throughout a government shutdown. An exchange of information with foreign tax agencies has been agreed to and these individuals are responsible for ensuring the agreement is fulfilled.

DSI has a calling tree in place for contacting all employees. It is posted on the Business Continuity SharePoint and a copy has been distributed to all management staff.
