What you need to do - continued

If you agree with the changes we made - continued

- If you haven't already received a refund check for $██████████ you should receive it within 4-6 weeks as long as you don't owe other tax or debts we're required to collect. Your refund amount may include interest. Keep in mind that any interest you receive on tax refunds is considered taxable income during the year you receive it.

If you don't agree with the changes we made

- Call ██████████ and have your account information available to review with us.
- You can also contact us by mailing the completed contact stub with any correspondence or documentation.
- If you contact us in writing within 60 days of the date of this notice, we will reverse the change we made to your account. However, if you are unable to provide us additional information that justifies the reversal and we believe the reversal is in error, we will forward your case for audit. This step gives you formal appeal rights, including the right to appeal our decision in court. After we forward your case, the audit staff will contact you within 5 to 6 weeks to fully explain the audit process and your rights.
- If you do not contact us within 60 days, you will have to file a claim for refund to dispute the change. You must submit the claim within 3 years of the date you filed the tax return, or within 2 years of the date of your last payment for this tax.
- We'll assume you agree with the information in this notice if we don't hear from you.
