Message about your [Year] tax return

We're holding your refund until we finish reviewing your tax return

We've received your [REDACTED] tax return, and are reviewing it to verify:

- The income you reported on your return
- The income tax withholding amounts you reported on your return
- The claims for tax credits you made on your return
- The withholding claimed on your Social Security benefits
- The household help you claimed
- The Schedule C income you claimed

We'll hold your refund until we finish our review.

What you need to do

You do not need to take any action at this time.

We'll review your return.

Generally, we will deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons to verify information we've received. If we do contact other persons, we'll generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name. The law prohibits us from disclosing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. Our need to contact other persons may continue as long as we're reviewing your return. If we do contact other persons, you have a right to request a list of those contacted.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS. We help taxpayers whose problems with the IRS are causing financial difficulties; who have tried but have not been able to resolve their problems with the IRS; and those who believe an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should. If you believe you are eligible for TAS assistance, you can reach TAS by call the TAS toll-free number at [REDACTED] or TTY/TDD [REDACTED]. For more information, go to www.irs.gov/advocate.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITC)

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) are independent from the IRS. Some clinics serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem. These clinics provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics can provide information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities in many different languages for individuals who speak English as a second language. For more information and to find a clinic near you, see the LITC page on www.TaxpayerAdvocate.irs.gov or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. This publication is also available by calling [REDACTED] or at your local IRS office.
