Important information about your recent payment

You didn't tell us where to apply your payment

You made a payment of $100 on February 1, 2013, and we can't determine the correct form or tax year to apply it to.

Based on your account information, we applied your payment to your Form 941 for the tax period ending December 31, 2012.

What you need to do

If we applied the payment correctly, you don't need to do anything.

If we didn't apply the payment correctly, please call us at [number] or mail us the contact coupon below with the correct tax period and tax form.

When you make payments using our EFTPS system, please be sure to select the correct tax form, tax period, and payment type.
