Message about your 2012 Form 1040NR

We're holding your 2012 refund

We have received your 2012 tax return and are holding your refund until we complete a more thorough review. This review is part of an ongoing program the IRS conducts to ensure the accuracy of return information.

Your return was selected because you [claimed certain benefits under a tax treaty or claimed a significant amount of itemized deductions].

What you need to do

No further action is needed on your part at this time.

Next steps

Depending upon the results of our review, we'll either:

- Send you your refund within 6-12 weeks, as long as you don't owe other tax or debts we're required to collect; or
- Send you a notice with additional information and instructions within 6-12 weeks.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS. We help taxpayers whose problems with the IRS are causing financial difficulties; who have tried but have not been able to resolve their problems with the IRS; and those who believe an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should. If you believe you are eligible for TAS assistance, you can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free number at ██████████ or TTY/TDD ██████████. For more information, go to <http://www.irs.gov/advocate>.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) are independent from the IRS. Some clinics serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem. These clinics provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics can provide information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities in many different languages for individuals who speak English as a second language. For more information and to find a clinic near you, see the LITC page on www.irs.gov/advocate or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. This publication is also available by calling 1-800-829-3676 or at your local IRS office.

If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.
